SESSION OF 2014

198TH OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY

No. 12

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

The House convened at 1 p.m., e.d.t.

THE SPEAKER (SAMUEL H. SMITH) PRESIDING

PRAYER

The SPEAKER. Today the prayer will be offered by Dr. Jason Link, Penningtonville Presbyterian Church, Atglen, Pennsylvania.

REV. DR. JASON T. LINK, Guest Chaplain of the House of Representatives, offered the following prayer:

Let us join together in prayer.

Eternal God, creator of the earth and of each one of us gathered here today, we pause in the midst of this day to turn our hearts and our minds to You. We seek, O God, Your forgiveness for all that we have done that has not served You and Your will, but instead only served our own personal agendas.

We seek, O God, Your protection for the men and women of our Armed Forces who, as we gather in the safety of this building, find themselves in harm's way.

We seek, O God, Your wisdom, Your insight, Your guidance for the discussion and decisions that need to be made this day by this body, the Pennsylvania House of Representatives. We lift up to You all of those who serve in elected office, from those who serve local towns and cities, to those who serve in the U.S. House of Representatives and Senate, and especially our President. May all of those who are elected to serve the people of this great nation serve with integrity, honesty, and respect for the laws of this land. May they truly serve the needs of the people they represent.

O God, as a nation, may we turn fully and completely to You. May we fulfill these words from Holy Scripture, "if my people, who are called by my name, will humble themselves and pray and seek my face and turn from their wicked ways, then I will hear" them "from heaven, and I will forgive their sin and will heal their land." Call us to Yourself, O God. Help us to hear that call to repent and to heal our land, and then may we truly be "...one nation under God...."

We lift this prayer up to You in the matchless and saving name of Jesus. Amen.

PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE

(The Pledge of Allegiance was recited by members and visitors.)

ARCHBISHOP WOOD HIGH SCHOOL FOOTBALL TEAM PRESENTED

The SPEAKER. I would like to invite Representatives O'Neill, Murt, Petri, Watson, Boyle, and Dean to the rostrum for the purpose of presenting a citation to the Archbishop Wood High School Football Team, and Representative Farry is invited to the rostrum as well.

Mr. O'NEILL. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman, Mr. O'Neill, from Bucks County may proceed with the citation.

Mr. O'NEILL. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. Speaker, today we are here to honor a very special group of boys who for 3 years in a row played in the State championship game, and they are here for the second time in 3 years before us.

On stage with us today, on the podium, is Representative Petri, Representative Murt, Representative Dean, and Representative Farry. Representative Watson could not be here, and Representative Quinn, who is an alumnus of Archbishop Wood, extends her proud congratulations, but unfortunately, because of a family issue, she was not able to attend session today.

What I would like to do, Mr. Speaker, if you permit it, 2 years ago I got to introduce this great football team and the kids back then, and I thought it would be only appropriate if we allow a Wood alumnus, who is a member of the House, to stand up and introduce his fellow alums, if we could do that.

The SPEAKER. The Speaker recognizes the gentleman, Mr. Murt, from Montgomery County.

Mr. MURT. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. Speaker, it is a great honor and privilege to recognize the PIAA Class AAA Football Champions here today, and as a graduate, an alumnus of Archbishop Wood High School class of 1978, it is a great privilege to be in that role.

These young men set their sights on a repeat performance of their 2011 championship season, and I am proud to say they not only met their goal but they became the first Philadelphia Catholic League school to win a pair of PIAA football championships.

By capping off their outstanding season with a 22-10 victory over Bishop McDevitt in the championship game in December, they have set an example for others to emulate and have proven that a great team is really unstoppable.

Legendary football coach Vince Lombardi once said, and I quote, "The price of success is hard work, dedication to the job at hand, and the determination that whether we win or lose, we have applied the best of ourselves to the task at hand." By their dedication and hard work, it is obvious that these young men have given all they had in order to accomplish their goal, and in the end, they were successful.

Under the expert guidance of head coach Steve Devlin, who was named 2013 Class AAA "Coach of the Year," and the entire coaching staff, the Vikings were able to find the proper balance of talent, instinct, and heart to turn their dream into a reality.

Joining me here in the front of the House today are coach Steve Devlin, Josh Messina, Kendall Singleton, Ryan Bates, and Jake Cooper. Josh Messina, Ryan Bates, Jake Cooper, and Jarrett McClenton were all named to the Class AAA Pennsylvania Football Writers' All-State Team. Jake Cooper and Ryan Bates, juniors, have committed to Penn State University when they graduate.

Mr. Speaker, however, championship seasons are never solo accomplishments. It takes a unified team effort to lead a team to the championship and bring home the trophy.

The rest of the Archbishop Wood champs are here with us today in the back of the hall of the House. They are in the process of capturing their second State title in three seasons. These young men demonstrated to the community and to all of Pennsylvania that hard work, skill, and a commitment to excellence are still the key ingredients for success. We are extremely proud to honor this team's accomplishments with a House citation, and we ask you to join us in a round of applause to welcome them to the Pennsylvania Capitol. Could I ask the players in the back of the House to please stand.

We wish you all continued success in future seasons and as many of you will continue your athletic careers on the college level. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. The House will be at ease for a minute or two

The House will come to order.

BLOOMSBURG UNIVERSITY FOOTBALL TEAM PRESENTED

The SPEAKER. The Speaker recognizes the gentleman, Mr. Millard, and invites him to the rostrum for the purpose of presenting a citation to the Bloomsburg University Huskies Football Team.

The House will come to order. I appreciate your courtesy, and hold the conversations down.

The gentleman, Mr. Millard, may proceed.

Mr. MILLARD. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Colleagues, distinguished guests, I have the honor of having Bloomsburg University Huskies Football Team here with us today. They are being honored upon capturing the 2013 Pennsylvania State Athletic Eastern Division Conference Championship title by winning six of their seven games. They beat Slippery Rock 42 to 38 in the championship game on November 16, and finished their season with an overall record of 10-2. During the season the team broke their school record for points scored and total offense and finished second in school history for rushing yards and touchdowns scored. They also had multiple players who received All-American honors.

With me are Paul Darragh, head coach; Franklyn Quiteh, senior captain; Justin Shirk, junior linebacker; Tim Kelly, sophomore quarterback; and Ryan Geiger, junior offensive lineman. The remainder of the coaching staff, team, and president of Bloomsburg University are in the rear of the House, if they would please stand.

And, Mr. Speaker, it is also my pleasure to honor Franklyn Quiteh. He helped to lead the Huskies to the 2013 State Athletic Conference Championship. He led the nation in scoring with 2195 yards, 29 touchdowns, and scored an average of 15.7 points per game. He was named to the First Team All-American by the Associated Press, the American Football Coaches Association, and Daktronics, in addition to being named the Daktronics Division II "Offensive Player of the Year" and the PSAC (Pennsylvania State Athletic Conference) East "Player of the Year." Franklyn finished his outstanding season by winning the Harlon Hill Trophy, which is the NCAA (National Collegiate Athletic Association) Division II equivalent of the Heisman Trophy, and if we could honor him, please.

Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. The House will be at ease for a minute or two.

The House will come to order.

MISS PENNSYLVANIA TEEN USA PRESENTED

The SPEAKER. I invite the gentleman, Mr. Mirabito, to the rostrum for the purpose of presenting a citation to Sydney Robertson, Miss Pennsylvania Teen USA 2014.

The gentleman, Mr. Mirabito, may proceed.

Mr. MIRABITO. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Today I am truly honored to have with me a young woman who has achieved some incredible honors in just 16 years of life. Please extend a warm House welcome to Miss Pennsylvania Teen USA 2014 Sydney Robertson; her parents, Allan and Diane; and her sister, Holly.

Mr. Speaker, Sydney was crowned second runner-up Miss Pennsylvania Teen USA 2012 and National Teen 2013 at the Princess America Pageant, and was recently crowned Miss Pennsylvania Teen USA 2014.

During the 3-day Miss Pennsylvania Teen USA and Miss Pennsylvania USA Pageant, Sydney was named Miss Photogenic and voted Miss Congeniality as well.

The daughter of Allan and Diane Robertson, with sisters, Holly and Lindsey, Sydney maintains enrollment as a student at Commonwealth Connections Academy, a Pennsylvania cyber school, while actively working as a model. She has made appearances in Seventeen magazine, and she serves as an advocate for Give Kids the World, a nonprofit resort in central Florida that provides cost-free vacations to children with life-threatening illnesses and their families.

Sydney will now serve as the Pennsylvania representative at the 32d Annual Miss Teen USA Pageant in the Bahamas. By the way, this is the first time Williamsport has had a representative go to the nationals, and we are very proud of you.

Sydney is a living testament to the impact that our youth can have when they develop a vision and pursue their goals relentlessly. With her commitment to philanthropy and serving as a peer role model for our young people, Sydney's journey has been more than just one of pageantry.

I would like every member of this esteemed body to join me as we congratulate her and wish her luck. We want to wish you luck, Sydney, as you compete to bring the crown home to Pennsylvania at the Miss Teen USA Pageant. Go get it for the Keystone State and for Williamsport. We are all right behind you, Sydney.

Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. The House will be at ease for a minute.

The House will come to order.

GUESTS INTRODUCED

The SPEAKER. Before I invite the next group of members up to present a citation, I want to recognize that former Speaker Keith McCall and his wife, Betty, and son, Keith, are here seated at the rostrum. They are getting the special treatment because their daughter, Courtney, is a member of the team that is going to be recognized next. But first let us give a warm welcome to the McCalls and former Speaker Keith McCall.

MARIAN CATHOLIC HIGH SCHOOL GIRLS VOLLEYBALL TEAM PRESENTED

The SPEAKER. With that, we will invite Representatives Knowles, Goodman, Heffley, and Toohil to the rostrum for the purpose of presenting a citation to the Marian Catholic High School Girls Volleyball Team.

The gentleman, Mr. Knowles, may proceed.

Mr. KNOWLES. Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. Speaker, I would like to welcome the Marian Catholic volleyball family to our House, to your Capitol here in Harrisburg.

When I talked to the coach of the team, John "Doc" Fallabel, I asked him what made this team different, what made this team special, and he said there were two things. This team is more like a family than it is a team. They respect each other, they like each other, and they get along very well. He further told me that the other reason was because of the four young ladies that you see standing up here on the rostrum. He told me that because of the leadership of Grace Boyle, Sophie Myers, Madyson Dyer, and Ashton Galasso, that that is what they were: leaders. They were leaders who led this team to victory.

So on behalf of the delegation, I would like to congratulate the Marian Catholic Girls Volleyball Team. They are the 2013 PIAA Class A Girls Champions. So let us have a nice House thank you for the Marian girls.

The SPEAKER. The Speaker recognizes the gentleman, Mr. Heffley, on the citation as well.

Mr. HEFFLEY. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

And to echo the accolades of my colleague from Schuylkill County, I also rise to congratulate the Marian Catholic High School Fillies Girls Volleyball Team on their PIAA Class A State Championship.

A State championship does not happen overnight. It takes years of dedication and commitment to compete at this level. I would like to thank the parents for encouraging these young ladies to compete and for ensuring that the girls made it to practice. I thank the coaches for realizing the potential in every player on the team. I would also like to acknowledge the school district for its support of the volleyball team and realizing the importance of competitive sports in a well-balanced education.

Also, the entire team. Behind the podium we have the team leaders, and we have the entire team seated in the back of the House, and I wanted to congratulate them once again for their hard work and dedication and bringing this State championship back to Marian Catholic High School. Thank you.

The SPEAKER. Would the members of the team and the rest of the group please stand. Stand up, and welcome to the hall of the House.

The House will be at ease for a minute.

The House will come to order.

LEAVE OF ABSENCE CANCELED

The SPEAKER. The Speaker returns to leaves of absence and recognizes the presence of the gentleman from Bucks County, Mr. Santarsiero, on the floor of the House. Without objection, his name will be added to the master roll call.

STATEMENT BY MR. CLYMER

The SPEAKER. The Speaker recognizes the gentleman from Bucks County, Mr. Clymer, under unanimous consent relative to one of the resolutions just adopted.

Mr. CLYMER. Thank you, Mr. Speaker, and I thank the members for their unanimous support.

This resolution, HR 661, is to designate February 17, 2014, as "Presidents' Day" in Pennsylvania. Each year when Presidents Day occurs, the news media is always ablaze with sales and discounts on all sorts of products and merchandise. "Presidents Day Sale" is thus proclaimed, and I find no fault in that. Somehow we lose the real significance of Presidents Day and the role our Presidents played in making America "...the land of the free and the home of the brave."

George Washington, in particular, our nation's first President, was an outstanding leader, a great military General, a statesman, a patriot – a true hero in every sense of the word.

While there is space for retail businesses to promote their products, how much more fitting that we remember the Presidents who wrote our nation's history in their own sweat, toil, and even blood to perpetuate this exceptional Republic.

George Washington clearly gave of himself to plant the seeds of democracy so that future generations would enjoy the blessings of freedom and liberty. As history records, thousands of immigrants, as inscribed on the Statute of Liberty, found their home in America because this was the place they wanted to come. They were yearning to be free. They wanted to come to escape oppression and to enjoy the blessings of economic and religious freedom.

Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. The Speaker thanks the gentleman.

BILL ON CONCURRENCE IN SENATE AMENDMENTS

The House proceeded to consideration of concurrence in Senate amendments to HB 374, PN 2942, entitled:

An Act amending Titles 42 (Judiciary and Judicial Procedure) and 53 (Municipalities Generally) of the Pennsylvania Consolidated Statutes, further providing for jurisdiction, education and educational costs of county park police officers.

On the question,

Will the House concur in Senate amendments?

The SPEAKER. Moved by the gentleman, Mr. Krieger, that the House concur in the amendments inserted by the Senate.

The Speaker recognizes the gentleman, Mr. Krieger, for a brief description of Senate amendments.

Mr. KRIEGER. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

The Senate amendment does one thing. You may recall the Neiman case. The Supreme Court recently found that SB 92 was unconstitutional because it violated the single-subject rule. One of the provisions it invalidated was a provision giving the Westmoreland County Park Police jurisdiction. The amendment does nothing more than reverse that decision and reinstates the jurisdiction of the Westmoreland County Park Police. It applies only to the Westmoreland County Park Police. Thank you.

On the question recurring,

Will the House concur in Senate amendments?

The SPEAKER. Agreeable to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays will now be taken.

BILL ON SECOND CONSIDERATION

The House proceeded to second consideration of SB 895, PN 1422, entitled:

An Act amending Title 34 (Game) of the Pennsylvania Consolidated Statutes, further providing for organization of commission.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on second consideration?

Mr. REESE offered the following amendment No. A04994:

Amend Bill, page 1, line 17, by inserting after "eight"
] four
Amend Bill, page 2, line 1, by striking out "] four years and"

Amend Bill, page 2, line 2, by striking out ".["

Amend Bill, page 2, line 2, by inserting a bracket before "A"

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

LEAVE OF ABSENCE

The SPEAKER. The Speaker returns to leaves of absence and recognizes the minority whip, who requests a leave of absence for the gentleman from Philadelphia County, Mr. McGEEHAN, for the remainder of the day. Without objection, the leave will be granted.

The SPEAKER. On the amendment, the Speaker recognizes the gentleman from Westmoreland County, Mr. Reese.

Mr. REESE. Mr. Speaker, this amendment offers corrective language to SB 895. This amendment retains the existing statutory language that will allow for existing board members to serve no more than an extra 6 months beyond their regular term in the event that a successor has not been appointed or qualified.

Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. The question is, will the House agree to the amendment?

On that question, the Speaker recognizes the gentleman from Delaware County, Mr. Vitali.

Mr. VITALI. Thank you.

Will the maker of the amendment stand for interrogation?

The SPEAKER. The gentleman, Mr. Reese, indicates he will stand for interrogation. You may proceed.

Mr. VITALI. So what this is doing is that one cannot serve beyond 6 months after the expiration of his term. Is that what this does or does it do more?

Mr. REESE. That is correct, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. VITALI. Okay. And this affects the Game Commission?

Mr. REESE. Yes, Mr. Speaker; just the Game Commission.

Mr. VITALI. Have they weighed in on this? Have they said they support this? They oppose this?

Mr. REESE. To the best of my knowledge, Mr. Speaker, they have not weighed in on the amendment.

Mr. VITALI. If this were to— What happens now under current law when you get – you have this commissioner, the term has expired, they are not replaced. What happens now?

Mr. REESE. So currently they would only be able to serve an extra 6 months. The actual bill took that language out. My amendment seeks to restore that language.

Mr. VITALI. So without this language, they would have to stop on the last day of their service and there would be a vacancy?

Mr. REESE. Under this bill without the amendment, they would not need to be replaced. They, in theory, could continue to serve for a number of years.

Mr. VITALI. Right; okay. Without your amendment they would continue to serve until replaced, but with your amendment, after 6 months after their term, there would be a vacancy. You would be creating a vacancy?

Mr. REESE. That is correct.

Mr. VITALI. Okay. Thank you.

Mr. REESE. Thank you.

Will the House agree to the amendment?

RESOLUTION

Mr. WATERS called up HR 592, PN 2830, entitled:

A Resolution recognizing the month of January 2014 as "Preparing for a Lifetime - It's Everyone's Responsibility Month" in Pennsylvania.

On the question,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

The SPEAKER. On that question, the Speaker recognizes the gentleman from Philadelphia County, Mr. Waters.

Mr. WATERS. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. Speaker, the goal of any parent is to do everything within their power to help ensure that their children live long, productive lives. Parents give their time, energy, and resources towards raising their children in hopes that their children can impact the world in ways that they never could. Though challenging, parenthood is equally rewarding.

Mr. Speaker?

The SPEAKER. I cannot hear you.

Mr. WATERS. I know. That is my problem.

The SPEAKER. The House will come to order. I appreciate if the members would hold the conversations down.

The gentleman, Mr. Waters, may proceed.

Mr. WATERS. All right. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

But all too often in Pennsylvania and around the world, the prospects of parenthood are snatched away due to the harsh realities of infant mortality. Each year in Pennsylvania there are anywhere between 1400 and 2,000 infant and fetal deaths reported. Fetal deaths occurring in Pennsylvania are required to be reported to the Department of Health by the Vital Statistics Law of 1953. Deaths and fetal deaths must be reported within 96 hours of the event.

In 2011 Pennsylvania reported 930 infant deaths and 643 neonatal deaths. In 2010 that number was slightly higher, with 1,035 infant deaths and 736 neonatal deaths reported.

The leading causes of infant mortality in Pennsylvania and in the United States remain congenital abnormalities; disorders related to immaturity, such as short gestation and unspecified low birth weights; as well as sudden infant death syndrome, also known as SIDS; and maternal complications.

One statistic that is particularly disturbing is, relatively speaking, nationwide, African-American infants are 2.4 times more likely to die from infant mortality. There are many factors that attribute to infant mortality, some unknown, but helping to raise awareness among women and men alike about proper nutrition, diet, and health care during a pregnancy can go a long way towards eliminating negative birth outcomes.

With this in mind, HR 592 designates the month of January 2014 as – we know it has passed, but it is still an important matter – "Preparing for a Lifetime – It's Everyone's

A dalah

Responsibility," a statewide initiative focused on reducing infant mortality.

Women in the State of Pennsylvania were reminded of these key things that help ensure a healthy pregnancy: one, know your family history; two, live a healthy lifestyle; three, make healthy food choices; four, get regular health checkups; five, maintain emotional awareness and social support; and six, know your health and pregnancy risks. Also, they were reminded that getting healthy before pregnancy greatly increases a woman's chances of having a healthy baby.

I thank you all for your support in the fight against infant mortality here in Pennsylvania and for your support of this resolution, HR 592.

Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

On the question recurring, Will the House adopt the resolution?

REMARKS SUBMITTED FOR THE RECORD

The SPEAKER. The Speaker recognizes the gentleman from Philadelphia County, Mr. Neilson, under unanimous consent.

Mr. NEILSON. Mr. Speaker, I would like to submit comments for the record for a Presidents Day poster contest I had in the district.

The SPEAKER. Please submit them to the clerk and they will be noted in the record.

Mr. NEILSON submitted the following remarks for the Legislative Journal:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

As you entered the Capitol this morning, you may have noticed artwork in the East Rotunda depicting some of our finest Presidents from John Adams to Teddy Roosevelt. Each of those posters represents time and hard work from students in northeast Philadelphia who participated in my Presidents Day poster contest.

Elementary and middle school students were asked to pick their favorite President and research him. They then had to draw a picture of that President and write an essay explaining why they chose that particular President.

In total, over 400 students submitted entries. Choosing the 16 winning posters was a very difficult task – each and every student that participated can be proud of their efforts and determination.

The 16 winning posters, some created by students as young as 8 years old, were selected based off their creativity, clarity, and artistic quality.

Every student who entered received a certificate commemorating their participation. Winners will also receive an official citation from the House.

Ladies and gentlemen of the House of Representatives, I invite you to join me in recognizing these young men and women who took part in my Presidents Day poster contest:
