

ENLARGE POWERS OF THE DELAWARE RIVER NAVIGATION COMMISSION
Act of Jul. 28, 1941, P.L. 516, No. 205
AN ACT

Cl. 74

To enlarge the powers of the Navigation Commission for the Delaware River and its navigable tributaries with respect to the maintenance, operation and financing of a nautical school for the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows:

Section 1. The Navigation Commission for the Delaware River and its navigable tributaries be, and the same is hereby authorized to adopt or agree to any regulations which, in the discretion of the commission, are not contrary to the interests of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania with any agency of the government of the United States, including the acceptance of such ship or ships as may be loaned to the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and to accept students designated by any authorized agency of the government of the United States for such annual fees as may be in the discretion of the commission agreed upon from time to time.

Section 2. The said commission is further authorized to provide for such deposits by students as the commission in its discretion may deem necessary to guarantee contingent costs and expenses during the course of the students' training on board the Pennsylvania Nautical Schoolship not otherwise provided for by State or Federal appropriations.

Section 3. It is hereby declared that it is not the purpose of the General Assembly to repeal or modify any existing legislation on the subject hereof, except where the same may be supplied hereby.

Section 4. This act shall become effective immediately upon final enactment.
