(The following prepared remarks were made part of the record at the request of the gentlewoman from Westmoreland, Senator WARD:)

Mr. President, I rise today to affirm my support for the SONY project in the 39th Senatorial District, but I cannot vote in support of the bill to which the funding is attached. I regret that this public improvement project was included in House Bill No. 2289. I have been working with SONY and know that projects like this are critical to the economic development of the region. However, I cannot vote to give Philadelphia over $90 million in projects. Further, there is no guarantee that the Governor will release the funds designated to this project. I will continue to work for this project with the State and Westmoreland County, as it is very important to our region, but I cannot do it in this legislation.

SENATE CONCURS IN HOUSE AMENDMENTS TO SENATE AMENDMENTS

HB 1186 (Pr. No. 4094) -- The Senate proceeded to consideration of the bill, entitled:

An Act amending the act of April 9, 1929 (P.L.177, No.175), known as The Administrative Code of 1929, establishing the Department of Drug and Alcohol Programs; providing for governing body of the Pennsylvania Higher Education Assistance Agency; making a related repeal; repealing related provisions of the Pennsylvania Drug and Alcohol Abuse and Control Act; and making editorial changes.

On the question,

Will the Senate concur in the amendments made by the House to Senate amendments to House Bill No. 1186?

Senator PILEGGI. Mr. President, I move that the Senate do concur in the amendments made by the House to Senate amendments to House Bill No. 1186.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

The PRESIDENT. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Cambria, Senator Wozniak.

Senator WOZNIAK. Mr. President, I know the train is leaving the station, and we want to leave here for the summer with a balanced budget and the revenues in place. But once again--and I will be brief; you can rerun yesterday's speech--we are creating a new department in Pennsylvania by passing this bill. And we can talk until the cows come home about how we are just transferring money from the Department of Health and the Department of Public Welfare and putting it into this department, but we are creating a new department. It is going to start out teeny-weeny, and then it is going to grow. And the very same people who many times go back home and talk about controlling government are going to vote to create an entirely new department that will have a secretary, a deputy secretary, a legislative liaison, secretaries to those people, and on and on and on, and layers of bureaucracy as time goes on.

Abuse of drug and alcohol is something that we must take very seriously, but it can be done in an agency within the Department of Health. It does not have to be a freestanding department. The United States of America has a Department of Defense. This would be the same thing as saying that right next to the Department of Defense, we have a Department of Drug and Alcohol Programs. We do not need another bureaucracy. We do not need another department.

We only had seven negative votes yesterday. Today, we have another bite at the apple. Perhaps we can get a little bit more to make it clear to the public that some people out there are watching their paychecks and their taxes. We do not need to create a new department, and that is what we are doing if we vote for this bill.

Thank you, Mr. President.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Lehigh, Senator Browne.

Senator BROWNE. Mr. President, I have a couple of comments in regard to what the speaker just mentioned. There is obviously a concern regarding the possibility of setting up a new department and what that means, given the legacy of what we have seen in this Commonwealth. I have the companion piece of legislation to this bill in the Senate, and I spent a good amount of time looking at this, in terms of what it could potentially do and what the experience of other States has been.

What I have found, at least from my perspective, is that if you look across State government, in many, many different departments--whether it be Public Welfare, Health, State Police, Education, or the Office of Attorney General--we provide a tremendous amount of funding for treatment of the abuse of drugs and alcohol. It moves in many, many different directions. There is no cohesive strategy for this investment, and as a result, there is a tremendous amount of inefficiency, not the most effective level of service to those who suffer from drug and alcohol addiction.

So what leadership in this area would do--and that is what this is, having someone at the table with everyone else--is to consolidate and promote an effective, cohesive strategy toward the investment of dollars in treatment. What other States have found is this results in greater efficiency, not more costs. The reason why we do not have that now is because there is no direct leadership on this issue within State government. We have individuals underneath other people who have not prioritized this as well as they should have, and money gets moved around. We have priorities going in many different directions, and it is somewhat like herding cats.

So if we have someone at the table promoting an effective strategy to deal with this challenge that affects so many people across the country, what we are going to see is a reduction in costs, a more efficient way to spend resources, and again, greater accountability to the taxpayers of the Commonwealth. This is good government reform, it is effective spending of taxpayers' dollars on treatment, and I ask the Members to consider that when they vote on this measure. Thank you.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Philadelphia, Senator Hughes.

Senator HUGHES. Mr. President, I could not concur more with my friend and colleague who just spoke, Senator Browne. I am here to advocate for the policy. But probably more importantly, I am here to advocate more for the individual who has kept all of us focused over the years, over the decades, on the issues of drug and alcohol abuse and the related programs, to make sure that they get addressed. Her name is Deborah Beck, and she is probably, of all of the individuals who walk the halls of this building, the most focused, most sincere, most committed, most caring, most passionate, and just a nice person who is truly committed to making sure that we do a better job with respect to these issues.

I ask that we support this matter not just for the policy, but also because of the person who has stood behind this issue for decades trying to make this Commonwealth and our work better, as far as this issue is concerned. It is not appropriate to applaud at this time, but I will give her a round of applause right now, because she deserves it. Deb Beck, thank you very much.

Thank you, Mr. President.

(Applause.)

Senator PILEGGI. Mr. President, I move that the Senate do concur in the amendments made by the House to Senate Bill No. 1042.

On the question,
Will the Senate agree to the motion?

The PRESIDENT. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Delaware, Senator Pileggi.

Senator PILEGGI. Mr. President, this is the last piece of legislation that constitutes the budget package, and before we vote on this, I want to thank my colleagues across the aisle - Senator Mellow, Senator Costa, and Senator O'Pake - for their cooperative approach to resolving this year's budget.

I also want to thank by name several members of the staff on this side of the aisle who worked long and hard on this budget: David Woods, my chief of staff; Kelly Phenicie, deputy general counsel; Drew Crompton, chief counsel for Senator Scarnati; in Senator Corman's office, the always present and hardworking Greg Jordan, his executive director; and Anna Fitzsimmons, his chief of staff. In counsel's office, again, Kathy Eakin deserves special thanks for taking on the most difficult tasks that seem impossible to everyone else, and she makes them seem easy to resolve; and Donna Malpezzi, our chief counsel, who keeps the wheels of the train moving every day and is the chief engineer of this budget process. So I want to thank them all for their hard work on this budget process, and I again thank my colleagues on the other side of the aisle and their staffs.

Thank you, Mr. President.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair recognizes the gentlewoman from Luzerne, Senator Baker.

Senator BAKER. Mr. President, I would like to offer comments for the record and make note that two transfers in the bill relate to the Crime Victim's Compensation Fund. These contain recommendations from the Interbranch Commission on Juvenile Justice, which looked into the Luzerne County corruption scandal and the juvenile justice system, so I offer these comments for the record. They are the first of our implementing the recommendations, and I hope that they are not the last.

Thank you, Mr. President.

The PRESIDENT. The remarks will be spread upon the record.

(The following prepared remarks were made part of the record at the request of the gentlewoman from Luzerne, Senator BAKER:)

An extraordinary pair of remedies in this bill warrant highlighting. Two transfers of funds from the Crime Victim's Compensation Fund are authorized pursuant to recommendations made by the Interbranch Commission on Juvenile Justice.

The first makes good on the remainder of the restitution legally owed to the victims of juvenile crime in Luzerne County. Expungement of the records is the right thing to do for the juveniles wrongly adjudicated and detained, but that action has an unfortunate and unanticipated consequence. Erasing the records also erases the valid restitution awards due to the original crime victims. Pennsylvania must not remedy one set of injustices by inflicting another, no matter how inadvertent that result. The cost of meeting these obligations could be as low as $300,000. This does not work, to the detriment of crime victims elsewhere.

When this matter was debated in the House, several detractors contended this approach was unconstitutional. To put it politely, that is beyond far-fetched. Remember, each Caucus picked a highly qualified individual to serve on the Commission. The top legal and professional talent in this Commonwealth contributed a great deal of time investigating corruption and developing solutions to bolster juvenile justice. They surely did not recommend something that is unconstitutional.

The second transfer would provide $1 million for county grants for victims of juvenile offenders, replacing funds lost to budget reductions. At a time when there is a starkly demonstrated need to upgrade juvenile justice administration, services, and oversight, we must not allow our budgetary distress to delay important and responsible steps.

These are the first of the recommendations made by the Interbranch Commission to be acted upon and approved. For the sake of fairness and the cause of justice, they must not be the last.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

The yeas and nays were required by Senator PILEGGI and were as follows, viz:
