

AUDITOR GENERAL'S DUTIES, DELEGATION TO CHIEF CLERK

Act of Apr. 23, 1909, P.L. 155, No. 108

Cl. 72

AN ACT

Authorizing the Auditor General to empower the Chief Clerk of his Department to do certain official acts.

Section 1. Be it enacted, &c., That the Auditor General is hereby authorized to empower the deputy auditor general, the assistant deputy auditor general, the chief clerk, the chief clerk of the Bureau of Corporations, the two assistant chief corporation clerks, the chief clerk in the Bureau of Collections from county officers, and the chief clerk and assistant chief clerk and warrant clerk in the Bureau of Accounts and Expenditures, to do such official acts as the Auditor General may designate: Provided, That this act shall not be construed to relieve the Auditor General of responsibility for such acts as may be performed by such employes.
