LEGISLATIVE JOURNAL

TUESDAY, MARCH 12, 2019

SESSION OF 2019

203D OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY

No. 14

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

The House convened at 11 a.m., e.d.t.

THE SPEAKER (MIKE TURZAI) PRESIDING

PRAYER

HON. DAN K. WILLIAMS, member of the House of Representatives, offered the following prayer:

Let us pray.

God our Father, we honor You this morning and say thank You. Thank You for the grace gifts of mercy, generosity, faithfulness. Thank You, Lord, for the ways in which You have enabled us to be participants in this process. Today, Father, we ask You only for that which You are so willing to give. The wisdom we require, we ask that You supply it; the strength to sustain us, we ask that You would give it. And today, Lord, we ask that You would forgive us for careless words, mixed motivations. Forgive us sometimes, Lord, for loving things and using people; remind us to love people, to use things.

We pray, God, not just as members of this House, but we pray as members of families, as husbands, as wives, fathers, mothers, sons, and daughters. And we pray, God, that somehow Your strength would be made perfect in our weakness. Bless as we make decisions, Lord, that would move and transform the lives of constituents. Hear the concerns that spring from our own hearts as well. And now, Lord, let the words of my mouth, the meditations of my heart be acceptable in Your sight. Lord, You are our strength. You are our redeemer.

We pray it in the name of Christ. Amen.

PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE

(The Pledge of Allegiance was recited by members and visitors.)

The SPEAKER. There are 195 votes on the House floor. We have a quorum.

All members, please take your seats. We have a special guest to introduce today. The Sergeants at Arms will close the doors of the House. If any members who are in anterooms wish to come in, let them in, but I am going to ask everybody to please take their seats.

GUEST INTRODUCED

The SPEAKER. Located to the left of the rostrum, the Chair welcomes a member of the Irish Parliament, the Honorable Pearse Daniel Doherty, who is the guest of Representative Kevin Boyle. Thank you so much for being with us; how fitting as we approach St. Patrick's Day here in the United States.

Representative Doherty was born in Glasgow, Scotland, but his family returned to native Ireland when he was 3 years old. The Honorable Representative has represented the Donegal constituency in the Irish Parliament since the 2016 general election, and he previously sat as a member of Parliament for Donegal South-West from 2010 to 2016, and was a Senator elected by the Agricultural Panel from 2007 to 2010.

As many of you know, the Republic of Ireland is an island in the British Isles located west of Great Britain. About four-fifths of the area of Ireland are part of the territory of the Republic of Ireland. The Republic of Ireland has a population of nearly 4.6 million people, and of course, the Irish diaspora has many of those with ancestry back in Ireland here in the United States, and in many other countries across the globe as well.

Representative, like many of the members here, on my mom's side, her parents were born in County Galway in the Connemara region; in particular, Oughterard and Maam Cross. So I am sure you have traveled that area because Donegal is not far. Such a beautiful, beautiful country, and we are so honored to have you here today as a guest of this chamber.

We often remark, I often remark that our body here goes back to 1682 when William Penn came over and established Pennsylvania as a colony, and the Provincial Assembly is our direct antecedent. Many believe that we are the oldest functioning democratic body in the New World. So welcome here today. We are so honored to have you.

Representative, if you have time, we are going to do a little bit of business, and then we would love to have you and some others up for a photo, up on the rostrum, if that is okay. Thank you.

REMARKS SUBMITTED FOR THE RECORD

Mr. DRISCOLL submitted the following remarks for the Legislative Journal:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Since this nation's founding, American citizens of Irish descent have made many significant contributions, both within the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and the United States. And did you know that when America was born the Irish were already here? Their historical contributions include military service, as many soldiers of Irish descent fought under Gen. George Washington in the Continental Army, helping to make independence a reality, and further serving in every major conflict involving the United States. The Irish led union efforts and put on display their inherent power of organizing to add quality to the land they adopted.

Today Pennsylvania hosts some of the longest running and largest St. Patrick's Day parades in the country. These include the city of Philadelphia, where the parade has taken place since 1771, and the city of Scranton, which hosts the second largest St. Patrick's Day parade in the nation.

Thank you to my colleagues for recognizing and celebrating the Pennsylvanians of Irish heritage who continue to thrive and excel in many spheres of human endeavor including, but not limited to, academia, business, literature, science, and politics. As of 2017, 10.1-percent of the U.S. population claims Irish ancestry. Regardless of your ethnicity or heritage, all Pennsylvanians are urged to be Irish for the day in celebration of St. Patrick's Day, which is observed annually on the date of March 17. We hope that our colleagues and neighbors will join us in one of the many parades and events taking place across the State in 2019.

"May the road rise up to meet you. May the wind be always at your back. May the sun shine warm upon your face."

Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

GUESTS INTRODUCED

The SPEAKER. In the well of the House, we welcome guest pages Justin Rockey and Summer Clutter. They are the guests of Representative Delozier and Representative Rothman. Please stand. Great to have you here today.

Matthew Garman, please stand. He is the guest of Representative Frank Ryan. Great to have you here today. Thank you.

In the rear of the House, Representative Dan Moul has two guests. Will you please stand. They are Kyle Daugherty and Anthony Leonard. Please stand. I think they are in the back. Oh, there they are. Right there. Thank you so much.

CALENDARBILLS ON SECOND CONSIDERATION*BILL PASSED OVER

The SPEAKER. We are over on HB 309, PN 289. That is over for today.

The House proceeded to second consideration of HB 235, PN 205, entitled:

An Act amending Title 23 (Domestic Relations) of the Pennsylvania Consolidated Statutes, in petition for adoption, further providing for consents necessary to adoption.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on second consideration?

Ms. TOOHIL offered the following amendment No. A00145:

Amend Bill, page 1, by inserting between lines 17 and 18

(3) In lieu of two witnesses a consent may be acknowledged before a notary public.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

The SPEAKER. Representative Toohil has an amendment to her own bill. We are going to have Representative Toohil further summarize the amendment for us.

Ms. TOOHIL. Both of these amendments are agreed-to amendments, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. Representative Toohil, can you just talk to us about your amendment first. Just tell us a little bit about the amendment and what it does, and then we will get to the second amendment.

Ms. TOOHIL. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

This amendment allows a notary, which is licensed and bonded by the State of Pennsylvania, to serve as a witness. There are issues in correctional facilities where it is very hard for an inmate who is trying to voluntarily sign a consent to an adoption, it is very hard for them to find two witnesses that are disinterested parties.

This amendment was worked on extensively after debate in Children and Youth Committee. This was worked on with the Department of Corrections, as well as the Pennsylvania Children and Youth Administrators, which is an arm of the County Commissioners Association of Pennsylvania.

The SPEAKER. Does anybody else wish to speak on the amendment?

On the question recurring,
Will the House agree to the amendment?

The majority having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative and the amendment was agreed to.

On the question,
Will the House agree to the bill on second consideration as amended?

Mr. B. MILLER offered the following amendment No. A00135:

Amend Bill, page 1, line 17, by striking out the period after "employee" and inserting designated by the correctional facility. Any consent witnessed by a correctional facility employee shall list the address of the correctional facility on the consent.

On the question,
Will the House agree to the amendment?

The SPEAKER. Representative Toohil first, on the amendment.

Ms. TOOHIL. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

This amendment was also derived from conversations and discussions that we had in the Children and Youth Committee. The Department of Corrections and their chief counsel had input on this amendment, as well as the gentleman from Lancaster County. This will allow an employee to be designated by the correctional facility. Any consent witnessed by a correctional facility employee shall list the address of the correctional facility on the consent. We are addressing, with this amendment, the privacy concerns, because a lot of correctional facility employees refuse to sign these for inmates. They are afraid of getting sued, and they also have to give up their privacy and list their home address. So here they are going to list, they will actually list only the place of work as the address, which will actually make it easier for a judge, if there is a hearing in this case, it will be easier for the judge to actually locate that witness.

I would ask for an affirmative vote on this. This is an agreed-to amendment. Thank you to the members.

The SPEAKER. Thank you.

Does anybody else wish to speak on the amendment?

BILLS ON THIRD CONSIDERATION

The House proceeded to third consideration of HB 350, PN 566, entitled:

An Act amending the act of February 24, 1984 (P.L.92, No.17), referred to as the Precious Metal Sale Regulation Law, further providing for definitions, for license required, for records of transactions, for dealer's retention of precious metal and availability for inspection, for purchases from minors and for penalty.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third consideration?

RULES SUSPENDED

The SPEAKER. Okay. Now, we have an amendment on this bill. This is third consideration, so as you all know, you cannot amend on third consideration unless there is a motion to suspend. Representative Frank Farry has an amendment, 165, so he is going to do a motion at this time to allow us to consider this amendment on third consideration.

Representative Farry, you may proceed.

Mr. FARRY. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

I make a motion for the suspension of the rules for the immediate consideration of amendment 00165. What that amendment does is it defines a "wholesale purchaser," as well as add back in the language relating to photographing of items that was stricken during an amendment on second consideration.

On the question,
Will the House agree to the motion?

The SPEAKER. On this particular motion, Representative Matzie is recognized.

Mr. MATZIE. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

A majority of the members required by the rules having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative and the motion was agreed to.

On the question recurring,
Will the House agree to the bill on third consideration?

Mr. FARRY offered the following amendment No. A00165:

Amend Bill, page 3, by inserting between lines 3 and 4
"Wholesale purchaser." A business entity that acquires precious metals only from transactions excluding the general public. This term shall not include a dealer in precious metals.

Amend Bill, page 4, by inserting between lines 2 and 3

(3) A photograph of the item, if the item purchased has any distinguishing details, including identifying marks, initials, insignias, inscriptions or other unique identifying features. The photograph shall be:

(i) taken from two different perspectives;

(ii) no less than 1:1 scale; and

(iii) of sufficient size and clarity to identify any distinguishing details.

On the question,
Will the House agree to the amendment?

The SPEAKER. My understanding is, Representative Matzie, you had filed amendment 123, but you are going to withdraw your amendment, which would have also required a motion to suspend. Is that correct, sir?

Mr. MATZIE. Yes, Mr. Speaker. Thank you.

Yes, I would be withdrawing that and not offering that but would like to have the opportunity to speak on the Farry amendment when given the opportunity. Thank you.

The SPEAKER. Yes, sir. I will definitely call on you. My understanding is that both Representative Farry and Representative Matzie worked on this amendment. So I am going to turn it over to Representative Farry on amendment 165.

Mr. FARRY. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

There were some concerns from some of our fellow Representatives regarding wholesale purchasers and their exemption from this bill. What this amendment does is it adds clarifying language to further assert that wholesale purchasers are exempted, as well as, I mentioned previously, it adds back in the photograph requirement for unique items. That language was in the original drafting of the bill. It was in the bill that passed this body the last two sessions, and through working with our colleagues and the various stakeholders, it was decided to add that language back in. This language is supported by the State F.O.P. (Fraternal Order of Police) as well as the District Attorneys Association.

It is an agreed-to amendment and I would request an affirmative vote.

The SPEAKER. Representative Matzie, on the amendment.

Mr. MATZIE. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

And I thank the gentleman from Bucks and also the prime sponsor and the gentleman who offered the previous amendment for agreeing to this amendment. When we had this bill on second, I had spoken against the measure relative to the amendment that was offered, and basically, at that particular time I asked the chamber to consider voting, you were either going to vote for Grandma or you were voting for the wholesalers. Well, today you are voting for Grandma. I appreciate that support. We were able to work something out. Grandma will be happy, and at the end of the day, that is what this is really all about. This is a good consumer bill and it is about supporting a measure that this chamber has vetted over the course of the last two sessions.

So I would appreciate an affirmative vote, and again, I thank the gentleman from Bucks.

The SPEAKER. Representative Rigby, on the amendment to your bill.

Mr. RIGBY. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

I appreciate all the work and discussions that helped make this— Oh, this is agreed to. I am sorry.

The SPEAKER. Okay. Thank you, sir.
