SESSION OF 2003

187TH OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY

No. 19

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

The House convened at 11 a.m., e.s.t.

THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE (PATRICIA H. VANCE) PRESIDING

PRAYER

REV. ROBERT A. GRAYBILL, Chaplain of the House of Representatives, offered the following prayer:

Perhaps you can remain in silence as I offer you these words. May God hear them as our prayer this morning.

O Gracious God, we stand still for a moment in this House chamber and focus our minds upon Your Spirit that dwells among us. It is to You, O God, that we give our praise for the freedom to have different views and different perspectives on life, to express them and to share them with each other, but we need Your help to do so peacefully.

Around the world You have created, we are battling with each other, making threats and then counterthreats, taking actions to destroy, and making decisions to prevent destruction. We are Your children anxious and fearful of each other. O God, come afresh and help us to give peace a sincere chance in our world this week.

Around our great Commonwealth where William Penn instilled his hopes and dreams for Penn's Woods many years ago, we, the people of Penn's Woods, are still struggling to share responsibility for the well-being of our people, still quick to state what others should do, yet slow to step forth with what we can do. Help us, O God of grace, to give peace a chance to grow within these woods of William Penn, who once said, "Wait upon God and feel God's good presence; this will carry you through your day of business."

Around the homes of our families within our State, there are many where heartaches of life are so painful, where tragedies of life are so sad, where injustices of life are so brutal. We need Thy peace, O God. Help us to give peace a chance to heal the brokenness of our lives.

Living within a world that cries out for peace, help all of us gathered here this day to hear its cry and to be an instrument of God's peace today. Amen.

PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE

(The Pledge of Allegiance was recited by members and visitors.)

JOURNAL APPROVAL POSTPONED

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Could we please have some order in the House. Would members please take their seats. Sergeants at Arms, clear the aisles of the House, please.

The Chair recognizes the lady, Mrs. Harhart, for the purpose of a presentation.

Mrs. HARHART. We are looking for Representative Reichley. Is he here in the room? I would like him to join us up here, please.

Thank you, Madam Speaker.

Good morning, everybody.

I am here with Representative Paul Semmel and Representative Reichley, and we would like to welcome the 2002 PIAA AAAA football champion, Parkland High School football team, to Harrisburg to celebrate one of the greatest achievements a school, a coach, and a team can experience in sports, and that is winning the State championship.

The mark of a true champion is consistency, and consistency is the result of great coaching, great players, teamwork, and loyal fans in the school district.

It is our distinct pleasure to present the Parkland High School football team with a citation commemorating their spectacular season.

With me here today are superintendent Gary McCartney; principal Rich Sniscak; president of the school board Mrs. Roberta Marcus; coach Rob Melosky; team captain Michael Collins; Mike Dobil, athletic director; and the entire team. So let us give them a great round of applause. Would the team stand.

And I would like to present this citation to Principal Sniscak on behalf of myself, Representative Reichley, and Representative Semmel, and we also have citations prepared for the team, which you will receive as you leave. Okay?

It gives me great pleasure to present this citation to Principal Sniscak on behalf of the House of Representatives and Representatives Reichley and Semmel.

ARTS IN EDUCATION DAY PROGRAM

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Could we have some order in the hall of the House, please. Would members please take their seats. We are going to have people coming down the aisles, and we are going to have a collision unless members are in their seats. Would the Sergeants at Arms clear the aisles of the House, please. Could we please have some quiet in the hall of the House.

As you all know, today Pennsylvania is celebrating the eighth annual Arts in Education Day. This year's festivities are really the finest to date. Student art is everywhere in the Capitol. There are 17 performances taking place in 5 venues of the Capitol Complex. Members, staff, and visitors will hear and see some of the finest student performers in dance, instrumental, and vocal music. Additionally, hundreds of students have loaned artwork to hang in the main rotunda of the East Wing. I invite all of the members to go out and see the performances and view all of the paintings.

Arts in Education Day provides us the opportunity to consider Pennsylvania's history that has permitted artistic freedom for 300 years.

We welcome and are grateful to the young people, art educators, corporate sponsors, parents, and friends that have come to Harrisburg to help us celebrate Arts in Education Month.

A big thank-you to the students and to the educators whose encouragement and guidance have helped in developing these talented artists.

I would like to introduce some of the people who are responsible: Rick Coulter, who is chairman of the Pennsylvania Alliance for Arts Education, our major partner in this endeavor – would you please stand; thank you – Dr. Cornelia Davis from the Pittsburgh Board of Public Education; Heather Frattone, Office of Secondary Education in the School District of Philadelphia; and Nicole Reigelman, an intern in the Speaker's Office, who is this year's State coordinator of Arts Day.

And now I ask the gentleman from Allegheny County, the Honorable Dan Frankel, to be recognized to introduce the guests.

Mr. FRANKEL. Thank you, Madam Speaker.

Please join me in welcoming to the hall of the House today the Pittsburgh All-City Marching Band. The All-City Marching Band, a dream of superintendent of schools John Thompson, is a performing group comprised of some of the best musicians from the 10 city high schools. These schools include Allderdice, Brashear, Carrick, Langley, Oliver, Peabody, Perry Traditional Academy, the Pittsburgh High School for the Creative and Performing Arts, Schenley, South Vocational-Technical School, and Westinghouse. They marched in several major city parades and are scheduled for the opening of the David L. Lawrence Convention Center and the Back-to-School event on August 29 for staff, members, parents, and the community. The band will also perform at Pittsburgh's Carnegie Music Hall for the all-city spring music event.

For their performance today they will be sporting new uniforms which represent the traditional high school colors.

Music for the program, arranged by Ralph Guzzi, is a medley of patriotic songs. Directing the band is a shared responsibility of music and band teachers. Dr. James "Buster" Alston, music specialist for the district, will direct this performance. Drum majors are Rehema Barnett and Alyson Blackburn.

Again, please join me in welcoming the Pittsburgh All-City Marching Band.

(A musical program was presented by the Pittsburgh All-City Marching Band.)

The SPEAKER pro tempore. We thank the marching band for a wonderful job, and they look just splendid in their new uniforms.

Let us give them one more round of applause.

STATEMENT BY MR. MARSICO

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Dauphin County, Mr. Marsico, under unanimous consent.

Could we please have the attention of the members for Representative Marsico. Would members please take their seats.

Mr. MARSICO. Thank you, Madam Speaker.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair recognizes the gentleman, Mr. Marsico.

Mr. MARSICO. Today joining me is Katie Alfieri from my district here in Lower Paxton Township, Dauphin County.

I am going to present to her a citation from the Pennsylvania House of Representatives. If I can just have your attention, please.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Could we please have some order for the gentleman, Mr. Marsico. Would members please take their seats.

Mr. MARSICO. I am just going to read portions of the citation. Katie Alfieri, "...a four-year-old Harrisburg girl who was involved in a lawn mower accident at the age of one, will represent Pennsylvania and the millions of American children treated each year at Children's Miracle Network hospitals, during the Foresters Champions Across America program;...

"...The Children's Miracle Network, the alliance of premier children's hospitals, spotlights the heroic battles of children like Katherine with illnesses and injuries." She and her family, who have joined us today who are down here – would you stand up down there, Jock and Nadia and Kevin and Kristen; thank you – they will be going down to Washington representing Pennsylvania, and Katie is our Pennsylvania ambassador for the Children's Miracle Network to participate in media events to raise awareness of children's hospitals. How about a big hand for Katie. Smile, Katie.

Let me say also, just to let you know about Katie's experience, Katie "...will share her experience being treated at the Penn State Children's Hospital. She underwent nine operations to repair her damaged legs, and when it was time for therapy to help her learn to walk with her prosthetic, her physical therapist, also a childhood victim of a lawnmower accident, helped Katherine's family heal emotionally as she recovered physically." Today she is, as you can see, she is doing very well. She is an active and happy 4-year-old.

Again, let us congratulate and thank Katie for her positive attitude in the difficult medical conditions which she faced. Thanks again, Katie, for being here. Now you can wave.

Thank you, Madam Speaker.

McGeehan Pippy Ryan,
Speaker

The majority having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative and the amendment was agreed to.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third consideration as amended?

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Does the gentleman, Mr. George, wish to withdraw his amendment?

Mr. GEORGE. If you will allow me a moment of latitude, I would like to discuss the reason I am going to take what action I intend to take, Madam.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The gentleman, Mr. George, is recognized.

Mr. GEORGE. I do not think, Madam, neither you or I or anyone who is a part of this body are not aware of the great confusion that faces many of us through the words of our constituency, and that is that drug prices are most difficult to those on fixed income in order for them to be able to get the drugs that are needed to cure their illness. And we have heard that there are several big manufacturers that are refusing to produce the medicine and send them to Canada and other places where it is an opportunity for our citizens to be able to procure them at even half price.

So, in essence, Madam Speaker, because I do not want to hold this bill up, I am going to withdraw this amendment. I intend to be back, and I know very well Republicans and Democrats alike are waiting for answers, and I intend to have a resolution when we come back that will hopefully get your constituents and my constituents, Madam Speaker, the reason why in Pennsylvania this is such an acute problem.

Madam Speaker, I thank you for your flexibility.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The gentleman, Mr. George, withdraws his amendment.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the bill on third consideration as amended?

Bill as amended was agreed to.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. This bill has been considered on three different days and agreed to and is now on final passage.

The question is, shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeable to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays will now be taken.

Mr. FLICK. Thank you, Madam Speaker.

As everyone in the chamber will recall, yesterday we had Irish potatoes given to us by the gentleman, Mr. McGeehan, from Philadelphia, and he had a special package for the Speaker. Well, last night I delivered that box of Irish potatoes to the Speaker and had about a 25-minute conversation with Representative Ryan, Speaker Ryan, and he is feeling great, Madam Speaker. He is up, walking around. I expect he is going to be back here within a couple weeks. He was transferred to another room where they have Stairmasters and treadmills, and they are going to get him back in shape, and he will be up here good as new in a couple weeks. So I just wanted to report that.

He has been watching us, too, so we can all say "hi."

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair thanks the gentleman for that wonderful news.
