LEGISLATIVE JOURNAL

SESSION OF 2013

197TH OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY

No. 16

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

The House convened at 11 a.m., e.d.t.

THE SPEAKER (SAMUEL H. SMITH) PRESIDING

PRAYER

HON. MATTHEW E. BAKER, member of the House of Representatives, offered the following prayer:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker.
Good morning, everyone.

Abraham Lincoln said, "I have been driven many times to my knees by the overwhelming conviction that I had nowhere else to go. My own wisdom, and that of all about me, seemed insufficient for the day."

Billy Graham said, "Prayer is the rope that pulls God and man together. But, it doesn't pull God down to us: it pulls us up to Him."

Abraham Joshua Heschel, American Jewish theologian, said, "In prayer we shift the center of living from self-consciousness to self-surrender."

Benjamin Franklin said, "Work as if you were to live a hundred years. Pray as if you were to die tomorrow."

And Mother Teresa said, "The fruit of silence is prayer. The fruit of prayer is faith. The fruit of faith is love. The fruit of love is service. The fruit of service is peace."

Thank you all for your service.

I am going to quote the prayer this morning from George Washington's prayer journal, and I will quote it verbatim.

Let us pray:

"Almighty God, and most merciful father, who didst command the children of Israel to offer a daily sacrifice to thee, that thereby they might glorify and praise thee for thy protection both night and day, receive, O Lord, my morning sacrifice which I now offer up to thee; I yield thee humble and hearty thanks that thou has preserved me from the danger of the night past, and brought me to the light of day, and the comforts thereof, a day which is consecrated to thine own service and for thine own honor. Let my heart, therefore, Gracious God, be so affected with the glory and majesty of it, that I may not do mine own works, but wait on thee, and discharge those weighty duties thou requirest of me, and since thou art a God of pure eyes, and wilt be sanctified in all who draw near unto thee, who doest not regard the sacrifice of fools, nor hear sinners who tread in thy courts, pardon, I beseech thee, my sins, remove them from thy presence, as far as the east is from the west, and accept of me for the merits of thy son Jesus Christ, that when I come into thy temple, and compass thine altar, my prayers may come before thee as incense; and as thou wouldst hear me calling upon thee in my prayers, so give me grace to hear thee calling on me in thy word, that it may be wisdom, righteousness, reconciliation and peace to the saving of the soul in the day of the Lord Jesus. Grant that I may hear it with reverence, receive it with meekness, mingle it with faith, and that it may accomplish in me, Gracious God, the good work for which thou has sent it. Bless my family, kindred, friends and country, be our God and guide this day and for ever for his sake, who lay down in the Grave and arose again for us, Jesus Christ our Lord, Amen."

PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE

(The Pledge of Allegiance was recited by members and visitors.)

STATEMENT BY MS. MUNDY

The SPEAKER. The Speaker recognizes the lady from Luzerne County, Ms. Mundy, under unanimous consent relative to one of the resolutions just adopted.

Ms. MUNDY. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. Speaker, could I have a little order, please?

The SPEAKER. How is that?

Ms. MUNDY. Very nice, thank you.

Mr. Speaker, HR 120 designates March as "Deep Vein Thrombosis Awareness Month" in Pennsylvania. Deep vein thrombosis, or DVT, is a serious but preventable medical condition whereby a blood clot forms in a large vein, usually in the lower limbs, leading to either partially or completely blocked circulation. It may be caused by a variety of factors and triggering events, including cancer, obesity or restricted mobility due to major surgery, acute medical illness, or respiratory failure.

DVT symptoms may include tenderness or pain in the leg, along with swelling and discoloration or redness. The condition may ultimately result in a pulmonary embolism, which occurs when a blood clot breaks loose from the wall of the vein and moves to the lungs, where it blocks the pulmonary artery or one of its branches. Signs and symptoms of pulmonary embolism include shortness of breath, chest pain, coughing or coughing up blood, and fainting.

DVT occurs in approximately 2 million Americans each year, and complications from DVT take up to 300,000 lives annually, which is more than breast cancer and AIDS (acquired immune deficiency syndrome) combined. These conditions account for about 55,000 deaths annually. Yet according to a national survey sponsored by the American Public Health Association, 74 percent of Americans have little or no awareness of DVT, and that is why I have introduced this resolution, to promote awareness of this dangerous, yet preventable, condition.

Deep vein thrombosis is among the leading causes of preventable hospital death. Fifty-eight percent of patients who developed a DVT while in the hospital received no preventive treatment despite the presence of multiple risk factors and extensive data on DVT preventive treatments, such as getting bedridden patients up and around, using compression devices to promote blood flow, and prescribing anticoagulant medications.

My guest on the House floor today, my friend and the mayor of Exeter Borough in my district, Cassandra Coleman, suffered from DVT exactly 1 year ago today after undergoing two knee surgeries. Over five blood clots reached her lungs and arteries, and she was hospitalized for over 32 days. Exactly 1 year ago today her blood clots first shot to her lungs. Luckily for Cassandra, for her mother, who is here today, and for all of us who love her, her condition was eventually successfully treated, and at age 24, she is alive and well and with us today.

But it was Cassandra's experience that led me to introduce this resolution in the hope that it will raise awareness among consumers, health-care professionals, and policymakers as to the seriousness and the preventable nature of DVT.

So I thank all of you for your support for this important resolution. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. The Speaker thanks the lady.

STATEMENT BY MS. DONATUCCI

The SPEAKER. The Speaker recognizes the lady from Philadelphia County, Ms. Donatucci, under unanimous consent relative to one of the resolutions just adopted.

Ms. DONATUCCI. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

March 13, 1942, is the official birthday of the United States K-9 Corps, so today, March 13, 2013, military personnel, veterans, and civilians across the country are celebrating K-9 veterans day.

Joseph J. White, a retired military dog handler, began this annual celebration in 1987, and it is now used as an opportunity to recognize and pay tribute to various military and service dogs that selflessly serve humanity and make our world a better place.

Many residents of this Commonwealth have and continue to actively participate and engage in K-9 training and operational activities to protect lives and property through the military, law enforcement, and other groups. When we celebrate K-9 veterans day, we are not only celebrating the work of these brave animals, but we also recognize and celebrate the lives of the trainers that work with them day in and day out.

Today as you go about your routine, I encourage each of you to be mindful of the work that goes on behind the scenes to ensure that this great country truly is the land of the free. These military dogs and their trainers play a huge part in keeping citizens of this great country safe, both domestically and abroad.

Thank you for your vote, and enjoy this day. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

STATEMENT BY MS. PICKETT

The SPEAKER. The Speaker recognizes the lady from Bradford County, Ms. Pickett, under unanimous consent relative to the resolution.

Ms. PICKETT. Thank you, Mr. Speaker, and thank you for the opportunity to say a few words on the House floor this morning in honor of this resolution.

HR 151 designates March 3-9, 2013, as "Problem Gambling Awareness Week" in Pennsylvania. This designation mirrors the "National Problem Gambling Awareness Week" that is recognized across our country. Mr. Speaker, the goal of this resolution is to educate the general public, along with health-care professionals, about the warning signs of problem gambling, and to raise awareness about the help that is available at the local, the State, and the national levels.

While thousands of our residents enjoy recreational gaming and gambling – either at our horse racing tracks, the standalone casinos, or our resorts – for some individuals and families, gambling can become an issue affecting and disrupting their lives. The news stories can be too numerous of people who have gone to desperate measures to feed their gambling addiction; and as such, problem gaming has become a public health issue that crosses all ages, all races, and all ethnic backgrounds.

As chairman of the House Gaming Oversight Committee, I believe it is important for us to acknowledge the addiction, this addiction that can be caused by gambling, along with its societal and economic costs, and to make sure that resources are available to those who are in desperate need of treatment. Sadly, those who seek treatment are limited, even though there are countless organizations dedicated to providing this very assistance.

So I would ask, through this resolution today, that we urge the Pennsylvania Gaming Control Board to continue its outreach efforts and to work with the gaming industry to develop and implement problem gambling programs and promote community-based initiatives. I also ask that the Department of Health and Drug and Alcohol Programs and the Gaming Control Board work with individuals, with professionals, and with organizations to jointly create, develop, and promote public awareness campaigns regarding the recognition and the prevention of problem gambling.

Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. The Speaker thanks the lady.

The House will come to order. The members will please take their seats. I would appreciate if the members would please take their seats. Take the conversations to the rear of the House, if necessary. I would appreciate the members' attention.

STATEMENT BY MR. MULLERY

The SPEAKER. The Speaker recognizes the gentleman from Luzerne County, Mr. Mullery, under unanimous consent.

Mr. MULLERY. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

I rise today to honor a constituent and public servant who was taken from our earthly world too soon.

On February 25, while working at the United States Penitentiary at Canaan in Wayne County, Eric Williams, an officer of the Federal Bureau of Prisons, was murdered by an inmate. Eric was attacked while preparing the facility for its nightly head count.

As a dedicated member of the Department of Justice, Eric placed himself in harm's way every day to keep us safe. He had elected a career of serving his community and the law, previously working in security and as a police officer prior to becoming a CO (corrections officer). His mother, Jean, said Eric "...was proud to wear his uniform."

Eric Williams was a graduate of both of my alma maters, the Greater Nanticoke Area High School and King's College, where he attained a degree in criminal justice. He was 34 years old at the time of his death. He is survived by his parents, Donald and Jean; brothers Mark and Kyle; and his sister, Lauren.

Today I simply ask that we honor this young man and pay him the respect he earned. I have circulated a cosponsor resolution seeking recognition of him on the House floor. I would ask that you please elect to do that, and I respectfully ask the Speaker to recognize Eric with a moment of silence this afternoon.

Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. Members and all guests will please rise for a moment of silence.

(Whereupon, the members of the House and all visitors stood in a moment of silence in solemn respect to the memory of Eric Williams.)

The SPEAKER. The Speaker thanks the gentleman.

BILLS ON THIRD CONSIDERATION

The House proceeded to third consideration of HB 126, PN 745, entitled:

An Act amending Title 34 (Game) of the Pennsylvania Consolidated Statutes, further providing for eligibility for license.

On the question,
 Will the House agree to the bill on third consideration?
 Bill was agreed to.

(Bill analysis was read.)

The SPEAKER. This bill has been considered on three different days and agreed to and is now on final passage.
 The question is, shall the bill pass finally?

On the question, the Speaker recognizes the gentleman from Delaware County, Mr. Vitali.
 Mr. VITALI. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

I just wanted to bring to the members' attention that the Pennsylvania School Boards Association opposes this bill. They say, quote, "...it undermines local control and eliminates school boards discretion as to how school facilities..." are met. They say it eliminates the discretion for the narrow purpose of hunter education classes.

I just also want to note for the record that – I know I have colleagues who share the Marple School District with me – the Marple School District in Delaware County also does not support this bill.

Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

On the question recurring,
 Shall the bill pass finally?

The SPEAKER. Agreeable to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays will now be taken.

REMARKS SUBMITTED FOR THE RECORD

The SPEAKER. Is the lady from Fayette County, Mrs. Kula, seeking recognition under unanimous consent?

Mrs. KULA. Yes, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. The lady may proceed.

Mrs. KULA. Mr. Speaker, I just want to thank once again all the members for their unanimous vote on this legislation, and I would like to submit the rest of my remarks for the record.

The SPEAKER. The Speaker thanks the lady. Deliver them to the clerk and they will be noted in the record.

Mrs. KULA submitted the following remarks for the Legislative Journal:

I would like to take this opportunity to thank the members for their votes on HB 286. This bill amends Title 23 (Domestic Relations) of the Pennsylvania Consolidated Statutes to enact the Uniform Child Abduction Prevention Act. The act would allow the courts to order abduction prevention measures when children – typically during a custody battle – are at risk for being kidnapped.

Nationwide, most child abductions are perpetrated by a family member, often during the course of custody proceedings. While Pennsylvania currently has laws on the books providing for initial custody determinations as well as consequences for abduction or attempted abduction of children, our laws, like most States, lack measures on the front end to prevent the abduction of children. This bill attempts to fill that void.

The bill would allow abduction prevention measures to be ordered by the court – by its own motion or by motion of one of the parties to a child custody determination – where there is evidence that establishes a credible risk of abduction of the child. There are 13 factors enumerated in the bill that go to risk, including whether or not the respondent has previously attempted to abduct the child, has threatened to abduct the child, or has engaged in activities that may indicate a planned abduction.

If an order for abduction prevention measures is warranted, the court must enter an order which may include travel restrictions such that the party against whom the order is entered must notify the moving party of his or her travel itinerary, a prohibition on moving the child out of the State, or restrictions on the child's passport. Additionally, conditions may be put on custody and visitation to serve as abduction prevention measures.

This bill has been given the stamp of approval by the National Conference of Commissioners on Uniform State Laws. Ten States have adopted similar acts so far.

I am extremely pleased with the bipartisan support that this bill has received. If this bill prevents the heartache and trauma of so much as one child abduction, our work here will have been for the good of Pennsylvania's children.

The SPEAKER. The question is, will the House adopt the resolution?

On that question, the Speaker recognizes the lady from Philadelphia, Mrs. Parker.

Mrs. PARKER. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. Speaker, I rise to commend my colleague on the other side of the aisle for introducing HR 53. School safety is something that we are concerned with on both sides of the aisle.

Again, I thank him for leadership, and I would ask my colleagues for an affirmative vote.

BILL ON SECOND CONSIDERATION

The House proceeded to second consideration of HB 159, PN 581, entitled:

An Act amending the act of March 4, 1971 (P.L.6, No.2), known as the Tax Reform Code of 1971, providing for the Vets First Tax Credit Program to honor veterans for their service to our country and provide incentives for their employment.

On the question,
Will the House agree to the bill on second consideration?

Mr. EVANKOVICH offered the following amendment No. A00290:

Amend Bill, page 5, line 10, by striking out "assign"

Amend Bill, page 5, by inserting between lines 16 and 17 Section 1805-C. Sale or assignment.

(a) Sale or assignment.—A taxpayer, upon application to and approval by the department, may sell or assign, in whole or in part, a Vets First tax credit granted to the taxpayer under this article. The department shall establish guidelines for the approval of applications under this subsection.

(b) Claim and use.—The purchaser or assignee of a portion of a Vets First tax credit under subsection (a) shall immediately claim the credit in the taxable year in which the purchase or assignment is made. The amount of the Vets First credit that a purchaser or assignee may use against any one qualified tax liability may not exceed 75% of such qualified tax liability for the taxable year. The purchaser or assignee may not carry over, carry back, obtain a refund of or assign the Vets First tax credit. The purchaser or assignee shall notify the department of the seller or assignor of the Vets First tax credit in compliance with procedures specified by the department.

Amend Bill, page 5, line 17, by striking out "1805-C" and inserting

1806-C

Amend Bill, page 5, line 30, by striking out "1806-C" and inserting

1807-C

Amend Bill, page 6, line 14, by striking out "1807-C" and inserting

1808-C

On the question,
Will the House agree to the amendment?

The SPEAKER. On that question, the Speaker recognizes the gentleman, Mr. Evankovich.

Mr. EVANKOVICH. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. Speaker, this is an agreed-to amendment. For the information of the members, the amendment simply will allow the tax credit to be used by some of the smaller businesses in our State so that they can be encouraged to hire veterans, and I encourage an affirmative vote.

The SPEAKER. The question is, will the House agree to the amendment?

On that question, the Speaker recognizes the gentleman from Cambria County, Mr. Barbin.

Mr. BARBIN. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

This is an agreed-upon amendment. The basis of the amendment is to make sure that the credit, up to $50 million each year, can be used. Under the law, under the text of the amendment or the bill, each year the credit would expire.

So I thank the gentleman for making this credit more useful to the small businesses that will be hiring the veterans that are coming back from Iraq and Afghanistan. Thank you.

On the question recurring,
Will the House agree to the amendment?

On the question,
Will the House agree to the bill on third consideration?
Bill was agreed to.

(Bill analysis was read.)

The SPEAKER. This bill has been considered on three different days and agreed to and is now on final passage.

The question is, shall the bill pass finally?

On that question, the Speaker recognizes the gentleman from Delaware County, Mr. Vitali.

Mr. VITALI. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

I just wanted to bring to the attention of the members that the Humane Society of the United States opposes this legislation. They have a concern that this legislation would put family pets into greater danger and make them more likely exposed to trapping. I will just quote from their letter of March 12. This legislation "...creates a" much "larger zone of danger...within minutes of family homes to allow trappers..." a slight "increase in territory...."

So those of you who have the ear of the Humane Society should be aware of that.

Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

The SPEAKER. Agreeable to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays will now be taken.
