SESSION OF 2010 194TH OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY

No. 50

SENATE

MONDAY, September 27, 2010

The Senate met at 1 p.m., Eastern Daylight Saving Time.

The PRESIDENT (Lieutenant Governor Joseph B. Scarnati III) in the Chair.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, ELSAYED F. ELMARZOUKY, President of the Islamic Center of Reading, offered the following prayer:

In the name of God, the most merciful, the most gracious, I stand before you today with great honor for a historic moment to pray with you as the first Muslim Chaplain ever on the floor of the Senate of the Commonwealth.

I pray to our Lord to guide us all to the straight path and to do good for the people of the Commonwealth. I pray to God to collect your hearts as representatives of our people, to do the right things, and to build our Commonwealth and take it back to its welfare and prosperity. Enrich life beyond the walls of this Capitol building. Build dreams for people whose lives suffer from poverty. Reflect on the differences we make in the lives of people. Find the personal courage to speak against iniquity and injustice. Seek the beauty within our lives that teaches us to love our work.

God of our lives, there are days when the burdens we carry chap our shoulders and weigh us down, when the world seems dreary and endless, the skies gray and threatening, when our lives have no hope in them, our hearts are lonely, and our souls have lost courage. Today, fill up our path with light, and turn our eyes where the skies are full of promise. God bless our Senators, our Representatives, our Governor, our State, and our nation. Amen.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair thanks President Elmarzouky, who is the guest today of Senator O'Pake.

PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE

(The Pledge of Allegiance was recited by those assembled.)

SPECIAL ORDER OF BUSINESS
GUESTS OF SENATOR MICHAEL A. O'PAKE
PRESENTED TO THE SENATE

The PRESIDENT. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Berks, Senator O'Pake.

Senator O'PAKE. Mr. President, I want to thank Mr. Elmarzouky, not only for being Chaplain of the Senate here today, but for all of his dedicated work in our community. He has earned the respect and appreciation of Berks Countians of all faiths. Not only is he the successful owner of three businesses, restaurants, actually, in Reading and Berks County, but he has given freely of his time, his talents, and his treasures. He has served as a chaplain for the Reading Police Department, and he is a voluntary clergymember for the Berks County Prison. He is a volunteer teacher and board of trustee member of Alvernia University, which is a Franciscan Catholic university.

He most recently received the 2010 Friend of the Homeless award from the Berks Coalition to End Homelessness for his work in providing food for the hungry of our community. Next month, he will be recognized by the Reading branch of the NAACP in its 2010 Image Awards.

I would also like to recognize at this time his guest, who also came from Reading, Mr. Hamid Chaudhry, who is a very successful businessman in Berks County. He is in the Dairy Queen business, but he also has given freely of his talent, especially for Crime Alert and other citizens organizations that are making Reading a safer place. So I thank our two guests, and I ask the body to recognize and show its appreciation to both of them.

The PRESIDENT. Would the guests of Senator O'Pake please rise to be welcomed by the Senate.

(Applause.)

GUESTS OF SENATOR ROBERT B. MENSCH
PRESENTED TO THE SENATE

The PRESIDENT. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Montgomery, Senator Mensch.

Senator MENSCH. Mr. President, this is a more solemn recognition of guests than is the normal course of events for us. We are joined on the floor this afternoon by Mr. and Mrs. Thomas and Beverly Richards and John Richards. They are the parents and brother of Tom Richards, who was an intern in my Lansdale office throughout the summer. On August 17, Tom suffered an aneurysm and unfortunately passed away. At that time, he was conducting a Penn State leadership conference. When you got to know Tom, you understood why he belonged running a Penn State leadership conference. He was that kind of young man.

If it pleases, I would like to read a few comments put together by my staff. (Reading:)

We have been blessed to have wonderful interns working in our district's offices, but every now and then, a really special one comes along. Tom Richards was one of them. From the first day, he made us happier people with his smile, his jokes, his incredible love of life. He also made the intern supervisors spend lots of time coming up with projects for him, as he had the annoying habit of finishing everything three times faster than expected.

In Lansdale, he updated all of the PennDOT forms and cleaned up the files in less than a week. It was at that point that the Lansdale legislative assistant suggested that he give up plans to be an attorney and instead pursue a career as an efficiency expert. Instead of sitting at his desk in the rear of the office, he made his home at a desk in the front room, as he wanted to see everything that was going on. He was interested in everything and loved hearing stories about unusual cases that we had worked on in the past. We were very comfortable having him answer phones and greet constituents, as he was a real people person and very self-assured for such a young man. It was marvelous to see how well he could relate to people of every age.--Although I did not comment, Tom was 19.

Tom came to the Capitol one day to shadow me and get the Harrisburg experience. That day, I really learned how spirited Tom was, as he proudly showed off his Penn State pride by staging photo shoots around the Capitol with a Penn State Nittany Lion that he had brought along with him. Tom made everyone a better person just by being around him.

We are devastated by the loss of Tom in our lives, but we are grateful to have known him, even so briefly. I am reminded of a movie about a football player named Brian Piccolo. The movie was called "Brian's Song." Piccolo died at an early age of cancer. The ending words of the movie were something along the lines of: Brian was taken from us way too early, but while he was alive, oh, how he lived. That was Tom. He lived more fully in 19 years than most people do in their entire lives. We remember him today for the great spirit that he was. He touched the lives of our staff and all who met him, and I present to the Chamber his parents and his brother.

The PRESIDENT. Would Members and guests please rise to welcome and console the family here today with us on the floor. (Applause.)

Senator PILEGGI. Mr. President, I request a recess of the Senate for purposes of a meeting of the Committee on Rules and Executive Nominations to be held in the Rules room immediately, to be followed by a meeting of the Committee on Appropriations, also to be held in the Rules room, to be followed by a Republican caucus in the Majority Caucus Room.

Senator O'PAKE. Mr. President, I ask that the Democratic Senators report to our caucus room after the committee meetings.
