SESSION OF 2015

199TH OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY

No. 66

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

The House convened at 11 a.m., e.d.t.

THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE (SETH M. GROVE) PRESIDING

PRAYER

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The prayer will be offered by Rev. Gene Edwards, Trinity United Church of Christ, Spring Grove, Pennsylvania, one of my constituents and reverends.

REV. GENE EDWARDS, Guest Chaplain of the House of Representatives, offered the following prayer:

Good morning.

Our Declaration of Independence of the United States declares that our States contain all men who are created equal and that they are endowed by that creator that they may do many things with certain rights, including the right to pray. We have heard our forefathers, and so we call on that creator – whether we call Him Creator, Yahweh, God, the Great Spirit, or by some other name – to hear our petition.

We thank You, O great I Am, for the trust that You have given this body to steward this Commonwealth in the best ways of which we are capable. Let all members unite for the common good, that we might share in the bounty You have provided us.

Protect our land, our homes, our families and friends, and strengthen us and give us both wisdom and courage, as well as tolerance, to face the conflicts that we will encounter in our work together. May our resolve to help all the citizenry take precedence over any selfish motives, and may we continue to build our Commonwealth to Your glory and in appreciation of Your faith in us.

And we ask this in the name of all who is and all that is holy to us. So be it, and amen.

PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE

(The Pledge of Allegiance was recited by members and visitors.)

GUESTS INTRODUCED

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair would like to welcome visitors.

Located to the left of the rostrum, the Chair welcomes guests who are here in honor of the 250th anniversary of Linglestown, Dauphin County. We are pleased to have with us Polly Murphy, Pam Jones, Bill Minsker, Andrew Enders, Lower Paxton Township Supervisor Bill Seeds, Joe Murphy, Joanne Murphy, Gerry Hartman, Fay Azar, Ed Hine, Bill Paterekas, and Edie Wiestling. They are all guests of Representative Marsico. Please give them a warm welcome to the House.

Located in the rear of the House, the Chair welcomes Cathy and Mindy Rinker. They are guests of Representative Rosemary Brown. Welcome to the hall of the House.

Located in the rear of the House, the Chair welcomes a group from Representative Krieger's district, who are here to tour the Capitol and observe the House in session. It is nice to have you here, and I hope you enjoy your visit. Please stand and be recognized.

Located to the left of the rostrum, the Chair is pleased to welcome some very special members of Representative Everett's family. His grandson, Nolan, is here with his mother, Cori, and sister, Riley McLaughlin. You may remember that Nolan was the recipient of heart transplant surgery on January 24, 2014. A year and a half later, he is doing great, and we are happy to have him with us. Nolan is seated with his grandmothers, Susan McLaughlin and Sue Everett. Please give them a very warm welcome.

THE SPEAKER (MIKE TURZAI) PRESIDING

STATEMENT BY MR. EVERETT

The SPEAKER. Representative Everett will be recognized under unanimous consent.

Everybody please be seated.

Mr. EVERETT. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

I rise today to thank the chamber for their unanimous vote earlier this month on HR 409, which recognized September as the month of pediatric cardiomyopathy, which is the disease that Nolan had – are you going to talk? – which is the disease that Nolan had which precipitated his heart transplant.

And as I mentioned when I gave my little chat about a year and a half ago that I would bring Nolan to the chamber when he was healthy enough, and he has now been cleared by his medical team to be out and about and his immune system is strong enough now that he can be out and about. And so I thought pediatric cardiomyopathy month would be a good time to stop by and again thank all of you for the awareness for the disease that affected Nolan. And also, just by happenstance, my daughter tells me that today is World Heart Day.

So again, thank you for your affirmative vote and all of your support for me and my family during our time of need last year. Thank you.

The SPEAKER. Representative Everett, it is so great to see you, Nolan, and your other good friend, Riley – your granddaughter, Riley. How adorable. Thank you so much for bringing them in here today.

GUESTS INTRODUCED

The SPEAKER. Located to the left of the rostrum, the Chair is honored to welcome a group of World War II veterans who are here in remembrance of the 70th anniversary of Victory in Japan Day, which, of course, ended World War II. I do believe that Representative Gillen will be introducing them individually later today with respect to a resolution, but at this time I would just ask that those guests stand. You will be recognized again with respect to the resolution, but if these great heroes could stand for us, we would certainly appreciate it. Representative Gillen, we will be hearing from you shortly.

Located in the rear of the House, the Chair is honored to welcome, as guests of Representative Mark Keller, crewmembers of the USS Raby – right? – R-A-B-Y, Raby. And these distinguished World War II veterans are here today with their wives celebrating their 36-year reunion. Representative Keller, I presume you will be introducing them later with respect to a resolution, but at this time if those guests could please rise with Representative Keller, we would love to honor you. Thank you so much for being with us today. Representative Mark Keller told us that the USS Raby was a Buckley-class destroyer escort for the U.S. Navy, the United States Navy, and was named for Rear Adm. James Joseph Raby. It is just an honor to have these outstanding World War II veterans here today with us.

In the gallery, we welcome guests of Representative Schreiber, members of the National Auxiliary to the Veterans of Foreign Wars, and in particular, their president, Francisca Guilford. If you would please rise. If we could all give them a standing ovation as well. Thank you so much for being with us today.

CALENDAR

RESOLUTIONS PURSUANT TO RULE 35

Mr. GILLEN called up HR 436, PN 2085, entitled:

A Resolution commemorating September 2, 2015, as "V-J Day" in Pennsylvania.

On the question,
Will the House adopt the resolution?

The SPEAKER. At this time I am going to recognize Representative Gillen. If we could give him our undivided attention, please. He will be introducing some of our World War II heroes today.

Mr. GILLEN. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Seventy years ago this month the Second World War ended with the signing of the instrument of surrender on the USS Missouri in Tokyo Bay on September 2, 1945. The signatories of that document – for a brief word of background before we introduce our guests – were the United States, Japan, the Dominion of Canada, the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland, the Kingdom of the Netherlands, the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics, the Provisional Government of the Republic of France, the Republic of China, the Dominion of New Zealand, and the Commonwealth of Australia.

This generation has been called, and rightfully so, the Greatest Generation, and one could argue that singularly their victory over tyranny and fascism and imperialism and Nazism would have been sufficient to call them great. I believe that greatness was manifest during World War II, but it existed prior to World War II, and as closely as I have known this group through the years, it has been manifest in the years after World War II.

John Fleming – and if you will hold your seats just for a moment, I will have them stand as a group – John Fleming and I were together last week, and I suspect there might be some that think that this story could be embellished and that John Fleming was doing what he has always done over 90 years of age: serving in our community. Throughout the crowd they were wearing John Fleming buttons with his picture on it, and it was not because he was a World War II vet, and it was not because of his exploits of World War II. He was involved in a community event restoring Joanna Furnace. He has done it for decades, and John was driving a fire truck during this event. That would have been sufficient enough to leave the story there, but John built the fire truck from parts. I know some of you are like, yeah; we are going to talk to this guy afterwards. I was back at John's machine shop. He put it together with parts brought in from all over the country. That is just something that John does. He serves in his community.

George Moore, Battle of the Bulge, one of the bloodiest conflicts in American history; December of '44 to January of '45, the Ardennes Forest, the last place in the world you would want to be, likely to be killed by frostbite or Nazi machine-gun fire. Nineteen thousand Americans died. There were nearly 100,000 casualties. George has never stopped serving. George is part of a group that not only honors veterans but brings that history to young people in our community, and for years has headed up the Berks chapter of the Battle of the Bulge.

In between these gentlemen is Irene, looking ever radiant, who is the wife of Everett. Everett and I just talked this morning. I asked Everett, had he ever told his wife this story? She remarked, Irene Keffer, that she had not heard the story before. Everett thought that he had told her. When Everett told me that he was on PC-1261 in Normandy on June 6, 1944, at Utah Beach, I needed to hear a little bit more of the story. Everett's PC-1261 – you are welcome to look it up on Wikipedia – was the first ship that was sunk during D-day, 58 minutes before H-hour. It was hit by a Nazi shore battery. Everett was blown out of the ship and landed in the English Channel without a life preserver and was seriously, seriously wounded. Nearby him, as he related the story to me, was floating, unfortunately, a dead comrade who had a life jacket on, which he clung to for several hours. A few minutes after Everett's ship was hit, he watched it sink into the waters off Normandy.

Mr. Speaker, these are heroes. The Commonwealth is in their debt. Whether in the front of the room or the back of the room; whether you fought on the beaches, in the air, in the towns, you are American treasures. We have a responsibility today, with heavy hearts for those 400,000, 400,000-plus that did not come home, for those 60 million to 80 million human beings that died during the Second World War. We have heavy hearts, but because of the heroism of these men in this room, the Dachaus, the Auschwitz, the Bergen-Belsens were shuttered, and those that were responsible were brought to justice, and the Bataan Death March ended and the POW (prisoner of war) camps were evacuated because of the heroism of these men. When duty called, they answered and they answered valiantly, which is why patriotism defeated Nazism and heroism defeated imperialism.

And, Mr. Speaker, I do not know what more could be said. Fifteen million of their comrades have gone on to their reward and their "Well done, thou good and faithful servant." So today we simply say to these assembled heroes, as they stand up – please, if you would stand just for a moment, each of you, stand up. Irene, you are welcome to stand with them – today we corporately say, "Well done."

Will the House adopt the resolution?

Mr. MARSICO called up HR 442, PN 2116, entitled:

A Resolution commemorating the 250th anniversary of the founding of Linglestown, Dauphin County.

On the question,
Will the House adopt the resolution?

The SPEAKER. Representative Marsico is recognized for remarks.

Mr. MARSICO. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. Speaker, I ask for your attention as we have the honor of including all of you in celebrating the commemoration of the 250th anniversary of the founding of Linglestown, Lower Paxton Township, in Dauphin County, Pennsylvania.

Pioneer Scot-Irish families, banished from their homeland in Scotland in 1718 because of religious differences, immigrated to America. Many of them traveled down through the Susquehanna River, and soon after German settlers followed. They recognized the beauty and the potential for farming in the rich soil and the plentiful forest land for buildings and chose to settle what is now known as Linglestown.

Mr. Thomas Lingle arrived in the area from Berks County in 1765 and decided to establish a new town. After purchasing the land and laying out the 80 lots, he named it "The Town of St. Thomas," and because Mr. Lingle founded the town, many people there referred to it as "Lingle's town." After Mr. Lingle died in 1811, the former name of the town was dropped, and the name was unofficially changed to Linglestown.

Since then the town has continued to thrive by farming, opening schools, and hosting fairs. Linglestown is a small village with a big past, and there is much to celebrate for their 250th anniversary this year. Actually, if you are in the area, you can join me in celebrating the great history we have in Pennsylvania with the development of historic towns such as Linglestown at their celebratory events scheduled for October 9-11. Friday begins with a church service at 7 p.m. Saturday's highlights include a parade at 10 a.m., craft vendors, community groups, kids activities, and living history exhibits in Koon's Park all afternoon. Saturday evening will feature live music and dinner specials at Linglestown's great cafes and restaurants. Sunday concludes the celebration in Koon's Park with a concert all afternoon and a huge fireworks display at 7:30 p.m. St. Thomas Church is hosting a country fair all day Saturday and Sunday, and more details on these events are available at linglestown250.com.

Mr. Speaker, I would like to thank those who have joined us today as part of the Linglestown 250th anniversary committee. To my left: Polly Murphy, Pam Jones, Bill Minsker, Bill Seeds, Andrew Enders, and Bill Paterekas. And in the rear of the House, we are delighted to have with us Gerry Hartman, Ed Hine, Joe Murphy, Fay Azar, and Edie Wiestling.

Mr. Speaker, members of the committee, and lastly, thank you to the leaders and to the members for supporting HR 442.

Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Ms. DONATUCCI called up HR 486, PN 2195, entitled:

A Resolution honoring female veterans who heroically served our country as members of the United States Armed Forces.

On the question,
Will the House adopt the resolution?

The SPEAKER. Representative Donatucci will be recognized to speak on HR 486.

Ms. DONATUCCI. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

I want to thank my colleagues for their support of HR 486 honoring female veterans who have been serving our country for as far back as the Revolutionary War. Women have played increasingly greater roles in our military over the years. Since they were permitted to begin serving in the military in the 20th century, more than 600,000 women have served in armed conflicts overseas. Right now women account for 15 percent of active duty and Reserve personnel in the United States, and the number of female veterans continues to climb.

In addition, two women also recently made history as the first female soldiers to graduate from the harrowing Army Ranger School. Capt. Kristen Griest and 1st Lt. Shaye Haver both completed the grueling training with dignity and grace, inspiring women and girls everywhere.

We are also in the middle of a watershed moment as the military gets ready to open all jobs to women in January. Two years ago the Defense Secretary at the time, Leon Panetta, announced he was getting rid of the rule banning women from direct ground combat. What is more, recent news reports show the commander of the Naval Special Warfare units is advocating for women to be permitted to test for all combat roles, meaning women could become Navy SEALs. It is a special time for our women in the military, and we civilians could not be more proud of their achievements. But our female veterans' accomplishments remind us that we as legislators need to do more to better provide for these women who have given so much for us. There is a resolution facing our House Veterans Affairs and Emergency Preparedness Committee that would establish the Task Force on Women Veterans' Health Care, and I am proud to cosponsor HR 324, as it seeks to study the health issues facing women veterans and make recommendations to the Governor about how best to address them. We know that illnesses like PTSD (post-traumatic stress disorder) can present themselves differently in women than in men, and we need to better understand how we can serve our women veterans here at home.

Just as the fight for women's rights is not over, the fight for women's equal treatment in the military has just begun. We have come a long way, but still have a ways to go. We stand in solidarity with our female veterans and sincerely thank them for their courage, sacrifice, and dedication.

And again, I thank you for your support with an affirmative vote, and thank you, Mr. Speaker.

COMMUNICATION FROM GOVERNORVETO OF HOUSE BILL

The Speaker laid before the House a communication in writing from the office of His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth, advising that the following House bill had been vetoed by the Governor:

HB 224, PN 2180.

Said bill having been returned with the following message:

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania
Office of the Governor
Harrisburg

September 29, 2015

TO THE HONORABLE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
OF THE COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA:

I am returning herewith, without my approval, House Bill 224 Printer's Number 2180.

This bill is the Public School Code bill, which implements aspects of the temporary General Appropriations bill that I recently received as well. As I will veto the General Appropriations bill, I will also veto its implementation.

This bill contains many laudable items that I support. Unfortunately, however, this bill does not restore the harmful education cuts imposed on each school district over the last four years, nor does it provide adequate funding to ensure Pennsylvanians have schools that teach our children. Simply stated, it fails to meet our constitutionally required obligation of providing a thorough and efficient system of education.

For the foregoing reasons, I must withhold my signature from House Bill 224 Printer's Number 2180.

Sincerely,
Tom Wolf
Governor

BILL AND VETO MESSAGE TABLED

The SPEAKER. Without objection, HB 224, PN 2180, and its veto message will be placed upon the table.

Amend Bill, page 1, lines 16 through 19; page 2, lines 1 and 2; by striking out "Unless otherwise ordered by the court, if cash bail" in line 16, all of lines 17 through 19 on page 1 and all of lines 1 and 2 on page 2 and inserting

In any case in which the defendant is the named depositor, any cash bail deposited by the defendant that is otherwise returnable to the defendant shall be held and applied to the payment of any restitution, fees, fines and costs imposed upon the defendant in connection with any criminal or delinquency case, unless the defendant shows that he or she would suffer an undue hardship.

(2) In any case in which the defendant is not the named depositor, the court may order, upon motion of the attorney for the Commonwealth, that any cash bail deposited on behalf of the defendant that is otherwise returnable to the depositor be held and applied to the payment of any restitution, fees, fines and costs imposed upon the defendant in connection with any criminal or delinquency case, unless the depositor shows that he or she would suffer an undue hardship.

An Act amending Title 42 (Judiciary and Judicial Procedure) of the Pennsylvania Consolidated Statutes, in juries and jurors, further providing for exemptions from jury duty.

On the question,
Will the House agree to the bill on third consideration?

The SPEAKER. Now, this is a third consideration bill; however, Representative Parker, Dave Parker, does call up amendment 3389, but he has to move for a suspension on third consideration.

RULES SUSPENDED

The SPEAKER. The Chair recognizes Representative Parker. Mr. PARKER. Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Mr. Speaker, I move for suspension of the rules to consider amendment A03389.

On the question,
Will the House agree to the motion?

The SPEAKER. Sir, on the motion to suspend, you may proceed.

Mr. PARKER. Okay. My amendment for SB 210—
The SPEAKER. Sir, hold up, please. Please suspend.

Members, if we can, please take any conversations to the rooms outside the chamber. Representative Parker has the floor with respect to a motion to suspend.

Representative Parker, the floor is yours.
Mr. PARKER. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

My motion to suspend is so we can consider an amendment which would take out the language requiring a doctor's note for breastfeeding mothers to be exempt from jury duty.

It does not say that a court could not. Some courts might want to require that to verify that the mother is breastfeeding, but many courts across Pennsylvania do not require this now and I do not think we should add that burden to exempt breastfeeding mothers. All the other court exemptions do not list how the court is supposed to verify those various exemptions, and I do not think this one should either.

The SPEAKER. The two leaders and the maker of the amendment – or the motion, excuse me, may speak on this. I do not think either of the leaders is looking to speak.

On the question recurring,
Will the House agree to the motion?

A majority of the members required by the rules having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative and the motion was agreed to.

The SPEAKER. We will proceed with amendment 3389.

On the question recurring,
Will the House agree to the bill on third consideration?

Mr. PARKER offered the following amendment No. A03389:

Amend Bill, page 1, line 17; page 2, lines 1 through 6; by striking out "PROVIDING THE COURT WITH A" in line 17 on page 1, all of lines 1 through 5 and "STATES THAT THE WOMAN IS BREASTFEEDING" in line 6 on page 2 and inserting who request to be excused

On the question,
Will the House agree to the amendment?

The SPEAKER. On that amendment, Representative Parker, you may proceed. The floor is yours.

Mr. PARKER. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

I mean, my remarks do not change much from what I just said, but I would like us to have an affirmative vote on amendment A03389 to remove the requirement of a doctor's note so that courts are free to require it if they wish, or to just take the woman's word for it, or whatever system that they have used to verify that a woman is a breastfeeding mother.

The SPEAKER. Representative DeLissio, on the amendment.

Ms. DeLISSIO. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman who has put forth the amendment stand for brief interrogation?

The SPEAKER. Representative Parker has agreed to stand for brief interrogation. You may proceed.

Ms. DeLISSIO. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. Speaker, I just need a point of clarification. Does this mean that courts by county will continue to be allowed to make that decision county by county versus something that is ubiquitous across all 67 counties?

I do understand the premise of not making it more difficult for a nursing mother to be able to get this exemption, but the overriding concern is that in every county where a nursing mother applies for this exemption because she is nursing, that it will be granted and it will not be discretionary.

Mr. PARKER. I think the language is clear that the nursing mother would be exempted. I mean, if they do not offer the exemption then they are in violation of the law.

Ms. DeLISSIO. So the only change this does is removes the additional step of the requirement for documentation by a licensed health-care practitioner?

Mr. PARKER. Correct. Yes.

Ms. DeLISSIO. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. Do any other members wish to be recognized on amendment 3389?

On the question recurring,
Will the House agree to the amendment?
