SESSION OF 2009

193D OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY

No. 15

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

The House convened at 1 p.m., e.d.t.

THE SPEAKER (KEITH R. McCALL)
PRESIDING

PRAYER

The SPEAKER. The prayer will be offered today by Rev. Joel Atkinson, who is the guest of Representative Brennan.

REV. JOEL W. ATKINSON, Guest Chaplain of the House of Representatives, offered the following prayer:

I am honored to be here today. I am a priest with the Cathedral Church of the Nativity in South Bethlehem, Pennsylvania. If you notice something strange about my accent, it is because I live in the southern part of Bethlehem. And I live down there with Joe, and the strange thing about Joe is, he does not speak with a southern accent.

Let us pray:

Guide our Governor, whose glory is in all the world. We commend this nation to Your merciful care that we may be guided by Your providence and that we may dwell securely in Your peace.

Grant to the President of the United States, the Governor of this Commonwealth, the Speaker of this House, and to all in authority wisdom and strength to know and to do Your will. Fill them with the love of truth and righteousness, and make them ever mindful of their calling to serve the people in Your fear.

And, God, the fountain of wisdom, whose will is good and gracious and whose law is truth, we beseech You so to guide and bless these Representatives in this legislature in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania that they may enact such laws that shall please You in the glory of Your name and the welfare of this people.

Amen.

UPPER DUBLIN VARSITY
CHEERLEADING SQUAD PRESENTED

The SPEAKER. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Montgomery County, Representative Taylor, who makes the following presentation. The Chair invites him to the microphone.

The Chair recognizes the gentleman, Mr. Taylor.

Mr. R. TAYLOR. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

This afternoon, Representatives Josh Shapiro, Mike Gerber, Tom Murt, and I want to take a moment to recognize the Upper Dublin Varsity Cheerleading Squad.

On February 8 of this year, they won the Universal Cheer Association National High School Cheer Championship in the division of Medium Varsity for nontumbling. It is truly quite an accomplishment that these young women were able to obtain this award, not only at the State level or the regional level but at the national level.

To make it even more remarkable, this is their first year in this competition and they were able to take the nationals. So it is congratulations to them. I know not only Upper Dublin and we legislators are proud of them but the whole Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, because it is quite an accomplishment.

So I want to take a moment, and you do not want to hear me doing any cheerleading, but we do want to recognize the captains here up on stage. The senior cocaptains are Megan Taylor, Diane Kim, Rebecca Lohoefer, and Alexandra Beyda, joined by coach Amy Snyder.

So congratulations to you, and in the back of the hall is the rest of the cheerleading squad. Please stand up and be recognized.

Once again, young women, congratulations on your award. It is well deserved.

CALENDAR*RESOLUTION PURSUANT TO RULE 35

Ms. BROWN called up HR 114, PN 802, entitled:

A Resolution commemorating the 100th anniversary of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People.

On the question,
Will the House adopt the resolution?

GUESTS INTRODUCED

The SPEAKER. On that question, the Chair recognizes the gentlelady from Philadelphia, Representative Brown.

Ms. BROWN. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Today I stand here with my colleague, Kenyatta Johnson, and I am honored today to welcome to the House floor Mr. Jerry Mondersire, president of the Pennsylvania Chapter of the NAACP (National Association for the Advancement of Colored People), as well as other special guests – Mamie Parker, Jackie Jenkins, Barbara Tyler, and Dwayne and Edith Jackson and other members of the NAACP. Please join me in giving them a big round of applause.

I would like to also invite my fellow members to stand with me who are members of the NAACP. Would the members who are here who are card-carrying members of the NAACP please stand with me? Thank you.

The National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, the NAACP, is one of the nation's oldest and largest civil rights organizations. It was formed as a result of the mob-incited race riots in Springfield, Illinois, the home of Abraham Lincoln, during the summer of 1908.

Over the decades, the legal advocacy of the NAACP enabled African-Americans to be commissioned as officers in World War I, which resulted in the admission of African-American students to the University of Maryland. They also led to a reversal of the separate-but-equal doctrine that had governed access to public accommodations since the United States Supreme Court's 1896 Plessy v. Ferguson's ruling.

They also ended State-sanctioned segregated facilities in interstate travel by train and bus and, under the leadership of Special Counsel Thurgood Marshall, eliminated segregation in public schools with a victory in Brown v. Board of Education.

Past and present prominent members of the NAACP include Rosa Parks, Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., Medgar Evers, Roy Wilkins, Benjamin L. Hooks, Representative John Conyers, Representative Alphonso Deal, and Julian Bond – all pioneers in the struggle for civil, political, and economic liberty.

Since its inception in 1909, the mission of the NAACP has been to ensure political, educational, social, and economic equality for all persons and to eliminate racial discrimination and segregation through the democratic process.

Now it is my honor to introduce HR 114 to honor the NAACP and extend an appreciation for a century-long commitment to justice and equal protection under the law for all of the citizens of the United States of America. Please give them a big round of applause. Thank you.

Mr. Speaker, I turn this over to you. Thank you.

The SPEAKER. The Chair thanks the gentlelady.

On the question recurring,
Will the House adopt the resolution?

RESOLUTIONS PURSUANT TO RULE 35

Mr. SIPTROTH called up HR 133, PN 920, entitled:

A Resolution recognizing the month of March 2009 as "National Nutrition Month" in Pennsylvania.

On the question,
Will the House adopt the resolution?

The SPEAKER. On that question, the Chair recognizes the gentleman from Monroe County, Representative Siptroth.

Mr. SIPTROTH. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. Speaker, today I offer HR 133. National Nutrition Month is a nutrition education and information campaign created annually in March by the American Dietetic Association. The campaign focuses attention on the importance of making informed food choices and developing sound eating and physical activity habits.

Registered Dietician Day, which we celebrated last week, increases awareness for registered dieticians as the indispensable providers of food and nutrition services and recognizes registered dieticians for their commitment to helping people enjoy healthy lives.

Initiated in March of 1973 as a week-long event, National Nutrition Week became a month-long observance in 1980 in response to growing public interest in nutrition.

The American Dietetic Association sponsors National Nutrition Month. Its mission is to promote optimal nutrition and well-being for all people by advocating for its members.

I would ask you to support HR 133. Thank you, Mr. Speaker. The SPEAKER. The Chair thanks the gentleman.

On the question recurring,
Will the House adopt the resolution?
