LEGISLATIVE JOURNAL

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 12, 2013

SESSION OF 2013

197TH OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY

No. 69

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

The House convened at 1 p.m., e.s.t.

THE SPEAKER (SAMUEL H. SMITH) PRESIDING

PRAYER

The SPEAKER. Today the prayer will be offered by Rabbi Seth Phillips, Congregation Keneseth Israel, Allentown, Pennsylvania.

RABBI SETH PHILLIPS, Guest Chaplain of the House of Representatives, offered the following prayer:

Creator and sustainer of all life, as we turn to our individual sources of strength and honor, of life and love, let the spirit of gratitude unite us – gratitude for those who faithfully serve our State and our country, gratitude for veterans and those now serving, and for their families, friends, and communities who support them.

May the efforts of this House secure the future of the hemlock, the white-tailed deer, the brook trout, and the mountain laurel, that Pennsylvania citizens may ever enjoy the beauty of the Commonwealth.

May the State beverage be plentiful for all infants and children and remind us to strive to fulfill the hopes of those who came before us and named their homes Bethel and Salem, Emmaus and Nazareth, Mt. Zion and Galilee, that Pennsylvania be a land flowing with milk and honey for all.

May the existence of an official State fossil, the trilobite, inspire us to consider our own enduring legacy.

And now for this day's deliberations, may the words of our mouths and the thoughts of our hearts be wise and just and earn the trust of our fellow citizens. So say we all, Amen.

PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE

They are here today as guests of Representative Harper.

AMBASSADOR SE-JOO SON PRESENTED

The SPEAKER. And I would now like to invite the Ambassador to the rostrum to address the House.

Welcome to the hall of the House.

Mr. SE-JOO SON. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Good afternoon.

The Honorable Speaker of the House, Samuel Smith, honorable members of the Pennsylvania House of Representatives, distinguished guests, and ladies and gentlemen.

It is my great pleasure to see you once again after my opportunity to greet you last January. Indeed, I am truly honored and privileged to be invited to speak to the leaders of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, which is home to one of the most vibrant Korean-American communities of 50,000 residents, and all across America these communities are thriving. Today this positive trend is evidenced by many Korean-Americans in various leadership positions, including one of your own, State Representative Patty Kim. So do you know why they are vibrant? There can be many answers. I would like to think one of them has to do with Korea's national dish, kimchi. This healthy food, fermented from vegetables with a variety of seasonings, Korean people eat every day. There is a saying that Korean men can live without their wives but they cannot part with the kimchi even for a day. So if you have not already, I would like to invite you to try some one day.

Ladies and gentlemen, this year is a special year. It marks the 60th anniversary of the Korea-U.S. alliance. This lasting bond, forged after the Korean war, has served as a linchpin of peace and stability in the Asia-Pacific region.

Last July I visited the U.S. Army War College in Carlisle, along with State Representative Stephen Bloom, to participate in the opening ceremony of the new Korean war exhibit, in the presence of many Korean war veterans.

In addition, I attended a commemorative event to honor Korean war veterans last September in Montgomery County with some of you. There I was moved by such a large gathering of Korean war veterans. Now in their eighties, I was saddened to see many of them in weakened physical conditions, but I was immensely inspired by their strong spirit – still the same as when they fought on the Korean Peninsula six decades ago.

I would like to take this opportunity to express my heartfelt gratitude to the brave soldiers from Pennsylvania, including Representative Harper's father-in-law, for their heroism and noble sacrifices. Their contributions made it possible for Korea to achieve what it is today, which now stands as America's seventh largest trading partner, and all the veterans and their family members I met were proud of Korea's remarkable developments.

Yesterday I attended the Veterans Day parade in New York. So it is also encouraging that here in Pennsylvania the House of Representatives is about to pass a resolution for war veterans. I thank you for this.

Honorable members of the Pennsylvania House of Representatives, the Korea-U.S. Free Trade Agreement has been implemented since March of 2012. Pennsylvania's bilateral trade with Korea, which is the State's tenth largest export market ahead of France, Italy, and India, was at $3.67 billion in 2012, a 5.2-percent increase from the year before.

Pennsylvania has many major beneficiary items for export to Korea. Among them, textile and agricultural products, transportation equipment, and published materials, for instance, have experienced considerable increases ranging from 80 percent to 240 percent in 2012.

Furthermore, Korean firms such as Hyundai Rotem, Dongwon StarKist, Hyosung HICO America, and Osstem Dental Implant are operating in the Keystone State. It is also worthy of mentioning that Korea's largest carmakers, Hyundai and Kia, are exporting their cars to the northeastern U.S. market through the Philadelphia port.

As I described, our future looks promising. In this regard, I do hope that Korea and Pennsylvania will make further efforts to explore our potentials by taking full advantage of this significant economic milestone.

Ladies and gentlemen, Pennsylvania is home to many premier universities, where 3700 young, talented Koreans are pursuing their studies. In 2012, of all foreign students in Pennsylvania, Korea ranked third after China and India. That means Korea has the largest number of students in terms of per capita. More broadly, a total of 73,000 Korean students are currently studying in the U.S.; among them about 22,000 are studying in STEM fields, areas of science, technology, engineering, and mathematics. Therefore, it will be beneficial to Pennsylvania's economy should these students get a chance to contribute to the Keystone State with their professional skills. Currently the U.S. Congress is deliberating on this matter of granting a professional visa quota for Korean professionals as a part of facilitating KORUS FTA (United States-Korea Free Trade Agreement), and I would like to seek your understanding and support.

In order to further stimulate our people-to-people exchanges, I would like to touch upon another issue of mutual recognition, of driver's licenses. By concluding an agreement between Korean and Pennsylvania governments, it will allow any drivers with a valid license from Pennsylvania to drive in Korea without obtaining Korean licenses and vice versa. I will introduce this proposal to the Pennsylvania government, and I kindly ask for your support for this issue as well.

Ladies and gentlemen, earlier this year North Korea's series of provocative acts caused heightened crisis. This situation surprised the news media around the world. They were drawn to this developing story like a moth to a flame. So they quickly sent their best reporters to Korea, but upon their arrival they were surprised once again to see Korean people going about their daily businesses in the face of possibly a major and imminent crisis. Such lackluster attitudes of ordinary Korean citizens made them lose their interest – perhaps a little disappointed. This was because Koreans have full confidence in their government's security preparedness posture based on a robust Korea-U.S. alliance. Korea's first female President, Park Geun-hye, has introduced and is carrying out what we call a two-track strategy of the "Trust-building Process on the Korean Peninsula." One track is peace-safeguarding, by maintaining peace based on credible, strong deterrence and not accepting North Korea's nuclear weapons program. Korea is peacemaking by building trust through dialogue and cooperation.

The most important goal of this process is to establish sustainable peace and ultimately work towards the peaceful reunification of the Korean Peninsula. In this regard, I would like to mention that just as the reunification of divided Germany ended the cold war, the opening of the Asia-Pacific era in the 21st century will have to start from resolving the Korean Peninsula issue, the sole lingering, last vestige of the cold war.

If high technology from the South of 50 million people and abundant labor force from the North of 25 million are combined, it will create a new vibrant market. It will also be a new growth engine benefiting the Asia-Pacific region, in particular the United States, including Pennsylvania, through the KORUS-FTA. In this context, I hope that you will continue to support us in this endeavor so that we can achieve the goal of "Trust-building Process on the Korean Peninsula."

Honorable members of the Pennsylvania House of Representatives, for the Korean government, enhancing happiness for the people is one of the four administrative priorities. This notion implies happiness for the people of Korea, but also includes peace and happiness for those in the global community. The reason being that the founding principle of Korea, which has been passed down since Dangun Choseon created it more than 4300 years ago, is the "홍익인간" (hongik-ingan) in Korean, meaning "benefiting all mankind." This is the same vein with the "pursuit of happiness" stipulated in the Declaration of Independence as one of America's founding principles.

In this light I am looking forward to working with you in a journey toward a future of greater happiness for the United States, Pennsylvania, and the Republic of Korea, as well as for the greater well-being and peace around the world.

Thank you very much for your kind attention.

The SPEAKER. Thank you, Ambassador.

The House will be at ease for a minute or two.

The House will come to order.

The SPEAKER. If you would kindly maintain the status, I want to mention and recognize some of the other guests that are with us today.

Although they have left, I did want to mention for the record that the wife of our Guest Chaplain, Marge Phillips, was also along with her husband this morning. They are guests of Representative Schlossberg.

Located to the left of the rostrum, we would like to welcome J.T. Carter. Mr. Carter was the originator of The Crests, a 1950's New York rhythm and blues doo-wop group. Some of you may be familiar with the group's hit song, "16 Candles" that rose to number two on the Billboard Top 100 chart in 1959. Mr. Carter will be performing later today in the East Wing, and he is here today as the guest of Representative Rosemary Brown. Will our guest please rise. Welcome to the hall of the House.

STATEMENT BY MRS. BROWN

The SPEAKER. Did the lady from Monroe County, Mrs. Brown, seek recognition under unanimous consent to expand on the introduction? The lady is recognized.

Mrs. R. BROWN. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Today I have the privilege to welcome to Harrisburg and honor J.T. Carter. J.T. is a constituent of mine from Pike County, who has dedicated his life to bringing people together through music. As you mentioned, at 16 he founded the interracial doo-wop group, The Crests. You may have heard, as you mentioned, one of his group's hit songs, "16 Candles," which rose to number two on the Billboard Top 100 chart in 1959.

After the group split in 1978, J.T. Carter sang and performed with the Drifters, Fred Parrish and the Five Satins, Harold Melvin and the Blue Notes, and Teddy Pendergrass.

The Crests were inducted into the United in Group Harmony Association Hall of Fame in 2000, as well as the Vocal Group Hall of Fame in 2004.

J.T. was a pioneer in creating one of the first interracial music groups in America. I commend his efforts in bringing us tremendous music while bringing all people together to create and enjoy it.

I consider J.T. one of my most famous constituents. He hears me say that back in the district a lot, and he has played for many of my personal events as well. Please join J.T. today as he performs in the East Wing Rotunda.

Thank you, J.T., for all your work in music, and thank you for sharing it with us today in Harrisburg.

Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. The Speaker thanks the lady.

JOSEPH GALASSO PRESENTED

The SPEAKER. I would like to invite Representative Taylor and Representative Sabatina to the rostrum for the purpose of presenting a citation to Joseph Galasso, the 138-pound State wrestling champion.

The gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Sabatina, is recognized.

Mr. SABATINA. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

I would like to welcome today a very special guest who is joining us and ask all the members to give a warm welcome to the 2013 PIAA Class AAA State Champion, Joseph Galasso.

This past March Joe captured his first, and Father Judge High School's first, career PIAA Class AAA State Championship title. In dramatic fashion, in overtime Joe connected on a takedown against a highly skilled wrestler from Central Dauphin to score the victory.

Though this was his first State title, it was not the first accolades for Joe. As a freshman at Malvern Prep, Joe was a Wetzel Invitational third-place finisher, in addition to a Pennsylvania Independent Schools Wrestling Tournament third-place finisher, at 125 pounds. He ended his freshman campaign as a National Prep fourth-place medalist with a fantastic 41-6 record.

As a sophomore, Joe transferred to Father Judge High School, which of course is my alma mater, and I am sure that is where Joe learned how to refine all his wrestling skills. But Joe's drive to succeed took him to new heights, including winning the championships in the Southeastern Pennsylvania Classic, A.I. duPont Classic, and the Philadelphia Catholic League Sectional. Joe would then head to Hershey for his first career State tournament and advance as far as the championship quarterfinals before finishing the tournament with his first State medal, with a fifth-place finish.

This past year Joe achieved what all high school athletes dream about: He improved on his already impressive resume at Father Judge and ended the season by capturing his first PIAA Class AAA State Championship title.

This is hardly the end of the road for Joe, however. His outstanding wrestling career and academic success have given him the opportunity to continue to develop both his wrestling skills and his education at Cornell University.

I ask you to join me in wishing Joe all the best as he continues to succeed on the mat and in the classroom. And now we will have some remarks from Representative Taylor.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Philadelphia County, Mr. Taylor, is recognized.

Mr. TAYLOR. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

And hopefully our Philadelphia delegation is paying attention and is very proud of Joe Galasso, because for most of my time here, Philadelphia athletes did not participate in the PIAA. And some of my wrestling-fan colleagues would say, "Well, it is a good thing, because there is no way a kid from Philadelphia will win a State wrestling championship anyway." Well, Joe, you changed their mind on that, and we appreciate it very much. And one of the things that Representative Sabatina had to say was Joe has secured admission to Cornell University. And in addition to his – yes, that is deserving of applause for sure – and in addition to his wrestling skills, he is an outstanding student, and anybody you ask about Joe Galasso will tell you what a fine young man he is. And that is a tribute not only to Joe, but to his family, to his coaches, and to his school.

GUESTS INTRODUCED

Mr. TAYLOR. And with us today, we have some guests. First of all, starting out with Joe's mother, Renee Galasso; Renee, please stand. Joe's wrestling coach – and I have to say this – former coach at North Catholic, wrestling coach Jim Savage; Jim, thank you much for being here. The principal of Father Judge High School, Rev. James Dalton. Father. And also, James Lynch, the athletic director at Father Judge. Congratulations to all of you.

And Joe, we expect great things, not only in your senior year at Father Judge, but certainly as you attend and complete Cornell University. Thanks.

Thanks, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. The Speaker thanks the gentleman.

The House will be at ease for a minute or two.

The House will come to order.

DALLAS HIGH SCHOOL GIRLS CROSS COUNTRY TEAM PRESENTED

The SPEAKER. I would like to invite Representatives Boback and Mundy to the rostrum for the purpose of presenting citations to the Dallas High School Girls Cross Country Team, and Dominic DeLuca, a State champion from the boys cross country team.

The Speaker recognizes the lady, Ms. Boback.

Ms. BOBACK. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

I rise today to honor a great group of young ladies from my district.

Early this month the Dallas High School Girls Cross Country Team won the Class AA State title. This is the third time they have taken home the title in the past 10 years, also winning it in 2005 and 2003. The championship is an even greater accomplishment when you consider that these ladies lost out on the title last year by only 3 points.

Helping the ladies bounce back this year was senior Regan Rome, who finished second in Hershey. She was joined by several of her teammates who also finished in the top 20 racers to participate in the race.

Many of the girls on this great Dallas team will be going on to college next year, but given their history, I am sure they have a great chance to be right back in the same position next year. We wish them well.

Representative Mundy.

The SPEAKER. The Speaker recognizes the lady, Ms. Mundy.

Ms. MUNDY. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

You know, when I was going to high school, we did not have a girls cross country team; in fact, there were a lot of girls sports that we did not have that we are happy to have today. And of course we are very, very proud of our State Champion Dallas Girls Cross Country Team, its captains, and its coaches, and the entire community joins Representative Boback and me in honoring their achievement. It takes a lot of dedication and hard work to get to a State championship, and we are very, very proud of their accomplishment.

Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

DOMINIC DeLUCA PRESENTED

The SPEAKER. The Speaker recognizes the lady, Ms. Boback, relative to the second citation.

Ms. BOBACK. Thank you. And just imagine, we have two great citations to present today.

Right now I rise to honor an outstanding athlete from my district. Dominic DeLuca is a senior from Dallas who excelled in cross country over all of his years at the Dallas High School; in fact, just a couple of weeks ago Dominic became the first State cross country champion in more than 20 years to come from Dallas High School. He finished the championship-winning race in Hershey with a time of 16:21.

Dominic credited his coach, Matt Samuel, for helping him get familiar with the course. Matt was a high school runner as well; in fact, he was a sophomore when a Dallas runner last took home the championship, and that was Steve Oliver in 1990.

The SPEAKER. If I could have the members' attention. I would appreciate if you would hold the conversations down.

Ms. BOBACK. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

The season is not over for Dominic; in fact, he will compete in the Foot Locker Regional Meet on November 30 in New York City. The top 10 finishers qualify for the Foot Locker Nationals, which are set for December in California.

We all wish Dominic the best of luck. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. The House will be at ease for a couple of minutes.

The House will come to order.

The majority having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative and the resolutions were adopted.

STATEMENT BY MR. READSHAW

The SPEAKER. The Speaker recognizes the gentleman from Allegheny County, Mr. Readshaw, under unanimous consent relative to one of the resolutions just adopted. I would appreciate the members' attention, please.

Mr. READSHAW. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

I would like to invite our colleagues who also served in the Marine Corps – Representative Wheatley, Representative Goodman, Representative English, if they are available – to step down to the well of the House, please.

Mr. Speaker, November 10, 2013, was the 238th birthday celebration of the United States Marine Corps. Gen. John A. Lejeune's Birthday Message, Order 47, was read at Marine Corps birthday ceremonies around the world on November 10. This message is an annual reminder of how our Marine Corps has distinguished itself from other military forces through the battles Marines have borne and the sacrifices we have made since 1775.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman suspend one minute, please.

I would appreciate if the members would kindly take their seats and hold the conversations down. Members will please take their seats.

The gentleman may proceed. Thank you.

Mr. READSHAW. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Marines are mission-focused, often consumed with the task at hand. General Lejeune's message affords us an opportunity to take a moment to reflect on what it means to be part of a proud legacy that runs longer than the nation itself. General Lejeune's message focuses on the Marine Corps' most valuable asset: Marines.

I have no doubt that if General Lejeune were drafting that message today, with the force equipped with the 21st century technology, he would still credit the Marine Corps' success to the men and women who have earned the title "Marine." These men and women are the reason, as General Lejeune wrote, "...the term 'Marine' has come to signify all that is highest in military efficiency and soldierly virtue."

DOCUMENT SUBMITTED FOR THE RECORD

Mr. READSHAW. Mr. Speaker, as I mentioned, it is traditional on November 10 around the world, wherever there is a Marine Corps celebration, that General Lejeune's Order 47 be read, and I will be submitting that for the record.

As we celebrate the 238th birthday of the United States Marine Corps, we thank all Marines for your steadfast support of our mission. Because of you, generations of Marines have a place that honors their legacy every day of the year. Together, we will not let the stories be forgotten.

Semper fidelis, and as we say in the Corps, oorah!

Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. READSHAW submitted a document for the Legislative Journal.

(For document, see Appendix.)

STATEMENT BY MR. MIRANDA

The SPEAKER. Is the gentleman from Philadelphia County, Mr. Miranda, seeking recognition under unanimous consent relative to one of the resolutions just adopted?

The gentleman is in order and may proceed.

Mr. MIRANDA. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. Speaker and my House colleagues, thank you for adopting the resolution declaring October as "Bullying Awareness Month" in Pennsylvania.

As many as one out of five school students has been a victim of bullying, yet most do not realize what bullying really means. Bullying can be physical or mental attacks on a person. The bully may resort to hitting, punching, pinching, or other physical assaults, or may be more subtle, using words or actions. The bully may say bad things about their victim, or even post mean, vicious remarks on social media outlets like Facebook and Twitter. Anybody may be a bully: big kids, small kids, rich, poor, young, or old. You cannot tell a bully just by looking at them. Even girls can bully boys.

We have also been reminded by the National Football League that bullying is not just an issue children deal with. We have all heard about the issue with the NFL, Miami Dolphins, and the texts and the voicemails filled with the "N" word, which lineman Richie Incognito allegedly sent to his teammate and linemate, Jonathan Martin.

Jonathan did the right thing: He reported the bullying, yet he is still being attacked for not "taking it like a man." If a pro football player, by any definition a physically strong person, can be so affected, think how the youngest victims must feel. Thank you, Mr. Martin, for standing up against bullies and showing our youth the correct path.

We must realize that bullying is much more than teasing. The victims suffer unbearable humiliation, and we have all heard of the bullying cases which have tragically led to suicides. We need to stop bullying at the most common location: our schools. We need to encourage victims to come forward and to talk to their parents and teachers, and we need to make sure that our schools are prepared to handle bullying cases to protect our children.

Most importantly, we need to make sure the victim knows that bullying is not their fault. They are the victims, not the causes.

I was very glad to see the widespread support from all portions of the Commonwealth for this bullying resolution, but we must also be aware that the words we choose as lawmakers can inflict pain as well, words and phrases such as "on welfare," "foreigner," "illegal alien." I do not understand what that term means. We are all human beings living on this planet earth. They cause pain for those on the receiving end of those words. We are the lawmakers. We are the leadership. Please reflect. What we do and say in this hallowed chamber can be a positive example for all Pennsylvanians.

I implore Mr. Roger Goodell; the NFL; Mr. Ross, the owner of the Miami Dolphins; and legislators in this chamber to further combat bullying at its cause. Young folks throughout the whole nation are watching for our guidance.

Thank you again for adoption of this resolution.

The SPEAKER. The Speaker thanks the gentleman.

SUPPLEMENTAL CALENDAR A

RESOLUTION PURSUANT TO RULE 35

Mr. MIRABITO called up HR 541, PN 2613, entitled:

A Resolution congratulating the Lycoming County Veterans Parade Committee for organizing the Lycoming County Veterans Parade on November 9, 2013, which will be held in honor of the upcoming National Veterans Day on November 11, 2013.

On the question,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

The SPEAKER. On that question, the Speaker recognizes the gentleman from Lycoming County, Mr. Mirabito.

Mr. MIRABITO. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

We all know that yesterday was Veterans Day, and I want to thank the members of the House for their support on HR 541.

I am joined today by several of the veterans who were active in the planning of this event, and I would ask them to stand and remain standing when they are recognized. Mr. Lloyd Brooks served from 1965-1968 in the Marine Corps. Mr. Tom Pittenger served from 1967-1971 in the Air Force and from 1972-1982 in the Army Reserve. Mr. Bob Minier, representing his father, Robert E. Minier, who served in World War II. Mr. Richard Kelly served from 1966-1995 in the Army and Army Reserve. And Mr. Martin Payne served from 1965-1972 in the Air Force, and he is joined by his wife, Delphine. Let us give them a warm House welcome and thank them for their service.

Mr. Speaker, it was little over a year ago that Mr. Brooks came to me and said, "We have not had a Veterans Day parade in this county in decades. What can we do to change that?" Mr. Speaker, our office, led by my chief of staff, Tonya Anderson, who is also here today, worked with the veterans. And by the way, I would like her to stand and be recognized.

Ms. Anderson came up with the idea of calling the parade the Welcome Home Parade to honor our veterans – some who may not have had a warm welcome when they came home. The veterans, along with help from our office, representatives of the city of Williamsport, other local State officials, and strong support from Clear Channel radio and their employees – Cindi Perry, Brenda Everett, and Kathryn Fidler – worked for over a year to put the event together.

The veterans put on a great event and thousands came out to honor them in a parade that lasted for several hours. It was truly a moment of community pride and pride on the part of the veterans. One of the most touching parts of the whole process was a 92-year-old World War II veteran named Don Kuhns, who faithfully came to meetings and organized over 30 World War II veterans to ride horse-drawn carts through the city of Williamsport.

The resounding cheers from the public for these men – who are now 88-92 years old and looking as strong and proud as the day they returned from World War II – was a fantastic moment. Mr. Speaker, equally touching were the handheld signs by people along the route that said, "Thank you, veterans. Thank you for your service."

But, Mr. Speaker, this was more than a parade. When we sat down and when the veterans sat down to organize this event, they knew that this was the beginning of a road to work together to solve problems that veterans face in our community and communities all across this nation. We know, Mr. Speaker, that there are five major problems that veterans face when they come home, including: unemployment, living with devastating wounds, mental health issues, homelessness, and the need for education.

In the area of unemployment, Mr. Speaker, we know there is a general consensus that veteran unemployment rates are higher than for nonveterans. One of the challenges we face as a society is that historically, this is the first generation of business leaders who have not served in a war; thus, some may not understand the skills that veterans bring to a company when returning home.

Mr. Speaker, in the area of devastating wounds, the improvements in technology have allowed more soldiers to survive battlefield wounds; in fact, experts tell us that 13 percent of the troops wounded in Iraq and Afghanistan died from their wounds, which is the lowest number ever recorded. Now over 32,000 soldiers who return from Iraq are living with devastating wounds, including amputations and head injuries.

Mr. Speaker, in the area of mental health issues, we know that post-traumatic stress disorder rates are very high among our returning veterans; in fact, as of 2012 over 228,000 troops who served in Iraq and Afghanistan returned with post-traumatic stress disorder. And sadly, recent studies have shown us that over 22 veterans a day are dying from suicide; 22 veterans a day are dying from suicide.

In the area of homelessness, Mr. Speaker, although, there has been some decrease in the homeless rate among veterans, we know large numbers of veterans still need affordable housing. Some studies have shown that female veterans are the fastest growing population among the homeless. And we know that government rental assistance programs help over 300,000 veterans and their families to keep a roof over their heads.

And finally, Mr. Speaker, with respect to education, we know that we need to continue the fight for tuition assistance for our veterans. Education at all levels is the tool that will empower veterans to have the most fulfilling lives.

Mr. Speaker, by recognizing these problems, we can work together at all levels – local, State, and Federal – to ensure that veterans receive the dignity and the respect that they deserve.

Mr. Speaker, Mr. Lloyd Brooks, the same veteran sitting in the back of the room who sparked the parade interest, said to me recently, "Rick, what can we try to do to deal with the problem of homelessness among veterans in our county?" Now, Mr. Speaker, we are working on that problem, and I know with the veterans' leadership, we will succeed.

In closing, I want to thank all the veterans for their service and the members of the House for their support of HR 541.

Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

On the question recurring,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

STATEMENT BY MAJORITY LEADER

The SPEAKER. I would like to recognize the majority leader, Mr. Turzai, who would like to make some general remarks relative to yesterday's Veterans Day and honoring our veterans. If I could have the members' attention. I would appreciate if you would kindly stay in your seats and hold the conversations down.

The gentleman may proceed.

Mr. TURZAI. Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker.

In honoring veterans, those that have given up their lives, those that have been harmed, and all of those who have served, we honor you and we appreciate your service and recognize that the freedom in this country is due to the service that you have given. But I also want to talk about, with respect to Veterans Day, the service that the veterans have provided the world.

Former Secretary of State Colin Powell – Head of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, National Security Advisor, 35-year military veteran – gave this quote about the American soldier, "We have gone forth from our shores repeatedly over the last hundred years and we've done this as recently as the last year in Afghanistan and put wonderful young men and women at risk, many of whom have lost their lives, and we have asked for nothing except enough ground to bury them in, and otherwise we have returned home to seek our own, you know, to seek our own lives in peace to live our own lives in peace...."

I take note of the good Consul General from Korea, and take use of just the Korean war. In June of 2010 Lee Myung-bak from Korea had this to say about the service of Americans with respect to his country: "...about 37,000 Americans lost their lives. They fought for the freedom of Koreans they did not...know, and thanks to their sacrifices, the peace and democracy of the republic were protected." And Koreans give significant tribute to those servicepeople.

The Korean war, the Vietnam war, the wars in Iraq, the war in Afghanistan, World War II, World War I, all the way back to the Revolutionary War: For freedom and democracy, people have put their lives at risk in the service of our country and in the service of freedom and democracy throughout the world. I stand in honor of all those people given Veterans Day yesterday. Thank you very much.

The SPEAKER. The Speaker thanks the gentleman.

STATEMENT BY MR. LONGIETTI

The SPEAKER. The Speaker recognizes the gentleman from Mercer County, Mr. Longietti, under unanimous consent.

Mr. LONGIETTI. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. Speaker, I rise today with a heavy heart. This past weekend a two-vehicle accident in my district claimed the lives of two senior football players from Sharon High School, as well as a father from neighboring Brookfield, Ohio. Injured in that crash were that father's stepson and twin brothers, who are also senior football players at Sharon.

My heartfelt prayers go out to the family, friends, coaches, and teammates of Corey Swartz and Evan Gill, who were described by their coaches and teammates as the heart and soul of that team, and to the wife and family of John Zdelar, who was described as a devoted and loving husband and father.

Our prayers also go out to John's stepson, Evan Wallace, who was recently released from the hospital, and to Craig and Greg Osmon, who remain hospitalized. May God bless and heal them all, physically and emotionally, from this terrible tragedy.

I want to commend the entire Shenango Valley community for coming together as one in support of all those affected by these events. A vigil held at Sharon football stadium Saturday night found cheerleaders and representatives from neighboring schools in attendance to offer their support. Additionally, members of the Hickory High Football Team traveled to Sharon's playoff game last night in Erie County to show their support. Although the Tigers came up 3 points short in that contest, they were described as winners by the local newspaper for their bravery and their commitment to honor the lives of their fellow teammates.

This is a very trying time for my community and particularly for those families most directly affected. My heart goes out to them all. As my pastor, Rev. John Trojak, stated this past Sunday, God did not intend this harm to occur, but He does promise to make all things work together for good for those who live according to His purpose. May our God wipe away the tears and heal the broken hearts and broken bones, and may His will allow something good to come out of this tragedy.

Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. The Speaker thanks the gentleman.

STATEMENT BY MRS. PARKER

The SPEAKER. The Speaker recognizes the lady from Philadelphia County, Mrs. Parker, under unanimous consent relative to one of the resolutions that was adopted earlier.

Mrs. PARKER. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. Speaker, I rise to just give a wholehearted thanks to my colleagues, Representative Boback and Representative Mundy for working together in a bipartisan manner to acknowledge the young people you just acknowledged today. We honor a whole lot of young men and women for their sports prowess, but very rarely do we honor young people for their involvement in cross country. It is usually not perceived as a very popular sport.

And, Mr. Speaker, centuries ago – well, it seems like centuries ago – I had the great honor and privilege of participating as a member of a cross country team during undergrad. Now, I want you to know that your colleague was so bad that I could never run with the actual team, but I was just grateful that they allowed me to practice with them. So I am familiar with the sweat, the tears, the dedication, and commitment that it just takes to finish, to finish practice.

So to Representative Boback and Representative Mundy, thank you so very much for acknowledging these young people for an often forgotten sport.

The SPEAKER. The Speaker thanks the lady.

RECESS

The SPEAKER. Seeing no further announcements, this House will stand in recess until 4 p.m., unless sooner recalled by the Speaker.

(2) The remainder of this act shall take effect immediately.

On the question,
Will the House agree to the amendment?

The SPEAKER pro tempore. On that question, the gentleman, Mr. Cohen, is recognized.

Mr. COHEN. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. Speaker, this amendment, if adopted, should broaden the appeal of the bill in the Senate. This language is virtually identical to the language introduced by Senator Scarnati in the Senate in a bill that has already passed the Senate and it is stuck in the State Government Committee.

This amendment requires the Department of State to post on its lobbyist disclosure Web site all lobbying registration and reporting documents it receives within 7 days of filing. It also requires that all lobbyist registrations, amendments to registrations, terminations, expense reports, and affirmations be filed electronically.

I think both the House and the Senate have good ideas for reform. The inclination of the House seems to be to reject the Senate reforms and the inclination of the Senate seems to be to reject the House reforms. By putting them all together in the same bill I think will make it likely that both the House and the Senate reforms can be adopted.

I urge support of this legislation similar to Senator Scarnati's bill in the Senate.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair thanks the gentleman and recognizes the gentleman, Mr. Cutler, on the amendment.

Mr. CUTLER. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. Speaker, I rise in opposition to the gentleman's amendment, not because it is not a good idea, because it is. Mr. Speaker, I believe if it were drafted properly it is in fact something that we could support. I would merely raise two points of concern that I think make the bill internally inconsistent and one that raises a greater concern.

Mr. Speaker, the one is, the effective date would be the end of 2014. I believe that that timeframe, in my conversation with the Department of State, is unfortunately too quick given their current computer system. I do not believe that it could be adequately adapted to take this into consideration in that timeframe. I wish that were the case and believe that if it had a later timeframe, it could in fact be considered.

Mr. Speaker, of greater concern, though, is the internal inconsistency. While I certainly support the gentleman's efforts to get everything immediately online so that it could be immediately accessible so that we as the citizens and as taxpayers could review that information and the timeliness and the accuracy of it; unfortunately, what it does not remove is page 3, lines 21-23, which leaves in the provision that allows them to file both through paper and electronically. Mr. Speaker, that, unfortunately, would be internally inconsistent. I would urge a "no" vote for that reason.

But I would also encourage the Senate, if they are so inclined, to include this provision in that bill if they see fit, because I do think that on its merits and conceptually that it is a good idea. Unfortunately, I do not believe it is properly drafted to fit into the current construct of the bill. And for that reason, Mr. Speaker, I would urge a "no" vote. Thank you.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair thanks the gentleman and recognizes the gentleman, Mr. Cohen, for the second time.

Mr. COHEN. Thank you. Mr. Speaker, I am sure whatever technical problems there might be in this amendment – I am not certain that I accept the gentleman's belief that there are technical problems, but if there are, I am sure the Senate could work this out and the Department of State can work it out. All legislation, setting deadlines is directory, not mandatory. If it cannot be done on January 1, you know, it will be done as soon as possible. There is no enforcement mechanism here.

But I think it is important that we try to set a date, that we try to speed up the process, and that we not allow small differences to become major differences, dragging good ideas on for a long period of time.

I would repeat my request for a "yes" vote on this worthwhile amendment.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair thanks the gentleman and recognizes the gentleman, Mr. Cutler, for the second time.

Mr. CUTLER. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

One important item that I failed to mention previously was this bill, HB 744, in its current form represents the compromise that was reached after the bill had unanimously passed the House last session.

Mr. Speaker, it is important to note that there are several provisions that were put in this bill at the request of the various interest groups – the lobbyists that it actually regulates, Mr. Speaker. And unfortunately, this particular provision – in addition to, in my opinion, being drafted so that it does not match up nicely with the bill, and therefore, should be opposed – Mr. Speaker, it is also outside the scope of the original agreement.

And for that reason I would also urge a "no" vote. Thank you.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair thanks the gentleman.

Less than the majority having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the negative and the amendment was not agreed to.

On the question recurring,
Will the House agree to the bill on second consideration?

Mr. COHEN offered the following amendment No. A03788:

Amend Bill, page 1, line 3, by inserting after "providing"
for definitions,

Amend Bill, page 1, lines 7 through 9, by striking out all of said lines and inserting

Section 1. Section 13A03 of Title 65 of the Pennsylvania
Consolidated Statutes is amended by adding definitions to read:
§ 13A03. Definitions.

The following words and phrases when used in this chapter shall have the meanings given to them in this section unless the context clearly indicates otherwise:

* * *

"Campaign manager." A person in charge of day-to-day management of a political campaign or anyone who has a title of campaign manager by a candidate or political committee, whether paid or unpaid.

* * *

"Political consultant." A person compensated for giving political advice.

* * *

Section 2. Sections 13A07(a) and (f)(2), 13A09(c)(1) and (e) and 13A10(c) of Title 65 are amended to read:

Amend Bill, page 1, by inserting between lines 10 and 11

(a) Political committees.—

(1) A lobbyist may not serve as a treasurer or other officer who must be included in a registration statement under section 1624(b)(2) and (3) of the act of June 3, 1937 (P.L.1333, No.320), known as the Pennsylvania Election Code, for a candidate's political committee or a candidate's political action committee if the candidate is seeking a Statewide office or the office of Senator or Representative in the General Assembly.

(2) A lobbyist may not serve as a campaign manager or political consultant for a candidate seeking a Statewide office or the office of Senator or Representative in the General Assembly.
Amend Bill, page 3, line 30, by striking out "2" and inserting

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

The SPEAKER pro tempore. On that question, the Chair recognizes the gentleman, Mr. Cohen.

Mr. COHEN. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. Speaker, this is another example of the House and Senate pushing different reforms under which a situation in which neither reform becomes enacted. I seek to get this into the bill so we can have a bill with both House and Senate reforms in it that can pass the Senate and get enacted into law.

This amendment is reworded slightly from legislation introduced by Senator Eichelberger. It prohibits a lobbyist from serving as a campaign manager or compensated political consultant for a candidate seeking a statewide office or the office of Senator or Representative in the General Assembly.
I believe Senator Eichelberger had a good idea and it is helpful to separate lobbyists from the actual management of campaigns.
We all know lobbyists contribute and steer contributions to campaigns, but this at least creates some limit on the activities of lobbyists in campaigns.

I think Senator Eichelberger has a good idea. It belongs in the bill. It will strengthen the bill in the Senate if this amendment is in the bill. I urge support for amendment 03788.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair thanks the gentleman and recognizes the gentleman, Mr. Cutler, on the amendment.

Mr. CUTLER. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Unfortunately, I rise in opposition of this amendment as well.

Mr. Speaker, like the last amendment, I believe that this amendment is a good idea; however, Mr. Speaker, I believe that there are certain key elements of this amendment that are not drafted in the tightest fashion. Mr. Speaker, I would only offer the following example as to where I think this amendment could become problematic.

Mr. Speaker, I understand the gentleman's concerns regarding the idea of a campaign manager and a lobbyist and all those terms that are adequately raised by the gentleman, but I do not believe they are adequately defined. Mr. Speaker, I believe as written this is unclear on whether the position would be paid or unpaid; the idea of compensation, what that in fact is.
Mr. Speaker, I would also argue that the lobbyist could not serve in a volunteer capacity.

Mr. Speaker, finally, the term "political consultant" is defined as, "A person that would be compensated for giving political advice," which means that they could not even be paid for such advice if they are being appropriately compensated.

Mr. Speaker, finally, and I think this is probably one of those gray areas or unintended consequences that is not considered.
Mr. Speaker, I understand the gentleman's concerns, but my fear would be as follows: You have the consultant that is working from, let us say, a media perspective, who is consulting with a campaign on the use of internet media – whether it be Twitter or Facebook or those kinds of outreaches. Mr. Speaker, while they are engaged with a campaign, perhaps they are only consulting on the social media aspect of that campaign, and, Mr. Speaker, I do not believe it is adequately defined, the definitions here, and for that reason I do not know if that would fall under political advice or if that would be considered media advice or public relations, and I would not want to create a loophole that could be otherwise exploited by groups the good gentleman wishes to get. For that reason I would again encourage a "no" vote.

But I do want to voice my support, because I believe if it were appropriately drafted and would come back from the Senate drafted in such a way that it would include these areas where I think that the definitions could be tightened up a little bit, I would be wholeheartedly supportive.

Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair thanks the gentleman.

The Chair recognizes the gentleman, Mr. Cohen, for the second time.

Mr. COHEN. Thank you. Mr. Speaker, I think the meaning of this language is clear. One could always argue that any legislation does not perfectly answer every question, but it sets a clear principle that there should be a separation of functions between lobbyists for a specific client and either campaign manager or paid consultant.

I think we know what a campaign manager is. A campaign manager is generally publicly identified as such. We know what it is to be a paid consultant. You know, Senator Scarnati's original language did not use the word "paid." I did not want anybody arguing that a guy who sees you in the hallway and yells, "Do more direct mail" is a consultant to your campaign. Salary requires some kind of real nexus between a campaign and the person who receives it. It is not just a casual communication.

I think this legislation, again, would strengthen the prime sponsor's bill and increase the likelihood of it being enacted by the Senate. I urge support of it.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair thanks the gentleman.

Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

The majority having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative and the resolution as amended was adopted.

STATEMENT BY MR. CLYMER

The SPEAKER pro tempore. On the resolution, the gentleman, Mr. Clymer, are you seeking recognition?

On unanimous consent, the gentleman is so recognized.

Mr. CLYMER. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

And I appreciate the affirmative vote, unanimous vote on HR 503 as amended.

As you have read in your resumes, this resolution takes a critical view of the Federal government closing down not only the National World War II Memorial, which occurred on October 1, 2013, but all Federal war memorials, as amended.

While the National Park Service was the one that closed down the World War II Memorial and the other memorials, it is interesting to note that both the Secretary of the Interior and the President as Commander in Chief had the authority to keep these memorials open. Closing this World War II Memorial and other memorials certainly was a disservice to our veterans.

Now, Mr. Speaker, it is my understanding that the World War II Memorial was built by private funds, not by Federal dollars.

During the shutdown we witnessed veterans, many in their late eighties and nineties, attempting to break down the barricades so they could pay respect to their fallen comrades. With the help of family, some veterans were able to push aside the barricades and reach the memorial to pay their heartfelt respect.

Mr. Speaker, the unnecessary closing of the World War II Memorial and the other memorials such as Vietnam and Korea certainly is a sad commentary on how this nation reflects upon its honored dead and those who sacrificed greatly. Hopefully, Mr. Speaker, this type of occurrence will forever be a thing of the past. Thank you.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair thanks the gentleman.

SUPPLEMENTAL CALENDAR B

BILLS ON THIRD CONSIDERATION

The House proceeded to third consideration of HB 397, PN 2598, entitled:

An Act providing for limited immunity for persons that sponsor farm-related tourism activities.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third consideration?

Bill was agreed to.

(Bill analysis was read.)

The SPEAKER pro tempore. This bill has been considered on three different days and agreed to and is now on final passage.

The question is, shall the bill pass finally?

On that question, the gentleman, Mr. Neuman, is recognized, from Washington County.

Mr. NEUMAN. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

I would like to ask the maker of the bill to rise for brief interrogation.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Will the gentleman, Mr. Keller, agree to a brief period of interrogation? The gentleman has agreed, and you may proceed.

Mr. NEUMAN. Thank you, Mr. Speaker, and thank you to the maker of the bill for rising for brief interrogation.

My question is, generally under your bill, is there an instance where somebody could be injured due to negligence and then the farm owner would have immunity from that negligence that caused the injury?

Mr. M. KELLER. Mr. Speaker, yes, they would, as long as the individual was taking part and the signs were posted. It would be very clearly explained.

Mr. NEUMAN. Thank you, Mr. Speaker. That ends my interrogation.

CONSTITUTIONAL POINT OF ORDER

Mr. NEUMAN. Mr. Speaker, I would like to make a motion.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The gentleman is in order and will state his motion.

Mr. NEUMAN. Mr. Speaker, I would like to make a motion that this bill is unconstitutional based on Article I, section 11, of the Pennsylvania Constitution.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The gentleman, Mr. Neuman, raises the point of order that HB 397 is unconstitutional.

On the question,

Will the House sustain the constitutionality of the bill?

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Speaker, under rule 4, is required to submit questions affecting the constitutionality of a bill to the House for decision, which the Chair now does, and recognizes the gentleman, Mr. Neuman.

Mr. NEUMAN. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Article I, section 11, clearly reads that "All courts shall be open; and every man for an injury done..." to him, his lands, "...goods, person or reputation shall have..." the remedy of "...due course of law...."

Mr. Speaker, this bill, just admittedly by the maker of the bill, would violate the Constitution.

The question stated was, somebody that is injured due to negligence, would the farmer have the ability to raise the defense of immunity? And the answer was yes. That clearly shows that this bill is unconstitutional. A person that is injured on a farm would not have a remedy of due course in the courts, and that clearly violates Article I, section 11, of the Constitution.

Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair thanks the gentleman.

On the question of constitutionality, the gentleman, Mr. Keller, is so recognized.

Mr. M. KELLER. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. Speaker, as far as constitutionality, you already have access to the courts. It does not, you know, immune you from that. Plus the fact there is already legislation that addresses this, this same issue, with the equestrian, and the issue here is very, very similar to the equestrian bill that was passed about 2 or 3 years ago. It is the same principle, same thing, and you do have the courts.

So I find that it is constitutional.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair thanks the gentleman.

On the question of constitutionality, the gentleman, Mr. Neuman, is recognized for the second time.

Will the gentleman please suspend.

The Chair has been corrected; only one time, I apologize, on constitutionality.

Those voting "aye" will vote to declare the bill to be constitutional; those voting "no" will vote to declare the bill to be unconstitutional.

On the question recurring,

Will the House sustain the constitutionality of the bill?

The majority having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative and the constitutionality of the bill was sustained.

On the question recurring,
Shall the bill pass finally?

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Does the gentleman, Mr. Neuman, seek further recognition?

Mr. NEUMAN. Yes, briefly, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. Speaker, I rise to oppose this bill.

Any immunity from injury of negligence is not right. If somebody is injured at no fault of their own, they should have a right to recover, and this bill would limit rights of individuals to recovery from injuries of no fault of their own.

So, Mr. Speaker, I encourage people to vote "no" on this bill. Thank you.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair thanks the gentleman and recognizes the majority leader, Mr. Turzai.

Mr. TURZAI. I encourage all members to please vote "yes" in favor of HB 397.

On second consideration, there were nine amendments that were offered. All nine amendments have gone in that were to curb the concerns raised by the good gentleman from Washington County.

The fact of the matter is, in a bipartisan fashion, people accepted the amendments that were offered with the idea, as I remember the debate being stated, to make the bill better. The good gentleman from Perry County is still asking that the legislation be run, because it is in fact important to the agriculture and the agricultural tourism industry, which employs thousands of jobs in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. Agriculture continues to be the number one employer in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

And we have adequately dealt with the concerns that were raised by those with respect to the issues that the good gentleman from Washington County raised and those special interests that had been supporting those particular amendments. Every single amendment was taken into the legislation, so there is balance here. We should be supporting the good gentleman from Perry County and get this bill over to the Senate, because it is important legislation and it is certainly balanced.

And I want to say, I applaud the graciousness – the graciousness, the judiciousness of the author of this bill, and I would ask everybody to support this gentleman, who is moving forward with the bill despite the fact that every single amendment went in he was not in favor of, but he believes that the balance of the bill is still completely worthwhile. And he is asking everybody for unanimous support and I support that myself.

Thank you very, very much.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair thanks the gentleman and recognizes the gentleman, Mr. Keller, on final passage.

Mr. M. KELLER. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Traditionally, farmers are finding alternative uses for their land in the growing industry called agritourism, which are tourist-related recreational or educational activities located on farms in Pennsylvania. Think of such activities as corn mazes, pick-your-own pumpkin harvests, hayrides, and farm vacations. Because agritourism takes place on working farms, it involves inherent risks that are impossible to eliminate. For that reason agritourism activities are frequently not covered by customary farm liability policies, so farmers face a number of challenges in securing adequate coverage.

Under current Pennsylvania law, these entrepreneur farmers face enormous liability risk when opening up their lands to the public and are given no protection whatsoever. In order to encourage agritourism in this State, I believe that it is responsible that those adults who choose to participate in those activities should voluntarily assume part of the risk of their own injury. This bill protects owners from certain lawsuits when no party is truly at fault for an injury because the injury occurred only because of an inherent and unknown risk of the agritourism activity.

I urge the members to support Pennsylvania farmers by supporting HB 397. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair thanks the gentleman.

The Chair recognizes the gentleman, Mr. Neuman, for the second time.

Mr. NEUMAN. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

And just so everyone is clear, if anybody is contributory negligent while these activities are going on, you are held liable. These are only for the negligence of the farm, not yourself. If you are negligent and cause your own peril, you are not held liable. So I just wanted to make clear the fact that upon your own negligence, you hold the liability with yourself, but if you are injured not due to your negligence, you should have a right to recover, and that is why I do not support this bill.

Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair thanks the gentleman and recognizes the gentleman, Mr. Bradford, on final passage.

Mr. BRADFORD. Real quickly to reiterate what the gentleman from Washington said, I think to have different standards of care just based on the industry, we would not do that for the mining industry or any other potentially dangerous industry or anything else. It would be absurd, frankly, to create a different standard of care just because we are dealing with agritourism as opposed to any other form of tourism. For the safety of Pennsylvanians, I think that this bill should be defeated.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair thanks the gentleman and recognizes the gentleman, Mr. Stern, on final passage.

Mr. STERN. Thank you. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

I would just ask for support of HB 397. As the number two industry in Pennsylvania, tourism, a lot of tourism activities now are conducted with farming, and I would just sort of appreciate members' consideration of supporting HB 397. It will go a long way to helping both our number one and our number two industries in Pennsylvania. Thank you.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair thanks the gentleman and recognizes the gentleman, Mr. Marsico, on final passage.

Mr. MARSICO. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

I rise to support HB 397. Just for the members' interest, this is part of a long line of similar Pennsylvania statutes meant to encourage Pennsylvanians' outdoorsmanship and enjoyment of farm-related activities. In 1966 Pennsylvania enacted the Recreational Use of Land and Water Act, which provides protections from negligence lawsuits for landowners who make their land available to the public for free recreation, such as hunting, fishing, swimming, camping, and hiking. So in 2005 Pennsylvania enacted the Equine Activity Immunity Act, which provides protections to adults from negligence lawsuits for certain horse-related activities.

With that said, I ask support for this bill. Thank you.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair thanks the gentleman.

On the question recurring,
Shall the bill pass finally?

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Agreeable to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays will now be taken.
