LEGISLATIVE JOURNAL

MONDAY, MAY 5, 2014

SESSION OF 2014

198TH OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY

No. 28

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

The House convened at 1 p.m., e.d.t.

THE SPEAKER (SAMUEL H. SMITH) PRESIDING

PRAYER

The SPEAKER. Today the prayer will be offered by Rev. Donn Chapman, Cornerstone Ministries, Murrysville, Pennsylvania.

REV. DONN CHAPMAN, Guest Chaplain of the House of Representatives, offered the following prayer:

Mr. Speaker, as you know, you and I share an advantage that few others have shared, and that is that for the past several decades both of us have been mentioned in your parents' prayers every morning. As I come to speak today, I would like to publicly thank them for those prayers and the great honor of being on their prayer list.

Let us pray together:

Father God, we come before You today thankful most of all for Your character, for it is Your righteousness that shows us the way to walk in righteousness, to do what is right, to love good, and to shun evil.

We thank You, Lord, for the great men and women of vision who launched this great and Holy Experiment called Penn's Woods, for William Penn and those who with him and those who followed him set a standard for righteousness that built a great State and made a pattern for a great nation. We thank You today, Lord, for those who have sacrificed over the years to give us the greatest nation in the world, one in which we can live with opportunity and blessing because You have poured Your blessing upon us.

And, Father, we want to thank You today for allowing us to live in this unique State where our nation began, and when it was being torn asunder, Abraham Lincoln spoke and pulled it back together. We come today, Lord, to seek Your blessing. We ask You for Your blessing first upon our nation and our State, that we could return to the ethics and the morals and the values that made this nation great to the faith of our fathers.

And then, Lord, we pray for these who represent the people of this great State. I pray for the Representatives here, that they might have great character, that their ethics and morals and values may grow out of their faith. I pray, Lord, that You would grant them courage to not always do what is the acceptable and popular, but to do that which is right and good and noble and true.

Finally, Lord, I pray that You would place upon their hearts the compassion that was in Jesus' heart, to see those who are hurting and in need, and to always be willing to stoop down and not forget those who do not have power, but to see them, Lord, with compassion and want to meet their need. And finally, Lord, I pray for them the greatest privilege there is of all, the privilege to know You and to hear Your voice so that all of their decisions might be according to Your will and plan.

We pray this in Jesus' mighty name. Amen.

PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE

(The Pledge of Allegiance was recited by members and visitors.)

JOURNAL APPROVAL POSTPONED

The SPEAKER. Without objection, the approval of the Journal of Wednesday, April 30, 2014, will be postponed until printed.

The SPEAKER. Two hundred members having voted on the master roll call, a quorum is present.

The House will come to order.

GUESTS INTRODUCED

The SPEAKER. I would appreciate the members kindly taking their seats. I would appreciate if the members would hold their conversations down. I would like to introduce some of the guests that are with us today and I would appreciate your courtesy. Thank you.

Along with our Guest Chaplain, I would like to introduce his mother, Johnnie Chapman, who is sitting over here to the left. They are both here today as guests of Representative Saccone.

And the Chapmans and my family were close, and that is why the Guest Chaplain made that reference to my mother. They have been lifelong friends, I guess you could say, so they are old, old friends. They used to live in Punxsutawney and now they live down — where was it, Murrysburg? Murrysburg. So please welcome Johnnie Chapman.

Up on the rostrum, seated beside the Guest Chaplain, I would like to welcome Dr. Richard Jewell, the president of Grove City College, along with his wife, Dayl, and they are here today as guests of Representative Stevenson.

STATEMENT BY MR. STEVENSON

The SPEAKER. I am going to break from some of the normal flow of things with the introductions and recognize the gentleman from Mercer County, Mr. Stevenson, under unanimous consent.

I would appreciate the members' attention. The gentleman may proceed.

Mr. STEVENSON. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. Speaker, it is a real honor and pleasure today to recognize and commend a wonderful Pennsylvanian for his remarkable leadership and vision as president of Grove City College.

This spring Dr. Richard G. Jewell will retire as the 8th president of the college. He retires not as your typical college president, for his involvement and his legacy started well before his presidential tenure in 2003. In fact, it started five decades ago, when he entered Grove City College as a freshman, who became the captain of the college's swimming team, diving team, president of student government, editor in chief of the campus newspaper, and Senior Man of the Year in 1967.

To speak of President Dick Jewell's service to the college goes far beyond the definition of "service." He does not fit the mold of most college presidents. He did not rise through the ranks of academia.

After college he served in the United States Army and then went to law school. After stints as a trial and corporate attorney, he made the transition into higher education as counsel for the University of Pittsburgh. He then moved to the Pittsburgh Applied Research Corporation, then into accounting where he served as the Pittsburgh director for Navigant Consulting, the nation's largest forensic accounting firm.

Even though Dick was not chosen to be the college president until 2003, he has always been involved with Grove City College. In 1974 Dick became the youngest-ever trustee at Grove City at the age of 29. He served as the cochair of the first capital campaign, which raised $69 million between 1998 and 2006.

However, his volunteer efforts were not focused only on Grove City. He served as chairman of the boards of the Pittsburgh Downtown YMCA, the National Kidney Foundation of Western Pennsylvania, and the St. Clair Hospital Foundation.

I consider it a real pleasure to have known Dick for many years and to have worked with him regularly since he became the Grove City College president more than a decade ago.

As president, he is perhaps most proud of maintaining the college's long-standing tradition of providing an excellent education at a modest cost. He is also a firm believer that the college and the community benefit each other, and has greatly strengthened that important partnership.

Dick is a proactive leader, who has virtually changed the face of the college during his tenure. In addition to raising millions of dollars to build and rehabilitate buildings to improve the campus, he has steadfastly guided the college forward to ensure that it will remain vibrant and successful for the future. President Dick Jewell is an exceptional leader of one of the finest small colleges in the nation. Pennsylvania and Grove City are indeed better for his years of service.

Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask Dick and his wife, Dayl, to stand once again to be recognized and congratulate him on a well-deserved retirement.

Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker.

STATEMENT BY MAJORITY LEADER

The SPEAKER. The Speaker recognizes the majority leader, Mr. Turzai.

Mr. TURZAI. Thank you so much, Mr. Speaker.

It is an honor, an honor to stand with my fellow leader, Representative Dick Stevenson; the Speaker of the House; and other members of this august body in honoring Richard G. Jewell, Dick Jewell, the 8th president of Grove City College – an outstanding educational institution – along with his wife, Dayl.

I want to tell you something about Dick Jewell. Easily one of the best friends you could ever have. A person who understands public life and what it is to move an agenda forward. A person who understands what it is to make friends on all sides of policy issues and bring them together. A person who knows how to lead, lead an outstanding educational institution and make it even better. A person who is an outstanding husband and family man.

Dick Jewell has been there for so many of us in public life – Senator Specter, Justice Sandy Newman, Senator Santorum, Congressman Murphy, Congressman Kelly, the Speaker, myself, and so many others.

I have to say I had the blessing one day – I have often made some visits to Grove City College – but I had the blessing one day to be there on a beautiful sunny afternoon, walking away with the Speaker, Sam Smith, at the time, who then went over and joined his daughter, and I said, "What a beautiful campus this is."

Dick, with respect to all the citizens of Pennsylvania, thank you for the gracious things you have done on so many fronts, and your leadership of Grove City College in and of itself is one of the most compelling things you have done for the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. The number of students from within the Commonwealth of all backgrounds, of all faiths, who go to this outstanding Christian liberal arts college, that does not take any government money and makes sure that everybody is out there in their professions doing the best in both an academic, professional, and integrity – those values that you instill at your educational institution.

Your legacy is going to go on and on and on, and we are very, very proud to have you with us today. Thank you very much.

STATEMENT BY MR. MUSTIO

The SPEAKER. I would recognize the gentleman from Allegheny County, Mr. Mustio.

Mr. MUSTIO. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

I come at this from a little different perspective, as a Grove City College graduate, but also a fraternity brother of Dick Jewell's. Now, the good news is, we are fraternity brothers, but the better news is, we are 12 years apart, so there are no stories that can be told – right? – by either of us.

The SPEAKER. That is probably better news for you than him.

Mr. MUSTIO. I guess there is only one person here that could interrupt the person with the microphone, and he just did.

Anyway, I am going to take just a couple seconds here to also thank Richard Jewell and his wife, Dayl, for their stewardship and leadership at Grove City College – a leadership that continues the tradition of an excellent academic education in a Christian environment, and quite honestly, following the historic Supreme Court decision in the early 1980s, remains free from government influence. And Dick Jewell's promotion and support of those ideals, promotion and support of a diverse student body – you know, diverse not only from a faith perspective, but also from socioeconomic backgrounds and cultures – I think is something that we really need to recognize today as well, particularly with societal events going on.

So thank you, Mr. Speaker, for the opportunity to speak today on behalf of recognizing the Jewells. Thank you.

The SPEAKER. The Speaker thanks the gentleman.

STATEMENT BY MR. DENLINGER

The SPEAKER. The Speaker recognizes the gentleman from Lancaster County, Mr. Denlinger.

Mr. DENLINGER. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. Speaker, I just want to join my voice to the chorus of those who are recognizing President Dick Jewell this morning – this afternoon, pardon me – and just to share with my colleagues.

It was the honor of my second son, Preston – we now have three who are going through the College of Grove City – and my second son, Preston, who is now graduated, served as president of the exec student body, president in his senior year, and that afforded him the opportunity to meet with President Jewell on a regular basis.

And beyond all these public accolades, the personal investment that President Jewell made in the life of my son is a lifelong gift that you, Mr. President, gave to him, and I just want to thank you here publicly before my colleagues for that investment in one young life. But I am sure that is multiplied by so many lives that you have invested your personal time and energy and heart into.

So on behalf of the Denlinger family, thank you, sir, for that, and for all the young people that you have influenced along the way.

Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. The Speaker thanks the gentleman.

STATEMENT BY SPEAKER

The SPEAKER. I, too, would like to congratulate Dr. Jewell on your many years of service in many capacities, but most importantly to Grove City. As many people here may be aware of, my daughter also went to Grove City.

I can remember anecdotally – this is not really a commercial for Grove City, but someone could construe it that way – when she was starting to look at colleges, she was going on the Internet and looking at all these smaller liberal arts schools. And I would follow up her conversations, she would name one and I would sneak back, check it out, look at the sticker price and go, "Oh my." And she kept looking around and one day she said Grove City, and after looking at several of these – looking at the price tag and being shocked, I saw the price at Grove City and went, "Oh, that is where you need to go, Alex, that is where you need to go."

So I probably pushed her your way a little bit, but I know that she has done well by the education she received there, and as a matter of fact, just got her master's from Regent. We were down there this weekend for that graduation ceremony. So thank you very much for your service and to your lovely wife for her support as well.

The House will be at ease for a couple of minutes.

The House will come to order.

GUESTS INTRODUCED

The SPEAKER. I thank the members for their patience and indulgence. I have some other guests that I would like to introduce with us today as well. If the members would kindly hold the conversations down. I would appreciate your courtesy.

Also located to the left of the rostrum, we would like to welcome Jamie Greubel, the 2014 Olympic bronze medalist in the two-woman bobsled competition. Jamie and her father, Peter, are here today, and they are here as guests of Representative Petri. Will our guests please rise. Welcome to the hall of the House.

STATEMENT BY MR. PETRI

The SPEAKER. The Speaker recognizes the gentleman from Bucks County, Mr. Petri.

Mr. PETRI. Thank you, Mr. Speaker, and thank you, members.

You know, until this morning I could tell you I probably have never met an Olympic medalist before. But I also can tell you, as many of you have, I dreamed myself of being an Olympic medalist. Now, unfortunately for me, it would have been basketball, and by the time I was a junior in high school, I realized that might not be occurring. By the time they selected the Dream Team, I knew for certain that was not going to happen.

But just think of how many of us have dreamed our lives of being on the podium receiving an Olympic medal in any event and representing your country.

Well, let me tell you, Jamie has a real Olympic medal. It is big, it is heavy, and just like the Russians, you know, I think they are sending us a message.

What an extreme achievement that only a few individuals ever get to experience. Fewer people get to do it while hurtling 80 miles per hour down an icy tunnel in a fiberglass sled, combating significant g-forces with no seat, no seat belt, and no other protective devices.

Jamie Greubel is one of those individuals. And let me tell you, she comes from a family where they are gritty and tough. I know this because I have personally worked cleanup days at Washington Historic Park next to her entire family, and it is this grittiness that enabled her to become the 2014 Sochi winter medalist.

For those that are going to be introduced for track and field and want to exchange their medals even-up for that Olympic medal, let me tell you, you have a possible future as a bobsledder, because Jamie, a Cornell University heptathlete, which is a 7-event track and field event – that is how she got into the sport of bobsledding, and she was encouraged by a former teammate from Lake Placid to try a drive.

Her first run felt so much like a car accident, according to Jamie, she thought it might be her last. However, after she headed home and thought about the experience, she thought, what else would you want to do but be a brakeman and fly down that track?

Jamie joined the bobsled team in 2008, and after completing a master's degree in elementary education at Lesley University, she began training full-time. Her competitive spirit and dedication led her to selection as an alternate brakeman for 2010 in Vancouver, a mere 3 years after her first trip down a bobsled track. Shortly thereafter, after the 2010 games, she had her sights on that 2014 event.

She was chosen for an elite development program and made the transition from brakeman to the driver's seat. Despite the challenge of competing against drivers with decades of experience and overcoming a torn ACL (anterior cruciate ligament), Jamie's tenacious pursuit pushed her to work harder. Her diligence rewarded her on February 19, when Jamie guided her sled across the finish line to obtain that bronze medal, only seconds behind first.

I am extremely honored to be here to recognize Jamie, and I think we all can only imagine in our hearts how thrilled she was as they placed that Olympic medal over her head and played the national anthem. Join me, please, in congratulating Jamie on her many successes.

Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. The House will be at ease for a moment.

The House will come to order.

GUESTS INTRODUCED

The SPEAKER. I would like to introduce some additional guests.

Located to the left of the rostrum, we would like to welcome Brynn Harvey, Miss Wilkes-Barre/Scranton 2014, and she is here today as a guest of Representative Boback and Representative Mundy. Will our guest please rise. Welcome to the hall of the House.

And patiently waiting in the rear of the House, we would like to welcome the fourth grade students from St. Mary Interparochial School. Representative Kampf's nephew, Quinn Sullivan, is part of this group, and they are here today as guests of Representative O'Brien. Welcome to the hall of the House, kids.

Also in the rear of the House, we would like to welcome a group from Westmoreland County participating in Representative Saccone's religious liberty tour. Representative Saccone's wife, Yong, and his son, Matthew, are serving as tour guides for this group. Will our guests please rise. Welcome to the hall of the House.

Also in the rear of the House, we would like to welcome Taylor Thompson, who is shadowing Representative Quinn for the day, and she is a senior at Dickinson College. Will our guest please rise and give us a wave; back on the far left. Welcome to the hall of the House.

Also in the rear of the House, we would like to welcome Justin Shopp, and his parents, Brad and Josette. The family is here in recognition of May being Cystic Fibrosis Awareness Month, and they are here today as guests of Representative Grell. Will our guests please rise; on the far left against the wall.

Also in the rear of the House, we would like to welcome Joanne Goldblum, the executive director of the National Diaper Bank Network; Susan Speese of the Healthy Steps Diaper Bank; Cathy and Phillip Battle of the Western Pennsylvania Diaper Bank; and Teresa Duncan from Nana's Legacy, and they are here today as guests of Representative Youngblood. Will our guest please rise. I apologize; they were straight back the middle, kind of blocked out by some of the other guests coming and going.

Located in the gallery, we would like to welcome students from East Norriton Middle School. The students are winners and participants in the Creative Expression Contest, sponsored by the East Norriton Township Human Relations Commission. They are here today as guests of Representative Bradford. Will our guests please rise. Welcome to the hall of the House.

CARDINAL O'HARA HIGH SCHOOL BOYS INDOOR TRACK AND FIELD TEAM PRESENTED

The SPEAKER. I invite Representative Adolph to the rostrum, and the Delaware County delegation, for the purpose of presenting a citation to the Cardinal O'Hara High School Boys Track Team.

The gentleman, Mr. Adolph, may proceed.

Mr. ADOLPH. Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker.

What a day: college presidents, Olympians, outstanding students, beauty queens, and now a national track team – all from Pennsylvania. I am proud to stand before you today as a proud Cardinal O'Hara alumnus to welcome the Cardinal O'Hara Boys Indoor Track and Field Team and congratulate them on winning the national distance medley relay in the 2014 New Balance Indoor Track and Field Nationals that were held in New York City this past March.

Joining me today to welcome the Cardinal O'Hara Boys Indoor Track and Field Team are Representatives Joe Hackett and Tom Killion, who are also fellow Cardinal O'Hara alumni, as well as Representative Barrar, Representative Davidson, Representative Kirkland, Representative Vitali, and Representative Donatucci, all of which have constituents that go to Cardinal O'Hara High School. Cardinal O'Hara High School is located in Springfield, Delaware County, just down the street from where I live. It is not every day that this body gets to welcome a national champion. I could not be prouder that they are from Delaware County and from my alma mater.

I just want to put things into perspective, because at an earlier meeting, the Speaker and I were talking about this accomplishment. For your information, the distance medley is 2.5 miles, and these boys – and I saw the championship event – they were ranked fifth. Not only did they do their all-time best; they ran this distance medley in 10:00:75, which is not only the fastest time in the United States of America, but the fastest time in the world – the fastest time in the world in 14 years.

I would like to personally congratulate all-American captain Connor McCullough, all-American Kevin James, all-American Isaiah Cooper, all-American Nick Smart, and all-American Jim Belfatto – who could not be here with us today – on winning the national distance medley relay. Not only did our team take home the top prize, but they recorded the fastest time in the world in 14 years.

These young men have worked hard to achieve this, balancing between practices and meets with school, work, family, and friends. They are truly an inspiration of what can be achieved if you dedicate yourself. I would also like to congratulate the coaches: Sacchetti, Kennedy, Kee, Rozie

Turner, and Beth Pastore. Their guidance, dedication, and sacrifice have allowed this team to capture this outstanding honor.

I would also like to recognize the parents of these athletes. Obviously, you were the driving force behind these young men, and I know they appreciate everything you have done to help get them to this point. Mr. Speaker, the Cardinal O'Hara Boys Track and Field Team is also in the back. If I could ask them to please stand, and the House of Representatives please give them a round of applause.

Once again, I am proud to be a Pennsylvania resident, I am proud to be from Delaware County, and I am proud to be a Cardinal O'Hara alumnus. I want to congratulate you on such a great achievement. You should be truly proud of what you accomplished. Thank you very much.

The SPEAKER. The Speaker thanks the gentleman.

The House will be at ease for a moment or two.

The House will come to order.

BLACKHAWK HIGH SCHOOL GIRLS BASKETBALL TEAM PRESENTED

The SPEAKER. I invite Representative Marshall to the rostrum for the purpose of presenting citations to the Blackhawk High School Girls Basketball Team and the Lincoln Park Performing Arts Charter School Boys Basketball Team. I would appreciate the members' attention.

The gentleman, Mr. Marshall, may proceed.

Mr. MARSHALL. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Today I have the privilege of recognizing and congratulating two State championship teams from Beaver County. I am pleased to welcome the Blackhawk High School Girls Basketball Team to the House floor. This talented group of athletes won the 2013-2014 PIAA State Class AAA Girls Basketball Championship.

The Cougars made it to the championship under the guidance of head coach Steve Lodovico, who is joining me on the rostrum, along with seniors Halle Denman, Sarah Anne Weyand, and Chassidy Omogrosso. The remainder of the team, seated at the back of the House, consists of Danielle Levato, Bridgette Anne Shaffer, Courtney Vannoy, Abigail Carter, Mariah Evans, Molly Guthrie, Kelsey Taylor, Madison Amalia, Breanna Hoover, Abby Masterson, Morgan McCann, Gianna Piocquidio, and Adrienne Warden, and assistant coaches Theresa Adams, Dave Florentine, and Marc Lodovico. Please join me in congratulating the State Champion Blackhawk Cougars.

LINCOLN PARK PERFORMING ARTS CHARTER SCHOOL BOYS BASKETBALL TEAM PRESENTED

Mr. MARSHALL. Also today I welcome the players and coaches from the Lincoln Park Performing Arts Charter School Boys Basketball Team. The team is being recognized today because it captured the 2013-2014 PIAA State Class A Boys Basketball Championship. Joining me on the rostrum are head coach Mark Javens, and seniors Ryan Skovranko and Chris Pipkin.

Seated at the back of the House are Antonio Kellem, Elijah Minnie, Renell Cummings, Blake Lipke, Robbie Pike, Zay Craft, Nathan McCune, LaTurne Beasley, Marque Allen, Dermotti Welling, Chance Tomassetti, Maverick Rowan, E'monee Simmons, and Dillon Murphy, along with assistant coaches and trainers Mark Javens, Jr., Mike Bariski, and Ron Rowan.

Please join me in congratulating the Lincoln Park Leopards from Midland, Pennsylvania, our State champions.

Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. The House will be at ease for a moment or two.

The House will come to order.

RESOLUTION PURSUANT TO RULE 35

Mr. GABLER called up HR 755, PN 3295, entitled:

A Resolution honoring the life and extending condolences for the supreme sacrifice of United States Marine Lance Corporal Joshua M. Martino, who tragically lost his life in service to our country on March 18, 2013, as a result of injuries sustained during a military training mission in Hawthorne, Nevada.

On the question,
Will the House adopt the resolution?

The SPEAKER. Members and all guests will please take their seats.

The question is, will the House adopt the resolution?

On that question, the Speaker recognizes the gentleman from Clearfield County, Mr. Gabler.

Mr. GABLER. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Today I rise to pay tribute to a young man who has made the ultimate sacrifice, and to express the appreciation of a grateful nation, a grateful Commonwealth, and a community who is truly proud to call him one of our own. On March 18, 2013, LCpl. Joshua M. Martino from DuBois, Pennsylvania, and six of his fellow Marines lost their lives during a live-fire training exercise in Hawthorne, Nevada. Joshua was just 19 years old.

Those who knew Joshua will tell you that he always wanted to serve in the Armed Forces. He said he became a United States Marine because he could not stand by and let anything happen to his family or his country without doing something. As a young man, Joshua had already earned a reputation as someone who lived to serve others, who always sought to do his very best in everything he did. He was a Boy Scout, and served his community as a volunteer firefighter. He volunteered for the Special Olympics and assisted individuals with special needs. He was very proud to serve as a student ambassador with People to People in 2011. In July 2012 Joshua became a United States Marine. He completed recruit training at Parris Island before qualifying as a mortarman at the School of Infantry at Camp Geiger, North Carolina. He was scheduled to deploy to Afghanistan in October 2013. For his service, Lance Corporal Martino was awarded the National Defense Service Medal and the Global War on Terrorism Service Medal.

Joshua Martino will be remembered as a courageous young man of action who was ready to stand up to any challenge and always willing to serve others. He gave his life while making our security and our safety his life's work. Today we are joined by members of Joshua's family: Karen Perry, Joshua's mother; Pamela Murdock, Joshua's aunt; and Annastasia Srock, Joshua's fiancée. Please join me in welcoming them to the hall of the House and thanking them for the pain and sacrifice they have endured for our country.

Thank you. Now I ask my colleagues to join in extending our deepest condolences and our highest appreciation for the sacrifice made by Joshua Martino and his family in the service of our country by supporting this condolence resolution, HR 755.

Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. The question is, will the House adopt the resolution?

On that question, members and all guests will please rise as a sign of respect for the fallen Marine and in prayer for the family and friends.

(Whereupon, the members of the House and all visitors stood in a moment of silence in solemn respect to the memory of LCpl. Joshua M. Martino.)

On the question recurring,
Will the House adopt the resolution?

STATEMENT BY MS. YOUNGBLOOD

The SPEAKER. The Speaker recognizes the lady from Philadelphia County, Representative Youngblood, under unanimous consent relative to one of the resolutions just adopted.

Ms. YOUNGBLOOD. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

I want to thank all the members of the General Assembly. We are having Pennsylvania Diaper Awareness Week. There are plenty of families in this great Commonwealth who cannot afford to buy diapers for their children, their babies, and even adults that need them that are impaired. We would appreciate every day this week in the East Wing Rotunda, you can drop off, from 10 a.m. until 2 p.m., diapers. And for those of you who think about cloth, no; Pampers and Depends. Because one day we all might need Depends.

But I would appreciate everyone working with us, and I would like to have a special thanks to the Speaker for being a participant; the majority leader, Representative Turzai; my leadership, Representative Dermody; and a special thanks to Mike Hanna. Mike Hanna donated seven cases of Pampers and wipes. They will be distributed around the Commonwealth, as we get them in, to families that are in need, and also through the diaper banks. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

And the guests were blocked on their way out. We have the Western Pennsylvania Diaper Bank here. We also have the National Diaper Bank here – and can you all stand – Teresa Duncan from Nana's Legacy, and Jordan from Cuddle Me. Thank you once again. Can you give them a round of applause.

The SPEAKER. The Speaker thanks the lady.

STATEMENT BY MR. GRELL

The SPEAKER. The Speaker recognizes the gentleman from Cumberland County, Mr. Grell, under unanimous consent relative to one of the resolutions just adopted.

Mr. GRELL. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Thank you to the members for their unanimous support of HR 830. This was the resolution dealing with cystic fibrosis. I was honored to offer the resolution. For many years our recently departed friend and colleague, Dick Hess, championed this issue in the House of Representatives, and I was honored and happy to pick up the mantle, at least insofar as this resolution.

Just very briefly, you are all aware that cystic fibrosis is a genetic disease. It affects about 30,000 children and adults in the United States. About 1461 of those adults and children are in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. Significant advances, fortunately, have been made in treatment, and they have improved the prognosis and quality of life for cystic fibrosis patients. Hopefully this resolution will shine some light on this genetic disease and focus the public attention on the need to do more.

They were already introduced by the Speaker, but I am also pleased to welcome the Shopp family: Brad and Josette, and their 9-year-old son, Justin, who is dealing with cystic fibrosis. Brad shared a little bit of Justin's story with all of you in an e-mail, and I am so happy to welcome them here to the House. I will note, most significantly, that Justin is the godson of none other than Tony Barbush.

So please join me again in welcoming the Shopp family, and thank you all for your support of the resolution. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

STATEMENT BY MR. WATERS

The SPEAKER. The Speaker recognizes the gentleman from Philadelphia County, Mr. Waters, under unanimous consent relative to one of the resolutions just adopted.

Mr. WATERS. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. Speaker, Older Americans Month is a proud tradition that shows our commitment in honoring the value that our elders contribute to our Commonwealth and to our communities. The post-World War II baby boomers have reached retirement age, and people across our nation are achieving remarkable things in later life.

As a society, and more importantly, as a Commonwealth, we need to make sure that we are adapting to assist our growing senior population and to help make the latter parts of their lives pleasant and fruitful. Many older Americans are experts in their fields, have years of valuable experience, and are using that knowledge to improve the lives of others. But even for the most vibrant seniors in our communities, there are many risks that threaten the health, mobility, and ability to enjoy time with their loved ones.

The theme of Older Americans Month in 2014 is "Safe Today – Healthy Tomorrow," and it focuses on injury prevention for seniors. In the United States, unintentional injuries amongst the senior population aged 65 and older result in approximately 48,550 deaths annually. Falls are the leading cause of fatal and nonfatal injuries amongst older adults. About a third of those aged 65 and older fall each year, resulting in a cost of nearly $30 billion annually. Older adults are also at higher risk for traumatic brain injury and injuries associated with residential fires, abuse and maltreatment, and suicide.

It is my hope, as well as the hope of thousands of organizations across the country, that Older Americans Month, May 2014, will serve as a reminder to all of us that older Americans are not a burden to society; rather, these elders play vital roles in helping to keep our traditions sacred, steering the younger generations in the right direction, and guiding us all into a future with wisdom. This month let us help to spread the word to our seniors about ways to prevent falls and other injuries by encouraging seniors to have a safety plan. This plan includes a checklist that includes questions such as: Can you turn your light on without having to walk into a dark room? Are lamp, extension cords, or phone cords out of the flow of foot traffic? Are the stove controls easy to see and use? Does your shower or tub have a nonskid surface: mat, decals, or abrasive strips? Is there a light switch on both the top and bottom of inside stairs? With the light on, can you clearly see the outline of each step as you walk down the stairs? Do all entrances to your home have outdoor lights? Do you have an emergency exit plan in case of fire? Do you have emergency phone numbers listed by your phone?

With a safety plan in place, many home injuries can be prevented. Pennsylvania's senior population is vital to the overall health and prosperity of this Commonwealth, and in this month, we want to make sure that they are healthy and injury-free for the rest of their lives.

Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. The Speaker thanks the gentleman.

STATEMENT BY MR. STERN

The SPEAKER. The Speaker recognizes the gentleman from Blair County, Mr. Stern, under unanimous consent relative to one of the resolutions just adopted.

Mr. STERN. Thank you, Mr. Speaker, and I would like to thank the House for passing HR 825.

This resolution is recognizing May 3 through May 11 as "National Travel and Tourism Week," and it acknowledges today, May 5, 2014, as "Tourism Day" in Pennsylvania.

I just want to share some statistics and facts about Pennsylvania tourism. This week in Harrisburg there are tourism promotion agencies from all over Pennsylvania. Every one of the districts that are represented here are gathering for their annual conference in Harrisburg. Tourism, as we all know, is our number two industry in Pennsylvania after agriculture, representing almost 5 percent of the State's entire gross domestic product. An estimated 192 million visitors – and more than 65 million of them are overnight visitors – travel to or within Pennsylvania in a year. Leisure and business travelers spend about $38 billion in Pennsylvania, with the tourism economic impact of $40 billion. Tourism supports 471,000 jobs for Pennsylvania workers. Tourism also generates $4 billion in tax revenue for State and local government. Without the tourism industry, the average Pennsylvania taxpayer would pay hundreds of dollars more in taxes every year.

One of the themes of National Tourism Week this year is the "benefit of travel," not just for the tourism industry, but to the lives of every American. Americans work hard to provide a living for their families, and that is important, but it is also important to have balance in our lives. Taking time off to travel, to see the sights, and have some fun has a positive impact on personal relationships, on how you perform in the workplace, and also on our health. It makes a big difference.

Pennsylvania has a lot to offer travelers. We have famous amusement parks. We have great outdoor recreation in all four seasons, including hunting, fishing, skiing, and hiking. We have the history and heritage that only the cradle of American democracy can offer. We have big-city excitement and culture, as well as rural hospitality and forested areas. But best of all, Pennsylvania is close to home for tens of millions of Americans in the northeast, making us a short commuter hop or a perfect drive-to destination, and that is especially important now that gasoline is hovering around or approaching the $4-a-gallon mark.

Tourism is also a bipartisan issue. Whatever other differences of opinion that we have here in Harrisburg, we all share the same goal of bringing more tourists and tourist dollars to Pennsylvania. Remember, tourism is a homegrown industry. It is unique. You cannot find Hersheypark or the Poconos or the Gettysburg Battlefield anywhere else, and they certainly are not going to be outsourced overseas. And while visitors go back home, the dollars they spend stay here.

Unfortunately, we have been falling a bit behind in marketing Pennsylvania, while neighboring States are running ads here and targeting our residents. I think we can do better. We need to refocus our efforts and work in partnership with the tourism industry stakeholders to give our tourism economy the attention it needs. We have so much to offer visitors, but we need to reach out and tell them about it. That has been my goal and the goal of Chairman Kirkland and the rest of the Tourism and Recreational Development Committee. Let us hope that we can move forward and grow this vitally important part of Pennsylvania's economy.

Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. The Speaker thanks the gentleman.

LEAVE OF ABSENCE CANCELED

The SPEAKER. The Speaker returns to leaves of absence and recognizes the presence of the gentleman from Cambria County, Mr. Burns, on the floor of the House. Without objection, his name will be added back to the master roll call.

LEAVE OF ABSENCE

The SPEAKER. Additionally, I recognize the majority whip, who requests a leave of absence for the gentleman, Mr. MAHER, from Allegheny County for the remainder of the day. Without objection, the leave will be granted.

The SPEAKER. The Speaker thanks the lady.

There will be a Professional Licensure Committee meeting in room B-31 at the call of the Chair tomorrow.

ANNOUNCEMENT BY MR. READSHAW

The SPEAKER. The Speaker recognizes the gentleman from Allegheny County, Mr. Readshaw, for an announcement.

Mr. READSHAW. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

I would just like to remind everyone as we passed the resolution last week of Lupus Month, I would just like to extend an invitation on behalf of myself as cochair and Representative Payne, tomorrow from 7:30 until 9:30 a.m. in room 14, East Wing, there will be a legislative breakfast. All those who belong to the Lupus Caucus and all members are invited.

Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker.

APPROPRIATIONS COMMITTEE MEETING

The SPEAKER. The Speaker recognizes the gentleman from Delaware County, Mr. Adolph, for an announcement.

Mr. ADOLPH. Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. Speaker, there will be an immediate meeting of the House Appropriations Committee in the majority caucus room. Thank you.

The SPEAKER. There will be an immediate meeting of the Appropriations Committee in the majority caucus room.

FINANCE COMMITTEE MEETING

The SPEAKER. The Speaker recognizes the gentleman from Centre County, Mr. Benninghoff, for an announcement.

Mr. BENNINGHOFF. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

There will be a semi-immediate meeting of the House Finance Committee. I would do it about 15 minutes after Appropriations to give some of the members of both committees time to come down. We will be in G-50 Irvis Office Building to discuss HB 2031 and HB 2202. Again, that is G-50 in Irvis Office Building, about 15 minutes after Appropriations. Thank you.

The SPEAKER. For clarification relative to the Sunshine Law, the Finance Committee will begin at 2:35? The "approximately" does not quite work.

Mr. BENNINGHOFF. As Finance chair, we are very precise. We will start at 2:37, giving people 15 minutes from this moment, sir.

The SPEAKER. I would have gone with 2:34, but 2:37 is okay.

Mr. BENNINGHOFF. You are the boss, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. The Speaker thanks the gentleman.

Mr. BENNINGHOFF. I would suspect that Appropriations will start at 2:25, so we will start no later than a quarter till, if that would please the Speaker of the House.

The SPEAKER. That would be good; a quarter till it is.

Mr. BENNINGHOFF. That will please the chairman of the Finance Committee. Thank you, sir.

The SPEAKER. It will please the Parliamentarian as well.

Mr. BENNINGHOFF. I am glad we are all happy.

The SPEAKER. There will be a Finance Committee meeting at 2:45 in G-50 of the Irvis Office Building.

REPUBLICAN CAUCUS

The SPEAKER. The Speaker recognizes the lady from Susquehanna County, Ms. Major, for a caucus announcement.

Ms. MAJOR. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

I would like to announce that Republicans will caucus today at 2:45. I would ask our Republican members to please report to our caucus room at 2:45.

We would be prepared to come back on the floor at 3:45. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

DEMOCRATIC CAUCUS

The SPEAKER. The Speaker recognizes the gentleman from Allegheny County, Mr. Frankel, for a caucus announcement.

Mr. FRANKEL. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Democrats will caucus at 2:45. Democrats will caucus at 2:45. Thank you.

RECESS

The SPEAKER. This House stands in recess until 3:45, unless sooner recalled by the Speaker.

AFTER RECESS

The time of recess having expired, the House was called to order.

On the question,
Will the House agree to the amendment?

The SPEAKER. On that question, the Speaker recognizes the lady from Philadelphia County, Ms. DeLissio.

Ms. DeLISSIO. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. Speaker, amendment A06645 changes the underlying legislation from "shall" to "may." The reason for this is, this is the practice of medicine. These are licensed health-care providers, and it is certainly my opinion that legislators should not be dictating to health-care providers what information they should or should not be sharing with their patients under any circumstances. This amendment has the support of the Pennsylvania Medical Society – not surprisingly, they feel the same way – and I would ask everyone's thoughtful consideration that we not interfere between medicine, a health-care practitioner and their patients. Again, it changes it from a "shall" to a "may."

The SPEAKER. The question is, will the House agree to the amendment?

On that question, the Speaker recognizes the gentleman from Beaver County, Mr. Marshall.

Mr. MARSHALL. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. Speaker, I oppose this amendment. This will not be the first time that we have a "shall" over a "may" in the medical field. I certainly respect the medical field and the professionals there, but this bill is about providing information in the most cost-effective manner possible, and I oppose this amendment. Thank you.

The SPEAKER. The question is, will the House agree to the amendment?

On that question, the Speaker recognizes the gentleman from Allegheny County, Mr. Frankel.

Mr. FRANKEL. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

I rise in support of the DeLissio amendment because it changes the bill and makes it, I think, a much more palatable bill. As she noted, it changes the "shall" provision of the underlying bill to a "may" provision and provides language that would allow an expectant or new parent to refuse the information provided by doctors.

Mr. Speaker, this underlying bill, HB 2111, is part of a growing trend and a disturbing trend around the country that we see legislators interjecting themselves between the relationship between a provider – a health-care provider, a doctor – and their patient, putting us in the position of telling that doctor what information that patient is to receive. We are not physicians. And to the best of my knowledge, I do not believe there are any physicians in the General Assembly here. That is not our role. Pennsylvanians deserve to have an intimate, reliable, trusting relationship with their health-care providers that is not dictated with the specificity that this piece of legislation indicates in terms of what should be told or given to a patient. That provider should be given the ability.

So a "may" provision would say, here are some materials, here is information that health-care providers may want to provide with respect to these issues with Down syndrome children, but that is not our role to insist that this information be provided. That relationship between a doctor and patient is sacrosanct. We have no real authority to interject ourselves as politicians, as elected officials, in that relationship between a doctor and a patient.

So I would suggest that this amendment makes an enormous amount of sense. I think it is responsive to I think what are the good intentions here to get information out that would be available to health-care providers to provide their patients, but does not dictate that they provide that information. This is going down a very risky road that we should not be interfering in that relationship.

So I would say that the DeLissio amendment makes an enormous amount of sense. It makes this bill better, and I think it still fits with the spirit of what this bill is trying to accomplish. So I would urge a "yes" vote on amendment 06645. Thank you.

The SPEAKER. The question is, will the House agree to the amendment?

On that question, the Speaker recognizes the lady, Ms. DeLissio, for the second time.

Ms. DeLISSIO. Mr. Speaker, just a further point of clarification. It also is telling the health-care provider that they need to get this information specifically from the Department of Health's Web site. It does not preclude, necessarily, a health-care provider from providing additional information. But again, these additional steps that we are requiring somebody to take are very dictating and have no place in this particular relationship in this particular arena. Thank you.

Boyle, B.	Clay	Micozzie	Roebuck
Brown, V.	Maier

Less than the majority having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the negative and the amendment was not agreed to.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the bill on second consideration?

Ms. DeLISSIO offered the following amendment
No. A06646:

Amend Bill, page 2, by inserting between lines 8 and 9
"Scientifically and medically accurate." Verified or supported by the weight of research conducted in compliance with accepted scientific methods and published in peer-reviewed journals, if applicable, or comprising of information recognized as accurate, objective and complete.

Amend Bill, page 2, line 24, by striking out "evidence-based;
~~printed~~" and inserting scientifically and medically accurate

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

The SPEAKER. On that question, the Speaker recognizes the lady from Philadelphia County, Ms. DeLissio.

Ms. DeLISSIO. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. Speaker, this amendment adds a definition of "scientifically and medically accurate" and requires that the information that the Department of Health prepares for new or expectant parents after receiving a positive test for Down syndrome be scientifically and medically accurate. As the bill is currently drafted, it is asking that the information must be evidence-based, which could also include information which is merely anecdotal.

If we are so intent on dictating what information must be provided via the Department of Health to our health-care providers, I think we should have the most serious and medically and scientifically reviewed evidence that is available, and not even take the chance that anything could be anecdotal in there.

The SPEAKER. The question is, will the House agree to the amendment?

On that question, the Speaker recognizes the gentleman from Beaver County, Mr. Marshall.

Mr. MARSHALL. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. Speaker, this amendment was defeated in a bipartisan manner in committee, and I would ask for a "no" vote. Thank you.

The SPEAKER. The question is, will the House agree to the amendment?

On that question, the Speaker recognizes the gentleman from Allegheny County, Mr. Frankel.

Mr. FRANKEL. I cannot possibly imagine, Mr. Speaker, I cannot possibly imagine what is so wrong with this amendment, that we are insisting that we have actual medically accurate information being communicated to a patient as opposed to anecdotal information that may have no basis in fact whatsoever.

This amendment, at a minimum, strengthens this bill so that we are certain that the information being communicated to the patient by the health-care provider is medically accurate and based in fact, not in anecdote. So at a minimum, this goes a long way to improving this bill, and I urge the adoption of this DeLissio amendment.

Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. The question is, will the House agree to the amendment?

On that question, the Speaker recognizes the lady from Montgomery County, Ms. Harper.

Ms. HARPER. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

I rise to ask my colleagues to defeat the amendment. It is a basically mean-spirited amendment that does not admit to the possibility that a child with Down syndrome can live a productive, fruitful, and good life for those who love her or him. So I would ask my colleagues to please vote "no" and let this bill get enacted, as it is so that parents who are faced with really traumatic news can get all of the information that they need to make decisions and to raise children or not as necessary.

Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. The question is, will the House agree to the amendment?

On that question, the Speaker recognizes the gentleman, Mr. Frankel, for the second time.

Mr. FRANKEL. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Mean-spirited? This amendment just suggests that medically accurate, factual information be communicated to the patient. That is all this does. That is not mean-spirited. That is reinforcing our medical system and health-care providers who have been trained – not trained by politicians, but in our medical schools. That is not mean-spirited. That is strengthening this piece of legislation to make it much more effective for those who are going to be subjected to it.

Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. The question is, will the House agree to the amendment?

On that question, the Speaker recognizes the lady, Ms. DeLissio, for the second time.

Ms. DeLISSIO. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. Speaker, I just want to clarify that in committee this amendment was voted along party lines. It was not a bipartisan vote for this amendment. And the minority party was 100 percent in favor of this amendment in committee.

Ms. DeLISSIO. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. Speaker, this just clarifies again. I can appreciate what a sensitive topic this is and that we need to be supportive whenever medical decisions can be difficult. However, there is a difference between being supportive and being dictatorial, and these amendments are trying to keep this bill from being dictatorial. This amendment, just as a point of clarification, makes sure that the expectant parents understand that they are under no obligation to accept the information that the health-care provider is now being mandated to provide to them.

The SPEAKER. The question is, will the House agree to the amendment?

On that question, the Speaker recognizes the gentleman from Beaver County, Mr. Marshall.

Mr. MARSHALL. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Initially I would like to say that I would oppose this amendment, but I think I would let each member make that decision. I do not believe that this amendment adds any clarity; in fact, I think it adds confusion to the bill. There is no requirement that the patient has to take information, so there is no penalty if the information is not delivered to the patient.

I do not support the amendment, but I will let each member make that decision. Thank you.

The House proceeded to second consideration of HB 2169, PN 3358, entitled:

An Act amending Title 34 (Game) of the Pennsylvania Consolidated Statutes, reenacting and further providing for elk hunting licenses; and abrogating a regulation.

On the question,
Will the House agree to the bill on second consideration?

Mr. GABLER offered the following amendment
No. A06864:

Amend Bill, page 1, line 12, by inserting after "year."

The commission shall hold a random drawing of applications for the issuance of elk licenses under this subsection at the Elk Country Visitor Center in the Township of Benetzette.

On the question,
Will the House agree to the amendment?

The SPEAKER. On that question, the Speaker recognizes the gentleman from Clearfield County, Mr. Gabler.

Mr. GABLER. Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker.

What this amendment does is, this adds language into the bill that will statutorily require the annual elk lottery, elk license lottery, to be held at the Elk Country Visitor Center in Benetzette in the elk range.

This will be a great tourism event for the elk management area. This is already being done voluntarily by the commission; this will simply enact it into statute. I ask the members for an affirmative vote. Thank you very much.

The majority having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative and the amendment was agreed to.

On the question,
Will the House agree to the bill on second consideration as amended?

Mr. CAUSER offered the following amendment
No. A06844:

Amend Bill, page 4, by inserting between lines 16 and 17

(e) Elk management area raffle.—If the commission awards the opportunity to purchase elk hunting licenses in this Commonwealth, other than the license auction authorized under subsection (b), the commission shall conduct an elk management area raffle. The raffle shall be subject to the following:

(1) The opportunity to purchase one license shall be awarded annually through the raffle.

(2) Only residents of the elk management area shall be eligible to participate in the raffle.

(3) The opportunity to purchase an antlered elk hunting license shall be awarded through the raffle in even-numbered years and the opportunity to purchase an antlerless elk hunting license shall be awarded through the raffle in odd-numbered years.

(4) The raffle shall be conducted prior to any other awarding of the opportunity to purchase elk hunting licenses, with the exception of the license auction held under subsection (b).

(5) Except as otherwise provided by law, all applicants in the elk management area raffle, other than the person selected in the elk management area raffle, shall be eligible for any other award of an opportunity to purchase an elk hunting license.

(f) Definitions.—The following words and phrases when used in this section shall have the meanings given to them in this subsection unless the context clearly indicates otherwise:

"Elk management area." The term as defined in 58 Pa. Code § 141.48 (relating to elk management area and elk hunt zones).

On the question,
Will the House agree to the amendment?

The SPEAKER. For the information of the members, that amendment had been filed under the gentleman, Mr. Haluska's name; however, the Chair has recognized the gentleman, Mr. Causer, to call the amendment up.

The question is, will the House agree to the amendment?

On that question, the Speaker recognizes the gentleman from McKean County, Mr. Causer.

Mr. CAUSER. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. Speaker, this amendment is actually the language from HB 577, which was previously passed here in the House unanimously. What this amendment would do is add one regular elk season tag, that is only available by lottery to residents who reside in the elk management area. It is an agreed-to amendment and I would ask for support for the amendment.

Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

On the question recurring,
Will the House agree to the amendment?

SUPPLEMENTAL CALENDAR A

BILLS ON THIRD CONSIDERATION

The House proceeded to third consideration of SB 1037, PN 1945, entitled:

An Act amending the act of January 8, 1960 (1959 P.L.2119, No.787), known as the Air Pollution Control Act, further providing for powers and duties of Department of Environmental Protection.

On the question,
Will the House agree to the bill on third consideration?
Bill was agreed to.

(Bill analysis was read.)

The SPEAKER. This bill has been considered on three different days and agreed to and is now on final passage.

The question is, shall the bill pass finally?

On that question, the Speaker recognizes the gentleman from Delaware County, Mr. Vitali.

Mr. VITALI. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

I just wanted to give the members a little more information on this bill. I believe it will pass substantially, but I just kind of want to make sure the members know what they are voting on.

This involves ozone in the Pittsburgh-Beaver County region. It is a seven-county region. And this involves legislating a process for eliminating one thing the Department of Environmental Protection is doing to eliminate ozone. Let me give you a little bit of background. The Federal Clean Air Act sets what are known as national ambient air quality standards for seven criteria pollutants, one of which is ozone. The Federal government sets the standards and then the State has to figure out how to meet those standards. It is entirely up to the States. For example, in this case, it is entirely up to the Department of Environmental Protection as to how it gets down to the necessary ozone reductions to comply with the Federal Clean Air Act. They can pick and choose various remedies they want. It is important that we get ozone to a safe level because ozone causes things like lung disease, heart attacks, premature death. It is a serious problem. Right now that Pittsburgh-Beaver region is not in compliance, and people in that region are exposed to health problems.

Now, what this bill would do, would say if we enact this within 60 days, the State Department of Environmental Protection has to start a process where they change their State implementation plan to figure out how to comply with those Federal standards without using something called summer gas. Summer gas is a special formula of gas that the DEP chose years ago because they thought it was the most cost-effective way to reduce ozone.

Mr. Speaker, I am not an apologist for summer gas. It does result in increasing costs about 1/2 cent to 3 cents a gallon, but the DEP has made a determination that this is the most cost-effective way to do it. I want to be clear: Without this bill, the DEP can eliminate summer gas. They could have done it last year. They could have done it the year before. In the entirety of the Corbett administration, they could have chosen on their own to change their State implementation plan to get rid of summer gas. They chose not to do it. I am not sure if summer gas is the best way to go. The EPA thinks there is a better way, reformulated gas, but the real, central point here in this bill is, who makes that decision? Should we as the legislature say, we are going to take off summer gas as one of your options to be in compliance with ozone? Or should we let the DEP make those decisions after consultation with our members? It is very similar to the DeLissio amendment to SB 2111. Should the legislature be dictating the province of specialists?

So, Mr. Speaker, I understand if you live in that region, it is a controversial bill, but I would suggest to you that there is a process question here. Who is in a better position to decide between the various measures the State has to choose to get down to what the Federal government requires we get down to as far as ozone? Is it the DEP or is it the legislature?

Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. The question is, shall the bill pass finally?

On that question, the Speaker recognizes the gentleman from Allegheny County, Mr. Mustio.

Mr. MUSTIO. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

I am of the mindset that it is the legislature that is responsible for doing this, because we have, sometimes, bureaucrats that do not act in a responsible, effective and efficient and quick manner. So those of us that live in a seven-county area pay anywhere from 10 to 28 cents more. I wish it was 3 to 5 cents. That is a different world than I am living in and my constituents are living in. Certainly over the last few years we have seen changes like the closing of coal-fired power plants that have certainly had an impact on our environment, which maybe it is time to review what needs to be taken into consideration when we are trying to offset what is impacting our ozone layer. And if it takes a little kick in the tush by getting some legislation passed to do that, then I think maybe we need to do that.

And I encourage everybody to vote affirmatively for lowering gas taxes in southwestern Pennsylvania. Thank you.

The SPEAKER. The question is, shall the bill pass finally?

On that question, the Speaker recognizes the gentleman from Armstrong County, Mr. Pyle.

Mr. PYLE. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. Speaker, I am not sure if I should speak on it or abstain, because I am one of the persons affected by that. I live in the nine-county area in southwestern Pennsylvania. For the membership, Mr. Speaker, this special blend of gas is made at one refinery in the United States. If we would not have saved it 2 years ago, we would have been looking at having no fuel at all. RVP (Reid vapor pressure) and RVF (reservoir volume factor) gas affects a very, very small amount of counties in the United States – four counties in Maine; nine in southwestern Pennsylvania – and everybody else can just put gas in their car bought at the wholesale market. We are not that fortunate, Mr. Speaker. And as the gentleman, the prior speaker has brought up, with the closure of nine coal-fired power plants – which I am sure we will feel in a few months when all the air conditioners go on – I feel we have done enough toward our air quality standards where this bill has to be considered. Pittsburgh is no longer the quote, unquote, "smoky city" everybody likes to put on Monday Night Football. Actually, we are a leader in health care and have outstanding air quality standards.

I applaud Senator Vogel for SB 1037, and would ask for the membership's support. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. The question is, shall the bill pass finally?

On that question, the Speaker recognizes the gentleman, Mr. Vitali, for the second time.

Mr. VITALI. Again, at the end of the day, I am not sure this is the most major issue we are going to be facing this month, because we will have to reach these air quality standards. We are dictated by the Federal government to reach these Federal air quality standards, so if we do not do it with summer gas, we are going to do it with something else. Some other industry will have to pay the cost to get this reduction. It may mean that the DEP may go to a different type of gasoline, a Federal reformulated gasoline. That is what the EPA wants the DEP to do.

But make no mistake about it, the reductions have to be reached. The real question is, who is in a better position to do the cost-benefit analysis with regard to each of these measures? The cost of each measure and the tonnage of ozone, VOCs (volatile organic compounds), in each measure, who is in a better position to know that? Is it us? Do you feel you are competent to do that cost benefit? Do we even know what the options are on the table? And if you do know what the options are, do you know what the cost benefit analyses of those options are? These are just honest questions.

I have been to Pittsburgh. You know, it is a beautiful place, but you are in nonattainment right now. Your citizens in that seven-county area, there are numerous, I believe it was 48, nonattainment days in the last 3 years. This causes significant health problems, premature death, and so forth. The problem has to be dealt with. With regard to the costs, the cost of gasoline varies from region to region. It has a lot to do with other factors that have nothing to do with this type of gasoline. I have talked to a number of experts. They put the price of this at 1/2 cent to 3 cents a gallon for this particular factor. No one has shown me any evidence that indicates it is more for this. I have heard a lot of rhetoric, but really, no one has shown me any statistics showing me this really costs any more than that.

So really, the question really is, who is in a better position to make the decision as to what measures we take to meet our Federal requirements for ozone reduction?

On the question recurring,
Shall the bill pass finally?

The SPEAKER. Agreeable to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays will now be taken.

STATEMENT BY MR. HACKETT

The SPEAKER. For what purpose does the gentleman from Delaware County, Mr. Hackett, rise? For what purpose does the gentleman rise?

Mr. HACKETT. Unanimous consent.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman is recognized under unanimous consent.

Mr. HACKETT. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

I would like to thank my colleagues for their support of HB 2088.

I would also like to thank Chairmen Marsico and Caltagirone, the Judiciary Committee, and staff for their guidance and assistance with drafting and moving this important legislation along.

Mr. Speaker, HB 2088 will correct an oversight in Pennsylvania's Crimes Code. Currently the trafficking of infants is only graded as a first-degree misdemeanor. To put this into perspective, Mr. Speaker, stealing a flat-screen TV is a felony 3. That means that as our Crimes Code is currently written, it is a more serious offense to steal a flat-screen TV than to sell an infant child. HB 2088 changes the grading of the trafficking of infants to make this revolting crime the first-degree felony that it should be. HB 2088 will build on Pennsylvania's clear commitment to stopping human trafficking and severely punish those who choose to engage in this shameful activity.

Thank you, Mr. Speaker, and thank you to my colleagues.

BILL ON THIRD CONSIDERATION

The House proceeded to third consideration of HB 1714, PN 3485, entitled:

An Act amending the act of April 6, 1951 (P.L.69, No.20), known as The Landlord and Tenant Act of 1951, further providing for disposition of abandoned personal property.

On the question,

STATEMENT BY MS. DELOZIER

The SPEAKER. For what purpose does the lady from Cumberland County, Ms. Delozier, rise?

Ms. DELOZIER. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Under unanimous consent, please.

The SPEAKER. The lady is recognized under unanimous consent.

Ms. DELOZIER. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

I just wanted to take a few short moments to say thank you to those that were able to make it over. I know we passed a resolution today with the F.O.P. (Fraternal Order of Police) memorial service. Many of us did attend to pay respects to two families that lost police officers in the line of duty.

I would just like to say, on behalf of those that have loved ones that are police officers, we truly never want to be honored at one of those ceremonies, but the ability for all of us to respect the fact that our law enforcement officers put their lives on the line every day, some more than others, but certainly with the greatest admiration to be able to protect our safety.

So I just wanted, on the House floor, to say thank you to those who attended. All of us try to make as many events as possible. The families of law enforcement truly appreciate the consideration, and I just wanted to say thank you for those that were able to make it. Thank you very much.

The SPEAKER. The Speaker thanks the lady.

VOTE CORRECTION

The SPEAKER. For what purpose does the gentleman from Philadelphia County, Mr. O'Brien, rise? For what purpose does the gentleman rise?

Mr. O'BRIEN. Mr. Speaker, on SB 1037, I was recorded in error. It should have been a "no" vote.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman rises for the correction of the record. His remarks will be noted in the record.

BILLS AND RESOLUTIONS PASSED OVER

The SPEAKER. Without objection, all remaining bills and resolutions on today's calendar will be passed over. The Chair hears no objection.
