

COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA

LEGISLATIVE JOURNAL

THURSDAY, MAY 24, 2018

SESSION OF 2018

202D OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY

No. 21

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

The House convened at 10 a.m., e.d.t.

THE SPEAKER (MIKE TURZAI) PRESIDING

PRAYER

HON. WILL TALLMAN, member of the House of Representatives, offered the following prayer:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

I am going to make a few comments first and then we will do our prayer. And the good gentleman from Clinton County is not here today, or at least not present in his seat, but up in Lock Haven, my grandpa is buried there, he fought in World War I; my father is buried there, he fought in World War II; and I have an uncle there that fought in the Korean war. And today I am wearing a special type of flag ribbon. A young man from Gettysburg died serving our country in Iraq. So this is Memorial Day weekend and I am going to be in Walnut Bottom Saturday, recognizing a person who is just turning 100 and served in World War II. So it is going to be a great privilege for me to recognize this person Saturday.

Anyway, so as we come to Memorial Day weekend, just remember we are forever, ever thankful for our veterans who have protected our country and some who have given their life.

Lord, we just want to thank You for creating this country, the United States of America. Lord, we just want to thank You for the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. You say in the book of James that if any of us lacks wisdom, let us ask of God and You will give to us liberally. So right now I am asking for Your wisdom upon this House of Representatives. We ask in the name of Your son, Jesus. Amen.

PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE

(The Pledge of Allegiance was recited by members and visitors.)

The majority having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative and the resolutions were adopted.

The SPEAKER. We are going to turn to second consideration votes, and then there is going to be an announcement for an Appropriations Committee meeting. So there are not going to be any caucus meetings today. We are going to have an Appropriations meeting announcement shortly, but right now we are going to do second consideration bills.

CALENDAR

BILL ON SECOND CONSIDERATION

The House proceeded to second consideration of HB 2152, PN 3196, entitled:

An Act providing for the disposal of hospice or home health care patient medication.

On the question,
Will the House agree to the bill on second consideration?
Bill was agreed to.

A Concurrent Resolution extending the due date for a report of a special bipartisan, bicameral legislative commission on improving the delivery of emergency services.

On the question,
Will the House concur in the resolution of the Senate?

LEAVE OF ABSENCE

The SPEAKER. Representative Sid KAVULICH has requested to be placed on leave. Without objection, that will be granted.

We are going to have an Appropriations Committee meeting here shortly.

CONSIDERATION OF SR 260 CONTINUED

The SPEAKER. Right now we have SR 260, PN 1440, in front of us.

The question is, will the House concur in the resolution of the Senate?

Does anybody wish to speak on this?

On the question recurring,
Will the House concur in the resolution of the Senate?

APPROPRIATIONS COMMITTEE MEETING

The SPEAKER. Representative Cutler, the majority whip, is called upon to make the announcement for the Appropriations Committee. I call upon the majority whip, who will provide us with a committee announcement.

Mr. CUTLER. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. Speaker, there will be an immediate meeting of the Appropriations Committee in the majority caucus room at the break. Thank you.

The SPEAKER. There will be an immediate meeting of the Appropriations Committee in the majority caucus room at the break.

We are not going to break, so we are going to have all members of the Appropriations Committee go at this time to the majority caucus room for a committee meeting. We will, obviously, not be taking votes on the floor. There are members, however, who do wish to speak on resolutions, so the House will stay in order. Members of the Appropriations Committee should go down to the majority caucus room to vote on bills. We will not be doing any votes on the floor. We will have members speak on resolutions, however, in the interim, and the floor will stay open and in order. The House will be in order.

Representative Murt is recognized to speak on HR 923, followed by Representative Barrar on 905, followed by Representatives Hennessey and Samuelson on 931, and finally, Representative Dawkins on 933.

I would ask members of the Appropriations Committee to head to the majority caucus room. All other members, please take your seats. All other members, please take your seats.

Representative Murt, if you will come down to the front.

REMARKS SUBMITTED FOR THE RECORD

The SPEAKER. Representative Murt, you are recognized. Go ahead.

Mr. MURT. Mr. Speaker, I would like to submit my remarks for the record.

The SPEAKER. Okay. So remarks will be accepted for HR 923, National History Day.

Mr. MURT submitted the following remarks for the Legislative Journal:

Understanding history is critical to a full understanding of the human condition. History helps us understand why we live the way we do as a people and country. Studying history allows us to learn from the mistakes of our past to make sure we do not repeat those errors. History helps us make our world a better place. These are critical lessons we must pass on to our children and why we must support National History Day.

National History Day in Pennsylvania is the Commonwealth's contribution to the national, year-long, classroom-based program that engages students in hands-on historical research and exploration. Each year more than 2,000 students participate in local contests with the support of their school peers, teachers, and parents to celebrate the importance of history and the brightest students of the Commonwealth.

National History Day is a national program to create an understanding and appreciation of history while developing the necessary skills and aptitudes of our diverse student population. It encourages students from the 6th to 12th grades to research, write, and think critically about our nation's past. After competing successfully in the local and regional contests, more than 100 students, teachers, parents, and family members will gather for the National History Day in Pennsylvania State contest. The winners of the State contest will become the Pennsylvania delegation to the national contest at the University of Maryland at College Park, Maryland, in June. This is also an important community event as volunteers donate their time as judges and staff for the State contest.

National History Day in Pennsylvania is recognized as an innovative education program by the Pennsylvania Department of Education and is represented throughout this Commonwealth by 12 regional affiliates that coordinate activities in 51 counties across this Commonwealth. Students who participate in National History Day in Pennsylvania are better prepared for college and careers.

That is why it is so important that we designate May 14, 2018, as "National History Day in Pennsylvania." It is a way to encourage students, teachers, and other residents of this Commonwealth to appreciate the history of our State and nation.

The SPEAKER. Representative Barrar is recognized to speak on HR 905, on 905.

Okay. We are going to go over that for now.

Representative Hennessey and Representative Samuelson are recognized to speak on HR 931, on 931.

Members, please take your seats. Our colleagues are going to speak on HR 931. Members, please take your seats. Staff, please take your seats.

STATEMENT BY MR. HENNESSEY

The SPEAKER. Representative Hennessey, you may proceed. Mr. HENNESSEY. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. Speaker, I would like to thank my colleagues for your affirmative votes on HR 931, establishing "Older Pennsylvanians Month" in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. I am joined here by the Democratic chair. I serve on the House Aging and Older Adults Services Committee. I serve as the majority chair of that committee. I want to acknowledge and salute our older adults here in the Commonwealth.

Pennsylvania has the sixth highest population of seniors in the nation—

The SPEAKER. Please suspend.

Members, the good gentleman is speaking on HR 931. I would ask everybody to please take their seats. If you have business to conduct, please take it off the House floor. All members, please take your seats.

You may proceed.

Mr. HENNESSEY. Thank you.

As I was saying, Pennsylvania has the sixth highest population of seniors in our nation. In 2011 the first baby boomers began turning age 65. Ten thousand people across the United States turned 65 in Pennsylvania; roughly 400 each day become 65 years old. By 2020 the Pennsylvania senior population is estimated to be 20 percent of our entire population here in Pennsylvania. As these boomers age, we realize we must have adequate services and supports available to them, and we also recognize the knowledge, experience, and value they bring to our local communities.

This year's national theme is "Engage at Every Age." More and more older adults are participating in activities which promote mental and physical wellness, and the resulting increase in their longevity allows them more time to share their wisdom and experience and to mentor others with their life experiences.

The "Engage at Every Age" slogan emphasizes that you are never too old or too young to take part in activities that can enrich your physical, mental, and emotional well-being.

The baby boomer generation remains a dynamic force, taking charge, advocating for themselves and others, striving to live a more independent and healthy lifestyle, and helping to make Pennsylvania an even better Commonwealth. They enrich the fabric of Pennsylvania and the tapestry of our culture.

Today we recognize our older Pennsylvanians as they engage at every age here in the Commonwealth, and we thank them for continuing to share their talents, skills, and stories with us every day.

Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

STATEMENT BY MR. SAMUELSON

Mr. SAMUELSON. Thank you.

I would like to join my colleague, Representative Tim Hennessey, in recognizing Older Americans Month. When the first Older Americans Month was celebrated back in 1963, there were 17 million Americans who had reached their 65th birthday. Today there are more than 41 million Americans who are age 65 or older, and Pennsylvania is home to more than 2 million senior citizens.

The theme for Older Americans Month, as Representative Hennessey said, is "Engage at Every Age." It emphasizes that you are never too old or too young to remain active and engaged in your community, and Pennsylvania seniors have found a variety of ways to be engaged in our communities. Many seniors are active in the workforce. According to a Federal report, seniors are responsible for 7 million new jobs since the year 2000. Our State Department of Aging helps seniors remain active and engaged by connecting them with a variety of volunteer opportunities, including the Foster Grandparent Program, APPRISE health insurance counselors, and the Retired Senior Volunteer Program. Many Pennsylvania community colleges allow seniors to attend classes tuition-free. There are some guidelines and restrictions, but this is a program that is worth checking out.

And Pennsylvania has more than 500 senior centers, which are supported by our 52 area agencies on aging, and these senior centers provide information to keep seniors healthy and activities to keep them physically and mentally active, and also many opportunities to socialize.

HR 931 acknowledges the time and talents seniors give back to their local communities. We need to remain committed to ensure that our older Pennsylvanians have the support and resources they need so that they can remain active and engaged.

Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. Thank you, Representative Samuelson and Representative Hennessey.

STATEMENT BY MR. DAWKINS

The SPEAKER. Representative Dawkins is recognized on HR 933.

Mr. DAWKINS. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

I was really surprised when I got the e-mail this morning stating that we were going to be able to run this resolution today. Since I have been sworn into this House, I have been advocating for the passage of this important resolution, because I believe that this Commonwealth is always the example that should be shown to the world of how we should all come together regardless of our backgrounds or religious beliefs.

So today I am very humbled to call you all my colleagues. I am very humbled that you all gave an affirmative vote to the Ramadan resolution for the year 2018. We are currently in the month of Ramadan, so we are actively fasting, and hopefully, by June 14, I have a summer body, but more importantly, it is about not the sacrifice of food and water that we give up, it is about what we fulfill ourselves with every day and that is that love and compassion for those who may not have and making sure that we are always humbling ourselves to make sure we are the best servants that we can be, and that is what we got elected to do.

So I want to thank all my colleagues again, and happy Ramadan. Thank you.

The SPEAKER. Thank you, Representative Dawkins.

I myself, in my district, just attended a service for Ramadan with the Muslim Association of Pittsburgh.

Thank you for your remarks.

STATEMENT BY MR. BARRAR

The SPEAKER. At this time Representative Barrar, I believe, is on the House floor, and he will be speaking on HR 905.

Mr. BARRAR. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. Speaker, I want to thank the members for their unanimous vote on HR 905, which recognizes June 27 as "Post-Traumatic Stress Injury Awareness Day" in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. One of the most difficult parts of serving as the chairman of the Veterans Affairs Committee has been for me hearing stories of our military, our police force, our firefighters, emergency responders, and dispatchers who experience post-traumatic stress when they are serving our country and their communities.

Whether they are exposed to the horrors of war or the horrors at home, men and women are faced with images and sounds that forever plague them. Often they do not want to share these experiences with others, for fear of passing along the grief, without gaining healing themselves. Of course, recognizing the signs of post-traumatic stress injury and getting treatment is critical for their well-being. We must work together to raise awareness and understanding.

Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

ANNOUNCEMENT BY MR. ROTHMAN

The SPEAKER. Representative Greg Rothman is recognized.

Mr. ROTHMAN. Mr. Speaker, a point of personal privilege.

The SPEAKER. Yes, sir.

Mr. ROTHMAN. Mr. Speaker, I would like to take this moment to introduce my daughter who 19 years ago today was born, my first child, who just finished her freshman year at NYU (New York University) with a 3.67 GPA (grade point average) and she is here today. But one of the greatest days of my life was when she arrived 19 years ago today. So happy birthday, Eleanor.

The SPEAKER. Please stand.

There she is right there. Thank you, Eleanor. Thanks.

ANNOUNCEMENT BY MS. KLUNK

The SPEAKER. Representative Kate Klunk, on a point of personal privilege.

Ms. KLUNK. Thank you so much, Mr. Speaker.

Yesterday it was Bring Your Daughters to Work Day. I have our little Miss Grace Helen with us here today. This is her second time on the floor. She loved the first time, so she asked to come back.

So thank you so much for the hospitality and all of the hugs and kisses and squeezes. She just really appreciates the House family that we have here, and her mommy and daddy do too. So thank you so much for all of your love and thoughts and prayers over the past year. With being pregnant and being a pregnant mom here in the legislature, it is certainly an interesting experience, but it certainly is something that makes me a better member every day.

I think she needs to eat, so we are going to go and get her breakfast. Thanks, everyone.

ANNOUNCEMENT BY SPEAKER

The SPEAKER. Members, a housekeeping note.

Right now for June, we are scheduled for June 4, 5, 6, 11, 12, 13, 18, 19, 20, 21, 25, 26, 27, 28, and 29. As I said yesterday and I want to reiterate today, the Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday voting session days will start at 10 a.m. So June 5 and 6 will start at 10 a.m.; June 12 and 13 will start at 10 a.m.; June 19, 20, 21 will start at 10 a.m.; June 26, 27, 28, and 29, we will start at 10 a.m.

It is very likely, and it could go out as early as next week, that we might be adding June 22, Friday, June 22, as a House voting session day. That is possible. So I would just ask you to at least put that down on your calendars, that June 22 could be denoted as a session day.

The Mondays – June 4, 11, 18, and 25 – at the present time are going to remain at 1 p.m., because that is what is set forth in the rules.

Ordered, That the clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

STATEMENT BY MR. COSTA

The SPEAKER. Representative Dom Costa is recognized on unanimous consent.

Mr. D. COSTA. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

I do appreciate it, and thank you, my colleagues, for the unanimous vote on this very important bill.

I would like to thank the Humane Society of PA, the Humane Society of the United States, and Mary Withrow and the organizations that also helped push this bill along.

As we know, animal fighting in Pennsylvania, we have the toughest laws. This is one more tool in the law enforcement's toolbox to help combat this. There are thousands and thousands of dollars that are made on this type of egregious offense, and again, I want to thank you all for this unanimous vote, and let us move it on to the Senate and hopefully to the Governor's desk.

Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

BILLS ON THIRD CONSIDERATION

The House proceeded to third consideration of SB 880, PN 1431, entitled:

An Act amending Title 75 (Vehicles) of the Pennsylvania Consolidated Statutes, in size, weight and load, further providing for operation of certain combinations on interstate and certain other highways, repealing provisions relating to operation of motor homes on interstate and certain other highways and further providing for width of vehicles and for length of vehicles; and, in administration and enforcement, further providing for specific powers of department and local authorities.

On the question,
Will the House agree to the bill on third consideration?
Bill was agreed to.

(Bill analysis was read.)

The SPEAKER. This bill has been considered on three different days and agreed to and is now on final passage.

The question is, shall the bill pass finally?

Yes. Representative Vitali has raised his hand.
Representative Vitali, you are recognized on the bill, sir.
Mr. VITALI. Thank you.

I just do not have strong feelings on this bill. I do want to note that it was discussed in caucus that the increased allowable width of some of the vehicles in this bill could have an impact on traffic on our local roadways. So that is just a concern to keep in mind in considering this bill.

The SPEAKER. Does anybody else wish to speak on the bill?

On the question recurring,
Shall the bill pass finally?

The SPEAKER. Agreeable to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays will now be taken.

ANNOUNCEMENT BY SPEAKER

The SPEAKER. Finally, our good friend, Representative Flo Fabrizio, is back in Erie County. I know he is on leave. I wish Representative Fabrizio, Chairman Fabrizio, to know that we are all thinking about him and hoping he gets better. He is an outstanding chair, and we just wish him the very, very best from everybody in this chamber.

If you get a chance, send him a note, Representative Flo Fabrizio, and let him know that you are thinking about him. Thank you.

ANNOUNCEMENT BY MR. BENNINGHOFF

The SPEAKER. Representative Benninghoff has an announcement and is so recognized.

Mr. BENNINGHOFF. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

This may fall under unanimous consent. I just thought I would, in honor of our staff who does so well by us, I wanted to let the members know my former executive director for Finance, Tammy Fox, and our former research analyst for the Finance Committee were united in marriage Saturday night. So a House of Representatives wedding occurred, and we were very proud. They were married outside here in the rotunda, and we wish them the best. We appreciate the service they gave us over the years.

Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. Thank you.

BILLS AND RESOLUTIONS PASSED OVER

The SPEAKER. Without objection, all remaining bills and resolutions on today's calendar will be passed over. The Chair hears no objection.
