We thank You for Your love, we thank You for Your grace, we thank You for Your mercy. And, Father, I ask that You would be with the House today. ### KIM HILEMAN PRESENTED

The SPEAKER. Everybody, please take your seats. We are going to honor someone who has served our citizens in the House of Representatives for so many years. So I am going to ask all members to please take their seats. This is important. All members, please take your seats. I am going to ask her to please stand, as we have some remarks to honor her service, because she is retiring after 34 years. Kim Hileman. Please stand, Kim. How are you, dear? I am going to say a few words, and then we are going to turn it over to Representative Bradford, who has a resolution, I believe.

But, Kim, we are so honored and want to thank you for your 34 years of distinguished service to the House Democratic Caucus, to the House of Representatives, and to the citizens of Pennsylvania. You always have a smile on whenever I see you, and I know that you have put in so many great years of, really, dedication to this institution – your hard work, your loyalty – always understanding that in the end it was about the citizens of Pennsylvania.

I just want to tell you that Kim began her tenure – Representative Bradford will go through much of this, but think about this – as an executive secretary for then – and I held this job – Majority Leader James Manderino. Kim, I am sure you were busy, and I know you had a great relationship with the leader, an outstanding – as you do with all your members of your caucus.

You know, this good lady earned her bachelor of science degree at Penn State and worked with so many fine legislators: Representative Bowley, Representative Ritter, Representative Josephs, Representative Cohen, and this good man, Representative Bradford.

I just want to introduce your guests, and then I will turn it over to our friend. But, Kim, my understanding is your grandsons, Jacob and Jaxon, are here, right? If they will stand, and because I am going to save him towards the end, your good husband, your gracious husband. I think your daughter, Desiree, is here, right? Desiree, nice to see you, dear. Thank you so much. Her mother, Nancy, is here. Nancy, great to have you. And your brother, Bill. Bill is here; yep, Bill. And son-in-law, David. David, great to see you, my friend. How are you doing?

The SPEAKER. At this time I am going to turn it over to Representative Bradford.

Mr. BRADFORD. Thank you, Mr. Speaker, and thank you for recognizing Kim Hileman, the Democratic Executive Director of the House State Government Committee, who today is retiring after 34 years of service to the Democratic Caucus and the Pennsylvania House of Representatives.

Kim joined the Democratic Caucus on April 16, 1984, 34 years ago, as an executive secretary for then Majority Leader James Manderino. She was asked to assist the leader's office and caucus move from the outdated mag card word processors to a more modern form of word processing using the IBM Display Writers at the time. It tells you a lot, that we have come a long way in 34 years.

In January of 1985 she went on to work for Representative Curtis Bowley as a legislative assistant. Representative Bowley had just been elected to the newly Democratic 65th Legislative District in Warren, Forest, and Venango Counties, where Democrats got elected at that time evidently, and she remained with Representative Bowley for his entire 8 years in office.

While raising her daughter, Kim attended Penn State University, while working here at the Capitol, and graduated in May of 1994.

In December of 1992, Kim had transferred to Representative Karen Ritter's office and stayed with Representative Ritter until December of '94. At that time she transferred to Representative Babette Josephs' office as a research specialist. As chair of the Pennsylvania Women's Legislative Caucus, Representative Josephs asked Kim to help facilitate the creation of Pennsylvania's first Women's Legislative Caucus. Representative Josephs' goal for the caucus was to directly influence the policy process, while offering women legislators a supportive environment from which to challenge the status quo, which has sometimes served to exclude women from full participation in this legislature. Kim was asked to serve as the Executive Director of the bipartisan, bicameral Pennsylvania Women's Legislative Caucus by a unanimous vote of both Democratic and Republican women.

Subsequently, in December 2010, Kim was promoted to the role of Democratic Executive Director of the House State Government Committee, under then Chairwoman Babette Josephs. I would also like to notice, and I think you already have, that Representative Babette Josephs is joining us here today. So thank you, Representative Josephs.

In December of 2012, Kim was assigned, again, to be Executive Director, but now under Chairman Mark Cohen. I know Representative, now Judge Cohen is trying to make it here this morning and is on his way, though he may get himself a little sidetracked. Kim remained with Chairman Cohen until 2016, at which time I took over that position. A true statement is to having worked for Representative Josephs and Representative Cohen and myself, that is not an easy task, Kim, so you have definitely been through it.

On a personal note, as a first-time chairman, I really cannot thank Kim enough. She has been tremendous. I was surprised, actually, how much we got along, because as anyone who has ever watched a State Government Committee hearing, they can be somewhat volatile and a little contentious, but Kim has been a trooper, and I appreciate her for her stick-to-itiveness.

Also, I would be wrong if I did not mention that Kim happens to lead with her heart, and anyone who knows Kim knows that can sometimes be to her detriment, but it is also one of the things that makes her so great. Whether it is 2 o'clock in the morning sending me texts about crazy left-wing Web sites where she finds all kinds of news, the Democratic Caucus will not be losing a staffer when Kim moves on. She will be moving to Florida and be a full-time advocate for every progressive cause there is imaginable. Kim, though, truly does lead with her heart and it is exceptional. One of the things that has amazed me, and again, because of that committee, Kim has often had the opportunity to advocate for women, the LGBT (lesbian, gay, bisexual and transgender) community, immigrants, some of those populations that are not always well represented, and while Kim would have maybe not have done the job for free, her heart would have been every bit as with it, because this is her life's work. It has been her work for 34 years.

And I think something that also needs to be stated, as a single mom for many of those years, for 34 years, it is really tremendous. We often talk a lot about how important it is to support women and single moms and people who are doing the right things: getting an education, advancing themselves, forwarding their own career. Kim's career in the legislature has truly done that, and I want to thank her again personally for everything she has done for me in the last year and thank you on behalf of our caucus, on behalf of this body, and on behalf of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. Thank you.

The SPEAKER. The Sergeants at Arms will open the doors of the House.

Kim, we wish you nothing but the best and we are going to take a photo up here with Representative Bradford, if that is okay with you and your family. Please come on up.

Representative Babette Josephs served in this distinguished body from 1985 through 2012. It seems like yesterday that we were serving with her.

STATEMENT BY MR. FRANKEL

The SPEAKER. Representative Frankel, you may proceed.
Mr. FRANKEL. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

I would like to thank my colleagues for their unanimous support of HR 823, which recognizes April 8 through 15, 2018, as the "Days of Remembrance of the Victims of the Holocaust" and on April 12, 2018, as "Holocaust Remembrance Day" in Pennsylvania.

Mr. Speaker, with a 43-percent increase in anti-Semitic incidents in Pennsylvania last year, it is more important than ever to remember and learn from the Holocaust. Today we continue to hear the voices that deny or diminish the Holocaust and we face the reality that those first-person eyewitnesses to this horror are fewer and fewer every year.

While a visit to the Holocaust Center in Pittsburgh or the Holocaust Awareness Museum and Education Center in Philadelphia can provide an important glimpse into one of the most horrible chapters in human history, we also have a connection here in the Capitol.

In 1980 when the Pennsylvania House of Representatives first considered the first resolution about the Holocaust, Representative Russell Kowalyszyn from Monroe and Northampton Counties stood behind one of these microphones to give a firsthand testimony, and I would like to read a few snippets of his remarks, and I quote: "...Mr. Speaker, the date April 28, 1945. On that date, the United States Seventh Army liberated the Dachau concentration camp, which was the first concentration camp established by the Nazi regime, and it was the last one that was liberated. Attached to the United States Seventh Army was a small United States military government unit, composed of one first lieutenant, one second lieutenant, and eight enlisted men. I was that second lieutenant on that military government unit that went into the Dachau concentration camp...."

He continues his remarks by saying, "I am mentioning this to you because I feel that I should bring to your attention, particularly the younger members, the utter human tragedy that occurred under the Nazi regime. Six million Jews were killed. Millions of others whom the Nazis labeled as 'untermeunschen' were also killed in a deliberate extermination program. These things did happen, this great tragedy, which will not be permitted to happen again.

"There was everything there in the extermination camp which was just beyond belief. The gas chamber had above the door the word 'brausakammer,' shower room, and the crematoriums were still operating, and the unfortunate victims there were still dying, some 50 to 70, each day during the week that our unit was there to operate the camp. And one thing among these others that sticks in my mind is, when we went through the barracks and they had the layers of places where the victims were housed, as we went through, these living skeletons raised their arms and cried out, 'America, America.' I am sure they did it not because they were now being liberated by the United States Armed Forces, but they acknowledged that the United States stands for freedom; it stands for human rights."

Mr. Speaker, if you visit the Dachau camp today, just minutes from Munich, you could see the very camp and crematoriums that our former member described, but you would also see two more things. At the entrance at the Dachau camp for the prisoners, you would see the iron gate with the German phrase "Arbeit macht frei," which means "work sets you free," inscribed on top at the place where the Nazis forced labor and medical experiments, worked prisoners to death in so many ways beyond the bullet and the gas chamber. Second, at Dachau you would see a memorial featuring a variety of different brightly colored triangles and stars. Because Dachau was the first concentration camp, these different colored triangles were first sown there on the prisoners' uniforms to represent the different groups of people targeted by Nazi hatred and violence: the yellow triangle, Jewish prisoner; the red triangle, political prisoners or Communists; the black triangle, asocials, nonconformists, vagrants, and the mentally ill; the brown triangle, Roma and Sinti or Gypsies; the pink triangle, gay and lesbians; the purple triangle, Jehovah's Witnesses; the blue triangle, foreign prisoners like the Poles. To this day it is hard to fathom the hatred and destruction visited upon so many groups of people during that time at the hands of the Nazi regime.

In 1980 our colleague surprised this chamber with a firsthand recounting of the death camps. I can report to you today that documents and papers that our colleague collected at Dachau were donated by his family to the United States Holocaust Museum, and like him, nearly 1,000 survivors who have lived in Pennsylvania have also put down their stories for future research and viewing.

As sponsor of the 2018 Holocaust Remembrance resolution, I believe it is worth remembering that while the death camps were thousands of miles away, we have a direct connection to this cruel time right here in the Capitol in this Commonwealth.

Thank you, Mr. Speaker, and thanks again to my colleagues for their unanimous support of this resolution.

The SPEAKER. Members, I think it only fitting given that it is the Days of Remembrance of the Victims of the Holocaust and the Holocaust Remembrance Day that we stand for a moment of silence for all the victims of the Holocaust.

(Whereupon, a moment of silence was observed.)

The SPEAKER. Thank you, members. You may be seated. The Sergeants at Arms will open the doors of the House.

Representative Donna Oberlander is recognized to speak on HR 788. She will be followed by Representative White, who will speak on HB 2067, which we will do a vote and then I will recognize Representative White. We did it on second yesterday, but not on third.

STATEMENT BY MS. OBERLANDER

The SPEAKER. Representative Oberlander, the floor is yours.

Ms. OBERLANDER. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

And thank you, members, for your unanimous support of HR 788, which names April 2018 as "Esophageal Cancer Awareness and Prevention Month."

This is one of the deadliest cancers, and only one out of five survive for more than 5 years. It is something that simple heartburn – many of which you know someone who suffers from – can be one of the causes. You do not have to chew tobacco or smoke or have excessive alcohol use to have esophageal cancer.

I have had the privilege of two of my constituents who have come over the past 8 years to draw awareness to this very important issue, and they are with me today. We have Rich Horner and his wife, Linda. If you would please rise. Rich is a 9-year survivor of esophageal cancer. Thank you, Rich, for coming. They come each and every year and make the 6-hour round trip because it is so very important to them that we make this awareness to all individuals so that they do not have to suffer through this terrible disease.

Again, thank you for your support; thank you to my constituents, Linda and Rich Horner, for making the trip; and thank you, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. We are going to take a vote right now on third consideration. We have some guests with us here. It is actually Representative John Taylor's bill. It is also sponsored by Representative White.

STATEMENT BY MS. WHITE

The SPEAKER. Representative White, you may proceed.

Ms. WHITE. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Few people go to work every day with the understanding that they may have to put their life in danger to protect the innocent. Every day police men and women leave their homes and families without knowing what they will encounter while on the job. They do so to protect the rest of us, and unfortunately, sometimes they do pay the ultimate price.

Today Representative Taylor and I have the privilege, along with our colleagues throughout the House of Representatives, to honor one such individual who has made that sacrifice. Officer Isabel Santiago Nazario was a Strike Force South C Squad Officer. She worked in the Philadelphia Police Department for 18 years during which she was designated to the Narcotics Strike Force in the 16th District in West Philadelphia.

Nazario grew up in Linwood, New Jersey, before she moved to Philadelphia in 1983. Three years later she graduated from Olney High School. After high school, Nazario joined the Philadelphia Police Academy on January 8, 1990, in order to serve the citizens of her city.

On September 5, 2008, at the young age of 40, Officer Nazario reported for duty for the last time. Shortly after she and her partner learned of a stolen SUV (sport-utility vehicle), they were broadsided by the vehicle on 39th and Wallace Streets in Philadelphia. Nazario tragically lost her life upon impact, and her partner, Officer Terry Tull, was critically injured. Officer Nazario dedicated her life to public service and keeping her fellow Philadelphians safe.

Here today we honor Officer Nazario's legacy in the company of her daughter, Jazmin Nazario; mother, Patricia Santiago; sister, Maritza Mohamad; and niece, Bryanna Carrasquillo, along with other family members and friends from the Fraternal Order of Police.

HB 2067 will designate a portion of Cottman Avenue, between U.S. Route 13 and U.S. Route 1, as "Police Officer Isabel Nazario Memorial Highway." Each and every day Philadelphians will pass through this portion of the highway and remember Officer Nazario's ultimate sacrifice in the line of duty. It is my hope this memorial will allow her legacy of commitment, honor, and selflessness to live on.

Thank you very much for your support, and thank you, fellow members.

The SPEAKER. Members, if you will please stand in a moment of silence for our fallen police officer, Isabel Nazario.

(Whereupon, the members of the House and all visitors stood in a moment of a silence in solemn respect to the memory of Police Officer Isabel Nazario.)

The SPEAKER. Thank you, members.

And to our guests, if you will please rise. I know you were introduced by Representative White. To our guests with the family members and friends, thank you. Our heart goes out to you. Godspeed to each and every one of you.

Members, I only have two other of our colleagues that wish to speak on resolutions. We are going to do those now. Oftentimes if we have many requests, we will move them to the end of the day. But I only have two. Representative Mehaffie is going to be speaking on HR 795 and Representative Tom Murt will be speaking on resolution 712. Kathy Watson also is going to speak on HR 757. We do ask members to try to keep it to 5 minutes if possible. We are very appreciative.

STATEMENT BY MR. MEHAFFIE

The SPEAKER. Representative Mehaffie, the floor is yours, sir.

Mr. MEHAFFIE. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

And thank you to all my colleagues today for consideration and support of HR 795.

Mr. Speaker, I rise today to congratulate Perseverance Royal Arch Chapter No. 21 of the Free and Accepted Masons, which is located right here in Harrisburg. For more than two centuries now, this chapter has been helping your colleagues be better men through bonding of friendship, compassion, and fellowship. Perseverance Royal Arch Chapter 21 is one of the oldest chapters in this Commonwealth, and this year marks the 200th anniversary of the granting of the Warrant of the Constitution. Many of us in this room have masons in our family and are masons and we know the overriding mission of masons is helping others.

On behalf of the Pennsylvania House of Representatives, I want to wish Perseverance Royal Arch Chapter 21 of the Free and Accepted Masons a very happy 200th anniversary and best wishes for another 200 years of success.

Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. Thank you, Representative Mehaffie.

STATEMENT BY MR. MURT

The SPEAKER. Representative Murt.

Mr. MURT. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. Speaker, I want to thank my colleagues for their support of HR 712, declaring April "The Month of the Young Child."

Mr. Speaker, the evidence is clear. Fifty years of research shows us that children receiving high-quality early education are better prepared for school where they perform better, graduate high school, attend college, learn a trade, and ultimately earn higher salaries. High-quality early learning programs also save taxpayers money by reducing the need for special education and remedial instruction, and it decreases dropout rates, crime, and incarceration.

Unfortunately, there is still far too much unmet need with only one in six children able to access high-quality, publicly funded pre-K, and barely 5 percent of child-care slots for young children are with the highest quality accredited programs. This humble resolution reminds us that we have far to go to make quality child education a reality for the majority of our children.

Thank you, Mr. Speaker, for committing to giving our children the best education they deserve. Our future depends on it. Thank you.

STATEMENT BY MRS. WATSON

The SPEAKER. Representative Kathy Watson, on HR 757.

Mrs. WATSON. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

It is interesting that I would follow Representative Murt, who talked about this is The Month of the Young Child. I am going to talk to you about this month, April, being declared as "Child Abuse Prevention Month" in Pennsylvania. So it is about children, both young and, sadly, a little older.

Child abuse is something that impacts regardless of your social status, regardless of what county you live in; it is there, sadly, for all of us. In fact, if you were in Harrisburg last week, you saw hundreds of small, bright blue flags outside the Capitol that were placed right near the main staircase coming in. Those hundreds of flags were very small, but they endured some of that rough weather that we all complained about – the snowfall, the harsh winds. These flags were representative of the youngest in our society who have had to overcome life's hardest circumstances. These flags showed the number of victims and the survivors of child abuse and how they have endured. I would suggest to you that we would like a year when there were no flags to be put up.

Tragically, child abuse and neglect threaten the lives and health of thousands of our Commonwealth's children who are subjected to verbal, sexual, emotional, and physical abuse; exploitation and neglect. In order to prevent the maltreatment of our youngest population, it then becomes vital for all our communities to create partnerships among families and organizations to provide supportive resources and reinforce protective measures.

I think it is important for you to remember two words, and those would be "safety" and "permanency." That is what children really need. They need safety to grow up but they need the permanency of consistent care and people who love them, and they will grow to be whatever they are intended to be, whatever their levels of abilities are.

April, as I said, is Child Abuse Prevention Month in Pennsylvania. It is a time, very sad, to remind you that in Pennsylvania in 2016 – please listen to the statistic – there were 4,416 children who were victims of abuse or neglect. And sadly, 46 of that over 4,000 died as a result. One death is too many; 46 spread throughout our Commonwealth, unconscionable. And it is unconscionable to me, too, that we live in an age where people and parents, caregivers, even close friends would seek to harm a child, an innocent child who deserves no less than a chance to live, as I said, in a safe environment.

Mr. Speaker, also this year, in 2016, I should say, reports of child abuse or child neglect hit an all-time high – 44,359 cases reported. This illustrates that the public at large is becoming more vigilant and taking their responsibility to report more seriously. That is a statistic that is not a bad statistic, Mr. Speaker, because we want people to ask, to question, and if it is found that nothing is wrong, that is the best thing that can happen.

No doubt then the increase in the reporting of cases is a result of nearly two dozen laws that you helped enact if you were here just a few years ago to further protect children and ensure justice for child abuse victims. You should feel good about that. Many of those laws will continue to be reexamined, as we have said they should, and revisited so that we know that our laws are among the best in the nation to protect our most vulnerable members in Pennsylvania.

Every year across the nation the month of April is dedicated to building partnerships by raising awareness of the pervasiveness, sadly, of child abuse and to promote the safety and the permanence of all children. That is why I stand today, Mr. Speaker, to thank you for your support of HR 757. You did declare that April is "Child Abuse Prevention Month" in Pennsylvania, just part of our ongoing efforts to ensure that all children have the right to be raised in a safe and secure environment that would prepare them for a future of opportunity and promise.

I thank you for your help in this. I ask for your continued support in protecting children in the Commonwealth. Thank you very much.

STATEMENT BY MS. McCLINTON

The SPEAKER. Representative McClinton, you may proceed.

Ms. McCLINTON. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

And thank you to each and every one of my colleagues for your support of HR 814, which designates today, April 10, 2018, as "National Youth HIV & AIDS Awareness Day" right here in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

With one in every five new HIV (human immunodeficiency virus) diagnoses occurring in young people between the ages of 13 and 24, we must move beyond the traditional strategy of simply urging young people to get tested and use protection. It is time that we right here in Pennsylvania expand access to clinics and other health-care facilities to ensure that our most vulnerable residents have access to affordable treatment options. We must work toward increasing access to medication that not only treats and reduces the risk of HIV infection, but medicine like PrEP (pre-exposure prophylaxis) that can keep HIV-negative people from becoming infected. Moreover, we must fight the stigma that is associated with HIV and AIDS (acquired immunodeficiency syndrome) that discourages so many young people from even wanting to get tested.

Awareness starts with each and every one of us. That is why I am encouraging each of you to learn the facts about HIV transmission, testing, and prevention. Together through educational initiatives and the utilization of modern medicine, we can achieve an HIV-free generation.

Thank you again, Mr. Speaker, and thank you to all of my colleagues for your support of HR 814.

SUPPLEMENTAL CALENDAR B

BILLS ON THIRD CONSIDERATION

The House proceeded to third consideration of HB 331, PN 355, entitled:

An Act amending the act of March 4, 1971 (P.L.6, No.2), known as the Tax Reform Code of 1971, in personal income tax, further providing for classes of income.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third consideration?

The SPEAKER. There are many amendments. They are all on third consideration, so they would need a motion to suspend for each of the amendments. Before I go to those amendments on third consideration, I am going to call on Representative Bloom to do a summary of the bill and any remarks on the bill.

Members, please take your seats.

Representative Bloom.

Mr. BLOOM. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. Speaker, HB 331 simply brings Pennsylvania into line with the Internal Revenue Code and the laws of every other State in the Union, all 49 other States, by recognizing tax deferral on an exchange of like-kind property.

And, Mr. Speaker, I would ask for the support of the members in not accepting any of the amendments that have been filed.

The SPEAKER. Thank you, sir.

Representative Evankovich has the first amendment, amendment 2205. It is out of order because it is on third consideration. He would need to move to suspend. The good gentleman withdraws.

Representative Tarah Toohil offers amendment 2828. That amendment is out of order because it is on third consideration. She waives off. Representative Toohil waives off.

Representative Madeleine Dean offers amendment 2925. It is on third consideration. I have to turn to leadership because I believe she is on leave today. It is amendment 2925. It is out of order and it would need a motion to suspend. That is waived off.

Representative Fred Keller offers amendment 3157. Again, it is out of order because it is on third. He waives off. I understand Representative Fred Keller has also withdrawn – I cannot read that amendment. Okay. There were two, quote, unquote, "amendments that did not have language in them." I know those are withdrawn. Representative Keller, you also have amendment 4727. That is withdrawn.

Representative Roebuck has amendment 4007. Representative Roebuck? Waives off. Withdrawn.

Representative Gene DiGirolamo, the only remaining amendment is amendment 4372. Representative DiGirolamo, it is on third; it is out of order. You do not want to seek a motion to suspend. It is waived off.

All the amendments have been waived off.

There are no amendments on third consideration.

We are going to get to the bill itself.

Does anybody else wish to speak on the bill?

On the question recurring,
Will the House agree to the bill on third consideration?
Bill was agreed to.

(Bill analysis was read.)

The SPEAKER. This bill has been considered on three different days and agreed to and is now on final passage.

The question is, shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeable to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays will now be taken.

On the question,
Will the House agree to the amendment?

The SPEAKER. Okay. So the amendment is offered by Representative Mackenzie. We will first turn to Representative Mackenzie for remarks on the amendment. Sir, you may proceed.

Mr. MACKENZIE. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

My amendment will further improve safety and sterilization standards for tattoo and body-piercing establishments. The amendment adds languages on bloodborne pathogens to be included on the written examination, prohibits certain tattooing and body piercing for minors, and deletes references to facial tattoos. The amendment also adds clarifying language, which we have just went through. And the amendment is agreed to, and it is a result of the recommendations from the tattoo and body-piercing industry and, specifically, a resident and constituent of the Lehigh Valley. Thank you.

The SPEAKER. Thank you, sir.

Representative DeLuca, on the amendment, sir.

Mr. DeLUCA. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

I want to commend the gentleman for his amendment. It

The majority having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative and the amendment was agreed to.

On the question,
Will the House agree to the bill on second consideration as amended?

Mr. NELSON offered the following amendment No. A06096:

Amend Bill, page 12, lines 14 through 17, by striking out "commits a" in line 14 and all of lines 15 through 17 and inserting shall be subject to the following penalties:

- (1) Except as provided in paragraph (2):
  - (i) For a first violation, a monetary penalty of not more than $500.
  - (ii) For a second violation, a monetary penalty of not more than $1,000.
  - (iii) For a third or subsequent violation in a two-year period, a monetary penalty of $1,000 and revocation of registration for the next calendar year.
- (2) If the violation constitutes intentional endangerment of the public health and safety, a misdemeanor of the third degree.

On the question,
Will the House agree to the amendment?

The SPEAKER. On the amendment, Representative Eric Nelson is recognized.

Mr. NELSON. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

We are pleased to work with the maker of the bill, and this amendment is intended to be able to allow a pathway that if minor mistakes are made, they are not immediately placed as a misdemeanor crime against the individual. However, it also creates an opportunity that if there is an egregious or a blatant health risk, that the individual could be immediately charged.

So the intent here is to be able to have a $500 penalty, second offense would be $1,000, and then the third – each time it gets a little bit more severe. But if there is a safety risk, a health risk, or an egregious act, it allows an immediate misdemeanor penalty.

Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. Thank you, sir.
Representative DeLuca, on the amendment.

Mr. DeLUCA. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Again, it is an agreed-to amendment, and I would like to commend the gentleman over there for working with me to make this a better bill. Thank you.

The majority having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative and the amendment was agreed to.

On the question recurring,
Will the House agree to the bill on second consideration as amended?

Mrs. R. BROWN offered the following amendment No. A06104:

Amend Bill, page 3, by inserting between lines 8 and 9 "Ocular tattooing." Any method of placing ink or other inert pigment into the mucosa, cornea, sclera or iris of the eye by the aid of needles or any other instrument used to puncture the eye and which method results in permanent coloration of the eye or mucosa for cosmetic purposes.

Amend Bill, page 9, by inserting after line 30

(e) Ocular tattooing.—An individual may not perform ocular tattooing unless the procedure is performed under the direction of a physician or other authorized health care practitioner.

On the question,
Will the House agree to the amendment?

The SPEAKER. Representative Rosemary Brown, on amendment 6104.

Mrs. R. BROWN. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Ocular tattooing is extremely dangerous, so this basically prohibits this in the piece of legislation unless it is done by a physician or under the direct supervision of a physician. So even with an ophthalmologist, it is considered very dangerous. So I believe this is an agreed-to amendment by the prime sponsor.

The SPEAKER. Representative DeLuca, on the amendment.
Mr. DeLUCA. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

It is an agreed-to amendment. I would like to thank the gentelady for working with me. I know she has very much interest in tattoo legislation, so I want to thank you for working with me on that too.

- Amend Bill, page 6, lines 7 and 8, by striking out all of line 7 and "registered facilities and temporary establishments." in line 8 and inserting registration and shall randomly inspect 20% of all registered facilities each year thereafter.

On the question,
Will the House agree to the amendment?

The SPEAKER. On the amendment, Representative Rosemary Brown.

Mrs. R. BROWN. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

As written, the legislation currently just has an initial registration inspection for these establishments, but I do believe there needs to be very strong language in here that does some follow-up. So this will be random inspections, 20 percent, that will be done throughout the year by the Department of Health, and again, I believe this is an agreed-to amendment by the sponsor. Thank you.

The House proceeded to second consideration of HB 1419, PN 3166, entitled:

An Act amending Title 18 (Crimes and Offenses) of the Pennsylvania Consolidated Statutes, in criminal history record information, further providing for general regulations and for order for limited access and providing for clean slate limited access, for exceptions, for order to vacate order for limited access, for effects of expunged records and records subject to limited access and for employer immunity from liability.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on second consideration?

The SPEAKER. Okay. I am going to cover the amendments that I believe have been withdrawn first. Representative Dan Miller, I think, had two amendments, 6069 and 6070. Representative Miller, am I correct in saying that they have been withdrawn? Both withdrawn. Thank you.

Representative Todd Stephens had filed amendment 6095. Representative Stephens, is it correct to say that that amendment has been withdrawn? Yes. Okay. Thank you.

Amendment 6097 has been ruled out of order by the Chair. That has been ruled out of order.

Representative DeLozier has two amendments to her bill. One is 6263 and one is 6295. We will start with 6263.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the bill on second consideration?

Ms. DELOZIER offered the following amendment No. A06263:

Amend Bill, page 24, line 2, by striking out all of said line and inserting

Section 3. The following shall apply:

(1) The Pennsylvania State Police and the Administrative Office of Pennsylvania Courts shall identify and complete the processing of records that are eligible, on the effective date of this paragraph, for limited access under 18 Pa.C.S. § 9122.2, within 365 days following the effective date of this paragraph.

(2) A petition for limited access under 18 Pa.C.S. § 9122.1 may be filed beginning 180 days after the effective date of this paragraph.

Section 4. This act shall take effect as follows:

(1) The following provisions shall take effect immediately:

(i) This section.

(ii) Section 3(2) of this act.

(2) The amendment of 18 Pa.C.S. § 9122.1 shall take effect in 180 days.

(3) The remainder of this act shall take effect in 365 days.

On the question,
Will the House agree to the amendment?

The SPEAKER. Representative Delozier, on 6263.
Ms. DELOZIER. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

This amendment is a timing amendment that allows for us to work with AOPC (Administrative Office of Pennsylvania Courts) and PSP (Pennsylvania State Police) to give them additional time to apply the clean slate limited access to the different convictions that will be under this bill, and it basically just allows them enough time to do what is necessary in order to make this legislation work.

Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

RESOLUTION

Mr. BENNINGHOFF called up HR 754, PN 3134, entitled:

A Resolution directing the Joint State Government Commission to study the long-term workforce and workforce training needs of the Commonwealth's health care sector.

On the question,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

The SPEAKER. Representative Benninghoff, on the resolution, sir. Members, I would ask everybody to please take their seats.

Mr. BENNINGHOFF. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

This resolution is trying to address our ever-growing demand for health-care employees as we continue to age as a State and have some other challenges as the opioid crisis. We have asked this resolution be put together to have a study done to see what the needs are, not only today but in the future, for our health-care employees. We have asked the Joint State Government Commission to solicit input from different health-care providers in all aspects of health-care treatment to facilitate this report and provide it back here, as I said, hopefully to better entice our workforce and be able to guide our education systems accordingly, and I appreciate the support of the members.

Thank you, Mr. Speaker.
