SESSION OF 2019

203D OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY

No. 40

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

The House convened at 11 a.m., e.d.t.

THE SPEAKER (MIKE TURZAI) PRESIDING

The SPEAKER. As you know, we are having a swearing-in ceremony today of our newest member. All members, please come to the floor.

PRAYER

HON. SHERYL M. DELOZIER, member of the House of Representatives, offered the following prayer:

Let us pray:

Lord, we ask Your blessing on this body this morning as we set about working for those that we represent. Lord, we ask for Your guidance and strength as we make decisions to better Pennsylvania for all of the Commonwealth residents.

Lord, we ask that You keep those in our military who are in harm's way and working every day to keep our country safe and protected. Give them the strength and fortitude to continue day after day with You watching over them.

Lord, we ask that at this time of year, You give Your guidance and blessings to those that are starting a new phase in their lives, with graduations of our young future leaders from high schools and colleges all across our Commonwealth. We ask that You also bless our own graduate here today in this chamber.

Our newest member today will graduate from candidate to legislator and will need Your guidance as she embarks on a new path to make positive change for our State and the people of her district.

Lord, give her and her family what only You can, the internal strength to be there for each other as many new challenges are in front of them. Lord, we ask today for You to be with us as we become another member stronger to do the work of the people. In Your name, Amen.

PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE

(The Pledge of Allegiance was recited by members and visitors.)

JOURNAL APPROVAL POSTPONED

OATH OF OFFICE ADMINISTERED

The SPEAKER. The Speaker now requests that our member-elect, Marci Mustello, please come forward to the well of the House and bring with you any guests that you are going to have stand with you for the taking of the oath of office.

The oath of office is required by Article VI, section 3, of the Constitution of Pennsylvania, and it will be administered by the Honorable Victor P. Stabile, who is a judge on the Superior Court of Pennsylvania.

Judge Stabile was elected in 2013 to the Pennsylvania Superior Court and has served this Commonwealth since 2014. He is a graduate of the Dickinson School of Law, and in addition to practicing with Dilworth Paxson, he was also a Deputy Attorney General. We are so honored to have with us today

Superior Court Judge Victor Stabile to administer the oath of office to our newest Representative.

At this time, Judge.

JUDGE STABILE. Thank you for that very kind introduction, Mr. Speaker.

Miss Mustello, congratulations to you. Are you prepared today to take your constitutional oath of office so that you may perform your duties?

Miss MUSTELLO. I am.

JUDGE STABILE. Okay. If you will place your left hand on the Bible and raise your right hand and repeat after me: I – state your name – do solemnly swear that I will support, obey, and defend the Constitution of the United States and the Constitution of this Commonwealth and that I will discharge the duties of my office with fidelity, so help me God.

(Member asserted oath.)

JUDGE STABILE. Congratulations, Representative. Best of luck to you.

REMARKS BY SPEAKER

The SPEAKER. Before I call upon the majority leader and the minority leader for remarks, the Speaker has just a few words, and I would like to begin, first of all, I have known the good Representative for the better part of probably two decades, and just an outstanding individual, and we are so honored to have you, Representative Mustello, into America's first independent legislative body. You will be an outstanding steward of the office.

She is a lifelong resident of the 11th Legislative District in Butler County and has dedicated the past 20 years of her life to public service. She has served under both Congressman Phil English and Congressman Mike Kelly in running a congressional district office, leading a nonprofit organization, and working with community leaders on so many fronts to make Butler County and its communities as outstanding as they can be. We wish you great success as you enter this phase of your career.

GUESTS INTRODUCED

The SPEAKER. I do have the honor right now of welcoming some of her very special guests, her parents first of all, if they could stand: Ralph and Anita Mustello, thank you for being with us. Also, two of her sisters, longtime Butler County Recorder of Deeds, since 1991, and an outstanding public servant, Michele Mustello, and also please stand, and Mary Jo Losch, please stand. Her niece, Caravel, and nephew, Diesel, please stand. Great to have you here. Now, two other nieces from this outstanding family could not be with us today because they are in summer training at the U.S. Military Academy at West Point. We give them our best. I am sure they are here with you in spirit, Representative.

I also see our good friend who formerly served in the House and then of course he went on to the Senate. We know you loved your time here. Senator and House member Bob Robbins and his lovely wife, Cindy. This good gentleman served in the House from 1983 to 1990.

I know you have many other great friends and family members here today. Thank you for taking the time to be with us on this very special occasion.

REMARKS BY MAJORITY LEADER

The SPEAKER. Representative Bryan Cutler is our majority leader from Lancaster County, and at this time I turn the podium to him. Thank you, sir.

Mr. CUTLER. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Welcome. Welcome to all of your friends and family. I think it is a great day. It is a great opportunity, having won a special election, you get to have a day entirely dedicated to yourself, and I think the best part about that is you get to invite everybody whom you wanted to bring and it is so good to see all of you.

I want to thank you, first of all, for being willing to run. I think that is the most important thing because we have to have good individuals who wish to put themselves out. It is great to have another new member, and I also want to thank your family because of the sacrifices that you made during the campaign, but also what you will be making in the upcoming legislative cycle.

This is, without a doubt, I think the most beautiful room in the entire Capitol Complex, and it is a wonderful place to work, and it is very humbling to come here and see all of our forefathers at the front and all the beauty around us. But it is a humbling reminder as well of the duties that we carry, and I think that it is important that we always remember who sent us here. Your residents back home sent you just as the residents of the 100th District sent me and each of our colleagues here.

One of the things that I have encouraged everybody to do from the opening of this legislative session, for each other special election that we have already had, is for you to share what drives you and why you are here, because I think it is so important that we understand what our priorities are, what we are working on, and what our goals are, but not just share your own, but learn everyone else's, because as we talk to one another and we have that kind of dialogue, we are better able to understand the diversity that is our great Commonwealth. And by having those divergent viewpoints and finding those areas of compromises, we are able to better serve our residents and all of the residents of the Commonwealth.

It is an exciting adventure. It is one that unfortunately for you, you are coming right at the upswing in regards to the budget and a lot of the other legislative policy issues. So the good news is, we will be very, very busy. The bad news is, it is not a learning curve, it is literally sometimes a vertical wall. But I am confident in your abilities to get acclimated, and I know that all of us here in the House welcome you, and we are looking forward to working with you and serving the residents of the Commonwealth with you.

So with that, I look forward to getting to know you better as well as we go forward, and I want to also thank, again, your family and your friends, because without them I am sure you would be in the same position I would be without mine. I probably do not thank them enough and I want to encourage you to make sure that you do. Thank you.

REMARKS BY DEMOCRATIC LEADER

The SPEAKER. The Democratic leader, Representative Frank Dermody.

Mr. DERMODY. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. Speaker, I want to extend the warm wishes of the House Democratic Caucus to our new member, Marci Mustello. Congratulations, and we all hope you find success in your new role because that is what the people of Butler County deserve and expect and I am sure you will do that.

I think it is also important to note, as the Speaker has already noted, that you spent several years working for other elected officials, and I think that kind of a role really has prepared you for this job. You understand the nuts and bolts of it, you know what it means to work with constituents, and I think that experience is going to make your role here that much easier. And I know you will approach your work in Harrisburg by always keeping in touch with those people back home in Butler County because you know them and you understand their needs, and those sets of priorities and remembering where you come from will no doubt make you a better Representative.

Mr. Speaker, I think we also should note that Marci is the 54th woman member of the House, the largest number of women there has ever been.

And as the majority leader has already noted, you arrived here at a very interesting time, and we will have the opportunity to discuss and debate several important issues. Obviously, the budget is first and foremost, but we will also have some pretty big questions to deal with, including how workers are paid, how children are educated, how to protect our environment, and how to make sure every Pennsylvanian has access to quality, affordable health care, so a few things we have to work with.

And as I think the majority leader also noted, we all come from different places, but our job in this building is to come together to make this State work. It is important work, it is serious work, and it depends on our ability to understand each other. We will not always agree, that is for sure, but in this democracy we all need to work together to get things done. So the House Democrats look forward to working with you to make that happen.

Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. Thank you.

At this time we have to invite the guests and family to step off. We are going to go right into business here, and if you will exit just up my left, up that side wall. I know that you are going to be having a celebratory lunch, so if you could head just up toward the back. We are so grateful for you to be here today with Representative Mustello. Representative Mustello knows her new seat, and she will be taking that, just go right into the voting.

To our Sergeants at Arms, if you can, if you want to at this time just fold up the chairs before we begin our session's work. We are very appreciative.

LEAVES OF ABSENCE

The SPEAKER. The minority whip requests leaves of absence for the following members: Michael DRISCOLL of Philadelphia County for the day and Movita JOHNSON-HARRELL of Philadelphia County for the day. Without objection, those leaves will be granted.

BEDFORD HIGH SCHOOL
ROSIE THE RIVETER BATTLE BOTS TEAM PRESENTED

The SPEAKER. Representative Topper, you may proceed.

Mr. TOPPER. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

I am not sure what the first thing that pops into anybody's mind when they think about Bedford County might be, but I am not sure that it is the home of the National Robotics Competition Champions, but maybe after today it very well could be.

This impressive group of students competed against a total of 58 high school and college teams with their fighting robot, which won the championship in the battle portion of the robotics tournament, which I just love talking about battle robotics, Mr. Speaker. The title is determined by a composite score of tournament placement, engineering documentation, and an interview score. This team's engineering binder is 120 pages of student-developed information detailing every aspect of the battle bot design, including some detailed engineering drawings of this battle bot. So we have a few engineering majors coming out of this group, I am sure.

Now, one of the team's notable wins in this tournament came against Kansas State University, and their final win, Mr. Speaker, was against Pine-Richland High School, whom they beat not once, not twice, but three times in the State and national competition. So I had to needle the Speaker that we were able to get one over on his school.

Congratulations to these students and all who participated in this program and for their success, but also on what I heard was an outstanding experience that they will carry with them for the rest of their lives.

I would like to recognize the gentlemen behind me. If you guys could wave whenever I call your name: Nathaniel Semanek, who is also a very good catcher and a very good piano player, I might add. I got to witness his piano recital along with my son's. Luke Dague, Lance Dague, and Camden Donahoe. Congratulations.

Mr. Speaker, thank you so much for the recognition of these fine young people.

The SPEAKER. Men, if you want, you can just exit here to our left. I understand they took a photo earlier. So we will just go right up to our left and then right up to the back of the chamber.

GUESTS INTRODUCED

The SPEAKER. In the rear of the House, we are so honored to welcome Matthew Ruiz. Matthew, where are you? Please stand. Matthew, come on up to the railing; just stand right next to the railing there. Matthew is an 11th grade student from East

The Sergeants at Arms will open the doors of the House. We are going to let the robotics team exit. They are going to go exit right off.

Adrian Altieri, where is Adrian? Adrian, please come up to the railing. Adrian is interning with Representative Chris Rabb. He is a senior at Friends Select in Philadelphia and will be attending the University of Pennsylvania, and you may see her, President Amy Gutmann is in the Capitol today, the president of Penn. Make sure you introduce yourself to her, Adrian, if you see her. Thank you.

We are so pleased to recognize Earle and Kay Meyers. Where are they? Earle and Kay Meyers in the rear of the House, I believe. Come on straight up to the railing, please. Thank you. And I think they are also here with Hank and Kathy Moore. Hank and Kathy, please come on up to the railing. They are guests of Representative Ullman. Thank you so much for being with us today. Thank you very much.

The SPEAKER. Members, please take your seats. Representative Hanbidge is recognized on HR 359, which has already passed, and I am going to ask everybody to please take their seats. We do have some guests, and if all the members could please take their seats. We have some guests with us on HR 359.

The Sergeants at Arms will close the doors of the House. Following Representative Hanbidge will be Representative Toohil upon unanimous consent.

STATEMENT BY MS. HANBIDGE

The SPEAKER. Representative Hanbidge, you may proceed. Ms. HANBIDGE. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

I appreciate the opportunity to recognize a treasured and historic borough of our Commonwealth. I am proud to stand today to thank my fellow members for voting in support of HR 359, which officially commemorates the 150th anniversary of North Wales Borough on August 20, 2019.

North Wales Borough is located in the heart of Montgomery County and is home to approximately 3,250 residents. Incorporated on August 20, 1869, the borough was part of the 1702 William Penn land grant and originally given the name "Gwynedd," in honor of the homeland of its earliest settlers who immigrated from the northwestern part of Wales.

North Wales Borough reflects the deep history not only of my legislative district but of the entire Commonwealth. As the first and oldest borough in the North Penn Valley, North Wales' tightly knit community remains a shining example of the best and most unique values of our Commonwealth.

With a main street lined with shops, restaurants, and homes; a restored and renovated firehouse with one of the highest volunteer rates in the State; a SEPTA (Southeastern Pennsylvania Transportation Authority) train line running through the center of the business district; and a borough hall and area library in the backyards of residents, North Wales Borough is an idyllic, hardworking Pennsylvania town.

Today I am grateful to be joined by leadership from the North Wales Borough. Mr. Speaker, sitting in the rear of the chamber, I would like to recognize and introduce Gregory D'Angelo, mayor of North Wales Borough; Jim Sando, the council president of North Wales Borough; Jim Schiele, the cochairman of the North Wales Borough's 150th Anniversary Committee; Christine Hart, the North Wales borough manager; and Alan Guzzardo, the North Wales Borough assistant manager.

To each of our guests, thank you for your dedication to the borough's success and for all you do to preserve the history, excellence, and comfort of North Wales. To my colleagues, thank you for your support.

The SPEAKER. Mayor, council president, cochair, and borough manager and assistant manager for North Wales Borough, thank you so much for joining us today. Thank you.

STATEMENT BY MS. TOOHL

The SPEAKER. Representative Tarah Toohil is recognized upon unanimous consent, and, Representative, you may proceed.

Ms. TOOHL. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

It is my pleasure today to introduce Brianna Kubishin to our colleagues here in the House. Brianna is with her mother, Colleen, behind me, and, Brianna, if you would please stand up, I am going to introduce you to the House.

Brianna is a current titleholder. You can hold your applause till the end. We are going to give her a round of applause at the end. Brianna is a current titleholder of Lancaster's Miss Red Rose City 2019. She graduated last month from Misericordia University with a master's degree in occupational therapy. She has a bachelor's degree in health sciences, and she minored in psychology and gerontology.

As an occupational therapist, Brianna strives to help others and she works on putting the ability in their disability. Throughout her year of service, Brianna will promote her personal platform called "The Miracles of Tomorrow Start Today: Overcoming Prematurity Through Early Intervention." And, Brianna, you are an academic and service-oriented inspiration to young people in our community and throughout Pennsylvania. Please keep using your voice to advocate for others. The State of Pennsylvania acknowledges your accomplishments and we wish you continued success. And if the colleagues of this House could give her a round of applause. We welcome you here today and congratulate you. Thank you, Brianna.

The SPEAKER. Thank you so much for being with us today. We are so honored.

Representative Kinsey, Representative Stephen Kinsey, on unanimous consent. You can come down to the Democratic leader's podium.

Members, I understand that upon unanimous consent, Representative Kinsey is going to be speaking with respect to a deceased United States Marine, so I am going to ask everybody to please take your seats.

STATEMENT BY MR. KINSEY

The SPEAKER. Representative Kinsey, you may proceed.

Mr. KINSEY. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. Speaker, I want to thank you and my colleagues for the opportunity to share the unfortunate passing of Mr. Earl Guydon. I know that many gathered here do not know Mr. Guydon by name, but I want to share that Mr. Guydon was a Montford Point Marine, and that is, he was a part of the first group of African-Americans to integrate the United States Marine Corps during World War II.

Mr. Guydon saw combat during World War II when the United States occupied Japan. Mr. Guydon was honorably discharged with the rank of corporal at the end of the war. In 2012 Mr. Guydon along with other Montford Point Marines were awarded the Congressional Gold Medal, the country's highest civilian honor awarded by Congress.

And, Mr. Speaker, I had the distinct pleasure of knowing Mr. Guydon since the 1960s. I actually went to school with his son, Jonathan, and Mr. Guydon was a stalwart in the community. As a young kid growing up, he never talked about his heroics or serving in the United States Marine Corps. What he talked about was focusing on education and keeping our community together. He became sort of like the leader of the "Town Watch," and he would walk with his Doberman pinscher, Rusty, up and down the streets at night just to ensure the safety of all the residents in the Germantown community. He later became very active in our community association, sharing ideas and suggestions, again, to keep our community safe; all this time, Mr. Speaker, many of us not knowing that this gentleman served this country with such honor as a United States Marine.

Mr. Speaker, his memorial is taking place today, and on behalf of all the members here assembled, I am honored to leave the chamber sometime later this afternoon to present to his family a citation recognizing and praising his service not only to Pennsylvania but to our country.

So, Mr. Speaker, I want to thank you for the opportunity to share as I reflect upon the life of Mr. Earl Guydon. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. Members, if you could, please remain standing; just remain standing. The good gentleman has asked if we could have a moment of silence, so if everybody could please remain standing.

(Whereupon, a moment of silence was observed.)

The SPEAKER. Thank you, Representative Kinsey. Members, please take your seats.

REMARKS SUBMITTED FOR THE RECORD

The SPEAKER. Representative Frankel.

Mr. FRANKEL. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

I will be submitting my remarks for the record.

The SPEAKER. Yes, sir. Thank you very much.

So Representative Frankel is submitting remarks for the record on HR 358, No Place for Hate Week.

Mr. FRANKEL submitted the following remarks for the Legislative Journal:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. Speaker, I rise today to talk about an organization that has for more than 100 years worked to make our State and our nation safer, fairer, and kinder. The Anti-Defamation League was created during a time of open bigotry and intolerance toward Jewish Americans, but from the beginning, the league's mission was larger than the protection of one group of targeted people. Sigmund Livingston created the ADL in his Chicago law office with $200 and a mission "to stop the defamation of the Jewish people and secure justice and fair treatment to all."

From the beginning, the ADL has fought the dark forces of ethnic, racial, and religious hatred with sunlight. The organization exposed the Ku Klux Klan's methods and developed legislation to give the Federal government the tools to fight the murderous group. As fascism moved across Europe in the 1930s, the ADL called out sympathetic organizations on American soil. While the league was battling violence against Jews and other minorities, it was also speaking out about the casual anti-Semitism and racism that plants the seeds of violence.

The ADL has become a vital source of information about hate groups and hate trends, depended upon by law enforcement and governments here in America and abroad.

The ADL grew out of the Jewish tradition of inclusion, and that value has remained a North Star for the organization. Hatred against one group weakens the whole. Violence against our neighbors makes us all less safe. It is in this spirit that the ADL created the "No Place for Hate" program, which fights bigotry by teaching respect for differences in schools and workplaces.

Hatred and violence have never gone away, never stopped threatening our values, our democracy, and our image of ourselves as a nation. Today the challenges are as formidable as ever, as technology is exploited to spread hateful ideology and its emissaries attempt to push it into the mainstream.

From its beginnings, the ADL has warned us that hatred and prejudice do not fade out when ignored. Because of a century of research by the ADL, we know that the shadows are where this brand of evil grows and flourishes. Never was that more clear to me than on October 27, 2018, when a gunman a couple of blocks from where I was gathering with local activists walked into a synagogue and opened fire on a group of people he had never met. I lost 11 friends and neighbors that day, and my neighborhood will never quite be the same.

We cannot change history or bring back the thousands of Americans who have lost their lives to this kind of destructive ideology, but we can stand with those who insist on equality and demand fairness. Today we thank the ADL for all of its contributions to our nation and our Commonwealth, and we declare May 27 through 31 "No Place For Hate Week" in its honor.

The SPEAKER. Representative Ortitay, if you could use the majority leader's podium since the other podiums are not here. Just give everybody a moment, and then I will call upon you. Members, if you could please take your seats. If you are staying, take your seats. If not, I would ask you to please exit either from the front or the back very quickly so that I can call upon members who wish to speak. And we are asking those that wish to speak to use either the majority leader's podium or the Democratic leader's podium. Either one is fine.

So I am going to ask all members to please clear the well. I am going to first be recognizing Representative Ortitay, and then I will be recognizing Representatives James and Freeman. So if we could, please clear the well. Please exit from the back of the chamber.

Sergeants at Arms, if you would not mind, can you remove the chairs in front of the majority leader's podium. If we could just move them to the side. Thank you so much, Cuppy.

STATEMENT BY MR. ORTITAY

The SPEAKER. Representative Ortitay is recognized to speak on HR 361.

Mr. ORTITAY. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

I rise today to thank my colleagues for their support in designating the week of July 21, 2019, as "Construction Opioids Awareness Week" in Pennsylvania.

As we all know, the opioid epidemic has been ravaging the Commonwealth. This issue and problem is not new. The construction industry, particularly, has been hard hit. The physical nature of construction work and the aging demographics of the industry's workers mean that injury rates are 77 percent higher than the national average.

Workers often are prescribed opioid pain medications for the pain associated with injuries common in the construction industry, and many workers may return to work before the injury has fully healed, using opioids to manage the pain.

My resolution, HR 361, works in concert with an effort by the Keystone Contractors Association, which has partnered with the National Safety Council, to organize educational resources and promote awareness of the problem and potential solutions. They, along with 12 other industry and labor groups, including the trade unions, plan to again focus their efforts on the last full week in July, the height of construction season. These efforts will include an educational toolbox, which encompasses materials to facilitate discussions with workers about the dangers of opioids and prescription drug abuse, a "Warn Me" sticker to be placed on workers' insurance cards to encourage health-care providers to discuss opioid issues with their patients, and drug take-back events.

Drug abuse by construction workers not only affects the workers themselves but also their coworkers on the job site, their employers, and the public. If work is performed improperly due to a worker's impairment, the errors can cause building failures, which can result in injuries and even death.

In conclusion, thank you for helping to bring awareness to the opioid problem in construction workers. By working together, we can help educate and prevent further addiction.

Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. Thank you, Representative Ortitay.

STATEMENT BY MR. JAMES

The SPEAKER. Representative Lee James and Representative Bob Freeman are recognized to speak on HR 370.

Mr. JAMES. Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I apologize for that.

Mr. Speaker, I rise today with my colleague, Representative Freeman, to draw attention to some unsung heroes here in the Commonwealth.

Our Commonwealth is blessed with a variety of parks, beaches, pools, campsites, marinas, athletic fields, etc., other recreational opportunities. Pennsylvanians take advantage of these opportunities on a regular, daily basis. But these facilities do not run themselves. Behind all these wonderful opportunities in Pennsylvania, there is a workforce of nearly 8,000 park and recreation employees. They are helped by a vast array of volunteers as well.

Mr. Speaker, these men and women ensure Pennsylvanians have access to a wide variety of leisure activities, and the activities keep Pennsylvanians healthy and help them lead happier lives. These local facilities add charm and value to our communities by improving the quality of life for local residents.

Therefore, Mr. Speaker, we introduce HR 370 to recognize the hard work of our park and recreation professionals. Mr. Speaker, on behalf of the grateful Commonwealth, I would like to take this opportunity to thank the men and women who work at the park and recreation facilities. And I would like to thank all of my colleagues for their positive vote.

Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

STATEMENT BY MR. FREEMAN

The SPEAKER. Representative Bob Freeman.

Mr. FREEMAN. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

I am pleased to join with my colleague and good friend, Representative Lee James, in thanking the House for its unanimous vote in favor of HR 370, a resolution that recognizes and celebrates July 19 of this year as "Pennsylvania Park and Recreation Professionals Day."

It is the parks and recreation professionals who maintain the many parks here in Pennsylvania, including 121 State parks and over 6,000 local parks. These individuals work diligently to ensure that our public parks system is clean, safe, and ready to use – parks in all of their various forms, from nature trails to active parks offering venues for sports and other physical fitness options, to passive parks that can offer a place of beauty and repose in a community, allowing that community and its residents to escape from their hectic schedules, at least briefly, for a period of relaxation and contemplation.

Our park and recreation professionals maintain their park systems with increasingly limited budgets and shrinking staff complements. Still they do a good job at maintaining these important features in our communities, and that helps to enhance the quality of life in all of these communities across Pennsylvania.

Parks and recreation systems get to the very heart of what creates a true sense of community here in Pennsylvania, what enhances the quality of life here in Pennsylvania, and what connects residents to one another as neighbors who enjoy those facilities here in Pennsylvania.

So today with HR 370 we thank our parks and recreation professionals for facilitating those very important aspects of our life, and again, our thanks to the House for its unanimous support.

The SPEAKER. Thank you, Representative James and Representative Freeman.

Amend Bill, page 4, line 4, by striking out "$10,000,000" and inserting

On the question,
Will the House agree to the amendment?

The SPEAKER. Representative Dan Miller, on the amendment.

Mr. D. MILLER. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. Speaker, the maker of this bill has a very good idea and I strongly support HB 296 and I believe, as she has always done, she has cared greatly about our foster care system, our foster care kids, and our foster care parents. I applaud her for those efforts and sincerely thank her for her work in that arena. She has a good idea.

What my amendment will do is it triples the size of the tax credits that will be available for foster care and for adoption. And why this is important, Mr. Speaker, is in direct relation to why I believe she has done the bill, is because she knows like I do, like many of us do, that our foster care system is hemorrhaging support and finding difficulty in trying to find enough qualified foster care homes for both foster care – short-term, long-term – and adoption possibilities, and we need to find a greater way to give our counties and nonprofit agencies more support in locating these households who are looking to support our foster care kids in one way or the other.

And now let us keep in mind, too, that in caring for a foster care child or being a preadoptive resource, this is not a simple job, this is not an easy process, and the challenges that come with it can often be immense. And it goes beyond the mere stipends for clothing or the mere support in relation to other household needs and it comes into a massive undertaking where this family is looking to support this new child in their world and to make that new child part of their family, often whether they are foster care, short-term placements, or even adoptive resources. So what my amendment does here is it says that we appreciate the work of not only the agencies in identifying these people and that we appreciate the foster care placements, in the sense of saying that we appreciate their work in stepping forward to care for a child who biologically was not their own, but in particular, what it does is it says we want to make it that we are helping to attract more and more families who care about raising kids from the foster care system.

These kids in foster care are often the most disadvantaged. They are often our most vulnerable. They are not looking for just a home, they are looking for a great home. They are not looking for just a family, they are looking for a great family, and they deserve it, as every child does. And often these kids in the foster care system are left on the side with not enough supports or jumping between too many placements without enough of a feeling of a sense of home or knowing that they have loved ones who care about them.

Well, Mr. Speaker, my belief is that this body cares about foster care kids. My belief is that this body will stand with foster care kids and say, "Look, we care about you. We want you to find more options, we want to support the families who are raising you, and we want this system to work in a better way that leads you to a better tomorrow." Well, in order for that to happen, Mr. Speaker, we need to bring more people into the system. We need to make it a little bit easier for foster care families to be involved. We need to help those preadoptive resources and say, "Look, you're not standing alone when you are taking this child into your home." Well, that is what this amendment does, is it goes and tells those foster care parents, those would-be adoptive resources, "You are not alone. We care about you and we are going to try to make it a little bit easier for you to do the important work that we need you to do."

So that, in short, Mr. Speaker, is what my amendment does. I recognize that the tax credit is a start in a direction and not the end of the process, but I want to applaud the good woman for her work on this bill and her long-term commitment. I believe that in tripling the amount we will make a positive difference in foster care agencies attracting resources for foster care and adoptive resources in Pennsylvania. So I would ask for an affirmative vote on this important amendment.

The SPEAKER. Representative Tarah Toohil, on the amendment.

Ms. TOOHIL. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

While I appreciate the efforts and motivation of my dear friend and colleague from Allegheny County, I would respectfully ask the members to oppose this amendment. It would provide – I believe that in the bill already that we are providing a reasonable starting point for this credit, and I would like to highlight that there is an annual reporting requirement. So if this credit is not working as intended, once it is established, that we can certainly entertain the idea of increasing the thresholds at a later time, and I am hopeful that this bill would actually be able to be passed and maybe we can include it in the current budget process that we are undergoing. And I think this legislation will get the ball down the field, but I do not want to extend it too far because I would be afraid that it would terminate the bill completely. So I would ask the members for a negative vote on this exact amendment.

Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. Does anybody else wish to speak on the amendment?

(8) A minor ordered to undergo treatment due to a determination under paragraph (7) shall remain and receive inpatient treatment at the treatment setting designated by the court for a period of up to twenty days. The minor shall be discharged whenever the attending physician determines that the minor no longer is in need of treatment, consent to treatment has been revoked under paragraph (4) or at the end of the time period of the order, whichever occurs first. If the attending physician determines continued inpatient treatment will be necessary at the end of the time period of the order and the minor does not consent

(i) release the minor; or

(ii) make a subsequent order for inpatient mental health treatment for a period not to exceed sixty days subject to discharge of the minor whenever the attending physician determines that the minor no longer is in need of treatment, or if consent has been revoked under paragraph (4).

(9) The procedure for a sixty-day period of treatment under paragraph (8)(ii) shall be repeated until the court determines to release the minor or the minor is discharged in accordance with paragraph (8).

(10) Nothing in this subsection shall prevent a nonconsenting parent who has legal custody rights of a minor child to object to the consent given by the other parent to inpatient treatment under paragraph (1) by filing a petition in a court of common pleas in the county where the minor resides. The court shall hold a hearing on the objection within seventy-two hours of the filing of the petition.

On the question, Will the House agree to the amendment?

The SPEAKER. On the amendment, Representative Mike Schlossberg.

Mr. SCHLOSSBERG. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

This amendment does three things: At first, it reinserts language which says that a parent cannot abrogate consent given by the minor on their behalf; it clarifies the court process by which the minor can be held for treatment; and it also reinserts the rights of a nonconsenting parent to object to the treatment.

This amendment has been agreed to by the gentleman from Washington County, and I want to thank him for his cooperation, and I ask for an affirmative vote.

The SPEAKER. Representative Ortitay, on the amendment, sir.

Mr. Speaker, this amendment is the genesis of some testimony I received last Thursday at a Sentencing Commission hearing that I was chairing, and some of the domestic violence providers in my community have raised this issue as a prevailing problem that they run into pretty routinely. So this amendment addresses that and ensures that children who need counseling services can get the services that they need in a timely manner to help them deal with whatever issues they may be dealing with, and I would appreciate the members' support.

The SPEAKER. On the amendment, the Chair is calling upon Representative Dan Miller.

Yes, sir. You may proceed. Representative Miller, you may proceed.

Mr. D. MILLER. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. Speaker, I want to applaud the maker of this bill, Representative Nesbit, for his work, putting together a bipartisan coalition to address this issue. I think he has done a fantastic job in bringing an important issue to our attention and being sure that we craft something to which will help not only a lot of people, but also be sure that where we are standing is the right place for us to stand in relation to our defense, values, and law.

That being said, I also wanted to applaud him as well for his work in crafting an amendment that I believe will address some of the issues that he and I have talked about, in particular, in relation to being sure that options are available in relation to, in particular, juveniles. Those who are brought into the delinquency system, we want to be sure that there are appropriate options that continue to allow the distinction we make criminally between an adult and a juvenile to exist in relation to options available for all of our crimes, including what will be my belief is the successful passage of HB 1402.

So I believe this is an agreed-to amendment with the maker, and I thank him for his work on the bill and the amendment and ask people to vote in the affirmative.

The SPEAKER. Representative Nesbit, on the amendment, sir.

The SPEAKER. Sir, just suspend for a moment.

Members, if you could, the prime sponsor of the bill is speaking on HB 1016. If we could, please take your seats, and if we could give him the attention that he deserves on HB 1016.

Mr. DeLUCA. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

As I said, I want to thank you for calling this bill up. It is a very important bill to the fraternal organizations. I want to commend my counterpart on the other side of the aisle for working with me on this bill. It is a bipartisan bill that would provide stronger protections for our fraternal organizations. Now, it is very seldom that we get to vote on a bill that the industry wants, and this industry was willing to have this bill brought up because of not only the protection for the fraternal organizations, but the individuals who are their insurers too. It is a good bill, and the fact is that there are 500,000 fraternal members in the Commonwealth and I am sure some of them are in your district. So I would appreciate an affirmative vote for this bill.

Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

On the question recurring,
Shall the bill pass finally?

Bill was agreed to.

The SPEAKER. This bill has been considered on three different days and agreed to and is now on final passage.

Representative Matt Gabler, on the bill.

Mr. GABLER. Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. Please suspend, sir.

Members, if you could, take your seats. If you have to have a conversation, staff and members, please take it off the House floor. Please take your seats. If you have to have a conversation, take it off the House floor.

Representative Gabler, on his bill, HB 364.

Mr. GABLER. Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker.

Today I rise to ask my colleagues for their support of HB 364, a bill which will improve the safety of our students and our traveling public. This bill adds "school vehicles" to the categories of vehicles that are authorized to display a flashing or revolving yellow light. Unlike school buses, which display the red and amber flashing lights that we are all familiar with, school vehicles are regular passenger vehicles, such as vans or minivans, and they currently are authorized to display only placards that identify them as carrying school students.

Across our Commonwealth school vehicles travel thousands of miles each day to transport children to their places of learning. These vehicles, by nature of the purpose they serve, may behave in ways that other drivers on the road do not expect.

This legislation authorizes, at the discretion of the operator of the school vehicle, the display of temporary or permanent yellow lights on these vehicles to signal their stops. These signals will provide an additional visual cue for other drivers on the road to see what is going on. Especially when one of these vehicles may need to stop or turn near a blind curve or hill or in low-light conditions, the reflections of this yellow light will give advance warning to other approaching drivers.

With the adoption of yesterday's amendment, the official positions of the Pennsylvania State Police and PennDOT are neutral on this bill, meaning that there is no opposition among the stakeholders. The focus of our work this week in the House is to move legislation that strengthens and protects communities. I am proud to offer HB 364 as an important piece of that effort. I ask for your affirmative vote, and I thank you all very much.

On the question recurring,
Shall the bill pass finally?

The SPEAKER. Agreeable to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays will now be taken.
