SESSION OF 2014 198TH OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY

No. 28

SENATE

WEDNESDAY, May 7, 2014

The Senate met at 11 a.m., Eastern Daylight Saving Time.

The PRESIDENT (Lieutenant Governor Jim Cawley) in the Chair.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Reverend MICHAEL GREEN, Pastor of East Shore Church of Christ, Harrisburg, offered the following prayer:

First of all, I would like to thank all of you for having me here to lead the prayer today. I appreciate it. I hear you are all ready to begin a vacation, or some of you at least, and I pray that you all have a blessed vacation. Please enjoy yourselves, do not think about work, you have earned it. So, just be blessed and be safe.

Let us pray.

O wonderful and gracious God and Father, we come before You today seeking Your blessings as we have so many times. I pray that You bless this Assembly, O God, and that You help us, strengthen us, guide us, and protect us. If we lack understanding, we pray that You give us wisdom. When we exhibit weakness, we pray that You give us strength. Where personalities might conflict, we pray for sound temperament. We ask that You turn us away from any kind of selfishness that we may turn to selflessness. O Father, oversee us here in this Assembly, and oversee our hearts, minds, souls, our decisions, responsibilities, duties, our ways, our means, and our ends, that in all things the will of this great land is fulfilled in honor and respectability. Bless our service this day that we may become a better people, a better city, a better State, and a better nation. Let each one of us seek to uphold not only our own interests, but the interests of others. Please, O God, in the name of our blessed and beloved Savior, see us in these moments that we may rise to all occasions. I ask for blessings for all of our leaders and all who are in positions of authority that they may remain faithful in their office and perform their duties in sound fashion. I offer up these blessings in the name of our beloved Savior, Jesus Christ. Amen.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair thanks Pastor Green, who is the guest today of Senator Teplitz.

PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE

(The Pledge of Allegiance was recited by those assembled.)

GUEST OF SENATOR DOMINIC F. PILEGGI
ON BEHALF OF SENATOR RICHARD L.
ALLOWAY PRESENTED TO THE SENATE

The PRESIDENT. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Delaware, Senator Pileggi.

Senator PILEGGI. Mr. President, it is my pleasure this morning to introduce Dimitri Plakas, a resident of the 33rd Senatorial District, who is serving as a guest Page in the Senate today for Senator Alloway. Dimitri is a freshman at Hanover High School. He enjoys hunting, fishing, shooting, and playing football, and is interested in a career in politics. Today, he is focusing on learning all about State government and economics during his day in Harrisburg. Mr. President, I ask that we extend our traditional warm welcome to Dimitri Plakas, our guest Page today.

The PRESIDENT. Would the guest of Senator Pileggi and Senator Alloway please rise so that the Senate may give you its usual warm welcome.

(Applause.)

GUEST OF SENATOR MICHAEL W. BRUBAKER
PRESENTED TO THE SENATE

The PRESIDENT. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Lancaster, Senator Brubaker.

Senator BRUBAKER. Mr. President, I have a very special guest to introduce today. He is in the gallery and he is an international guest. He came here from Armenia, and his name is Tigran Tshorokhyan, a legislative fellow from Yerevan, Armenia. Tigran is spending the month with me here in the United States in coordination with a program administered by the United States Department of State. Tigran works as a team leader to support the Armenian National Assembly. In this very important role, his tasks are to provide research to support the assembly's seven committees, establishing and institutionalizing the National Assembly Fellowship Program, and developing in-house training. His major goals are to insure the assembly has the research necessary to properly represent the citizens' interest and to provide support to increase the assembly's capacity of budgetary and legislative oversight over the executive branch.

Tigran has a Ph.D. in political science from the Russian-Armenian Slavonic State University. He is married and has one son. His interests include sports, reading, traveling, hiking, and, of course, politics. As a result of this fellowship program, Tigran hopes to utilize his research that is compiled in a report and shared with different levels of officials in the National Assembly of Armenia. Support to the Armenian National Assembly Program will, in turn, incorporate his recommendations of his research into the work plan of the program, which will be implemented by Tigran's colleagues in the future. Mr. President, please ask the Members of the distinguished Senate to join me in welcoming a very special guest from Armenia.

The PRESIDENT. Would the guest of Senator Brubaker please rise so that the Senate may give you its usual warm welcome.

(Applause.)

GUESTS OF SENATOR DONALD C. WHITE
PRESENTED TO THE SENATE

The PRESIDENT. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Indiana, Senator White.

Senator WHITE. Mr. President, I have a group of high school students who got up at 4:30 this morning to come down here and join us and get a first-class tour of the beautiful Capitol. I got the chance to spend some time in my office talking to them. This group is from Purchase Line High School. They are a special group of students who traveled to our Capitol from Commodore in Indiana County. The students are accompanied by their teachers, Melinda Knapp and Kate Cowden. I ask the Senate to give its usual warm welcome to my distinguished guests from Purchase Line High School.

The PRESIDENT. Would the guests of the Senator White please rise so that the Senate may give you its usual warm welcome.

(Applause.)

GUESTS OF SENATOR PATRICIA H. VANCE
PRESENTED TO THE SENATE

The PRESIDENT. The Chair recognizes the gentlewoman from Cumberland, Senator Vance.

Senator VANCE. Mr. President, it is a really distinct pleasure for me to be able to introduce the Cumberland Valley Girls' Varsity Basketball Team. I am joined by another honorary fan, Senator Baker. It was a wonderful pleasure to watch them play all year. The team captured the PIAA Class AAAA Girls' Basketball Championship on March 21, 2014, at the Giant Center by defeating Spring-Ford 49-30. This was the second consecutive year the team made it to the championship game. They compiled a record of 28 wins and 5 losses for the season. This is the second State title in the girls' basketball team's history. They also were the Mid-Penn Conference Champions and placed third in District III this season. They are coached by Bill Wolf and assisted by Denny Bavaria, Phil Gillis, Jim Poole, and Ashlee Richards. They were led by captains Maddie Torresin, Alyssa Hinich, and Meghan Rhoades. The team, their families, and their coaches are in the gallery. Please give them a very warm welcome. Thank you.

The PRESIDENT. Would the guests of Senator Vance please rise so that the Senate may give you its usual warm welcome.

(Applause.)

GUEST OF SENATOR MICHAEL J. FOLMER
PRESENTED TO THE SENATE

The PRESIDENT. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Lebanon, Senator Folmer.

Senator FOLMER. Mr. President, I rise today to introduce Rudolph Lurz. Rudy is interning for me in my Harrisburg office and is a student at the University of Pittsburgh working on his doctorate in higher education management with a research concentration in State government policy studies. He has completed his doctoral course work and will begin his dissertation this fall exploring State government higher education STEM policy and its impact on our university management. Rudy has his bachelor's degree in history and his master's in secondary education from the University of Florida. Rudy is originally from Sarasota, Florida, and was previously a German teacher and football coach. Rudy has worked on several projects in his time with me, including amendments to HOA, he put together a very successful panel discussion in the 48th Senatorial District on property rights and the pipeline coming through, and also worked to identify mandates to repeal out of our School Code. Rudy is looking forward to this next chapter of his life with his wife, Becca. They will be moving to Vermont, where Becca will start her medical residency in general surgery. Please join me in a warm Senate welcome to Rudy Lurz today.

The PRESIDENT. Would the guest of Senator Folmer please rise so that the Senate may give you its usual warm welcome.
(Applause.)

GUESTS OF SENATOR ROBERT D. ROBBINS PRESENTED TO THE SENATE

The PRESIDENT. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Mercer, Senator Robbins.

Senator ROBBINS. Mr. President, today I have the pleasure of introducing Makaylie Mostert of York, who is the great-granddaughter of Dallas Stoy of my staff. Makaylie is currently a fourth-grader at Dallastown Intermediate School. She enjoys reading, dancing, and participating in the youth group at her church. Makaylie is accompanied today by her great-grandfather, Don Stoy, who is also seated in the Senate gallery. Mr. President, and fellow Members, please join me in welcoming my special guests to the Senate of Pennsylvania.

The PRESIDENT. Would the guests of Senator Robbins please rise so that the Senate may give you its usual warm welcome.

(Applause.)

GUESTS OF SENATOR ANDREW E. DINNIMAN PRESENTED TO THE SENATE

The PRESIDENT. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Chester, Senator Dinniman.

Senator DINNIMAN. Mr. President, we have two guests here today who are Pages. They are both students from Conestoga High School. In fact, Mr. President, Conestoga High School has a wonderful program where the students who are seniors take their last 3 or 4 weeks of the school year and work in various businesses, public officials' offices, and get work experience as part of their senior year experience. You should know that Conestoga High School is one of the best high schools in this nation, that they have a 100-percent graduation rate, a 97-percent post-secondary education rate, and have 64 either National Merit Scholars or letters of commendation. That is pretty darn good for any high school, and I am proud to have two of their outstanding students work with me this year through their work experience.

Mr. President, I would like to introduce to you Caroline Gonzalez, who is a resident of Tredyffrin Township. In June, when she graduates, she will be attending Ohio State University to study political science and economics. As Senator Solobay has told her, she has to get through his county to get to Ohio State. In high school, she was president of the young Democratic club and participated in her school debate team. Outside of school, she worked for her family-owned pet supply store and plays the French horn. Not bad.

My second guest is Susannah Norris. Susannah Norris actually lives in Easttown, which is Senator Erickson's district, and will be graduating this June. She will be attending George Washington University in the fall studying international business and politics. Susannah is vice president of the political spectrum club at her school and currently works at an independent-owned pharmacy in her neighborhood. In her free time, Susannah likes to sail for her school sail team, S-A-I-L team, and spends time with her family. Mr. President, please welcome these two fine students from Conestoga High School.

The PRESIDENT. Would the Senate join me in welcoming Senator Dinniman's guests.

(Applause.)

GUEST OF SENATOR ROBERT F. TEPLITZ PRESENTED TO THE SENATE

The PRESIDENT. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Dauphin, Senator Teplitz.

Senator TEPLITZ. Mr. President, my guest today is our guest Chaplain for the day, Pastor Michael Green of the East Shore Church of Christ in Harrisburg. He is back today by popular demand. I ask that my Senate colleagues join me in thanking him for his service to us today and welcoming him to the Senate.

The PRESIDENT. Would the guest of Senator Teplitz please rise so that the Senate may give you its usual warm welcome.

(Applause.)

SPECIAL ORDER OF BUSINESS SENATE RESOLUTION ADOPTED

Senator PILEGGI, on behalf of Senators ALLOWAY, FERLO, GREENLEAF, ERICKSON, VOGEL, WASHINGTON, STACK, DINNIMAN, KASUNIC, WHITE, BREWSTER, SMITH, RAFFERTY, TARTAGLIONE, SOLOBAY, FARNESE, HUGHES, BROWNE, BRUBAKER, ARGALL, WOZNAK, VULAKOVICH, COSTA and MENSCH, by unanimous consent, offered Senate Resolution No. 388, entitled:

A Resolution designating May 15 through June 15, 2014, as "Tourette Syndrome Awareness Month" in Pennsylvania.

On the question,

Will the Senate adopt the resolution?

GUESTS OF SENATOR DOMINIC F. PILEGGI ON BEHALF OF SENATOR RICHARD L. ALLOWAY PRESENTED TO THE SENATE

The PRESIDENT. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Delaware, Senator Pileggi.

Senator PILEGGI. Mr. President, also on behalf of Senator Alloway, I would like to introduce his guests who are seated in the gallery today in connection with this resolution. Seated in the gallery are Sherrie Sponseller, administrator and consultant for the Pennsylvania Tourette Syndrome Alliance, a group of family members including families and children affected by Tourette's Syndrome.

Thank you, Mr. President.

The PRESIDENT. Would the guests of Senator Pileggi and Senator Alloway please rise so that the Senate may give you its usual warm welcome.

(Applause.)

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate adopt the resolution?

A voice vote having been taken, the question was determined in the affirmative.

CALENDAR

SPECIAL ORDER OF BUSINESS SENATE RESOLUTION No. 325, ADOPTED

Senator PILEGGI, without objection, called up from page 7 of the Calendar, Senate Resolution No. 325, entitled:

A Resolution designating May 7, 2014, as "Pennsylvania Health Care Information Technology Awareness Day."

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

The PRESIDENT. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Allegheny, Senator Vulakovich.

Senator VULAKOVICH. Mr. President, I rise today to call on my colleagues to support Senate Resolution No. 325, recognizing May 7 as "Pennsylvania Health Care Information Technology Awareness Day." In terms of e-health, Pennsylvania continues to make extraordinary progress in improving the quality of life in our citizens through technology. As information is more easily accessible, we are seeing a healthcare environment where treatments and diagnosis are achieved more efficiently and with less delay. This is especially important when time is of the essence, such as in emergencies and when treating critical illnesses and diseases. Numerous clinical studies have shown that healthcare professionals make better, quicker decisions, have better accuracy, and outcomes dramatically improve when they have comprehensive background information about their patients. Then there is another benefit of electronic information sharing, and that is reduced costs. Immediate results can be seen by reducing paper cost, which eliminates the need for bulky storage and excessive staff time. Additional savings are achieved by eliminating the need for unnecessary tests and duplication of tests. Both of these actions result in immediate savings in the healthcare office and reduce the need for medical insurance claims. As this new exchange of information develops and grows, I believe we will see even more benefits for providers and consumers.

GUESTS OF SENATOR RANDY VULAKOVICH PRESENTED TO THE SENATE

Senator VULAKOVICH. Mr. President, I ask for an affirmative vote on this resolution, but I would like to introduce a few people up in the balcony. I rise to recognize several guests who are with us as part of Pennsylvania Healthcare Information Technology Awareness Day. With us are Mr. Mark Stevens, Mr. Dave Gutshall, Mr. John Kravitz, Ms. Marie Roof, and Ms. Janna Knapp, who are all members of the Healthcare Information and Management Systems Society, known as HIMSS. I ask for our customary warm welcome for my guests.

The PRESIDENT. Would the guests of Senator Vulakovich please rise so that the Senate may give you its usual warm welcome.

(Applause.)

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

A voice vote having been taken, the question was determined in the affirmative.

The PRESIDING OFFICER (Senator John C. Rafferty, Jr.) in the Chair.

CONSIDERATION OF CALENDAR RESUMED

BILLS ON CONCURRENCE IN HOUSE AMENDMENTS

SENATE CONCURS IN HOUSE AMENDMENTS

SB 31 (Pr. No. 1849) -- The Senate proceeded to consideration of the bill, entitled:

An Act amending Title 23 (Domestic Relations) of the Pennsylvania Consolidated Statutes, in child protective services, further providing for definitions, for persons required to report suspected child abuse and for investigating performance of county agency; repealing provisions relating to definitions, school employees, administration, investigation, responsibilities of county agency for child protective services and report information; and further providing for services for prevention, investigation and treatment of child abuse.

On the question,

Will the Senate concur in the amendments made by the House to Senate Bill No. 31?

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Delaware, Senator Pileggi.

Senator PILEGGI. Mr. President, I move that the Senate do concur in the amendments made by the House to Senate Bill No. 31.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Allegheny, Senator Fontana.

Senator FONTANA. Mr. President, I rise today to urge concurrence on Senate Bill No. 31. Mr. President, this legislation will clarify and strengthen child abuse reporting in our schools. Today's vote is the culmination of nearly a decade of advocating and fighting for the passage of this bill. This legislation was written long before any of the recently passed child protection bills. Mr. President, I want to thank all of my colleagues for their consistent, unwavering support of this bill, and especially to my staff, going all the way back to my former chief of staff, Amie Downs, to my current chief of staff, Colleen DeFrank, and also my Caucus staff who helped guide this bill through, and to Senator Pileggi and his staff for keeping it on track these past few weeks.

Protection and safety of our children, Mr. President, should never be a matter of who is Democrat or Republican. It is always a matter between right and wrong. I want to also thank and acknowledge the Child Protection Task Force for placing a renewed emphasis on doing everything we can to protect our kids, including this proposal that I began talking about back in 2005 as part of the recommendations. Mr. President, this was borne from the unspeakable Sandusky scandal, and the task force spearheaded approval of numerous child protection bills that turned a lot of good, commonsense ideas into law. Senate Bill No. 31 would remove the different reporting requirements for school employees and put them on the same level as other mandated reporters. It would mandate that school employees report suspected abuse to both ChildLine and the school's administrator. Mr. President, I have told this story countless times in the past 9 years as to why I originally introduced this bill. In 2005, a constituent of mine walked into my district office and told me that her son had been taken to the emergency room with bleeding brushburns, choke marks around his neck, and broken blood vessels in his face, all caused by a teacher in his school. Even though the mother, ER doctor, and social worker all tried reporting the incident to ChildLine, they were told that the law prevented investigation.

Mr. President, I could not believe that our State had a lesser child protection standard in our schools, but it did, and that is why I have re-introduced this legislation over and over and over again through the years since 2005. We have a public and ethical responsibility to protect our children and insure their safety in our schools. It does not matter who is suspected of abuse. Each case should be handled the same. Mr. President, this measure is long overdue, and I urge an affirmative vote on Senate Bill No. 31. Thank you.

And the question recurring,
Will the Senate agree to the motion?

The yeas and nays were required by Senator PILEGGI and were as follows, viz:

UNFINISHED BUSINESS
SENATE RESOLUTIONS ADOPTED

Senators DINNIMAN, WASHINGTON, FERLO, TEPLITZ, STACK, ERICKSON, ARGALL, KASUNIC, GREENLEAF, FONTANA, PILEGGI, BREWSTER, HUGHES, RAFFERTY, ALLOWAY, SCHWANK, BROWNE, SOLOBAY, COSTA, SMITH, VULAKOVICH and BOSCOLA, by unanimous consent, offered Senate Resolution No. 389, entitled:

A Resolution designating May 20, 2014, as "Medal of Honor Grove Day" in Pennsylvania.

On the question,
Will the Senate adopt the resolution?

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Chester, Senator Dinniman.

Senator DINNIMAN. Mr. President, one of the great treasures of this Commonwealth is the Medal of Honor Grove in Schuylkill Township, Chester County. It consists of 54 acres, and on each of those acres, every State in the union, Puerto Rico, and the District of Columbia, has a monument dedicated to those who have received the Medal of Honor. Each of the monuments is modeled after the Washington Memorial, and most of the monuments are put up in the native stone of that particular State. We have had over 3,000 heroes in this nation who are honored in this grove. Unfortunately, the grove fell into disrepair and there even was the possibility, 5 years ago, that the grove was to be moved from 52 acres to 4 acres and 400 units of housing was to be put on this treasure to the heroes of this nation. The citizens of our county, including you, Mr. President, helped to make sure that we were able to clean up and ultimately preserve this treasure, this memorial, this park dedicated to those who received the highest honor that this nation can give to any member of the military.

We will soon, when we come back, be putting an amendment into a bill--Senator Pileggi will be moving that amendment, we have worked together on this--that will recognize in a database here in the Commonwealth people who receive that medal as well as other military medals. So, I wanted to rise and ask for unanimous support as we approach Memorial Day, as we begin to think about the freedoms of this nation, and those who have preserved those freedoms, that we honor them with this resolution for "Medal of Honor Day" in the Commonwealth.

Thank you, Mr. President.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Chair thanks the gentleman for his comments and commends him for his actions.

And the question recurring,
Will the Senate adopt the resolution?

A voice vote having been taken, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Senators BROWNE, PILEGGI, COSTA, BAKER, ERICKSON, SCHWANK, ARGALL, VULAKOVICH, BREWSTER, FARNESE, GREENLEAF, WASHINGTON, TEPLITZ, FERLO, STACK, FONTANA, VOGEL, DINNIMAN, KASUNIC, WOZNIAK, SMITH, RAFFERTY, HUTCHINSON and SOLOBAY, by unanimous consent, offered Senate Resolution No. 390, entitled:

A Resolution recognizing the month of May 2014 as "Melanoma and Skin Cancer Detection and Prevention Month" in Pennsylvania.

Which was read, considered, and adopted by voice vote.

Senator STACK, on behalf of Senators RAFFERTY, STACK, ALLOWAY, ARGALL, BAKER, BLAKE, BOSCOLA, BREWSTER, BROWNE, BRUBAKER, CORMAN, COSTA, DINNIMAN, EICHELBERGER, ERICKSON, FARNESE, FERLO, FOLMER, FONTANA, GORDNER, GREENLEAF, HUGHES, HUTCHINSON, KASUNIC, KITCHEN, LEACH, McILHINNEY, MENSCH, PILEGGI, ROBBINS, SCARNATI, SCHWANK, SMITH, SMUCKER, SOLOBAY, TARTAGLIONE, TEPLITZ, TOMLINSON, VANCE, VOGEL, VULAKOVICH, WAGNER, WARD, WASHINGTON, WHITE, WILEY, WILLIAMS, WOZNIAK, YAW and YUDICHAK, by unanimous consent, offered Senate Resolution No. 391, entitled:

A Resolution designating the week of June 9 through 13, 2014, as "Juror Appreciation Week" in Pennsylvania.

On the question,
Will the Senate adopt the resolution?

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Philadelphia, Senator Stack.

Senator STACK. Mr. President, this resolution is another one of my great ideas, and as usual, most of my great ideas come from other people, such as you. So you are my cosponsor, Mr. President, on this resolution. I think you are the prime sponsor and then I am the next cosponsor, but this resolution designates the week of June 9 through 13, 2014, as "Juror Appreciation Week." Mr. President, you have served in a great capacity on the Committee on Judiciary and in law enforcement and in standing up for citizens, and the important thing is all citizens should be aware of the important job our jurors do in our judicial system. The foundation of all fairness and justice comes down to our judicial system. So we need our jurors. As much as sometimes people malign the juror pool, we have outstanding citizens who are willing to be a part of the system, to exercise their best judgment, and folks should keep them on their mind. Whenever they get an opportunity, if they get a notice to participate in the jury process, you should do so. But this recognizes June 9 through 13, 2014, as Juror Appreciation Week.

Thank you, Mr. President.

And the question recurring,
Will the Senate adopt the resolution?

A voice vote having been taken, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Senators STACK, WASHINGTON, FONTANA, FERLO, ERICKSON, DINNIMAN, BREWSTER, SMITH, PILEGGI, FARNESE, ALLOWAY, COSTA, SCHWANK and SOLOBAY, by unanimous consent, offered Senate Resolution No. 392, entitled:

A Resolution designating May 2014 as "SAG-AFTRA Month" in Pennsylvania and recognizing the artistic and economic contributions of SAG-AFTRA members' work in the news media and the entertainment industry.
