SESSION OF 2005

189TH OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY

No. 61

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

The House convened at 1 p.m., e.s.t.

THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE (MATTHEW E. BAKER) PRESIDING

PRAYER

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The prayer will be offered today by our Guest Chaplain, Rabbi Solomon Isaacson.

RABBI ISAACSON. Good afternoon, ladies and gentlemen.

A belated happy and a healthy new year to all of you and especially for those of you that were not here the last time I was here when I opened up the House and I gave out the cake. If you were not here, I apologize that you missed out on the cake. The next time you have got to check out the rabbi's schedule first.

Also, I hope nobody is listening, but when I did the opening of the Senate, I gave them a piece of cake and a dollar, the cakes being symbolic of a sweet year and the dollar symbolic of a financially successful year. But I felt, and if you will remember, the opening last month was a very precarious situation that I did not feel that it was appropriate for me to give the dollar with your cake on that day. So I hope you will understand why, nothing that I have against the House of Representatives. I did not want you to take it personally. So I just wanted to explain myself, because I have gotten some letters asking why the Senate got and I did not get. So I am explaining that. Okay? So I hope you do not mind.

However, for those of you that would really want, I did bring some dollars with me. So if you want, I will give them. I apologize. It might be God calling, but I will put him on hold. Well, at least it shows the House takes precedent. No, not really.

RABBI SOLOMON ISAACSON, Guest Chaplain of the House of Representatives, offered the following prayer:

Our Father, who is in Heaven, shield us with Your kindness and spread over us the shelter of Your peace and Your light and truth to all our leaders here in the House of Representatives and all over the United States and set them aright with good counsel from before Your presence. Give them, our God, a heritage of salvation and adorn them with a diadem of triumph and place peace in the land and eternal gladness for its inhabitants. And all the rest of the people in our great country, we call them all together and they may all be under the protection of the Almighty. Shine forth in the glorious majesty of Your might upon all the inhabitants of Your populated world, and let every creature with breath in its nostrils proclaim that the Almighty is just and always loving peace and kindness. Amen.

The holiest blessing that is found in the Bible is the blessing that is conveyed by Aaron, the high priest, as commanded to him.

(Prayer in Hebrew.)

May God bless all of you and protect you.

(Prayer in Hebrew.)

May He shine his confidence upon you.

(Prayer in Hebrew.)

May He always look upon you with kindness and goodness and with love and grant all of us peace. Amen.

RABBI ISAACSON. Thank you very much.

PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE

(The Pledge of Allegiance was recited by members and visitors.)

JOURNAL APPROVAL POSTPONED

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Without objection, the approval of the Journal of Tuesday, October 25, 2005, will be postponed until printed.

Mr. COSTA called up HR 472, PN 2856, entitled:

A Resolution declaring October 31, 2005, as “Myron Cope Day” in Pennsylvania.

On the question,
Will the House adopt the resolution?

The SPEAKER pro tempore. On that question, the gentleman, Mr. Costa, is recognized.

Mr. COSTA. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Will the gentleman suspend.

Members will please take their seats. Members will please take their seats. The gentleman, Mr. Costa, would like to be recognized.

Mr. COSTA. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

When I was a kid— Let me rephrase that. When I was younger – I am sure most of you think I am still a kid – I used to watch Myron Cope on the television when he used to do his newscast, and it is my understanding right now Mr. Cope is watching us as we speak today at his home. Myron, how are you doing?

As most of you may or may not know, Myron announced his retirement after 35 years as the Steelers’ play-by-play announcer. I was informed of this back in June when we were sitting here deliberating the budget when my son, Michael, called and informed me. He said, “Dad, I have bad news,” and I thought something was wrong. Why would he be calling me? He said, “The NFL network just announced that Myron is going to retire.” Michael, like myself, and most people in the Steeler nation, when they watch a Steeler game, we do not listen to the TV announcer; we turn the volume down on the television and listen to the comments that Myron made. Because he was such an influence on the Steeler games, he made it so much more exciting to watch listening to him, and unfortunately, we are going to miss him.

But what I would like to do today with this resolution is to honor the 35 years that Myron has served as a broadcaster for the Pittsburgh Steelers, among other things.

Most of you know what this is. This is a Terrible Towel. What you may not know is that Myron Cope was the one who invented this back in 1975. I actually remember watching the broadcast when he announced this. It was in response to the little white hankies that they used to use in Miami when the Dolphins were riding high in the seventies. But what you also may not know is the proceeds that are made from the sale of the Terrible Towel, which have been over $1 million, have been donated to the Allegheny Valley School. Allegheny Valley School is a school that takes care of the mentally and physically handicapped.

Also tonight, as you also know, the Steelers are playing the Baltimore Ravens. The Pittsburgh Steelers have also asked us to declare today as “Myron Cope Day.” They have asked all the fans to bring their Terrible Towel with them because they are going to do a salute to Myron with the flags tonight. So be sure to watch that on TV tonight.

In addition to that, Myron also received the 2005 Pro Football Hall of Fame’s Pete Rozelle Radio-Television Award. This prestigious award is given each year to recognize longtime exceptional contributions to radio and television in professional football by the NFL Hall of Fame. Also this year Myron will be receiving a radio broadcaster’s award. He is going to be receiving that in the near future, and it is my understanding he will be the first pro football announcer to receive this award.

So, Myron, for all the good you have done for me, my family, and everyone else in the Steeler nation and the good that you have brought to the Allegheny Valley School, I would appreciate if all of my colleagues would vote positive on this resolution declaring today as “Myron Cope Day” in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Thank you.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair thanks the gentleman and recognizes the gentleman, Mr. Stevenson.

Mr. T. STEVENSON. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

I would like to ask unanimous consent for this resolution. Myron lives in my district, and a lot of people do not realize, unless you get to know him, that he does have a heck of a good sense of humor and he is a warm, caring individual. He is involved with numerous humanitarian organizations, particularly if they have a twist in helping kids with disabilities, and I just ask for unanimous consent.

Thank you.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair thanks the gentleman.

SUPPLEMENTAL CALENDAR A

RESOLUTIONS PURSUANT TO RULE 35

Mr. JAMES called up HR 491, PN 2959, entitled:

A Resolution designating the week of October 29 through November 4, 2005, as "Missing Persons Awareness Week" in Pennsylvania.

On the question,
Will the House adopt the resolution?

The SPEAKER pro tempore. On that question, the gentleman, Mr. James, is recognized.

Mr. JAMES. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Natalee Holloway, Jennifer Wilbanks, Laci Peterson, Lori Hacking, Elizabeth Smart, and most recently, Taylor Behl, are all tragic cases of missing persons, cases from across the country, cases that we have all heard of. Tracey Leigh Testo, missing since March 2005, from Baltimore, Maryland; Cindy Song, missing on this date since 2001 from State College, Pennsylvania; Danielle Imbo, missing February 2005 from Philadelphia, Pennsylvania – names that are not so familiar but equally tragic.

You may remember Latoyia Figueroa, one of the most tragic, unusual missing-persons stories involving a minority victim that made the national headlines, but there was considerably less coverage for Taneke Daniels, because she, unfortunately, went missing while the nation was still engrossed in the fallout of the “runaway bride.” Taneke Daniels resided in the district of Representative Babette Josephs, while her family lives in my district, and together we are trying to increase the reward money to get information to learn of her whereabouts.

Thousands go missing every year; only a few make headlines, and I do not want to belittle any missing-person case because they are all important, but I do want to draw attention to the discrepancies in who receives national media. Race, class, gender all play a role. By not giving each case maximum attention is to demean the value of those that are not given media coverage. The media is misleading about the typical victim because more than half of the people in the FBI’s missing-persons database are men and a disproportionate amount are minorities.

I am sure we all heard of Ray Gricar, the Centre County D.A. who vanished without a trace from Bellefonte, Pennsylvania, in April, but we have not seen that investigation on CNN or Fox News every day since.

Mr. Speaker, I stand in this chamber today to ask each of you to join me in my effort to bring attention to the seriousness and the regularity of this issue. When missing-persons cases are not made known to the public, it hampers the public’s ability to assist law enforcement in offering tips or even being supportive to the friends and family of these victims.

City Councilman Juan Ramos introduced a proposal to make October 29 through November 4 “Missing Persons Awareness Week” in Philadelphia,” and I am asking you to please join me in designating this week as “Missing Persons Awareness Week” throughout the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, and I have had more than 60 members ask to be cosponsors on this HR 491. I will now ask for your affirmative vote.

Thank you.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair thanks the gentleman.

FILMING PERMISSION

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair wishes to advise the members that he has given permission to Scott Wilson of WGAL to videotape with audio.

STATEMENT BY MRS. TRUE

The SPEAKER. The Chair at this time recognizes the gentlelady from Lancaster, Mrs. True.

Mrs. TRUE. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Just a brief couple of comments and thanks to Representative Kathy Manderino, my partner in helping get this legislation here today. It has been a long time coming. I would like to thank everyone. A lot of compromise went into this bill, but it was a very necessary piece of legislation to accomplish.

I would like to briefly recognize the Dyabelkos that are to the Speaker's left. Their daughter— If you would like to just stand for just a second. We will give you another hand; we did before the summer.

They stood with us at rallies and the Coalition Against Domestic Violence. Sadly, their daughter was murdered, and this was a passion of theirs to see this legislation get passed, and I am so happy to stand here and look at you and say we got it passed, along with your help. The Senate did a good job; we had some technical amendments, and we are real pleased with how this came about.

And again I would just like to express my thanks to our leadership, to the Senate, and to the Governor's Office. I understand he is going to sign the legislation, and we could not be more pleased.

Thank you.

The SPEAKER. The Chair thanks the gentlelady.

BILL ON CONCURRENCE IN SENATE AMENDMENTS

The House proceeded to consideration of concurrence in Senate amendments to HB 1179, PN 2953, entitled:

An Act amending Title 51 (Military Affairs) of the Pennsylvania Consolidated Statutes, establishing the Military Family Relief Assistance Program and the Military Family Relief Assistance Fund.

On the question,
Will the House concur in Senate amendments?

The SPEAKER. It is moved by the gentleman, Mr. Miller, that the House do concur in the amendments inserted by the Senate.

On that question, the Chair recognizes the gentleman, Mr. George.

Mr. GEORGE. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.
 Mr. Speaker, I would encourage all to support this piece of legislation. I am a little bit disappointed in that though 1179 was passed more than 6 months ago, and there has been a total of eight bills passed that this legislature, both Republican and Democrat, wanted to help these families who have their loved ones serving this country in Iraq, unfortunately the $250,000 was ripped out in the Senate. But nevertheless, Mr. Speaker, this General Assembly, both Republican and Democrat or whatever, are Americans at the start, Pennsylvanians at the start, and we will always be here to support our service people and their families. We should all get together on this bill.

Thank you, Mr. Speaker.
 The SPEAKER. The Chair thanks the gentleman.

On the question recurring,
 Will the House concur in Senate amendments?
 The SPEAKER. Agreeable to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays will now be taken.

STATEMENT BY MR. SCAVELLO

The SPEAKER. For what purpose does the gentleman, Mr. Scavello, rise?

Mr. SCAVELLO. I would just like to comment on the bill.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman is in order.

Mr. SCAVELLO. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

I want to thank the members for their affirmative vote on HB 750.

This bill will save taxpayers' money. It is going to definitely help the legal system, and when you consider the amount of cases that go to court, this will be able to save a tremendous amount of cases, that our judges can concentrate on more important issues. And again, I want to thank each and every one of the members.

The SPEAKER. The Chair thanks the gentleman.

APPROPRIATIONS COMMITTEE MEETING

The SPEAKER. The Chair recognizes the gentleman, Mr. Feese.

Mr. FEESE. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. Speaker, at the declaration of the recess, there will be an immediate meeting of the House Appropriations Committee in the conference room.

Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. The Chair thanks the gentleman.

At the declaration of recess, there will be an immediate meeting of the Appropriations Committee in the conference room.

ANNOUNCEMENT BY MR. COHEN

The SPEAKER. For what purpose does the gentleman, Mr. Cohen, rise?

Mr. COHEN. To make an announcement, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman is in order.

Mr. COHEN. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. Speaker, at 5:30 p.m. there will be informal discussions in the House Democratic caucus room.

The SPEAKER. The Chair thanks the gentleman.

There was one more vote to be cast on the floor of the House in regular session. We are waiting for that calendar to come. We will now go into special session while we await that calendar.

RECESS

The SPEAKER. This House stands in recess until the call of the Chair.

AFTER RECESS

The time of recess having expired, the House was called to order.

THE SPEAKER (JOHN M. PERZEL)
PRESIDING*SUPPLEMENTAL CALENDAR D*RESOLUTION PURSUANT TO RULE 35

Mr. GEIST called up HR 503, PN 2993, entitled:

A Resolution honoring the life and service of Altoona Fire Captain Robert G. Gallardy and extending condolences for his death on October 25, 2005, from injuries received in the line of duty on October 23, 2005.

On the question,
Will the House adopt the resolution?

The SPEAKER. The Chair recognizes the gentleman, Mr. Geist.

The gentleman is entitled to be heard.

Mr. GEIST. Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker.

Today in Altoona, this morning, I attended one of the saddest funerals I have ever had to attend. The city of Altoona lost a fine firefighter today in Captain Gallardy's funeral. He left three fine sons, a wife, and a community that is mourning him.

I would urge a unanimous vote on this resolution, and I would ask that people remember the family in their prayers. Thank you.

The SPEAKER. The Chair thanks the gentleman.

On the question recurring,
Will the House adopt the resolution?

The following roll call was recorded:
