SESSION OF 2015

199TH OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY

No. 99

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

The House convened at 11 a.m., e.s.t.

THE SPEAKER (MIKE TURZAI) PRESIDING

PRAYER

HON. HARRY READSHAW, member of the House of Representatives, offered the following prayer:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Let us pray:

Father, we pray to You this day that You would restore a social conscience to our nation and to our Commonwealth. We pray that we would again see the value of teaching our children the virtue of being good citizens, to not only live for the good of the individual, but the good of others as well.

Dear Father, we desire to see our nation and our Commonwealth restored to godly integrity and excellence so that our children and our citizens can be proud of their nation and be proud to be called citizens of both.

In recognizing our duty to God and our country, keep us mindful to pray for the United States of America and Pennsylvania, not only in our churches and in our homes but also in the quietness of our daily lives. Be with us this day and govern our decisions, and we ask this in Christ's name. Amen.

CALENDARRESOLUTION PURSUANT TO RULE 35

Mr. FRANKEL called up HR 591, 2548, entitled:

A Resolution honoring the extraordinary life and dedicated service of Elsie Hillman and expressing condolences on her death.

On the question,
Will the House adopt the resolution?

The SPEAKER. On the resolution, Representative Frankel.

Mr. FRANKEL. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. Speaker, I rise today to offer HR 591, which honors the extraordinary life and dedicated service of my friend – and the friend of many here today – and my constituent, Elsie Hillman.

Elsie Hillman passed away earlier this year at the age of 89 after a lifetime of philanthropic and civic contributions to western Pennsylvania and the entire Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. Although Elsie was a committed Republican, known nationally for her outspoken views, she was also a champion of bipartisanship who consistently worked with members of both political parties to accomplish great things. Elsie's example of rising above the partisan barriers that often divide us in this chamber and nationally is an example we should all strive for.

Mr. Speaker, Elsie would have celebrated her 90th birthday yesterday, and I thought that this would be a good time to briefly go over what a remarkable woman she was, a woman I was proud and honored to call my friend.

The SPEAKER. Representative Frankel, if you will please suspend just for a second.

Members, please take your seats, and if you could, take the conversations to the anterooms, please. Please take your seats. Thank you. And we are commemorating an outstanding individual who has passed away.

And, Representative Frankel, the floor is yours.

Mr. FRANKEL. Thank you. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Elsie Hillman was born in Pittsburgh in 1925, and her commitment to public service started at a very young age. During World War II Elsie cleaned surgical instruments at a local hospital, sold war bonds, and knitted socks for soldiers.

While studying at Westminster Choir College, Elsie met Henry Hillman, a Navy pilot stationed in Brooklyn. They were married and settled in Pittsburgh after the war. It was not long after that that Elsie began her interest in politics, becoming a Republican committeewoman in the 14th ward of the city of Pittsburgh. In the 1960s Elsie was selected as chairwoman of the Republican Committee of Allegheny County, making her the first female chair of a major political party in an urban area in the country. During the political and social upheaval of those days, Elsie was an outspoken supporter of religious and interracial inclusion in Pittsburgh's cultural and business community. Throughout the 1970s and 1980s, Elsie's interest and involvement in the local, State, and national politics grew as evidenced by her chairing several campaigns and her election to the Republican National Committee. This interest in politics and public service famously continued up until her very last breath.

Elsie and I did not share the same political party, and she and I worked to elect different candidates over many years, and many times – probably most of the time – her candidates won. They included Governors Scranton, Thornburgh, and Ridge, and Senators Specter and Heinz, and she had a very close relationship with former President George H.W. Bush.

But, Mr. Speaker, she did not let politics define or limit her outreach or her hopes for others in the community. Elsie always wanted more women to run for public service and established a nonpartisan political action committee, to recruit women to run for elective office, in 2006.

In 1997 the Elsie Hillman Chair in Women and Politics was established by the Hillman Foundation at Chatham University to bring nationally renowned leaders, scholars, and activists to the school to educate students about the role of women in the political process.

Health care was another issue near and dear to Elsie's heart. During the AIDS (acquired immune deficiency syndrome) crisis in the 1980s, Elsie became heavily involved in the Pittsburgh AIDS Task Force and was one of its founders, and she personally delivered dinners and flowers and all kinds of warmth to folks, people who were actually dying of AIDS, at a time when there was extraordinary fear and stigma surrounding the disease and the LGBT (lesbian, gay, bisexual, and transgender) community.

Two of Elsie's many crowning achievements were the establishment of the Hillman Cancer Center at UPMC (University of Pittsburgh Medical Center), a world-class cancer treatment center, and the Hillman Pediatric Transplantation institute at Children's Hospital of Pittsburgh, which pioneered America's first pediatric transplant program.

Throughout her nine decades on this earth, Elsie Hillman was a generous philanthropist and activist, strongly advocating for interfaith action, women's rights, and the rights of minorities, including the LGBT community.

In light of her many achievements, Elsie was the recipient of many honors and awards, which are way too numerous to be able to enumerate here.

Elsie loved people. She valued family over anything else. She was married to her husband, Henry Hillman, for over 70 years, and left behind 4 children, 9 grandchildren, 14 great-grandchildren.

Mr. Speaker, Elsie was a fixture in the Squirrel Hill neighborhood of Pittsburgh. I remember she would be driving around. If I was walking the dog, she would stop by and roll down the window and have a conversation. You could see her walking the streets in the commercial district of Squirrel Hill, an extraordinary woman but also a very down-to-earth woman. We will all miss her. I will miss her. Our city, our county, and our Commonwealth will miss this great woman.

As our national dialogue has become so divisive and polarizing, Elsie's example of using politics as a way to gain people's trust and to bring people together is a model we should all emulate as we strive to improve the lives of the people we serve.

I ask all my colleagues for an affirmative vote on HR 591. Thank you.

The SPEAKER. Representative Bryan Barbin.

Mr. BARBIN. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

I rise in support of this resolution as well.

Elsie Hillman epitomized what was really wonderful in America for a group of people that seldom will roll up their sleeves and get involved in politics to change the country for the better.

Elsie was a groundbreaker in the Republican Party. She was the first to break through the wall to allow a woman to be in the executive decisionmaking of the party. She was also groundbreaking in the fact that she reached out to labor in Pittsburgh to make sure labor was included when policy decisions should be made, and lastly, she was a strong supporter of Senator Heinz, who had the country in mind when he protected Social Security.

For all those reasons Elsie Hillman is one of our great citizens, because she was willing to put aside that wealth and get involved in the difficult days of politics to try to make the country better.

On the question recurring,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

(Members proceeded to vote.)

LEAVE OF ABSENCE

The SPEAKER. It is my understanding that Representative TRUITT of Chester County wishes to be placed on leave for the day. That request will be granted.

An Act designating a section of Christopher Columbus Boulevard between Oregon Avenue and Washington Avenue in the City of Philadelphia, Philadelphia County, as the William J. Guarnere and Edward "Babe" Heffron Memorial Boulevard; designating a portion of US Route 222 in Lancaster County as the Senator Noah W. Wenger Highway; designating a bridge on that portion of State Route 1029 over the Tunkhannock Creek, Nicholson Township, Wyoming County, as the Jody Allen Cron Memorial Bridge; designating Exit 113, State Ramp 8001, from Interstate 79 onto State Route 208, in Springfield Township, Mercer County, as the Lieutenant Colonel Michael E. McLaughlin Veterans Ramp; designating a bridge on that portion of State Route 88 over Muddy Creek, Cumberland Township, Greene County, as the Army Specialist Richard W. Kowalewski, Jr., Memorial Bridge; and making a related repeal.

On the question,
Will the House concur in Senate amendments?

The SPEAKER. Moved by the gentleman, Representative Keller, that the House concur in the amendments inserted by the Senate.

The Chair recognizes Representative Keller for a brief description of the Senate amendments, along with any remarks on the bill.

Mr. W. KELLER. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

The changes that the Senate made, it designates a portion of U.S. Route 222 in Lancaster County as the Senator Noah W. Wenger Highway. It designates a bridge on State Route 1029 in Nicholson Township, Wyoming County, as the Jody Allen Cron Memorial Bridge. It designates exit 113 from Interstate 79 in Springfield Township, Mercer County, as Lieutenant Colonel Michael E. McLaughlin Veterans Ramp, and it redesignates a bridge on State Route 88 in Cumberland Township, Greene County, as the Army Specialist Richard W. Kowalewski Memorial Bridge. And that was the intention of HB 1540, Representative Snyder, and it repeals Act 3 of 2015. That does need repealed. They were the changes that were made in the Senate.

I just want to, if we pass this, I just want to thank all the members for designating— This bill designates a portion of Christopher Columbus Boulevard in South Philadelphia as the William J. Guarneri and Edward "Babe" Heffron Memorial highway, two heroes, Pennsylvania heroes that were honored in this "Band of Brothers" episode, and I would just like to reiterate they were very good friends of mine. I had worked with both of them.

Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

The Senate merely changed the effective date to immediately. This bill passed this chamber unanimously, and if you recall, this merely conforms the Eminent Domain Code with the Federal law as just really, again, that was put in place again. So we need to have this done to comply with Federal law and to continue to be in compliance. So thank you.
