LEGISLATIVE JOURNAL

TUESDAY, MARCH 20, 2007

SESSION OF 2007

191ST OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY

No. 24

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

The House convened at 11 a.m., e.d.t.

THE SPEAKER (DENNIS M. O'BRIEN) PRESIDING

PRAYER

The SPEAKER. The prayer will be offered by Rev. Dorrian Schenck, guest of Representative Tom Caltagirone.

REV. DORRIAN H. SCHENCK, Guest Chaplain of the House of Representatives, offered the following prayer:

May we bow our heads.

Dear Lord, we thank and praise You for another day. We thank You that this is the day that You have made. We will rejoice and be glad in it. We give Your name praise, honor, and glory.

We ask a special blessing upon this session of the House of Representatives and their families, the Governor and his family, Lieutenant Governor and her family, and the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. Be with us, guide us, and direct us that we might have godly wisdom, knowledge, and understanding. In Your name we pray. Amen.

PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE

(The Pledge of Allegiance was recited by members and visitors.)

JOURNAL APPROVAL POSTPONED

The SPEAKER. Without objection, approval of the Journal of Monday, March 19, 2007, will be postponed until printed. The Chair hears no objection.

LOWER DAUPHIN HIGH SCHOOL GIRLS FIELD HOCKEY TEAM PRESENTED

The SPEAKER. The Chair will ask Representatives Payne and Marsico to please come to the rostrum for the purpose of presenting a citation.

Mr. PAYNE. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. Speaker, on behalf of Representatives Marsico, Hickernell, and myself, we would like to present to the Lower Dauphin Girls Field Hockey Team, who captured both the 2006 PIAA District III Class AAA Girls Field Hockey Championship and the 2006 PIAA State Class AAA Girls Field Hockey Championship, House citations in honoring their victory.

The Lower Dauphin Lady Falcons prevailed over the Mount Saint Joseph High School with a score of 2 to 1 on November 18, 2006, in Allentown to capture the Pennsylvania State title and amassed an impressive undefeated overall record of 32 wins and no losses. Thank you; 32-0.

The Lady Falcons are under the expert guidance of head coach Linda Kreiser, who will now introduce the captains and her assistant coaches.

Ms. KREISER. I would like to say it is a great honor to be here, and I thank you from the bottom of my heart.

I would like to introduce my assistant coaches. I have Kiley Strohm right here; Peggy Barton. We have Darby Fischl, who is in the back, and we have two of our captains here this year. We have Julie Barton and Taylor Weidensaul.

Thank you very much.

Mr. PAYNE. Representatives Marsico, Hickernell, and myself would also like to thank the support the team received from Principal Jeffrey Hughes and Randy Umberger, the athletic director, and last but certainly not least, the honorable Hummelstown mayor, Brad Miller. Brad.

Please give the entire team, who is in the back of the House, if you would please stand right now, a warm House of Representatives reception.

GUESTS INTRODUCED

The SPEAKER. The Chair welcomes Robin Lindsey, Tony Gilhooley, Lynn Diehl, and Mary Ann Baranowski. They are the guests of Representative Ron Marsico. They are in the back of the House. Please join me in welcoming these individuals to the House of Representatives. They are standing in the rear with the red jackets.

The Chair welcomes the Pine Grove Mennonite Church seniors group, who are the guests of Representative Tom Creighton and Representative Gordon Denlinger. They are in the balcony. Would you please rise and be recognized. Welcome to the House chamber.

NATHAN EACHUS PRESENTED

The SPEAKER. At this time we would like to ask Representative Todd Eachus to come to the rostrum to recognize his son for a very special achievement.

Mr. EACHUS. Thank you, members of the House.

I stand before you as a member of the 116th Legislative District, and today I also stand before you as a proud father.

I am joined today by our athletic director, Mr. Chris Perry; our head wrestling coach, Mr. David Shafer; my wife, Ellen, who is in the Speaker's well; and my son, Ben, who is with her as well. I am also joined with the gold medal in the 189-pound AAA weight class, my son, Nathan Eachus.

The Speaker has graced me with the Speaker's rostrum, so I will take a moment. I do not need a proclamation for this one.

I have been honored to be part of Nathan's wrestling life since he has been 6 years old, and it culminated last week at the Giant Center with the championship in the AAA 189-pound weight class against a very tough opponent from the Nazareth School District, and I wanted to really just take a moment to thank Coach Crowell and David from Nazareth for being just really good sports. It has been a tough season for them, but they were able to succeed; both of them were successful.

Nathan is a member of the Hazleton Area High School Wrestling Team and represents our first State champion in wrestling in the history of the Hazleton School District as well as the first State champion in any sport in our school district's history. So it is a proud moment for our community and our school district today to have Nate here.

His season record was 40 and 6. He is a junior in high school, so he will have another shot at a gold medal next year, God willing, and his career record is 97 and 23. He not only achieved the State championship, he was the runner-up in the Northeast Regional and he lost to Mr. Crowell, whom he beat in the final. He was the Keystone Games Champion, which took place at State College, as well as the Bethlehem Holiday Classic Champion, which is one of the toughest tournaments in the country.

Just one more moment, if I might. Nathan was quoted this week. He has realized what it means to be a public citizen this week, and I am not sure he has enjoyed it, but he was quoted in the newspaper and asked what his inspiration was, and he said that it was his brother, Benjamin, who is in the well, who was also a State qualifier. He did not make it through, but he said Ben was the reason why he was there and their work meant something.

So I wanted to thank Coach Shafer for everything he does for our boys in the Hazleton Area School District; Mr. Perry for his fine service. This is his last year. He will be retiring after 36 years as athletic director. This is his first State championship. Chris, we are proud that we could provide you with one, proud for me to be able to say that Nate Eachus is the State champion at 189 pounds.

Thank you, House.

The SPEAKER. Would Representative Thaddeus Kirkland please come to the Speaker's rostrum.

CALENDAR

The SPEAKER. Turning to today's calendar, for the information of the members, after we return this afternoon, we will take up bills on second consideration, where the members may offer amendments under the new rules.

BILLS ON SECOND CONSIDERATIONBILLS PASSED OVER

The SPEAKER. Page 1, without objection, HBs 302 and 191 are over.

BILLS ON THIRD CONSIDERATIONBILLS PASSED OVER

The SPEAKER. Page 2, all the bills on that page will go over for the day.

RESOLUTIONSRESOLUTIONS PURSUANT TO RULE 35*RESOLUTIONS PASSED OVER TEMPORARILY

The SPEAKER. All the resolutions on pages 3, 4, 5, and 6 will go over temporarily.

GUESTS INTRODUCED

The SPEAKER. We also have with us today a delegation from Adams County, the Republican Women's Organization, in the red jackets in the balcony. They are the guests of Representatives Dan Moul and Steve Nickol. Please join me in welcoming them to the House of Representatives. Please stand and be recognized.

MARQIL CHANDLER PRESENTED

The SPEAKER. The Chair recognizes Representative Thaddeus Kirkland for the purpose of introducing a very special guest.

Mr. KIRKLAND. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

First of all, to the members and to Speaker O'Brien, I want to say thank you.

As we prepare to celebrate Black history, last month, as many of you know, we were unable to do it in February because of the inclement weather, and I appreciate having this opportunity today. I appreciate the Speaker affording us this opportunity today to celebrate it in a very, very small but yet major way.

The song "Lift Every Voice and Sing" is the national anthem to African-Americans. The author of this historic piece, James Weldon Johnson, was born June 17, 1871, in Jacksonville, Florida, and in 1900 he wrote the famous poem "Lift Every Voice and Sing," and then his brother, John Rosamond Johnson, transformed the poem into a beautiful song.

In 1916 James Weldon Johnson joined the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, where he dedicated over 15 years of service. On June 26, 1938, Mr. James W. Johnson was laid to rest. A car that Johnson was riding in was struck by a train during a heavy rainstorm in Wiscasset, Maine.

Today we will continue to carry on the amazing spirit of Mr. Johnson, and every time we go to lift our voices and sing, we can remember the legacy that he left behind.

Today a 12-year-old student from Swatara Junior High School, Master Marqil Chandler, will perform the Negro national anthem, "Lift Every Voice and Sing."

Please join me in standing as this young man comes before us today.

("Lift Every Voice and Sing" was sung by Marqil Chandler.)

Mr. KIRKLAND. Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Thank you, Mr. Speaker, and thank you, members of the House.

This is one of our former employees – and maybe she is coming back – Jeannie Porter's grandson, and it is one thing to be able to sing with music; it is an even greater task to sing without, a cappella. So we thank this young man.

GUESTS INTRODUCED

The SPEAKER. Visiting with us today, seated in the gallery, are the guests of Representative Ron Waters, the Pennsylvania Federation of Democratic Women, the Yeaton chapter. Please welcome them to the hall of the House.

Ladies and gentlemen of the House, please join me in welcoming Kit Watson, the Adjutant General, Pennsylvania American Legion, from Greene County, Pennsylvania, who is the guest of the majority leader, Representative William DeWeese. Would you please rise and be recognized.

Ladies and gentlemen of the House, please welcome Melanie Walker, a 6-year pharmacy student from Temple University and an intern for the Pennsylvania House of Representatives. The Temple University School of Pharmacy, working with the House Health and Human Services Committee Republican chairman, George Kenney, has established an internship rotation program that offers hands-on, real-world participation for students to become more familiar with challenges that confront the State health policy and its impact on the pharmacy profession.

Melanie is a constituent of Representative John Taylor, living in the 177th Legislative District of Philadelphia, and will be graduating in May of this year. She is currently doing her last rotation here at the Capitol. Thank you for your hard work, and we wish you continued success in your pharmacy career. Please join me in welcoming Melanie Walker.

Thank you.

Joining us today in the House are guests of Representative Mike Fleck. Would you please join me in welcoming to the hall of the House Michael S. Keiting, Jessica Fisher, Heather Foltz. They are the students from Juniata College here for Student Lobby Day. Please join me in welcoming these young people to the House of Representatives.

LEGISLATOR FOR A DAY PROGRAM

The SPEAKER. Early each spring the Institute of Politics sponsors a Legislator for a Day program in order to provide a select group of the University of Pittsburgh undergraduate students with the opportunity to shadow a member of the General Assembly to enrich their understanding of the legislative process. Will the following individuals in the gallery please rise as I announce your name:

Katheryn Banerjee is the shadow of Representative Joe Preston.

Daron Christopher is the shadow legislator of Representative Dan Frankel.

Jessica Hughes is the shadow legislator of Representative Frank Dermody.

John Kennedy is the shadow legislator of Representative Mike Turzai.

Kristyn Stewart is the shadow legislator of Representative Jake Wheatley.

Rick VanBuren is the shadow legislator of Representative Brian Ellis.

Jeff Heiskell is the shadow legislator of Representative Paul Costa.

And Tiffany Luke is the shadow legislator of Representative Tom Tangretti.

Please welcome these young individuals to the House of Representatives.

BILL REMOVED FROM TABLE

The SPEAKER. The Chair recognizes the majority leader, who moves the following bill, HB 684, be taken from the table.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Motion was agreed to.

BILL RECOMMITTED

The SPEAKER. The Chair recognizes the majority leader, who moves the following bill, HB 684, be rereferred to the Appropriations Committee.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Motion was agreed to.

PHOTOGRAPHS TAKEN

The SPEAKER. I would ask the Sergeants at Arms to please ask all guests to leave at this time. The members will please take their seats, and we will begin taking the House photograph.

I will direct the attention of the members to Brian Foster. Brian, wave your hand so everybody knows who you are.

If you will, the Chair will now empower Brian Foster with the authority to direct the members so we can accomplish the photograph.

Mr. FOSTER. Thank you. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.
Thank you once again for allowing us this privilege to record for history your class photo, so to speak.

(Official photographs were taken.)

RESOLUTION PURSUANT TO RULE 35

Mr. DeWEESE called up HR 152, PN 984, entitled:

A Resolution recognizing the contributions made by the Pittsburgh Ballet Theatre to the culture, economic development and tourism of the Greater Pittsburgh region.

On the question,
Will the House adopt the resolution?

The SPEAKER. The Chair recognizes the majority leader, Representative DeWeese, for remarks.

Mr. DeWEESE. Just 60 seconds, Mr. Speaker.

These young athletes and performers from the Pittsburgh Ballet Theatre were active in the East Wing this morning, and Senator Pippy and myself and several of our colleagues welcomed them. They are extravagantly talented, and they are manifest evidence of why the Greater Pittsburgh region is a leader in the nation in the arts. We have a resplendent symphony orchestra, a multitalented ballet theater, a world-respected opera, and a multitude of other cultural blessings and gifts in western Pennsylvania.

So on behalf of my colleagues in Allegheny County and on behalf of the General Assembly, I would like to welcome what I think is one of the most robust economic development engines in western Pennsylvania – the arts – and as ambassadors for the arts, these young people from the Pittsburgh Ballet Theatre. Welcome to the hall of the House.

On the question recurring,
Will the House adopt the resolution?

Evans, J.

Pallone

The majority having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative and the resolution was adopted.

The SPEAKER. The House will be at ease for a moment.

We are just going to pause while the lights in the front of the House are turned off so that the cameras will be able to focus on the House business.

ANNOUNCEMENT BY MR. KIRKLAND

The SPEAKER. For what reason does the gentleman, Representative Kirkland, rise?

Mr. KIRKLAND. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Just for a brief announcement while we are at ease.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman is in order to make his announcement. He can proceed.

Mr. KIRKLAND. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Just as we end session for today, the Pennsylvania Legislative Black Caucus would like to invite members down to 60E for our soul food luncheon in remembrance of the late Senator Roxanne Jones at the end of session today.

Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. The Chair thanks the gentleman.

SUPPLEMENTAL CALENDAR B

BILL ON SECOND CONSIDERATION

The House proceeded to second consideration of HB 301, PN 342, entitled:

An Act amending Title 42 (Judiciary and Judicial Procedure) of the Pennsylvania Consolidated Statutes, further providing for subpoena.

On the question,
Will the House agree to the bill on second consideration?

The SPEAKER. The Chair recognizes Representative Mundy to make a motion to suspend the rules for the purposes of offering amendment A00237.

Ms. MUNDY. Mr. Speaker, I believe that amendment was timely filed.

The SPEAKER. The Chair corrects its announcement. The amendment was timely filed. The lady can proceed.

Ms. MUNDY. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. Speaker, this amendment deals with an issue that was raised in the committee meeting when the bill was passed. In that rare instance where it may not be—

The SPEAKER. Will the lady suspend for one second. The clerk will read a summary of the amendment.

On the question recurring,
Will the House agree to the bill on second consideration?

Ms. MUNDY offered the following amendment No. A00237:

Amend Sec. 1 (Sec. 6333), page 1, line 9, by inserting before "Upon"

(a) General rule.—

Amend Sec. 1 (Sec. 6333), page 1, lines 14 and 15, by striking out "A copy" in line 14 and all of line 15 and inserting

(b) Copy to parents, guardians and custodians.—

(1) A copy of the subpoena requiring attendance and testimony of a witness

Amend Sec. 1 (Sec. 6333), page 3, by inserting between lines 1 and 2

(2) The court may waive issuance of the copy under paragraph (1) for cause shown in a specific case.

On the question,
Will the House agree to the amendment?

The SPEAKER. The Chair apologizes. The lady can proceed.

Ms. MUNDY. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

This amendment addresses an issue that was raised in committee. In that rare instance where it may not be appropriate for the parents to be notified of the subpoena of their child who is a witness, this amendment would allow the court to waive the requirement that the parent be notified.

On the question recurring,
Will the House agree to the amendment?

The SPEAKER. For what purpose does the gentleman rise?

Mr. BARRAR. Mr. Speaker, I would like to make a motion that we use rule 62, calling for the "yeas" and "nays" to be taken, to have a recorded vote on this. Rule 62 says if two members—

The SPEAKER. Is there a second?

Mr. DENLINGER. Mr. Speaker, I would like to second that motion.

The SPEAKER. The Chair recognizes Representative Denlinger.

On the question, the Chair recognizes the gentleman, Mr. Preston.

Mr. PRESTON. If we are going to run it and do this, I would encourage then that only members who are here present in the hall of the House, that they would be able to vote, and if I notice someone who is not, I would like to be able to be recognized.

The SPEAKER. On the question, those in favor of the bill will vote "aye"; those opposed, "nay."

On the question recurring,
Will the House agree to the bill on second consideration as amended?
