

COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA

LEGISLATIVE JOURNAL

WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 29, 2021

SESSION OF 2021

205TH OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY

No. 50

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

The House convened at 11 a.m., e.d.t.

THE SPEAKER (BRYAN CUTLER) PRESIDING

PRAYER

HON. ANITA ASTORINO KULIK, member of the House of Representatives, offered the following prayer:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Father, we need You today. We need Your direction, Your counsel, Your wisdom. We thank You that even though we have our own idea of how our life should look, often setting out according to our plans, that Your ultimate purpose prevails. We ask that You prompt us when we set out to make plans that we may make them according to Your will and not our own. We ask that You remind us to come alongside You as we surrender every detail to fulfill Your greater purpose. Please align our hearts with Yours, our ideas with Yours, and our will with Yours as we work to serve the people of Pennsylvania. For Your ways are higher than ours and Your plans are greater than ours as nothing is impossible with You. Lead us every step of the way as we take up our tasks today in this chamber.

In Your name we pray. Amen.

PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE

(The Pledge of Allegiance was recited by members and visitors.)

MOTION TO RECONSIDER HB 1893

The SPEAKER. The Speaker is in receipt of a motion to reconsider. Pursuant to rule 26, the gentlemen, Representatives Frankel and Harris, are moving that we reconsider the vote by which the House considered HB 1893 on second consideration on the 29th day of September, to be reconsidered.

On the question,
Will the House agree to the motion?

The SPEAKER. On the motion to reconsider the move through second consideration on HB 1893, the Chair recognizes the gentleman, Representative Frankel, to speak on the motion.

Mr. FRANKEL. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

I am asking the members to reconsider second consideration on HB 1893. It went on second consideration, I think not many of us were on the floor at the time. I am certain there is nothing nefarious about this. I just want to have the opportunity to make a motion under second consideration to refer this bill, HB 1893, to the Health Committee where it was originally introduced and should have jurisdiction of this bill. I do not believe that it is appropriate to have it coming out of State Government.

It is a bill that we do not know all the ramifications of and it is unclear what data will or will not be protected under the Right-to-Know requests, or if the State, the department, is prepared to enable to ensure everyone's information is safe. And I think this is much more appropriately something that ought to get the scrutiny of the Health Committee. And it is clearly, clearly under the jurisdiction of Health and I think it was recognized originally when it was referred there and then, unfortunately, removed and rereferred to the State Government Committee. So that is the nature of my rationale for asking a reconsideration of HB 1893 on second consideration.

Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. The Chair thanks the gentleman and recognizes the gentleman, Representative Staats, on the motion to reconsider.

Mr. STAATS. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. Speaker, HB 1893 has been fully vetted in the State Government Committee. It has been voted on. I would ask my colleagues to oppose the motion to reconsider.

The SPEAKER. The Chair thanks the gentleman.

The Chair recognizes the gentleman, Leader Benninghoff, on the motion to reconsider.

Mr. BENNINGHOFF. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

I would ask the members to support the prime sponsor and vote "no" to reconsideration; vote "no" to reconsideration. Thank you.

The SPEAKER. The Chair thanks the gentleman.

For clarification of the members, those in favor of the motion to reconsider will vote "aye"; those opposed, "nay."

The Chair recognizes the gentlewoman, Democratic Leader McClinton.

Ms. McCLINTON. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

I am asking all of our colleagues to support Representative Frankel's motion so that the proper committee can truly take a look at this bill.

Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Will the House concur in Senate amendments?

The SPEAKER. Moved by the gentleman, Representative Lewis, that the House do concur in the amendments inserted by the Senate.

The Chair now recognizes Representative Lewis for a brief description of Senate amendments.

Mr. LEWIS. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. Speaker, I am pleased to rise today to ask for your affirmative vote for HB 1861 as amended by the Senate. The portions added by the Senate extend a portion of the critical regulatory flexibility provisions that were put in place to help the Commonwealth, its regulated entities, and the general public adapt to the realities of the COVID-19 pandemic. This legislation maintains the health and safety regulatory suspensions that have been instituted to help health-care practitioners assist their patients in a safe way. This legislation preserves licensing flexibility that helps to keep more health-care practitioners in their fields. This legislation acknowledges how routine business has changed under the pandemic by extending the remote operations and teleworking provisions. This legislation also represents an important step to providing regulatory flexibility in this Commonwealth, which is something that I look forward to continuing to work on in the future. I would ask for an affirmative vote.

THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE
(TINA PICKETT) PRESIDING*STATEMENT BY MS. DELOZIER

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair recognizes Representative Delozier, speaking on Domestic Violence Awareness Month.

Members, could we have order, please.
Ms. DELOZIER. Thank you, Madam Speaker.

Today I want to thank my fellow members for recognizing October as "Domestic Violence Awareness Month" in Pennsylvania.

On average, nearly 20 people each minute are physically abused by their partner in the United States. That equals more than 10 million women and men each year. In 2020, 109 victims lost their lives to domestic violence in Pennsylvania alone. That number includes 59 females and 50 males. Also, three of those victims from 2020 were in my Cumberland County, which I represent. The lives lost should weigh heavily on all of our hearts. They were lives lost at the hands of someone that was not supposed to hurt them but was supposed to love them.

Domestic violence does not discriminate. It could happen to anyone of any age, race, sex, income level, or educational level. Each year with this citation, I hope to continue to raise awareness in the public so that the families of domestic violence – it recognizes the fact that the impact is not only on our families but also on our communities.

As part of Domestic Violence Awareness Month, a red silhouette, known as the Red Lady, will stand in the Capitol Rotunda to highlight the devastation brought about by domestic violence. The red silhouette is part of the Silent Witness Initiative. I urge you to find time to visit this tribute to consider what you also can do to prevent domestic violence as it stands for all of those whose stories we may never know but whose empathy we have for the families who lost them.

We need those that are experiencing domestic violence to know that they are not alone. There is help available, and I encourage victims to reach out and learn where we can help and where there are advocacies. There are many of those that we need to make coming from a victim to survivor. Pennsylvanians can come together and say we will not tolerate this behavior. We need to stand behind those making the hard decision to leave as this is the most dangerous time for a domestic violence victim, when they stand for themselves. We need to be there offering them a hand to get to safety.

It is important that we help any of the victims come forward and raise the public consciousness, and October is an opportunity for us to publicly announce that we will fight for victims, that we will be a voice for the voiceless, and that we will educate those around us.

Thank you, Madam Speaker.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair thanks the lady.

STATEMENT BY MS. O'MARA

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair recognizes Representative O'Mara, speaking on Suicide Prevention Month.

Ms. O'MARA. Thank you, Madam Speaker.

My resolution seeks to deem the month of September as Suicide Prevention Awareness Month and September 10, 2021, as World Suicide Prevention Day in Pennsylvania.

Death by suicide is tragic because each one of these deaths is preventable. While the causes of suicide are complex, early detection and treatment can truly help save lives. This is why it is so critical that we remove the stigma surrounding mental health and mental health treatment. Countless people struggling will let their depression, anxiety, or substance use issues go untreated because they are too reluctant to ask for help.

As many of you know, I lost my father to suicide when I was just 13 years old. He was a Philadelphia firefighter who suffered from depression and stress. Sadly, though, I know that my story as a suicide loss survivor is not unique. In the United States nearly 45,000 individuals died by suicide in 2020, making it the 11th leading cause of death for all ages and it is the second leading cause of death for adolescents. This is especially true for veterans and first responders. According to the CDC (Centers for Disease Control and Prevention), law enforcement officers and firefighters are more likely to die by suicide than in the line of the duty. Additionally, military.com reported that deaths by suicide among military personnel increased 25 percent at the end of 2020. The scariest part is that we are not just talking about numbers on a graph or tracking dots on a chart, these are human lives.

If we improve awareness of suicide's causes and treatments, increase access to effective and affordable treatment, and remove the mental health stigma, we can make a real difference. This does not have to be our reality. Through legislation, education, and activism, we can save lives in Pennsylvania.

I would like to thank everyone who has observed September as Suicide Prevention Awareness Month and September 10 as World Suicide Prevention Day. I would especially like to thank the majority leader, Representative Kerry Benninghoff, for introducing this resolution with me and showing that we can come together across the aisle to prevent suicide in Pennsylvania.

Now I would like to turn it over to Representative Benninghoff. Thank you.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair thanks the lady.

STATEMENT BY MAJORITY LEADER

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair recognizes majority leader, Representative Benninghoff.

Mr. BENNINGHOFF. Thank you, Madam Speaker.

I, too, want to echo the wonderful comments made by Representative O'Mara. Unfortunately, she has had to deal with this on a personal level. She is correct, this is not a partisan issue, this is a people issue. And it is a loss of life that we can actually prevent. Some of you know I served as county coroner. I saw this in all walks of life. And I think her comments were right on spot. This is not limited to any particular age group, any particular geography or community, but it is a burdensome issue to many people that serve in different professions and oftentimes feel afraid, scared, or humiliated to come forth and say they need a little help.

Our resolution, the Representative's resolution I am here to support, is to remind people that this is something we need to talk about. This is something we need to encourage families and friends, if you are feeling discouraged or you feel suicidal, reach out. If it cannot be your own family member, there are counseling services, medical facilities. At the end of the day, life is wonderful and it is worth living, and we want to let you know that we support you in a bipartisan manner here in the House of Representatives.

Thank you again, Representative, for your energy and for also introducing the resolution. Thank you.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair thanks the gentleman.

STATEMENT BY MRS. EVANS

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair recognizes Representative Hill-Evans, speaking on diaper awareness month.

Mrs. EVANS. Thank you, Madam Speaker, and thank you to my colleagues, Representatives Davis, Pashinski, and Mullins, for joining with me this week in advocating on behalf of a very important initiative.

For the seventh year in a row, we are highlighting Diaper Need Awareness Week in Pennsylvania. Accessible and equitable access to clean diapers is vital in establishing a healthy foundation for every infant and continuing that healthy foundation as each individual ages. Our Commonwealth has 11 diaper banks that are active members of the National Diaper Bank Network, distributing more than 8 million diapers every year to communities across the Commonwealth.

Statistics show that one in three U.S. families experience diaper need. The statistics get even more alarming when you realize this need equates to over 5 million children in this country aged 3 years or younger who suffer from diaper need. Quite frankly, this is an appalling statistic that must be addressed by policymakers not just in Pennsylvania, but throughout the nation.

Diaper need is not just about the lack of an important supply for an infant but a hidden result of extreme poverty for a family. It is a basic need that is valued the same as food and shelter. Without access to a clean, reliable supply of diapers, the health and well-being of a baby will be diminished and could lead to a lower overall quality of life as that baby grows and develops.

The unfortunate truth is that children in poverty can sometimes spend an entire day in the same diaper, putting their health and wellness at risk. Could you imagine walking around in a used diaper for a whole day? The costs, coupled with additional expenses related to adequate child care, average well over $10,000 a year per child in Pennsylvania. Most child-care centers, even those that provide free or subsidized care, often require parents to still provide a day's supply of disposable diapers. Every child has the right to a life of good health and well-being.

I look forward to your help and your generous donations during this diaper drive. I would be remiss if I did not mention and thank former Democratic caucus secretary, Representative Rosita Youngblood, for her leadership and advocacy for diaper need awareness and bringing this important matter to the forefront. Also, thank you to my fellow colleagues for their dedication, help, and cooperation in hosting boxes that are outside of each one of our offices to receive these donations. Thank you to all who have donated. And if you missed the opportunity to donate here at the Capitol but would still like to participate in the drive, please feel free to donate to a day care or your food bank in your area.

Thank you again, and thank you, Madam Speaker.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair thanks the lady.

STATEMENT BY MS. WHITE

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair recognizes Representative Martina White, on crime in Philadelphia.

Ms. WHITE. Thank you, Madam Speaker.

Philadelphia reached a milestone this weekend. There have now been over 400 murders in the city – 400 people who will never see their family again, 354 of which were victims of fatal gun violence, with another 1,384 nonfatal victims. The mayor said that we may see another record for homicides this year. That is a very harsh reality for the people living in the areas most affected. I have visited these areas. I have spoken to the people who live there. It is heartbreaking to hear a young child who attends a charter school say the most dangerous part of their day is 3 o'clock when they have to walk home. Think about that. Can you imagine being a child and every day you have to worry about being hurt or killed because of where you live? It is unacceptable and we must do better.

There are two major factors, in my opinion, that are driving the violence in Philadelphia, and that is poor education and a lack of prosecution of criminals. We need to allow more school choice so families can go to the school that is right for them, and we need to hold all failing schools accountable and raise their standards. A community where children receive a high-quality education will help end this vicious cycle of violence.

A more immediate solution is to acknowledge that what is taking place in the city of Philadelphia in the district attorney's office is breaking down our justice system. There is not a prosecution of criminals to the fullest extent of the law, completely ignoring certain crimes like prostitution and theft, and even letting criminals go back out onto the street with cashless bail programs.

I know that we all care about helping defeat gun violence and homicides in Philadelphia, especially my colleagues across the aisle. We need to publicly push back against these progressive policies that are dangerous and hurting our communities. I also need you to join us as we expand educational opportunities for all students, no matter what ZIP Code (Zone Improvement Plan Code) they are from. These are not political issues, they are people issues, and it is time for all of us to come together and fix these problems and really do better. Thank you.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair thanks the lady.

STATEMENT BY MR. CIRESI

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair recognizes Representative Ciresi, with a tribute to Frank Burstein, a deceased constituent and a township supervisor.

Mr. CIRESI. Thank you, Madam Speaker.

Today I rise to speak about my friend, Frank Burstein. Four months ago I stood at this podium and spoke about his wife, Denise Burstein, and never thought I would be here today to speak about Frank.

You see, Frank was a community leader in our area. I knew Frank for 12 years, and I did not know him as a community leader, I knew him as a friend and a father figure. Frank was there at the drop of a hat, a phone call whenever you needed him, and always by my side as a friend. Frank was in this chamber with me the day that we got sworn in for the first time and he smiled from ear to ear, and it is a picture that I still have in my office of him and his wife. They were dear friends. But we lost a great man, very unexpectedly, and like I said, almost 4 months to the day that his wife passed.

Frank has two children, Marty and Marshall; his daughter-in-law, Annie; and his grandson, Isaiah, whom he adored, all of them. And I know they all miss him. His two cats that he always spoke about. And all the community service he did.

But let me give you a little bit about what Frank did for the community. Frank was a retired staff sergeant in the medical unit of the U.S. Army Reserves. He was the chairman of a nonprofit, Bucks for Kids, which he had passion for over two decades. He chaired the Bucks County Children and Youth Advisory Board, a former Warminster Township supervisor, a former chair of PSATS (Pennsylvania State Association of Township Supervisors). Frank also was an active member of the Democratic State Committee, he was a leader of our area 4, he was part of the national convention, and he was always there for whatever Democrat or person needed him.

Frank did not see party lines, he saw people. He was a passionate advocate in our community, a passionate friend, and a great father and grandfather, and he will be missed.

Thank you, Madam Speaker, for allowing me to address the chamber and let Pennsylvania know that we lost a great person 2 weeks ago in Frank Burstein.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair thanks the gentleman.

REMARKS SUBMITTED FOR THE RECORD

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair recognizes that Representative Brooks is submitting remarks for the record on National Newspaper Week.

Mr. BROOKS submitted the following remarks for the Legislative Journal:

Thank you, Madam Speaker.

Madam Speaker, this chamber, the House of Representatives, will be designating the week of October 3 through October 9 as "National Newspaper Week" in Pennsylvania.

The week is designed to recognize the role that newspapers play in providing the people with credible, factual news, and spotlights why newspapers continue to be a trusted source of information that is critical to democracy. The fact that Pennsylvanians are concerned about fake news and disinformation reinforces the need for media literacy.

National Newspaper Week is a celebration of the First Amendment, which includes five of perhaps our most important freedoms as Americans. Newspapers have a rich tradition of chronicling those freedoms we all should cherish. Like many newspapers across the country, I am proud to honor and celebrate the week and, in the process, to celebrate our freedoms protected by the First Amendment.

Newspapers have been the foundation of news and information for more than 300 years, and National Newspaper Week is celebrating its 81st year. Think about it, that is a long time, so you can see how important newspapers and free press are to this nation.

Reading a newspaper is a good habit that can provide a great sense of educational value. It carries information about politics, economy, entertainment, sports, business, industry, trade, and commerce. With this habit, it will not only enhance your knowledge about general information but it improves your language skills and vocabulary.

Many small-town newspapers are a vital part of a community's life. However, newspapers cannot thrive without our support as readers, as business owners, and as citizens. We should always stand up for the importance of accurate information that will help us in our daily lives.

In the days ahead, I will be presenting a House of Representatives citation to the Pennsylvania News Media Association in celebration of this important week.

Thank you, Madam Speaker, and thank you to my colleagues in the House for supporting National Newspaper Week.

STATEMENT BY MRS. SNYDER

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair now recognizes Representative Snyder, with a tribute to the president of AFL-CIO.

Mrs. SNYDER. Thank you, Madam Speaker.

Madam Speaker, I rise today to honor the life of Richard Louis Trumka. Rich Trumka was born on July 24, 1949, in the town of Nemaquin in Greene County, Pennsylvania. As a young boy, Rich watched his father and grandfather go to work each day in the coal mines. He witnessed the importance of being represented by a union to the men and women who worked in the mines. He, too, went to work in the coal mines while attending Penn State University and Villanova Law School.

Rich had the intelligence, passion, and drive to be anything he wanted to be, but nothing was ever more important to him as the protection of workers' rights. He was a proud member of the United Mine Workers of America, and in 1982 at the age of 33 became the youngest president of the UMWA. In 1995 he was elected secretary-treasurer of the AFL-CIO. He was then elected president of the national AFL-CIO on September 16, 2009, at the federation's convention in Pittsburgh and served in that position until his death. He approached each day of his life with a fierce passion to fight for others. He truly was one of the greatest labor leaders of our times.

His professional life was so very important to him, but I can tell you firsthand that his family meant everything to him. I know this because Rich's mother and my mother were sisters. Our grandparents came to this country from Italy. Our family is a very tight-knit bunch. I worked full-time on Rich's campaign to be elected UMWA president, and it is an experience I hold dear in my heart. My husband and I were fortunate enough to have dinner with him the weekend before he passed, and it is a memory that I will always cherish.

He was on a family camping trip to celebrate his grandson's birthday when he suffered his fatal heart attack. Rich loved the great outdoors. He was an avid hunter and fisherman. Each year at buck season, my husband would disappear for 2 weeks to be at the hunting cabin with Rich and the boys. They lived for those 2 weeks of camaraderie each year. I know hunting season will never be the same for my husband without him.

He leaves behind his wife, Barbara; his son, Richard, and wife, Jessica, and their children, Trey and Taylor, and another grandson, Ki Vidovich. He also leaves behind his sister, Fran, and husband, Sonny Szallar.

Rich spent the last 40 years of his life serving in an elected position that took him to DC, but he never forgot where he came from. We laid him to rest in Greene County.

Rich's death has been a huge loss to our family, but it also has been a huge loss to every working family in this country. It was so fitting that his final speech was to address United Mine Workers members who were on strike against Warrior Met Coal in Alabama. He told his union brothers and sisters that together they would win this fight.

I will be forever grateful for that final evening we were blessed to spend with him. As we dropped him off at his hotel, he hugged me and said, "I love you guys," and I answered, "We love you too." Rich, we love and miss you more than words can say. Until we meet again.

I end with Rich's final words to the striking miners in Alabama: "One day longer, one day stronger, solidarity forever."

Thank you, Madam Speaker.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair thanks the lady.

STATEMENT BY MR. ROWE

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair recognizes Representative Rowe, on HB 1224.

Mr. ROWE. Well, thank very much, Madam Speaker.

And I want to thank my colleagues today for their unanimous support of HB 1224, designating a portion of Pennsylvania State Route 104 in Snyder County as the "Chief of Police Tony M. Jordan Memorial Highway."

Madam Speaker, a memorial ceremony was held earlier this year celebrating Chief Jordan's life, but in commemoration of today's unanimous passage of HB 1224, I wanted to share with the entire Commonwealth the text of the citation that I presented earlier this year commemorating the extraordinary life of this extraordinary man.

Born in Lewistown on November 15 in 1960, Chief Jordan was the son of the late Russell W. and Pearl Sanders Jordan. A graduate of Middleburg High School and the Pennsylvania Police

State Municipal Academy, he joined the Middleburg Police Department in 1980 and was appointed chief in 1992.

A K-9 handler and a member of the National Bloodhound Association and the American Kennel Club, Chief Jordan established Jordan's PA K-9 Academy and operated it until his passing. A member of the Fraternal Order of Police Lodge No. 52, he was an instructor for the National Rifle Association and formed the Middleburg Pistol and Rifle Shooting Club in the 1980s. Active with the Zion United Methodist Church in Middleburg, Chief Jordan further served his community as a director of the Center Township Emergency Management Agency and as a member and the past president of the Penns Creek Fire Company.

He enjoyed hunting, fishing, clay shooting, and trail riding. A beloved family member, dedicated police officer, and avowed community steward, Chief Jordan exemplified the best qualities of the human experience. He generously gave of his heart and of his time to enhance the quality of life of his family and his community. And his loss will be felt by the many individuals who knew, admired, and loved him.

So now therefore be it resolved, that the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania proclaim with enduring sorrow the passing of Chief Tony M. Jordan; and extend heartfelt condolences to his fiancée, Michelle Keister; brother, Gary; and many other family members, colleagues, and friends.

Thank you, Madam Speaker.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair thanks the gentleman.

BILLS AND RESOLUTIONS PASSED OVER

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Without objection, all remaining bills and resolutions on today's calendar will be passed over. The Chair hears no objection.

ADJOURNMENT

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair recognizes a motion from Representative Jon Fritz that this House will now adjourn until Monday, October 4, 2021, at 12 m., e.d.t., unless sooner recalled by the Speaker.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Motion was agreed to, and at 2 p.m., e.d.t., the House adjourned.
