SESSION OF 2019

203D OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY

No. 34

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

The House convened at 1 p.m., e.d.t.

THE SPEAKER (MIKE TURZAI) PRESIDING

PRAYER

HON. ANITA ASTORINO KULIK, member of the House of Representatives, offered the following prayer:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

And I would ask that you please join me in prayer or in a moment of silent reflection.

Father, today we gather to begin our week's work. We gather as brothers and sisters; all different, yet all the same. Endow us with Your wisdom and grace, and help us understand the importance of our roles as representatives of the people of this Commonwealth. Help us understand that we are the stewards of all Your creations. Help us understand that our role includes the responsibility to protect all that You created. Help us remember that we must protect the people we represent, especially those that are the most vulnerable; that we must protect the land on which we live, the land that nourishes us and supports us and that nourishes and supports all of the forms of life that You created; that we must protect the air we breathe and the waters that sustain our lives.

Father, You have given us great responsibilities. Grant us the wisdom to see these responsibilities are, like all else, gifts from You. Give us the wisdom to see that serving You and serving the people of this Commonwealth is our responsibility, is our purpose, and that being part of Your great plan is a blessing that we must accept and honor.

We ask this in Your name. Amen.

PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE

(The Pledge of Allegiance was recited by members and visitors.)

JOURNAL APPROVAL POSTPONED

COMMUNICATIONS FROM INDEPENDENT FISCAL OFFICE

The SPEAKER. The Speaker acknowledges receipt of two letters from the Independent Fiscal Office and they are regarding requests for actuarial notes. One is for amendment 1232 to HB 615, PN 610, and the other is for amendment 1239 to HB 615, PN 610.

The SPEAKER. The Speaker also acknowledges that we have received a letter from the Independent Fiscal Office regarding a request for an actuarial note for HB 615, PN 1784.

(Copies of communications are on file with the Journal clerk.)

ANNOUNCEMENT BY SPEAKER

The SPEAKER. I would just advise that those that requested actuarial notes for PN 610, that there is a new printer's number, 1784. So if you want an actuarial note for HB 615, I would double-check to make sure that you are asking for the actuarial note to the right printer's number for that bill. So it is HB 615 – just reading my notes here, and you can check this on your screens – I think that the most up-to-date printer's number is 1784.

COMMUNICATION FROM UNIVERSITY OF PITTSBURGH

The SPEAKER. The Speaker acknowledges receipt of Federal Form 990 for the year-ended June 30, 2018, from the University of Pittsburgh. The SPEAKER. There are 198 members who have voted on the master roll. We have a quorum.

Representative Dush, if you will just be waiting in the wings, you will be next. You also have a State champion to present to. So we are going to begin with Representative Owlett, then we are going to go to Representative Dush. If you could bring both State champions up to the side here.

Members, please come onto the House floor. We are going to close the doors of the House. Once everybody is seated – guests, staff, members – we will begin the presentation. Thank you so much.

SHELDON SEYMOUR PRESENTED

The SPEAKER. Representative Owlett, along with Representative Pickett, for a State champion presentation.

Mr. OWLETT. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Today I am joined with Sheldon Seymour, an extremely talented wrestler from Troy High School in Bradford County, Pennsylvania. Sheldon shows unwavering commitment to his sport and started setting goals for himself when he was a small child. Now a junior in high school, he wrestles all winter long for the Troy Trojans, and then he travels to far-flung tournaments in the summer months.

His dedication paid off on March 9 in the PIAA State Wrestling Championship in Hershey, where Sheldon won the 106-pound weight class PIAA State Championship. He is the first-ever State champion from Troy High School. To reach the honor, he competed in the State's AA individual wrestling championships. Sheldon first captured sectional, district, and regional wrestling titles. He had an undefeated season, finishing 36 and 0 – that is 36 and 0 – this year. Sheldon captured the State title by defeating a wrestler from Biglerville High School by a score of 5 to 4. He had an early takedown that set the tone for an impressive match, which several times allowed him to show off his defensive skills.

The best news is, Mr. Speaker, that Troy High School will see Sheldon again next year, and I would not be surprised if we see him back in this chamber next year as well. It has been exciting to see, and this has been so exciting for the town of Troy to see this young man come through their program. From the first responders that escorted Sheldon back into town on March 9 to the congratulatory messages on the downtown windows, Sheldon has become a true small-town celebrity with this victory – almost something out of a movie. Mr. Speaker, Sheldon has made everyone in Troy and the 68th District very proud.

Please join me today in celebrating and congratulating Sheldon Seymour, our 106-pound weight class State champion.

The SPEAKER. Representative Tina Pickett.

Ms. PICKETT. Thank you.

Sheldon, we are Bradford County proud of you. We are so honored to have you here today in the Capitol and to be able to acknowledge your accomplishments. I know that it takes a great deal of perseverance, practice, and dedication to achieve what you have achieved. It does not come easy, and you did it anyway. So congratulations, super congratulations. You are setting a standard for the rest of your life in the way that you will take things on, complete them, and do a wonderful job at it.

So Representative Owlett is completely right: we are looking forward to seeing you here in the Capitol next year, Sheldon. Thank you.

COLBY WHITEHILL PRESENTED

The SPEAKER. Representative Dush is presenting a citation to a State champion.

Mr. DUSH. Thank you, Mr. Speaker, and thank you, members.

I am here to welcome a State champion in the 285-pound PIAA Class AA Wrestling Championships that were held in Hershey. Junior Colby Whitehill is being honored today for his outstanding performance. He came into the State championship ranked number two behind Jake Ryan, and the two faced off in the final round and Colby actually showed the rankings were wrong.

We are very proud of him in Brookville. He joins the ranks of several other State champions. Our wrestling program is an outstanding program, but Colby comes as a junior who wants to be the first-ever two-time champion from Brookville, and I am looking forward to watching that happen and being here with him next year to help him celebrate that.

He had Jake down right from the very beginning, and in the last takedown, apparently it was pretty obvious that Colby had won. In fact, Colby was reported to have been pointing to the crowd in Brookville. He knew that he had this thing. And it is the confidence and the hard work that I know his coaches have put him through. In fact, a couple of years ago, we had the State championship team here. I am very proud of the coaching staff and the people of Brookville.

And Colby is joined here by his mother, Shannon – if you will stand, please, Shannon; sister, Ella; and his grandparents, Ted and Laurie Whitehill. You folks should be very proud, and you have done a great job raising this fine young man.

I hope you will join me, please, in a nice House of Representatives welcome and congratulations for Colby.

The SPEAKER. Congratulations, Colby. Thanks for coming down from Brookville with your family too.

The Sergeants at Arms will open the doors of the House.

GUESTS INTRODUCED

The SPEAKER. In the rear of the House, we are pleased to welcome Isabel Crawford, a senior at Penn Charter academy; please stand. She is going to be attending Dickinson College in the fall. She is the guest of Representative Rabb. Thank you for joining us.

Our other guests are here in connection with resolutions, so we are going to go to the vote on the uncontested House calendar. I know that Representative McNeill has some guests and Representative Zabel has some guests, amongst others who might be with us.

The majority having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative and the resolutions were adopted.

The SPEAKER. Members, I would ask that you take your seats. Representative McNeill and Representative Zabel have guests with us today. And as always, when members speak on the resolutions, we ask if they could please keep their remarks to 3 minutes or less. But we are not going to begin until everybody please takes their seats.

STATEMENT BY MRS. McNEILL

The SPEAKER. Representative McNeill, please proceed.

Mrs. McNEILL. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

This Sunday, May 19, is the ninth annual 22q at the Zoo Worldwide Awareness Day event. It was started in Philadelphia at the Philadelphia Zoo. The event has spread worldwide at local zoos from New Zealand to the South Pacific, where volunteers help to bring awareness to 22q11.2 deletion and duplication syndromes.

As most of you know, I brought Copley's own Saquon Barkley here to the Capitol last year to honor him. I got to know his parents and the rest of his family, and I got to meet his niece, Amirah. Amirah has 22q deletion syndrome, and we are honoring her today with our resolution. We also have Katrina's parents, Daniel and Colleen, along with family, friends, and some representatives from Children's Hospital of Philadelphia.

Donna McDonald-McGinn is the founding board member of the International 22q Foundation and director of the "22q and You" Center at the Children's Hospital of Philadelphia. She had the idea of making 22q at the Zoo a worldwide event. That year, in 2011, 65 cities around the world participated.

On 22q at the Zoo Day, everyone is included. There are no barriers. All cities, States, provinces, counties, towns, and continents are welcome to participate. Those without a zoo go to a park or someone's backyard. Those where it is too hot or too cold gather in an indoor location. Volunteers spread awareness by handing out fact sheets and talking to anyone who would be interested. Those who use the terms "DiGeorge, VCFS (velocardiofacial syndrome), CTAF (conotruncal anomaly face syndrome), Opitz G/BBB, Cayler cardiofacial, and 22q11.2" are all equally welcome. 22q at the Zoo at last is a day where everyone can join in – 115 cities celebrated the worldwide awareness day.

This Sunday events are at the Philadelphia Zoo, zoos in Pittsburgh, and zoos in Allentown. If you are free this Sunday, why do you not stop by and check it out.

I would like to thank Speaker Turzai and my fellow members of the House of Representatives for allowing me to speak about world awareness day this Sunday. Thank you.

The SPEAKER. Thank you, Representative.

And to the guests, could the guests please stand and come up to the railing, please? Just come on up to the railing so we can acknowledge you. Thank you so much for traveling to be with us today. We are so appreciative, with Representative McNeill. Once we have a break, come down and we will get a photo in the well of the House.

We have some other guests to the left; I apologize. Would they stand as well, who are here with 22q. Great, thank you so much for being with us today. We will have everybody together shortly.

STATEMENT BY MR. ZABEL

The SPEAKER. Representative Zabel, the floor is yours, sir.

Mr. ZABEL. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

And before I begin, it is my wife's birthday today. Happy birthday, Lauren. I know you are watching. Wait, I am not done. Tomorrow is my son John's birthday. Happy birthday, John. And on Saturday, it is my daughter Lila's birthday. Happy birthday, Lila. It is a busy week at the Zabel house.

I now rise to speak about a group that is near and almost as dear to my heart, the Pennsylvania Innocence Project. Mr. Speaker, Donte Rollins spent 10 years in prison for a crime that he did not commit. Crystal Weimer spent 11 years; Eugene Gilyard, 15 years; Shaurn Thomas, 24. A man named Jim Fogle lost 34 years of his life behind bars for a crime that he did not commit.

Mr. Speaker, those men and women were wrongfully convicted, and collectively, they lost decades of their life – decades of family, friends, and freedom. But today they are free men and women. They have been exonerated under the law, and that, Mr. Speaker, is thanks to the work of the Pennsylvania Innocence Project. They are a group that works to exonerate those convicted of crimes that they did not commit and to prevent innocent people from being convicted. This month of May 2019 marks their 10th anniversary. On behalf of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, I stand today to congratulate the group on this milestone and thank them for their commitment to pursuing justice for the wrongfully convicted.

The Pennsylvania Innocence Project first opened its doors in May 2009 at Temple University Beasley School of Law. That year I was a third-year law student there, and I was one of the office's first interns, helping them to screen and evaluate potential cases to take on.

On a personal level, it was a formative experience for me. I came to that work having led a relatively sheltered life. I did not expect or think that our criminal justice system was capable of failing, at occasion, so profoundly. The notion that a criminal confession could actually be coerced out of an innocent person was shocking to me. I was amazed to discover just how unreliable an eyewitness identification can be. The idea that scores of people nationwide could be convicted on unreliable science was stunning, but I learned that those things are true.

And it was there, working with the Pennsylvania Innocence Project, that I learned that there is no cause more worthy in the public arena than fighting for justice for people whom the system has failed. I have no doubt that I would not be standing here as a member of the House of Representatives if it were not for my time working for the Pennsylvania Innocence Project. For that, I thank them from the bottom of my heart.

Mr. Speaker, since 2009 the Pennsylvania Innocence Project has grown from two paid staffers to nine. They have expanded to an additional office at Duquesne University School of Law in Pittsburgh. They have engaged hundreds of lawyers, law students, undergraduate students, and community members all over this Commonwealth. They have reversed 14 wrongful convictions. I could go on and on about their advocacy for criminal justice reform, or their collaboration with law enforcement agencies to encourage best practices for eyewitness identifications and suspect interrogation recording procedures, or the important clinical training that they offer to tomorrow's criminal justice professionals.

But my time is limited, so I would like to simply welcome Marissa Bluestine, the executive director of the Pennsylvania Innocence Project, and Howard Scher, the president of the board of directors, who are seated to my left; and David Richman, Anthony Cramer, and Jeff Bresch, also members of the board. Please join me in congratulating them on the 10th anniversary of the Pennsylvania Innocence Project. Thank you.

The SPEAKER. If you will please stand, the guests. If the guests will please stand. Thanks so much for taking the time to be with us today. We are very, very appreciative. Thank you.

Section 3. The act is amended by adding sections to read:

Section 1631.1. Manner of Filing.—

(a) All reports and statements required to be filed with the Secretary of the Commonwealth pursuant to sections 1626, 1627, 1628 and 1641 may be filed with the Secretary of the Commonwealth using the electronic filing system developed by the Secretary of the Commonwealth.

(b) Any report or statement filed under this section shall be made subject to the penalties of 18 Pa.C.S. § 4904 (relating to unsworn falsification to authorities).

(c) In addition to the requirement under subsection (b), a report or statement filed electronically shall also:

(1) include the electronic signature of the treasurer or assistant treasurer of the political committee serving at the time of the filing of the report or statement; and

(2) for a report or statement filed by a candidate or a candidate's political committee, include the electronic signature of the candidate, stating that, to the best of the candidate's knowledge, the political committee has not violated a provision of this act.

(d) (1) A principal may authorize another person to prepare the contents of any report or statement that is filed electronically, including entry of data into the electronic filing system as provided under subsection (a).

(2) Each principal authorizing another to act under clause (1) must:

(i) review the contents of the report or statement prepared under clause (1); and

(ii) file with the electronic filing system the approval of the contents of the report or statement and verification of its accuracy, in accordance with subsection (b). The approval shall be transmitted personally by the principal and not on the principal's behalf by any other person.

(3) No report or statement that is filed electronically shall be considered complete or filed until all necessary approvals and verifications shall have been submitted by each principal required to file.

(4) As used in this subsection, "principal" shall mean any person required to file any report or statement electronically with the Secretary of the Commonwealth in accordance with this section.

(e) Any report or statement filed with the Secretary of the Commonwealth, which is not filed electronically, shall be filed on forms developed by the Secretary of the Commonwealth.

Section 1631.2. Inability to File Reports or Statements Electronically by Deadline.—

(a) All reports or statements filed electronically with the Secretary of the Commonwealth under section 1631.1 are subject to the following:

(1) If a candidate or political committee cannot file a report or statement electronically on the day the report or statement is due because of the unavailability of the Department of State's electronic filing system at the time the candidate or political committee attempts to file the report or statement, the principal shall immediately notify the Department of State in a manner designated by the Secretary of the Commonwealth. If the website is unavailable and the candidate or political committee has notified the department, the candidate or political committee shall have until 11:59 o'clock P.M. on the next day following the deadline to file the report or statement electronically and the principal shall file a statement affirming that the principal was unable to file the report or statement on time because of the unavailability of the Department of State's electronic filing system at the time the principal attempted to file the report or statement on the day the report or statement was due. The affirmation statement shall be due at the same time as the statement or report filed under this subsection. The report or statement shall not be considered filed until the affirmation statement is filed.

(2) If a candidate or political committee is unable to file electronically as required under clause (1) because the Department of State's electronic filing system remains unavailable, the principal shall notify the Department of State each day a report or statement cannot be filed due to the unavailability of the Department of State's electronic filing system. The candidate or political committee shall have until 11:59 o'clock P.M. on the next day to electronically file the report or statement or notify the Department of State a second time of the inaccessibility of the department's electronic filing system. The principal shall file a statement affirming that the principal was unable to file the report or statement on time because of the unavailability of the Department of State's electronic filing system. The affirmation statement shall be due at the same time as the statement or report filed under this subsection. The report or statement shall not be considered filed until the affirmation statement is filed.

(b) The Department of State may provide for an alternative method of electronic filing if the department's electronic filing system remains unavailable.

(c) For cause shown, the Secretary of the Commonwealth may waive late filing fees for reports or statements filed after the deadline but which are the subject of notifications as prescribed by this section.

(d) As used in this section, "unavailability of the Department of State's electronic filing system" shall mean a failure of the system within the Department of State's technical environment that does not allow access to the system by an individual. The term does not include:

(1) a network issue between the user's computer and the Department of State's environment; or

(2) a failure of any part of the user's computer or internal network.

Section 4. Section 1632(a) of the act is amended to read:

Section 1632. Late Filing Fee; Certificate of Filing.—

(a) A late filing fee for each report or statement of expenditures and contributions which is not filed within the prescribed period shall be imposed as follows. Such fee shall be ten dollars ($10) for each day or part of a day excluding Saturdays, Sundays and holidays that a report or statement is overdue. An additional fee of ten dollars ($10) is due for each of the first six (6) days that a report or statement is overdue. The maximum fee payable with respect to a single report or statement is two hundred fifty dollars ($250). A supervisor shall receive an overdue report or statement even if any late filing fee due has not been paid but the report or statement shall not be considered filed until all fees have been paid upon the receipt by the supervisor of an overdue report. No further late filing fees shall be incurred notwithstanding the fact that the report or statement is not considered filed. The late filing fee is the personal liability of the candidate or treasurer of a political committee and cannot be paid from contributions to the candidate or committee, nor may such fee be considered an expenditure. A report or statement of expenditures and contributions shall be deemed to have been filed within the prescribed time if the letter transmitting the report or statement which is received by the supervisor is transmitted by first class mail and is postmarked by the United States Postal Service on the day prior to the final day on which the report or statement is to be received: Provided, That this sentence shall not be applicable to the reporting requirements contained in section 1628.

Section 5. Sections 1640 and 1641(a) of the act are amended to read:

Section 1640. Additional Powers and Duties of the Secretary of the Commonwealth.—The Secretary of the Commonwealth shall have the following additional powers and duties:

(1) To serve as the State clearing house for information concerning the administration of this act.

(2) To prescribe suitable rules and regulations to carry out the provisions of this act.

(3) To develop the prescribed forms required by the provisions of this article for the making of the reports and statements required to be filed with the supervisor.

(4) To prepare a manual setting forth recommended uniform methods of bookkeeping and reporting which shall be furnished by the supervisor to the person required to file such reports and statements as required by this article.

(5) To examine the contributions to State legislative and Statewide candidates and publish a list of all those political committees who have contributed to candidates and who have failed to file reports as required by this act within six (6) days of their failure to comply.

(6) To maintain a searchable computer database and electronic reporting system that contains the information necessary for the proper administration of this article, including information on contributions and expenditures by all candidates and all political committees and distribution of money, and including public access through the Internet. The database must be designed with an emergency recovery system to ensure that campaign expense records are not lost in the case of an emergency, natural disaster or other event that could cause the system to malfunction.

(7) To establish a training program on the electronic reporting system and make it available to a candidate or political committee.

(8) To ensure all information contained in a statement or report filed, that is not on the electronic reporting system, be entered into the electronic reporting system as soon as practicable but no later than four (4) business days after its receipt by the Secretary of the Commonwealth.

(9) The Department of State shall issue to the registrant an electronic receipt that includes a confirmation number and the date and time of filing.

Section 1641. Reports by Business Entities; Publication by Secretary of the Commonwealth.—

(a) Any business entity including but not limited to a corporation, company, association, partnership or sole proprietorship, which has been awarded non-bid contracts from the Commonwealth or its political subdivisions during the preceding calendar year, shall report electronically in accordance with section 1631.1 by February 15 of each year to the Secretary of the Commonwealth an itemized list of all political contributions known to the business entity by virtue of the knowledge possessed by every officer, director, associate, partner, limited partner or individual owner that has been made by:

(1) any officer, director, associate, partner, limited partner, individual owner or members of their immediate family when the contributions exceed an aggregate of one thousand dollars ($1,000) by any individual during the preceding year; or

(2) any employe or members of his immediate family whose political contribution exceeded one thousand dollars ($1,000) during the preceding year.

For the purposes of this subsection, "immediate family" means a person's spouse and any unemancipated child.

Section 6. The Secretary of the Commonwealth shall transmit notice to the Legislative Reference Bureau for publication in the Pennsylvania Bulletin when the electronic filing system developed by the Secretary of the Commonwealth is available for use.

Section 7. This act shall take effect 120 days after publication in the Pennsylvania Bulletin of the notice under section 6.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

The SPEAKER. Representative Mark Keller, on your amendment.

Mr. M. KELLER. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

This amendment establishes an electronic filing system in statute and makes it voluntary instead of mandatory. The amendment also includes a sentence for filing electronically and a 4-business-day turnaround time for the Internet posting and report filing by papers. By doing this, my amendment eliminates potential barriers to filing that challengers may face, and strikes a balance between those who are old-fashioned – I will call it that way – doing it the long-paper way and prefer to file by paper rather than the ease of electronics.

I ask for a positive vote on this amendment.

The SPEAKER. Anybody else on the amendment, please?

Representative Freeman, on the amendment? No. Okay. Anybody else on the amendment?

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

The majority having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative and the amendment was agreed to.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on second consideration as amended?

The SPEAKER. The next amendment I believe is— Representative Freeman, it would be 1350. It will be amendment 1350 because 1157, given the other amendment – you know, 1157 cannot be called up because the other amendment went in, but 1350 can.

Mr. FREEMAN. Right.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the bill on second consideration as amended?

Mr. FREEMAN offered the following amendment No. A01350:

Amend Bill, page 1, line 8 (A01251), by inserting after "filing" , for powers and duties of the supervisor

Amend Bill, page 6, line 15 (A01251), by inserting after

"Sections"

1639(3),

Amend Bill, page 6, by inserting between lines 16 and 17 (A01251)

Section 1639. Powers and Duties of the Supervisor.—It shall be the duty of the supervisor to:

(3) Make the reports and statements filed with him or her available for public inspection and copying, commencing as soon as practicable but not later than the end of the second day following the day during which it was received, and to provide copies of any such report or parts thereof, as requested by any person, at the expense of such person, at the rate not to exceed the actual cost of reproduction. County voter registration offices shall, upon request by any person, obtain from the electronic reporting system maintained by the Secretary of the Commonwealth, and provide for review, any campaign finance report filed electronically with the Secretary of the Commonwealth.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

The SPEAKER. Representative Bob Freeman, on the amendment.

Mr. FREEMAN. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. Speaker, this amendment replaces amendment 1157, which, under rule 21(d), it was knocked out by the Keller amendment, but we have a provision in rule 21(d) that would be able to replace an amendment that is knocked out, so this replaces that amendment.

Basically, what it does is, it would require the county voter registration office to provide, through the electronic filing system provided by the Secretary of State, a copy of any electronically filed report. Under the legislation that was adopted by the Keller amendment, those who file electronically will no longer have to file within the county of residence, as has been the case under the law. So this is a sort of compromise approach, where those who might not have a computer or access to a computer can still go to the county voter registration office and ask them to download a copy from the electronic filing system established by the Secretary of State. It will ensure that the average citizen has access at the voter registration office.

And I should add that this is agreed to by the prime sponsor, so I would urge a "yes" vote.

The SPEAKER. Thank you, Representative Freeman.

LEAVE OF ABSENCE CANCELED

The SPEAKER. Representative Craig Staats is on the House floor. He should be placed on the master roll.

CONSIDERATION OF HB 633 CONTINUED

The SPEAKER. Representative Mark Keller.

Mr. M. KELLER. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Yes; in fact, this is an agreed-to amendment. We have worked back and forth very diligently on both sides to make this work, and I think this is a good piece of legislation and a good amendment, so I would ask for an affirmative vote.

The House proceeded to third consideration of HB 1324, PN 1783, entitled:

An Act amending Title 51 (Military Affairs) of the Pennsylvania Consolidated Statutes, in military educational programs, further providing for definitions, for eligibility, for grants, for amount of grants, for limitations, for recoupment of grant payments, for regulations, for administration and for Educational Assistance Program Fund and providing for a military family education program; and making editorial changes.

On the question,
Will the House agree to the bill on third consideration?
Bill was agreed to.

(Bill analysis was read.)

The SPEAKER. This bill has been considered on three different days and agreed to and is now on final passage.

The question is, shall the bill pass finally?

On the bill, Representative Stephen Barrar.

Mr. BARRAR. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. Speaker, HB 1324 creates the Military Family Education Program, which will provide college education funding for dependents of a National Guard soldier who reenlists for an additional 6 years in the Pennsylvania National Guard.

This is a great program, Mr. Speaker, but it is also a much-needed program to address the reenlistment problems that our National Guard is currently facing, which is, right now they are about 2300 members short. But also, it is a way to support the family members of our National Guard who endure many hardships and sacrifices daily in support of their spouse or parent serving in the National Guard.

This legislation is supported by the Governor's Office and by the Department of Military and Veterans Affairs and the Pennsylvania National Guard Associations. I would ask for an affirmative vote on this very important program, which will be the first in the nation when it passes and is signed into law by the Governor.

Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. Representative Chris Sainato, on the bill.

Mr. SAINATO. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

I just want to echo my colleague from Delaware County and my counterpart on the Veterans Affairs and Emergency Preparedness Committee. This is a great piece of legislation, and I think today is setting an example of what happens when a committee works together in a bipartisan fashion. This happened 2 months ago. Myself and Chairman Barrar met with the stakeholders. We went to Fort Indiantown Gap. We worked with Governor Wolf and his proposal coming from the executive branch, and we have been focused on this legislation ever since. And I think what you are going to see today on this House floor is a shining example about what happens when you work together and focus on something that is truly needed.

You need retention in the National Guard. This is a tool. It is a win-win for everybody. It is a win-win for our higher education institutions in Pennsylvania. It is a win for those who do so much to protect our safety in this State of Pennsylvania and our nation when they have been called overseas, and our Guard is the best in the country, Mr. Speaker.

So I encourage everybody to vote "yes" on this piece of legislation. Our committee worked very, very hard the last few months on getting it right, and I think you are going to see some good stuff happen. So everyone in this House should be very proud of what you are going to be voting on very shortly. I encourage a "yes" vote.

On the question recurring,
Shall the bill pass finally?

The SPEAKER. Agreeable to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays will now be taken.

The SPEAKER. We are going to return right now to HB 615, PN 1784, supplemental A House calendar.

Representative Roae had asked us about the actuarial note. It is on your screen, sir. It is on everybody's screen. The actuarial note is on the screen and has been. I can only read from it – I cannot answer questions with respect to it – but the actuarial note for HB 615, PN 1784, is from Matthew Knittel, K-n-i-t-t-e-l, the director of the Independent Fiscal Office, and I will read, I think, the line: "The IFO reviewed House Bill 615, Printer's Number 1784 and determined that the actuarial cost impact would be de minimis. Based on that determination, the bill does not require an actuarial note prior to further consideration by the General Assembly...." That is the letter that we have from the Independent Fiscal Office.

Representative Roae, you may speak on the bill.

Mr. ROAE. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Yeah, after I sat down, I was looking at the fiscal note and other information, but the— Actually, could I interrogate the prime sponsor of the bill, please?

The SPEAKER. Representative Gillespie, will you stand for interrogation? No. My understanding is that he is not standing for interrogation, correct? Yeah, no; no.

Mr. ROAE. Okay; that is interesting.

If I am understanding it correctly, based on the fiscal note and other informational stuff, there would be an annual cost of $400,000 a year to do this, and then for the next 10 years there would be another $900,000 cost a year for 10 years. So over the next 10 years, this would cost the Game Commission $13 million, and I guess I am concerned that this would add to the unfunded liability of SERS (State Employees' Retirement System).

It eventually gets paid back over the next 10 years, but I am concerned with a $70 billion unfunded liability that we are increasing the unfunded pension liability, and then annually, another $400,000 a year cost for the Game Commission. You would have to sell 20,000 licenses a year to pay for that. I am just concerned with the cost and I wanted to make sure I was understanding those numbers correctly and mechanically, how the Game Commission can guarantee that that $9 million is really going to get paid.

The SPEAKER. Representative Bill Kortz on HB 615, PN 1784.

Mr. KORTZ. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of HB 615, and I want to thank the chairman from York County for bringing this forward. The prior speaker mentioned about the cost incurred. That is true; there is going to be about $1.3 million a year. But the Game Commission, the Game Commission is paying that money out of their reserves, and they are going to pay in annually, sir, so there is no cost to the General Fund. We do not have to put out any money for that and SERS will not be impacted.

So I highly recommend that we vote this forward, because the game wardens, sir, to be quite honest with you, we need to bring them on par with the other law enforcement in this State. And think about it: every time a game warden approaches somebody in the woods, that other person has a gun on them. They are in a very dangerous situation, and we have not brought them up to speed with the other law enforcement folks in this State.

I highly recommend a "yes" vote, and again I want to thank the good gentleman from York County for bringing this forward.

Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. Thank you, sir.

Does anybody else wish to speak on this?

On the question recurring,

Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. Thank you, sir.

The Human Services Committee will hold a voting meeting tomorrow morning at 9 in B-31.

Now, members, if you could please take your seats. If you are going to exit, I would ask that you exit from the rear of the House, because I am going to be calling up members to speak on resolutions.

We are going to begin with Representative Rosemary Brown on HR 38.

STATEMENT BY MRS. BROWN

The SPEAKER. Representative Rosemary Brown on HR 38. Mrs. BROWN. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

I would like to thank my colleagues for their support of HR 38, which designates May 2019 as "Lyme and Tick-borne Disease Awareness Month" in the Commonwealth.

We do resolutions, of course, to build education and awareness on an issue, with the end goal of helping Pennsylvanians. This resolution is no different. Chances are you know someone who has found a tick on them, or a family member, or who has been diagnosed or is extremely sick with Lyme disease.

There are patients that are diagnosed immediately and treated, and then there are others who are missed in their diagnosis and suffer with more severe symptoms and health consequences. It is important to know that the medical and science communities still have so much to learn on Lyme disease and other tick-borne illnesses, which is why each and every one of us must stay educated on the current information to protect our health.

First, Pennsylvanians are at an extremely high risk of Lyme disease since we are the State that is ranked number one in reported Lyme cases, and we represent 40 percent of the overall nation's cases. If you are not already familiar with Lyme disease, it is a bacterial infection that most people get from tick bite. As with any disease, early diagnosis is key.

So how do we help families? The first and most effective line of defense, of course, is prevention. Of course, avoiding tick-infested habitats is the best measure; use personal protective measures such as light clothing to be able to see ticks, utilize repellents, and Permethrin can be used on clothing. It has been noted that by spraying from your knees down can reduce your chance of contact with a tick by 70 percent. Check for ticks daily and shower soon after being outdoors. It is also critical to remove an attached tick immediately once it is found. A tick that is attached to your skin for less than 24 hours has a much lower chance of transmitting Lyme disease, even if the tick may be infected.

Last year I helped secure a $500,000 grant to the East Stroudsburg University Pennsylvania Tick Research Lab to allow for free tick testing to the residents of Pennsylvania. Residents may mail their tick to East Stroudsburg University and have it tested for Lyme, and three other pathogens as well. The testing may also indicate how long the tick has been attached. This is helpful in preventative medicine in understanding the risks of Lyme and other illnesses if the tick tested positive.

Since April 1, when this program began – I now believe it is over 1,000 ticks – but the last official report I had was 517 ticks have been tested from 65 out of 67 counties, with 42 percent testing positive for a tick-borne disease. That will show you the tremendous need that we have in Pennsylvania and our risk. For more information on this very valuable program for families, it can be found at ticklab.org.

You should also be aware that some ticks are so small that the size of them can be as small as a poppyseed. You may not even know you have had one on you. These ticks can then fall off, and an individual may develop symptoms; and unexpected summer fever or an odd rash may be the first sign.

It has also been stated that only about 40 percent of people experience the bullseye rash, which is often associated with Lyme disease, telling us that symptoms can be hard to identify. Only about 50 percent of people who have Lyme disease develop flu-like symptoms. So keeping the ticks at bay is critical, and also includes utilizing prevention products on family pets to avoid them bringing ticks into the home. There also may be measures in regard to landscaping that can help to create tick-safe zones, which can be researched.

Working to keep deer from being close to your home, since they are the main food source of adult ticks, is a measure that is often not discussed. Removing plants and other measures that attract deer should definitely be considered.

So once again I thank my colleagues for their support of HR 38. I hope some of this information may have been helpful to our families and to the legislators to pass along. I definitely encourage you and your constituents to become educated on Lyme disease and tick-borne illnesses, prevention methods, and symptoms to best protect their health.

Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. Representative Tom Murt. Representative Murt, I know you have a number of resolutions you wish to speak on. I will call on each separately. Which one would you like to begin with?

Mr. MURT. Mr. Speaker, I would like to just speak on the post-traumatic stress awareness month, and I will be submitting written remarks for the other two, if that is okay?

The SPEAKER. Yes, that is perfectly fine, and if you wish to speak on the others, that is fine too. But we are going to begin with the post— Which number is that?

Mr. MURT. Mr. Speaker, I do not have the number on that. I am sorry.

The SPEAKER. Okay. Hold on one second.

Mr. MURT. It is post-traumatic stress awareness month.

STATEMENT BY MR. MURT

The SPEAKER. Representative Murt, you may proceed.

Mr. MURT. Mr. Speaker, the month of May is important to all of our veterans across the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. This month we observe V-E Day, Military Spouse Day, Loyalty Day, Armed Forces Day, and the most important of all, Memorial Day. Congress has also designated May as "National Military Appreciation Month."

And I thank my colleagues for adding another important recognition. By declaring this month "Military Service-Related Post-Traumatic Stress Disorder Awareness Month," we recognize one of the most demanding issues we face as many of our veterans return home from the battlefield with emotional, social, physical, and spiritual challenges.

Mr. Speaker, as you know, I served in combat in Iraq myself. Many of our veterans are struggling to readjust to life outside the military. Some are always on edge and sometimes overwhelmed by feelings of panic. Others are known to explode at the slightest provocation. Mr. Speaker, still others are emotionally numb and disconnected from their loved ones. They have lost all sense of normalcy.

For all too many veterans, Mr. Speaker, these are common experiences and these are lingering symptoms of post-traumatic stress disorder. I struggle calling it a disorder, Mr. Speaker, because post-traumatic stress is really a normal reaction of a human being to being in combat or to being a victim of a violent crime and so forth. It is hard living with untreated post-traumatic stress disorder, and with long VA (Veterans' Administration) wait times, it is easy to get discouraged. As a legislature, we need to commit ourselves to helping our veterans in our communities receive the help they need. We must help those that feel lost to receive the professional treatment they need.

Mr. Speaker, post-traumatic stress disorder is not a sign of weakness, but a symptom of an illness that can be overcome. Our vote today recognizes this. It also acknowledges that, as a legislature, we are committed to making the lives of our veterans better. Mr. Speaker, this is the least we can do for those who gave us so much to secure our freedoms.

And I conclude by reminding everyone of the number of 22 veterans a day – which I believe is low – 22 veterans a day take their lives, on the average, because of untreated, undiagnosed post-traumatic stress disorder and other psychological challenges and behavioral health challenges that come from being deployed and serving in combat and so forth. So I thank my colleagues for their support on this issue and this resolution.

Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. Thank you so much, Representative Murt.

REMARKS SUBMITTED FOR THE RECORD

The SPEAKER. Representative Murt, I know you have HR 246, which is on the Battle of the Bulge; HR 257 on Earth Day; and HR 259 on Day of Remembrance with respect to the Armenian Genocide. Do you want to submit remarks for each of those?

Mr. MURT. That is affirmative, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. Okay. Thank you. Those will all be accepted into the record.

Mr. MURT submitted the following remarks for the Legislative Journal:

We live on a magnificent planet. With its abundance of water, the Earth hosts an incredibly complex and vibrant ecosystem where living organisms interact within an environment that is ideal for life. But to maintain this delicate balance, we must be diligent. Since that first Earth Day in 1970, we have only begun to understand the consequences of our actions and the impact they have on our world. Experts estimate that every day we lose about 130 plant, animal, and insect species. This is why Earth Day is so important.

Established on April 22, 1970, Earth Day gives us the opportunity to celebrate what we have and educate each other on what we are losing by acting in ways that are environmentally unfriendly or energy-inefficient. Earth Day is a reminder to take action now to protect our environment.

In the years since that first Earth Day, we have made a number of landmark accomplishments, including the establishment of the Environmental Protection Agency in 1970, the Clean Air Act of 1970, the Clean Water Act of 1972, the Endangered Species Act of 1973, the Resource Conservation and Recovery Act of 1976, and the Federal Occupational Health and Safety Act aimed at in-plant pollution.

We still have much work to do, which is why I want to thank my colleagues for supporting this resolution recognizing Earth Day.

In the winter of 1944-45, the Allied Forces had Hitler's Nazi machine pinned back in the western sections of Europe. The Nazis were losing. Troops from America, France, and Britain were barreling toward Germany in a push that would annihilate the Nazi hordes and draw the Second World War to a close. But that final push would claim 75,000 American casualties.

This year we mark the 75th anniversary of the Battle of the Bulge. It began on December 16, 1944, as Hitler's final attempt to split the Allies in two in their drive toward Germany. First called the Ardennes Offensive, the attack became known as the Battle of the Bulge because the initial attack by the Germans created a bulge in the Allied frontline.

Hitler had convinced himself that the alliance between Britain, France, and America in the western sector of Europe was not strong and that a major attack and defeat would shatter their forces. He ordered a massive attack against what were primarily American forces. In his mind, the massive attack would destabilize their forces and also take the huge port of Antwerp, through which a great deal of supplies was reaching the Allies.

The battle started with a 2-hour bombardment of the Allies' lines that seemed successful for 2 days. However, despite punching a bulge into the Allies' frontline, the Germans could not capitalize on it. Short on fuel, by mid-January 1945, the Germans simply abandoned their vehicles. The Allied victory was now in sight, but it came at a great cost.

Today the remaining veterans of that grueling battle are in their nineties. We must never forget their sacrifice. These are the men who pushed us on to final victory. These are the men who preserved our liberty. These are the men who vanquished the great tyrannical force that crushed Europe and committed a great genocide. On this 75th anniversary of the conclusion of that great battle, I thank them for their sacrifice and service.
