PRESIDING

MOMENT OF SILENCE FOR REPRESENTATIVE JEFFREY P. PYLE

The SPEAKER. The Sergeants at Arms will close the doors of the House.

As you are aware, since the last time that we met, former Representative Jeff Pyle passed away. Would everyone please rise, as able, for a moment of silence as we reflect on the life and legacy of our good friend and former colleague, Representative Pyle.

(Whereupon, the members of the House and all visitors stood in a moment of silence in solemn respect to the memory of the Honorable Jeffrey P. Pyle.)

PRAYER

HON. AUSTIN A. DAVIS, member of the House of Representatives, offered the following prayer:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Members, please bow your heads for the Lord's Prayer:

Our Father, which art in heaven, hallowed be Thy Name. Thy Kingdom come, Thy will be done in earth, as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive them that trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For Thine is the kingdom, the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

GUESTS INTRODUCED

The SPEAKER. Turning to visitor recognition.

The Chair welcomes the guests to the left of the rostrum. We are pleased to welcome Command Master Chief Dylan Inger and Rear Admiral Thomas Anderson. They are here today to provide local officials and organizations an update on the construction of the USS Harrisburg (LPD-30) – which I believe will be later this afternoon out in the rotunda – and they are the guests of Representatives Boback and Sainato. Welcome to the House.

Located in the gallery, the Chair is pleased to welcome Mike Baccala. Mike is the guest of Representative Quinn.

Also located in the gallery, the Chair is pleased to welcome Representative Hill-Evans' summer interns. Kendal Hengst is a senior at Eastern York High School and plans to attend college majoring in political science and minoring in international affairs. And Dylan Wyatt is a graduate of York College of Pennsylvania in the master of public policy and administration program. Welcome.

Also located in the gallery, the Chair is pleased to welcome Mike and Carla Witmer, along with their children Tanna, Carys, and Zane. Tanna and Carys are shadowing Representative Fee for the day. Welcome.

Also located in the gallery, the Chair is pleased to welcome Robert Ferry, Laura Ferry, Roxanne Ferry, Robert Ferry, and Landon Ferry, and they are the guests of Representative Farry. Welcome.

Located in the gallery, the Chair is pleased to welcome guests who are here to kick off Diaper Need Awareness Month: Amanda Barnes with Healthy Step Diaper Bank, and Tamara Hall and Andy Hurchick with the St. Joseph's Center. They are the guests of Representative Carol Hill-Evans, Representative Tina Davis, Representative Kyle Mullins, and Representative Eddie Day Pashinski. Welcome.

Located in the gallery, the Chair is pleased to welcome Hanna Carver and Stevin Wallace, who are participating in a legislative shadowing day with Representative Gaydos. Hanna and Stevin are both eleventh grade students at Quaker Valley High School and recently completed the Junior Achievement of Western PA "She Leads, She Learns" internship program and attended the Junior Achievement "Empower Her Summit." Welcome.

The House will please come to order. Members, please take your seats. Move any remaining conversations off the rear of the House and into the anterooms. As is quickly becoming our tradition, we are once again at the point of the opening ceremonies where we will be recognizing some individuals for their retirement speeches.

FORMER MEMBER WELCOMED

The SPEAKER. But first I would like to welcome a good friend of mine, to the left of the Speaker, who is a guest of Representative Snyder – I know she will be naming her guests here a little bit later – but Judge Brandon Neuman, who currently serves on the Court of Common Pleas for Washington County and former member who was here from 2011-2017. Welcome.

Representative Neuman and I sat back near Representative Guent and solved most of the world's problems when we sat next to each other back there. So welcome, Brandon. Good to have you back, Your Honor.

FAREWELL ADDRESS BY MRS. SNYDER

The SPEAKER. We will ask Representative Snyder to please approach the rostrum while I introduce her. She is currently serving her fifth term representing the 50th Legislative District. She serves as deputy whip. She is a member of the House Consumer Affairs Committee and Ag and Rural Affairs. Prior to being elected as a Representative, Pam served 9 years as a Greene County commissioner and was elected chairman of the Board of Commissioners. She also served as a senior aide for U.S. Representative Mascara. She and her husband, Jack, have two children, Joy and Maddie. Welcome, Pam.

Mrs. SNYDER. I swore I would not cry, so do not do this to me. Thank you. Thank you all.

Speaker Cutler, Leader McClinton, Whip Harris, Chairman Bradford, Leader Benninghoff, colleagues, family, and friends, this is truly a bittersweet moment for me.

I have to start by thanking my family, who is here with me today. First, my husband, Jack, who has always supported me through this journey, from campaigning to putting up signs to being home alone while I am here. He is my rock. I love you, Jack. I could never have done this without you. My husband, Jack. My firstborn daughter, Joy, and her husband, Kevin, and their children, J.T. and Tessa. My youngest daughter, Maddie, and her husband, Wes, and their children, Eevee and Ellie. Please rise and be recognized.

I have been in public service for 38 years, working on the Federal, county, and State levels. I have ran in many campaigns for county commissioner and for the House of Representatives.

Without my family by my side every step of the way, I could never have accomplished what I have. I know how difficult it has been for my family to live through all of the hateful and nasty campaigns that were thrown at us, and for that I want to thank them from the bottom of my heart for always being there for me. I love you all to the moon and back.

We as elected officials are only as good as the staff we surround ourselves with. I want to thank Stephanie Bailey and Kristin Calvin, who have kept my Harrisburg office going for 10 years. I am so pleased also that my district staff could be here with me today – most, but not all, of them. They have made me look good every day, and the people they have served and helped over the years is truly remarkable. My district offices are one of the busiest in our caucus. So Nate Regotti, Heidi Jamison, Amy Hopkins, Rachel Greenlee, Ashlee McCombs, and Cole Leathers, please stand and be recognized, and know that I love each and every one of you.

I must give a special shout-out to two people who have always looked out for my safety and welfare here in Harrisburg. My family always felt better knowing I had someone by my side. There are not enough words to thank Brandon Neuman and Rob Matzie for always letting this old lady tag along and for always driving me around and keeping me safe.

Brandon, our friendship means so much to me. Rob, I am going to miss you, my friend. Love you too, buddy. To our troublemaking Rep group, plus one Senator – you know who you are, but the rest of you do not, so I am going to tell you. Rob Matzie, Ryan Bizzarro, Nick Pisciotano, Pete Schweyer, Mike Schlossberg, and yes, Marty Flynn, keep up the good work. But I worry a lot that without my strong guidance and advice, you will all get in more trouble than usual when I am gone. Thank you all for the many laughs and the friendship. I feel truly sorry for whoever this group decides will take my place to be harassed and tormented on a daily basis. And I want you all in this chamber to know something: being friends with Ryan Bizzarro makes every day feel like a birthday to me.

To Mike Carroll, Jerry Mullery, and Mark Longietti, I wish you all the best of luck wherever the next chapter takes you in your lives. And to my gal pals: Erin Molchany, Tina Davis, Leanne Krueger, Jen O'Mara, Joanna McClinton, Bridget Kosierowski, Jeanne McNeill, Anita Kulik, and to each and every woman here in this chamber, keep up the good work. It has taken a long time for women to make their way in this country, and we need to keep that movement going strong.

Helping people is what we are all about as public servants. I am a product of immigrants. Both sets of my grandparents came to this country to make a better life for their families. They wanted the American dream. I watched my parents work hard to give their children a better opportunity than they had. My father died when I was a junior in high school, and my senior year, my mother suffered a massive stroke. Those events certainly changed my life. But I always stop and think, if they were here to see their baby girl hold a seat in the Pennsylvania House of Representatives, they would not have believed it and they would have been so proud. We need to remember that our job is to leave it better and safer and healthier for the next generation.

I am grateful that while a member of this body, I was able to keep our corrections officers safer when the pepper spray bill was signed into law. And seeing the Broadband Development Authority enacted into law is an accomplishment I will always be proud of, and thank each of you for supporting that effort. That issue truly will change lives and build stronger communities.

Each of us should never forget the veterans who gave their lives for our freedoms. I challenge you all to remember that those lying in graves across this great land were men and they were women; they were Christians and they were Jews; they were White and they were Black; and they were Republicans and they were Democrats. To truly honor them, we must remember why they died. They died for these United States of America. It is long past time to start focusing on what unites us rather than what divides us. I ask each of you to remember that "compromise" is not a dirty word. It is how our country was created, and it is the only way it can truly prosper.

Last, but certainly not least, I want to thank the people of the 50th District who placed their trust in me to be their voice here for a decade. It was a true honor for me to serve them.

Thank you all for your friendship, and I wish you all the very best of true governance.

God bless all of you, this Commonwealth, and this United States of America. Thank you.

The SPEAKER. Thank you, Representative Snyder.

It has been a privilege and an honor to serve here with you and to work on many of those issues that you mentioned, and I agree that we have far more in common than what we choose to focus on sometimes, in terms of our differences.

So thank you to your family for sharing you with us these many years. We certainly appreciate it. And thank you for the staff, who I have often said are really the unsung heroes of all of our offices. And I have said it many, many times, but I will say it again. The incentives are all wrong: They get yelled at when we make votes that people disagree with, and we get thanked for the hard work that they do. So thank you to the staff, both here as well as back home.

We will be briefly at ease.

(Commemorative gavel was presented.)

The SPEAKER. The House will please return to order.

GUESTS INTRODUCED

The SPEAKER. Moving on to our next group of guests.

Located to the left of the rostrum, the Chair is pleased to welcome former Representative Art Hershey and his wife, Joyce. Representative Hershey served in the House from 1983 to 2008, and they are the guests of Representative John Hershey. Welcome. Good to see you again.

Representative Hershey and my districts bordered one another on the Lancaster-Chester County line, and I always enjoyed working with him on local issues.

We are also joined by Senator Judy Ward and Congressman Fred Keller. Welcome.

FAREWELL ADDRESS BY MR. HERSHEY

The SPEAKER. We will ask Representative Hershey to please approach the rostrum.

Representative Hershey was first elected to serve as a Representative for the 82d Legislative District. He currently serves as a member of the Ag and Rural Affairs Committee, Government Oversight, Health, Appropriations, and Judiciary Committees.

He is a graduate of Messiah College with magna cum laude honors. He earned a bachelor's degree with a double major in economics and politics with international relations concentration.

Prior to being a Representative, John worked for a microfinance nonprofit organization for family farmers in East Africa as an administrator and fundraiser. He later served as a legislative assistant to Representative Charlie Dent. John and his wife – whom I know he will be introducing here shortly – reside in Walnut, Pennsylvania.

John, welcome.

Mr. HERSHEY. Thank you, Mr. Speaker. It feels odd that this is likely my last time saying that, after only 4 years in the legislature.

I actually have a law school professor right now, a former State Senator who lost a reelection campaign of his own, and he jokingly referred to himself in class as a "failed politician" one day. While I am immensely disappointed to say that I am joining his company, I can still be excited for the opportunity that lies ahead.

One line from a former colleague's speech has really stuck with me as he was giving his farewell remarks. And I wrote this speech early last week, but it is actually even more apt after learning of his untimely passing last week. When he was giving his remarks, Chairman Pyle reminded us to "be who you told them you are."

When I first ran, I decided to run as someone who knows the issues and was not going to get into partisan grandstanding while sticking to my values. I also chose to focus on my record and what I can bring to the table rather than tearing opponents down, which I can hold my head high and say we accomplished, even when some opponents have not afforded the same respect. I hope my constituents believe that I have lived up to the standard that I said I would when I ran, and like Chairman Pyle recommended, that I was the same person here in Harrisburg that I was at home in the Juniata Valley.

The original person who made this possible, who I feel was the exact person in Harrisburg as he was back home in Chester County – and hopefully, Representative Lawrence would attest to that – is known by many of you as Representative Hershey, but to me as Papa, who is over here to the left of the rostrum, as you already know. I am grateful he could be here today because he is the first person who showed what good this job can do for folks back home. He showed this through extra legislative pursuits like clearing skunks from underneath his neighbors' porches, but also showed the power of consensus in enacting good public policy. He was the driving force behind many programs we still discuss in the agriculture and environmental spaces today, and has left a lasting legacy on this Commonwealth that I have been able to use as a model. He showed me that there is always a path forward for even the most difficult subjects that we might face under this dome.

Like Representative Silvis mentioned the other day, the district I was proud to represent was the victim of the reapportionment process. My only comment about that is that when we let partisan goals get in the way of fair representation for the people we love back home, it is the people who end up losing and not the politicians. Though I know legislators like Leader Benninghoff, Representative Rowe, and Representative Irvin are going to do a wonderful job representing the people that I love, tearing apart counties that have been together in a legislative district for decades does not do the people any favors, and it only creates confusion and chaos in the process.

Other than former Representative Hershey, I have a lot of people to thank. The first is my lovely wife, Wendy, to the left of the rostrum. Wendy knew what she was signing up for because we were only dating in my first campaign, but she chose this life anyway. During the most recent campaign, she has offered a steady attitude, a needed laugh, and maybe a shoulder to cry on one or two times. She is my best friend, and I am so grateful that she could do all of this with me.

To my parents, who are as interested and passionate about my campaign as I was myself, also to the left of the rostrum, I would not be here without your help. I have called Dad my campaign manager for the last 4 years, but he has called himself sign guy. Obviously, we have our differences in opinions sometimes, but without him and my mom helping with the walk lists, the books, and all other manner of things that are needed with a campaign, I would not have made it here in 2018.

To the friends and family back home I have called the broader Team Hershey – in May 2018, that included titans of campaigning like Jim Bob Neimond, Carol Whitesel, Cristine Peachey, Steve Dunkle, Lisa Nancollas, and Ed Fike – some of those folks are quite familiar with campaigns, but others consider themselves friends from church or work, thank you. Many of you took a chance on, at the time, a 24-year-old that you did not know from Adam – literally, in this case, because my predecessor's name was Adam – and I hope I have made you and the Juniata Valley proud.

My siblings and extended family also devoted countless hours to ensuring my success in that first campaign, and without them, I would not have been here either.

Legislatively speaking, there are a lot of people to thank in this realm who have helped with a lot of success: four bills signed by a Democratic Governor in 4 years, Fiscal Code language in three of four budgets, and a few grants for my constituents. But as everyone here knows, good legislation only gets accomplished by being in the right place at the right time and building the right relationships. Notably, my most proud legislative accomplishments can be traced back to tangible issues that people were having back home, which is the way I think good legislation should be accomplished.

I have spent much of my time here focused on agriculture and conservation issues and other issues faced by my rural community, since ag and agribusiness are my background, and I am immensely proud of the conservation funding we were able to include in this year's budget. This funding was originally conceptualized in a bill that was introduced by myself and Senator Yaw, but it got huge boosts from Speaker Cutler and Chairman Saylor in the end, and I am really grateful for your help.

My legislative record benefited immensely from Leader Benninghoff being my district neighbor and Senate Pro Tem Corman being my Senator. Thank you, both of you, for running my bills, and particularly Senator Corman for showing me what the levers of power here in Harrisburg can accomplish, which were great things for the people back home.

Senator Ward deserves a mention as well – who is able to join us, also to the left of the rostrum – who wins the award for the amount of times constituents in a very remote part of both of our districts told me that they wish that they saw me as much as they saw their State Senator, which is embarrassing considering I represent significantly less people than she does.

Speaker Cutler, you have been a great mentor as well, and many research staff and chairmen have been a great help with even my craziest of ideas. I have also benefited from many bipartisan friendships under this dome with other legislators, many either in my class of 2018 or the famous – or infamous – Soup Caucus, who have either benefited my career immensely or have become lifelong friends. I look forward to many of those friendships, on both sides of this aisle, continuing outside of this chamber.

Outside of this building – although he is in this building today – I would like to thank Congressman Fred Keller, a former colleague to many of us, for his friendship and steadfast advocacy for the Juniata Valley and our rural slice of Pennsylvania. I would also like to thank former Congressman Charlie Dent, my former boss, for allowing me and encouraging me to run in the first place. For those of you who know Congressman Dent, some of you his former colleagues here in the State House, I am sure he found a lot of enjoyment – to use a word in both of our native Pennsylvania Dutch, "schadenfreude" – at the fact that he was hired on CNN to become a critic of his own party at the same time I was trying to find my way in a Republican primary. Like my grandfather, Congressman Dent served as a wonderful example of building consensus around important issues, and not only having good ideas, but executing them in the legislative process.

Finally, staff, without whom I would not have gotten off the ground, let alone been successful, and they are all joining us in the gallery today. Dan Auker started with me in 2018. Dan, you have brightened the office with your encouragement and your willingness to serve, and I can honestly say that you have become a best friend throughout this entire process. Renee Fry has gone above and beyond to get me in front of as many people as possible, and between her and Dan, their knowledge of all people, places, and things Juniata County approaches near 100 percent.

Briette Treaster was also an enthusiastic Mifflin County addition, who could not be here today, but became an invaluable part of the team. Jenn Fitch not only made me look good in public and to the press, but also offered a confidant to whom I could express my most vexing frustrations with this building. Representative Schroeder, my office partner, and I stole Pam Albert from Whip Oberlander a few years ago, and she has become an amazing part of this team – never without a kind word and with a heart as big as this building. I would be remiss if I did not mention and thank Sue Burkholder and Colton Fogleman as well, who started with me in the district and really helped me get the district office off to a running start.

Most importantly, I want to thank the wonderful people of Juniata, Mifflin, and almost Perry Counties, soon to be the former 82d District, for giving me this opportunity. It was the opportunity of a lifetime, and I am humbled to have been able to serve you in the State legislature.

This sounds cliché, but I have told dozens of people many times for years that my favorite part of this job were all of the really neat people I have met back home accomplishing amazing things that I would not have met if I were not serving in the State legislature. That remains true. It has been a tough few years with COVID, and a difficult Presidential election behind us, but I am so thankful that those folks back home have given me this opportunity. I hope that you back home can confidently say that I served you like the person I told you I was – again, like Representative Pyle recommended – and that I served you to the best of my ability.

To close, I am going to borrow a couple lines from former Representative Hershey's farewell speech that he gave in November 2008 after 26 years of dedicated service in this body. He reminded this body many times during his speech to be good stewards of this Commonwealth's resources, which he meant from both a natural perspective – as many of you know, he was a dairy farmer and longtime Ag chairman in this chamber – but also from a financial perspective. I think that continues to be increasingly important.

And he also brought up Scripture, which was the Proverb that reads: "Trust in the Lord with all your heart, and lean not on your own understanding; in all your ways acknowledge Him, and He shall direct your paths." I know this is an important verse to him because he also inscribed it in his Bible he gave me after I was able to attend his 2005 swearing-in, and I think this verse is the most apt for the next stage of my career.

I have been struck by the number of legislators giving their farewell speeches that have been here for 4 years or less like me, many of us victims of this reapportionment process, on both sides of the aisle. And I think we can all confidently lean into the next phase of our careers or our retirements knowing that our ways are not God's ways, and that great opportunity lies ahead. Thank you, and God bless.

The SPEAKER. Thank you for those words of wisdom, Representative Hershey.

And I think we would all agree that the sage advice of Representative Pyle, to be who you told him you would be, really spoke to his own authenticity, which we saw demonstrated time and time again with you and your character and your service.

I would also offer, the Bible tells us that we will be known for our fruits, and you have had a very fruitful legislative career. You were a man who stood tall with your character, and you were a good and humble servant to those back home. So thank you.

We will be temporarily at ease for pictures.

(Commemorative gavel was presented.)

The SPEAKER. The House will come to order.

FAREWELL ADDRESS BY MRS. THOMAS

The SPEAKER. The Chair will ask Representative Wendi Thomas to approach the rostrum.

Representative Thomas was elected to serve as a Representative for the 178th Legislative District. She currently serves as a member of the Insurance Committee, Children and Youth, Aging and Older Adult Services, and Professional Licensure Committees, and serves as the cochair of the Delaware Canal Caucus and Mental Health Caucus.

Prior to being a Representative, Wendi worked for a small start-up company in the health-care industry that grew into a national firm. Wendi and her husband, John, reside in Northampton Township. They have three children: John III, Justin, and Stephanie.

Wendi, welcome.

Mrs. THOMAS. Thank you, Speaker Cutler.

To my colleagues and your staffs, I want to let you know that I have learned so much from you. We have worked together to make a difference for Pennsylvania. We should be proud of the work we have done. For me, that especially includes the mental health area. It has been so rewarding. I could not have done this without all of you. There are many individuals I would like to name, but the Speaker said I only have 5 minutes. Hershey took too much time. Just kidding, John. Just kidding, John. But I do want to give a shout-out to my #BucksTeam here in the front, especially my little big brother, Farry.

To my district, it has been the honor of my life to serve as your State Representative. Several of you have written to me to say thank you, but it is really I who owe you a thank you. Each of you whom I have interacted with over these last few years has had a huge impact on my life; many times you might not even know that. Like the birthday celebration I attended for a 100-year-old veteran. I was honored to attend and recognize him, and while most in the room were celebrating, he quietly raised the American flag he had been given and kissed it. That moved me to tears.

To my staff, each of you has embodied the word "team." I recognize that it is my name on the door, but honestly, you make me better. I do not know that I can properly express how much I appreciate all you have done. Every time I am out publicly in the district, someone says, Thank you. I called your office and I got help." And I think, that was not me, that was my wonderful staff. Truly amazing work, and I would like to take a moment and recognize you. When I say your name, please stand, and then if we could have a round of applause at the end.

From Harrisburg: Dawn Pelletier and Barb Ramsey, both of you have been incredibly helpful legislatively, and I am pretty sure that I would still be walking around this building in circles if it was not for Dawn. From my district: Pat Caimano, my office manager, who I think knows every constituent in my district personally. Courtney Shaya, who never believes you can let an email go unanswered for more than one minute. She is incredible. Linda Ouimet, who helped us make headway in New Hope and Solebury and have a good, strong office presence there. And Madison Buckley, who every senior who comes to my office loves. Everybody loves Maddy. I would also like to recognize my writer, Dave Foster – I am not sure where he might be; there he is – because honestly, he felt like part of our district team, and I truly appreciate his work. If we could have a round of applause for these guys.

To my family: my dad and Kathy; my husband, J.T.; my children, John and Lauren, Justin and Jen, and Stephanie. None of these people know that we are broadcast on PCN (Pennsylvania Cable Network). They have never seen me speak on the House floor. But their unwavering support, advice, and love means the world to me.

Finally, I want to thank someone special, whom I asked to attend today. Her name is Denean Young. She does not know it, but she has had a tremendously positive impact on me. We in this building live very busy lives. We have hundreds of things to do each day. I know that when I get to the Capitol, most days between 7 and 7:30, my head is thinking about all of my to-dos, and I often feel like I am carrying the weight of the world on my shoulders. I am stressed. And about 7:30 or 7:45, I go to the cafeteria – I pass the morning breakfast men's club, who have often invited me to join them; thank you – and I get coffee. When I am there, every single time I am there for the past 4 years, I am greeted by a smile, and that smile is joined with positive words – you look great today; it is going to be a great day – always positive. Denean not only has positive words for me, but for every person she sees in our cafeteria and for all of her coworkers. She works all the time, going around talking to everyone, has a smile on her face. So I have asked her to join me today, and I want to publicly thank her because she made a huge difference in my life. Denean Young.

Lastly, I would like to leave you with a quote from Ronald Reagan that I hope in some small way can be true for me: "Whatever else history may say about me when I'm gone, I hope it will record that I appealed to your best hopes, not your worst fears; to your confidence rather than your doubts. My dream is that you...travel the road ahead with liberty's lamp guiding your steps and opportunity's arm steadying your way."

Thank you, everyone.

The SPEAKER. Representative Thomas, thank you for those words and reminders of why we serve and the importance of every individual that we come across in our walks. Each of the members have highlighted it in one way or the other, and I think it bears mentioning once again. The uniqueness of our job – and someone said it, I believe it was last week when we were in session – that you cannot explain it, you have to experience it. That is the perfect way to describe what we do and whom we interact with each and every day. So thank you for appealing to our better hopes.

We will be at ease.

(Commemorative gavel was presented.)

The SPEAKER. The House will return to order.

GUESTS INTRODUCED

The SPEAKER. Located in the gallery, the Chair is pleased to welcome the guests of Representative Bernstine: Mark Mason, Jessica Lambert, Matthew Mason, Maram Ford, and Antonio Ford. Representative Bernstine's guests are here because of the concurrence vote later today on HB 146, also known as Markie's Law. Welcome.

We will now go to member committee and caucus announcements.

STATEMENT BY MR. FARRY

The SPEAKER. The Chair recognizes the gentleman, Representative Farry, for a brief comment.

Mr. FARRY. Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Under unanimous consent.

One of the guests that you mentioned here today is Bobby Ferry, F-e-r-r-y, who is of no relation. He and his family are up in the gallery. And Bobby is here today because 6 years ago, he was a victim of a violent crime, an attempted home invasion, and his dog, Cash, a Cane Corso, jumped to Bobby's defense and prevented the suspect from entering Bobby's home. Unfortunately, Cash was shot and killed during that incident.

I want to thank Bobby for his bravery and working with me for the last 6 years, because I am proud to announce that in July, Governor Wolf signed Cash's Law into law. It was part of Representative Rigby's Titan's Law. So now moving forward, a family's dog or cat that is harmed in that way or killed, the perpetrator could face a greater sentence.

So, Bobby, thank you for making a difference in Pennsylvania, and I thank you and your family for being here today.

Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

On the question,
Will the House agree to the amendment?

The SPEAKER. On that question, the Chair recognizes the gentleman, Representative Ryan.

Mr. RYAN. Mr. Speaker, thank you so much.

Mr. Speaker, I would ask for an affirmative vote on the amendment to provide subpoena power. If you are going to do a fraud or forensic investigation, you almost certainly, in most circumstances, need to have the ability to do a subpoena to get the information that is necessary to complete the audit. So I would ask the members to please support this amendment and an affirmative vote.

Thank you so much.

Mr. DIAMOND. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Amendment A05556 increases the protective cushion within the time frame of an election where a voter can be removed from the rolls from 30 days to 90 days and brings the bill in line with the national Voting Rights Act. I would ask the members for an affirmative vote.

Thank you, Mr. Speaker.
The SPEAKER. The Chair thanks the gentleman.

The majority having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative and the amendment was agreed to.

On the question,
Will the House agree to the bill on second consideration as amended?

Mr. KENYATTA offered the following amendment No. A05555:

Amend Bill, page 1, lines 1 through 7, by striking out all of said lines and inserting
Amending Title 25 (Elections) of the Pennsylvania Consolidated Statutes, in changes in records, further providing for death of registrant.

Amend Bill, page 1, lines 10 through 19; pages 2 through 4, lines 1 through 30; page 5, lines 1 through 13; by striking out all of said lines on said pages and inserting

(b) Other sources.—A commission shall utilize information obtained from the department through the Electronic Registration Information Center. A commission may also utilize information obtained from State-licensed funeral home records, county coroner records, death certificates provided at the commission's office, published newspaper obituaries, letters testamentary or letters of administration issued by the office of the registrar of wills to cancel and remove the registration of an elector, provided that such removals are uniform, nondiscriminatory and in compliance with the Voting Rights Act of 1965 (Public Law 89-110, 42 U.S.C. § 1973 et seq.). The commission shall promptly update information contained in its registration records.

Section 2. This act shall take effect in 60 days.

On the question,
Will the House agree to the amendment?

The SPEAKER. On that question, the Chair recognizes the gentleman, Representative Kenyatta.

Mr. KENYATTA. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

So the underlying bill, even with the previous amendment, still has a number of issues, but here is the exciting news about the amendment that I have today. The amendment that I have today is identical language from HB 2507, and folks will be excited because you voted for this bill already. We all voted for this bill. It passed unanimously. And so I am asking you to vote with yourself for this bill one more time, and I think that that will be a good bipartisan day's work.

And so I would ask for, again, a unanimous vote on this amendment.

The SPEAKER. The Chair thanks the gentleman and recognizes the gentleman, Representative Grove, on the amendment.

Mr. GROVE. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

The legislation my good friend has talked about is currently in the Senate. We did our jobs. Passing this gut-and-replace amendment will not move the Senate any further to passing it. So at this time I would ask my colleagues to vote "no" because it does replace the underlying legislation, which is different than the legislation you cited. But it is an excellent bill, I do agree with the gentleman.

The SPEAKER. The Chair thanks the gentleman and recognizes the gentleman, Representative Diamond, on the amendment.

Mr. DIAMOND. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

This duplicative amendment is not agreed to and I would ask for a negative vote.

Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. The Chair thanks the gentleman and recognizes the gentlewoman, Representative Kinkead, on the amendment.

Ms. KINKEAD. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

It is not our responsibility to make sure that the Senate is willing to pass this; that is the Senate's job. It is our job to pass the best possible legislation available. That is what this amendment does, and I would ask for a "yes" vote. Thank you.

The SPEAKER. The Chair thanks the lady.

SUPPLEMENTAL CALENDAR A

BILLS ON THIRD CONSIDERATION

The House proceeded to third consideration of HB 1419, PN 3470, entitled:

An Act amending Title 61 (Prisons and Parole) of the Pennsylvania Consolidated Statutes, in general administration, further providing for State recording system for application of restraints to pregnant prisoners or detainees; in county correctional institutions, further providing for county recording system for application of restraints to pregnant prisoners or detainees; and, in miscellaneous provisions, further providing for healthy birth for incarcerated women and providing for restrictive housing prohibited for pregnant or postpartum incarcerated individuals and detainees, for cavity search and inspection restrictions, for training and education requirement, for family consideration in placement and visitation, for feminine hygiene and incontinence products and for postpartum recovery.

On the question,
Will the House agree to the bill on third consideration?
Bill was agreed to.

(Bill analysis was read.)

The SPEAKER. This bill has been considered on three different days and agreed to and is now on final passage.

The question is, shall the bill pass finally?

On that question, the Chair recognizes the good lady, Representative Mizgorski.

Mrs. MIZGORSKI. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Before I begin, I want to thank all the supporters who are up in the gallery today.

Today I rise in favor of HB 1419, Dignity for Incarcerated Women. In recent decades, Pennsylvanians have seen an increase in the number of incarcerated women. While we believe in supporting a system that serves justice, women who are incarcerated face unique challenges regarding their health and the health of their children. Despite being incarcerated, these women are still mothers, wives, sisters, daughters, and it is in everyone's best interest that we treat them with dignity.

This legislation is the result of several years of work by House members from both sides of the aisle. Through collaboration with the State Department of Corrections, county wardens, corrections officers, advocacy groups, and formerly incarcerated women, best practices were identified and included in this legislation. Many of these practices are already in place, so the intent of the legislation is to memorialize these best and reasonable practices in statute.

Additionally, HB 1419 supports healthy parent-child relationships by maintaining visitation for custodial parents and requires correctional institution employees who have contact with pregnant women to undergo professional training related to pregnancy, postpartum, and trauma-informed care.

By passing this legislation, we can have a positive impact on the lives of incarcerated women, which in turn can impact their lives for the better when they return to their families and communities. For this reason I respectfully ask you to vote "yes" for HB 1419, Dignity for Incarcerated Women. Thank you.

The SPEAKER. The Chair thanks the good lady and recognizes the gentlewoman, Representative Davis, on final passage.

Mrs. DAVIS. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Thank you to my colleagues for your support, and hopefully your passage, of HB 1419 today, also known as the Dignity for Incarcerated Women bill. This is a culmination of efforts over several legislative sessions. What began as a subcommittee of the Pennsylvania Legislative Black Caucus has become an incredible step toward treating incarcerated women with the respect and dignity they deserve.

With the passage of this bill, pregnant people will no longer be shackled in prison and will no longer be subject to solitary confinement. They will be able to bond with their babies after birth. Corrections officers they interact with will be properly trained to provide care to pregnant and postpartum people. It is important to mention that this will not only protect pregnant people in our facilities, but with the passage of this legislation, women will no longer be subject to full-body searches performed by male guards. Feminine hygiene products will be provided at no charge.

I am so grateful to my colleagues – the gentlewoman from Allegheny County, the gentlewoman from Philadelphia County, and the gentleman from York County – as well as all my fellow Democratic members who helped put this over the finish line. Thank you.

The SPEAKER. The Chair thanks the lady and recognizes the gentleman, Representative Jones, on final passage.

Mr. JONES. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

I want to thank the maker of the bill. Without her, we would not be here today, so thank you.

You know, a lot of bipartisan efforts are bipartisan because they are easy, but a lot of them take a lot of work, and every once in a while we have a true bipartisan effort, that I am confident will soon get a unanimous vote, and I want to thank my colleagues, Representative Cephas and Representative Davis. I want to acknowledge and thank Kandia Milton, who is with us today from Dream.org; Kaitlin Owens from American Conservative Union; and the great Tonie Willis, my dear friend, from Ardella's House in Philadelphia.

This is a women's issue, so my comments will be brief. This has nothing to do with being easy on crime. It just has everything to do with treating women – our mothers, our sisters, our daughters – with the dignity that all women deserve, and it does a lot to protect their unborn children and their minor children so that we can minimize the disruption on their lives as innocent children.

Lastly, when it comes to criminal justice reform, I sort of like to put it this way. I am a businessman, an American, and a Christian. As a businessman, this bill is good policy. Ninety-five percent of those that are incarcerated will get out and we do not want them going back. If we can treat these ladies with dignity, it increases the chances of that occurring. As an American, this is a land of second chances and opportunity, and none of us want to be judged on our worst day. And as a Christian, rest assured we are all in need of redemption. I know that I certainly am.

I thank all the great women for giving me the opportunity and the privilege to play a small role in this bill, and I encourage a "yes" vote.

Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. The Chair thanks the gentleman and recognizes the gentlewoman, Representative Cephas, on final passage.

Miss CEPHAS. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

I, too, would like to thank my colleagues, as well as the staff from both sides of the aisle, for getting this bill to a place where it is not only bipartisan, but the administration is in support of it, and also the advocates that have been on the ground. I also want to thank the leadership of the Legislative Black Caucus, as well as the Subcommittee for Women and Girls of Color for the Black Caucus, for making this a priority each and every legislative cycle, not just by offering legislation, but also by going to Muncy, as well as Cambridge, to listen to their voices and ensure that the families were heard throughout this entire process.

Lastly, but certainly not least – and my colleagues acknowledged a lot of the advocacy groups that worked alongside us during this entire process – but I really want to highlight my constituent, one, because I would not get her vote if I do not, but Tonie Willis, who is up in the balcony today, from Ardella's House. Not only does she bring this issue to the forefront from a legislative perspective, but she also shared her story and how her time during her incarceration impacted her, as well as her family as well as the community around her, and you know, I am so grateful for her to bring her pain into progress and into policy and really have an opportunity to affect those that are coming behind her.

As we oftentimes have this conversation as it relates to criminal justice reform, we tend to leave out the idea of women and girls. And you know what this bill truly does is acknowledges that they have unique circumstances, that they are the fastest growing population in our prison system, but they also come to us as mothers, sisters, taking care of young people, being heads of households, but also 80 percent having suffered some type of physical or sexual abuse, having some type of substance abuse challenges, but also face particularly daunting obstacles when they return to society.

My colleagues talked about the substances of the bill. It ensures trauma-informed care for training for officers to help reduce recidivism, help incarcerated women reenter into society, but it also makes sure that we are taking care of pregnant and postpartum women while they are incarcerated so we do not add to our maternal mortality and maternal morbidity rate.

So again I want to thank the staff. I want to thank the colleagues who made this a priority again this legislative cycle. But I specifically want to thank the advocates for your calls, joining as many meetings that we have had to get this across the finish line. And again, we would not be able to do this without you and without it being a bipartisan effort, so thank you very much.

The SPEAKER. The Chair thanks the lady.

On the question recurring,
Shall the bill pass finally?

The SPEAKER. Agreeable to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays will now be taken.

Ms. PICKETT. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

No industry is immune to the rise in cybercrime, which is why I introduced HB 2499 to protect Pennsylvania consumers from cybersecurity events. HB 2499 adopts uniform data security standards, investigation, and notification requirements, in collaboration with the Insurance Department, to better protect consumers' personal and private information from a potential insurance data breach. This bill also updates current company law to protect Pennsylvania companies from costly and disruptive regulations, while maintaining national accreditation standards.

The bill as amended is supported by the industry, the department, and I ask my colleagues for an affirmative vote.

REMARKS SUBMITTED FOR THE RECORD

The SPEAKER. On that question, the Chair recognizes the gentleman, Leader Benninghoff.

Mr. BENNINGHOFF. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

If it pleases the chamber, I have been asked to submit comments for the record on behalf of Representative Dowling, who is not able to be with us today. Thank you.

The SPEAKER. The Chair thanks the gentleman, and you may submit those remarks to the clerk.

Mr. BENNINGHOFF submitted the following remarks for the Legislative Journal on behalf of Mr. DOWLING:

Mr. Speaker, my bill is designed to remove an antiquated provision of law. Namely, the bill repeals Act 49 of 1933, known as the Sunday Baseball and Football Law, in its entirety. Originally, this act prohibited individuals and associations from playing or engaging in baseball or football games before 2 p.m. and after 6 p.m. on Sundays.

Mr. Speaker, just to provide some background. Dating back to at least 1794, the General Assembly has limited certain activities on Sunday. But beginning in the 1970s, between court cases and with other changes, we began to move away from blue laws like these here in Pennsylvania. Therefore, Mr. Speaker, it is important to repeal laws like Act 49 of 1933 not only because it is no longer utilized, but also to streamline our existing laws to make sure they are as up to date as possible.

I would encourage members for a "yes" vote on HB 391.
Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

On the question recurring,
Shall the bill pass finally?

The SPEAKER. Agreeable to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays will now be taken.
