SESSION OF 2019

203D OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY

No. 54

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

The House convened at 1 p.m., e.d.t.

THE SPEAKER (MIKE TURZAI) PRESIDING

The SPEAKER. Members, please take your seats. Very special day here today for one of our soon-to-be colleagues.

PRAYER

HON. KAREN BOBACK, member of the House of Representatives, offered the following prayer:

Heavenly Father, Almighty God, as we gather here today among colleagues and friends, hear our prayer. Bless our new member-to-be, David Rowe. Enlighten him, inspire him, and grant him courage in making decisions that will have a positive impact on those he serves. For David and for all of us, bless those who nourish and support our journeys. May their love and guidance give us strength to live our convictions.

Dear God, enrich our lives and show us Your presence in one another so we can build camaraderie and make strong the ties that unite us. May the spirit who breaks down barriers teach us to respect and celebrate the diversity that makes our Commonwealth great.

And today, the first day we formally gather after Freedom Day, may we never forget the conflicts Your children, O God, endure in the name of peace. In remembrance of our role as a Commonwealth and our nation and what it played on September 11th, may we memorialize those who were loved and lost, and in their memory pray that America will forever remain one nation under You, O God.

In Your name we say, Amen.

PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE

(The Pledge of Allegiance was recited by members and visitors.)

The SPEAKER. Thank you, Representative Karen Boback.

OATH OF OFFICE ADMINISTERED

The SPEAKER. The Speaker invites Representative-elect David H. Rowe to please come forward to the well of the House for the purpose of taking the oath of office.

And, Representative-elect Rowe, is there anybody – and if you would not mind introducing them to us – any family members or friends that you would like to be with you at the time of swearing-in? And please, just adjust the mike and introduce them for us.

Mr. ROWE. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

It is a privilege and an honor to have my parents here today, John and Sherry Rowe. It is a privilege as well to have my family, my entire immediate family – John and Wendy Rowe, his wife; my sisters, Rebekah Prestwich now; and my sister, Bethany Rowe. It is also an honor to have the chairman of the Snyder County GOP, Nick Gingrich, as well as the State committeewoman for Snyder County, Pat Saylor.

The SPEAKER. Okay. Who will be standing with you for the administration of the oath?

Mr. ROWE. My parents.

The SPEAKER. Parents, please come forward. Thank you.

I have the honor of introducing to you Judge Cheryl Lynn Allen, who will be administering the oath of office today. Judge Allen is a Pittsburgh native and former Pittsburgh public school teacher, a graduate of Penn State University and the University of Pittsburgh School of Law. Oh, you must have had an amazing weekend. As you know, the judge spent 15 years practicing law before earning a merit selection appointment to the Allegheny County Court of Common Pleas in 1990 and then was elected to a 10-year term in 1991 and retained in 2001, and then she was elected to the Superior Court of Pennsylvania. And really, quite a distinguished background – serving on the Juvenile Court Judges' Commission and on boards, including Pittsburgh Leadership Foundation, Hosanna House, Cornerstone Television. She is a Waynesburg University trustee.

And we are so honored that she is here today to administer the oath of office to our newest member-to-be. Judge, thank you.

JUDGE ALLEN. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

And to the members of the House and family members and friends of Representative-elect David Rowe, I am truly honored to be here today to share this moment with you. And as I was reflecting upon this day, I could not help but remember the Scriptures where it states that if a man or if a person is to be great, let him serve. In other words, greatness is not only defined by great leadership skills but by having a servant's heart. And so it is my prayer that you will serve not only the people of the 85th Legislative District with distinction but also the people of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

So if you will place your left hand on the Bible and raise your hand and repeat after me: I – state your name – do solemnly swear that I will support, obey, and defend the Constitution of the United States and the Constitution of this Commonwealth and that I will discharge the duties of my office with fidelity.

(Member asserted oath.)

JUDGE ALLEN. Congratulations.

The SPEAKER. Representative Rowe, congratulations.

And thank you to Judge Allen for providing the administration of the oath of office required by Article VI, section 3, of the Constitution of Pennsylvania.

At this time, Representative, we are going to be calling upon both the majority leader and the minority leader for remarks, and then I will close with some remarks myself.

REMARKS BY MAJORITY LEADER

The SPEAKER. The Chair is going to call upon the majority leader, our good friend and colleague, Representative Bryan Cutler of Lancaster County, for remarks with respect to your swearing-in. Leader.

Mr. CUTLER. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Congratulations, Representative Rowe. It is wonderful to have you amongst our ranks. As many of your friends and guests will see here today, we have the privilege of not only serving in one of the prettiest Capitols across the country, but I would offer one of the best because you will find amongst your colleagues here a strong passion, sometimes disagreement, but a strong passion on serving all of those whom we represent.

Along that line, I want to thank your friends and family. You all played an integral role in ensuring that he got here. You also will continue to play a very integral role as he carries out the duties of the job. And you will be sacrificing schedules and time as well. However, I want to encourage all of you to remember your reason why you ran. Remember your passion, remember what drove you, what interested you in getting here.

On swearing-in day, which the majority of us enjoyed together and you will hopefully have that opportunity the next cycle, I shared my own personal story of why I ran for office. And I think it is very important to understand why we, each and every one of us, ran for office and what drives us because it really colors how we make decisions. If you can understand someone's reason or their why, I think you can understand what drives them and what their goals are. I would offer that all of us can identify the problems, we sometimes disagree on the solutions, but it is in that robust debate that we can hopefully find some form of compromise.

So as we get to the business here, you will be taking your seat shortly and casting your first official vote. I wanted to congratulate you, and I look forward to working with you as we go forward, learning your reasons why in terms of what drove you to run here.

And to the family, I would ask you to continue to support him as he carries out the duties of the office, I would offer one of the best jobs in the Commonwealth. So good luck.

REMARKS BY DEMOCRATIC LEADER

The SPEAKER. The minority leader, Representative Frank Dermody of Allegheny County.

Mr. DERMODY. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. Speaker, it is fitting that our newest State legislator takes office on September 17, the same date on which 38 delegates meeting in the hall of Pennsylvania's State House in Philadelphia in the year 1787, "...in Order to form a more perfect Union,..." put their names on the United States Constitution.

So on this special day, I also would like to say, Judge Allen, thank you for participating here today and it is good to see you again.

Welcome to all of you, and especially the family and friends who joined us from Snyder and Union Counties to see David Rowe sworn in as our newest State Representative. You all helped him get here, and you deserve to share this celebration with him.

You know, it is always a special occasion here when the oath is recited. The swearing-in of David Rowe, now with the swearing-in, we now have 203 elected Representatives in the State House of Representatives. That is a good thing for this House, and it is especially good for the people of the 85th District in the Susquehanna Valley to have an elected advocate in State government, a person they chose with their vote.

Representative Rowe, congratulations on winning your election. This is going to be a special moment in your life. You have already served in township government, and you are beginning a new level of service to the people in your district. With this service comes lots of challenges and new responsibilities; some of that you have not faced before. It will also come with a level of personal fulfillment and satisfaction you will be able to take pride in. You are in a position to help the people and the communities that you serve.

And as you get to know your new colleagues and as we get to know you, I will expect you will discover that we have many things in common. We care about our constituents; we care about our districts. We bring a lot of different ideas and perspectives and experiences and insight to this job. And I believe that each and every one of us has the same goals. We want to do the best that we can for the people who sent us here, and we want to do what is best for the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Most people would agree that our system of government has become very partisan in recent years. It sometimes seems like there are more political games and posturing than there is actual governing. To our newest member, and indeed to all of us in this House, I suggest that it is a good time to tone down the partisanship and focus ourselves on getting things done in the time we have to work here together. If we can find ways to do that, we stand a much better chance of keeping our State, our schools, our communities, and our institutions on the right track. We are all here to serve the common interests of the people of Pennsylvania.

So in that spirit, I look forward to working together with you. Once again congratulations on beginning your service here. Thanks.

REMARKS BY SPEAKER

The SPEAKER. Representative Rowe, on behalf of each and every member in the Pennsylvania House of Representatives, we welcome you to this august body.

As my good friend and colleague noted – and we served as prosecutors together in Allegheny County – today is Constitution Day. I think it is interesting to note not only in 1787 did these great 39 individuals meet to sign the United States Constitution, but that that happened in our Commonwealth in Philadelphia and in the building that our predecessors actually served in. Many people forget or do not know that Independence Hall was the home of the Pennsylvania Provincial and then General Assembly, of which we are the direct descendants. From 1732 when it was first begun to be built up to and through 1799, it served as the Capitol for the Colony and then the State of Pennsylvania. William Penn in fact started the Provincial Assembly, and you can see his portrait right here in the middle of the Apotheosis and then also to my right, your left, in the painting that depicts his treaty with the Delaware Indians. He comes here in 1682 to found a colony of religious tolerance, he being a Quaker, and it predated the formation of the United States of America through its Constitution by more than 100 years. You are serving today in that body.

You yourself have been a public servant in your community for more than a decade. You have been an active leader, serving as vice chair of the East Buffalo Board of Supervisors; a member of the Capital Campaign Council for an important health-care entity, the Evangelical Community Hospital. You were director of the Central Susquehanna Fire and Emergency Services board and a commissioner of the Buffalo Valley Regional Police Department. You are an active member of New Hope Lutheran Brethren Church in East Buffalo Township and a leader of its music ministry. And I know that you are an entrepreneur and a business owner who takes care of customers and has many employees operating CrossFit Lewisburg. All of these are so crucial. You are a member of the community and an active citizen in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Following 2 years of Christian ministry work as an educator in Southeast Asia, you actually attended National Sun Yat-sen University in Taiwan and participated in its Mandarin Chinese immersion study program. You are a person that actually reaches beyond your community to get to know people of all backgrounds and faiths and cultures. How exciting for the local community in Snyder and Union Counties to have you now be their State Representative.

GUESTS INTRODUCED

The SPEAKER. I know that with you today – Kay Keller – where is Kay? Oh, there is Kay. Kay, the wife of our former colleague and our good friend, Congressman Fred Keller, is here with us, along with, I believe, Joe Kantz and Lee Knepp, Snyder County Commissioners – please raise your hands – and Preston Boop, who is the Union County Commissioner. Preston. And we are so appreciative that you would take the time to be with us.

But in particular, I must say, it is great to have your parents, your brother and sister-in-law, your sisters, all present here with you on this very, very special day.

With that, we are going to close the swearing-in ceremony, but please know you are going to be voting today, going right into the job, and I think everybody would be glad to give you a warm welcome one more time. Thank you so much, Representative Rowe and family.

We have a few introductions to make and then we are going to be breaking for, I think, we are going to give the family some time to celebrate. And let me just introduce a few other folks that are with us today.

GUESTS INTRODUCED

The SPEAKER. To my left – Diane, James, and Julia Capentier, please stand. They are guests of Representative Shusterman. Thank you so much for being with us today. Welcome.

And in the rear of the House, Cerene Brown and Cailyn – I think I am saying that correctly – please stand. They are guests of Representative Hill-Evans. Great to have you here today. Thank you for being with us.

We are going to hold off taking the roll call. When we come back to the floor, we will go through leaves of absence and the roll call when we come back.

The Chair is going to call upon, I believe, the majority caucus chair and the Democratic caucus chair for caucus announcements.

APPROPRIATIONS COMMITTEE MEETING

The SPEAKER. Our Appropriations chair is Stan Saylor, and the majority Appropriations chair is called upon, first, for a committee announcement.

Mr. SAYLOR. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

The Appropriations Committee will meet immediately upon recess in the majority caucus room.

The SPEAKER. Thank you, Mr. Chair.

The Appropriations Committee will meet immediately in the majority caucus room.

Are there any other committee announcements before I call on the caucus chairs? Any other committee announcements?

REPUBLICAN CAUCUS

The SPEAKER. The majority caucus chair, Representative Marcy Toepel of Montgomery County, is recognized for a caucus announcement.

Mrs. TOEPEL. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Republicans will caucus at 2:15. We would be prepared to return to the floor at 3:15. Thank you.

DEMOCRATIC CAUCUS

The SPEAKER. Representative Joanna McClinton, the Democratic caucus chair, for a caucus announcement.

Ms. McCLINTON. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

House Democrats, we will caucus this afternoon at 2:15.

HB 1671, PN 2283

By Rep. SAYLOR

An Act amending the act of April 3, 1992 (P.L.28, No.11), known as the Tuition Account Programs and College Savings Bond Act, in tuition account program, further providing for declaration of policy, for definitions, for Tuition Account Programs Bureau, for powers of department, for Tuition Account Guaranteed Savings Program, for Tuition Account Investment Program, for general provisions governing both tuition account programs, for Federal taxation; establishing the Keystone Scholars Grant Program and the Keystone Scholars Grant Program Account; and making a related repeal.

APPROPRIATIONS.

LEAVES OF ABSENCE

The SPEAKER. We are going to take leaves of absence.

Representative Zachary MAKO of Northampton County, as you know, is now, I believe, at Fort Hood in Texas with the Army National Guard and will soon be deployed to, I think it is, I am quite sure, Afghanistan. So he is going to be on leave of absence until his return from deployment.

Representative Maureen MADDEN of Monroe County for the week and Representative Ed GAINNEY of Allegheny County for the week.

Without objection, these will all be granted.

MASTER ROLL CALL

The SPEAKER. We are now going to proceed to vote on the master roll. Please vote.

Gainey Madden Mako

The majority having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative and the amendment was agreed to.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on second consideration as amended?

The SPEAKER. There is another amendment. It is amendment 02800. It is a late-filed amendment by Representative— Representative Hohenstein offers amendment 02800. It is late. It would need a motion to suspend. The Chair calls upon— First of all read a summary of it just for us.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the bill on second consideration as amended?

Mr. HOHENSTEIN offered the following amendment No. A02800:

Amend Bill, page 1, line 3, by striking out "arrest or removal of persons from" and inserting unlawful occupants of

Amend Bill, page 1, line 9, by striking out "Arrest or removal of persons from" and inserting Unlawful occupants of

Amend Bill, page 1, lines 15 and 16, by striking out "have the authority to arrest the person or to remove the person from the premises without making an arrest" and inserting investigate the situation

Amend Bill, page 2, lines 3 and 4, by striking out "arresting or removing a person under this section"

Amend Bill, page 2, line 7, by inserting after "tenant" or is not an unlawful occupant

Amend Bill, page 2, line 8, by inserting after "property" who believes that a person occupying the property has no lawful right of occupancy

Amend Bill, page 2, line 9, by striking out "and request removal of a person"

Amend Bill, page 2, by inserting between lines 19 and 20

(5) A person who does not have a claim to reside in the residential property, such as an unlawful occupant, including a claim that such person is an owner of such property, has entered and remained on said residential property without the permission of an owner of such property.

Amend Bill, page 2, line 20, by striking out "(5)" and inserting

Amend Bill, page 2, lines 20 and 21, by striking out "removed from residential property under this section"

Amend Bill, page 2, line 24, by striking out "(6)" and inserting

(7)

Amend Bill, page 3, lines 6 through 9, by striking out all of said lines and inserting

(f) Court filing.—Upon filing with the appropriate court of common pleas of a complaint for ejectment supported by an owner or authorized agent affidavit alleging unlawful occupancy and a motion for emergency preliminary injunction, the court shall schedule an emergency hearing within the time period necessitated by the circumstances presented or applicable court procedures.

(g) Residential lease fraud victims.—Upon receiving information that an alleged unlawful occupant is a residential lease fraud victim, the law enforcement agent shall notify the victim in writing that the victim cannot legally remain in the residence and must make arrangements to move out within 30 days or other time period as is necessitated by the circumstances presented or applicable directive.

(h) Mandated report.—A police officer conducting an investigation under this section shall make an incident report, and other reports as prescribed by law enforcement directive, which shall include, but not be limited to:

(1) the parties involved and any verifiable identification provided or lack thereof;

(2) the facts as alleged by the respective parties;

(3) any visual or other observations made by the officer that support statements made by any party; and

(4) any documentation concerning the alleged existence of a lease or other agreement concerning the current living arrangements or ownership of the property.

(i) Definitions.—As used in this section, the following words and phrases shall have the meanings given to them in this subsection unless the context clearly indicates otherwise:

"Residential property." A dwelling intended for human habitation, including a house, apartment, mobile home or manufactured home.

"Unlawful occupant." A person who is not an owner of the subject residential property, is not a victim of domestic violence, sexual harassment or stalking perpetrated by an owner of the property or by another person who is or had recently lived with the victim in the residential property and who occupies the residential property without one of the following:

(1) title, including by adverse possession, of the residential property under Pennsylvania law;

(2) permission of an owner of the residential property, a prior owner of the residential property with legal authority to grant permission at the time it was granted, a tenant of the residential property with legal authority to grant permission at the time it was granted or an authorized agent of any individual listed under this paragraph;

(3) other interaction with an owner of the residential property, a prior owner of the residential property, or an agent of either, that would indicate a relationship recognized as a landlord-tenant relationship pursuant to the act of April 6, 1951 (P.L.69, No.20), known as The Landlord and Tenant Act of 1951;

(4) the payment of a deposit, rent or rent substitute to an individual whom the person believes in reasonable good faith is either an owner of the residential property or has the authority to rent the property; or

(5) other legal claim to reside in the residential property, including a claim to legal or equitable title of the residential property, including, but not limited to, a claim asserted by:

(i) a former owner of a residential property sold at tax sale claiming a right to redeem before the end of the redemption period under Pennsylvania law;

(ii) an individual who is a buyer of the residential property under an installment sales contract;

(iii) an individual to whom the property has been conveyed pursuant to an unrecorded deed; or

(iv) an individual with a right to reside in the residential property under the Protecting Tenants at Foreclosure Act of 2009 (Public Law 111-22, 123 Stat. 1660).

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

The SPEAKER. So this is not timely filed.

Representative Hohenstein, for a motion.

Mr. HOHENSTEIN. Thank you, Mr. Speaker, and thank you, especially, for allowing me to speak on an untimely amendment and also for ensuring that you were pronouncing my name correctly. I do appreciate that.

We had concerns raised with this bill from constituent organizations, Community Legal Services, and the Philadelphia Bar Association. Those concerns related to the due process that occurs in this bill with—

The SPEAKER. Sir, please suspend.

Members, please take your seats. Members, please take your seats. The gentleman is entitled to be heard. For his amendment to be voted on, he will likely be offering a motion to suspend. Please take your seats.

And, Representative, you may proceed.

Mr. HOHENSTEIN. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

So the concerns with this bill revolve around due process and the fact that police are making a life-changing decision right at someone's door. Currently that is a process that is handled through the courts, and that is something that our constituent organizations had a concern with.

We are also going to be subjecting some very vulnerable populations – domestic violence survivors and people with tangled titles, and frankly, some legitimate tenants in this bill – and I appreciate that the maker of the bill has offered an amendment that does improve the bill and does provide for tenants' rights, but there is more work to be done on it and in particular protecting victims of domestic violence, protecting people whose tangled titles tangle up their lives, and we have got to be able to get this bill right.

AMENDMENT WITHDRAWN

Mr. HOHENSTEIN. So with that said, I do appreciate being heard on this untimely amendment and I will be withdrawing the amendment.

Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. Thank you, sir.

There are no other amendments on HB 365.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the bill on second consideration as amended?

Bill as amended was agreed to.

The SPEAKER. The bill as amended will be reprinted.

STATEMENT BY MR. MOUL

The SPEAKER. Representative Dan Moul is recognized on unanimous consent.

Mr. MOUL. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. Members, if you could, please turn your attention to our colleague, Representative Dan Moul, who is recognized on unanimous consent.

Mr. MOUL. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Ladies and gentlemen, about 3 weeks ago my father passed away, and it was quite a solemn time for our family, very sad time. He lived to be 91 1/2 years old. He did have a good life. I was with him when he took his last breath, and he watched me take my first.

But the reason I am standing in front of you today is the outpouring of sympathy and condolences – phone calls, letters – that came from this body was so overwhelming I did not know what to say. Actually, the first day they started coming in, I made a list and I was going to go around and shake those people's hands and say thank you very much, I appreciate it. But from both sides – this aisle disappeared in that time, it totally disappeared – I received literally over 100 from this body, and I could not get around to seeing each and every one of you, so I personally wanted to get up here and say to my family, thank you so much for your condolences and your sympathies in our time.

Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. Thank you, Representative Moul.

REMARKS SUBMITTED FOR THE RECORD

Mr. FARRY submitted the following remarks for the Legislative Journal:

Mr. Speaker, it is my privilege to bring to the attention of the Speaker and the members of the Pennsylvania House of Representatives the name of Luke Eric Andre, who has been awarded Scouting's highest honor – Eagle Scout.

Mr. Speaker, I would like to read to the members of the House of Representatives the following citation of merit honoring Luke Eric Andre.

Whereas, Luke Eric Andre earned the Eagle Award in Scouting. This is the highest award that Boy Scouts can bestow and as such represents great sacrifice and tremendous effort on the part of this young man. Luke is a member of Troop 5.

Now therefore, Mr. Speaker and the members of the House of Representatives, it is my privilege to congratulate and place in the Legislative Journal the name of Luke Eric Andre.

ANNOUNCEMENT BY MR. GABLER

The SPEAKER. Members, on unanimous consent, the Speaker recognizes Representative Matt Gabler. If you could please give him your attention. Representative Matt Gabler.

Mr. GABLER. Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker.

The last time I stood at this podium to make an announcement of this sort, I was wearing a light-pink tie. Today I am wearing a light-blue tie. I am pleased to bring good news from the Gabler household. On August 27 we welcomed a little boy to our household, Sebastian Michael arrived. He was 7 pounds 5 ounces, 20 inches long. Thank you. The entire family is happy and healthy. Big sister, Caroline, is very proud. And I want to especially thank my wife for being the strongest person I know. Lisa, thank you.

Thank you, all. God bless. Appreciate it.

The SPEAKER. Representative Gabler, congratulations. Our best to Lisa and to new baby, Sebastian, and to Caroline as well. Thanks, my friend.

CORRECTION OF THE RECORD

The SPEAKER. Also for the record, while our colleague, Representative Zach Mako, flies Chinooks, he is a pilot navigator with Chinooks, he flies Chinooks, he is actually in the Army National Guard. Even though he is a pilot, he is in the Army National Guard, and the record will so reflect. We are going to go back and make the changes, if you do not mind. Thank you.

And thank you, Representative Gabler.

STATE GOVERNMENT COMMITTEE MEETING

The SPEAKER. Representative Garth Everett, chair of the State Government Committee, I believe, has a committee announcement.

Mr. EVERETT. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

The House State Government Committee will have a voting meeting immediately at adjournment – that will be right now – in room 205, Ryan Office Building, to consider HBs 1588, 1106, 1107, and HR 415, and any other business that may come before the committee. That is House State Government Committee, right now, room 205, Ryan Office Building.

Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. Thank you, Mr. Chair.

The State Government Committee will meet now in room 205, Ryan Office Building.
