SESSION OF 2018

202D OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY

No. 43

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

The House convened at 9:30 a.m., e.d.t.

THE SPEAKER (MIKE TURZAI) PRESIDING

PRAYER

HON. STEPHEN BLOOM, member of the House of Representatives, offered the following prayer:

Let us pray.

Let us start, Lord God, with a prayer of all of us, by all of us, for the victims and first responders of the hurricane that is passing through the entire eastern seaboard of our country today. Let us have a moment of silent prayer.

Lord, help us. The decisions we face are bigger than us. The challenges we face are bigger than us. The discord that surrounds and immerses us is bigger than us. But, Lord, there is good news because You, Lord, are bigger than all that.

Your wisdom and mercy, Lord, transcend the decisions we face. Your power and grace, Lord, overcome the challenges we face. Your peace, Lord, and Your love quench the fires of anger and hatred we face. Your Word, Lord God, says that unless You build the house, we who build it labor in vain.

So today, Lord, let us rest in You. Let us put our faith in You. Let us listen and follow to Your still small voice. To You, God, be the glory. In the name of my Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ, I pray. Amen.

PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE

(The Pledge of Allegiance was recited by members and visitors.)

JOURNAL APPROVAL POSTPONED

The SPEAKER. Without objection, the approval of the Journal of Wednesday, October 10, 2018, will be postponed until printed.

RESOLUTION REPORTED FROM COMMITTEE

HR 1112, PN 4122

By Rep. BARRAR

A Resolution calling upon the Federal Government to prioritize and consider the need for resilient infrastructure to reduce risks and meet the country's economic, environmental and social needs.

VETERANS AFFAIRS AND EMERGENCY PREPAREDNESS.

The SPEAKER. All members are requested to come to the floor. We are going to be moving into retirement remarks, farewell remarks, from members who are retiring.

All members, please come to the floor and take your seats. We have some guests that have traveled some distance to be with us today.

DR. PAMELA GUNTER-SMITH PRESENTED

The SPEAKER. The York County delegation has been gracious enough to invite Dr. Pamela Gunter-Smith, president of York College, and with her I believe today is Jeff Vermeulen, assistant vice president for External Relations. York College is celebrating its 50th anniversary.

So I am going to ask the Sergeants at Arms to ask all members to take their seats. All members, please take your seats, and we are going to close the doors of the House.

Dr. Pamela Gunter-Smith began serving as president of York College on July 1, 2013. She previously served as Drew University's provost and academic vice president and as the endowed porter professor of physiology at Spelman College, very prestigious school. Dr. Gunter-Smith has also held academic appointments at George Washington University and the Uniformed Services University of the Health Sciences. For 12 years before joining Spelman College, Dr. Gunter-Smith was a research scientist and science administrator at the Armed Forces Radiobiology Research Institute in Bethesda, Maryland.

Her background is quite impressive. She holds a bachelor of science degree in biology from Spelman College and a Ph.D. (doctor of philosophy) in physiology from Emory University. She, in fact, conducted postdoctoral studies out my way, at the University of Pittsburgh School of Medicine, and then also at the University of Texas Health Science Center in Houston. She has published significantly in the areas of gastrointestinal physiology and membrane ion transport and is the recipient of grants to support science education and research.

She is married to J. Lawrence Smith, a native of St. Louis, Missouri. He currently works with IBM. They are proud parents of two sons, Lealand of Nashville, Tennessee, and Philip of Auburn, Alabama.

The York County delegation was so proud to bring in Dr. Gunter-Smith when there was a resolution that Representative Seth Grove had sponsored celebrating the 50th anniversary of the college, and we did not have time that day to have her speak. We had not really prepared her for it, and I had asked her if she would come back at my request to speak to this august body.

At this time I would like to bring up Dr. Gunter-Smith, president of York College.

Dr. GUNTER-SMITH. Thank you, Mr. Speaker, for the invitation to give remarks this morning.

And my special thanks to Representative Seth Grove, an accomplished alumnus from York College who helped champion HR 1043, commemorating the 50th anniversary of York College as a 4-year institution. It is such a great honor for me to be here with you today as president of the college, representing over 4200 students, 800 employees, 30,000 known alumni nationwide, many of whom are citizens of our Commonwealth.

This past week the college marked the occasion of our 50th anniversary as a 4-year institution, a weeklong celebration of the past, and in doing so, the college also took the time to reflect on our role in higher education, the York community, and importantly, our evolution as a modern-day institution of higher education.

York College of Pennsylvania has been linked to the Commonwealth from our earliest days when the Pennsylvania General Assembly provided the college's earliest ancestor, York County Academy, with an official charter in 1787.

While we are celebrating 50 years as a 4-year institution, we celebrate well over 230 years as an educational institution serving the citizens of York, York County, and the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. It is indeed a rich heritage.

Since our founding, the college has stayed true to its mission to create a transformative educational experience for our students, one that will empower them to lead purposeful and fulfilling lives and meaningful careers in a rapidly changing world. The college has evolved now into a predominantly undergraduate residential comprehensive college that offers a unique blend of professional programs such as engineering, nursing, hospitality management, and business within a liberal arts education. In addition, we offer leading-edge graduate programs also in nursing, education, and business.

Our graduates are especially marketable in the workforce, and of our recent graduates, 91 percent are currently employed and many of them have jobs well before their graduation date. The number of students who have positions 6 weeks before graduation significantly exceeds the national average for all institutions. Many of them are involved in the nonprofit sector and public service, exemplifying the college's motto, "Servire Est Vivere," to serve is to live. We are especially proud to serve our veterans who are continuing their education and proud of being recognized among the top 20 percent of American institutions of higher education doing the most to embrace veteran students.

While reflecting on the 50th, it became clearer more than ever just how important the college's role is in our community and how important the support and partnership of the community and the Commonwealth is to York College. We are deeply rooted in the city of York and York County. The city of York is undergoing a powerful economic and cultural rebirth, and York College is very proud to be part of this renaissance. We are a major employer in York and York County and a source of significant economic and tax revenue for our community and for the Commonwealth. The annual economic impact of York College in the Commonwealth measured in 2014 is well over $170 million annually.

Under my leadership, the college has recommitted to serving York City and the region and in very real, tangible ways. We opened the Center for Community Engagement in the heart of downtown York, and through our programming and student involvement, the Center for Community Engagement promotes the college's positive relationship with the community and provides much-needed expertise for important projects. For example, our students recently completed the first-ever comprehensive study of the York Latinx community that will lead to the development of important policies to serve this growing underserved community in York. Another of our downtown locations, Marketview Arts, has become a hub for culture and creativity in the city.

I would be remiss if I did not mention the impact of our more than 30,000 alumni who throughout the Commonwealth, the country, and the world live to serve. Our graduates are thriving in Pennsylvania in a variety of fields, such as engineering, computer science, business, nursing, cyber security, and they, like Representative Seth Grove, class of 2002, are making their mark right here in Pennsylvania.

As a private institution, we value and make access and affordability our number one priority for our current and future students. We deliver a high-quality personalized experience with a tuition that is comparable to some of the Pennsylvania public and State-supported institutions. If you were to compare us to Penn State or to Millersville, you would see that our tuition is very comparable to theirs, and we deliver this with a cost that is nearly half of other private institutions.

This said, we are extremely appreciative of the partnership we have with the Commonwealth in helping us educate Pennsylvania students and lowering student debt. PHEAA (Pennsylvania Higher Education Assistance Agency) grants are an important tool in taking on the complex issue of student debt, and we thank you for continued support and continued funding for this program. What is important to know is that PHEAA follows the student and this along with the nearly $22 million provided annually from York College institutional funds is helping students to select the institution that best fits their needs, one in which they will thrive.

Over the years we have received Pennsylvania grants that have helped us with a variety of projects, including the creation of a business incubator on campus which is playing a role with respect to innovation, job creation, in today's knowledge economy. We have also received an "It's On Us Pennsylvania" grant to fuel our efforts to curb sexual violence on campus. For this and others we thank you.

Higher education in Pennsylvania is something that we do exceptionally well. We have many different options for our students from which they can choose.

In 1799 our founding institution, York County Academy, received a grant from the Commonwealth in the amount of $2,000. Even in today's dollars, which this would now be about $50,000, you would be hard pressed not to be pleased by the magnitude of this return on Pennsylvania's investment.

On behalf of our entire York College community, thank you for recognizing York College of Pennsylvania, especially at this time of its 50th anniversary, and I am honored to have had this time to be with you this morning. Thank you so very much for all that you do for the citizens of Pennsylvania and especially for the students that we serve. Thank you very much.

Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. Dr. Gunter-Smith, please stay here for just a moment. We are going to invite the York County delegation up for photos. Those remarks were outstanding. What an outstanding school and we love your message. Thank you for all you are doing for the students in Pennsylvania and for the community and for the State. Thank you.

GUEST INTRODUCED

The SPEAKER. We also have a student at York College. She is actually from Saudi Arabia, and she is the guest of Representative Kate Klunk. Lamyaa Alsheri. Lamyaa, please wave to everybody. It is great to have you here today. Thank you very much. Thank you.

The Sergeants at Arms will open the doors of the House.

All members, please come to the House floor. We are going to be taking the master roll.

LEAVES OF ABSENCE

The SPEAKER. The majority whip requests leaves of absence for the following members: Mike REESE of Westmoreland County for the day, Lee JAMES of Venango County for the day, Representative Kathy WATSON of Bucks County for the day, Representative Kerry BENNINGHOFF of Centre County for the day, Representative Tim HENNESSEY of Chester County for the day. Without objection, those will be granted.

The minority whip requests leaves of absence for Representative Sid KAVULICH of Lackawanna County for the day, Representative Harry READSHAW of Allegheny County for the day, Representative Mike O'BRIEN of Philadelphia County for the day, Representative Bill KORTZ of Allegheny County for the day, Representative Rob MATZIE of Beaver County for the day, Representative Tina DAVIS of Bucks County for the day, Representative Dan MILLER of Allegheny County for the day, Representative Curtis THOMAS of Philadelphia County for the day, and Representative Jake WHEATLEY of Allegheny County for the day. Without objection, those will be granted.

The SPEAKER. There are 183 members on the House floor. We have a quorum.

Members, please take your seats. Representative Kristin Phillips-Hill will be giving her farewell remarks. The Sergeants at Arms will close the doors of the House.

FAREWELL ADDRESS BY MRS. HILL

The SPEAKER. Representative Kristin Phillips-Hill was elected in 2015 to represent the 93d District of York County. From the moment she arrived, she has been engaged in so many significant issues. Her experience as a school board member gave her much insight into how to successfully educate students, not only in her community but all across the State, in a cost-effective manner, and she has brought that skill set here to the General Assembly. She is at this time running for the State Senate, and as you know, she resides in York County with her husband, Rick. They have three children: Spencer, Victoria, and Gavin. And I am honored to call her up to the rostrum at this time to present her farewell remarks.

Representative Phillips-Hill.

Mrs. HILL. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

I have struggled to find just the right words to share with you today. It is not easy to say goodbye, and I consider myself so incredibly fortunate to have had something that has been so wonderful that it makes it so hard to say goodbye.

There are so many different ways that you can approach this farewell address. Some people have spoken of great philosophic principles, others have extolled legislative accomplishments, and several have even discussed their family's political genealogy, and I, too, am not the first member of my family to serve in this institution. But really, none of that is important. To me, the most important thing to convey to you here today is the deep and profound gratitude that I have and to say thank you.

Thank you to the incredible people of the 93d Legislative District in southern York County that believed in me and trusted me to do their will and be their voice here in Harrisburg. It has truly been the greatest honor and privilege to serve them. I have been humbled to have been so warmly welcomed into their lives to share in their great joys and celebrations, but also to mourn with them and share in their great sorrows.

Thank you to each and every one of you, the duly elected Representatives of the people of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. I am grateful to have had the opportunity to serve with you and to get to know each of you as we have endeavored to do the people's work.

The summer before I was elected to the House, I had the opportunity to spend some time with former York County State Senator Ralph Hess. His granddaughter, Anna, and our youngest son, Spencer, are dear friends. We talked for hours. He regaled me with stories of legislative adventures in days gone by and how if you did not comply with the leadership's demands, they would take your office away from you. The East Wing did not exist, so apparently that is where your desk would have gone, in that breezeway. They said if you were not going to vote the right way, that they would lock you in the broom closet.

So I want to say thank you to our leadership team, to Speaker Turzai, to Leader Reed, for empowering me to represent the voters in my district, even when I might not have voted the way they wanted me to, even when they have not agreed with me. I appreciate that so much that they allowed me to put my people first. And I think that if I had served back in the olden days, I may have spent a lot of time without an office, locked in a broom closet.

I have found that one of the greatest challenges in public life is not forgetting who you are and where you came from, and I am certain that none of you can forget that before I was a legislator, I was a school board director. I know. I can tell you are very, very surprised. But I will tell you this, that if the States are laboratories of democracy, the school board was my test kitchen, and I need to thank my former school board directors, the students, and the staff and administration at Dallastown for helping me to learn that educational excellence and fiscal responsibility are not mutually exclusive goals, that government can deliver high-quality outcomes by creatively using scarce resources; that by working collaboratively with various stakeholders, you can hold the line on taxes and create well-rounded students ready to take on the challenges of tomorrow. But most importantly, they taught me how to implement zero-based budgeting and performance measures and that they really do work, and all of those lessons have served me so well here in the Capitol.

I need to thank my remarkable parents, Karen and Jay Phillips, for their unwavering love and support and encouragement, even when they have not agreed with me.

Joining me here today is my wonderful husband, Rick Hill. He is the consummate political spouse. When I was in college, my professors told me that there was no such thing as Prince Charming and happily ever after, and I need to publicly thank Rick Hill for proving them wrong.

Thank you to our children: Victoria, Gavin, and Spencer. I am so proud to be their mom, and I am so grateful for the lessons that they taught me, many of which prepared me for my service here in Harrisburg.

Thank you to the wonderful people that have worked with me over the last 4 years in the district and in Harrisburg: Tom Metz, Galen Weibley, Michael Curley, Scott Little, Michelle Pinkerton, and Lauren Evans. Each of them has brought different talents and skills to serve the people of the 93d District well, but what they have all had in common is a passion for the people, solving their problems and making government work better for them. You are only as good as the people that you surround yourself with, and they have made me look good every day that they have served.

Thank you to the many exceptional interns that we have had join us, especially our senior intern, Margaret Ibex, who always brought sunshine to our office, kept us organized, and even baked us cookies.

Thank you to the York County delegation, my Harrisburg family, that the voters of York County gave to me: Stan, Keith, Seth, Kate, Dawn, and Carol. I am so proud to be a member of this cohesive team that has worked so hard for all of York County.

We have a joke in York County, and that is that we never sleep. There is someone up on duty 24 hours a day, 7 days a week, and it is so bad that at one point even our former State Senator Scott Wagner texted us – I think it was like 1:30, 2 o'clock in the morning – and said, "Do you people ever sleep?" The answer is "no."

Thank you to my dear friend, Seth Grove. Thank you for being the Reagan to my Thatcher, my closest political ally, fellow policy wonk, and really, truly a dear friend.

Bryan Cutler has often admonished me that "Kristin, you can't helicopter-parent your delegation." They are a lot of work, but I gladly turn the reins over to Representative Dawn Keefer. I know that she will take very good care of them.

York County and Adams County, they have a really close connection. Adams County was actually part of York County at one point, and Will Tallman and Dan Moul, they seem like one of us. Will Tallman has always made me laugh. The first time I met Will Tallman was over the phone. I had recently been hired; it was actually my first day on the job working for my predecessor, Ron Miller. I picked up the phone and I said, "Good morning. Representative Ron Miller's office. This is Kristin. How can I help you?" And the voice on the other end of the phone said, "What is Ron wearing today?" Calmly I said, "Hold on a moment, please." I went into the other office and said, "We have a creeper on line one." Will, it has been a pleasure to serve with you. I have a few words for Dan Moul later in my remarks.

Kate Klunk, thank you for being the sister that I never had. Almost every crazy adventure that I have had in this place has included Kate, including teaching Emily Rauch, our legislative assistant, how to do the bunny hop to Lawrence Welk at 11 o'clock at night one evening in the East Wing.

Bryan Cutler, I have to thank you for giving me the opportunity to serve as a deputy majority whip since I arrived here in the Capitol. Thanks for taking a chance on a freshman legislator, although I am not really sure if that was not some sort of hazing because you put Jeff Pyle on my deputy whip list, and I am sure Becky Corbin can relate to this, but Jeff really put me through my paces early on and I can tell you that for the first 6 months he would not give me an answer on how he would vote. The next 6 months, while he gave me a response, there was not a column for his answer and I really cannot say what it was publicly from this rostrum. Jeff avoided me for a while, and I have to tell you that I know every shortcut and every hiding place in this Capitol because I have tracked him down. Harry Lewis and I were going to a meeting on the other side of the Capitol Complex, I said, "Oh, wait, Harry. This is the way we can get there faster." And he said, "How do you know that?" I said, "I've tracked Jeff Pyle down for over a year."

I need to thank our exceptional staff, particularly those that serve the Education, Health, and State Government Committees. You are exceptional people, and I thank you so much for all of your hard work.

I need to thank the chairmen of those committees: Chairman Hickernell, Chairman Baker, and now Chairwoman Rapp, and Chairman Metcalfe. I have really enjoyed the policy work that we have done. Probably one of my fondest committee moments was when I was working on a piece of legislation in the State Government Committee and I was struggling to get what I needed from the administration, and I said to the gentleman, "I'm going to tell you what I tell my sons, and that is, your lack of preparedness does not constitute an emergency on my part. You need to get this done and get me an answer or we're running the bill regardless." Chairman Metcalfe turned to me and he said, "You know, I'm not used to being the good guy."

I am grateful to my dear friends and colleagues in the Common Sense Caucus, particularly Chairman Moul. That is M-o-u-l, not M-a-o. That summer was a really difficult one, and in the past I had been asked by my constituents, "You know, why don't you have a seat at the table?" And Dan Moul said, "You know, I'm coming back here until I find a solution." And we did. Dan, you are often irreverent, you always make me laugh, and you are a dear friend. I also need to thank Frank Ryan, whom I really got to know that summer. I am proud to be called his granddaughter.

We have endeavored to do some really important public policy. The one that I have appreciated working with Dawn Keefer and Greg Rothman the most on has been regulatory reform. Thank you for being champions of something that has been so important to the people that I represent. Thank you to Greg Rothman. When Greg came into the House, he came up to me with his fist clenched and unloaded an entire stack of Reese's peanut butter cups and said, "I hope that we can be friends." And I thought, well, obviously my reputation precedes me; I am a tough customer and I really like candy.

To Rick Saccone. Rick Saccone was my first seatmate, and I have to tell you, he needs to come with a warning label. On swearing-in day, I am here and this is so new and everything is so fresh and I wanted to do my very best and we said the prayer and then we said the Pledge, and for those of you who do not know, when Rick Saccone gets to the part of the Pledge where it says "one nation," he literally shouts, "under God." I came out of my shoes and almost broke my ankle. I warned Dawn Keefer when she took that seat.

I have been fortunate to have great times with my seatmates. I think one of the things people do not really know is how many sacrifices you make here and how many difficult decisions that you have to make and the sacrifices that your families make. And my son, Spencer, was swimming in the PIAA State Championship Finals at Bucknell and the medical marijuana bill was on the floor and I felt that it was really important for me to be here. I had promised people back home I would cast those votes. I have never missed one, and it was really tough and I called him and I said, "Hey, Bud, I'm just so sorry. I'm so sorry. We're here. We're voting on medical marijuana. It is really so important." And he says, "Hey, guys, my mom is talking about pot up on the House floor. She's not going to be here." The entire locker room erupted in laughter. I said, "Son, that's not what I said." But thanks to our IT (Information Technology) Department and Carl Metzgar and Matt Gabler, I somehow got that swim meet on my laptop at my desk and I had a cheering section from all over the Commonwealth when he medaled.

Working across the aisle, it happens more than you know. People always say, "Can't you people in Harrisburg get along?" Well, we do. It just does not make the front page of the newspaper. I need to thank my colleagues across the aisle who have partnered with me: Pam DeLissio for working on teacher certification for military spouses and getting it signed into law. Jared Solomon for standing against bigotry and hatred in the wake of the bomb threats against the Jewish Community Center in my district. Mike Schlossberg, thank you for being a partner on suicide prevention. And to my dear friend, Pam Snyder, thank you for working with me to close the digital divide.

In closing, I want to thank you once again. It has been such a great honor and privilege to serve here with you. And I want to leave you with this promise, and that is that I will never forget who I am and where I came from and know that I look forward to the day when I can say, "Do you know I used to be a House member?"

Thank you once again. God bless each and every one of you. God bless the great Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and the United States of America.

REMARKS BY SPEAKER

The SPEAKER. Kristin, I know how dedicated you are to your three children, you and your husband are to your three children, and to miss— I remember her telling me that day and I was there, like, "Kristin, what are you doing here?" And your dedication to the citizens of your district and to the citizens of the Commonwealth is so deep. I know you will make a great Senator on the other side of the Capitol, but do not forget us when you are there.

I also wanted to just say, Kristin, so many people just really admire how you are able to tackle tough issues, but you never make it personal. You are always so professional about how you address them, how you handle yourself in your remarks on the floor or in caucus and how you handled them up here today. You are so gracious, and we wish you and your family nothing but the best. Thank you for your tenacity, but your tenacity with class and grace. Thank you so much.

If the York County delegation could come up to the rostrum, please, for a photo.

(Commemorative gavel was presented.)

LEAVES OF ABSENCE

The SPEAKER. Representative Angel CRUZ has requested to be placed on leave. Without objection, that will be granted.

Representative Rich IRVIN has requested to be placed on leave. Without objection, that will be granted.

FAREWELL ADDRESS BY MR. D. COSTA

The SPEAKER. Representative Dom Costa. When I was – this goes back some years – an assistant district attorney in Allegheny County, Representative Costa, Dom Costa, was a city of Pittsburgh police detective and then later became chief of police, and he has been serving the 21st Legislative District of Allegheny County since 2008. His district is just south of my district, and he is chairman of the Allegheny County delegation. Dom resides in Pittsburgh with his wife, Darlene; two West Highland white terriers, Bennie and Maverick; three grown children – Tina, Julie, and Scott – and two grandchildren, of which they are abundantly proud, Quinn and Liam.

I am going to ask everybody to please take their seats because we are going to close the doors of the House. If anybody needs to step off, now is the time. I would invite everybody else to please come on to the floor and take your seats.

Dom, you have been a great friend to so many on both sides of the aisle. I invite you to the rostrum for your farewell remarks, sir.

Mr. D. COSTA. Thank you so much. Thank you.

That means the world to me, believe me. It makes it very, very difficult for me to leave this wonderful organization. At first I was toying with the idea of not doing a speech and the Speaker told me that if I made it quick and Mike engaged the rule, the 5-minute rule, on our side, with deputy whips, that I have to be quick and he would let us out early. So I am not going to stand in between you and getting out of here early. But it is important, my mother, God rest her soul, told me that you are better than no one, no one is better than you, and it is important to say a couple of things: thank you when needed and I love you when needed. And those words were powerful. And I am here to thank the people that helped me serve the people of this Commonwealth in my district.

And this aisle, I always tease that this aisle in the middle that is supposedly the dividing aisle is, if I was ever the Speaker, which I will not be and I just never intended to be the Speaker, it would be for walking, because the seats would be Republican, Democrat, Republican, Democrat, Republican, Democrat. Thank you. At the end of the day we all have the same issues. We have families, and when we are sitting there talking to each other, you say, oh, I forgot to get my car inspected; I got this; I have that; I have this." But we all have the same goals.

Since I have been here, we were very blessed by getting Katie Klunk here, and I had seen and shared the grief when she lost her father and I shared the joy when she had her daughter, Grace. And that is what it is about, folks. Think about it. When we as people amongst us lose someone or one of our colleagues loses someone, Sid Kavulich in the hospital, we all come as one. Republican and Democrat equal people.

When we have our races, we go out and we race and we fight hard. When we come on that side of the rail, this is an arena. Let us not make it personal. I think I have garnered the friendship of both sides because of that, because of that philosophy. We are all people, we all care about each other, we all love our families, and we all have the same goal, to serve the people of this Commonwealth.

Now, I would like to start the thank yous, if I could. My first thank you is to the people of the 21st District that supported me and were the rock of my whole reason for being here. Representative Jozwiak, who was a State trooper and sheriff, we know that when we take these jobs as police officers, we all take them for one reason, to help people, to make things better. Well, I hope that I made things better in the 21st District, I believe I did, and with my wonderful staff, and we all know without your staff we are really nothing because they really make us what we are.

I would like to thank my friends in organized labor. They were with me over the years, their support. I especially would like to thank two guys that were with me when I was a nobody, when I just started, and I came against the Democratic Party for an endorsement. Ken Broadbent from Steamfitters 449 and Tom Bigley from the Plumbers Union 27, which my dad and my brothers were all members of, they stood with me with big $500 checks back then, but they stood with me and I will never forget that. Loyalty to me means a lot because loyalty begins with "L" and so does love.

I also would like to thank my brothers and sisters in blue. The PA Troopers Association, Dave Kennedy, current president; Joe Kovel, past president. Les Neary from the F.O.P. (Fraternal Order of Police), State F.O.P.; Joe Regan from the F.O.P.; and Bob Swartzwelder from my F.O.P., city of Pittsburgh Lodge No. 1.

A lot of people here do not know, there are a couple of things about me you do not know. You knew I was a police officer, you knew I was chief of police, but when I was a young police officer, there were two young D.A.s in the D.A.'s office, and we young cops knew the D.A.s did not know anything. Well, you know, it comes back to bite you because one of them is sitting right there, my good friend, Frank Dermody, who has been friends with me for many, many years and I love him like a brother, and the other one is sitting up here, Mike Turzai. Mike Turzai worked with the D.A.'s office. We had seen each other every morning. We had the coffee cart on the third floor, and life seemed simpler then, gentlemen, did it not? But now here I am answering to them. Back then I said, "Oh, I'm a cop. I can tow their car, whatever." But now I am answering to both of them. So watch what you do as you are coming up because it will come back to bite you 20 years later. So again, they were both great and it was a joy working with them then. It is a great honor to see where they have come and to work with them now because they are both good men.

My delegation members, I have – no offense to anyone – but I have the best delegation in this caucus, in this House. Ed Gainey, I knew him when he was a young lad, and when I say "young," I mean like 10. Okay? Now, I am giving my age away because – but Ed is only 20, so that means that I am only 10 years longer. We have Joe Markosek, Dan Frankel. Believe it or not, I caught him out prowling one night in my district in zone six. Dan was a Representative and we were having some break-ins, you know, and I am out after hours, you know, and I see Dan walking around. I said, "What are you doing?" So I knew he was coming down a side street, so I said, okay. Well, naturally, I said Dan Frankel, State Representative, but I still checked him out. No. Dan, thank you. Thank you for all your support in the past. Joe Markosek. My leadership team has been great. We have Dan Deasy, city council member before; Adam Ravenstahl; Austin, our newest member. I was a police officer longer than Austin is alive. So that tells you where we are coming from.

Harry Readshaw, who texted me – unfortunately, he could not be here, and I will tell you why – he says that he has something to do in his district, a groundbreaking and stuff, which was very important to his district, and I told him that I was going to tell the story about when you are going around as a police officer, you go to a lot of meetings and I had met a lot of these folks. So I was very fortunate when I came here that I knew some of them. And Harry would bust my chops at the meetings. He said, "That guy with the scrambled eggs on his hat, you know, he says he's that." So one day I leaned over to my sergeant and I said, "Find his car and tow it." And he said, "Pardon me?" I said, "Find his car and tow it" at the meeting. So Harry leaves the building and he is looking for his car. Well, we had it on the flatbed around the corner. So needless to say, Harry did not give me much trouble after those meetings, and there is a guy that I can tell you this, once a Marine, always a Marine, like Neal. I would be in a foxhole with Harry anytime. He is a great man and a good friend.

And let me go back to my other mentor, Tony DeLuca. Tony DeLuca, I have known him since I was a boy. We would go into his father's Italian market and Tony and his brother would cut meat and stuff and I would look at him cutting this meat and I was always in awe, and just for the record, he was not that much older than me. Okay? So I do not want Tony coming back at me. But he has been a family friend. Tony, when I was here my first term, he took me from being a Representative to a lawmaker, he and his executive director, Art McNulty. They got me my first bill, and that also was with the help of this side of the aisle because we do not get bills unless we work together and get them together. So Tony DeLuca, you know, through his trying times, you know, I want to make sure that, you know, we all look out for him, these senior members here and senior in time. Keith McCall was up here when I came in and he said about Ben Franklin being here. And I leaned over to Tony and I said, "You know, you and Joe and Tom Caltagirone have been here for quite a while." I said, "How was it when Ben Franklin was here?" So he knew that was going to be a start of a good, funny, you know, career for us and we have had a good one.

My neighbor in the aisle, Anita Kulik. She is probably one of the best additions to our delegation that we have ever had. She is solid. She works hard. She cares about her district, and she keeps Harry on one end of the aisle and me on the other end of the row because Harry and I are always sniping at each other. So, Anita, thank you very much for being my neighbor and my friend and I hope you have a long career because your people are in good hands with you. Thank you.

Eddie Day Pashinski was a music teacher. My priest told me one time just to move my lips in church because my singing was bad. My son when he was 8 said this, you know. And then finally when a teacher told me to stop singing, he said move my lips, that is what I do. Eddie is an honorary member to our delegation and good people, and I want to thank him for that.

Pat Harkins would call me at 2:15 in the morning. I swear he has a plumbing company because a lot of you may not know I am a master plumber too. That is what I started out as. Pat Harkins would call me; literally at 2:15 in the morning he would text me, "Are you up? Can you call me?" And he would tell me his plumbing problems. So I really believe that if you go to Erie, you are going to see signs "Harkins Plumbing and Heating." So thanks, Pat. Thank you for your friendship.

The committees I was on were great. Insurance Committee, Tina Pickett, wonderful lady. Tony DeLuca. Judiciary, which was one of my favorites because that is me. You know, they tell, my staff, my wife, my kids, they say, "If you cut my dad, he's going to bleed blue." And I bleed law enforcement. And I want to thank Joe Petrarca, minority chair and my friend, and Ron Marsico, the majority chair, and you know, I cannot say enough good things about Ron. He has been nothing but fair to all of us. He cares. He cares about the people and we move good bills. Sometimes they were tough bills, but we move good bills which we thought would protect the people of this Commonwealth, and I thank you for the honor of working with you, Ron.

Veterans Affairs, Steve Barrar, Chris Sainato, I cannot find two guys that care more about our veterans and our emergency services than them, and it has been an honor working with them in doing that because it is all in public safety. If people do not feel safe, they are not going to come to this Commonwealth. They are not going to spend time here. They are not going to spend their money here. They are not going to set up business here. So again, thank you.

And the policy chairman – I do not see him – but Mike Sturla. I learned more on policy traveling this Commonwealth, and diversity of this Commonwealth, than I have learned anywhere. I have actually been in 67 counties, and I will tell you what, it has been an amazing, amazing experience. I would never move from this Commonwealth for any reason. It is the most beautiful place in the world. The diversity is unbelievable. You think you have diversity in your districts; go through the Commonwealth and see and it builds a respect for everyone because you understand what they are facing. It is not all about us or me.

Now, I want to thank our hidden heroes, these folks. Dave, Ray, you know, the people that actually do the things behind the scenes for us, and I do not want to say anything. I am not going to mention her name, but every time a thing comes out for a job – I am looking for a job, guys – so you know, when it comes out, I file, and Angela – I will mention her name – says, "You're too qualified, you're overqualified," and says "no," sends me an e-mail back. So I keep trying, but she keeps shooting me down. So, David, thank you. And thank you— For those of you who do not know, David is the head of the committee for the security of this House, and I have never seen anyone carry the ball and run with it like he has. Thank you, David. It means the world to me, and I thank you for your friendship.

Our A-team over here and the staff all in front of us, our pages, we would not be anything without these folks, literally; you know that. When you are going down the hall, smile and thank them. You know, money is nice, but a thank you goes a long way every day to keep the morale of our people up.

I have one unsung hero which has been instrumental in everything. Think about it. Most of our requests, I believe in my area, are PennDOT. Well, Patrick Brady is a supervisor in our caucus for PennDOT, he and his staff. Patrick Brady is just work, work, work, and he gets it done. He goes over and above. People like this – if you walk down the hall, a lot of people would not even know who Patrick Brady is, but do you know what? He made Dom Costa's office and Dom Costa look fantastic, like a miracle worker.

Please, when you see the folks that serve us, our security staff, they are phenomenal. They are with us. They care about us. Thank them. Thank them for that service because this place would not be what it is if it was not for the people who work here, because, you know, anybody that is a working person, I do not care what their hands are, I do not care how dirty they are, I am shaking their hand because they deserve our respect and they deserve a smile and a kind word during the day because their lives are hard too.

My friends on the other side – across the aisle. I have made so many. I want to thank you. Karen, your next birthday I will be thinking of you, but I will not be able to stand up on the floor. I think you will be 23 then. Okay? But I want to thank you for your kindness. I want to thank you for your friendship.

Like I said, Bernie – I was sad to leave Bernie, and then Bernie is leaving. So that is – he is a great man. He has been a good friend. I always get a birthday card from him. I keep shaking the envelope. There is nothing in it, but I get the birthday card, and I expect one my next birthday, even if you are gone, Bernie. Thank you.

I have worked with everyone on both sides of the aisle, I have worked with everyone on this side, and if you have the right legislation, if you have the right attitude, you know, as they say, as Representative Hill said, "Even Daryl. Even Daryl." You know, believe it or not, Daryl and I are friends, and that is what it is about. It is not about you come on this side of the aisle, we wrestle, we argue, we fight. You do not make it personal. You go on that side of the aisle and you are friends, and that is what it is about, folks. If you keep it that way, it will be much more civil. We do get things done here. Pennsylvanians should know we do get work done here and we do like each other. So for anybody that is out there believing it, like Representative Maher said, about the gentleman that called him yesterday, I get things like, you know, he says, "Don't vote, you know, for Kavanaugh." Okay. Well, it was an easy one. I get them where "Don't bomb Syria." Okay? "Well, okay, I won't bomb Syria. That's no problem." I mean, really.

Okay. Now, I just want you to know, the staff that I started with here, most of them are the staff that I am leaving with. They have been that good. Mary Echevarria. She has become a family – please, stand, Mari – she has become a family member of mine. Thank you. Her husband, José; her son, Martin; and her daughter, Samantha. I have watched Samantha grow from a little girl to a young lady, and a beautiful young lady that is. So, Mari, thank you for your loyalty, your friendship, and I call her my sister now. So she is a definite asset to this caucus and she will be here, and she is ready to start crying, I can see, so— Thank you, Mari; I do appreciate it.

Keontay is sitting here. She is representing Harry Readshaw because he could not be here because he knew I would talk about him. Keontay and Mari were both in the office with Rob Matzie and me, as our L.A.s. (legislative assistants). Love you, Keontay. You are absolutely a wonderful person, knowledgeable, and a true friend, and she is into politics now. So God bless you. She is the best. Thank you.

Now, we are going to shift back to the west side of the State. Unfortunately, my chief of staff, she left just a few months ago and it was health issues, Polly Grimpe. She did a wonderful job for me, and unfortunately, I wish her well and I wish her success in the future in what she does, and I hope her health improves to a point where she can enjoy life because she deserves it. She has had many health problems throughout – a young lady, too – she has had many health problems throughout the time she has worked with me, but she always came to work and did her best and I appreciate that. Thank you.

And then the delegation. My delegation members, they have been fantastic, and when I say "delegation," I mean Republican/Democrat. I took the title from the Democratic delegation to just Allegheny County delegation, because we all represent Allegheny County. And when we did things, it was both sides and both Houses. Everyone was invited – the Senators from Allegheny County, the Representatives from Allegheny County – because if you are going to get things done, you need to do it together and work together, and I want to thank all the members.

I especially want to thank our delegation executive director, Anita Boehm. Anita has, since I took over the delegation, she has worked with me – for 10 years she has been here, and I thought it was best to move the delegation and I talked to the leader. Allegheny County and Philadelphia are kind of unique. Your delegation executive director, it does not make sense to me for them to be posted up here when all our stuff is there. Others have multiple counties and I can understand that, but here it works fantastically. The people that needed to travel up here before no longer need to travel. We had many meetings, as the leader can attest to, in Allegheny County. Anita has been one of the rocks of the ideas of the things that we have been able to do there and the success that we have had there, and she has been one of my strongest supporters and now, again, one of my best friends; another little sister. So again, I want to thank Anita for all her work, everything she has done to move this delegation forward and to move the cause of our caucus and our legislation and the people in our district, just like – I am not sure who said it, but you wonder when you are leaving, if they say "Is Anita going to be okay? Is Polly going to be okay?" you wonder whom they were really voting for when you went out and got the vote. It is our staff, because they do, they make us look good. And I cannot tell you, you know, if you get that feeling as a parent when you go out with your children or somebody says, "Oh, I met your son. He is such a nice young person," when you hear that about your staff, it gives you that same feeling that you hear about your children, when they say your children are such great people, so—

And I will be closing here. I guess one of the most – you save the best for last, and the best is my family. A lot of people know that I was a police officer but did not know my wife was a police officer. I met her on the job and we became one. She has been my strongest supporter. She does not like politics and sometimes it is good not to take her places because she is going to say what she believes and it is not always good. So we bite our tongues sometimes, but she is a wonderful lady. She is the mother of my son. She has endured a lot with me, and when I say "a lot," it is scary when you go to your door at night and you see the silhouette of two police officers and your husband is a police officer, and they are there to tell you that he has been shot. So it is shell-shocking to her, but she has been there with me. She has been there with me for all the ups and downs, and believe me, you know, I was not the average police officer. I seemed to, you know, be pretty active and get into things. They used to say they wanted me around on rainy days because rainy days were your slow days and they knew I would find something. So I want to thank Darlene for being there. I am sorry she could not be here, but my three children are all working, and the two puppies, Bennie and Maverick, the Speaker would not let me bring them up here and sit them here, so she is there with them, because we cannot trust them. The house would be gone by the time we would get home. And I want to thank her for her continued support of me and her love. It means the world to me.

And the most precious commodity that I have are my three children. My two daughters: one is in San Francisco with her husband, Tom Delaney, Tina Costa Delaney and her husband, Tom; and my daughter, Julie, Julie Costa-Malcolm, and her husband, Devin, and my two grandsons, Quinn and Liam. They live in the Johnstown area, and unfortunately, my daughter's health is not good right now but, you know, she is there. And then my son – the light of my life – he kept me young. He was to a different marriage, but they are brothers and sisters. There is none of this half-brothers, half-sisters; I do not buy that. And he keeps me on my toes. He is 28 years old and he keeps me in touch with reality, you know.

So again, now I am going to tell you that is – I love them, you know, and I wish them the best – but I am going to tell you one funny cop story that everybody likes to hear and I think you will enjoy this one. Do you know cops and donuts? Okay? Well, in the old days, believe it or not – when I say "old days," I say '78, '79, '80 – there were no ampm's, there were no GetGo's where we could stop and get a coffee. The only thing open 24 hours a day were donut shops. So that is where you got your coffee, and it was tough for me because I did not like coffee for a long time. Now I love it. So one night I started my patrol, and we all meet at a donut shop. I am not going to say what donut shop, because I do not want to promote anybody. But so I am on Route 30 and I am sure Mike and Frank are, you know, people from there, and there was a drive-in theater in the township I worked in. We would all meet and have coffee and then go to our respective municipalities.

So one of my things was I would go up into the drive-in, there were like five or six drive-ins out there and I would chase the lovers out so they are gone and everybody is safe, and then I would come down and there was a steep hill coming down and I could look right at the donut shop. So I am prewriting citations, so if I write somebody a ticket, I do not keep them waiting. And law enforcement guys know you are not – your head is not down, up, down, up watching the person and so you do not get hurt. So I am prewriting them and I look and I see two men come around the corner in this shopping center and it is about 1:15 in the morning and I am thinking, where are they at, walking on Route 30 with no car, in a big shopping center? So I see them look around and then the next thing I know they pull ski masks over their heads. They go into the donut shop and I see them ordering everybody in the back. So I call on the radio, tell the guys that the place is being – "Look for the car on the east side of the shopping center, but stay over there." So I roll my patrol car down on the side with the lights out and I use the emergency brake and I get out with the shotgun and I am watching them. So during this time they fire a shot through the ceiling of the donut shop, and I am telling the guy, "Stay there. Stay there. He fired into the ceiling." I said, "I'll wait for them to get out because we don't want a hostage situation. Once they come your way, I'll let you know and I'll prevent them from going back into the donut shop."

Well, they came out, made a sharp left, ran toward the police cars, the awaiting police cars, which they were unaware of. As soon as they hit the corner, they do a stop, do a 180, start back my way. I rack the shotgun just for the sound effect, because there is nothing more frightening than a shotgun being racked and aimed at you, and I asked them politely to get down on the ground – not in those words. So they both went down on the ground. Now, as our two district attorneys know, you do not transport them together because they would get a story together. So we bring two patrol cars around and we are putting one in one and one in the other. One looks at the other one and he says to him, "I told you not to rob – we don't rob no blankety-blank donut shop. They're always here." And when we went to court, the judge enjoyed that so much that he made me repeat it three times. So the myth of donuts was out there long before today.

And again, I want to thank you for the honor of allowing me to serve with you and, most of all, for your friendship, and I thank you. God bless all of you. May God keep you, your families safe in the future and your friends.

Mr. Speaker, I thank you very much for the opportunity. God bless you. Thank you.

The SPEAKER. Just as he was as a police officer – look, you did not become chief of police of the city of Pittsburgh without being a police officer who was going the extra mile all the time. We all knew that, Dom. Everybody who was a D.A. knew that. You were one of the most tenacious and thoughtful and well-prepared detectives, and guess what? When we come here and see you as a State legislator, you are the same way. You are so well prepared. You always know the issues you are talking about. You bring worldly life experience to the issues at hand, and you are so evenhanded, Chief and Representative. You are so evenhanded, and you have so many great friends across the Commonwealth and on both sides of the aisle.

We may try your suggestion next Monday. What do you think? I do not know if we can switch it that quick to go Republican, Democrat, Republican, Democrat, but maybe we will end it on that note.

Representative Dom Costa, thank you so much for your service to the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and to the folks in your district.

(Commemorative gavel was presented.)

The SPEAKER. The Allegheny County delegation, if you will join Representative Costa up on the rostrum, please. Any members from the Allegheny County delegation – Representative English, Representative Maher, Representative Mustio – if you would want to come up.

Representative Mustio, I think you are being requested.
Representative Maher.

The Sergeants at Arms will open the doors of the House.

LEAVES OF ABSENCE

The SPEAKER. Representative MICCARELLI has requested to be placed on leave. Without objection, that will be granted.

Representative KIRKLAND has requested to be placed on leave. Without objection, that will be granted.

The majority having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative and the resolutions were adopted.

The SPEAKER. At this time I am going to ask members to please take their seats.

Representative Warren Kampf, you can come up to the rostrum or you can go to the front podium, your choice. He is going to speak on HR 1135, and Representative Kampf has some guests with him here today. Representative Duane Milne is joining him at the podium. I am going to ask everybody to please take their seats. We have guests that have traveled far to be here with Representative Kampf. Please take your seats. Please take your seats. Members, please take your seats. Please. We have guests that have traveled far.

Members, in the back, if you need to step off the floor, I understand, but we do have guests here and I am going to have everybody seated on the floor. If you have to step off the floor, Sergeants at Arms, just have the members step off the floor. For the conversations in the back, if you could please take them off the floor.

STATEMENT BY MR. KAMPF

The SPEAKER. Representative Kampf, the floor is yours, sir. Please introduce your guests as part of your remarks. Thank you.

Mr. KAMPF. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Colleagues, ladies and gentlemen, this is a great occasion. It is sort of a fun and, perhaps, unknown-to-some-of-you fact about our great State, and that is that between noon and 2 o'clock every Thanksgiving Day on NBC, a Pennsylvania institution, the National Dog Show, is televised. I do not know if you remember J. Peterman, from Seinfeld, Elaine's boss. Mr. O'Hurley is his given name. He is one of the two announcers and has been for 17 years. The National Dog Show is put on in mid-November every year in Oaks, Pennsylvania, which happens to be in the 157th District, so that is why this resolution is in my name.

We do have Representative Milne's constituents, two special guests here, Steve and Cynthia Sansone. If you would both stand for us. Steve and Cynthia are both members of the Philadelphia Kennel Club, which is the entity that puts on this awesome National Dog Show. Something like 15,000 people visit it in those 2 days. I believe there are over 2,000 dogs that are in the show, and it is a benched show, which means that the owners have to remain on-site in Oaks with their dogs so that spectators can come and see them throughout the day, whether they are performing or not.

Twenty-five million people watch this show between Macy's and football on Thanksgiving Day. It is really just a wonderful institution of our State, and it dates back in various forms, I think something like 130 years. The Kennel Club of Philadelphia, I believe, was putting on shows as far back as one of the centennial celebrations of our nation held in Philadelphia in the 1870s.

So it is a tremendous thing, it is a national spotlight for all of us, and I am glad that the Sansones are here. Mr. Sansone is the vendor chair for the event and he is also on the board of the Philadelphia Kennel Club, and Mrs. Sansone is a member of the Kennel Club.

So thanks, everyone, for voting for that excellent resolution, and if I can, Mr. Speaker, I would like to turn this over to Representative Milne.

Thank you very much.

The SPEAKER. Yes, sir.

STATEMENT BY MR. MILNE

The SPEAKER. Representative Milne, the floor is yours, sir.

Mr. MILNE. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

My colleague from the 157th well summarized the resolution and the purpose of it, and we certainly appreciate your unanimous support of the resolution. I would just want to quickly add a word of welcome to my constituents, Steve and Cynthia Sansone. I am delighted to be able to welcome them to our chamber here and, as I joked with them, to our "office," and they were most impressed with the office that we get to work in every day.

I would just quickly note that I was never surprised to learn of Steve and Cynthia's involvement with the National Dog Show. They are both very accomplished equestrians and have contributed much to equestrian activities and the equestrian sector, both in Chester County as well as across the State. They also are wonderful patrons and supporters of arts and culture, and I know they were quite mesmerized when they saw this beautiful chamber that we were in and we took a look around at the wonderful decor here. I know that from their art appreciation perspective, it really made quite an impression on them. They have done much to contribute to open space and good development in our area, which is very, very important and, actually, part of what the equestrian community does in Chester County is raise proceeds to help good, open-space preservation efforts in Chester County. So I am delighted to be able to welcome them here to the Capitol.

In closing, I would just note one additional title of Mr. Sansone is that he has the title of chairman. He is chairman of the Willistown Township Republican Party, which also happens to be my home township. So besides being a constituent, he and I are both township residents of good old Willistown, and in that capacity as well, I am certainly delighted to be able to continue to work with both of them.

So thank you for the warm welcome that you have extended to my constituents.

Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. Thank you, Representative Milne.

And Representative Kampf.

Mr. KAMPF. Mr. Speaker, I did indicate to our guests I would mention five other guests who could not make it today. They are the Sansones' five giant schnauzers: Baccus, Mimi, Louie, Prada, and Bella. Baccus, Mimi, Louie, Prada, and Bella.

Thank you very much, members.

The SPEAKER. Thank you.

To Steve Sansone and his wife, Cynthia Macaleer Sansone, the Kennel Club of Philadelphia is such an outstanding institution in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. We are so honored to have you here today. Thank you very, very much, and we are going to have you come up and take some photos with us, if that is okay. Thank you.

LEAVE OF ABSENCE CANCELED

The SPEAKER. Representative Irvin is on the House floor and should be placed on the master roll.

LEAVE OF ABSENCE

The SPEAKER. Representative McNEILL has requested to be placed on leave. Without objection, that will be granted.

CALENDAR

BILLS ON SECOND CONSIDERATION

The House proceeded to second consideration of HB 2557, PN 4196, entitled:

An act establishing intergovernmental cooperation authorities for certain cities of the third class; providing for powers and duties; and making an appropriation.

On the question,
Will the House agree to the bill on second consideration?

The SPEAKER. HB 2557, PN 4196, creates an intergovernmental cooperation authority for certain cities of the third class; providing for powers and duties. My understanding is it maintains certain tax revenues that had been enabled under Act 47 and there is an expiration for that and also has a prohibition with respect to a commuter tax. I think I am summarizing that correctly.

There were four amendments filed by Representative Todd Stephens, and my understanding is all four of those have been withdrawn. Is that accurate, Representative Stephens?

So Representative Todd Stephens' four amendments have been withdrawn. I do not see any other amendments. I do not see any other amendments.

On the question recurring,
Will the House agree to the bill on second consideration?
Bill was agreed to.

The House proceeded to second consideration of SB 780, PN 1997, entitled:

An Act relating to telemedicine; authorizing the regulation of telemedicine by professional licensing boards; and providing for insurance coverage of telemedicine.

On the question,
Will the House agree to the bill on second consideration?

The SPEAKER. Now, I understand certain amendments are being withdrawn – certain, not all – certain members, and this includes – and then we are going to be calling up 9860, Representative Tobash's amendment. Are any amendments being withdrawn, and I am going to call out these: 9500— I will call up Representative Tobash's amendment, 9860, and Representative Tobash, you can tell me which amendments are being withdrawn, given that your amendment is being offered.

On the question recurring,
Will the House agree to the bill on second consideration?

Mr. TOBASH offered the following amendment No. A09860:

Amend Bill, page 12, lines 18 through 22, by striking out "telemedicine if the health insurer" in line 18, all of lines 19 through 21 and "~~shall apply to a telemedicine encounter.~~" in line 22 and inserting both in-person and telemedicine services in accordance with the terms and conditions of the network participation agreement between the insurer and the participating provider.

Amend Bill, page 12, lines 23 and 24, by striking out "OR PROPRIETARY TELEMEDICINE TECHNOLOGY OR" and inserting telemedicine platform or telemedicine

On the question,
Will the House agree to the amendment?

The SPEAKER. On the amendment, Representative Tobash. Mr. TOBASH. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

I am offering amendment 9860 in an effort to make sure that we can continue to have cost containment and quality control, as we start to roll out additional opportunities for advanced health care in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. It is my understanding that it is an agreed-to amendment, and I would ask my colleagues to vote in the affirmative.

Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. Yes.

Representative Mark Mustio, on the amendment.

Mr. MUSTIO. Yes, Mr. Speaker, the maker of the amendment is correct. This is an agreed-to amendment.

On the question recurring,
Will the House agree to the amendment?

The following roll call was recorded:

The majority having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative and the amendment was agreed to.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on second consideration as amended?

The SPEAKER. Representative Tobash, if I might, you have seven other amendments. Are you withdrawing those?

Mr. TOBASH. Yes, Mr. Speaker. Now that we have voted in the affirmative on 9860, I would like to withdraw all the additional amendments. Thank you.

The SPEAKER. So amendment 9553 is withdrawn, amendment 9554 is withdrawn, amendment 9469 is withdrawn, amendment 9479 is withdrawn, amendment 9664 is withdrawn, amendment 9665 is withdrawn, amendment 9666 is withdrawn.

Let me just cover a few other amendments here. Representative Donatucci, are you still offering your amendments? Representative Donatucci? They are all waived off? Okay. So amendment 9505 is withdrawn, amendment 9506 is withdrawn, amendment 9507 is withdrawn.

Representative Jordan Harris. Sir, you have three amendments: 9495, 9496, 9497. All withdrawn, sir? Those three amendments are withdrawn.

Representative McClinton. Representative McClinton has amendments 9498, 9499, and 9502. Are they all withdrawn? If they are not, that is okay. I just need to know what is left. None of them are withdrawn?

Representative McClinton.

Ms. McCLINTON. Mr. Speaker, they are not withdrawn.

The SPEAKER. Okay. I will be calling on you shortly. I am just trying to see what is left.

Representative Maher, not withdrawn.

Representative Christiana's, I know, are not withdrawn.

Representative Sims has 9508. Withdrawn? That is withdrawn; 9508 is withdrawn.

Representative Mustio's amendments, 9643 and 9644; 9643 and 9644? Okay.

Then I know Representative Rapp has amendment 9481.

So what we have, the Tobash amendment, 9860 has been voted in.

The amendments remaining are 9500, Representative Christiana; Representative Maher's 9478; Representative McClinton's 9498; Representative McClinton's 9499; Representative McClinton's 9502; Representative Rapp's 9481; Representative Christiana's 9509; Representative Mustio's 9643; and Representative Mustio's 9644.

BILL PASSED OVER TEMPORARILY

The SPEAKER. We are going to go over SB 780 at this time.

At this time we are going to ask the Appropriations Committee to make an announcement, the vice chair.

Representative George Dunbar, for a committee announcement.

The Appropriations Committee has to meet on third consideration bills. Once they vote them out, we are going to come back and vote them on the floor. So we are going to be at ease at this time, after this announcement.

APPROPRIATIONS COMMITTEE MEETING

The SPEAKER. Representative Dunbar.

Mr. DUNBAR. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

There will be an immediate meeting of the Appropriations Committee in the majority caucus room. That is Appropriations in the majority caucus room. Thank you.

The SPEAKER. So members of the Appropriations Committee should proceed directly to the majority caucus room. There are a number of third consideration bills that need to be moved, and then we will be at ease until the Appropriations Committee comes back.

While the Appropriations Committee is meeting, we are going to have members who want to speak on resolutions called up at this time.

So we are back in order.

STATEMENT BY MR. NELSON

The SPEAKER. Representative Eric Nelson is going to speak on HR 1148, and Representative Oberlander will be called up to speak on HR 1119.

Mr. NELSON. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Today I rise to thank my colleagues for their support in recognizing 2018 as the 100-year anniversary of women serving in the United States Marine Corps. Be it the mystery of Lucy Brewer, a possible Marine Corps sniper who may have served on the U.S. Constitution in the 1800s, or Opha May Johnson, the first official woman who joined our corps in 1918 for service during World War I, women Marines have served this country with bravery and distinction, determined to do their part to protect our freedoms. Initially they were called WMs, Women Marines. Today they are jarheads just like the rest of us. I say that, Mr. Speaker, not because it is harder for women to complete the same tasks as all other Marines, but because they had to fight for the same right to do it, and once they were given that opportunity, I am confident there were occasions when they were met with opposition because of their gender.

But, Mr. Speaker, bias changes through sacrifice and the blood stripe we wear on our uniforms shares the same ultimate sacrifice for flag and country. Sgt. Jeannette Winters was the first woman Marine killed in a hostile fire zone, and Maj. Megan McClung was the first female Marine officer to lose her life in the Al Anbar Province of Iraq. The fact is, Mr. Speaker, their commitment to our Marine Corps is equally great, and they have fought hard to be a proud part of it. Mr. Speaker, a Marine's job is to take: we take ground, we take lives, and we take fire in order to accomplish our mission. Today our sister Marines are doing that all over the globe.

During our Civil War women dressed as men in order to fight. Today we recognize female Marines have the equal ability to kill or die for our great nation. Thankfully, over time, more and more people realize women in the military possess equal depth of skills and knowledge to rage ferocious war on our enemies and provide selfless compassion for the lives they have been sent to protect.

Mr. Speaker, I have had the pleasure to serve overseas with women Marines in multiple countries and it has brought me great pride. When I think of a hard-core, tough, smart woman Marine, I immediately think of Gunnery Sergeant Lingle. Ours was one of the first American units to occupy ground in Albania during the Kosovo Conflict a number of years back. In a country where women were like possessions, where they could not even walk alone without a man being beside them, Gunnery Sergeant Lingle ripped and roared our unit into shape and dispensed us as necessary. Despite the initial stammer and perplexity of our Albanian Imperial Police soldiers, the mirrors who were assigned to us, they, too, quickly realized that Gunny Lingle was no one to mess with and she earned their respect. I am proud to have served with great women Marines like Lingle, Miller, Fortune, Flora, and many others, and I am confident our country and the United States Marine Corps shall continue to be a premier fighting force with men and women equally protecting our flag.

In conclusion, Mr. Speaker, I offer my sincere thanks and appreciation for the women Marines who have served over these past 100 years to protect this country, its people and its ideals. That is no small feat. I also thank my colleagues in the House for recognizing the service of women in our Marine Corps.

Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

STATEMENT BY MS. OBERLANDER

The SPEAKER. Representative Donna Oberlander, on HR 1119.

Ms. OBERLANDER. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

I rise on behalf of HR 1119, and this resolution designates the week of November 11 through November 17 as "Diabetes and Cardiovascular Disease Awareness Week" in Pennsylvania. I rise because this is an important issue where 1.4 million Pennsylvanians have diabetes. An additional 3.5 million

Pennsylvanians have prediabetes, and Type 2 diabetes is the most common type of diabetes. They also have a two to four times greater risk of developing cardiovascular disease. Whereas, cardiovascular disease accounts for 68 percent of deaths in individuals with Type 2 diabetes. Findings from a recent study revealed that 52 percent of adults living with Type 2 do not realize they are at additional risk of getting cardiovascular disease. So this resolution seeks to help promote awareness, education, and action to let people know about the link in these two diseases and the increase in the rate of death.

I wish to thank all of my colleagues for their unanimous support of this important resolution.

Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

STATEMENT BY MRS. WATSON

The SPEAKER. Representative Kathy Watson, on unanimous consent.

Mrs. WATSON. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

I just want to thank you, the members of the House, for a vote that you made a little while ago. It was on a bill that I had sponsored, the Kinship Navigator Program, that would give grandparents one place to go to get the appropriate information for them because they are taking care of their grandchildren, perhaps as a result of their children's inability to care for them due to the opioid crisis, alcoholism, whatever the issue might be. At the same time, the Federal government was catching on that children of those who are afflicted are the real victims in this crisis and grandparents really are the saviors to come and keep that family together. So they have put forth money, and remember we said we would not do a new program unless we could try to figure out a way to pay for it. Thank you, ladies and gentlemen, the Department of Human Services applied to the Federal government and received a grant for almost $500,000 to get that Kinship Navigator Program started. Very, very important.

Of course, we need the Senate to pass the bill next week, so if you have got a Senator that is a good friend of yours, you might tell him, please make sure they do it, because we now have the money for that program to start. Mr. Speaker, I know that is unusual in Harrisburg, but in fact, we actually found the funding to start the program that will help our grandparents across Pennsylvania who save us billions of dollars by taking over the responsibility of raising their grandchildren.

Thank you for the opportunity to speak, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. Thank you, Representative Watson.

SUPPLEMENTAL CALENDAR A

BILLS ON THIRD CONSIDERATION

BILL PASSED OVER TEMPORARILY

The SPEAKER. We are going to need a motion to proceed on HB 270 in just a moment, if anybody wants to make it, but right now we are going to go to the bills that are timely. The bill will be passed over temporarily.

The House proceeded to third consideration of SB 1078, PN 1560, entitled:

An Act amending Title 65 (Public Officers) of the Pennsylvania Consolidated Statutes, in open meetings, further providing for executive sessions.

On the question,
Will the House agree to the bill on third consideration?
Bill was agreed to.

(Bill analysis was read.)

The SPEAKER. This bill has been considered on three different days and agreed to and is now on final passage.

The question is, shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeable to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays will now be taken.

The following roll call was recorded:

VOTE STRICKEN

The SPEAKER. Representative Dush, for what— We will strike the vote.

Representative Dush, for what purpose do you rise?
Strike the vote.

Go ahead, Representative Dush. Go ahead.
For what purpose do you rise, sir?

Mr. DUSH. Mr. Speaker, I am just noting that on our calendar it says 4:02 is the time limit for this and we would have to have a motion.

The SPEAKER. The Parliamentarian and the Mace both say that is not true for SB 888.

Mr. DUSH. That is fine. It is just that it is different on the clock. That is the only reason I raise it. On our calendar, the electronic calendar says 4:02.

The SPEAKER. Both the Parliamentarian and the Mace say that that is not the case, but we will check. Let me double-check.

Lori Hoffman, will you double-check for that, and Jordan.
No, there was no amendment. The bill was not amended.
Yes, Representative Dush, the bill was not amended.

Sir, whatever change you are seeing is from September 21. That was from September 21. That is not an amendment that occurred yesterday. That was on September 21.

Okay. No problem.

The SPEAKER. We have three bills that we cannot vote on without a motion to proceed: HB 270, PN 4210; HB 2638, PN 4211; and SB 748, PN 2095. Respectively, it would be 12:07 p.m., 12:48 p.m., and 12:49 p.m.

MOTION TO PROCEED TO CONSIDERATION UNDER RULE 24

The SPEAKER. The Chair calls upon the majority leader with respect to a motion with respect to those bills: HB 270, HB 2638, and SB 748.

You may proceed.

Mr. REED. Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker.

I make a motion to proceed to the immediate consideration of HB 270, HB 2638, and SB 748.

On the question,
Will the House agree to the motion?

The SPEAKER. Representative Dermody, minority leader, on the motion.

Mr. DERMODY. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

I would also urge the members to support the motion to proceed.

On the question recurring,
Will the House agree to the motion?

A majority of the members required by the rules having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative and the motion was agreed to.

The SPEAKER. We are going to now take up those particular bills.

BILL ON THIRD CONSIDERATION

The House proceeded to third consideration of HB 270, PN 4210, entitled:

An Act amending the act of August 26, 1971 (P.L.351, No.91), known as the State Lottery Law, in pharmaceutical assistance for the elderly, further providing for definitions, providing for medication synchronization, further providing for the Pharmaceutical Assistance Contract for the Elderly Needs Enhancement Tier and for board, providing for medication therapy management and further providing for coordination of benefits.

On the question,
Will the House agree to the bill on third consideration?
Bill was agreed to.

(Bill analysis was read.)

The SPEAKER. This bill has been considered on three different days and agreed to and is now on final passage.
The question is, shall the bill pass finally?

Representative Markosek, on the bill.

Mr. MARKOSEK. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. Speaker, I rise today and I guess this is more under the auspices of the fact that I am the Appropriations chairman and I thought it my duty to say something about this. This bill raises the income level for the PACE (Pharmaceutical Assistance Contract for the Elderly) and PACENET (Pharmaceutical Assistance Contract for the Elderly Needs Enhancement Tier) program, which is a very good thing. I am going to vote for it. It is something we all know and many of our constituents have used. It is very beneficial. But I would not be doing my job if I did not at least remind members – and this is more for future use, I guess – that there is a cost, there is a cost to adding these kinds of benefits to this program. And the lottery is very precious, as we all know. The programs that the lottery funds are programs that I do not think anybody in this chamber would ever want to cut. So we would either have to – if the lottery is not healthy and if we spend more than what we bring in, there could come a day for all of you to be faced with either cutting some of these programs or taking the money out of the General Fund, which puts pressure, more pressure on our always highly pressured General Fund negotiations.

So I am going to vote for this. I would ask all of you to vote for it. It is something good. It is something our constituents actually use and many of them need it and depend on it, but there is a cost to everything we do here and this is a good example of that. Thank you.

The SPEAKER. Representative Steve Samuelson, on the bill, please.

Mr. SAMUELSON. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

I rise in enthusiastic support for this legislation, which I have introduced with Representative Frank Farry of Bucks County, and I want to commend Representative Farry for his efforts. We have been working on this for 3 years, and when you think about it, the increase in the PACENET program that is included in this bill, that represents the first increase we have had in this program, the first increase in the income limits in 15 years. You may remember the last time these income limits went up was January 2004, and the cost of living all across Pennsylvania for our senior citizens has gone up significantly since January 2004. Representative Farry and I tried a more robust increase. We got that bill passed the House last session, but it stalled over in the Senate.

Today, at this time, we are proposing a $4,000 increase, so the income limit for a single person would go up from $23,500 to $27,500, and for a married couple it would go up from $31,500 to $35,500. I believe we have to revisit this issue next year and raise the income limits even further, but in working with the Senate and working with the administration, we believe this $4,000 increase is what we can achieve at this time.

There is a cost. I know the previous speaker talked about the cost. There is a cost to our senior citizens if we do not act, and as the costs of prescriptions rise and people are looking for ways to pay for their prescriptions, it is long overdue for us to address this issue and to raise the income limits for our senior citizens.

If you look at the fiscal analysis of this bill, there are an estimated 14,400 senior citizens who will now be eligible for the PACENET program thanks to the increase that is included in this bill. So I would like to thank a unanimous vote in our House Aging Committee, I would like to thank each one of 43 cosponsors, and I would like to thank, once again, Representative Farry for his efforts. Let us approve this increase today, let us send it to the Senate, and then let us revisit this next year to raise the income limit even further.

Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. Representative Farry, do you wish to—

On the question recurring,
Shall the bill pass finally?

The SPEAKER. Agreeable to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays will now be taken.

(Members proceeded to vote.)

LEAVE OF ABSENCE

The SPEAKER. Representative DAVIDSON has requested to be placed on leave. Without objection, that will be granted.
