LEGISLATIVE JOURNAL

SESSION OF 2010

194TH OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY

No. 15

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

The House convened at 1 p.m., e.d.t.

THE SPEAKER (KEITH R. McCALL) PRESIDING

PRAYER

The SPEAKER. The prayer today will be offered by Rev. Wilbur C. "Bill" Albright, who is the guest of Representative Day and was a former pastor in the Speaker's hometown of Summit Hill. So welcome, Reverend Albright.

REV. WILBUR C. "BILL" ALBRIGHT, Guest Chaplain of the House of Representatives, offered the following prayer:

Mr. Speaker, honorable members of the House, friends, and any guests, it is a singular honor but a challenging few moments to appear here before you for prayerful meditation. I fail in that task if first I do not thank you. I express the gratitude of the citizens of this Commonwealth for all you do and all you have in your charge.

I ask you now to join me in a time of prayer and reflection.

People are confused, frightened, and feel threatened in these days, and so we ask our creator that You would empower us through Your many names since You call us to be a one people living in this place and time. Make all of us responsive to and responsible for one another in these difficult days. Make us dedicated to shaping a vision for making of this world and this State a better place for those who come before us, that they know they follow a proud example.

Sustain us, Jehovah, God, who is in all times and places. Keep us steadfast in our commitment, open to the validity of all options in resolving the issues coming before us, honest in our dealings with one another, especially in the knowledge that we are accountable for all we say and do, both for the people who have entrusted these Representatives to serve in this body, and to You, our creator, give all serving Your strength and Your shalom. Remember this is Your time, Your world, and we but live in this world to serve. It is therefore to You we pray. Amen.

ST. JOHN BOSCO ELEMENTARY SCHOOL STUDENTS INTRODUCED

The SPEAKER. For what purpose does the gentleman from Montgomery County, Representative Murt, rise?

Mr. MURT. Mr. Speaker, I would like to welcome students from my alma mater, St. John Bosco Elementary School, from Hatboro, Pennsylvania. They are sitting in the gallery. This is a special visit, Mr. Speaker, because this is the final year that St. John Bosco School will be open, and I would like to welcome them to the House of Representatives, and I would ask everyone to give them a warm welcome. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. The Chair thanks the gentleman.

Welcome to the hall of the House. Will the guests please rise. Welcome to the hall of the House.

RON JONES INTRODUCED

The SPEAKER. We have a number of presentations, and the Speaker would like to recognize and welcome to the hall of the House, in the back of the House, a group of individuals, but in particular Ron Jones. He has been married to his wife, Cathy, for 42 years, and they have eight children. Ron is a United States Vietnam veteran. He was awarded a Purple Heart and Army Commendation of Valor Medal. He was also activated in Operation Desert Storm and retired from the Army in 1996. Ron has also served his community as a firefighter with Aston-Beechwood Fire Company in Aston Township. He has served in numerous positions within the fire company for the past 34 years and has been awarded a life membership. Ron also serves on the Aston Township Planning Board and has been named the Aston Township "Person of the Year." He is the guest of Representative Barrar.

STATEMENT BY MR. BARRAR

The SPEAKER. The Speaker would like to recognize Representative Barrar under unanimous consent. Without objection, the unanimous consent will be authorized.

Mr. BARRAR. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

I invited Ron Jones and his family up here today to present him with a flag flown over the Capitol in his honor. Ron has been a lifelong firefighter in Aston Township, a Vietnam vet, and he exemplifies everything that is great about the communities that we live in here in Pennsylvania.

But really, I wanted to invite him here – Ron is in the fight of his life with an illness – and I wanted to invite him here today to say thank you, on behalf of all the people of this Commonwealth, for his service to our Commonwealth, his community, and his country and thank him. Thank you, Mr. Jones.

EMMAUS HIGH SCHOOL GIRLS CROSS COUNTRY TEAM PRESENTED

The SPEAKER. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Lehigh County, Representative Reichley, for the purpose of a presentation. Joining Representative Reichley is Representative Karen Beyer from Northampton County.

Mr. REICHLEY. Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker.

Ladies and gentlemen of the House, Representative Beyer and I are very honored to present to you for the third year in a row the PIAA State AAA Girls Cross Country Champions from Emmaus High School. And I do appreciate the members' attention to this because Representative Beyer and I are very proud of these young ladies who have so distinguished themselves with their athletic accomplishments. The Emmaus High School Girls Cross Country Team is here for the fourth year in a row. Four years ago they were the first runners-up, but now they have demonstrated their great tenacity, their skill, their endurance, and their dedication to these championships by winning this for the third year in a row.

Representative Beyer and I are joined up here on the dais by Amanda Faust, Brianna Faust, Christina Faust, and Kelsey Coates, and yes, the Faust girls are triplets. They are all sisters and they are all going to Quinnipiac. So anybody attending other universities should be prepared to lose in your girls cross-country races at the collegiate level. We are also joined by their teammates, Lydia Brough, Kelli Steinert, and Megan Smolinski, who are in the back of the House, along with head coach Dan Wessner and assistant coach Doug Finley. Would you all please rise, and please recognize these young ladies for their wonderful athletic accomplishments. Thank you very much.

CLAIRTON HIGH SCHOOL FOOTBALL TEAM PRESENTED

The SPEAKER. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Allegheny County, Representative Levdansky, for the purpose of a presentation.

Mr. LEVDANSKY. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. Speaker and members of the House, on December 18 of 2009 history was made in Clairton, Pennsylvania, when the Clairton Bears Football Team brought home the Class A PIAA Football Championship. After handing my good friend, Representative Barbin's home team of Bishop McCort a 15-to-3 defeat, the Bears made history by defeating 15 teams throughout their most successful season ever. Coach Monch was certainly looking down from above with a smile on his face when the Bears won their last defensive struggle of the season.

Today we are here to honor the Clairton Bears Football Team for their athletic prowess, but I also want to acknowledge the school's academic success as well. The students of the Clairton School District have made tremendous progress since the challenges that have been posed statewide with the No Child Left Behind law. In both 2008 and 2009, the district met their AYP (adequate yearly progress) goals as well as its attendance and graduation targets. I am proud to represent the city of Clairton in the Pennsylvania House of Representatives and ask you to join me in recognizing both the athletic and academic success of the Clairton Bears Football Team.

Mr. Speaker, I also want to point out that this team, the Clairton Bears, have won three of the last four WPIAL League Championships. This year marked their second appearance in the State championship football game. They came up just a little bit short the year before, but I happen to think that that just whetted their appetite and their determination to make this year a victorious one.

This team is only the third team in Pennsylvania history to score over 600 points 2 years in a row, and this year this team – and this is the definition of a shutdown defense, if I ever heard one – in 16 games their opponents did not score 1 point in 8 of the 16 games. The average score for this team this year was the Bears 41 and their opponents 4, and again, they pitched a goose egg in 8 of the 16 victories. This 2009 team was obviously first in team defense overall in the State.

I am joined here today by the wonderful strong coach, Coach Tom Nola. Also joining us today in the rear of the floor are the defensive coordinator, Mike LeDonne; the athletic director, Tony Ferrare. Up here in the front is the principal of the high school, Debra Maurizio; also the players behind me, Kevin Weatherspoon is the wide receiver – these are the cocaptains of the Bears – Chanze James cannot be with us today, but we are joined by Kevin Weatherspoon, the wide receiver and defensive back; Deontae Howard, who is an outstanding running back for the Bears; and Ed Ball, who is an outstanding linebacker for the Clairton Bears.

So again, I want to congratulate this team and this school not just for their outstanding athletic accomplishments but their continued improvements on the academic front as well.

The SPEAKER. Congratulations. Will the guests in the back of the House please rise. Congratulations.

On the question,
Will the House agree to the bill on second consideration?

The SPEAKER. On the question, the Chair recognizes the gentleman from Berks County, Representative Caltagirone. The gentleman is withdrawing the amendment? The Chair thanks the gentleman.

The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Allegheny County, Representative Levdansky. Is the gentleman, Representative Levdansky, withdrawing his amendment? The Chair thanks the gentleman.

On the question recurring,
Will the House agree to the bill on second consideration?

The SPEAKER. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Delaware County, Representative Vitali, who offers amendment A05946.

Mr. VITALI. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

What this amendment would do would be to insert language at the end of the budget to establish a moratorium on the leasing of any more State forest land for gas drilling. It obviously would only become effective when the budget is effective, so it would not affect any proposed leasing which may occur in the next months.

The purpose of this amendment, Mr. Speaker, is to prevent the continued use of our State forest lands as a cash cow to fund the budget, to prevent the industrialization, as it were, of our State forests. This is a heritage that we really want to pass on to our children in its current state.

I am not sure if everyone knows this, but right now 692,000 acres of our State forest land is subject to Marcellus drilling. That is a lot of drilling. We do not really know what the impact of all that drilling is going to be on, once the drilling starts and once the thousands of wells come online, what the impact is going to be on local water quality and on the character of the forests, on the fragile ecosystems. We have leased I believe what we responsibly can.

I believe this is a good amendment, but at this point, Mr. Speaker, after discussions with leadership, after listening to the thoughts of my colleagues in caucus, after discussing some constitutional issues relating to this, although I commit steadfastly to maintaining my efforts to secure moratorium legislation, I am going to withdraw this amendment at this time.

The SPEAKER. The Chair thanks the gentleman.

On the question recurring,
Will the House agree to the bill on second consideration?

Mr. VITALI offered the following amendment No. A06045:

Amend Bill, page 58, line 6, by striking out all of said line and inserting

State appropriation	5,114,130,000

On the question,
Will the House agree to the amendment?

AMENDMENT WITHDRAWN

The SPEAKER. On the amendment, the Chair recognizes the gentleman from Delaware County, Representative Vitali.

Mr. VITALI. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

That will also be withdrawn.

The SPEAKER. The Chair thanks the gentleman.

On the question recurring,
Will the House agree to the bill on second consideration?

Mr. VITALI offered the following amendment No. A05959:

Amend Bill, page 9, by inserting between lines 14 and 15 "Sever" or "severance." The extraction or other removal of natural gas from the soil or water of this Commonwealth.

"Stripper well." A producing site or a nonproducing site that is not capable of producing and does not produce more than 60,000 cubic feet of natural gas per day.

"Unit." A thousand cubic feet of natural gas measured at the wellhead at a temperature of 60 degrees Fahrenheit and an absolute pressure of 14.73 pounds per square inch in accordance with American Gas Association Standards and according to Boyle's law for the measurement of gas under varying pressures with deviations as follows:

(1) The average absolute atmospheric pressure shall be assumed to be 14.4 pounds to the square inch, regardless of elevation or location of point of delivery above sea level or variations in atmospheric pressure from time to time.

(2) The temperature of the gas passing the meters shall be determined by the continuous use of a recording thermometer installed to properly record the temperature of gas flowing through the meters. The arithmetic average of the temperature recorded each 24-hour day shall be used in computing gas volumes. If a recording thermometer is not installed, or if installed and not operating properly, an average flowing temperature of 60 degrees Fahrenheit shall be used in computing gas volume.

(3) The specific gravity of the gas shall be determined annually by tests made by the use of an Edwards or Acme gravity balance, or at intervals as found necessary in practice. Specific gravity determinations shall be used in computing gas volumes.

(4) The deviation of the natural gas from Boyle's law shall be determined by annual tests or at other shorter intervals as found necessary in practice. The apparatus and method used in making the test shall be in accordance with recommendations of the National Bureau of Standards or Report No. 3 of the Gas Measurement Committee of the American Gas Association, or amendments to the Standards or Report. The results of the tests shall be used in computing the volume of gas delivered under this article.

Amend Bill, page 194, lines 26 and 27, by striking out all of said lines and inserting

Section 2001. Implementation legislation.—Upon enactment of a natural gas severance tax imposed at the rate of 5% of the gross value of units severed at wellheads during a calendar month, plus 4.7¢ per unit severed, but not imposed on units severed from a stripper well, the following apply:

(1) The Secretary of the Commonwealth shall submit notice of the enactment to the Legislative Reference Bureau for publication in the Pennsylvania Bulletin.

(2) Upon receipt of the notice under paragraph (1), the bureau shall file the notice for public inspection without regard to 1 Pa. Code §§ 13.55 (relating to filing for public inspection) and 13.74 (relating to effectiveness prior to publication).

Section 2002. Effective date.—This act shall take effect as follows:

(1) The following provisions shall take effect immediately:

(i) Section 2001.

(ii) This section.

(2) The remainder of this act shall take effect upon the date of filing of the notice for public inspection under section 2001(2).

On the question,
Will the House agree to the amendment?

AMENDMENT WITHDRAWN

The SPEAKER. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Delaware County, Representative Vitali.

Mr. VITALI. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

What this amendment does is makes the passage of this budget contingent upon the enactment of a severance tax in an amount exactly as the Governor proposed last year. Mr. Speaker, the purpose of this amendment is to ensure that before we pass this budget, we have raised moneys in a responsible way to pay for that budget.

Mr. Speaker, as mentioned before, I am very concerned about the use of our State forests as a cash cow to fund this budget. The more appropriate way to make up that revenue and other needed revenues is through a severance tax on natural gas drilling. Mr. Speaker, the events have shown that the gas industry can well afford this severance tax. As events have developed, it has become apparent that the value of this leased land, this Marcellus leased land, for drilling is enormously valuable. One company's leasehold assets were purchased by ExxonMobil for the equivalent of $41 billion. This is not an industry, a fledgling industry, nor an industry that cannot afford to do its fair share.

Mr. Speaker, I believe that good public policy dictates that a severance tax be enacted. It is only fair; it is only right. It is a good source of revenue, but, Mr. Speaker, I am not convinced that based on discussions with the Speaker, with my colleagues, and based on representations that they will continue to support legislation like this, I do not think today is the day to have this vote. So therefore, I will be withdrawing both this amendment and a very similar amendment, amendment 5987.

The SPEAKER. The Chair thanks the gentleman.

On the question recurring,
Will the House agree to the bill on second consideration?

The SPEAKER. Is the gentleman, Representative Vitali, offering amendment 5989?

Mr. VITALI. That will be withdrawn.

The SPEAKER. The Chair thanks the gentleman.

On the question recurring,
Will the House agree to the bill on second consideration?
Bill was agreed to.

An Act providing for the capital budget for the fiscal year 2010-2011; itemizing public improvement projects, furniture and equipment projects, transportation assistance projects, redevelopment assistance capital projects, flood control projects, Keystone Recreation, Park and Conservation Fund projects, Environmental Stewardship Fund projects, State forestry bridge projects, General Fund current revenue projects, State ATV/Snowmobile Fund projects and State transportation enhancement funds projects to be constructed or acquired or assisted by the Department of General Services, the Department of Community and Economic Development, the Department of Conservation and Natural Resources, or the Department of Transportation, together with their estimated financial costs; authorizing the incurring of debt without the approval of the electors for the purpose of financing the projects to be constructed, acquired or assisted by the Department of General Services, the Department of Community and Economic Development, the Department of Conservation and Natural Resources, the Department of Environmental Protection or the Department of Transportation; stating the estimated useful life of the projects; providing an exemption; providing for limitation on certain capital projects; and making appropriations.

Bill was agreed to.

DECISION OF CHAIR RESCINDED

The SPEAKER. Without objection, the Chair rescinds that the bill has been agreed to.

On the question recurring,
Will the House agree to the bill on third consideration?

The SPEAKER. There are two substantive amendments filed to this bill on third consideration by the gentleman from Philadelphia County, Representative Thomas. Does the gentleman wish to suspend the rules to offer the amendments?

Mr. THOMAS. Mr. Speaker, I am going to withdraw. The Appropriations Committee and the majority leader are working all of that out. Thank you.

The SPEAKER. The Chair thanks the gentleman.

On the question recurring,
Will the House agree to the bill on third consideration?
Bill was agreed to.

The SPEAKER. This bill has been considered on three different days and agreed to and is now on final passage.

(Bill analysis was read.)

The SPEAKER. The question is, shall the bill pass finally?

On that question, the Chair recognizes the gentleman from Allegheny County, Representative Turzai.

Mr. TURZAI. Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker.

I would urge the members to please vote "no" on HB 2291. This is the bill that increases the debt limit with respect to the RCAP (Redevelopment Assistance Capital Program).

If I might just question the maker of the bill for a second just to clarify that I have the right bill?

The SPEAKER. The gentleman, Representative Evans, indicates he will stand for interrogation. The gentleman is in order and may proceed.

Will the gentleman yield. Will the gentleman yield.

The House will come to order.

Mr. TURZAI. Mr. Speaker, I withdraw that; I apologize. It had been indicated that it was actually the debt limit bill, that it was back on third consideration. My understanding is this is an itemization of projects. So I do apologize. I withdraw the interrogation.

The SPEAKER. The Chair thanks the gentleman.

On the question recurring,
Shall the bill pass finally?

The SPEAKER. Agreeable to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays will now be taken.

(Members proceeded to vote.)

LEAVE OF ABSENCE

The SPEAKER. Turning to leaves of absence, the Chair recognizes the gentleman from Allegheny County, Representative Dermody, the majority whip, who requests a leave of absence for the gentleman from Greene County, Representative DeWEESE, for the remainder of the day. Without objection, the leave will be granted.

WOMEN'S HISTORY MONTH

REMARKS BY SPEAKER

The SPEAKER. Today in our chamber we have some very, very special individuals, and they are not guests of the House, as some of you may expect, but some of our fellow legislators who serve beside us every single day.

Shortly I will be calling up HR 700, which declares and recognizes the month of March 2010 as "National Women's History Month" in Pennsylvania, and today we celebrate by recognizing the women of the Pennsylvania House of Representatives.

Nationally, this year marks the 30th anniversary of Women's History Month observances, and to highlight the work of women throughout our history, many of whom never had their stories told in any of our history books, the theme is "Writing Women Back into History." And our goal today is to recognize that even more women who are acknowledged in our history are often left out of texts and conversations about the great history of the Pennsylvania House of Representatives.

This session there are 27 women who currently serve as State Representatives in Pennsylvania. Nationally, there are 1, 797 women elected to serve State legislatures. These women are part of the generation which helped change the stereotype that men run our government. Through their hard work and dedication to their constituents, the women that we are honoring today provide role models to all our young women and future leaders of Pennsylvania.

American women, including Pennsylvania women, have been leaders not only in securing their own rights of suffrage, but also in the abolitionist movement, the emancipation movement, the suffrage movement, the labor movement, and the civil and equal rights movements. Their work, like that of women serving in the House today, has created a more fair and just society for all people.

So in keeping with the theme of the month, some of the women have shared with us the inspirational stories of women who influenced them. You can find these stories in the commemorative booklet that each of you will receive, and you will receive those in your mailboxes hopefully today or on Friday. So through recognizing the women who have inspired our legislators, we will be writing these women into a history today and each and every day that they serve this House.

I will ask all the members to hold their applause, but I am going to ask each of the ladies of the House to stand and remain standing when I call your names: Karen Beyer from Lehigh and Northampton Counties; Louise Williams Bishop, Philadelphia County; Karen Boback, Columbia, Luzerne, and Wyoming Counties; Michele Brooks, Crawford, Lawrence, and Mercer Counties; Vanessa Lowery Brown, Philadelphia County; Sheryl Delozier, Cumberland County; Mauree Gingrich, Lebanon County; Julie Harhart, Lehigh and Northampton Counties; Kate Harper, Montgomery County; Susan Helm, Dauphin County; Babette Josephs, Philadelphia County; Deberah Kula, Fayette and Westmoreland Counties; Sandra Major, Susquehanna, Wayne, and Wyoming Counties; Kathy Manderino, Montgomery and Philadelphia Counties; Jennifer Mann, Lehigh County; Barbara McIlvaine Smith, Chester County; Phyllis Mundy, Luzerne County; Donna Oberlander, Armstrong and Clarion Counties; Cherele Parker, Philadelphia County; Tina Pickett, Bradford, Sullivan, and Susquehanna Counties; Marguerite Quinn, Bucks County; Kathy Rapp, Forest, McKean, and Warren Counties; RoseMarie Swanger, Lebanon County; Katie True, Lancaster County; Chelsa Wagner, Allegheny County; Katharine Watson, Bucks County; and Rosita Youngblood, Philadelphia County.

Please join me in recognizing the talent and ingenuity of the women of the Pennsylvania House of Representatives.
