

BOUNDARIES, FIRST CLASS CITIES AND COUNTIES

Act of Apr. 27, 1925, P.L. 327, No. 187

Cl. 11

AN ACT

To authorize cities of the first class and adjoining counties to enter into contracts and proceed with the work of construction and maintenance of meadow-banks and dikes at or near the boundary line between said cities and adjoining counties.

Section 1. Be it enacted, &c., That authority is hereby conferred upon any city of the first class and the county commissioners of any adjoining county to enter into contracts and proceed with the work of the construction of meadow-banks and dikes at or near the boundary line between such cities and adjoining counties. Such contracts when duly authorized by the council of said cities and the county commissioners of said adjoining counties may provide for the division of the cost of construction and maintenance of such meadow-banks and dikes between the said cities and the said adjoining counties on such terms and in such proportion as may be agreed upon by authority of the council of such cities and the county commissioners of said adjoining counties.
