LEGISLATIVE JOURNAL

TUESDAY, JUNE 14, 2022

SESSION OF 2022

206TH OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY

No. 26

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

The House convened at 11 a.m., e.d.t.

THE SPEAKER (BRYAN CUTLER) PRESIDING

PRAYER

HON. TORREN C. ECKER, member of the House of Representatives, offered the following prayer:

Good morning, and happy Flag Day.

And every year I like to – I have a couple of Flag Day prayers that I keep and I like to give the prayer on Flag Day, and this year we happen to be in session. So on this day in 1777 was the first day that our flag was adopted by the United States Continental Congress, so we celebrate Flag Day every year for that reason.

So if we may bow our heads.

O God, we thank Thee for the flag of our country and for all that our flag represents. We thank Thee for giving victory to the brave and valiant men and women who have given their last measure of strength in order that it might wave over the land of the free and the home of the brave. We thank Thee for giving us the ideals of faith and liberty, for preserving the sanctity of our homes and freedom of worship. Conscious of our limitations and our deep unworthiness, we pray that our flag may bind together the many elements in our own dear country. Grant that this Union, of sovereign States, may forever be an indissoluble Union flying the same flag. Amen.

PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE

(The Pledge of Allegiance was recited by members and visitors.)

On the question recurring,
Will the House agree to the amendment?

The SPEAKER. And on that question, the Chair recognizes the gentleman, Representative Hershey.

Mr. HERSHEY. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

I appreciate the opportunity to speak on my amendment to SB 709. This amendment simply makes some technical changes without changing the underlying intent of the bill, and it provides for parental consent and also changes some legal definitions to make it comply with existing law. So with providing for that parental consent, this amendment not only satisfies some concerns we heard from various stakeholders, but it is agreed to by advocates for the bill, and most importantly, the Senate and the Senate prime sponsor. So I appreciate the House's consideration of this amendment and urge its swift passage.

Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. The Chair thanks the gentleman and recognizes the gentleman, Representative Frankel, on the amendment.

Mr. FRANKEL. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

I rise to oppose amendment A04577. We have been requiring screening of infants for hearing loss for more than 20 years. The leading nongenetic cause of hearing loss is cytomegalovirus – or CMV, as it is known – so it makes sense that if a baby fails one screening, we should try and figure out the cause. This amendment changes that required screening to a required referral. It is not clear to me why we cannot require screening for children who may have an illness that we could catch and treat. CMV can cause deafness; hearing loss; developmental and motor delay; vision loss; microcephaly, which is small-head syndrome; and seizures. But we have an antiretroviral medication that can help. And if we can help, should we not? And by the way, we passed this legislation with the required testing as opposed to the referral last time unanimously, so I am not sure why we are here trying to amend it to be less than mandatory.

Parents can opt out of the bill as written if they object on moral or religious grounds. We reached out to ask physicians about this and the answer was unequivocal: By changing this bill from a required screening to required referral, we may be losing the chance to screen babies immediately while they are in the hospital. Instead, many infants who could get help may fall through the cracks.

Babies deserve to get the best care possible, including to help treat congenital diseases that can cause lifelong complications. There is no reason to water this bill down, lose the chance for immediate screening, and the chance to change the course of a baby's entire life. I would ask for a "no" vote on this amendment.

Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. The Chair thanks the gentleman.

On the question recurring,

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

The SPEAKER. On that question, the Chair recognizes the gentleman, Representative Carroll.

Mr. CARROLL. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. Speaker, this amendment is an effort to try and clean up an admittedly good bill because of the intent of the maker with respect to having online renewals of handicapped parking placards. The challenge that PennDOT will have and that applicants will have for a handicapped placard is that the doctor or a police officer has to certify the application to ensure that the person is actually handicapped. If the gentleman's bill, unamended, were to become law, the police officer or the physician would not have the ability to coordinate that certification, and it would render the effort pointless because there is no way to reconcile the need to do that.

So, Mr. Speaker, this amendment really is an effort to try and make the good bill better and to allow PennDOT to be able to execute it as intended.

Arigato, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. The Speaker would like some clarification on the gentleman's last statement; he missed it.

Mr. CARROLL. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. Oh; thank you, Mr. Speaker. Okay. Fair enough. I thought perhaps you were withdrawing it and wanted to make sure that was not the case.

The Speaker recognizes the gentleman, Representative Silvis, on the amendment.

Mr. SILVIS. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

This is not an agreed-to amendment. I would appreciate a "no" vote on this amendment. Thank you.

An Act amending the act of February 14, 2008 (P.L.6, No.3), known as the Right-to-Know Law, in preliminary provisions, further providing for definitions; in access, further providing for open-records officer, for appeals officer, for regulations and policies, for uniform form, for requests and for retention of records and providing for inmate access; in procedure, further providing for written requests, for redaction, for production of certain records and for exceptions for public records; in agency response, further providing for extension of time and providing for relief from vexatious requesters; in appeal of agency determination, further providing for filing of appeal and for appeals officers; in judicial review, further providing for court costs and attorney fees, for civil penalty, for fee limitations and for Office of Open Records; and, in miscellaneous provisions, further providing for relation to other laws.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third consideration?

Bill was agreed to.

(Bill analysis was read.)

The SPEAKER. This bill has been considered on three different days and agreed to and is now on final passage.

The question is, shall the bill pass finally?

On that question, the Chair recognizes the gentleman, Representative Schmitt.

Mr. SCHMITT. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. Speaker, HB 2524 will be only the second major overhaul of Pennsylvania's Right-to-Know Law in the 65 years dating back to the effective date of the original Right-to-Know Act in 1957. It is the first major update to the Right-to-Know Law since 2008. It modernizes the Right-to-Know Law. It provides for greater access to public documents and information. It improves public oversight over government activity.

HB 2524 will lead to greater government accountability in Pennsylvania and will advance the cause of good government in our Commonwealth. It is a good bill, Mr. Speaker, and I believe there are some changes that may be forthcoming in the Senate that will make it even better and I look forward to those.

I ask my colleagues for an affirmative vote.

The SPEAKER. The Chair thanks the gentleman and recognizes the gentleman, Representative Longietti, on final passage.

Mr. LONGIETTI. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. Speaker, the impetus for this bill was that our local governments – our counties, our municipalities, our school districts – were seeking relief from some of the unintended consequences of our Right-to-Know Law, that in too many cases – and it is a minority of cases. I used to be a municipal solicitor – but you find that requester who does not have an altruistic purpose and they actually have an axe to grind. Maybe they did not like something the local government did and so they become a serial requester of information for no legitimate purpose. And the only thing that it does do is that it ties up local government resources – it costs them money, it costs them staff time – and it becomes very burdensome.

And so the good gentleman introduced this bill with the impetus of trying to solve that problem. Unfortunately, the language of this bill does not solve the problem, and so each and every one of our local government associations – the County Commissioners Association, the Township Supervisors Association, the Municipal League, the Boroughs Association, the School Boards Association – opposes this bill and they were the impetus to trying to fix this law. And so there is nobody that is going to thank us for passing this bill. We need to understand that. No one is going to thank us because all of the people we were trying to help oppose it because the language does not achieve what they were looking for, and in some cases, makes it worse.

So while I laud the good gentleman for introducing this bill and the effort that he is putting forward, this bill misses the mark, and I am going to vote "no" on it for that reason. And I urge my colleagues to really think hard about this, because you are going to go back home, and not only is no one going to thank you, but they are going to be upset that this bill was passed because it did not solve the problem.

Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. The Chair thanks the gentleman and now recognizes the gentleman, Representative Kenyatta, on final passage.

Mr. KENYATTA. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

And I do want to thank the gentleman from Blair County, who I know has spent a lot of time working on this legislation, and it is a complex bill. But when you look at the language in relation to Right-to-Know requests for incarcerated individuals, it is unconscionable to me that we could vote for a bill with that type of language, that takes basically a sledgehammer to the civil rights of people who are incarcerated.

Inmates need access to Right-to-Know requests, and not just for things that relate to their detention. Inmates are also individuals who have things happening in their lives related to property or to loved ones, to things that happened at home prior to their detention, and this cuts them off from being able to legitimately request information that they deserve to have access to.

So I cannot in good conscience vote for this bill today. If this bill is successful, I really do hope that the Senate would take this language out and that it would come back to this House and that we would vote for a bill that is stripped of this language, which I think is a direct violation of the type of civil rights that we ought to be in the business of protecting in this building not degrading.

Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. The Chair thanks the gentleman and recognizes the gentleman, Representative Schmitt, for the second time on final passage.

Mr. SCHMITT. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

With regard to the vexatious requester portion of my bill, I will say that the ACLU (American Civil Liberties Union) says that it is too easy to deem somebody a vexatious requester under my bill, and the local governments, the local agencies say that it is too hard. So I think my bill is right about where it should be on vexatious requesters.

As far as incarcerated individuals go, under my bill, they would be granted extensive legal rights that they do not presently have, and my bill would provide good guidance not just to those incarcerated individuals, but to the local agencies and institutions who have to produce the information that they must produce without question under my bill with no charge to the inmates.

I again urge an affirmative vote on my bill, Mr. Speaker. Thank you.

The SPEAKER. The Chair thanks the gentleman.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

The SPEAKER. Agreeable to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays will now be taken.

(Members proceeded to vote.)

The SPEAKER. On that question, the Chair recognizes the gentleman, Representative Harris.

Mr. HARRIS. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.
