LEGISLATIVE JOURNAL

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 24, 2010

SESSION OF 2010

194TH OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY

No. 17

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

The House convened at 11 a.m., e.d.t.

THE SPEAKER ( KEITH R. McCALL) PRESIDING

PRAYER

The SPEAKER. The prayer will be offered by Rabbi Howard Cove, who is a guest of Representative Santarsiero.

RABBI HOWARD COVE, Guest Chaplain of the House of Representatives, offered the following prayer:

Dear God, we ask Your blessings upon the Representatives of the Pennsylvania House to lead and serve our Commonwealth. As they perform their duties, keep them ever mindful of the high purposes on which they have sought office. Help them to be faithful heirs to those who have preceded them and worthy predecessors of those who will yet follow.

May their actions reflect strength and wisdom and bear testimony to the heritage which they represent. As our elected State officers strive to achieve their goals, may they help to inspire us, the citizens of Pennsylvania, to carry out faithfully our responsibilities. Grant our leaders strength when they are weary, hope when they are discouraged, patience and perseverance when they face any obstacle.

We ask for Your protection, dear God, and guidance for all who devote themselves to the common good, working for justice and peace at home and around our country. We lift up all our duly elected leaders and public servants; those who serve as our Governor, legislators, and judges. We pray that those who are given the privilege and responsibility of leadership find within themselves the humility and the goodness to continually be aware and be responsive to the will of those whom they represent.

And, dear God, may all who represent the citizens of Pennsylvania and us, the citizens ourselves, may we continue to live the hopes and the dream of William Penn, who said "...and my God will make it the seed of a nation. That an example may be set up to the nations. That we may do the thing that is truly wise and just."

(Prayer in Hebrew.)

May God bless us and keep us strong.

(Prayer in Hebrew.)

May God 's light shine upon us and be good to us.

(Prayer in Hebrew.)

May God grant us all and our loved ones health, peace, and unity. And let us say amen.

Mr. GERGELY. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

And I just want to briefly thank the chamber for their support for the bill for industrial partnerships. I want to recognize both Chairman Belfanti and Chairman DiGirolamo. This was a very good bipartisan effort. We have had 6,300 businesses take advantage of this program and over 70,000 employees. It is great to see this go to the Senate and hopefully become a law and have this for great job creation efforts in the future.

Again, thank you.

The SPEAKER. The Chair thanks the gentleman.

2010 SPRING SEMESTER LEGISLATIVE FELLOWS INTRODUCED

The SPEAKER. At this time I would like to introduce to the House members our legislative fellows. The Legislative Fellowship Program, sponsored by the House of Representatives through the Bipartisan Management Committee and the Office of the Chief Clerk, has six students from three different schools participating in this spring's 2010 semester program, which runs 13 weeks.

The legislative fellows are assigned to either a committee chairman or leadership office. The final requirement necessary to complete the fellowship is that each intern must create, research, and present an original piece of legislation, complete with oral defense, before an audience of friends, professors, House staff, and members.

The final presentations are scheduled for April 16, and hopefully many of the members will be able to attend those presentations. For your information, to date, over 325 students have successfully completed this program and many of them are currently working in the House, the Senate, and the Governor's Office.

We welcome to the hall of the House today six fellows who began their internship in January. They are seated to the left of the rostrum, and I will ask each to stand and remain standing as I introduce our fellows.

Keith Donnelly is a student from Pittsburgh. He attends Penn State University. He is assigned to the Republican Insurance Committee under Representative Micozzie and supervised by Kathy McCormac.

John Helmy is a student from Lancaster, PA. He is attending Penn State Harrisburg, assigned to the Office of Majority Caucus Chairman under Representative Cohen and supervised by Mike Cassidy. I should add that John joined the U.S. Army. He was assigned to the 137th Armored Battalion, 1st Armored Division out of Friedberg, Germany. He served more than 3 years as an active-duty unit supply specialist and Arabic linguist in Germany, Kuwait, and Iraq.

Shawn Mast, a student from Manheim, Pennsylvania. He is attending Franklin and Marshall College. He is assigned to the Republican Consumer Affairs Committee under Representative Godshall and supervised by Colin Fitzsimmons.

Weilu Tan, a student from Wexford, PA. She is attending the University of Pittsburgh, assigned to the Democratic Education Committee under Representative Roebuck and is supervised by Chris Wakeley.

Nicole Wilbourn, a student from Millersville, Pennsylvania, attending Penn State Harrisburg, assigned to Republican Veterans Affairs and Emergency Preparedness Committee under Representative Fairchild and supervised by Rick O'Leary.

Kristin O'Brassill-Kulfan – I hope I said that right, Kristin. She is a third-year student from Millersville University who is currently part of the House Archives Internship Program. Kristin helps maintain the records by processing and cataloging committee records, personal papers of former members, and other House agency records.

Please give our fellows a warm welcome.

Also seated with them is the program's coordinator for the House of Representatives, Ray Whittaker, and Jesse Teitelbaum of the Archives and Records Center. Will the guests rise. Also, welcome.

STATEMENT BY MR. ROEBUCK

The SPEAKER. For what purpose does the gentleman from Philadelphia, Representative Roebuck, rise?

Mr. ROEBUCK. Thank you, Mr. Speaker. On unanimous consent.

The SPEAKER. Without objection, the gentleman will be granted unanimous consent.

Mr. ROEBUCK. We have just introduced the interns. I wanted just to make special note of one of those interns, and that is Weilu Tan, who has worked with my staff, and note that she is attending the University of Pittsburgh, but on last Friday she became a United States citizen. I think that, certainly, she deserves recognition for that accomplishment.

GREEK INDEPENDENCE DAY

REMARKS BY SPEAKER

The SPEAKER. We have some special guests in the House today who are here to share their heritage as well as their love of family, the community, and the country.

I ask that we take a moment to recognize a special group of Pennsylvanians and share in their celebration of Greek Independence Day. It was 189 years ago on March 25 that a bishop stood up in a monastery in the mountains, raised the Greek flag, declared independence, and began the arduous task of restoring democracy to its birthplace.

It was the ancient Greeks who developed democracy, in which the power to govern was vested in the people. The Founding Fathers of the United States of America drew upon experience and philosophy of ancient Greece in forming our representative democracy. Beyond their earliest contributions, historically there has been a close bond between Greece and the United States as we work to promote freedom, democracy, peace, stability, and human rights.

We are fortunate that America has become home to some 3 million proud Greek Americans, who regularly contribute to the cultural fabric and economy of our great nation. It is an honor to be part of the celebration of Greek Independence Day, which was first declared in 1821. In honor of the observance, we are displaying the Greek flag in the rotunda, and I have the privilege of introducing some local Greek churches and organizations that traveled to Harrisburg to celebrate this special occasion.

GUESTS INTRODUCED

The SPEAKER. Please join me in giving a warm welcome to the following individuals who are seated to the left of the rostrum:

Father Kosta Petrogeorge – please rise, Father – who is the dean at Holy Trinity Greek Orthodox Cathedral in Camp Hill.

Tom Paparoidamis, from Camp Hill and a member of Holy Trinity Greek Orthodox Cathedral in Camp Hill. Many of you know him from the Tavern on the Hill more than that.

George Ioannidis, from Lancaster and a member of the Annunciation Greek Orthodox Church, Lancaster.

Seated in the rear of the House – the guests will please rise – are students, teachers, and members of Holy Trinity Greek Orthodox Cathedral parish. Welcome to the hall of the House.

Mr. PHILLIPS called up HR 671, PN 3297, entitled:

A Resolution strongly supporting routine influenza vaccination for health care workers who have direct patient contact.

On the question,
Will the House adopt the resolution?

The SPEAKER. On the resolution, the Chair recognizes the gentleman from Northumberland County, Representative Phillips.

Mr. PHILLIPS. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Today I rise to offer HR 671 and ask my colleagues for unanimous support. This resolution seeks to make Pennsylvania families healthier by strongly supporting routine influenza vaccinations for health-care workers who have direct patient contact.

As we all know, when a family member contracts the flu virus, other family members are at risk. When someone within the workplace gets sick, the illness can often be transmitted to other coworkers. This is especially true within health-care facilities. Whether we are referring to a hospital, doctor's office, community clinic, assisted living facility, or nursing home, I believe there is an inherent responsibility to ensure that health-care workers are protected as best as possible from contracting illnesses like the flu.

Mr. Speaker, a study conducted by the University of Virginia Health System showed that when health-care workers' vaccination rates increased from 4 percent in 1987 through 1988 to 67 percent in 1999 through 2000, the proportion of hospital-acquired influenza cases declined significantly among both employees and patients. Unfortunately, flu vaccination coverage among health-care workers remains low despite the documented benefits of health-care workers' vaccination on patient outcomes, reducing influenza infection among staff and reducing health-care worker absenteeism.

If we can protect these workers, it also helps protect patients and, thereby, helps prevent the spread of illness. Not only will that translate into healthier workers and workplaces but reduced health-care costs. Those are the things that I think we can all support.

Thank you, Mr. Speaker, for the opportunity to say a few words, and I ask members for unanimous support of this resolution.

The SPEAKER. The Chair thanks the gentleman.

Will the House adopt the resolution?
