

BREEDING OF HORSES REGULATED
Act of Apr. 25, 1907, P.L. 114, No. 92
AN ACT

Cl. 03

To encourage the breeding of horses; to regulate the public service of stallions; to require the registration of stallions; and to provide for the enforcement thereof.

Compiler's Note: The act of June 3, 1911, P.L.631, No.242 appears to have supplied this act with the possible exception of Section 9.

Section 9. The State Livestock Sanitary Board is authorized to establish needful regulations, and to provide for official examination upon voluntary request from owners of stallions, and to issue certificates of approval for stallions that are approved in respect to purity of breeding, soundness, conformation, breed-type and their suitability to improve the horse stock of the State.
