

COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA

LEGISLATIVE JOURNAL

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 22, 2020

SESSION OF 2020

204TH OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY

No. 6

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

The House convened at 11 a.m., e.s.t.

THE SPEAKER (MIKE TURZAI) PRESIDING

PRAYER

The SPEAKER. The prayer today will be offered by Sister GERALYN SCHMIDT of the Harrisburg Diocese. She is the guest of Representative Andrew Lewis, and myself, as Speaker.

SISTER GERALYN SCHMIDT, Guest Chaplain of the House of Representatives, offered the following prayer:

Let us listen to a reading from part of Psalm 119: "Teach me, O Lord, the way of your statutes, and I will observe it to the end. Give me understanding, that I may keep your law and observe it with my whole heart. Lead me in the path of your commandments, for I delight in it. Turn my heart to your decrees, and not to selfish gain. Turn my eyes from looking at vanities; give me life in your ways. Confirm to your servant your promise, which is for those who fear you. Turn away the disgrace that I dread, for your ordinances are good. See, I have longed for your precepts; in your righteousness give me life."

Let us pray: Divine lawgiver and creator of the universe, today we come before You knowing that You are always with us and attentive to our needs. As Your Representatives gather today to serve the people of Pennsylvania, allow them to minister to each other. May they always respect and reverence the diversity of gifts, talents, personalities, and ideas which each of them possesses. Give them patience and a discerning ear, as they listen to each other's points of view in working to find common ground in the creation of just laws for all Pennsylvanians. Give them wisdom and knowledge in fashioning laws that truly articulate the common good and not personal agendas. Help them to be courageous in seeking out what is truly just and right, as well as a heartfelt reverence for all. Finally, Most Holy One, bless all their endeavors and may they reflect Your love, Your peace, and Your justice. We ask this and all things in Your name. Amen.

PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE

STATEMENT BY MR. MEHAFFIE

The SPEAKER. The Chair is calling upon Representative Tom Mehaffie on HR 650. He is joined by Representative Donna Oberlander, the majority caucus Policy chair.

Representative Mehaffie.

Mr. MEHAFFIE. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

It truly is an honor to be here today with our special guests from Milton Hershey School. I want to thank all my colleagues for supporting this unanimous HR 650 for the 110th anniversary of the Milton Hershey School.

Before I start, I would like to introduce my guests: Pete Gurt, president of Milton Hershey School; also with us is staff, Lisa Scullin and Megan Earley; and we also have seniors here today from the Milton Hershey School – Njambi Womack, Tori Wentland, and Jose Mendez-Montero.

Again, Mr. Speaker, thank you so much for the opportunity to congratulate Milton Hershey on their 110th anniversary. I want to, first, thank you for the time that you spent with me on a tour when we went through the Milton Hershey School. I thought it was a great time that we had to experience what they really do. And then on top of it, Representative Oberlander, thank you for bringing the Policy Committee to the school to understand exactly what goes on and how these great individuals, between the houseparents and the staff and the teachers, take care of these students and make sure they succeed in life.

Some of these students come from all over the country, which is an outstanding thing that Milton Hershey and his wife, Catherine, had a vision, and when they first started this school, it was about orphan boys. This school has changed so much over the last 110 years, and I was talking to Pete Gurt, the president, earlier when he came to visit me today, he said that now 51 percent of the students are girls. So I think that is really where we have come, from orphan boys all the way to 51 percent of the school being orphan girls.

When I first came to the school, it was hard for me not to fall in love with this school. They do such great work there. The houseparents, as I said, do a great job, and it is something that is outstanding, that they take their time and spend their whole life there helping these students out and helping them through the challenges in life.

There are about 11,000 alumni, which call themselves the Milts, and there are 2,100 students at this school that they take care of every day. As I said, it is a coed school, and they do a lot for these students on both sides. When you go there, you will be able to see how important this school really is and gives them the opportunity. My good friend, Jon Wilt, almost 50 years ago, graduated from this school and today he still talks so highly about it.

So today I want to recognize the 110th anniversary and thank Milton Hershey for his dream and his wife, Catherine, for what they have done and what they set in place and what has become such a wonderful, wonderful place on "The Sweetest Place On Earth®."

So thank you, Mr. Speaker, for the opportunity to do this 110th anniversary resolution today. Thank you.

The SPEAKER. Thank you, sir.

STATEMENT BY MS. OBERLANDER

The SPEAKER. Representative Donna Oberlander, please. Ms. OBERLANDER. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

And thank you, Representative, for the opportunity to just say a few words.

I want to just reflect just for a moment on the first time that I heard about Milton Hershey School. And it is sort of interesting that I was born and raised in Pennsylvania and it was in Virginia that I first heard about it. It was from a young man who was an orphan. He was a librarian for the government contractor that I worked for, and he raved about Milton Hershey School. He credited all his success and really saving him from a life of hardship.

It was later that my predecessor, Fred McIlhattan, many of whom you know, he has become a champion for the Milton Hershey School, an ambassador, if you will, and has had over 30 children from my district in the Milton Hershey School. We have had multiple houseparents, and it is quite intriguing what a wonderful job they do, what a legacy both Milton and his wife, Catherine, have instilled and installed on our Commonwealth.

I just wanted to take a moment and say thank you. The Policy Committee did go there, and it is absolutely a wonderful place. If you have the opportunity, I would highly recommend that you take that chance to just tour it and see the good work that they are doing there.

Thank you, members, and thank you, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. Representative Mehaffie and Representative Oberlander, thank you so much.

To Pete Gurt, the president, who is just an amazing individual. I had the honor to meet him with Representative Mehaffie. Representative Mehaffie is very close to the leadership and to the students at Milton Hershey School, which sits in his district. And Pete is such a dynamic leader. Pete himself went to the Milton Hershey School.

And, Pete, I know we all probably have our own personal stories. The last name Turzai, as you might know, is not a very common last name, of Hungarian origin, and a number of years ago before my father had passed away, quite some time ago, they did a reunion, some gentlemen from the Hershey area did a reunion of Turzais in Pennsylvania, and we came out and met many of these cousins of my dad whom he did not know. And two of those young men – very successful individuals – during World War II when they did not have – my father served in World War II, but these cousins were a bit younger, just prior to the war actually – they could not afford to raise the boys and they went to the Milton Hershey School. And their love for your school, like I am sure your other students, was just so heartfelt.

Thank you for all you do, and thank you to Milton Hershey on behalf of all Pennsylvanians. Pete, thank you for carrying on the mission. And God bless.

Representative Mehaffie, thank you for bringing these great people here today.

Can we please give them a really warm welcome.

And the students, we are so thrilled that you are here. Thank you very, very much.

LEAVE OF ABSENCE

The SPEAKER. Representative GALLOWAY has requested to be placed on leave. Without objection, that will be granted.

Amend Bill, page 1, line 4, by inserting after "privilege;" in rules of the road in general, further providing for the offense of overtaking vehicle on the left and providing for vehicles passing pedestrians on a highway;

(1) If a pedestrian is walking on a highway or on a shoulder adjacent to a highway, the driver of a motor vehicle shall safely pass a pedestrian on the pedestrian's left side within not less than four feet, but the driver is not required to exit the laned roadway or yield to the pedestrian to achieve the four-foot requirement.

On the question,
Will the House agree to the amendment?

The SPEAKER. Representative Brett Miller is recognized on his amendment. Sir.

Mr. B. MILLER. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. Speaker, this amendment simply applies the 4-foot buffer to a vulnerable highway user the same as it already is in law with a person who is on a bicycle. Currently the code does provide for a 4-foot buffer for those who ride a bicycle legally on the road, and this amendment would just apply that for any vulnerable highway user, and I ask for an affirmative vote.

Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. Thank you, sir.

On the question recurring,
Will the House agree to the amendment?

On the question,
Will the House agree to the amendment?

The SPEAKER. Representative Greg Rothman, on the amendment, sir.

Mr. ROTHMAN. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

To my colleagues, many of your constituents, especially if they are between the ages of 16 and 25, well, they woke up in December to a gift for the holidays of an e-scooter. If you spent any time – I dropped off my daughter at Penn State in State College – or if you have traveled around the country, in half of the largest cities in this country you have seen electric scooters. They only go 15 miles an hour. They are electric. They are good for the environment. They allow mobility. The kids use them and the millennials use them instead of cars. It is ridesharing.

And it sends a message to the young people that are leaving this State – last year 20,000 net loss in population in Pennsylvania. We are a State that is losing young people. When they find out that they are not allowed to ride a scooter in Pennsylvania if it has an electric motor.

AMENDMENT WITHDRAWN

Mr. ROTHMAN. Mr. Speaker, I was looking for a vehicle to try to get e-scooters legalized in Pennsylvania. This is not the vehicle. I am withdrawing my amendment, but I would hope that everybody would come together to get scooters legalized in Pennsylvania.

Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. All those in favor— Oh, yes. Representative Mary Isaacson. Waives off.

An Act amending Title 18 (Crimes and Offenses) of the Pennsylvania Consolidated Statutes, in human trafficking, further providing for evidence and defenses to human trafficking.

On the question,
Will the House agree to the bill on third consideration?
Bill was agreed to.

(Bill analysis was read.)

The SPEAKER. This bill has been considered on three different days and agreed to and is now on final passage.

The question is, shall the bill pass finally?

Representative Mihalek is recognized on the bill.
And right down here, up front in the well of the House, please.
Thank you, Representative.

Members, the gentlelady is entitled to be heard. This is on HB 2174.

Ms. MIHALEK. I want to thank my colleagues, first of all, for recognizing that there is an epidemic in this country – an epidemic unimaginable to most of us, yet it is occurring in our own backyard. And I want to thank you for your willingness to do something about it. That is why I am asking for an affirmative vote today.

The United States is ranked as one of the worst places in the world for human trafficking, right up there with Mexico and the Philippines. Pennsylvania ranks 10th within the United States, and the multibillion-dollar industry continues to boom. Sometimes used for labor, oftentimes used for sex, women and children are especially vulnerable to this predatory behavior. This is why I felt it was important to include an additional expansion of the Rape Shield Law in this package of bills. For human trafficking victims who have been repeatedly assaulted and treated as if they have no voice, we need to empower our criminal justice system with the tools necessary to prosecute these predators and provide victims the voice they have been denied.

It is my sincere hope that this is the beginning of the work we will do to combat this epidemic. Predators of human trafficking will stop at nothing to get what they want. Today we put those predators on notice that the Pennsylvania Legislature will stop at nothing to halt them dead in their tracks.

Thank you for your consideration, and I ask for an affirmative vote.

On the question recurring,
Shall the bill pass finally?

The SPEAKER. Agreeable to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays will now be taken.

REMARKS SUBMITTED FOR THE RECORD

The SPEAKER. Representative Ed Neilson is recognized on unanimous consent.

Mr. NEILSON. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

I would like to thank the House for passing HR 658, and I would like to put my comments on the record.

The SPEAKER. Thank you, Representative Neilson.

Mr. NEILSON submitted the following remarks for the Legislative Journal:

Between 1933 and 1945, nearly 17 million people were tragically murdered in the horrifying, state-sponsored genocide known as the Holocaust. Due to overwhelming anti-Semitic propaganda; circulated by the German Nazi regime, over 6 million of those victims were Jewish men, women, and children; this loss accounted for two-thirds of the Jewish population in Europe. The Holocaust was a human rights crisis of epic proportions.

While Jews were the priority target of Nazi racism, other groups within Germany were persecuted for racial reasons, including Roma – then commonly called "Gypsies," Afro-Germans, and people with mental or physical disabilities. By the end of the war, the Nazis and their Axis partners murdered up to 250,000 Roma, and between 1939 and 1945, they murdered at least 250,000 mentally or physically disabled patients.

As Nazi tyranny spread across Europe, the Nazis and their collaborators persecuted and murdered millions of other people seen as biologically inferior or dangerous. Between 2 and 3 million Soviet prisoners of war, viewed by the Nazis as the biological carriers of Bolshevism, were murdered or died of starvation, disease, neglect, or brutal treatment. The Nazis shot tens of thousands of non-Jewish members of the Polish intelligentsia, murdered the inhabitants of hundreds of villages in pacification raids in Poland and the Soviet Union, and deported millions of Polish and Soviet civilians to perform forced labor under conditions that caused many to die.

In recognition of the liberation of the largest and deadliest concentration camp, Auschwitz-Birkenau on January 27, 1945, the United Nations designated this date – January 27 – as "International Holocaust Remembrance Day." This is a day to not only remember and mourn the lives that were lost, but a day in which we take a stand against all forms of ethnic or religion-based intolerance, incitement, harassment, hateful discourses, and violence against individuals and communities.

Sadly, studies have shown that a growing number of Americans lack basic knowledge of the Holocaust and the events leading up to it. Because of this, International Holocaust Remembrance Day is needed now more than ever. There has been a rise of anti-Semitic attacks globally in recent years, including an attack right here in Pennsylvania at the Tree of Life building in Pittsburgh in October 2018. Eleven people were killed and six were wounded.

It is our collective responsibility to honor the lives of those who perished and those who survived, while continuing to educate and raise awareness of the horrors that countless victims suffered to ensure that such a tragedy never happens again. As such, I have introduced a resolution to recognize January 27, 2020, as "International Holocaust Remembrance Day in Pennsylvania."

BILLS ON THIRD CONSIDERATION

The House proceeded to third consideration of HB 2175, PN 3131, entitled:

An Act amending Title 42 (Judiciary and Judicial Procedure) of the Pennsylvania Consolidated Statutes, in depositions and witnesses, further providing for expert testimony in certain criminal proceedings.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third consideration?

Bill was agreed to.

(Bill analysis was read.)

The SPEAKER. This bill has been considered on three different days and agreed to and is now on final passage.

The question is, shall the bill pass finally?

The Chair is recognizing Representative Meghan Schroeder on HB 2175.

Mrs. SCHROEDER. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

HB 2175 will help victims and provide another tool for law enforcement in human trafficking cases. Allowing expert testimony in criminal proceedings will be helpful for a jury to understand the dynamics of victim behaviors. Things like grooming, post-traumatic stress disorder, and why victims delay in reporting will all be helpful in these cases. So today let us help victims, and I am proud of the courage and the bravery of those who have shared their stories to help bring this issue to light and to push this issue.

So thank you, Mr. Speaker.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

The SPEAKER. Agreeable to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays will now be taken.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third consideration?

Bill was agreed to.

(Bill analysis was read.)

The SPEAKER. This bill has been considered on three different days and agreed to and is now on final passage.

The question is, shall the bill pass finally?

We will be taking a vote shortly, but the Chair is calling upon Representative Marci Mustello on HB 2176.

Miss MUSTELLO. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. Speaker, HB 2176 would strengthen current law by adding certain prohibited activities that if committed constitute the crime of unlawful contact with a minor. Human trafficking may be hidden in the shadows, but it remains a vile and dangerous threat in our Commonwealth. Since 2007 there have been more than 1200 human trafficking cases in the Commonwealth.

Child sex trafficking victims are often not recognized as victims and may be arrested and jailed. The dangers faced by these minors from the traffickers are severe. They become hardened by the treacherous environment in which they must learn to survive. As such, they do not always outwardly present as sympathetic victims. They also frequently suffer from short-term and long-term psychological effects such as depression, self-hatred, and feelings of hopelessness. These child victims also need specialized services that are not widely available given they often have illnesses; drug addictions; physical trauma; lack of viable family and community ties; and total dependency, physical and psychological, on their abusers. Minors must be protected from their abusers and not jailed.

I ask for an affirmative vote on HB 2176. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. This bill has been considered on three different days and agreed to and is now on final passage. The question is, shall the bill pass finally?

On the question, the Chair recognizes Representative Valerie Gaydos.

Ms. GAYDOS. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

I rise today to speak on HB 2177. Human trafficking is a disgusting violation of human dignity. Sex offenders are a serious threat to our nation, and this is a very important bill for us to address.

The Greater Pittsburgh region falls into the top 10 hot spots for human trafficking nationwide. And with the Pittsburgh Airport located in the heart of my House district, we are acutely aware that the role that being a major transportation hub is in the speed in which human trafficking can occur.

HB 2177 adds sexual servitude of a minor into the list of sexual offenses for which inmates must undergo sex offender counseling. Therapists and correctional officers widely agree that clinical rehabilitative programs help reduce recidivism, and that is certainly our goal. This legislation would provide prosecutors and law enforcement officials with the tools they need to fight human trafficking but also to treat those who are convicted.

I ask for your affirmative vote on this bill. Thank you.

Bill was agreed to.

(Bill analysis was read.)

The SPEAKER. This bill has been considered on three different days and agreed to and is now on final passage.

The question is, shall the bill pass finally?

The Chair calls upon Representative David Rowe.

Mr. ROWE. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

HB 2178 will require courts to consider whether a party or member of that party's household has been convicted of human trafficking prior to awarding child custody to that party. This important legislation will allow a court to have crucial information necessary to ascertain whether a party involved in a custody dispute poses a threat to the child. Currently the statute requires this kind of special attention only for violent offenses such as homicide, sex offenses, and kidnapping. Pennsylvania is currently ranked in the top 10 human trafficking States nationally, and the average age that a child is forced into sex slavery is just 12 years old.

For the safety of our children, the courts presiding over these disputes must consider convictions of human trafficking, and I would ask my colleagues for an affirmative vote.

Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. Representative Hohenstein, on the bill, please.

Mr. HOHENSTEIN. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

I rise today actually in support of this entire slate of legislation on human trafficking, and I know that it has been the majority, coming from the majority side of the aisle on this issue today, but I wanted to express the idea that addressing this issue of human trafficking is a nonpartisan issue. It is an issue that affects us all.

And for me personally I have represented women who were sold by their families when they were teenagers, women who were trafficked into the United States because they would be used and exploited. I have represented workers who were again brought into the United States not of their own volition, and I have represented people who have gone through the scourge of human trafficking, and I appreciate the addressing of this issue.

And as a final note, I want to recognize that this also affects the American citizens in my district. One of the other pernicious ways that human trafficking comes through is in the drug trade, and the opioid crisis and the exploitation of people living in addiction has always been one of the major problems of the drug trade as well. And I am glad to see these issues being brought to light and victims recognized as victims and not simply as perpetrators, and being able to come forward and get the help and the support that they need.

So I commend the sponsor of this bill and I commend the sponsors of all of the bills in this package, and I appreciate that you brought these forward.

Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

The House proceeded to third consideration of SB 60, PN 1391, entitled:

An Act amending Titles 18 (Crimes and Offenses) and 42 (Judiciary and Judicial Procedure) of the Pennsylvania Consolidated Statutes, in human trafficking, further providing for the offense of trafficking in individuals, for the offense of patronizing a victim of sexual servitude and for asset forfeiture; and, in depositions and witnesses, further providing for definitions.

On the question,
Will the House agree to the bill on third consideration?
Bill was agreed to.

(Bill analysis was read.)

The SPEAKER. This bill has been considered on three different days and agreed to and is now on final passage.
The question is, shall the bill pass finally?

The Chair recognizes Representative Seth Grove.
Mr. GROVE. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

I just wanted to take a moment and thank Jordan Grant, on my staff, for his leadership and advocacy, doing the research and drafting on the initial concept of this bill. He and his family have been very involved in stopping human trafficking for a number of years, and I just wanted to give a shout-out where credit is due.

REMARKS SUBMITTED FOR THE RECORD

Mr. GROVE. I would like to submit the rest of my comments for the record, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. Yes, sir.

Thank you very much, Representative.

Mr. GROVE submitted the following remarks for the Legislative Journal:

Human trafficking is an epidemic which affects every part of our Commonwealth and is ingrained in our communities. It is a crime that violates an individual's basic rights as a human being. It is nothing short of modern-day slavery.

In order to combat this crime, I rise in support of SB 60, which begins to move the focus of our laws from punishing the victims to punishing those responsible for this vile trade. SB 60 increases the penalties for those who traffic victims, victims who I remind you, the average age a teen enters the sex trade in the U.S. is only 13 years old.

Under this bill, those who traffic another human being would see their criminal penalties double from a second-degree felony to a first-degree felony; from 10 years in jail to 20 years in jail. For instances where the victim is a minor, the penalty is a super felony punishable by 40 years in prison.

This bill also increases the penalty on the buyers because the only way to truly end human trafficking in the Commonwealth is to attack the demand. Under SB 60, purchasing sex from a victim of trafficking will now be a first-degree felony.

SB 60 not only increases criminal penalties but increases fines associated with this crime where the fine for a first offense ranges from $1,000 to $15,000. This means for a first offense the fine associated with buying another human being for sexual exploitation is 30 times higher than under current law. The money from these fines will go to train law enforcement on how to recognize trafficking and fund victim services. We will make the buyers of sex fund our efforts to assist their victims and our efforts to end this vile trade.

I have worked to address this issue over the past few years, and I ask for your affirmative vote for SB 60 so that we can send a message to those participating in this trade that "buyer beware" if you participate in human trafficking, either as a buyer or seller, we will punish to the fullest extent of the law.

On the question recurring,
Shall the bill pass finally?

The SPEAKER. Agreeable to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays will now be taken.

Whereupon, the Speaker, in the presence of the House, signed the same.

STATEMENT BY MR. KAUFFMAN

The SPEAKER. Representative Robert Kauffman, the chair of the Judiciary Committee, is recognized on unanimous consent.

Mr. KAUFFMAN. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

All across the Capitol today folks are wearing blue to really signify the awareness of human trafficking and exploitation, and education and awareness are key. There are many folks in our communities who really think it does not impact them or it really does not, you know, it has no bearing on my life, but I want to assure them that it absolutely does. Across Pennsylvania you see the impacts of human trafficking and exploitation in our communities.

My district is along the I-81 corridor. We are in a four-State region of Pennsylvania, Maryland, Virginia, and West Virginia, and not far from the District of Columbia. And it is also very prevalent when you have large immigrant communities, and I know many of our communities across the Commonwealth have extraordinary immigrant populations.

And today we are not only standing for awareness and education, but we are actually doing something tangible. We are giving law enforcement the tools that law enforcement has asked for and needs to prosecute and to make our Commonwealth safer against those who would seek to exploit those who are vulnerable, and we are making sure that our criminal justice system does not further victimize those who have already been victimized by the horrible acts of human trafficking and exploitation and all of the ramifications that surround that.

So thank you, everyone, who has been part of this today – all of those who were part of it here in the House, the prime sponsors, and our partners in the Senate. We have already been working with them, especially as we have worked on the Buyer Beware Act, and we look forward to their partnership as we continue this and see these pieces of legislation enacted into law in the Commonwealth that make all of us safer and rid the Commonwealth of the scourge of human trafficking and exploitation.

Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. Thank you, Mr. Chair.
