PRESIDING

PRAYER

The SPEAKER. The prayer will be offered by Rev. Charles Warwick, St. Stephen's Episcopal Church, Wilkes-Barre.

REV. CHARLES WARWICK, Guest Chaplain of the House of Representatives, offered the following prayer:

Let us pray:

Dear Heavenly Father, "make..." us "...an instrument of Your Peace.

"Where there is hatred, let..." us "...sow love;

"Where there is injury, pardon;

"Where there is doubt, faith;

"Where there is despair, hope;

"Where there is darkness, light;

"Where there is sadness, joy.

"O Divine Master,

"Grant that..." we "...may not so much seek

"To be consoled as to console;

"To be understood, as to understand;

"To be loved, as to love.

"For it is in giving that we receive;

"It is in pardoning that we are pardoned...."

Dear Heavenly Father, I ask Your blessing be upon this Your House of Representatives. Give them all a discerning heart and a will to serve Thee. Allow us all to be ever mindful that we serve You and Your creation. All this we ask in the name of the one true and ever present God of all. Amen.

STATEMENT BY MR. PAINTER

The SPEAKER. Is the gentleman from Montgomery County, Mr. Painter, seeking recognition under unanimous consent relative to one of the resolutions just adopted?

Mr. PAINTER. Yes, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman is in order and may proceed.

Mr. PAINTER. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

I would like to thank the House for adopting the resolution related to Cambodian New Year. The Cambodian people represent an ancient culture some 2,000 years old. In more recent years, Cambodia is most noted for the tragedy of the Cambodian Holocaust, after which some 150,000 Cambodians resettled in the United States.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman suspend.

Will the members kindly hold the conversations down; take them to the rear of the House, if necessary. I would appreciate just a little more decorum. Thank you.

The gentleman may proceed.

Mr. PAINTER. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Among those 150,000 who resettled in the United States was my foster son who came here as a nervous teenager who could not understand who that big-nosed guy was who showed up one day to take him home. Today he is a successful owner of a small business, and his story is the story of Cambodian people in America.

Today there are 300,000 Cambodian-Americans across the country who have made names for themselves in many fields, including arts and culture, medicine and business. Philadelphia is recognized as a major Cambodian-American community in the United States.

A few days ago, I was privileged to attend a Cambodian New Year's celebration in Philadelphia. I have been attending these for 25 years, and I think perhaps the surest sign that the Cambodian-American community has come of age is that there were political candidates there working the crowd. I was pleased and privileged to have the opportunity to grant them perhaps overdue recognition as a part of our Pennsylvania ethnic fabric, and in return, I have a message for the House from the Cambodian-American community of Philadelphia: Soam ogun haey neung sua sday chhnam thmey – thank you and happy new year.

Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. The Speaker thanks the gentleman.

FILMING PERMISSION

The SPEAKER. The Speaker gives permission for media access to the House floor to Jim Hamill of WNEP-TV for videotaping with audio for approximately 10 minutes.

RESOLUTIONS PURSUANT TO RULE 35

Mr. HAGGERTY called up HR 132, PN 959, entitled:

A Resolution honoring Jack HENZES, head football coach of Dunmore High School, Dunmore, Lackawanna County, on his selection as Class A Coach of the Year by the Pennsylvania Sports Writers.

On the question,
Will the House adopt the resolution?

The SPEAKER. On that question, the Speaker recognizes the gentleman from Lackawanna, Mr. Haggerty.

Mr. HAGGERTY. Mr. Speaker, sometimes in the movies our high school football coaches are depicted as self-gratifying, narcissistic men who are in search of their next district title and State championship. Sometimes in the movies, these same men care more about their career record than they do their players and community.

I am here today, Mr. Speaker – and thank you for honoring the complete opposite of what we sometimes see in the movies. Mr. Jack HENZES is honored today as the PIAA Class A Coach of the Year, but he is here really today to represent the players of Dunmore School District, the coaches of Dunmore School District, and its community.

I would like to read a brief statement that Coach HENZES made in the Scranton Times 1 week before the State championship game this year: "I love teaching and being involved with young people. I enjoy it. It's a challenge. My father was a coach for 33 years. Since I was 12 years of age, I saw how much he enjoyed doing it and the gratification and thought, 'That's what I want to do.' It's not a chore. I can't wait to get to school" every day to "...teach my classes and get to the program."

Well, Coach HENZES, over the last 50 years that is exactly what you have done, and I am so honored to be here today not only to talk about the State championships that you have won, the honor today of being the Class A Coach of the Year, your legacy was born by your father, who was inducted into the National High School Football Hall of Fame. You have worn his sleeves well. You have worn our community well. And I would like to personally thank you for your achievements, for sending players into the NFL (National Football League) and coaches into the NFL, but above everything, Coach, and you know this more than anyone, for the fairness you treated our community, our students, and our players with.

I want to go back 36 years, Coach HENZES was probably the same age as I was. Coach, we just verified this story yesterday. You had a young man in 1977, he was a burly lineman and his name was Danny FABRICATORE. Danny was one of 10 children growing up in Dunmore, Pennsylvania. That year, their youngest son, who was 5 years old, their mother passed away, and Mr. FABRICATORE was alone to raise 10 children in Dunmore. And Danny came home from school one day, he was a senior and he had the big game coming up, and when he got home, there was a note from his father, "Please cut the grass." He was the oldest of 10 siblings, and like any 18-year-old, he was excited and he walked away, and he went down to the game and he knew his father would be in the stands, he knew he was going to be able to play in that game. But when Mr. FABRICATORE got home, he went down to the football stadium and he said to Coach HENZES, "Coach, my son, Danny, is not helping out at home. He was supposed to do some chores today and he did not, and I do not want him to play in the game today." And Coach HENZES went up to Danny FABRICATORE and said, "Son, you need to help out your brothers and sisters and your family," and he did not play in that game that day. And that is the record of Jack HENZES.

We could talk about the accolades, we could talk about the State championships, but the man behind the Dunmore football team, the Dunmore community, and all of the players that are here today is something I will never forget. So, Coach, thank you from the bottom of my heart for treating students fair, for caring about families of our community, for caring about those individuals up there, not just the team.

The Dunmore High School Football Team is here today. They were the State runners-up in Pennsylvania, and I would like to give a round of applause to those young men.

I would ask also that the eight seniors, I would ask also that the eight seniors remain standing, please. Coach, the eight seniors here are going to walk away from this program better men, better citizens of this Commonwealth. And whether the eight of you know it or you do not know right now, you will soon. You will come back one day – maybe you already have; maybe it will be 25 years from now – but you will thank Coach HENZES for being in your life.

And, Coach, as a 40-year-old man, maybe I never told you, thank you; thank you for the discipline; thank you for the care; thank you for the fairness that you provided to the young men and women of our school district. And thank you eight for your participation and your scholar and your achievements this year.

Thank you very much, and thank you, Coach.

On the question recurring,
Will the House adopt the resolution?

STATEMENT BY MRS. WATSON

The SPEAKER. The Speaker recognizes the lady from Bucks County, Mrs. Watson, under unanimous consent.

Mrs. WATSON. Thank you, Mr. Speaker, and thank you for this opportunity.

Mr. Speaker and colleagues, I rise today to speak on the issue of pay equity. Today, as you know, is April 9 and across this country it is National Equal Pay Day. Seems kind of strange – what are we talking about? This is the day in which women's wages or their salaries catch up to their male counterparts. Simply put, women must work an extra 99 days in order to earn the same pay as their male colleagues, working in the same field with the same education and experience at the same job with the same expectations and responsibilities.

According to the latest Census Bureau data, women statewide average 72 cents for every dollar paid to their male counterparts. The disparity crosses all types of employment, from entry level to seasoned professionals. For example, and I found this to be very striking, because oftentimes we think, oh, it is entry level, but certainly for professional people, there is no distinction. Those of us working here know there is no distinction in salary between male and female. If you came out of, perhaps, education, as I did, you knew that there was no distinction. But please pay attention to this statistic, and that would be that female veterinarians make 68 cents for every dollar that is paid to the male veterinarian; lots of education, lots of experience, and still a disparity.

National studies have consistently found that women are paid less than men in comparable jobs. One of the most recent by the American Association of University Women found that among people hired for their first year after college, women – and this goes back to 2009 – were paid 82 cents for every dollar paid to men.

Mr. Speaker, I have a long list of statistics, none of which I am really happy to read, but I will submit those for the record.

What my resolution, that many of you, in fact, 35 of you cosponsored, would be, we need to take a look at this in Pennsylvania, Mr. Speaker. We need to see if, indeed, the laws that we have are fine and they are simply not being enforced or whatever. I think we need a public information campaign too, Mr. Speaker, just to remind people and employers that based on experience and based on education and background, that is it as to when you hire somebody. But you do not pay them on the basis of their gender, and that is really all that pay equity talks about.

So for those of you with a daughter or a sister or a mother who works or an aunt or a granddaughter who is working, I am sure you would want her to be paid indeed what her job is worth, not related to her gender.

Thank you for the opportunity to speak, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. The Speaker thanks the lady.

REMARKS SUBMITTED FOR THE RECORD

Mrs. WATSON submitted the following remarks for the Legislative Journal:

According to the National Committee on Pay Equity that was based on the median earnings of all full-time, year-round workers, men's earnings in 2011 were $48,202 and women's were $37,118, a difference of $11,084.

In Pennsylvania, the median pay for a woman working full-time, year-round is $37,089 per year, while the median yearly pay for a man is $47,956. This means that women are paid 77 cents for every dollar paid to men, amounting to a yearly gap of $10,867 between full-time working men and women in the State. The women of Pennsylvania are increasingly responsible for the economic security of their families and cannot afford to face discrimination and lower wages. That $11,000 can mean the difference between food stamps, medical assistance, or needing a second job to pay the household bills.

It is important to note, Mr. Speaker, that the wage gap persists at all levels of education. In 2011 the typical woman in the United States with a high school diploma working full-time, year-round was paid only 74 cents for every dollar paid to her male counterpart. Among people with a bachelor's degree, the figure was also 74 cents. In fact, the typical woman who has received an associate's degree still is not paid as much as the typical man who only graduated from high school.

Even if the difference in the wage and salary gap is just a few thousand dollars, just think about how that adds up over a career. A typical woman who worked full-time, year-round would lose $443,360 in a 40-year period due to the wage gap. A woman would have to work almost 12 years longer to make up this gap.

Women of color experience even greater disparities. African-American women are paid 64 cents and Latinas are paid just 55 cents for every dollar paid to white, non-Hispanic men.

Last month the American Association of University Women, AAUW, released its annual wage gap analysis, "The Simple Truth about the Gender Pay Gap," and it showed that one of the widest disparities exists among workers ages 45 to 54, the time when most workers build up the bulk of their retirement nest egg. This also translates into less retirement savings, and in Pennsylvania, with its high population of senior citizens, that translates into even smaller fixed incomes, resulting in a greater demand for social services. We all know the price tag for those services.

The fact that pay inequity exists is especially frustrating, considering that the number of women in the workforce exceed the number of men and more men than women lost jobs in our recent economic downturn. More families are relying on women's paychecks for their livelihood, and as a result, we must address the wage gap for the sake of American families and their financial stability.

It continues to frustrate me that women are paid so much less than men, especially in professional jobs. That is why we need to bring greater awareness to this issue and in our jobs as lawmakers, to ensure that the laws we have in place today are appropriate to deal with pay equity issues.

This year marks the 50th anniversary of Federal legislation signed by President John F. Kennedy requiring equal pay for equal work. Sadly, five decades later, we have not yet reached that goal. I am hopeful that Equal Pay Days, along with the assistance of women around Pennsylvania and across the nation, that we do not have to wait another 50 years for action.

Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

"Government agency." The Commonwealth, a political subdivision or an agency, department, authority, commission or board of the Commonwealth or a political subdivision. The term includes regional commissions, boards or instrumentalities with the authority to issue approvals.

Section 3. Existing approval.

(a) Automatic suspension.—For any approval by a government agency that is granted for or in effect between the beginning of the extension period and July 2, 2013, whether obtained before or after the beginning of the extension period, the running of the period of the approval shall be automatically suspended until July 2, 2016.

(a.1) Cities of the first class.—In cities of the first class and agencies established by such cities, the suspension provided for in subsection (a) shall be valid, for any covered approval, 20 days after the notice from the approval holder to the agency that issued the approval of the approval holder's intent to exercise his or her rights under the suspension and payment of a fee equal to 50% of the original application fee, but not to exceed $5,000. The agency that issued the approval may prescribe a form of notice.

(a.2) Limitation.—Any government approval granted after July 2, 2013, shall not be extended beyond the normal approval periods of the government agency without the permission or approval of the government agency.

(b) Duration.—The extension period established under this act shall be the maximum approval period authorized under this act and shall supersede the normal time period for approvals relating to development. Nothing in this section shall prohibit the government agency from granting additional extensions as provided by law.

(c) Riparian leases.—

(1) The time period relating to obtaining a building permit under section 1(i) of the act of February 22, 2008 (P.L.36, No.4), entitled, "An act authorizing the Department of General Services, with the concurrence of the Department of Environmental Protection, to lease to VTE Philadelphia, LP, or its nominee, land within the bed of the Delaware River in the City of Philadelphia; and affirming the authority of the General Assembly to enact certain conveyances," shall be extended until January 1, 2013.

(2) The time period relating to obtaining a building permit under section 1(i) of the act of February 22, 2008 (P.L.41, No.5), entitled, "An act authorizing the Department of General Services, with the concurrence of the Department of Environmental Protection, to lease to NCCB Associates, LP, or its nominee, land within the bed of the Delaware River in the City of Philadelphia; and affirming the authority of the General Assembly to enact certain conveyances," shall be extended until January 1, 2013.

Section 4. Subsequent changes.

(a) Change in law.—A law, regulation or policy enacted, adopted or modified by a government agency during the extension period shall not have the effect of prohibiting or limiting an existing approval during the extension period.

(b) Planning code approval.—When an approval has been granted under the act of July 31, 1968 (P.L.805, No.247), known as the Pennsylvania Municipalities Planning Code, a subsequent change in a zoning, subdivision or other governing ordinance or plan shall not apply to or affect the right of the applicant to commence or complete the activities authorized by the approval for the duration of the extension period. For purposes of this subsection, the extension period shall be extended for the duration of any litigation, including appeals, relating to an approval which prevents the completion of all or part of the activity authorized by the approval.

(c) Nonexpiration.—An action by a government agency or law to lease, license, grant or otherwise convey rights in the beds of navigable waters of the Commonwealth shall not expire for the duration of the extension period, including time limits relating to the initiation, prosecution or completion of construction. A conveyance of rights under this subsection shall not terminate during the extension period for failure to initiate, prosecute or complete construction.

Section 5. Agency verification.

(a) Request for verification.—

(1) The holder or recipient of an approval may seek written verification from the issuing government agency for any of the following:

(i) The existence of a valid approval.

(ii) The expiration date of the approval under this act.

(2) The request shall set forth the approval in question and the anticipated expiration date under this act.

(b) Agency action.—Upon receipt of a request under subsection (a), the government agency shall respond in writing affirming or denying the existence of the approval, its expiration date and any issues associated with its validity within 30 days. Except in cities of the first class and agencies established by such cities, failure to respond within 30 days shall result in a deemed affirmation of the existence of the approval and expiration date set forth in the request submitted under subsection (a). The agency may charge a fee of not more than $100 for verification of a residential approval and $500 for verification of a commercial approval under this subsection.

(c) Failure to seek affirmation.—The failure of the holder of an approval to seek verification from a government agency shall not be grounds for termination, revocation or other invalidation of an approval.

(d) Appeals of verification.—A dispute arising under this section shall be appealable in accordance with one of the following applicable laws:

(1) 2 Pa.C.S. § 105 (relating to local agency law).

(2) The act of July 31, 1968 (P.L.805, No.247), known as the Pennsylvania Municipalities Planning Code.

Section 6. Applicability.

(a) Exceptions.—This act shall not apply to any of the following:

(2) An administrative consent order or other enforcement action relating to an approval that is subject to the extension period.

(3) An approval, designation or benefit under the act of October 6, 1998 (P.L.705, No.92), known as the Keystone Opportunity Zone, Keystone Opportunity Expansion Zone and Keystone Opportunity Improvement Zone Act.

(4) A "One-Call" determination, response or other requirement under the act of December 10, 1974 (P.L.852, No.287), referred to as the Underground Utility Line Protection Law.

(5) The revocation or modification of an approval or extension of an approval, when the approval authorizes the modification or revocation for cause.

(6) An approval issued by the Department of Transportation, except that approvals in accordance with 67 Pa. Code Ch. 441 (relating to access to and occupancy of highways by driveways and local roads) shall be extended by the department upon the submission of a complete and accurate application throughout the extension period for one-year intervals, subject to the requirements of 67 Pa. Code Ch. 441, including modifications based on changed circumstances.

(7) An approval issued by the Department of Environmental Protection implementing 25 Pa. Code § 93.4a (relating to antidegradation) in connection with surface waters, as defined in 25 Pa. Code § 93.1 (relating to definitions), or wetlands, as defined in 25 Pa. Code § 93.1, which surface waters or wetlands, after the issuance of the approval, and during the extension period, became classified as:

(i) High Quality Waters, pursuant to 25 Pa. Code §§ 93.1 and 93.4b(a); or

(ii) Exceptional Value Waters, pursuant to 25 Pa. Code § 93.4b(b)(1).

(8) An approval issued by the Department of Environmental Protection implementing 25 Pa. Code § 93.4a in connection with surface waters, as defined in 25 Pa. Code § 93.1, or wetlands, as defined in 25 Pa. Code § 93.1, which surface waters or wetlands are classified as Exceptional Value Waters pursuant to 25 Pa. Code § 93.4b(b)(1).

(b) Sewer and water systems.—If an approval is based upon the connection to a sanitary sewer system or water distribution system, the application of the extension period as it relates to capacity shall be contingent upon the availability of sufficient capacity of the system to accommodate the development that is the subject of the extended approval. If sufficient capacity is unavailable at the time it is required to proceed with development under the approval, priority with regard to further distribution or allocation of capacity shall be established by the date on which the approval was obtained. Priority relating to distribution of additional capacity shall be allocated in order of the granting of the original approval for the connection.

(c) Fee.—A government agency which issued an approval may charge a fee to extend the approval that may be no more than 25% of the original application fee. In no event may the fee be more than $5,000.

Section 7. Notice.

By August 5, 2010, each affected government agency shall publish notice of applicability of the extension period to approvals granted by the government agency under this act in the Pennsylvania Bulletin.

Section 8. Miscellaneous.

(a) Construction.—Nothing in this act shall be construed to modify any requirement of law that is necessary to retain Federal delegation to, or assumption by, the Commonwealth of the authority to implement a Federal law or program.

(b) Authority.—During the extension period, a government agency shall retain the authority to do all of the following:

(1) Suspend or revoke an approval for noncompliance with a written condition of the approval.

(2) Enforce conditions of approvals granted under law prior to the extension period.

(3) Enforce only those conditions in an approval issued under the act of July 31, 1968 (P.L.805, No.247), known as the Pennsylvania Municipalities Planning Code, that are required to be performed prior to final plan approval.

Section 20. Repeals.

Repeals are as follows:

(1) The General Assembly declares that the repeal under paragraph (2) is necessary to effectuate this act.

(2) Article XVI-I of the act of April 9, 1929 (P.L.343, No.176), known as The Fiscal Code, is repealed.

Section 21. Effective date.

This act shall take effect immediately.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

The SPEAKER. On that question, the Speaker recognizes the gentleman from Westmoreland County, Mr. Evankovich, for a brief description of the amendment.

Mr. EVANKOVICH. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. Speaker, this amendment clarifies the original legislation that passed this chamber and ultimately became law through the Fiscal Code last session. That segment of the Fiscal Code is currently up for debate in the Commonwealth Court as to whether or not it is constitutional. This amendment makes this a stand-alone act rather than amending the Fiscal Code, and I would urge members' support.

On the question recurring,
Will the House agree to the amendment?

The House proceeded to third consideration of HB 723, PN 812, entitled:

An Act amending Title 34 (Game) of the Pennsylvania Consolidated Statutes, further providing for the definition of "wild animals."

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third consideration?

Bill was agreed to.

(Bill analysis was read.)

The SPEAKER. This bill has been considered on three different days and agreed to and is now on final passage.

The question is, shall the bill pass finally?

On that question, the Speaker recognizes the gentleman from Delaware County, Mr. Vitali.

The gentleman will suspend. If members could kindly hold the conversations down, I would appreciate it. Members, please hold the conversations down.

The gentleman, Mr. Vitali, is in order on the bill.

Mr. VITALI. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Could we just initially get a brief explanation from the maker? I know this bill has some controversy. I did not want it to roll without members being aware that this bill is a bill with some opposition. So perhaps—

The SPEAKER. The gentleman, Mr. Vitali, would be seeking to interrogate the maker of the bill, and the gentleman, Mr. Baker, indicates he will stand for interrogation. I believe you understand the question.

Mr. BAKER. Yes. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

I believe the gentleman wants a brief explanation of the legislation. I would be glad to provide that.

This bill amends the definition of "wild animal" in the Game Code to clarify that any variation or species of pig, swine, or boar are not considered wild animals if they are held in captivity behind fences. As some of you may remember, the Game Commission was forced by the court decision to regulate wild boars or feral swine, even if they are kept behind fences on hunting preserves or game farms, and technically should be defined as domestic or livestock. The Pennsylvania Game Commission does not regulate any other nonexotic animal held in captivity.

As a result of the court decision – and this involved the Supreme Court decision; that is why we feel we need to do something right away – the Pennsylvania Game Commission has taken action to approve a preliminary regulation that would ban the importation of feral swine or wild boar in Pennsylvania 30 days after final approval of the regulation, and bar the animals from being held in captivity 1 year after final approval; hence, ending the opportunity to even hunt such animals.

So the final approval is expected sometime later this month or next month, and if the regulation is put into place, it would effectively shut down boar hunting preserves in Pennsylvania and have a negative impact on other hunting preserves that have boars as well.

So what we are trying to do here is clarify that these animals behind fences are not wild animals. The bill will effectively take regulation of them away from the Pennsylvania Game Commission, allowing Pennsylvania hunting preserves to continue operating as they currently are. The Pennsylvania Game Commission, of course, will maintain regulatory authority over wild boar or feral swine not held in captivity.

And just as an added clarification, the regulation then of the animals within the fences would be subject to the order signed; it is "Interstate/International and General Quarantine Order; Importation and Intrastate Movement of Swine" order by the previous Secretary of Agriculture, dated 9/2/09, that took effect in 2010.

Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. Is the gentleman, Mr. Vitali, seeking further interrogation or comment on the bill?

Mr. VITALI. Right. I am just trying to get at the two entities who oppose this. I know the—

The SPEAKER. Suspend.

If the members could kindly hold the conversations down, please, I would appreciate it. It is just a little hard to hear.

Is the gentleman, Mr. Vitali, seeking additional interrogation of the—

Mr. VITALI. Yes.

The SPEAKER. —of the maker of the bill?

Mr. VITALI. Yes.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman may proceed with his interrogation.

Mr. VITALI. I am trying to get at the two groups who have written their opposition. One is the Humane Society opposes this bill. I think it has to do with the characterization of this as promoting canned hunts, but there is another group more mainstream. I remember reading their letter today. They talked about their concern about if the Game Commission does not have the authority to regulate this activity, then there is no entity that is regulating it.

Now, so my question is, what is the second group that has weighed in their opposition to this bill? Can you tell me that?

Mr. BAKER. Yes, Mr. Speaker.

I can only speculate, but I believe the HSUS, the Humane Society, the National Humane Society would like to shut down wild boar hunting entirely and eliminate wild boar hunting altogether.

Mr. VITALI. Okay.

It is the Pennsylvania Federation of Sportsmen; I just want the members to be aware that the Pennsylvania Federation of Sportsmen opposes this legislation, and they cite the lack of, if we take regulation of this away from the Game Commission, this activity is sort of left without regulation. So in addition to the PA Humane Society, the Pennsylvania Federation of Sportsmen opposes this legislation.

Thank you, Mr. Speaker. That concludes my interrogation.

The SPEAKER. The question is, shall the bill pass finally?

On that question, the Speaker recognizes the gentleman from Clinton County, Mr. Hanna.

Mr. HANNA. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

If the gentleman would stand for interrogation, just a few brief—

The SPEAKER. The gentleman, Mr. Baker, indicates he will stand for interrogation. You may proceed.

Mr. HANNA. Thank you.

Mr. Speaker, the one thing that we want to make abundantly clear in this is that no boar in the State of Pennsylvania will be without supervision. Every wild boar held in captivity will be under the authority of the Department of Agriculture. Is that correct?

Mr. BAKER. The animals that are confined within the fenced area; yes. Outside the fenced area, it is the Pennsylvania Game Commission.

Mr. HANNA. And is it correct that there is precedent for that as well, that deer farms, likewise, are supervised by the Department of Agriculture?

Mr. BAKER. Agriculture already has the deer farms; yes.

Mr. HANNA. All right. So what your bill would do then is set up a similar regulatory process where the boars in captivity are exclusively the responsibility of the Department of Agriculture, and then any boar, any wild boar outside captivity becomes – remains the responsibility of the Game Commission.

Mr. BAKER. Correct, and that is consistent with the 12-page signed document by the former Secretary of Agriculture.

Mr. HANNA. So there is no boar in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania that will be without some regulatory authority over top of it?

Mr. BAKER. I believe that is correct. I do believe there is room for improvement on this law, and I do believe that either the Senate or the House has an interest in pursuing additional oversight or regulatory construct.

Mr. HANNA. But right now I would like just to focus on the fact that there is an obligation of either the Department of Agriculture or the Game Commission to supervise these whether in captivity or whether wild.

Mr. BAKER. Yes.

Mr. HANNA. Now, beyond that obligation, have these agencies both accepted that responsibility?

Mr. BAKER. All I can tell you is the Department of Agriculture supports this legislation, the Governor's Office supports this legislation, the NRA (National Rifle Association) strongly supports this legislation, and so I presume—

Mr. HANNA. But no word from the Pennsylvania Game Commission?

Mr. BAKER. The Pennsylvania Game Commission does not oppose this legislation.

Mr. HANNA. All right. So is it reasonable to assume that the Game Commission is still going to insist upon the eradication of wild boars?

Mr. BAKER. I think the Pennsylvania Game Commission sees this as a viable alternative and is accepting this legislation. They do not oppose this legislation.

Mr. HANNA. But is it likely they will continue to proceed to eliminate boars in the wild?

Mr. BAKER. The Pennsylvania Game Commission will not have regulatory authority— Thanks for your indulgence.

Just to clarify, outside the fences of these hunting preserves and wild boar farms, it would be the regulatory authority and oversight of the Pennsylvania Game Commission. Within the fenced-in area, it would be under Agriculture.

Mr. HANNA. All right. And what is the policy of the Game Commission at this point towards those outside the fenced areas?

Mr. BAKER. Currently if you are a licensed hunter and you see these animals during a hunting season, you do have the authority to harvest these animals, if you were to see them. I can tell you since hunting since the age of 12, I have yet to see one of these animals to be able to take advantage of that in harvesting one of these animals, but that is currently the position that the Pennsylvania Game Commission takes.

Mr. HANNA. So essentially, much like coyotes, these animals could be taken any time, day or night, by a licensed hunter?

Mr. BAKER. Correct.

Mr. HANNA. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. Speaker, that ends my interrogation.

The SPEAKER. Is the gentleman seeking recognition on final passage?

Mr. HANNA. Yes, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman is in order on the bill.

Mr. HANNA. Mr. Speaker, I reluctantly support this legislation. My concern, obviously, as my questions would indicate, is that no wild boar go unregulated, and the fact that the prime sponsor has indicated that every wild boar in the Commonwealth will be subject either to the Department of Agriculture or to the Pennsylvania Game Commission's regulatory authority assures us that there is a legal obligation to regulate these animals, and hopefully in the Game Commission's wisdom to eliminate them from the wild because of the potential for immense destruction that they can cause to property.

So based on those assurances that there is a full legal obligation for the regulation of these animals, I am going to support the legislation.

Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. The question is, shall the bill pass finally?

On that question, the Speaker recognizes the gentleman from Cambria County, Mr. Haluska.

Mr. HALUSKA. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. Speaker, I do agree with one thing the maker of the bill said, we should make the bill better, and we had a chance yesterday to make the bill better but we failed to do that. What is going to happen, once these feral hogs – and these are not pigs as you know it; these are hogs that are raised to hunt. They are not the little pink pigs that you see when you go to the petting zoo. These are aggressive boars with tusks. So what happens is, the game farms will get these pigs, these boars. If it does happen to get outside the fence, which of course it has happened in many States, and I understand there are some in the wild in Pennsylvania already in the north-central part of the State, and they are going to multiply and they are going to create a lot of damage. And what we had a chance to do yesterday was to say that if the game farms take these boars, they will be neutered. If they do happen to get out from under the fence, we do not have to worry about them having litter after litter after litter of small pigs which will turn into boars, and we will not have this destructive problem.

And as the previous speaker was saying, the coyote problem in Pennsylvania that we have, which I think every deer hunter or turkey hunter will tell you, they propagate pretty well out in the wild. And we do have a season on coyotes that is 7 days a week, 52 weeks a year, constantly you can hunt, but we still have not been able to cut the coyote population down.

So if these wild boars happen to get out and propagate, we are never ever going to be able to curtail their numbers. So I would hope that we would fix this bill in some way, shape, or form, but I will not support the bill in its current condition. Thank you.

The SPEAKER. The question is, shall the bill pass finally?

On that question, the Speaker recognizes the gentleman from McKean County, Mr. Causer.

Mr. CAUSER. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of HB 723. I think it is very important to point out the fact that we are not going down the road of unregulating wild boars. What we are saying is, these wild boars, when they are on a hunting preserve, will not be regulated by the Pennsylvania Game Commission. When they are outside of a hunting preserve, when they are in the actual wild, they still will be regulated by the Game Commission.

So I think this is the right thing to do. I think that it could be improved in the future with the consideration of an agriculture bill, but at this point and right now, this is the right thing to do, and I urge support for HB 723.

Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. The question is, shall the bill pass finally?

On that question, the Speaker recognizes the gentleman from Luzerne County, Mr. Carroll.

Mr. CARROLL. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. Speaker, I am not expert on feral hogs, but it seems to me that we have a whole series of States in this nation that are doing their best to eradicate these things, and here we are in Pennsylvania about to roll out the welcome mat for feral hogs. Not only do some States want to eradicate them, many of our sister States, including recently the State of Michigan, declared feral hogs to be an invasive species. So some States have taken the aggressive step in terms of regulation to even more vigorously regulate these populations.

Mr. Speaker, these animals are disease-carrying animals that are a direct threat to the livestock in this State. These animals cause unbelievable damage in our State. I am not convinced the fenced-in area will be able to keep these animals from invading the other regions of this State that do not happen to be a hunting preserve.

And so, Mr. Speaker, I oppose this legislation. I am concerned about the prospects of these animals invading our State like they have other States, and my suspicion is that somewhere in the future we will have to run a bill that will be an effort to try to eradicate the very animals that today we seem to be rolling out the welcome mat for.

So, Mr. Speaker, I ask for a negative vote.

The SPEAKER. The question is, shall the bill pass finally?

On that question, the Speaker recognizes the gentleman from Cambria County, Mr. Barbin.

Mr. BARBIN. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

I also rise in opposition to this bill. There are two good reasons that have been enunciated on the floor to vote against this bill. Number one, the people that actually know what is going on, the Pennsylvania Federation of Sportsmen, say this bill is not a good bill; that is number one. Number two, we are putting regulations in the hands of a government agency that, along with every other agency over the last 2 years, has lost employees. So the idea that we allow an Executive order from the Department of Agriculture to somehow take care of a problem that we know is going to get worse is a bad idea.

I will be voting against the bill because we could do what we need to do here. What we needed to do was to make sure that the feral pigs that are on the game reserves are neutered, and unless we actually have people that are going to make sure that is done, we are going to have a problem with our turkey habitat, our deer habitat. We are going to have problems with wild, feral pigs or boars just like Texas does. They will be shooting them around the clock, and we will not be able to always find them.

So we are just putting off a problem by not really addressing the real issue, which is, how do we make sure they cannot multiply?

The SPEAKER. The question is, shall the bill pass finally?

On the question, the Speaker recognizes the gentleman from Butler County, Mr. Metcalfe.

Mr. METCALFE. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. Speaker, I think a lot of our viewers would be very confused today because the opposition to this pork is coming from those who are usually advocates for pork. So, Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of this legislation, and I think those that are opposing it should recognize that this is really hypocritical with their normal stand of being for pork, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. Is there anybody else seeking recognition on this bill? The Parliamentarian was getting a little bored.

On the question recurring,
Shall the bill pass finally?

The SPEAKER. Agreeable to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays will now be taken.

MOTION TO RECONSIDER HB 723

The SPEAKER. The Speaker is in receipt of a motion to reconsider pursuant to rule 26. The undersigned Mr. DeLuca and Mr. Kotik move that the vote by which HB 723 passed finally on April 9 be reconsidered.

On the question,
Will the House agree to the motion?

The SPEAKER. On the motion to reconsider, is the gentleman from Allegheny County, Mr. Turzai, seeking recognition?

The gentleman is in order on the motion to reconsider.

Mr. TURZAI. Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker.

I would ask the members to vote in opposition to the motion to reconsider. Please vote in opposition to the motion to reconsider. It is a procedural motion. The vote has been taken. Debate was had. Please vote in opposition to the motion to reconsider. Thank you.

The SPEAKER. On the motion to reconsider, the Speaker recognizes the gentleman from Allegheny County, Mr. Kotik.

Mr. KOTIK. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. Speaker, after a long debate I think there was a lot of confusion about the merits of this bill, about some of the facts that were brought out about this bill, and I think a lot of members were truly confused about where they wanted to go on this bill, and I think it is incumbent upon us to clarify this issue and to have a reconsideration of this vote. Thank you.

The SPEAKER. On the motion to reconsider, the Speaker recognizes the gentleman from Allegheny County, Mr. Dermody.

Mr. DERMODY. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

And I think the gentleman from Allegheny who just spoke is correct. There was significant confusion about this bill, and I would urge all the members to vote to reconsider HB 723.

Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. On the motion to reconsider, the Speaker recognizes the gentleman from Allegheny County, Mr. DeLuca.

Mr. DeLUCA. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. Speaker, I do not understand the majority leader asking people to vote "no" on a reconsideration motion, a procedural vote. My gosh, your vote is here. What are you scared of on a reconsideration motion? You got the majority over there. If you want to vote, vote. If you do not want to vote for it, do not vote. Do not say "no" on a reconsideration motion. Let us play a little fair here, because we have given you a lot of reconsideration motions.

Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Will the House agree to the motion?
