SESSION OF 2017

201ST OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY

No. 44

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

The House convened at 10 a.m., e.d.t.

THE SPEAKER (MIKE TURZAI) PRESIDING

PRAYER

HON. CRIS DUSH, member of the House of Representatives, offered the following prayer:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

It is kind of humbling standing here beneath William Penn and Pastor Peter Gabriel Muhlenberg, the patriot pastor. And the words that I am going to be reciting in prayer, as I came up here today, and the words beneath William Penn say, "Remember the days of old, consider the years of many generations: ask thy father, and he will show thee; thy elders, and they will tell thee." In my prayer, this will be reflecting back on that.

Gracious Heavenly Father, we the people of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and of this great House, grateful to Almighty God for the blessings of civil and religious liberty and humbly invoking His guidance, do humbly ask that He provide such guidance to each of us in this building in the days coming as we seek the best course of laying the framework of the Commonwealth's budget and services. As we do so, let us look back first to two of the oaths required of those who took our seats of office when they were first established.

First, "I do swear (or affirm) that as a member of this assembly, I will not propose or assent to any bill, vote, or resolution, which shall appear to me injurious to the people; nor do or consent to any act or thing whatever, that shall have a tendency to lessen or abridge their rights and privileges, as declared in the constitution of this state; but will in all things conduct myself as a faithful honest representative and guardian of the people, according to the best of my judgment and abilities."

Heavenly Father, we know that the best judgment comes from You and all abilities derive from You. Lord, You provide us a government under which all men are born equally free and independent and have certain inherent and indefeasible rights, among which are those of enjoying and defending life and liberty; of acquiring, possessing, and protecting property and reputation; and of pursuing their own happiness. Let us not interfere with those rights. After Your sovereignty, You have made all power inherent in the people and all free governments are founded on their authority and instituted for their peace, safety, and happiness. Let us remember our charge to You and to Your people, Lord. Help us to willingly submit to Your guidance and wisdom, that we should faithfully discharge our duties with fidelity. And, Lord, remind us also that You provided us the founders and the foundation as in the second oath of our founding.

"I do believe in one God, the creator and governor of the universe, the rewarder of the good and the punisher of the wicked. And I do acknowledge the Scriptures of the Old and New Testament to be given by Divine Inspiration."

Thank You for the love You have shown us, and we seek Your divine inspiration and guidance in the coming days. Please continue to bless our families, constituents, the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, and these United States. Amen.

PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE

(The Pledge of Allegiance was recited by members and visitors.)

Mr. Speaker, I rise in strong support of this bill.
Mr. Speaker, United States military personnel are deployed to approximately 150 countries across the globe and many service members are geographically separated from their families during these assignments. Deployed military members leave behind spouses, children, and parents who must try to maintain life as usual while their loved one is away. In addition, they are often left to settle into a new community without the support of local family and friends.

Mr. Speaker, 25 percent of the military families in America seek food assistance on a monthly basis. That is 25 percent. And an astoundingly high percentage of military families live at or below the poverty level.

This is an excellent bill, and I commend the prime sponsor, who is a veteran, for proposing this legislation.

Thank you, Mr. Speaker.
The SPEAKER. Thank you, sir.

On the question recurring,
Shall the bill pass finally?

The SPEAKER. Agreeable to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays will now be taken.

The SPEAKER. There are amendments, two amendments filed by Representative Farry.

My understanding is, Representative Davis, that you have withdrawn three amendments. Is that correct?

Mrs. DAVIS. Mr. Speaker, which amendment?

The SPEAKER. I have listed three amendments: 2775, 2787, and 2788.

Mrs. DAVIS. Yes; and I just want to urge my colleagues to support the amendment by my colleague. Thank you.

The SPEAKER. Okay. So Representative Davis' amendments – 2775, 2787, and 2788 – are withdrawn.

Representative Kaufer, I understand, withdraws amendment 2442.

And then we have Representative Farry, who has two amendments. Sir, I will call up 2778 at this time.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

The SPEAKER. Representative Farry, on the amendment.

Mr. FARRY. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

This amendment, we worked with the Senate maker of the bill and Representative Davis to come up with these changes to the House bill – or excuse me, SB 446, PN 986. I ask for an affirmative vote.

The SPEAKER. Representative Thomas, do you wish to speak on the amendment, sir? He waives off.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRIES

The SPEAKER. Representative Dawkins, on the amendment, please.

Mr. DAWKINS. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Parliamentary inquiry, please.

The SPEAKER. Yes; you may inquire.

Mr. DAWKINS. It was my understanding that this bill came up after 2 o'clock, so how is it possible that any amendments are in order?

The SPEAKER. Well, these were amendments that were filed, I believe, beforehand. And then there was a question that was asked if we would be able to file amendments afterwards. In consultation with the Parliamentarian, and I believe it was Representative DiGirolamo that had asked the question, because it was filed afterwards but because there was a motion for a prior printer's number – we have never had this precedent before – it seemed appropriate with the rules and that it would be unfair to not let anybody who wanted to file an amendment be able to file an amendment. So anybody would be able to file an amendment.

Mr. DAWKINS. And the only reason I ask that is because I know we gaveled out before we got the official ruling on if we could file those amendments, so there were amendments that were not filed with the thought that they would be out of order because we did not have an official ruling before we gaveled out.

The SPEAKER. We had said that we were going to take up the issue. We did not say that we would be ruling any of them out of order. We have never encountered this before. And we did say that everybody could redraft their amendments. And I am sorry, but members could have— There was nothing— Members could have filed amendments.

Mr. DAWKINS. Last question. Would it be in order to make a motion to delay this or to postpone this vote to allow members the option to file amendments, given the fact it was unclear at the time that we could file those amendments?

The SPEAKER. Representative Dawkins, you can do a motion to postpone, but before you do that, I would just suggest, if you would, you might wish to talk to the two leaders and to the maker of the amendment. If they are agreeable to going over the bill, I am certainly agreeable to that. But you would have to talk to the floor leaders and the maker of the amendment.

Mr. DAWKINS. So can we—

BILL PASSED OVER TEMPORARILY

The SPEAKER. I will temporarily go over the bill for you to have that discussion.

Mr. DAWKINS. Thank you.

The SPEAKER. Thank you.

Members, we only have one other bill before us.

The House proceeded to second consideration of SB 527, PN 911, entitled:

An Act amending the act of April 9, 1929 (P.L.177, No.175), known as The Administrative Code of 1929, establishing the Office of State Inspector General.

On the question,
Will the House agree to the bill on second consideration?

The SPEAKER. There are a number of amendments.

On the question recurring,
Will the House agree to the bill on second consideration?

Mr. CUTLER offered the following amendment
No. A02746:

Amend Bill, page 3, line 25, by inserting after "Governor" including

On the question,
Will the House agree to the amendment?

The SPEAKER. On the amendment, Representative Cutler.

Mr. CUTLER. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. Speaker, very simply, this amendment would allow and clarify the reasons that the Inspector General could be dismissed. In talking with the prime sponsor and at his request, I am offering this amendment to make the statement as follows: including for cause. The issue that was raised related to what we would probably categorize as issues or conducts related to immorality or other issues that might not be illegal, however, would be just cause for dismissal, and we wanted to allow for the dismissal in those cases.

The SPEAKER. Representative Solomon, on the amendment, please.

Mr. SOLOMON. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

I am in support of the amendment, and I applaud the work of the maker of the amendment and the author of the bill.

The Office of Inspector General is integral to the functioning of our government because it upholds and guarantees the trust placed in us, our people, and our institutions by the people of the Commonwealth. It is vital that this office be enshrined in statute. In doing so, however, we need to be sure that the person holding the office has the strength of character to execute the office faithfully and effectively.

This amendment therefore is necessary to strike an important balance. On the one hand, it gives the Governor the authority and ability to remove an Inspector General who demonstrates a lack of the character that I was talking about, though maybe not in a way that rises to the level of an infamous crime. On the other hand, it gives independence and assurance to the Inspector General to execute the duties of the office without fear of arbitrary dismissal.

This amendment represents the culmination of many years of work and bipartisan compromise going back to then Governor Casey in 1987. I urge all members to vote "yes" on this amendment.

Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

The majority having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative and the amendment was agreed to.

On the question,
Will the House agree to the bill on second consideration as amended?

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair recognizes the gentleman, Representative Petrarca, who calls up amendment 2597.

The clerk will read a summary of the amendment.

Withdrawing? Thank you, sir. The amendment is withdrawn.

It is my understanding that the gentleman, Mr. Cutler's amendments have been withdrawn. Thank you, sir.

And also the gentleman, Mr. Neuman's amendment has been withdrawn.

Mr. Neuman.

Mr. NEUMAN. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

I understand that the underlying bill is going to hopefully eradicate some level of fraud here in Pennsylvania. My amendments really went after people that profit off of fraud, and it is my understanding that my amendment would be ruled out of order.

So I hope that we are able to seriously talk about the overall fraudulent environment that we have here in the Commonwealth and talk about how people are profiting off of fraud and we are not able to go after them here in Pennsylvania like the majority of other States in the United States are able to go after them.

So I hope at a later date we are able to have this discussion and take the profit out of fraud and go after the bad actors here in Pennsylvania.

Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair thanks the gentleman.

AMENDMENT A02778 CONTINUED

The SPEAKER pro tempore. We had gone over the gentleman, Mr. Farry's amendment, 2778. We will return to that amendment for consideration.

On the question recurring,
Will the House agree to the amendment?

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The gentleman, Mr. Farry, has spoken once and is seeking second recognition. The gentleman, Mr. Farry, is recognized.

Mr. FARRY. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

As previously mentioned, this amendment is supported by the Senate maker of the underlying bill and Representative Davis, who has also done a tremendous amount of work on this issue. This amendment addresses the self-dealing issues within recovery houses and also sets up the process for inspections and fees. I ask for an affirmative vote.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair thanks the gentleman and recognizes the gentelady, Mrs. Davis, on the amendment.

Mrs. DAVIS. Representative Frank Farry and I have worked together on this, and I believe it is a great start to the recovery house problem and I want to thank him. And please support the amendment.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

The SPEAKER pro tempore. On that question, the gentleman, Mr. Farry, is recognized.

Mr. FARRY. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Likewise, this amendment was agreed to by the Senate author of the bill, and as the clerk stated, it addresses the department following the recommendations of the recovery housing task force, sets standards for who must reside in certified recovery houses, and addresses the criminal history background checks. I ask for an affirmative vote.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair thanks the gentleman and recognizes the gentleman, Mr. Thomas, on the amendment.

Mr. THOMAS. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

I would like to interrogate the maker of the amendment.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The gentleman has agreed. You may proceed, sir.

Mr. THOMAS. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. Speaker, I misspoke when I said interrogation. I am not interested in interrogating you. I would like to ask you to clarify for me what your amendment would do.

Mr. FARRY. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Is there a particular part of the amendment you have a question with?

Mr. THOMAS. The whole amendment.

Mr. FARRY. The whole amendment. Okay.

The amendment does several things. One, it recommends that DDAP (Department of Drug and Alcohol Programs) follow and consider the recommendations of the recovery housing task force, which issued their report last year. It also states who is required to reside in a certified recovery home. Additionally, it has the department determine a process for criminal history background checks and place restrictions on individuals who have certain convictions. It also requires that the owner or administrator of the recovery home notify a family member if a resident of that recovery home dies. It also speaks to the annual inspections, to have the certification of the recovery home and the fees that are necessary for said inspections to compensate the department for their efforts.

Mr. THOMAS. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

That is what I thought. Thank you.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair thanks the gentleman.
