

JOHN BURGUESS BRIDGE AND VETERANS MEMORIAL BRIDGE - DESIGNATIONS

Act of Jul. 11, 1991, P.L. 82, No. 16

Cl. 87

AN ACT

Designating a certain bridge in Troy Township, Bradford County, as the John Burgess Bridge; designating the newly constructed bridge connecting the City of Scranton with the Borough of Taylor, Lackawanna County, as the Veterans Memorial Bridge; and requiring the Department of Transportation to erect designation signs.

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows:

Section 1. The reconstructed bridge carrying United States Route 6 between Troy Township and Troy in Bradford County, Pennsylvania, is hereby officially designated as the John Burgess Bridge.

Section 2. The newly constructed bridge connecting Davis Street in the City of Scranton with Union Street in the Borough of Taylor is hereby officially designated and shall be known as the Veterans Memorial Bridge.

Section 3. The Department of Transportation shall erect appropriate signs at each end of these bridges to conform with sections 1 and 2.

Section 4. This act shall take effect immediately.
