

MERCANTILE TAX - AGENTS OF NONRESIDENTS - PHILADELPHIA

Act of Apr. 6, 1852, P.L. 268, No. 181

Cl. 72

AN ACT

Authorizing the trustees of the estate of James Whitehead, deceased, to sell certain real estate and ground rents; authorizing John C. Mitchell, administrator de bonis non of Rebecca Redman, to sell real estate; relative to the estate of Henry Naglee, of Philadelphia county; to the sale of malt liquors in Clarion county; and to the Mutual Beneficial Insurance Association of Bucks county; the boundary line of the district of Kensington; and to the sale of hardware, by card, sample, or otherwise.

Section 10. Act not to apply to residents

The ninth and tenth sections of an act, entitled "An Act to incorporate the Union School and Children's Home Asylum; to provide for the taxation of non-resident vendors of merchandise in the City and County of Philadelphia and for the relief of Edward Hutchinson," approved April 12, 1851, shall not be construed to apply to a citizen and permanent resident of Pennsylvania, or whose principal place of business is within the State, and who pays, in accordance with existing laws, a license of not less than one hundred dollars per annum, or to any resident, agent or agents as aforesaid, for the sale of hardware, by card, sample or other specimen. 1852, April 6, P.L. 268, Sec. 10.
