

COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA

LEGISLATIVE JOURNAL

MONDAY, MARCH 17, 2014

SESSION OF 2014

198TH OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY

No. 15

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

The House convened at 1 p.m., e.d.t.

THE SPEAKER (SAMUEL H. SMITH) PRESIDING

PRAYER

The SPEAKER. Today the prayer will be offered by Dr. Gary W. Shew, Pine Grove Church of God, Newport, Pennsylvania.

DR. GARY W. SHEW, Guest Chaplain of the House of Representatives, offered the following prayer:

To You belong all realms, all power, all glory. Yet You delegate the power of temporal leadership to Your creatures. In this nation You have given us the freedom to establish our own government, to oversee the welfare of our land and the many people it supports. Today we pray for those whom we the people have chosen to lead our State and nation.

It is not easy for them to lead such a diverse people, whose many wants cannot all be satisfied. It is not easy to discern which action will produce the greatest good for the greatest number. It is not easy to withstand the huge personal temptations that come with power. It is not easy to bear the extraordinary pressure in this complex, conniving world of politics.

Assist our leaders who are representing the people of their areas of this State. Bless them with the stamina, with the toughness, with the integrity to fight for what is right and honorable in Your sight.

Grant our State and nation a succession of lawmakers and executives who have learned how to do justice, love mercy, and walk humbly before You. Protect them from losing their wits, their nerve, and their souls in the heady atmosphere of State and national and international affairs so that we the people may flourish in a land with liberty, peace, and justice.

Protect and grant our leaders, especially of our great State, the will and character to work for the good of the people and for the people and not for simply the benefits for those in a position to wrangle favors and for concessions.

Help us as citizens to bear our share of burdens of democratic government. Make us love peace and fair-dealing. Moderate our political passions with calmness and self-control. Allow us to see situations from the point of view of others that we may discern what is the common good.

Equip all civil servants with sound understanding, farsighted planning, and personal integrity. Enable them to rise above all the power games, and through it all they may be wise in their leadership and understand about the welfare of the people and be assured to help maintain peace at home and among the nations of our country.

In the name of Christ, our Lord, we pray. Amen.

PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE

(The Pledge of Allegiance was recited by members and visitors.)

The SPEAKER. The House will come to order. I would appreciate the members holding the conversations down. I would like to introduce some of the guests that are with us today. If I could have the members' attention. I would appreciate your courtesy, please. If the members would please hold the conversations down and take their seats. I would like to introduce some of the guests that are with us today. Thank you.

GUESTS INTRODUCED

The SPEAKER. Located to the left of the rostrum, I would like to welcome our Guest Chaplain's granddaughter, Brianna Stoops, and they are both here today as guests of Representative Mark Keller. Will our guests please rise. Welcome to the hall of the House.

Located in the rear of the House, we would like to welcome coaches from the Garfield Gators Youth Sports Program: Anthony Walls, Robert Jones, Neal Williams, Windell Street, Garth Taylor, Michael Gay, Melvin Gay, James Reid, and Betty Green. The group is being recognized for their many years of dedication and service to the Garfield community and its youth. They are here today as guests of Representative Gainey. Will our guests please rise. They are located by the door on the left. Welcome to the hall of the House.

Up in the gallery, as a guest of Representative Freeman, we would like to welcome Jack Regan, from the World Heritage International Student Exchange Programs, and "Jack" Nimko, an exchange student from the Ukraine. Will our guests please rise. Welcome to the hall of the House.

WOODLAND HILLS HIGH SCHOOL RIFLE TEAM PRESENTED

The SPEAKER. I invite Representative Paul Costa to the rostrum for the purpose of presenting a citation to the Woodland Hills High School Rifle Team. I would appreciate the courtesy of the members.

The gentleman from Allegheny County, Mr. Costa, may proceed.

Mr. P. COSTA. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

I would like to wish everybody a happy St. Patrick's Day today.

It is with great pride and honor that I present to you the 2014 PIAA State Championship Rifle Team, the Woodland Hills Wolverines. Thank you.

I am joined on the rostrum with Coach Matt Rodrigues, team captains Miranda Johnston and Laura Valenti. Also joining me are the individual State champion, Mike Krivi, and Sonny Breeger, who placed third at the States.

In the rear of the House are the rest of the varsity team members: Maria Brucker, Nick Fisher, Seamus McGuigan, Jake Klimko, Miguel Breight, Becca Devito, and their assistant coach, Mario Scaramouche. Also in the rear is the junior varsity team, and located in the gallery are their proud parents.

This season the Wolverines posted 16 perfect 800 scores out of a possible 17, and out of the 17 matches, they only did not obtain one point the whole year, a first for the school and any team from the WPIAL. This is the first State championship for the Woodland Hills School District of any kind, and the team did it in style. They placed four shooters in the top 10 of the State. No other school has ever accomplished that feat. So please join me in congratulating the Woodland Hills Wolverines 2014 Rifle Team on their State championship. Thank you.

The SPEAKER. The House will be at ease for a moment.

The House will come to order.

WHITEMARSH HIGH SCHOOL MARCHING BAND PRESENTED

The SPEAKER. I invite Representative Mary Jo Daley and Representative Harper to the rostrum for the purpose of presenting a citation to the Plymouth Whitmarsh High School Marching Band. I would appreciate the members' courtesy.

The lady, Ms. Daley, may proceed.

Ms. DALEY. Thank you, Mr. Speaker. And happy St. Patrick's Day to all.

I am proud to stand with my colleague from Montgomery County, Representative Kate Harper, on the House floor to honor the Plymouth Whitmarsh High School Marching Band from the Colonial School District, serving the Borough of Conshohocken and Plymouth and Whitmarsh Townships. The Plymouth Whitmarsh High School Marching Band, known as the Marching Colonials, is being honored today in this hallowed House for winning the Cavalcade of Bands American Conference State Championship.

The Marching Colonials won this prestigious title with a score of 97.05. The band also won awards for high auxiliary, high music, high visual, and high overall effect. Furthermore, the Marching Colonials were undefeated in competition this season. Their victory is a testament to the focus, hard work, and determination that they displayed throughout the year and also to the leadership of band director Tonia Kauffman. While most of the band is seated in the rear of the House, here with us to accept a citation on behalf of the band are band director Tonia Kauffman and band members Jocelyn Gadd, Brad Kessler, John Runyen, and Kate Sellers. Members of the band in the back of the hall, please stand and be recognized.

And on behalf of the House of Representatives and the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, I congratulate you all on your stellar achievement. I trust you will keep up the excellent work. Thank you.

The SPEAKER. The House will be at ease for a moment.

The House will come to order.

ST. PATRICK'S DAY PROGRAM

The SPEAKER. I invite Representative Hennessey, chairman of the House Irish Caucus, to the rostrum.

Mr. HENNESSEY. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

On behalf of the Pennsylvania House of Representatives Irish Legislative Caucus, I want to welcome everyone to what has become our traditional short St. Paddy's Day celebration on the House floor here in Harrisburg. Almost 20 percent of Americans claim some degree of Irish heritage. By far the largest impetus to that was the Irish potato famine from 1845 to 1849, but it has gone on for generations. That percentage of people, Americans claiming Irish heritage, is second only to Americans who claim German or Pennsylvania Dutch heritage. But whereas the Germans celebrate Oktoberfest and it takes them the whole month of October, the Irish have managed to distill, at least in America, our celebration into St. Paddy's Day or St. Paddy's weekend, which we just celebrated, and we celebrate St. Patrick's Day, as I like to call it, the holiest feast of the Christian calendar.

To kick off our celebration, we have our own Representative Eddie Day, Eddie "O'Day" Pashinski, and he is going to lead us in a rendition of "Danny Boy" and "When Irish Eyes Are Smiling." We ask that you all join in. The words are in front of you on your desks. And once we do that, hopefully you will all join in and you will energize our dancers. We will have some colorful Irish dancers here on the House floor for you in just a few minutes, once we hear from Representative Pashinski.

("Danny Boy" was sung by Representative Pashinski.)

Mr. HENNESSEY. A standing ovation.

Here we go. And now please join us in "When Irish Eyes Are Smiling."

("When Irish Eyes Are Smiling" was sung by Representative Pashinski.)

Mr. HENNESSEY. Thank you. Representative Eddie Day Pashinski. Thank you, Eddie.

REBEL HEART IRISH DANCERS PRESENTED

Mr. HENNESSEY. And now we are about to be treated to some Irish dance by the Rebel Heart Irish Dancers, who are nice and colorful here in their red and black costumes. The first dance is called the "Drums of Belfast." Now, the Irish are known for their rhythmic dancing called hard-shoe. In this type of movement, the dancers' feet create sounds similar to that of a beating drum. The first dance, as I said, is called the "Drums of Belfast." Take it away, kids.

("Drums of Belfast" was performed by Rebel Heart Irish Dancers.)

Mr. HENNESSEY. Now, while some of the kids change into soft-shoe for the next dance, let me tell you about the Rebel Heart Irish Dancers. They were formed in 2007 when Stephanie St. James created an Irish Dance School in Camp Hill and teaches today in Camp Hill and also in several other locations. In the past 7 years, the Rebel Heart Irish Dancers have performed hundreds of times. Actually, this Saturday, I believe, will be their 500th performance. And they have traveled in Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Maryland, Georgia, Montana, and California. They mix certain styles. They use traditional Irish music and also mix in some modern Celtic music rather than just the standard Irish songs. The group designs and makes their own costumes and have created a variety of beautiful show costumes and unique solo dresses.

Unlike most Irish dance groups, they do not compete. They focus their energy on bringing their love of dance to audiences everywhere. They are thrilled to share their passion for Irish dance and invite you all to join in the celebration. And please feel free to clap as we go along. I suppose the only one that I know of who can actually dance with these kids would be perhaps Representative Marguerite Quinn, who was an Irish step dancer herself. And in answer to the question that I know is bothering all of you, I cannot do that kind of thing, step dancing anymore. Thirty years and maybe a hundred pounds ago I could do that kind of thing, but not anymore.

It looks like the kids are back, so they are going to treat us to "Lannigan's Ball." This is a single-jig that is performed entirely while the dancers maintain the ring or circle formation. The dancers are wearing soft-shoes. So the focus of this dance is movement and grace. Please enjoy "Lannigan's Ball."

Kids, take it away.

("Lannigan's Ball" was performed by Rebel Heart Irish Dancers.)

Mr. HENNESSEY. Wait, kids. Before you leave, I forgot to introduce the little leprechaun here, with the blond hair in the front. Madelyn, come on out here, please. This is Madelyn Weeter, the daughter, the 6-year-old daughter of Jenn and Tom Weeter of our House Republican Caucus. This is her first performance in any kind of a theater or surroundings like this. Great job, Madelyn.

Okay. The Rebel Heart Irish dancers, what set them apart in the last eight seasons that they have been performing is their idea of breaking the rules. Now, here in the House, we are much more polite about it. We suspend the rules to the chagrin of some but to the delight of many on frequent occasions. They break the rules. Rebel is in their name because it is a big part of what they do. They merge traditional elements of Irish dance with contemporary flair and upbeat music. Their final tune and newest dance in their repertoire is called "Jack Dempsey."

Kids, take it away.

("Jack Dempsey" was performed by Rebel Heart Irish Dancers.)

Mr. HENNESSEY. A rousing ovation for the Rebel Heart Irish Dancers. Fantastic. Good kids doing good things. It is soft news, but it is good news. Congratulations, kids.

Once again, happy Thanksgiving— Happy— What did I just say?

Thank you. And happy St. Patrick's Day.

The SPEAKER. Did the Irish morning start a little early?

Mr. HENNESSEY. I was— Over the weekend. Over the weekend, yes.

Happy St. Patrick's Day to all of you, and thank you very much for being such a wonderful audience.

The SPEAKER. The Speaker recognizes the majority leader, Mr. Turzai.

Mr. TURZAI. Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker.

I just want to first thank Chairman Hennessey for bringing in such a great, enthusiastic group of young people. Thank you for the performance here on St. Patrick's Day. You might not know it, I am half Irish-American. The Turzai part is not that, but Irish-Americans are those that trace their ancestry to Ireland, and that accounts for about 56 million Americans who reported Irish ancestry in the 2008 American Community Survey conducted by the United States Census Bureau. But happy St. Patrick's Day to everyone.

RULES COMMITTEE MEETING

Mr. TURZAI. In addition, if I might, we are going to be having a Rules Committee meeting, Mr. Speaker, at the break. We will be having a Rules Committee meeting in the Appropriations Committee conference room whenever we break. Thank you, sir.

The SPEAKER. There will be a Rules Committee meeting in the Appropriations Committee conference room at the break.

APPROPRIATIONS COMMITTEE MEETING

The SPEAKER. The Speaker recognizes the gentleman from Delaware County, Mr. Adolph, for the purpose of an announcement.

Mr. ADOLPH. Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. Speaker, there will be an Appropriations meeting in the majority caucus room at 2 o'clock. Thank you; at 2 o'clock.

The SPEAKER. There will be an Appropriations meeting in the majority caucus room at 2 o'clock.

REPUBLICAN CAUCUS

The SPEAKER. The Speaker recognizes the lady from Susquehanna County, Ms. Major, for a caucus announcement.

Ms. MAJOR. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Republicans will caucus today at 2:15. I would ask our Republican members to please report to our caucus room at 2:15. We would be prepared to come back on the floor at 3 p.m.

Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

DEMOCRATIC CAUCUS

The SPEAKER. The Speaker recognizes the gentleman from Allegheny County, Mr. Frankel, for a caucus announcement.

Mr. FRANKEL. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Democrats will caucus at 2:15. Democrats will caucus at 2:15. Thank you.

STATE GOVERNMENT COMMITTEE MEETING

The SPEAKER. The Speaker recognizes the gentleman from Butler County, Mr. Metcalfe, for a committee announcement.

RESOLUTION

Mr. MILLARD offered HR 648, PN 3103, entitled:

A Resolution urging the Congress of the United States to reexamine the Biggert-Waters Flood Insurance Reform Act of 2012.

On the question,
Will the House adopt the resolution?

The SPEAKER. On that question, the Speaker recognizes the gentleman from Columbia County, Mr. Millard.

Mr. MILLARD. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

This resolution is the Flood Insurance Reform Act that encourages our elected representatives at the Federal level to do what is outlined in this resolution. We have got plenty of examples here in Pennsylvania of individuals who received their flood insurance renewal premiums that had tripled and quadrupled. And I know that there has been action at the Federal level regarding this. However, the President has not signed off on this, so this resolution is still very active, that we can send him an example from this Commonwealth that we stand with our constituents to express our concerns over the increases that have been delivered to some of our constituents. So I would ask the members for an affirmative vote on this. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

On the question recurring,
Will the House adopt the resolution?
