(b) Jury trial.--

(1) If no demand for jury trial is made by the appellant, any other party may file a written demand for jury trial within 15 days after being served with a copy of the appeal.

(2) If no party makes a demand for a jury trial as provided in this section, the right to jury trial shall be deemed to have been waived, and the court shall try the case without a jury.

(c) Service.--The appellant shall serve a copy of the appeal on all other parties within five days after filing the appeal. Proof of service of a copy of the appeal shall be filed by the appellant.

(d) Other pleadings not required.--No other pleadings shall be required and the cause shall be deemed at issue.

§ 518. Disposition of appeal.

An appeal shall be disposed as follows:

(1) All objections, other than to the amount of the award, raised by the appeal shall be determined by the court preliminarily.

(2) The court may confirm, modify or change the report or refer it back to the same or other viewers. A decree confirming, modifying or changing the report constitutes a final order.

(3) The amount of damages shall be determined by the court unless a jury trial has been demanded.

(4) At the trial of the case, the condemnee shall be the plaintiff and the condemnor shall be the defendant.

§ 519. Allocation of damages.

(a) Severance damages.--Upon appeal from an award of viewers, the court upon the request of the plaintiff shall, after the jury or the court, if the trial is without jury, has returned its general verdict, make a specific finding and allocation of the amount of the general verdict attributable to severance damages to the part of the property not taken.

(b) Other damages.--The jury or the court in a trial without a jury shall make specific findings as to the portion of the verdict allocated to:

- (1) general damages;

except reasonable appraisal, attorney and engineering fees recoverable under sections 306 (relating to preliminary objections), 308 (relating to revocation of condemnation proceedings), 709 (relating to condemnee's costs where no declaration of taking filed) and 710 (relating to limited reimbursement of appraisal, attorney and engineering fees), which shall be determined by the court in an appropriate case.

§ 520. Waiver of viewers' proceedings and termination by stipulation.

(a) Waiver of viewers' proceedings.--The condemnor and condemnee may, by written agreement filed with and approved by the court, waive proceedings before viewers and proceed directly to the court on agreed issues of law or fact. The proceedings shall then be the same as on appeal from a report of viewers.

(b) Termination by stipulation.--At any time after filing of a petition for the appointment of viewers, the parties may, by stipulation filed with the prothonotary, terminate the viewers' proceedings as to all or part of the properties involved and stipulate that judgment may be entered for the amount of damages agreed on for each property interest covered by the stipulation. A copy of the stipulation shall be filed with the viewers.

§ 521. Liens and distribution of damages.

(a) Liens.--

(1) Damages payable to a condemnee under sections 701 (relating to just compensation; other damages) through 707 (relating to removal of machinery, equipment or fixtures), 713 (relating to delay compensation), 714 (relating to consequential damages), 715 (relating to damages for vacation of roads) and 902(b)(1) and (2) (relating to moving and related expenses of displaced persons) shall be subject to a lien for all taxes and municipal claims assessed against the property and to all mortgages, judgments and other liens of record against the property for which the particular damages are payable, existing at the date of the filing of the declaration of taking.

(2) The liens shall be paid out of the damages in order of priority before any payment to the condemnee, unless released.

(3) In the case of a partial taking or of damages under sections 714 and 715, the lienholder shall be entitled only to an equitable pro rata share of the damages lienable under this section.

(b) Distribution of damages.--

(1) The condemnor shall distribute the damages properly. If the condemnor is unable to determine proper distribution of the damages, it may, without payment into court, petition the court to distribute the damages and shall furnish the court with a schedule of proposed distribution.

(2) Notice of the filing of the petition and schedule of proposed distribution shall be given to all condemnees, mortgagees, judgment creditors and other lienholders, as shown in the proposed schedule, in any manner as the court may direct by general rule or special order.

(3) The court may hear the matter or may appoint a master to hear and report or may order any issue tried by the court and jury as may appear proper under all the circumstances.

(4) The court shall then enter an order of distribution of the fund.

Cross References. Section 521 is referred to in section 522 of this title.

§ 522. Payment into court and distribution.

(a) Payment into court.--

(1) Upon refusal to accept payment of the damages or of the estimated just compensation under section 307 (relating to possession, right of entry and payment of compensation) or if the party entitled thereto cannot be found or if for any other reason the amount cannot be paid to the party entitled thereto, the court upon petition of the condemnor, which shall include a schedule of proposed distribution, may direct payment and costs into court or as the court may direct in full satisfaction.

(2) The condemnor shall give 20 days' notice of the presentation of the petition, including a copy of the schedule of the proposed distribution, to all parties in interest known to the condemnor in any manner as the court may direct by general rule or special order.

(3) If the court is satisfied in a particular case that the condemnor failed to use reasonable diligence in giving notice, the court may, upon petition of any party in interest adversely affected by the failure to give notice, order that compensation for delay in payment be awarded to the party for the period after deposit in court by the condemnor under this section until the time the party in interest has received a distribution of funds under this section.

(b) Distribution.--The court upon petition of any party in interest shall distribute the funds paid under subsection (a) or any funds deposited in court under section 307 to the persons entitled thereto in accordance with the procedure in section 521 (relating to liens and distribution of damages), but, if no petition is presented within a period of five years of the date of payment into court, the court shall order the fund or any balance remaining to be paid to the Commonwealth without escheat. (b) Urban development or redevelopment condemnation.--In the case of the condemnation of property in connection with any urban development or redevelopment project, which property is damaged by subsidence due to failure of surface support resulting from the existence of mine tunnels or passageways under the property or by reason of fires occurring in mine tunnels or passageways or of burning coal refuse banks, the damage resulting from the subsidence or underground fires or burning coal refuse banks shall be excluded in determining the fair market value of the condemnee's entire property interest immediately before the condemnation.

(c) Value of property damaged by natural disaster.--

(1) In the case of the condemnation of property in connection with any program or project which property is damaged by any natural disaster, the damage resulting from the natural disaster shall be excluded in determining fair market value of the condemnee's entire property interest immediately before the condemnation.

The damage to be excluded shall include only actual physical damage to the property for which the condemnee has not received any compensation or reimbursement.

Cross References. Section 702 is referred to in section 521 of this title.

Cross References. Section 704 is referred to in section 521 of this title.

§ 705. Contiguous tracts and unity of use.

Where all or a part of several contiguous tracts in substantially identical ownership is condemned or a part of several noncontiguous tracts in substantially identical ownership which are used together for a unified purpose is condemned, damages shall be assessed as if the tracts were one parcel.

Cross References. Section 705 is referred to in section 521 of this title.

§ 706. Effect of condemnation use on after value.

(b) Future damages and general benefits.--Future damages and general benefits which will affect the entire community beyond the properties directly abutting the property taken shall not be considered in arriving at the after value.

(c) Special benefits.--Special benefits to the remaining property shall in no event exceed the total damages, except in cases where the condemnor is authorized under existing law to make special assessments for benefits.

(d) Partial taking.--A partial taking shall not extinguish a nonconforming use unless all or a substantial portion of the improvements on the property are within the area of the property taken.

Cross References. Section 706 is referred to in section 521 of this title.

§ 707. Removal of machinery, equipment or fixtures.

(a) Notice to condemnee.--In the event the condemnor does not require for its use machinery, equipment or fixtures forming part of the real estate, it shall so notify the condemnee.

(b) Condemnee election.--

(1) The condemnee may within 30 days of the notice elect to remove the machinery, equipment or fixtures unless the time is extended by the condemnor.

Cross References. Section 707 is referred to in section 521 of this title.

§ 708. Expenses incidental to transfer of title.

An acquiring agency shall, on the date of payment of the purchase price of amicably acquired real property or of payment or tender of estimated just compensation in a condemnation proceeding to acquire real property, whichever is earlier or as soon as is practicable, reimburse the owner for expenses necessarily incurred for:

§ 711. Payment on account of increased mortgage costs.

(a) Reimbursement of owner.--Whenever the acquisition of property by an acquiring agency results in the termination of an installment purchase contract, mortgage or other evidence of debt on the acquired property, requiring the legal or equitable owner to enter into another installment purchase contract, mortgage or other evidence of debt on the property purchased for the same use as the acquired property, a legal or equitable owner who does not qualify for a payment under section 903(a)(2) (relating to replacement housing for homeowners) shall be compensated for any increased interest and other debt service costs which the owner is required to pay for financing the acquisition of the replacement property.

(b) Determination of amount.--

(1) Compensation for any increased interest and other debt service costs shall be equal to the excess in the aggregate interest and other debt service costs of that amount on the principal of the installment purchase contract, mortgage or other evidence of debt on the replacement property which is equal to the unpaid balance of the installment purchase contract, mortgage or other evidence of debt on the acquired property over the remaining term of the installment purchase contract, mortgage or other evidence of debt on the acquired property reduced to present worth.

(2) The discount rate to be used in reducing to present worth shall be the prevailing interest rate paid on savings deposits by commercial banks in the general area in which the replacement property is located.

(3) The amount shall be paid only if the acquired property was subject to an installment purchase contract or encumbered by a bona fide mortgage or other evidence of debt secured by the property which was a valid lien on the property for not less than 180 days prior to the initiation of negotiations for the acquisition of the property.

§ 712. Loss of rentals because of imminence of condemnation.

(a) General rule.--A property owner shall be entitled to receive as special damages compensation for any loss suffered prior to the date of taking caused by a reduction of income from rentals which the property owner establishes was substantially due to the general knowledge of the imminence of condemnation, other than that due to physical deterioration of the property within the reasonable control of the property owner.

(b) Applicability.--This section applies only to losses of rental income suffered following a 60-day period subsequent to written notice from the property owner to the acquiring agency that losses of rental income are being suffered. Claims for special damages under this section may be made by any property owner whose property is or was scheduled for condemnation, whether or not a condemnation subsequently occurs. Total damages under this section shall not exceed $30,000.

(c) Limited applicability.--Claims for special damages compensation as described in subsection (a) may be made by any property owner against any acquiring agency whether or not a condemnation subsequently occurs for any project related to a convention center in a city of the first class.

(ii) the condemnor shall not be entitled to rent or other charges for use and occupancy of the condemned property by the condemnee.

(c) Award or judgment.--Compensation for delay shall not be included by the viewers or the court or jury on appeal as part of the award or verdict but shall, at the time of payment of the award or judgment, be calculated under subsection (a) and added to the award or judgment. There shall be no further or additional payment of interest on the award or verdict.

§ 901. Definitions.

The following words and phrases when used in this chapter shall have the meanings given to them in this section unless the context clearly indicates otherwise:

"Acquiring agency." The term includes an agency or person that is carrying out a program or project to the extent that the agency or person causes a person to become a displaced person.

Cross References. Section 901 is referred to in section 103 of this title.

§ 902. Moving and related expenses of displaced persons.

(a) Reasonable expenses incurred.--

(1) A displaced person shall be reimbursed for reasonable expenses incurred in moving the displaced person and the person's family and for the removal, transportation and reinstallation of personal property.

(i) Receipts shall be prima facie evidence of incurred reasonable moving expenses.

(ii) Any displaced person who is displaced from a dwelling may elect to receive, in lieu of reimbursement of incurred moving expenses, a moving expense and dislocation allowance determined according to a schedule established by the acquiring agency.

(2) As used in this subsection, the following words and phrases shall have the meanings given to them in this paragraph:

"Displaced person." Includes a person who moves from real property or moves personal property:

(i) as a direct result of a written notice of intent to acquire or the acquisition of other real property, in whole or in part, on which the person conducts a business or farm operation for a program or project undertaken by an acquiring agency; or

(ii) as a direct result of rehabilitation, demolition or other displacing activity of other real property on which such person conducts a business or a farm operation under a program or project undertaken by an acquiring agency if the displacement is permanent.

(b) Damages for dislocation of business or farm operation.--A displaced person who is displaced from a place of business or from a farm operation shall be entitled, in addition to any payment received under subsection (a), to damages for dislocation of business or farm operation as follows:

(1) Damages equal to the value in place of the personal property which:

(i) is not moved because of the discontinuance of the business or farm operation or the unavailability of a comparable site for relocation; or

(ii) cannot be moved without substantially destroying or diminishing its utility in the relocated business or farm operation.

(2) (i) In lieu of the damages provided in paragraph (1), at the option of the displaced person, an amount not to exceed $12,000 to be determined by taking 50% of the difference, if any, between the original cost of the personal property to the displaced person or the replacement cost of equivalent property at the time of sale, whichever is lower, and the net proceeds obtained by the displaced person at a commercially reasonable private or public sale.

(ii) If this option is selected, the displaced person shall give the acquiring agency not less than 60 days' notice in writing of intention to seek damages under this option.

(iii) The displaced person shall not, directly or indirectly, purchase any of the personal property at private sale. Inventory shall be paid for under this option only if the business is not relocated.

(3) Actual reasonable expenses in searching for a replacement business or farm.

(4) Actual reasonable expenses necessary to reestablish a displaced farm, nonprofit organization or small business at its new site, but not to exceed $25,000. Sites occupied solely by outdoor advertising signs, displays or devices do not qualify for this benefit.

(5) (i) In addition to damages under subsection (a) and paragraphs (1), (2), (3) or (4), damages in an amount equal to the average annual net earnings but not more than $60,000 nor less than $3,000.

(ii) Payment shall be made only if the business cannot be relocated without a substantial loss of profits and if the business is not part of a commercial enterprise having more than three other entities which are not being acquired by the acquiring agency and which are under the same ownership and are engaged in the same or similar business activities.

(iii) A person whose sole business at a dwelling from which the person is displaced is the rental of such property to others shall not qualify for a payment under this paragraph.

(iv) As used in this paragraph, the term "average annual net earnings" means one-half of any net earnings of the business or farm operation before Federal, State and local income taxes during the two taxable years immediately preceding the taxable year in which the business or farm operation moves from the real property acquired for a project and includes any compensation paid by the business or farm operation to the owner, a spouse or dependents during this period. The regulations promulgated under section 906 (relating to regulations) may designate another period determined to be more equitable for establishing average annual net earnings as long as the designated period does not produce a lesser payment than would be produced by use of the last two taxable years.

(1) In addition to payments otherwise authorized, the acquiring agency shall make an additional payment not in excess of $31,000 to any displaced person who is displaced from a dwelling actually owned and occupied by the displaced person for not less than 90 days prior to the initiation of negotiations for the acquisition of the property or the receipt of written notice from the acquiring agency of intent to acquire or order to vacate.

(2) The additional payment shall include the following elements:

(i) The amount, if any, which when added to the acquisition cost of the acquired dwelling equals the reasonable cost of a comparable replacement dwelling which is available to the displaced person on the private market.

(ii) The amount, if any, which will compensate the displaced person for any increased interest and other debt service costs which the person is required to pay for financing the acquisition of any comparable replacement dwelling. The amount shall be paid only if the acquired dwelling was subject to an installment purchase contract or encumbered by a bona fide installment purchase contract, mortgage or other evidence of debt secured by the dwelling which was a valid lien on such dwelling for not less than 180 days immediately prior to the initiation of negotiations for the acquisition of such dwelling.

(iii) Reasonable expenses incurred by the displaced person for evidence of title, recording and attorney fees, real property transfer taxes and other closing and related costs incident to the purchase and financing of the replacement dwelling, but not including prepaid expenses.

(b) One-year time period for purchase of replacement dwelling.--

(1) The additional payment authorized by this section shall be made only to a displaced person who purchases and occupies a replacement dwelling, which is decent, safe, sanitary and adequate to accommodate the displaced person, not later than the end of the one-year period beginning on the date on which the person receives final payment of full acquisition cost for the acquired dwelling or on the date on which the person moves from the acquired dwelling, whichever is later. Regulations issued under section 906 (relating to regulations) may prescribe situations when the one-year period may be extended.

(2) If the period is extended, the payment under this section shall be based on the costs of relocating the person to a comparable replacement dwelling within one year of the date on which the person received final payment of full acquisition costs for the acquired dwelling.

(c) Right of election.--The person entitled under this section shall have the right to elect the benefits available under section 904 (relating to replacement housing for tenants and others) in lieu of those provided by this section. (Dec. 20, 2015, P.L.494, No.88, eff. imd.)

prior to the initiation of negotiations for acquisition of the dwelling or the receipt of written notice from the acquiring agency of intent to acquire or order to vacate. The payment shall be the amount determined to be necessary to enable the displaced person to lease a comparable replacement dwelling for a period not to exceed 42 months. The amount shall be the additional amount, if any, over the actual rental or fair rental value of the acquired dwelling, but not more than $7,200.

(2) Any person eligible for a payment under paragraph (1) may elect to apply the payment to a down payment on, and other incidental expenses pursuant to, the purchase of a decent, safe and sanitary replacement dwelling.

(b) Housing replacements by acquiring agency as last resort.--

(1) If comparable replacement sale or rental housing is not available in the neighborhood or community in which a program or project is located and this housing cannot otherwise be made available, the acquiring agency may purchase, construct, reconstruct or otherwise provide replacement housing by use of funds authorized for the program or project. For this purpose, the acquiring agency may exercise its power of eminent domain to acquire property in fee simple or any lesser estate as it deems advisable.

(2) Replacement housing provided under this section may be sold, leased or otherwise disposed of by the acquiring agency, for or without consideration, to displaced persons or to nonprofit, limited dividend or cooperative organizations or public bodies, on terms and conditions as the acquiring agency deems necessary and proper to effect the relocation of persons displaced by a program or project.

(2) The loans and grants shall be made prior to the availability of financing for items such as preliminary surveys and analyses of market needs, preliminary site engineering, preliminary architectural fees, legal, appraisal and organizational fees, site acquisition, application and mortgage commitment fees, construction loan fees and discounts and similar items.

(3) Loans to an organization established for profit shall bear interest at market rate determined by the acquiring agency. All other loans and grants shall be without interest.

(4) The acquiring agency shall require repayment of loans and grants made under this section, under any terms and conditions it requires, upon completion of the project or sooner. However, except in the case of a loan to an organization established for profit, the acquiring agency may cancel any part or all of a loan and may cancel the repayment provisions of a grant if it determines that a permanent loan to finance the rehabilitation or the construction of the housing cannot be obtained in an amount adequate for repayment of the loan.

(d) Availability of funds.--Funds, including motor license funds and other special funds, appropriated or otherwise available to any acquiring agency for a program or project, which results in the displacement of any person, shall be available also for obligations and expenditures to carry out the provisions of this section.

(3) Any person aggrieved by a determination as to eligibility for a payment authorized by this chapter or the amount of a payment may elect to have the application reviewed by the head of the acquiring agency.

(4) Each displaced person shall receive the maximum payments authorized by this chapter.

(5) Each acquiring agency may obtain the maximum Federal reimbursement for relocation payment and assistance costs authorized by any Federal law.

Cross References. Section 906 is referred to in sections 902, 903 of this title.

§ 907. Payments not to be considered as income or resources.

No payment received by a displaced person under this chapter shall be considered as income or resources for the purpose of determining the eligibility or extent of eligibility of any person for assistance under any State law or for the purposes of the State or local personal income or wage tax laws, corporation tax laws or other tax laws. No payments under this chapter except those provided for in section 902(b) (relating to moving and related expenses of displaced persons) shall be subject to attachment or execution at law or in equity.
