SESSION OF 2009 193RD OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY

No. 49

SENATE

WEDNESDAY, July 1, 2009

The Senate met at 1 p.m., Eastern Daylight Saving Time.

The PRESIDENT (Lieutenant Governor Joseph B. Scarnati III) in the Chair.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Reverend ROBERT SIEBER, Retired Pastor of Faith Bible Baptist Church, Mifflintown, offered the following prayer:

Shall we pray.

Almighty God, Creator of heaven and earth and giver of all that we have, we stand before You here, this afternoon, with thankful hearts and a desire to please You. As such, we come to Your throne through no works of our own but only by the granting of Your infinite love, mercy, and grace, all of which You have so freely bestowed upon us. And for this, we are thankful.

Heavenly Father, this nation is on the verge of celebrating her 233rd birthday, a birthday that has given us a Constitution which guarantees to us certain freedoms, one of which is the coming together as elected leaders to enact legislation giving us the ability to pursue life, liberty, and happiness. For this blessing, we also pause and say, thank You, Lord.

Heavenly Father, we have come here today to look to You in prayer, and it is because of this freedom that we have of self-government that we can come to You in prayer here in this Senate body today. This Senate body has convened this afternoon to work upon various proposals pertaining to the Commonwealth's budget, and then to eventually compile and vote upon a new State budget. So, Heavenly Father, as this honorable Assembly begins its work this afternoon, may each Member do so in a spirit of cooperation with each other and an attitude of doing what is right and fair for each person who resides within the confines of this great and beautiful State.

For this reason, most gracious and loving Lord, we now hold these elected officials up to You, simply asking that You would work Your perfect will in each and every one of them as they begin today's deliberations. This we ask in Your magnificent and holy name. Amen.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair thanks Reverend Sieber, who is the guest today of Senator Corman.

PETITIONS AND REMONSTRANCES

The PRESIDENT. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Centre, Senator Corman.

Senator CORMAN. Mr. President, it is July 1, and in previous years, it would be very uncommon for us to be here in Harrisburg on July 1. Unfortunately, it is becoming all too common, as this is our seventh straight year we have been unable to come up with a balanced budget prior to the June 30 deadline. This is my first year, Mr. President, as chairman of the Committee on Appropriations, and certainly, one of my goals--and I know this was Senator Costa's goal--was to get a budget done by June 30 of this year. And unfortunately, it escaped us. It was not from lack of effort or a lack of hard work on all parts.

And certainly, coming to the floor today, I think we have heard a lot of posturing and a lot of aspersions back and forth over the last few weeks. That is not going to move the ball forward any. But I did think it was important to come to the floor and talk about what we are trying to accomplish, why we think it is important that we are here, and where we want to see Pennsylvania go in the future.

Mr. President, you know, this is a tough year. The June numbers are in, and now that the fiscal year has finally come to a close, we have roughly about $3.25 billion less in revenues than what the Governor had anticipated when he set the revenue estimate last year. Therefore, Mr. President, as I stated earlier, our revenues coming into the Commonwealth took a significant dip this year. So that puts us all in a position to make very tough decisions. And the one thing that we on this side of the aisle are trying to accomplish in this budget impasse moment is not how we get to 2010, Mr. President, but where do we want to see Pennsylvania in 2020? We want to look to the future. I think if we can learn from our mistakes in the past--and it is easy now, I understand, to play a sort of Monday morning quarterback on past legisla-
