LEGISLATIVE JOURNAL

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 6, 2018

SESSION OF 2018

202D OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY

No. 24

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

The House convened at 10 a.m., e.d.t.

THE SPEAKER (MIKE TURZAI) PRESIDING

PRAYER

HON. BRYAN BARBIN, member of the House of Representatives, offered the following prayer:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

On this 74th anniversary of Operation Overlord, D-day, we remember the largest seaborne invasion in the history of the world: 6,000 ships and 14,000 aircraft, carrying 176,000 troops; their sacrifice, 53,000 deaths and 209,000 casualties, to establish a beachhead in Normandy.

Will you join me in a prayer as we remember their sacrifice.

Psalm 105:1 begins: "Give thanks to the Lord and proclaim His name, and make known among the nations what He has done."

Today we remember God's character and the ways that allow a good man or woman, if necessary, to give up their lives for their country or family. Help us, Lord, to remember the relationship between God and country that has been established here in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania as the Holy Experiment. People who have come from all corners of the earth to choose Your ways, worshiping as each conscience dictates, and in adopting selflessness as the foundation for our Republic.

Verses 43-45 state: "He brought out His people with rejoicing, His chosen ones with shouts of joy; He gave them lands of the nations, and they fell heir to what others had toiled for, that they might keep His precepts and observe His laws."

Today let us not forget the sacrifice of all service men and women that have created and preserved our holy land. Thank You, Lord, for this great land that others have toiled for. Thank you for Martin Luther King, Jr., Robert Kennedy, and all those brave men and women that have sacrificed their lives so that the precepts and laws of our Republic may survive.

And may You, God, continue to bless this Commonwealth and the United States of America. And all of God's people said, Amen.

PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE

(The Pledge of Allegiance was recited by members and visitors.)

MRS. PENNSYLVANIA INTRODUCED

The SPEAKER. Representative Rosemary Brown is recognized on unanimous consent.

Representative Brown, please come up to the rostrum.

Mrs. R. BROWN. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

It is a pleasure to introduce to the House of Representatives a dear friend and a constituent of the 189th District, Mrs. Caroline Verkaik, who won the title of Mrs. Pennsylvania United States this past May.

The Mrs. Pennsylvania United States Pageant recognizes beautiful married women living within the State of Pennsylvania who have obtained personal, professional, and community achievements. Caroline is a native of Kenya and is no stranger to the pageant world. In 2005 she was crowned Mrs. Kenya World and represented Kenya in India and twice in Russia.

Caroline's platform is teen suicide and depression and she has been an active advocate for this cause. Caroline became active to promote mental health awareness when, 2 years ago, her oldest daughter, then 20 years old, attempted suicide. During her 12 months of reign as Mrs. Pennsylvania United States, Caroline will be busy speaking to our youth and their families across the State about working together to help reduce the rate of teen suicide and depression and encouraging our youth to work towards achieving their dreams.

Caroline was honored in 2017 by the Women Leaders Network International as one of the top 50 women leaders in the world for her humanitarian and community services. Caroline is also the president of the Pennsylvania and Kenya chapter of the Women Leaders Network International and president and CEO of Watergap-Africa Safaris. I had originally met Caroline learning of her mission trips to Kenya to provide clean water to her native country.

The weekend of July 4 of this year, Caroline will be heading to Florida to compete for the national title of Mrs. United States 2018. Congratulations, Caroline, and we wish you great success as you represent Pennsylvania in the national Mrs. United States Pageant.

I would also like to recognize and congratulate her parents, who are in the back of the House, who are with us here today, as they recently celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary. Congratulations.

Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. Representative Brown, let us bring Mrs. Pennsylvania's family down. Please come down to the rostrum with us. Stay right here. We are going to bring your family down and get some photos.

Congratulations so much on the honor as Mrs. Pennsylvania 2018. We are so appreciative of your efforts to make sure that our teens are, really, safe and understand self-esteem and the importance of everyday life and the dignity of everyday life. Thank you for your efforts. You are leading the charge.

Thank you, Representative Brown, as well.

Representative Rothman is asked to come up to the rostrum. Representative Greg Rothman is asked to come up to the rostrum, and Representative Mehaffie as well, please. Representative Mehaffie and Representative Rothman. Representative McCarter, you will follow them.

WILLIAM MASSIE PRESENTED

The SPEAKER. Representative Rothman, you may proceed. Mr. ROTHMAN. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Central Pennsylvania was well represented at the 2018 United States of America Snowboard and Freeski Association National Championships in Copper Mountain, Colorado, as Camp Hill's William Massie took home gold in the national championships' junior men's age slalom. Joining William today are his parents,

James and Cynthia Massie, along with two of his well-respected coaches, Neil Sunday and Jeff Carr. David Buckwalter, who is also one of his coaches, is unable to join us today.

But William outperformed 26 other national qualifiers to capture this medal. This year's national championship saw over 1900 entrants from all over the United States. And this was not William's only medal, he also captured the bronze in the giant slalom. William's championship performance is a culmination of 10 years of dedication to the sport of alpine snowboarding. A well-rounded athlete, William is also the starting center on the Camp Hill High School Football Team, and is a member of the school's National Honor Society. He will be entering his senior year of high school this fall and plans on furthering his education and majoring in business.

Please join me in congratulating William as just another example of the successes that can follow when you work hard and dedicate yourself to a passion. Thank you.

GARETH COCKROFT PRESENTED

The SPEAKER. Representative Mehaffie.

Mr. MEHAFFIE. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

As a State lawmaker, I am always proud to recognize the outstanding achievements of our Pennsylvania athletes. Today it is my privilege to welcome a multitalented athlete who attends a school in the 106th District to the House floor.

Gareth Cockroft is a junior at Hershey High School. He is a starting lacrosse player and a first-degree black belt in Tae Kwon Do. An honor student, Gareth plays the trombone in the marching band and the wind symphony and studies classic piano. And if that is not an impressive enough resume, Gareth is also a gold-medal snowboarder. He captured the gold in the 16-to-17-year-old giant slalom event during the USA Snowboard and Freeski Association National Championships, which were held this year at Copper Mountain Resort in Colorado.

Gareth defeated more than 30 riders to win the gold in the national competition known as the first step to Olympic pipeline. In addition to gold, Gareth took the silver medal in the slalom event. This impressive young athlete has been snowboarding competitively since 2011, and is a member of the Ski Roundtop Race Club based at Roundtop Mountain Resort in Lewisberry.

Mr. Speaker, in light of Gareth's extraordinary accomplishments both on and off the slopes, I invite my colleagues in joining me in giving him a congratulatory round of applause.

Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. Thank you, Representative Mehaffie.

And to William and Gareth, congratulations; outstanding.

JENKINTOWN HIGH SCHOOL GIRLS BASKETBALL TEAM PRESENTED

The SPEAKER. Representative McCarter is invited to please come to the rostrum. He has a championship team. Can we bring the team down to the well of the House, and the seniors and captains, I think, and the coaches are coming up with Representative McCarter. If we could just bring the team down. Just come right down here on my right, and they will bring you right across.

All members, please take your seats. These young ladies have traveled a good distance to be with us.

Representative McCarter, the floor is yours, sir.

Mr. McCARTER. Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker.

Today I rise with immense pleasure to honor the PIAA Class A Championship Jenkintown High School Lady Drakes Girls Basketball Team and their coach, Jim Romano, the 2018 PIAA Class A Coach of the Year.

Mr. Speaker, Jenkintown Borough is a vibrant little gem of a community in my district just outside of Philadelphia. It is charming and incredibly close-knit, and this team is a perfect example reflecting those particular qualities. The Lady Drakes are led by two sets of twins: senior starters Jennifer and Ashley Kremp, and junior starters Mia and Natalie Kolb. Jennifer has said that the team has chemistry, and as an avid fan, I can tell you, boy, do they ever. Their chemistry has developed over many years, with several of the team members playing sports together from their elementary school days.

The Drakes won their program's first State title by defeating Juniata Valley High School 51 to 46 in overtime after Jennifer Kremp drilled an incredible Stephen Curry-style game-tying three-pointer to rally them in the final minute of the game. Along the way to the State title, the Drakes won both their league and district championships, amassing an amazing record of 31 wins and 1 loss. They were undefeated in their Bicentennial Athletic League.

Mr. Speaker, I have watched a lot of basketball over my many years and seen several magical runs to championships, but this season was truly special, and I was so happy to have the chance to share that post-season run with this wonderful group of young women.

Guiding the girls' fantastic accomplishments was coach Jim Romano, who has served as head coach of the Jenkintown High School Girls Basketball Team for 36 years and has more than 600 wins under his belt. He has been selected the Bicentennial Athletic League Constitution Division Coach of the Year nine times. And this year he was selected the PIAA Class A Girls Basketball Coach of the Year by the Pennsylvania Sports Writers All-State selection panel and the American Family Insurance ALL-USA Pennsylvania Coach of the Year.

Mr. Speaker, I am so proud of this team, which has shown such grace both under pressure and in victory this entire season. Representing the team to the left of the Speaker today are Coach Romano and the championship Jenkintown Girls High School Basketball Team's five seniors: Ashley Kremp, Jennifer Kremp, Amelia Mulvaney, and Courtney Todaro. Additional members of the team and their coaches and the school's athletic director are with us today in the well of the House, and again, they would include Caroline Arena, Lauren Brockwell, Mia Kolb, Tanner Lafferty, Kaitlyn McMahon, Carly Mulvaney, Molly Walsh, Lily Walters, and Cady Westkaemper. And their assistant coaches, I think, are here: Jessica Hollinshead, Jack Kinniry, and Alexandra Ross.

Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the members to join me in honoring these exemplary young high school athletes and their coaches for their stellar performances on the court. I have had the privilege of meeting many of them and I know them to be tremendous ambassadors, not only for Jenkintown in particular, but also for the Commonwealth as a whole. I am honored to host them on the floor of the chamber today.

Thank you so much, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. To the Jenkintown High School Girls Basketball Team, congratulations; outstanding. We are honored to have you here today. Thank you.

The Sergeants at Arms will open the doors of the House to let members on the floor.

GUESTS INTRODUCED

The SPEAKER. Representative Todd Stephens has some guests with us today, the Keith Valley Jazz Band. Are they here with us now? Please stand, Keith Valley Jazz Band. And, Representative Stephens, I am going to be down there for this because this is one of my all-time favorite songs. Would you do unanimous consent and tell everybody a little bit about the jazz band and where they will be performing today, sir.

STATEMENT BY MR. STEPHENS

Mr. STEPHENS. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

I am pleased to welcome the Keith Valley Jazz Band. Representative Murt and I are proud to host them today, as we have done the last several years.

They are going to be performing in the East Wing Rotunda, and among the songs they will be playing is Led Zeppelin's "Stairway to Heaven," the jazzed-up version, I am told. What is that?

The SPEAKER. That is a great – I love that song.

Mr. STEPHENS. Well, we will look forward to seeing you down there, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. I will be down there. I will be down.

Mr. STEPHENS. They are led by one of my neighbors, actually, Jim Verdeur, who is here and brings them up every year. So special thanks to all the members. Stop down in the East Wing Rotunda around noon and check out the Keith Valley Jazz Band and some great music.

Thanks, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. Thank you, Representative Stephens.

We are honored to have you young men and women, really an honor to have you. Why do you not come down here to the front, if you could. Just come down my right, your left, and we will get a photo of you in the well of the House with Representative Stephens, and Representative Murt, I believe, also is one of the sponsors of this group.

Thank you, everybody. Congratulations. We will see you this afternoon. How about a round of applause as these great students leave.

GUESTS INTRODUCED

The SPEAKER. In the gallery, we welcome some guests from Representative McCarter's office. Julia Boland-Szura and Elliot Keil, please rise. I think they are in the gallery. Great to have you. Thanks for being with us today. Thank you.

The SPEAKER. We are going to do leaves of absence at this time. Representative Jeff PYLE, of Armstrong County for the day, and Representative Mark KELLER, of Perry County for the day, have requested leaves of absence. Without objection, that will happen.

And the minority whip requests leaves of absence for Representative Flo FABRIZIO of Erie County for the day, Representative Mike O'BRIEN of Philadelphia County for the day, and Representative Mike STURLA of Lancaster County for the day. Without objection, that will be granted.

The majority having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative and the amendment was agreed to.

On the question,
 Will the House agree to the bill on second consideration as amended?

Mr. LONGIETTI offered the following amendment No. A07371:

Amend Bill, page 2, by inserting between lines 21 and 22 (d) A school entity providing for excusal from testing under this section may, by official action of the governing authority of the school entity, establish a policy prohibiting excusal from testing under this section for subsequent school years if:

(1) at least one (1) school year has ended since the excusal from testing under this section became effective; and

(2) the governing authority of the school entity takes official action prohibiting excusal from testing under this section at least ninety (90) calendar days before the beginning of the school year when the prohibition becomes effective.

Amend Bill, page 2, line 22, by striking out "(d)" and inserting (e)

On the question,
 Will the House agree to the amendment?

AMENDMENT WITHDRAWN

The SPEAKER. On the amendment, Representative Longietti is recognized.

Mr. LONGIETTI. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. Speaker, I would like to withdraw this amendment and offer A07396.

The SPEAKER. Yes. Okay. So 7371 is withdrawn.

We do not have it yet, sorry.

Mr. LONGIETTI. It was a corrective amendment or a corrective change was made by—

The SPEAKER. Oh, it was a corrective amendment. Hold on; we will hand it to the clerk.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the bill on second consideration as amended?

Mr. LONGIETTI offered the following amendment No. A07396:

Amend Bill, page 2, by inserting between lines 21 and 22

(d) A school entity may, by official action of the governing authority of the school entity, establish a policy authorizing or prohibiting excusal from testing under this section for subsequent school years if:

(1) at least one (1) school year has ended since the official action of the governing authority of the school entity authorizing or prohibiting excusal from testing under this section became effective; and

(2) the governing authority of the school entity takes official action authorizing or prohibiting excusal from testing under this section at least ninety (90) calendar days before the beginning of the school year when the authorization or prohibition becomes effective.

Amend Bill, page 2, line 22, by striking out "(d)" and inserting

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

The SPEAKER. On the amendment, Representative Longietti.

Mr. LONGIETTI. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. Speaker, this amendment is designed to improve the underlying bill. The underlying bill gives the opportunity for a school district to vote within 180 days of the effective date of the bill to decide whether or not to excuse students from the Keystone Exams for philosophical reasons. What the underlying bill does not speak to is if a school board at a later time, maybe 2, 3 years down the road, decides it wants to change course, the bill is silent on that. So my amendment is designed to give the school board an opportunity at least 1 full school year later. So if the school board were to enact a decision to allow excusal from testing for philosophical reasons in the middle of a school year, you would complete that school year, you would complete another full school year, and then the school district could, within 90 days before the beginning of school, enact a policy reversing what they had done.

So I think it improves the bill, gives the school board, future school boards the opportunity to revisit this issue. And so I ask for an affirmative vote.

The SPEAKER. Representative Lawrence, on the amendment, sir.

Mr. LAWRENCE. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

I appreciate the amendment offered by the good gentleman. My concern, Mr. Speaker, and I do not think his concern is completely invalid, but my concern, Mr. Speaker, is that there needs to be internal consistency, first of all, within the amendment, but also within the policy itself. What we do not want, currently if a student is in ninth grade, they fall under the Keystone mandate. By the time they get to 12th grade, this body will likely have taken action to get rid of the Keystone mandate, because we will kick it down the road for another year or two. So the policy was not consistent the entire time that the student was in high school. This amendment, I believe, would allow for the same thing to continue to happen. If the school board passed a policy under this bill allowing parents to opt their children out and that student was in ninth grade, they were opted out of the test. That assumption then moves forward, then all of a sudden, when they are in 12th grade, all of a sudden the school board changes their mind and now it is back on. That would be a very difficult situation to put that student into.

So with that, I would regrettably ask for a negative vote. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. Representative Longietti, for the second time, sir.

Mr. LONGIETTI. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. Speaker, I think it is important we focus on what this bill deals with. It does not deal with graduation requirements. It simply deals with whether or not a student can opt out of taking the Keystone Exams. Right now they can only opt out for religious reasons. This would expand it to philosophical reasons. School boards are responsive to the public that they represent, and so a school board in 2018 could decide, well, we are going to allow students to not take the test for basically any reason, philosophical reason. A school board in 2025 could have a different public that says, you know, that was not such a good idea, let us change course and let us not allow that excusal, or it could be the reverse; it could be the reverse.

It could be that in 2018 the school board decides that we are not going to allow the philosophical exemption, and in 2025 the public view has changed and the public is clamoring to say that there should be an exemption for philosophical reasons. So it allows school boards to make that decision later on. We do not bind a school board for 10, 15, 20, 25 years. I am not so sure it is even constitutional to do that, quite honestly, but we allow them to revisit the issue and we provide some time there. We say that there has to be at least 1 full school year.

I do not think it is going to be a dramatic change, and I understand the gentleman's concern that if somebody in 9th grade thought that they could get out for philosophical reasons, now they are in 11th grade and the school board changed their mind – it is just taking a test. We are not talking about graduation requirements. It is just taking a test. So you know, right now they have to take the test, they are in 9th grade, and maybe if this bill passes and becomes law, in 10th grade they do not have to take the test because of philosophical reasons because of the bill. So I really do not think that it is going to be some dramatic effect on our students. But it does, what it importantly does do is it allows a school board 3 years from now, 4 years from now, 5 years from now, 10 years from now to be responsive to their public and to change course, and I think it is important to do that.

So I would ask for an affirmative vote.

The SPEAKER. Chairman Lawrence, Representative Lawrence, for the second time.

Mr. LAWRENCE. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Again, I just come back to the point, which I think is a valid and important point, that the student that is in the ninth grade should have the same policy their entire way through high school. The good gentleman is correct in that this bill does not directly address the Keystone mandate; however, the underlying bill says that if a parent opts their child out of the Keystone Exams for philosophical reasons, then that child cannot receive negative consequences, including the withholding of a high school diploma. So it very much speaks to the core underlying issue there.

So with that, again, I think it is important to have consistency, and I would ask for a negative vote.

Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

SUPPLEMENTAL CALENDAR C

BILL ON CONCURRENCE IN SENATE AMENDMENTS

The House proceeded to consideration of concurrence in Senate amendments to HB 564, PN 3547, entitled:

An Act amending the act of March 10, 1949 (P.L.30, No.14), known as the Public School Code of 1949, in high schools, providing for assessment of civic knowledge.

On the question,
Will the House concur in Senate amendments?

The SPEAKER. We need an explanation of the underlying bill and the amendments. Representative Boback, please come up to the front podium.

Representative Karen Boback is recognized for an explanation of the underlying bill and the amendments that the Senate has made to her underlying bill.

Ms. BOBACK. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. Please suspend.

Members, please take your seats. Members, please take your seats. We need to have everybody please take their seats. Take any conversations off the House floor before we proceed. Members, please take your seats.

LEAVE OF ABSENCE

The SPEAKER. Representative Joanna McCLINTON has requested to be placed on leave. Without objection, that will be granted.

CONSIDERATION OF HB 564 CONTINUED

The SPEAKER. Members, please take your seats.

Representative Boback, please explain the underlying bill and the amendments that were made.

Ms. BOBACK. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

With the bill, the bill would require students to take a locally developed assessment test in civics, or the civics test that every immigrant takes to become a citizen of the United States, between grades 7 and 12. The Senate amended the bill to require that the PA Department of Education, instead of the school entity, would develop a certificate of achievement, and the Senate also amended to allow only for students with a perfect score, instead of a passing score, to receive said achievement certificate. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

We do concur with the Senate's amendment. This bill passed the Senate yesterday, the Senate floor, 49-nothing, unanimously. Thank you.

The SPEAKER. Thank you, Representative Boback.

Representative Kortz, do you wish to say anything on the bill as amended, sir?

Mr. KORTZ. Yes, sir. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

I want to thank the gentlelady from Luzerne County for bringing this measure before the House. The Senate, as she mentioned, passed it yesterday. It was amended and they passed it 49 to nothing, unanimously, and we would ask for our colleagues to join with us and pass this bill today. It is a start. It is not perfect; it is a start, and it is very, very important to, I believe, our children graduating high school.

Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. Representative Greg Vitali is recognized on the bill as amended. This is a concurrence vote.

Mr. VITALI. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

I just wanted to run this by a local school board director in my Haverford Township School District, and he described this as just another State "mandate," was one word he used. "Micromanagement of school curriculum by the legislature" was another term he used. I have, frankly, very successful school districts, and one thing I do hear from my parents and school board directors is they are tested way too much. Their students are subject to way too many tests.

My own concern is that, although the goal of fostering citizenship is a good one, you know, my experience with the educational system is, you prepare for one test and another test comes up and you simply forget most of what you learned in one test, you know, within a week of it. So the idea that taking a test fosters citizenship is something I do not think will play out in real life. So I have some concerns with this bill.

The SPEAKER. Representative Roebuck, do you wish to speak on this? Waives off.

Representative Boback.

Ms. BOBACK. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

In response, we are talking citizenship. We are talking a test that, in order to become an American citizen, immigrants need to take, and yet we do not expect that of our own students.

As a former teacher, as a mother, but most importantly, as a citizen of the United States of America, I feel that this is something that our children in the State of Pennsylvania need to be exposed to. We listened to the concerns of everyone in the House and Senate, and we adapted the bill.

Do not forget, Mr. Speaker, if I may, the test may be taken in grades 7 through 12. Some school districts already have it in their applied civics or applied social studies curriculum. That would be accepted.

I do not know about you, but I am tired of watching shows where people go on the street and interview students from Ivy League institutions who announce, "Who is the President of the United States of America?" and they do not know. How sad is that? We live in America. I promote citizenship, and I support this bill.

Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. Representative Greg Rothman.

Mr. ROTHMAN. Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of this bill.

A couple weeks ago an alarmingly small number of people, 21 percent of the eligible voters in Pennsylvania, which only represents 50 percent of the people of age to vote, voted in our primary elections. If we want people to participate in democracy, we need our children to know how important democracy is and this idea of self-government.

I just want to read the first three questions on the citizenship exam that Representative Boback has proposed and the Senate supports, and we voted unanimously here and unanimously in the Senate. Number one: "What is the supreme law of the land?" I will give you a second to answer it. It is the Constitution. "What does the Constitution do?" It protects the basic rights of all Americans. The idea of self-government is the first three words of the Constitution. "What are the first three words of our Constitution?" Ladies and gentlemen, "We the people."

If we want our children to participate in democracy, we need to give them our history. That is all that this does. Please join me in supporting this on this vote. Thank you.

The SPEAKER. Representative Maureen Madden.

Ms. MADDEN. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

I rise in support of HB 564. While I understand that we are voting, on one hand, to lessen standardized tests and then on the other hand, voting for a test, I think the underlying reason for this bill is that perhaps it will motivate teachers to start teaching civics.

I know in my district not every school is teaching civics, and that is a shame. And as a former educator on a university level, I am often shocked at how many students, our college students, do not know basic civics. So I think it is a good bill. I think that it does not have ramifications, there is no passing grade, and will inspire teachers and students to want to learn more. Thank you.

The SPEAKER. Thank you, Representative.

Members, I am going to ask everybody, if you could, please take your seats. Please take your seats.

Representative Milne, on the bill, please.

Mr. MILNE. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. Speaker, I would like to commend Representative Boback and Representative Kortz for their leadership on this legislation, which is designed to increase civic awareness and civic engagement across our Commonwealth, and I think it is a very important initiative to take.

I would share with the members my experience as a university professor teaching political science. The very first exercise I have the students do is actually take this American citizenship test, something, a practice I just started to evolve into many, many years ago, just on my own volition out of interest. And even before they get the syllabus for the class, they actually have to take this American citizenship test. And what is good about it is the students themselves, once they see the results – which is, quite frankly, a very wide array of results – the students themselves express to me a mixture of, at times, disappointment, shock, but also encouragement, because they are surprised they do not know some of these basic points and they know they should know them as citizens. And particularly when I enter the discussion that the potential citizens, the immigrants coming into this country, have to take this very test, they realize it is that much more important to them. They should know these answers too, having been blessed as being a natural-born American in the United States. And by the end of the semester, one of the great values that I see and one of the nice points of teaching for me is the students actually thank me that I made them take this – to use the student language, "made them" take this test – and they are actually grateful for the experience and actually feel a very strong point of pride. They walk out of that class knowing that they are a fully educated American citizen capable of taking this test, and they are glad they had the experience of being exposed to it and learning the information on that test.

So given that experience in the classroom personally, I would encourage strong support of this legislation so we can continue to increase civic engagement in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. Thank you, sir.

Representative Chris Sainato.

Mr. SAINATO. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

I rise today to support this piece of legislation. As the Democratic chair of the House Veterans Affairs and Emergency Preparedness Committee, we held a hearing a while back for this piece of legislation, when it was in its infancy stage. And when we looked at this legislation and we took the testimony, it was something that was very important I think to all the members of our committee, Chairman Barrar and myself, because it was so important that people understand our government.

When we have heard some of the speeches we have heard today and when you think about it, "We the people. We the people," those are the first three words of the Constitution. But how many people out there have no idea what the Constitution is? How many people out there do not even know there are three branches of government? How many people out there do not even understand the difference between a local government, a State government, and the Federal government? You see this all the time. It is time that we do something to get civics back in the schools where students could learn and understand how government works. It is good for democracy. It is good for our government. We lost a generation somewhere because they were not taught civics in many places.

In Lawrence County, we are very fortunate – we still have civics. I visit my schools, I talk to seniors, I talk to fifth grade, eighth grade students, and you know what? I am impressed for what I am seeing in my local schools. I am impressed the way some of our teachers are trying to teach them civics along with all the other responsibilities these teachers have to do, with all these standardized tests and the other things they have to do. But we cannot let all those other tasks stop in the way of this, because I think this is probably just as important as those PSSA tests, because these tests that we are talking about here— And it will not stop you from graduating. It brings up the conversation to teach our young people who are going to be adults – most of our seniors who turn 18, they are adults, they are potential voters – to have an understanding, basic understanding of how government works. That is the best thing we can do for our country.

So I think this is an important piece of legislation. It is not as good as the legislation we sent out of the House. It is not as good as the legislation that we had within our committee, but I guess this is called the art of compromise. But you know what? This starts the conversation about government, about civics, and hopefully have a more educated electorate out there that understands the process and how government works, because that is so very vital to our democracy.

So always remember those first three words of the Constitution, "We the people." Vote for this bill. Thank you.

The SPEAKER. Representative Gainey. Representative Gainey, sir.

Mr. GAINEY. Good morning, Mr. Speaker.

I rise today to oppose HB 564. The one thing I admit is that I have been privileged. I have been very, very privileged. From kindergarten to 12th grade, I have learned how to study European history. Whether we want to call it social studies, social science, or history, from kindergarten to 12th grade, I have learned how to study European history. I understand it.

The problem is, we have never studied American history. We have never studied how Blacks, Latinos, Jews, Asians, Koreans, Chinese, all ethnicities have helped to build this great country called the United States of America. We have all had an opportunity as an ethnicity to help build this country, and we have never studied American history. And if we even take it back to the sixties, when we know when we had literacy tests, politics tests, that we could only vote if we knew a certain thing. Until we get to the point that we can say, "We the people," because we studied every ethnicity to help build this great land called the United States of America. If we really had it, a test that talked about American history and every ethnic group that helped build American history, how many people in here would pass that test today? Very few people would pass if we had to talk about African-American, Latino, Asian, Korean, Jewish and all other ethnicities that helped build this great land.

So before we can say, "We the people," let us study we the people so we can know each other, and in knowing each other, we can erase things like bigotry, hate, and racism and introduce education, love, and respect for one another. Then we can have an American test that speaks to the values of America.

On the question recurring,

Will the House concur in Senate amendments?

The SPEAKER. Agreeable to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays will now be taken.

STATEMENT BY MR. MATZIE

The SPEAKER. Representative Matzie, you may proceed.

Mr. MATZIE. Thank you, Mr. Speaker, for the opportunity to say just a few words about this resolution we passed earlier.

It was 50 years ago today that Robert F. Kennedy died from—

The SPEAKER. Members, please, if you are going to exit, please exit off the back. All the members for the resolution, please take your seats.

Representative Moul will then do an announcement after the remarks.

Members, please take your seats. If you are exiting, please try to exit off the back.

Representative Matzie, you may proceed.

Mr. MATZIE. Thank you again, Mr. Speaker.

It was 50 years ago today that Robert F. Kennedy died from an assassin's bullet. He was just 42 years old. When we remember R.F.K.'s short but remarkable life, we recall the fierce U.S. Attorney General who fought against organized crime while serving in his brother J.F.K.'s Cabinet. At the same time we remember a man who emerged as a passionate advocate for social justice and civil rights during one of our nation's most turbulent times. While serving as a U.S. Senator from New York in the years after his brother's assassination, Bobby Kennedy heard the call of Martin Luther King, Jr., Cesar Chavez, and other civil rights leaders who urged peaceful change during turbulent times. As we struggled as a nation to find our public conscience in the midst of an identity crisis, R.F.K. helped guide us by adding his voice to the fight and reminding us that without social justice and equality, the other victories were meaningless.

Bobby once said, "Each time a man stands up for an ideal, or acts to improve the lot of others, or strikes out against injustice, he sends forth a tiny ripple of hope, and crossing each other from a million different centers of energy and daring, those ripples build a current which can sweep down the mightiest walls of oppression and resistance."

On a personal note, my mother was 7 months pregnant with me when Bobby Kennedy was assassinated. I was named after Robert Kennedy – Robert Francis Matzie – 3 months after his assassination, so I have always felt that I had a kindred spirit in Bobby Kennedy, and now that public service is my life, I truly do.

So I appreciate everybody's attention.

REMARKS SUBMITTED FOR THE RECORD

Mr. MATZIE. I will submit the remainder of my remarks for the record.

Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. MATZIE submitted the following remarks for the Legislative Journal:

Why commemorate R.F.K.'s assassination? Because it is essential to reflect, as we remember his legacy, on where we are today. His legacy challenges us to ask, "How are we doing as a nation and as a State? Are we still divided? Have we moved closer to R.F.K.'s vision?" To be sure, we still have a long road ahead.

But remembering Bobby and his vision for our future not only helps ensure that we do not lose sight of our goals, it inspires us to remember how far we have come. A simple resolution like this one would have been viewed as controversial during R.F.K.'s life; today you voted for it unanimously, and I want to thank you all for that.

Our view of the work that lies ahead is clearer and more unified because of Bobby's legacy, which will continue to guide us in the years ahead.

ANNOUNCEMENT BY MR. MOUL

The SPEAKER. Representative Dan Moul, for an announcement.

Mr. MOUL. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

I would just like to announce that there will be an immediate meeting of the Common Sense Caucus in 4 East Wing.

Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

STATEMENT BY MR. MARKOSEK

The SPEAKER. Representative Markosek, on unanimous consent, sir.

Mr. MARKOSEK. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. Speaker, today is June 6, 2018, and the 74th anniversary of D-day, the invasion of Normandy during World War II. And the reason I bring it up is, first of all, to certainly honor all of our World War II veterans and many of them who are still around who perhaps served in D-day, but to also just mention to the members about D-day, the 40th anniversary of D-day, which was June 6, 1984.

On June 6, 1984, that was June of my first term here in the legislature, many years ago, and I remember the Speaker at that time said, we will have a ceremony and a tree planting outside of the Capitol to recognize the 40th anniversary of D-day. And one of my freshman colleagues at that time, a Republican from Allegheny County by the name of Raymond Book, was a D-day veteran himself, and 40 years before that day, he had marched off the ships and on the beaches, on Omaha Beach, on D-day. So I joined him and we both walked outside the Capitol after session was over to a portion of the Capitol grounds in front of the Senate. If you walk out the main door of the Capitol and turn right and go all the way down to the end, past the Senate parking lot, and there is a little sidewalk that goes down to the corner, and right along there is where they planted the tree, and they have a plaque there commemorating the 40th anniversary of D-day. Now, interestingly enough, that was 34 years ago, almost twice as long since then as we were celebrating, and it just shows you how much time flies.

But nevertheless, the other day I walked by there, remembering that moment, and interestingly enough, the tree is gone, but the plaque is still there. So I would just say to the members to remember Representative Ray Book, who just recently passed away, and I think, Mr. Speaker, at some point in time we will more than likely be doing a condolence resolution here shortly, but he was a veteran of D-day, and at that time, when I started here in the legislature, we had a lot of World War II veterans who were serving here, and we know now there are no more remaining in the legislature. We get visitors here occasionally and we all stand up, as we should, and recognize them.

But I would just suggest to the members, the next time you are taking a stroll around the Capitol, is to walk down that sidewalk and take a look at that plaque. The tree is gone, but the plaque is still there remembering D-day, 74 years ago today.

Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. Representative Charlton and Representative Santora.

STATEMENT BY MR. SANTORA

The SPEAKER. Representative Santora, you may proceed first.

Mr. SANTORA. Thank you.

Mr. Speaker, I want to thank the members for their unanimous support of HR 953, designating June 10 as "Delco Day" in Pennsylvania. Delco Day came about by a group that was interested in doing charity and showing all the greatness that Delco has to offer. This year all the funds that are going to be raised on Delco Day are going to go to the HEADstrong Foundation, and the HEADstrong Foundation provides housing for families that are going through cancer treatments that live out of town, and they allow them to have a place to come and call home during long, extended periods of time, and it is just an awesome idea that came about recently. And on June 10 there is going to be a big celebration in Delaware County, again, of everything that makes Delco great.

So I want to again thank the members for their unanimous support.

The SPEAKER. Thank you.

STATEMENT BY MR. CHARLTON

The SPEAKER. Representative Charlton.

Mr. CHARLTON. Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I would like to give a little history to our members of the great county of Delaware.

Born out of the Mostly Unnoticed Schism of 1789, when 191 square miles of Chester County, having grown tired of mushrooms and seeking a greater sense of self, formed the great county of Delaware.

Today my fellow Delaware County legislators and I seek to recognize and celebrate June 10, which will henceforth and forever be known as Delco Day in Pennsylvania. No, June 10 is not the date when the great county of Delaware was established, nor was it the date when Gen. George Washington slept at the Ramada Hotel in Tinicum. June 10 in fact is not about a date at all, but about our pride – pride for a county geographically small enough to be a municipality in some counties; pride for a county so diverse in ethnicity that you could fill each country's seat in the United Nations General Assembly without leaving our borders. June 10 is simply a play on our area code, 610.

Delco Day is to celebrate all that makes the great county of Delaware and its municipalities wonderful, unique, and quirky, and Delco Day is a celebration of our people, their work-worn hands, generous hearts, and the inability to pronounce the word "water." To many, Delco is the redheaded stepchild of southeast Pennsylvania; long the butt of the joke. We are not the metropolitan heart that is Philadelphia. We cannot boast being home of the suburban shopping mecca that is King of Prussia; that is in Montgomery County. We are not one of the original counties as established by William Penn, like Bucks. In fact, we were kicked out of Chester County.

But that is okay. We are from Delaware County and we can take a joke; tongue in cheek, we will even make it a point of pride. And our pride comes from our people, our communities, and our contributions. At our Boeing facility in Ridley Park, we build the Armed Forces CH-47 Chinook and the V-22 Osprey. Our Villanova University Wildcats gave us this year's NCAA men's basketball champions. One of America's finest and most celebrated artists, Andrew Wyeth, called Delaware County his home.

We are and have been an economic engine for Pennsylvania and the entire United States. Companies like Sun Ship and Dry Dock, Baldwin Locomotive Works, and Ford all had headquarters or major manufacturing facilities in Delaware County. Today Delaware County takes great pride in being the home of Wawa convenience stores – which are better than Sheetz – SAP North America, Kimberly-Clark, and Boeing rotorcraft. Even the incorrectly named Philadelphia International Airport is predominantly located in Delaware County.

Our people are the embodiment of resolve and perseverance and stubbornness. We know all of our neighbors and shovel the little old lady's sidewalk down the street when it snows – not because we were asked to, but because that is just how our parents raised us. We take our lumps and turn them into something better. Whether it is something small like Madison Jensen, who, at 4 years old, she and her family lost their home to a fire and she clung onto hope through a teddy bear given to her by her local fire company. Today Madison collects donations to buy more teddy bears that she donates to the local fire companies to give to other children who lose everything in a fire. Or it is something larger, like the HEADstrong Foundation, an organization committed to improving the quality of life for those affected by cancer, a group created by the Colleluori family after the loss of their son, Nick, to cancer.

Everyone from Delaware County can tell you they love Delaware County; no one from Delaware County can tell you exactly why, and that is okay.

Thank you, Mr. Speaker, for allowing me to read this ode to my home.

Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. Thank you, Representative Santora and Representative Charlton.
