SESSION OF 2013 197TH OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY

No. 1

SENATE

TUESDAY, January 1, 2013

The PRESIDENT. This is the constitutional day and hour for the convening of the 197th Regular Session of the General Assembly.

The PRESIDENT (Lieutenant Governor Jim Cawley) called the Senate to order at 12 m., Eastern Standard Time.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Reverend MARTIN D. ODOM, Pastor of Bethel Village A.M.E. Church, Harrisburg, offered the following prayer:

Let us pray.

Eternal God, Creator and Sustainer of all humankind, we thank You for this day that You have made. We thank You for this opportunity that You have given us to serve, to make a meaningful difference in the lives of those whom You have called each and all of us to help and uplift. And now, Lord, we pray Your blessings upon the Members of this Pennsylvania State Senate. Guide their deliberations, Lord. Give them clear thought. Give them a heart of compassion and mercy to look upon and reflect upon the lives of all of the residents of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, to represent us in such a way that our lives are enriched and that we are pleased and satisfied with the service that they have given. Make them ever mindful, Lord, that they have been sent here not to be served, but they have been sent as servants. And so now, guide them with Your wisdom, by Your grace, that in all that is said and done in this legislative Session, that Your will and Your way will prevail. In Your name we pray. Amen.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair thanks Pastor Odom, who is the guest today of Senator-elect Teplitz.

PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE

(The Pledge of Allegiance was recited by those assembled, led by the gentleman from Montgomery, Senator RAFFERTY.)

STATEMENT BY THE PRESIDENT

The PRESIDENT. The Chair notes that today is the first time that the Senate has convened since the terrible events of December 14, 2012, which took the lives of 26 people, including 20 children, at Sandy Hook Elementary School in Newtown, Connecticut. The Chair asks that all of the Members and guests remain standing for a moment of silence to remember and honor the victims of that tragedy.

(Whereupon, the Senate en bloc stood in a moment of silence in solemn respect to the memory of the VICTIMS OF SANDY HOOK ELEMENTARY SCHOOL, Newtown, Connecticut.)

The PRESIDENT. The Chair recognizes the Sergeant-at-Arms.

The SERGEANT-AT-ARMS. Mr. President, I have the honor to present the Secretary of the Commonwealth, the Honorable Carol Aichele.

The PRESIDENT. The next order of business will be the administration of the oath of office for the new and reelected Republican Senators. It is a distinct honor and pleasure to have with us today a distinguished judge of the Commonwealth Court of Pennsylvania and a personal friend, the Honorable Renee Cohn Jubelirer. Judge Cohn Jubelirer has kindly consented to be here today to administer the oath of office to the Republican Senators-elect and Officers in accordance with Article VI, Section 3, of the Constitution of Pennsylvania.

We will now proceed to the administration of the oath of office to the Republican Senators-elect by Judge Renee Cohn Jubelirer.

Before the administration of the oath, as a housekeeping matter, the Chair would like to request the cooperation of news photographers and others who would like to have pictures taken or to videotape so that during each of the actual ceremonies there will be no picture taking. Those Senators who are sworn in are asked to please, at the conclusion of the actual administration of the oath of office, stay at the bar for a few minutes for the convenience of any person who would desire to take pictures. The rest of us will be at ease for those few moments.

With that, Judge Cohn Jubelirer.

Judge COHN JUBELIRER. Thank you very much. It is a real honor to be here today with you.

Please place your left hand on your Bible and raise your right hand, and repeat after me:

I, (state your name), do solemnly swear that I will support, obey and defend the Constitution of the United States and the Constitution of this Commonwealth and that I will discharge the duties of my office with fidelity.

Congratulations, Senators.

STATEMENT BY THE PRESIDENT

The PRESIDENT. Before taking up the next order of business dealing with the election of the President pro tempore and several Officers of the Senate, the Chair would like to continue the practice started a few Sessions ago, that if there is only one candidate for each of the several offices, the Chair will dispense with the calling of the roll and ask for a voice vote for the nominations. Is there any objection? Seeing none, we will proceed.

ELECTION OF PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE

The PRESIDENT. The next order of business before the Senate will be the election of the President pro tempore of the Senate for the 2013 Session. This is in accordance with Article II, Section 9, of the Constitution of Pennsylvania.

The Chair now opens the floor for nominations and recognizes the gentleman from Delaware, Senator Pileggi.

Senator PILEGGI. Mr. President, as we gather here on the first day of the new Session and the first day of a new year, we are filled with optimism. As President Ronald Reagan once said, "[the future] can be as grand and as great as we make it. No crisis is beyond the capacity of our people to solve; no challenge too great." Members of the Senate will make many important decisions in the coming months, but our first decision is to choose a Senator who will serve as President pro tempore. Unlike the office of Floor Leader or Whip or other Leadership posts, which are elected by each Caucus, the person who fills the office of President pro tempore, as established in Article II, Section 9, of our Constitution, is elected by the entire Senate, Republicans and Democrats. The individual serving as President pro tempore is required to perform the duties of the Lieutenant Governor in the case of absence or disability, or whenever that office is vacant. The President pro tempore also has many responsibilities as set out in our Senate Rules which we will soon consider. This is not a vote to be taken lightly. We are deciding who will fill a constitutional office, the highest institutional position in the Senate of Pennsylvania, a body that first met more than 222 years ago in December of 1790. The office of President pro tempore was established in the State Constitution in 1874.

Mr. President, it is my honor to nominate Senator Joseph B. Scarnati III of Jefferson County to serve as President pro tempore of the Senate of Pennsylvania for the 2013-14 legislative Session. Joe has demonstrated time after time over the past 6 years the kind of commonsense leadership that Pennsylvania voters respect and appreciate. That approach will be needed as we work together to forge consensus on important issues such as transportation funding, pension reform, and child protection in the coming Session. The Reverend Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., once said, "The ultimate measure of a man is not where he stands in moments of comfort...but where he stands at times of challenge and controversy." It does not take a prophet to know that we will face many kinds of challenge and controversy in the coming legislative Session. Joe's steady hand will guide the Senate in those times.

Mr. President, for these reasons, it is my privilege to nominate for the fourth time to the office of President pro tempore of the Senate of Pennsylvania, Senator Joseph B. Scarnati III of Jefferson County.

Thank you, Mr. President.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Allegheny, Senator Costa.

Senator COSTA. Mr. President, I rise to second the nomination of my friend and colleague, the distinguished Senator from Jefferson County, Joe Scarnati, for President pro tempore of the Pennsylvania Senate. As William Penn once said, "A true friend...advises justly, assists readily, adventures boldly, takes all patiently, defends courageously, and continues a friend unchangeably." Since the time of his first election to this prestigious position, Senator Scarnati has fully embodied the nature of a true friend and colleague as outlined by William Penn.

Over the years, he has guided each of us with a steady hand and firm resolve. Last Session the Senate dealt with some weighty issues: two grueling and difficult budget processes, the Marcellus Shale discussion, sentencing reform, juvenile justice reform, and the creation of the Child Abuse Prevention Task Force which has produced a report that will help guide this legislature this Session. We all realize, however, Mr. President, more needs to be done. We can and we must work together, and I am confident that we will be able to do so under the guidance of Senator Scarnati.

Senator Scarnati has been a leader who has given Members of the Senate the latitude that allows each of us to reach across the aisle in the name of compromise. He has never lost sight of what ultimately brought us all to this Chamber, leaving Pennsylvania a better place than which we found it for our children, for our families, and for generations to come. And even during some of the most contentious and polarizing debates, Senator Scarnati has never lost his patience and has remained unfailingly courteous and respectful. He has fought and sought to restore public trust and strengthen bonds with those with whom he serves using good government and sound policy as his guide.

As we start a new Session today, we face many challenges, and there is no question that a rocky road is ahead. From education funding, to transportation, jobs, privatization, child protection, pension reform, repairing our social safety net, the Members of this body face difficult tasks ahead. While daunting on its face, meeting these challenges provides opportunities for Pennsylvania to achieve greatness. The Pennsylvania Senate is very fortunate to be represented by Members with a wide range of experience and expertise.

Mr. President, the principles that have built Pennsylvania - honesty, hard work, determination, fairness - are basic tenets that Senator Joe Scarnati has employed to manage the affairs of the Senate very effectively. We have made great strides and made significant changes. We have enacted reforms, we have adopted new rules, found strength, and have been treated fairly and equitably under the leadership of Senator Scarnati. Mr. President, it gives me great pleasure, and it is my distinct honor to second Senator Scarnati's nomination as President pro tempore of the Pennsylvania Senate.

Thank you, Mr. President.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Centre, Senator Corman.

Senator CORMAN. Mr. President, in a prior swearing-in ceremony when we were doing the nomination for President pro tempore Joe Scarnati, the then-Minority Leader from Lackawanna County had his granddaughter come out because it was Senator Scarnati's birthday that day and she sang happy birthday to him on the floor. It was quite beautiful. Tomorrow is the President pro tempore's birthday, and so I thought I would revive that tradition by leading us all in singing happy birthday to Senator Scarnati. Maybe not. Okay. Her voice was so beautiful, I would hate to one-up her in that way.

Mr. President, it is my honor to rise today and second the nomination of Joseph B. Scarnati to serve as President pro tempore of the State Senate. As we face the challenges ahead, we need leadership, accountability, and most importantly, someone who can bring us all together to tackle the tough issues the Commonwealth faces. General Colin Powell defined this quality when he said, "Great leaders are almost always great simplifiers, who can cut through argument, debate and doubt, to offer a solution everybody can understand." This is what makes Senator Scarnati so effective. He has the courage, compassion, and conviction, but he also has a sense of purpose and optimism that we need as we face very difficult times here in Pennsylvania. He has not forgotten the lessons that he learned from his father, Joseph, and mother, Yvonne. The lessons of hard work, neighbors helping neighbors, civility, and the importance of family. A belief in limited but accountable government that does not stand in people's way. Under his leadership, he has maintained an atmosphere of openness, civility, nonpartisanship, and integrity, not division and acrimony. It has been his greatest accomplishment, and one we are all better for.

When people talk about Joe Scarnati, they use words like decent, down-to-earth, reasonable, and fair. At the same time, he is steadfast on his convictions and views of public service. He stands up for what he believes in, he will not back down or be swayed by the polls or public opinion. He seeks consensus, but understands that sometimes you have to do what is right even if it is not easy. This is the kind of leadership that will help us through these very difficult times. I know Joe has a great deal of respect for Ronald Reagan, who has shaped his views of public service, so let me close by quoting Ronald Reagan by saying, "There are no easy answers, but there are simple answers. We must have the courage to do what we know is morally right." We are fortunate in this Chamber to have someone who recognizes the fact and has the vision and resolve to do what is right for the people that we represent. It is my honor, Mr. President, to second the nomination of Joe Scarnati as President pro tempore of the State Senate.

Thank you, Mr. President.

NOMINATIONS CLOSED

The PRESIDENT. Are there any other nominations or seconds? Seeing none, the Chair will now declare the nominations for President pro tempore closed.

The candidate for the office of President pro tempore of the Pennsylvania State Senate is the Honorable Joseph B. Scarnati III of Jefferson County. All those in favor of the Honorable Joseph B. Scarnati III for President pro tempore will signify at this time by saying "aye"; those opposed, "no."

A voice vote having been taken, the question was determined in the affirmative.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair declares Senator Joseph B. Scarnati III unanimously elected President pro tempore of the State Senate.

(Applause.)

COMMITTEE APPOINTED TO ESCORT PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE-ELECT TO THE ROSTRUM

The PRESIDENT. The Chair takes pleasure in appointing the following committee to escort the President pro tempore to the rostrum for the administration of the oath of office: the gentleman from Franklin, Senator Alloway (chairman); the gentlewoman from Philadelphia, Senator Washington; and the gentleman from Lancaster, Senator Smucker. The committee will proceed to the performance of its duties.

(Whereupon, the President pro tempore-elect was escorted to the rostrum of the Senate.)

ADMINISTRATION OF OATH OF OFFICE TO PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE-ELECT

The PRESIDENT. The oath of office will now be administered to Senator Scarnati by Judge Cohn Jubelirer.

Please rise.

Judge COHN JUBELIRER. Senator Scarnati, please place your left hand on your Bible and raise your right hand and repeat after me.

I, Joseph B. Scarnati III, do solemnly swear that I will support, obey and defend the Constitution of the United States and the Constitution of this Commonwealth and that I will discharge the duties of my office with fidelity.

Congratulations.

(Applause.)

(The Senate was at ease.)

REMARKS BY THE PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE

The PRESIDENT. The Senate will come to order. Members and guests, please take their seats. It is now an honor and a privilege to present your President pro tempore and my friend, the Honorable Joseph B. Scarnati III of Jefferson County.

The PRESIDENT pro tempore. Thank you, Governor. Thank you, Judge Cohn Jubelirer and Judge Donohue, for taking time to be with us here today. Senator Pileggi, your kind words, Senator Costa, Senator Corman, I appreciate not only the kind words, but also the friendship and your willingness to work with me on so many difficult issues. It never goes unnoticed, and it is certainly greatly appreciated.

I want to thank all the Members of the Senate for their support and their trust in me. I look forward to continuing in my capacity as President pro tempore for the next term. I want to take a moment to recognize my predecessor who is here, the former President pro tempore and Lieutenant Governor, Bob Jubelirer.

(Applause.)

Now, I am not sure the Framers of the Constitution fully realized that our swearing-in date could and would fall on New Year's Day. It has come with both advantages and disadvantages, obviously. The main advantage today is that what I have to say will probably be viewed by less than two dozen people on PCN. Which means my remarks will not make any headlines, and therefore I will be short and keep it right to the point.

It is an exciting day as we welcome to our Senate family four new Members. I look forward to getting to know each of you individually, working with you on issues that are important to you, and issues that come before this body. Each of you come from different backgrounds, different life experiences, and different personal goals. And this is what makes our jobs so rewarding, yet very difficult. We have much to do in the coming days, weeks, and months, most we usually agree on, but when we disagree, it is always done in a very respectful way in this Chamber. For me, the style in which this Chamber operates and the collegial spirit of this body is what makes me most proud to serve with each of you. As we move through today's Session, we will not forget it is New Year's Day, a day set aside normally for football, sauerkraut, resolutions to better ourselves, but this year let us all make one extra New Year's promise. Let us all resolve to end 2013 a little better than where we found it.

Thank you very much for your support, and God bless.

(Applause.)

ELECTION OF SECRETARY OF THE SENATE

The PRESIDENT. The next order of business before the Senate is the election of the Secretary of the Senate.

The Chair recognizes the gentlewoman from Luzerne, Senator Baker.

Senator BAKER. Mr. President, I am honored to nominate Megan Totino Consedine to the position of Secretary of the Senate. Just 7 months ago, Megan achieved the distinction of being the first woman to hold this esteemed post. She also took on the challenge of replacing Mark Corrigan, who served for more than three decades as a capable and knowledgeable leader and administrator. In seamlessly picking up where Mark left off, Megan has earned the support and the respect of the Senate. Since Megan's appointment in May, she has applied her unique blend of leadership and organizational skills to her long list of responsibilities. Her calm demeanor and exceptional intelligence has served her well and will no doubt continue to do so.

I had the privilege of working with Megan during the Ridge administration, and she immediately and continuously impressed me with her breadth of knowledge, her uncompromising work ethic, and her sterling principles. Megan is an honors graduate of the University of Delaware and Widener School of Law, where she also taught as an adjunct professor. She served as deputy general counsel in the Governor's Office, an assistant counsel to the U.S. Navy, and her impressive resume is filled with numerous awards and achievements.

While the public often does not see the Secretary of the Senate in action, what the Secretary does behind the scenes is indispensable to the smooth functioning of the Senate. The role of Parliamentarian is extremely important, for it is by following the rules that we produce responsible results. Knowing her history of achieving positive results, her love for history, traditions, and promise of this Chamber, it is indeed my personal privilege to nominate Megan Totino Consedine to continue to serve as the Secretary of the Senate.

Thank you, Mr. President.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Philadelphia, Senator Williams.

Senator WILLIAMS. Mr. President, I too rise in somewhat awe of what this young woman has accomplished in a short period of time. But before I turn my attention to her with my comments, I understand that Mark Corrigan is with us someplace I guess in the balcony. I think it is only appropriate for his 31 years of service to this Senate and very effective, extraordinary, sometimes contentious time, if he would rise so we can give him a round of applause.

(Applause.)

To the person of the moment: for those who do not know and are here for the first time, the Secretary has the responsibility to supervise the Pages, security, the print shop, the bill room, but more significantly, for those on the floor, that person represents the Parliamentarian for the Senate. While many of us take great pride in what we do on this floor, it is this person, for those who do not know it, when it comes to a point of contention regarding the rules, constitutional considerations, and a variety of other areas, this individual has to make a ruling on behalf of the law and the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, and interpret for those of us who are frankly politicians at that moment. Her effectiveness to get through a short period of time without, unfortunately or fortunately, rankling many of us is frankly very exceptional and very noted by many of us.

I will leave you with this. I hope that you will remember that all of us are your friends and when some of us from this side of the aisle beg you, do not look to that guy or that guy, just look to the fairness of the argument in the moment. I hope that you will prosper as Mark has. I hope that your extraordinary gifts are continued to be shared with all of us. I hope that your legacy as the first woman will be not only felt and represented but also understood in the context of history which you greatly appreciate. And with that, I happily second your nomination.

NOMINATIONS CLOSED

The PRESIDENT. Are there any other nominations or seconds? Any other nominations or seconds? Third and final call. Seeing none, the Chair now declares the nominations for Secretary of the Senate closed.

The candidate for office of the Secretary of the Senate is Megan Totino Consedine of Cumberland County. All those in favor of Megan Totino Consedine will please say "aye"; those opposed, "no."

A voice vote having been taken, the question was determined in the affirmative.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair declares Megan Totino Consedine unanimously elected as the Secretary of the Senate. (Applause.)

ELECTION OF CHIEF CLERK OF THE SENATE

The PRESIDENT. The next order of business before the Senate is the election of the Chief Clerk of the Senate.

The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Lancaster, Senator Brubaker.

Senator BRUBAKER. Mr. President, I am deeply honored to move that W. Russell Faber be placed in nomination for the important office of Chief Clerk of the Senate. Mr. Faber has proven capabilities in this very critical role on a daily basis. Without exception, Mr. Faber is known to be thoughtful, intelligent, fair, respectful, and completely thorough in his professional responsibilities. It is with these comments, Mr. President, that I am honored to place Mr. Faber's name into nomination.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Allegheny, Senator Fontana.

Senator FONTANA. Mr. President, I am honored to second the nomination of W. Russell Faber for Chief Clerk of the Senate. Russ has held this important position in the Senate dating back to 1981. An accountant by training, Russ has professionalized our Chamber's recordkeeping and provided a wealth of information to Members and staff. Over the years, he has gained unparalleled experience and knowledge about all facets of the Senate and all of State government. Russ has served Members on both sides of the aisle with impartiality and has worked to protect the integrity of this Chamber. Time and time again, he has acted with the institution's best interests at heart and sought to address issues quickly, efficiently, and effectively.

During Russ's tenure, the position of Chief Clerk has become far more difficult and challenging, ranging from efforts to cut costs to filling Right-to-Know requests, and Russ's experience has been invaluable. I am confident Russ Faber will continue to serve this Chamber with integrity, dignity, and honesty, and I am privileged to second his nomination for another term as Chief Clerk of the Senate of Pennsylvania.

Thank you, Mr. President.

NOMINATIONS CLOSED

The PRESIDENT. Are there any other nominations or seconds? Any other nominations or seconds? Third and final call. Seeing none, the Chair will now declare the nominations for Chief Clerk of the Senate to be closed.

The candidate for the office of Chief Clerk of the Senate is W. Russell Faber of Dauphin County. All those in favor of W. Russell Faber for the office of Chief Clerk of the Senate will please say "aye"; those opposed, "no."

A voice vote having been taken, the question was determined in the affirmative.

The Chair declares W. Russell Faber unanimously elected Chief Clerk of the Senate. (Applause.)

OATH OF OFFICE ADMINISTERED TO THE SECRETARY-ELECT AND THE CHIEF CLERK-ELECT

The PRESIDENT. The Secretary-elect and the Chief Clerk-elect will approach the bar of the Senate in order that the oath of office may be administered.

Once again, I will call on Judge Cohn Jubelirer to administer the oath of office to our newly elected officers.

Please rise.

Judge COHN JUBELIRER. Place your left hand on your Bible, raise your right hand, and repeat after me:

I, (Megan Totino Consedine and W. Russell Faber), do solemnly swear that I will support, obey and defend the Constitution of the United States and the Constitution of this Commonwealth and that I will discharge the duties of my office with fidelity.

Congratulations.

(Applause.)

(a) Work time.--No campaign activity may be conducted by a Senate employee on Senate work time. The following shall apply:

(1) Senate employees are permitted to engage in campaign activities on their own time, as volunteers or for pay.

(2) Senate employees may work irregular hours often depending upon the time the Senate is in session. As a result, a staffer's own time can occur during what may be considered "normal" business hours.

(3) Sick leave, family and medical leave, work-related disability leave, parental leave, short-term disability leave, civil leave or military leave cannot be requested by a Senate employee to perform campaign activities.

(4) No Senate employee may be allowed any amount of Senate work time for time spent doing campaign activities.

(5) Senate employees, with the permission of their employing Senator, may reduce their Senate hours with a commensurate reduction in pay (and benefits, as required) to perform campaign activities. These arrangements must be memorialized in writing and filed with the Chief Clerk.

(6) Any Senate employee who has reduced his or her Senate hours to perform campaign activities shall keep a daily written log outlining Senate hours and related work responsibilities.

(b) Office and resources.--No campaign activity may be conducted by a Senator or a Senate employee in a Senate office or with Senate resources.

A Senate employee who is on Senate work time and using Senate resources may post legislative materials, media advisories, news releases and an-

A Senate employee who is on his or her own time and using personal resources may post material involving or referring to campaign activity on a social media website.

(c) Contributions.--The solicitation or receipt of campaign contributions on Senate work time or with Senate resources is prohibited.

(1) Solicitation or receipt of campaign contributions in a Senate office or with Senate resources is prohibited at any and all times.

(2) If an unsolicited contribution is sent to a Senate office through the mail or in an unidentifiable form, the employee who receives it shall turn it over to the campaign and notify the donor that campaign contributions should not be received at a Senate office within no more than seven days.

(3) No Senate employee may serve as an officer on a campaign committee or a campaign finance committee on behalf of any Senator, Senate candidate or Senate caucus.

(3) A Senate employee who agrees or offers to participate in any campaign activity on his or her own time or who makes a campaign contribution may not do so in consideration of receiving any additional Senate compensation or employee benefit in the form of a salary adjustment, bonus, compensatory time off, continued employment or any other similar benefit.

(4) A Senate employee who declines to participate in a campaign activity or to make a campaign contribution shall not be sanctioned for that refusal.

(e) Newsletters.--No Senate-funded newsletter may be printed or distributed within 60 days of the primary or general election for any Senate member running for the office of Senate or any other elective office.

(1) This subsection shall apply to newsletters printed by the Senate or by an outside vendor paid for with public funds.

(2) The Chief Clerk of the Senate may not authorize the reimbursement or payment of any moneys expended for print, distribution or postage incurred after the 60-day deadline.

(3) Senators running for the office of the Senate or any other elective office shall submit to the Secretary of the Senate a final proof copy of any newsletters no less than 90 days prior to a primary or general election.

(f) Official Senate mailing lists.--Official Senate mailing lists shall be used solely for legislative purposes.

(1) Official Senate mailing lists shall not be provided to any candidate, political party, political committee, campaign or campaign committee or used for any campaign purpose.

(2) Senate computers shall not be used to create, store or maintain any mailing list that identifies the listed individuals as campaign volunteers or contributors to any candidate, political party, political committee, campaign or campaign committee.

(3) No list may be developed by a Senator or a Senate employee for the purpose of monitoring or tracking campaign activity or campaign contributions of any Senate employee.

(4) Mailing lists may be purchased at fair market value from a private source with Senate funds if the lists are used solely for legislative purposes. A mailing list that is so acquired may not be used or redirected in the same or a modified form for campaign purposes.

(g) Nonwork-related tasks.--No Senate employee may be required to perform any nonwork-related task.

(1) No Senator, no Senate employee acting on the Senator's behalf and no Senate employee in a supervisory position may require a Senate employee to perform tasks unrelated to the Senate employee's official duties as a condition of employment.

(2) An employee who agrees or offers to perform a task unrelated to that person's official duties on his or her own time may not do so in consideration of receiving any additional State Senate compensation or employee benefit in the form of a salary adjustment, bonus, compensatory time off, continued employment or any other public benefit.

(3) An employee who refuses to perform a task unrelated to that person's official duties cannot be sanctioned for that refusal.

Rule 3. Enforcement.

(a) Standardized process.--There shall be a standardized process for reporting any alleged violation of these rules.

(1) A Senator or an employee who becomes aware of a violation of these rules should report the violation to any of the following:

(i) A Senator.

(ii) The President Pro Tempore, or an appropriate designee.

(iii) The Majority Leader of the Senate, or an appropriate designee.

(iv) The Minority Leader of the Senate, or an appropriate designee.

(v) The employee's supervisor.

(vi) The Secretary of the Senate.

(2) A verbal report by an employee is acceptable but must be followed up with a written statement that includes the date, time and place, names of possible witnesses and the nature of the ethical conduct violation. The written statement must be signed by the employee.

(3) Upon receipt of the written statement pursuant to paragraph (2), the person to whom the violation is reported as provided in paragraph (1) shall forward a copy of the written statement within five business days to the Secretary of the Senate or the Chief Clerk if the alleged violation involves the Secretary of the Senate or a person in the Secretary of the Senate's Office.

(4) A report of a possible violation of these rules must be filed within one year of the alleged conduct.

(b) Inquiry.--An inquiry and review of all properly submitted reports regarding an alleged violation of these rules shall be conducted.

(1) The Secretary of the Senate shall conduct a preliminary inquiry of any written statement forwarded under subsection (a)(3). The subject of the report shall be notified within five business days by the Secretary of the Senate that a written statement has been forwarded to the Secretary's office under subsection (a)(3). The Secretary of the Senate shall also notify the President Pro Tempore, the Majority Leader and the Minority Leader within five business days that a written statement has been forwarded to the Secretary's office under subsection (a)(3). The Secretary of the Senate shall have 14 business days from the date of those notifications to complete a preliminary inquiry and determine whether there is more than a de minimis violation of these rules and whether there is a satisfactory basis for the initiation of a formal investigation and shall report that recommendation to the President Pro Tempore, the Majority Leader and the Minority Leader. If the Secretary of the Senate or a person in the Secretary of the Senate's office is the subject of an alleged violation, the responsibilities under this subsection shall be performed by the Chief Clerk of the Senate.

(2) After receiving a recommendation from the Secretary of the Senate under paragraph (1) that a formal investigation is warranted, if the subject is a Senator, the President Pro Tempore, the Majority Leader and the Minority Leader shall proceed to refer the report to the Senate Committee on Ethics for an investigation by that committee in accordance with Rule 34 of the Rules of the Senate of Pennsylvania. The provisions of Rule 34 of the Rules of the Senate of Pennsylvania shall exclusively govern and apply in their entirety to any further proceeding involving a Senator under this rule.

(3) After receiving a recommendation from the Secretary of the Senate under paragraph (1) that a formal investigation is warranted, if the subject is a Senate employee, the President Pro Tempore, the Majority Leader and the Minority Leader shall proceed to obtain the services of an independent third party to conduct a formal investigation. Upon completion of the investigation, a report shall be prepared containing findings of fact and a conclusion as to whether a violation of these rules has occurred.

(4) After reviewing the findings of fact and the conclusion contained in the report prepared pursuant to paragraph (3) regarding a Senate employee, the President Pro Tempore, the Majority Leader and the Minority Leader shall issue a final determination by unanimous vote regarding all of the following:

(i) Whether a violation of these rules by a Senate employee has occurred.

(ii) Whether a sanction regarding that violation by a Senate employee is warranted.

(iii) If a sanction is deemed warranted, the type of sanction that should be imposed.

(iv) When and how the sanction should be imposed.

(5) During the course of an investigation of a Senate employee by the independent third party designated pursuant to paragraph (3), the subject shall have the opportunity to be heard, to present evidence, to cross-examine witnesses and to be represented by counsel.

(6) Prior to the issuance of a final determination under paragraph (4), the subject shall have an opportunity to submit a written presentation prepared by either the subject or the subject's counsel.

(7) All proceedings under this rule shall be confidential unless otherwise waived in writing by the subject of the proceeding.

(8) If the President Pro Tempore, the Majority Leader or the Minority Leader is the subject of a report, is a witness or if for any reason is unavailable, the duties of the member shall be performed by the Senate Whip of the respective caucus.

(9) Retaliation against any Senate employee who files a written statement in good faith under subsection (a)(3) or who testifies in good faith regarding an alleged violation of these rules is prohibited.

(c) Disciplinary action.--A violation of these rules may subject a Senate employee to disciplinary action that, depending on the circumstances of the violation, may include any of the following:

- (1) A warning.
- (2) A written reprimand.
- (3) A permanent disciplinary action noted in the personnel record.

- (4) Restitution for damages.
- (5) Suspension of employment.
- (6) Termination of employment.

(d) Sanction.--A violation of these rules may subject a Senator to sanction by the full Senate and, depending on the circumstances of the violation, may include any of the following:

- (1) A warning.
- (2) A written reprimand.
- (3) Restitution for damages.
- (4) Any other sanction provided for under the Rules of the Senate of Pennsylvania or the Constitution of Pennsylvania.

Rule 4. Filing of financial interest statement.

(a) Compliance.--Compliance with the financial interest statement requirements and all other requirements under the Public Official and Employee Ethics Act, 65 Pa.C.S. Ch. 11 (relating to ethics standards and financial disclosure), shall be mandatory for all Senators and Senate employees who meet the criteria set forth in subsection (d) or (e).

(b) Time.--Financial interest statements covering the previous calendar year must be filed by May 1 of each year for every Senator and those Senate employees who make purchasing decisions or other official decisions or provide input that can influence a purchase or official decision.

(c) Location.--Senators must file their financial interest statements with the Secretary of the Senate, the Ethics Commission and any governmental agency, authority, board or commission on which they serve. Affected Senate employees must file their financial interest statements with the Secretary of the Senate.

(d) Required filing for official nonministerial action.--Filing a financial interest statement shall be required for employees who are responsible for taking or recommending official nonministerial action concerning any of the following:

- (1) Contracting or procurement.
- (2) Administering or monitoring grants or subsidies.
- (3) Planning or zoning.
- (4) Inspecting, licensing, regulating or auditing any person.
- (5) Any other activity where the official or recommended official action has an economic impact of more than a de minimis nature on the interests of any person. For most employees on a Senator's staff or in a caucus office, this category would be most applicable, since recommending "official action" to a Senator as part of job responsibilities triggers the duty to file a financial interest statement. Official action would relate to a Senator's lawmaking duties especially as that relates to legislation and confirmations.

(e) Required filing for recommendations.--A financial interest statement must be filed if a Senate employee's responsibility includes making a recommendation to a Senator as to any of the following:

(1) Advice regarding how to vote on the Floor or in Committee.

(2) The potential consideration of bills, resolutions, amendments to bills or resolutions or nominations in Committee.

(3) The drafting and preparation of legislation or resolutions, and any amendments to bills or resolutions, including advice on decisions regarding bill or resolution sponsorships.

(f) Applicability.--The requirement to file a financial interest statement shall apply to executive directors, counsels or any Senate employee responsible for a Committee and to Senate chiefs of staff. Executive, administrative and legislative assistants may be subject to the filing requirements depending on the nature and scope of the individual's employment responsibilities.

(g) Personal point of view.--A Senate employee who does nothing more than occasionally share a personal point of view with a Senator is not required to file a financial interest statement. In most cases, a Senate employee with job responsibilities not directly related to the actual lawmaking process, such as correspondence or scheduling, does not need to file a financial interest statement.

(h) District office.--A Senate employee assigned to a district office shall be subject to the same filing requirements as a Harrisburg-based Senate employee depending on the nature of that individual's employment responsibilities.

Rule 5. Training.

To assure compliance with these rules and other laws related to ethical behavior by Senators and Senate employees, appropriate training measures shall be implemented by the Senate. Training shall be provided annually for all Senators and Senate employees on various topics, which shall include, but are not limited to, all of the following:

- (1) These rules.
- (2) The Public Official and Employee Ethics Act, 65 Pa.C.S.

Ch. 11 (relating to ethics standards and financial disclosure).

- (3) 65 Pa.C.S. Ch. 13A (relating to lobbying disclosure).

Except as provided in subsection (c), Senators and employees are not authorized to lease vehicles on a long-term basis, and no payments will be made with respect to long-term lease vehicle expenses incurred by Senators or employees. When away from the Harrisburg area and from their workplace, employees may, subject to approval of the supervising Senator or officer, rent cars on a short-term basis for a period not in excess of that needed to carry out official business.

(c) Rental of vehicle or conveyance.--

(1) Short-term rental of vehicle or conveyance.--A Senator whose long-term leased vehicle is unavailable may be reimbursed the actual legislative percentage expenses for a short-term rental. A Senator or employee who rents a vehicle or conveyance on a short-term basis, other than a Senator's temporary replacement of a long-term leased vehicle, may be reimbursed only on an actual cost basis for the legislative percentage of rental payments and expenses of operation.

(2) Vehicle rental by Chief Clerk.--The Chief Clerk is authorized to lease such vehicles as deemed necessary by the Senate Committee on Management Operations for the operation of the Senate. Similarly, should the Senator be absent when a vote is taken on any question, the Senator may later, with the permission of the Senate, make a statement for entry upon the Journal, indicating how the Senator would have voted had the Senator been present when the roll was taken and the reasons therefor shall be submitted in writing or delivered orally not to exceed five minutes.

(l) Verifying vote.--Any Senator may demand a verification of a vote immediately upon the completion of a roll call or after the announcement of the vote by the presiding officer. In verifying a vote, the Clerk shall first read the affirmative roll at which time any additions or corrections shall be made. Upon the completion and verification of the affirmative roll call, the Clerk shall proceed with the reading of the negative roll at which time any additions or corrections shall be made. Upon the completion and verification of the negative roll call, the roll call shall be declared verified. It shall not be in order for a Senator to change a vote after the verified roll call is announced. A demand for a verification shall not be in order when all Senators vote one way. The demand for a verification of a vote is not debatable.

(m) Voice vote.--Unless otherwise ordered or demanded, a voice vote may be taken. Any Senator who doubts the accuracy of a voice vote may demand a roll call vote. A motion to reconsider the vote on a nomination may be laid on the table without prejudice to the nomination.

Rule 29. Resolutions.

(a) Introduction.--All resolutions, Senate and concurrent, shall be introduced by presenting four copies of the Resolution, with the sponsor identified, to the presiding officer.

Other than the Senator, no person shall be permitted to occupy the seat of a Senator at any time.

Rule 31. Veto.

(a) Passing over veto.--When any bill is not approved by the Governor, he shall return it with his objection to the House in which such bill originated. Thereupon such House shall enter the objections upon their Journal and proceed to reconsider it. If after such reconsideration, two-thirds of all the Members elected to that House shall agree to pass the bill, it shall be sent with the objections to the other House by which likewise it shall be reconsidered, and, if approved by two-thirds of all the members elected to that House, it shall become a law. (Const. Art. 4, Sec. 15)

(b) Consideration during second regular session.--A bill vetoed in a first regular session and not finally acted upon may be brought up for consideration in a second regular session.

Any Senator may call for a division of a question by the Senate if the question includes points so distinct and separate that, one of them being taken away, the other will stand as a complete proposition. The motion to strike out and insert is indivisible.

Rule 33. Coordination with other Senate Rules.

Any use of Senate resources or time shall be governed by the Financial Operating Rules and the Ethical Conduct Rules of the Senate. Rule 34. Committee on Ethics.

(a) Composition.--In addition to the committees created by Rule 14, there shall be a Senate Committee on Ethics which shall be composed of six members appointed by the President Pro Tempore. Three members shall be of the Majority Party and three members shall be of the Minority Party. The Minority Party members will be appointed on the recommendation of the Minority Leader.

(b) Organization.--The Senate Committee on Ethics shall be organized as follows:

(1) The President Pro Tempore shall appoint one of the Majority Party members as Chair and, on the recommendation of the Minority Leader, one of the Minority Party members as Vice-Chair. A quorum for this committee shall be four members and the committee shall have such duties, powers, procedure and jurisdiction as are prescribed and authorized in this Rule.

(2) The chair shall notify all members of the committee at least 24 hours in advance of the date, time and place of a meeting. Whenever the chair shall refuse to call a meeting, a majority of the committee may call a meeting by giving two days' written notice to the Majority Leader and the Minority Leader of the Senate setting forth the time and place for such meeting. A meeting commenced in this manner shall be held at the time and place specified in the notice.

(3) Except as provided in subsection (j), all meetings of the committee shall be open to the public and notice of such meetings shall be given as generally provided in these rules for the convening of committees.

(4) The committee may adopt rules of procedure for the orderly conduct of its affairs, investigations, hearings and meetings, which rules are not inconsistent with this Rule.

(3) detail the alleged unethical conduct in question and specify the Rule, statute or constitutional provision allegedly violated.

(d) Review of complaint.--Upon receipt of a complaint that conforms with all the requirements of this Rule, the Senate Committee on Ethics shall review the complaint and determine whether or not a preliminary investigation is warranted within 30 days of receiving the complaint. For good cause, a majority of the members of the committee may vote to grant an additional 30 days to complete the committee's review. A frivolous or de minimis complaint may be dismissed by a majority of the members of the committee, with prejudice. The chair shall notify the complainant and the subject Senator of the disposition of a dismissed complaint.

(e) Disposition of complaints.--If it is determined by a majority of the members of the Senate Committee on Ethics that an ethical conduct violation may have occurred, the Senator against whom the complaint has been brought shall be notified in writing and given a copy of the complaint. Within 15 days after receipt of the complaint, the Senator may file a written answer to the complaint with the committee. If no answer is filed, the complaint shall be deemed denied by the subject Senator. The lack of an answer shall not be deemed to be an admission or create an inference or presumption that the complaint is true. The lack of an answer shall not prohibit a majority of the members of the committee from either proceeding with a formal investigation or dismissing the complaint.

(f) Preliminary investigation.--The committee shall have 30 days from the date that receipt of the answer to the complaint is to be provided to complete its preliminary investigation. For good cause, a majority of the members of the committee may vote to grant an additional 30 days to complete the committee's review. The committee may employ an independent counsel to conduct a preliminary investigation. Upon conclusion of the preliminary investigation, by vote of a majority of the members of the committee, the committee shall determine whether to proceed with a formal investigation, which may include hearings. In the event that the committee vote is equally divided, the question falls. If the committee does not decide to proceed to a formal investigation, the Chair shall notify the complainant and the subject Senator of the disposition of the complaint and shall summarize the committee's rationale for its conclusion.

(g) Confidentiality.--Prior to the commencement of a formal investigation, the fact that a preliminary investigation is being conducted or is to be conducted shall be confidential information. If, however, the filing of a complaint or a preliminary investigation is made public by the complainant, the committee may publicly confirm the receipt of a complaint.

(h) Indictment.--When an indictment is returned against a member of the Senate, and the gravamen of the indictment is directly related to the ethical conduct of a Senator in violation of a Senate Rule, statute or constitutional provision governing the ethical conduct of a Senator, the Senate Ethics Committee shall not initiate any new investigation, and shall suspend any ongoing investigation, initiated pursuant to this Rule until the subject matter of the indictment that relates to the Senator's alleged unethical conduct is resolved.

(i) Alternative procedure.--In addition to action on formal complaints as provided in subsection (c), a majority of the members of the Senate Committee on Ethics may initiate a preliminary investigation of suspected unethical conduct in violation of a Senate Rule, statute or constitutional provision governing the ethical conduct of a Senator. If it is determined by a majority of the members of the committee that a violation may have occurred, the Senator in question shall be notified in writing of the alleged unethical conduct in question and the Rule, statute or constitutional provision allegedly violated. Within 15 days of the receipt of this information, the Senator may file a written answer with the committee. The lack of an answer shall not be deemed to be an admission or create an inference or presumption that the complaint is true. The lack of an answer shall not prohibit a majority of the members of the committee from either proceeding with a formal investigation or dismissing the complaint. The committee shall have 30 days from the date that receipt of the answer to the complaint is to be provided to complete its preliminary investigation. For good cause, a majority of the members of the committee may vote to grant an additional 30 days to complete the committee's review. Upon conclusion of the preliminary investigation, by vote of a majority of the members of the committee, the committee shall determine whether to proceed with a formal investigation, which may include hearings. In the event that the committee vote is equally divided, the question falls.

(j) Closed session.--The committee shall conduct its preliminary investigations, hearings and meetings related to a specific investigation or a specific Senator in closed session unless the Senator subject to investigation advises the committee in writing that he or she wants such meetings or hearings to be held publicly. In the event that the Senator in question makes such a request, the committee shall furnish the Senator with a public meeting or hearing.

(k) Formal investigation.--In the event that the Senate Committee on Ethics shall elect to proceed with a formal investigation of alleged unethical conduct by a Senator, the committee may employ an independent counsel to conduct a formal investigation. The committee and any independent counsel employed by the committee shall comply with the following procedural requirements at all stages of the investigation:

(1) The Chair of the Senate Committee on Ethics may continue any hearing for reasonable cause. Upon the vote of a majority of the members of the committee, or upon the request of the Senator subject to investigation, the Chair shall issue subpoenas for the attendance and testimony of witnesses and the production of documentary evidence relating to any matter under formal investigation by the committee. The Chair of the committee may administer oaths or affirmations, examine and receive evidence, or rule on any objections raised during the course of a hearing.

(2) All testimony, documents, records, data, statements or information received by the committee in the course of any preliminary or formal investigation shall be private and confidential except in the case of public meetings or hearings or in a report to the Senate.

(3) All constitutional rights of any Senator under investigation shall be preserved, and the Senator shall be entitled to present evidence, cross-examine witnesses, face the accuser and be represented by counsel.

(4) An oath or affirmation shall be executed in writing before any member of the committee, any independent counsel employed by the committee to conduct a preliminary or formal investigation, or any employee of the Senate related to the investigation may have access to information that is confidential under the rules of the committee as follows:

"I do solemnly swear or affirm that I will not disclose, to any person or entity outside of the Senate Ethics Committee, any information received in the course of my service with the committee, except as authorized by the committee or in accordance with the Rules of the Senate."

Copies of the executed oath or affirmation shall be provided to the Secretary-Parliamentarian of the Senate as part of the records of the Senate. Any Senator or other person who violates the confidentiality requirements of this subsection shall be removed immediately from the committee and replaced by another Senator, counsel or employee of the Senate appointed in like manner as the person's original appointment or selection.

(l) Report.--No report regarding unethical conduct by a Senator shall be made to the Senate unless a majority of the members of the Senate Ethics Committee determine that a finding of unethical conduct in violation of a Senate Rule, statute or constitutional provision governing the ethical conduct of a Senator has occurred. No finding of unethical conduct by a Senator in violation of a Senate Rule, statute or constitutional provision governing the ethical conduct of a Senator adopted by the Senate Committee on Ethics shall be valid unless signed by at least a majority of the members of the committee. Any such report may include a minority report. A report adopted by the committee that contains findings of unethical conduct by a Senator in violation of a Senate Rule, statute or constitutional provision governing the ethical conduct of a Senator shall not be filed with the Secretary-Parliamentarian of the Senate or released to the public until at least seven days after a copy of the report is sent by certified mail to the Senator under investigation.

(m) Distribution of report.--After the expiration of the seven-day notice requirement contained in subsection (l), the Senate Ethics Committee shall file its report with the Secretary-Parliamentarian of the Senate, who shall cause a copy of the report of the committee to be distributed to the members of the Senate. The report of the Senate Ethics Committee shall be placed on the Senate Calendar and shall be acted on by the Senate within ten legislative days of the adoption of a temporary rule setting forth rules of procedure for the orderly disposition of the report by the full Senate. A vote by a majority of the members elected to the Senate shall be necessary to adopt each finding set forth in the Ethics Committee Report.

(n) Sanction.--Should the full Senate vote to adopt an unethical conduct finding against a Senator as set forth in the Ethics Committee Report, that Senator may be subject to sanction by the full Senate. A sanction may include any of the following depending on the circumstances of the violation:

- (1) a warning;
- (2) a written reprimand;
- (3) restitution for damages; or
- (4) any other sanction provided for under the Rules of the Senate of Pennsylvania or the Constitution of Pennsylvania.

(o) Advisory opinion.--The Senate Committee on Ethics, at the request of a Senator or officer who has an ethical question or concern regarding the Senate Rules individually or in conjunction with others, may issue an advisory opinion seeking to clarify the ethical requirements of the Senate Rules. These advisory opinions, with such deletions and changes as shall be necessary to protect the identity of the persons involved or seeking them, may be published and shall be distributed to all members, officers and employees of the Senate. No action regarding unethical conduct may be taken against a Senator, officer or employee, who has relied on a written advisory opinion, whether directly addressed to that person or not, which is reasonably construed as being applicable to the conduct in question.

(p) Committee member under investigation.--In the event that a member of the Senate Ethics Committee shall be under investigation, that Senator shall be temporarily replaced on the committee in a like manner as the Senator's original appointment.

(q) Costs and expenses.--Whenever the committee shall employ independent counsel to conduct a preliminary or formal investigation or shall incur other expenses pursuant to its duties under this rule, payment of costs of such independent counsel or other expenses incurred by the committee pursuant to this Rule shall be paid by the Chief Clerk upon submission of vouchers and necessary documentation. The vouchers shall be signed by both the chair and vice-chair of the committee. Included in such allowable expense items shall be travel and per diem for the members of the committee. The Chief Clerk shall pay such expenses out of funds appropriated to the Chief Clerk for incidental expenses.

Rule 35. Status of members indicted or convicted of a crime.

(a) Status generally.--When an indictment is returned against a member of the Senate, and the gravamen of the indictment is directly related to the Senator's conduct as a committee chair, ranking minority committee member or in a position of leadership, the Senator shall be relieved of such committee chairmanship, ranking minority committee member status, or leadership position until the indictment is disposed of, but the member shall otherwise continue to function as a Senator, including voting, and shall continue to be paid.

(b) Restoration.--If, during the same legislative session, the indictment is quashed, or the court finds that the Senator is not guilty of the offense alleged, the Senator shall immediately be restored to the committee chairmanship, ranking minority committee member status, or leadership position retroactively from which that Senator was suspended.

(c) Resolution of expulsion.--Upon a finding or verdict of guilt by a judge or jury, a plea or admission of guilt or plea of nolo contendere of a crime by a member of the Senate, the gravamen of which relates to the member's conduct as a Senator, and upon imposition of sentence, the Secretary-Parliamentarian of the Senate shall prepare a resolution of expulsion under session, which shall appear on the Calendar on the next legislative session day following an imposition of sentence based upon a determination of guilt or a plea of nolo contendere.

Rule 36. Status of officers or employees indicted or convicted of a crime.

(a) Suspension.--Whenever any officer or employee of the Senate is indicted or otherwise charged before a court of record with the commission of a felony or a misdemeanor, the gravamen of which relates to the officer's or employee's conduct or status as an officer or employee of the Commonwealth or the disposition of public funds, such employee shall immediately be suspended without pay and benefits by the Chief Clerk. After a finding or a verdict of guilt by a judge or jury, plea or admission of guilt, or plea of nolo contendere, and upon imposition of sentence, the employment shall be terminated.

(b) Termination of suspension.--If the indictment is quashed, or the court finds that the officer or employee is not guilty of the offense alleged, the suspension without pay shall be terminated, and the officer or employee shall receive compensation for the period of time during which the officer or employee was suspended which compensation shall be reduced by the amount of any compensation said officer or employee earned from other employment during the period of suspension.

(c) Appeal.--If the officer or employee or the supervising Senator of such employee disagrees with the decision of the Chief Clerk as to whether an indictment for particular conduct shall be a crime requiring suspension or dismissal, the officer or employee in question or the supervising Senator may appeal the suspension to the Committee on Ethics, which shall determine whether the conduct charged is an offense requiring suspension. Whenever an appeal of a suspension shall be taken to the committee, the suspension shall remain effective pending a decision by the committee.

Rule 37. Affiliation with nonprofit entities.

(a) Requirements.--In order for a Senator or a Senate employee, including a family member of that Senator or Senate employee, to be affiliated with a nonprofit entity, that nonprofit entity must meet all of the following:

(1) Have a formally established board of directors with at least four members that is fully accountable for the nonprofit entity's overall operation.

(2) Have a written set of bylaws or rules, approved by its board of directors, which establishes its composition and governance process.

(3) Require official action of the board of directors to be approved and executed in a manner consistent with its bylaws or rules.

(4) Not receive grant funding directly from the Commonwealth that comprises its sole source of operational funding.

(b) Prohibitions.--A Senator or Senate employee, including a family member of that Senator or Senate employee, who is affiliated with a nonprofit entity, may not do any of the following with regard to a nonprofit entity with which that Senator or Senate employee, including a family member of that Senator or Senate employee, is affiliated:

(1) Exercise sole and unilateral control of a final action of the nonprofit entity regarding allocation or disbursement of grant funding that the nonprofit entity receives directly from the Commonwealth.

(2) Direct a Senate employee to staff or provide services to the nonprofit entity as a condition of employment.

(3) Direct the personnel or other resources of the nonprofit entity for the benefit of a Senator's campaign.

(4) Commingle funds from a Senate district office allowance or any other Senate expense account with the funds of the nonprofit entity with the knowledge and intent that those funds are to be used for the direct reimbursement of expenses incurred by that nonprofit entity.

(5) Maintain a Senate district office within or contiguous to the same office as the nonprofit entity.

(c) Applicability.--A Senator or a Senate employee, including a family member of that Senator or Senate employee, shall not be subject to the requirements of this Rule if the affiliated nonprofit entity receives no grant funding directly from the Commonwealth.

(d) Training.--To assure compliance with this Rule by Senators and Senate employees, appropriate training measures shall be implemented by the Senate. Training shall be provided annually for all Senators and Senate employees.

(e) Definitions.--As used in this Rule, the following words and phrases shall have the meanings given to them in this section unless the context clearly indicates otherwise:

He also earned a doctorate degree from Boston University. Dr. King recognized that everyone deserved equal rights and used the power of the pulpit and his knowledge as a scholar to become a leading force in the Civil Rights movement. At the age of 26, as the young pastor of Dexter Avenue Baptist Church in Montgomery, Alabama, he led a citywide boycott of the city's segregated bus system. This action led to a United States Supreme Court decision forcing segregation of buses. Throughout the 1950s and 1960s, he worked tirelessly to end segregation and encourage racial harmony among everyone. Although he was threatened, beaten, arrested, and jailed, yet he insisted on the use of nonviolent passive resistance and civil disobedience. He is most remembered for his historic "I Have a Dream" speech on the steps of the Lincoln Memorial following his march on Washington, D.C., in 1963. Dr. King is one of our most celebrated figures. This is why I urge my colleagues to support this resolution designating the week of January 21 to January 27, as "Martin Luther King, Jr., Holiday Week" in Pennsylvania.

Thank you, Mr. President.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate adopt the resolution?

A voice vote having been taken, the question was determined in the affirmative.

BIENNIAL REPORT OF THE PUBLIC EMPLOYEE RETIREMENT COMMISSION ON LOCAL GOVERNMENT PENSION PLANS

The PRESIDENT laid before the Senate the following communication, which was read by the Clerk as follows:

COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA
Public Employee Retirement Commission
P.O. Box 1429, Harrisburg, PA 17105-1429

December 18, 2012

Ms. Megan Consedine
Secretary of the Senate
Senate of Pennsylvania
Commonwealth of Pennsylvania
462 Main Capitol
Harrisburg, PA 17120

Dear Ms. Consedine:

The Commission is hereby submitting its fourteenth biennial report on the status of the Commonwealth's 3,200 local government pension plans for your review and information. These regularly issued status reports are an essential component of the oversight of local government pension plans exercised by the Governor and General Assembly. This oversight is warranted because Pennsylvania's pension plans for local government employees, when viewed in the aggregate, represent one of the largest retirement systems in the nation.

In conjunction with its mandated responsibility to coordinate policy development for the Commonwealth's public employee retirement systems, the Commission endeavors to use the status reports on local government pension plans to focus the attention of State policymakers on the specific issues and reform measures that it views as warranting attention. More than two decades have passed since the first status report was issued pursuant to the Municipal Pension Plan Funding Standard and Recovery Act (Act 205 of 1984), and the Commission believes it is time for the Commonwealth to move beyond that landmark municipal pension reform statute.

First, the provisions of Act 205 of 1984 need to be updated to reflect the passage of time and expanded to accommodate new circumstances. Second, legislation to begin the necessary consolidation of municipal pension plans needs to be enacted. And finally, the pension plan reporting standards applicable to all cities, boroughs, townships and authorities need to be extended to counties.

On behalf of the Commission, I am hopeful that you will find this report to be informative and useful.

Sincerely,

ANTHONY W. SALOMONE
Chairman

The PRESIDENT. This report will be filed in the Library.
