No. 17

SENATE

TUESDAY, April 5, 2016

The Senate met at 1 p.m., Eastern Daylight Saving Time.

The PRESIDENT (Lieutenant Governor Mike Stack) in the Chair.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Rabbi JOSHUA GRUENBERG, of Congregation Beth El, Yardley, offered the following prayer:

Good afternoon. Thank you for having me today.

In the Jewish tradition, we recite a prayer when we finish reading one of the five books of Moses. The prayer goes:

(Translated from Hebrew:)

Be strong, be resolute, and together we will strengthen one another. Be strong. Be strong in your convictions, be strong enough to stand up for what is right and to know when to stand on those principles. Be resolute. Be resolute, be firm in knowing the difference between good and evil and knowing when the time is right to act. Together we will strengthen ourselves.

Our great nation and our great Commonwealth operates at their best when combined with active citizenship and compassionate and effective leadership. Only then can we continue to be the great Commonwealth that we are in Pennsylvania and the great nation that we are, the United States of America. May God bless all of the sacred work that is accomplished here in this hallowed ground. May God bless the holy Members who conduct that sacred work on a daily basis. May God bless the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, and may God bless America. Amen.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair thanks Rabbi Gruenberg, who is the guest today of Senator McIlhinney.

PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE

(The Pledge of Allegiance was recited by those assembled.)

The PRESIDENT. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Erie, Senator Wiley.

Senator WILEY. Mr. President, it is my honor today to welcome to the Senate a young man from my district, who has been an intern in your office, Henry Wade, from McKean Township in Erie County. He is a student at Penn State Harrisburg, studying for a master's in public administration and is on target to complete his studies in December of this year. Henry earned a bachelor of arts degree in history with a minor in French from Allegheny College in 2012. Henry has most recently been working with the Lieutenant Governor, specific to the Pennsylvania Board of Pardons. I also learned that he was an intern at one time in the office of my predecessor, Senator Jane Earll. Mr. President, it is my pleasure today to get to know Henry this morning and for him to represent the great northwest. He is a very, very talented young man. I ask my colleagues to join me in welcoming Henry and his mother, who is in the gallery today, to the Senate.

The PRESIDENT. Would the guests of Senator Wiley, the great intern, Henry, who works in our office, and his lovely mom, whom we got a chance to meet, please rise so that we may welcome you to the Pennsylvania Senate.

(Applause.)

GUESTS OF SENATOR JUDY SCHWANK PRESENTED TO THE SENATE

The PRESIDENT. The Chair recognizes the gentlewoman from Berks, Senator Schwank.

Senator SCHWANK. Mr. President, good afternoon. Senator Alloway and myself are members of the Board of Governors of the Pennsylvania State System of Higher Education, and we are very pleased to welcome representatives from each of the 14 State universities. As part of PASSHE's advocacy event, students have been visiting legislators today to talk about their college experiences and how important the education they are receiving is to them, to their families, and to the future of the Commonwealth. Nearly 90 percent of the students are from Pennsylvania, and about 80 percent of the graduates stay here to begin their careers, which demonstrates how important the State System is to Pennsylvania's future and why it is so important, Mr. President, that we invest in these great institutions. These visits have become an annual event in an effort to garner continued support for higher education. Pennsylvania's State System of Higher Education generates more than $6.7 billion annually in economic activity, and, in addition to its own 12,000 employees, supports about 62,000 external jobs statewide. Truly, for all of my colleagues who have met with some of these students today, they know there are no better ambassadors for the universities than the students themselves. So, please join me in welcoming the 14 student representatives, and presidents who are also here with us from the State System, along with our Chancellor, Frank Brogan.

Thank you, Mr. President.

The PRESIDENT. Would the guests of Senator Schwank, our great young people and others from PASSHE, please rise so that we may welcome you to the Pennsylvania Senate.

(Applause.)

GUESTS OF SENATOR JUDY SCHWANK AND SENATOR JOHN RAFFERTY PRESENTED TO THE SENATE

The PRESIDENT. The Chair again recognizes the gentlewoman from Berks, Senator Schwank.

Senator SCHWANK. Mr. President, it is a very nice day here today for me. I am here to also welcome the Daniel Boone Optimist Club to the Senate, and I am joined by Senator Rafferty, who also shares these students in his district, in welcoming them. Chartered in 1968 as part of Optimist International, the Optimist Club is a nonprofit organization dedicated to serving youth and the community. Their mission is to develop optimism as a philosophy of life, to promote an active interest in civic affairs, to inspire respect for the law, and to aid and encourage the development of youth. Their positive approach, upbeat outlook, and commitment to creating a more optimistic future for kids is what differentiates Optimist Clubs from any other volunteer opportunity. Please join me, Mr. President, in welcoming the students and chaperones from the Daniel Boone Optimist Club.

The PRESIDENT. Would the guests of Senator Schwank and Senator Rafferty from the Daniel Boone Optimist Club please rise so that we may happily and optimistically welcome you to the Pennsylvania State Senate.

(Applause.)

GUESTS OF SENATOR ROBERT F. TEPLITZ PRESENTED TO THE SENATE

The PRESIDENT. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Dauphin, Senator Teplitz.

Senator TEPLITZ. Mr. President, I welcome a group of fine young men and women from my district who are seated in the gallery today. They are members of the YMCA Youth and Government Hershey delegation. With us today are Rachel Hoover, Maddie McQuillan, Pallavi Nambiar, Carlos Gonzalez, Rebecca Hetrick, Joseph Abraham, Rosie Zhang, Rosy Zhang--yes, there are two--Mallika Kodavatiganti, Douglas Lamb, Patrick Starner, J'Michael Wedderburn, Madeline Donahue, Jesse Cui, Chad Karper, Riley Compton, Sareena Fayaz, Wesley Sheker, and their advisers, Sheila Hoover and Rick Teetsel.

YMCA Youth and Government is the only student-led, student-run mock government experience of its kind in Pennsylvania. This program teaches democracy to middle and high school students through hands-on experiences in the Chambers of the Pennsylvania Capitol. They meet throughout the year and today they are visiting the Capitol to see the House and Senate in Session. They will be returning to the Capitol for the Youth and Government model convention in a few weeks. This is a bright group of students, and I have no doubt they will be future leaders and, perhaps, future lawmakers.

So, Mr. President, I ask that my colleagues join me in welcoming the YMCA Youth and Government Hershey delegation to the Pennsylvania Senate.

Thank you, Mr. President.

The PRESIDENT. Would the guests of Senator Teplitz, from the YMCA Youth and Government Hershey delegation, please rise so that we may welcome you to the Pennsylvania Senate.

(Applause.)

GUESTS OF SENATOR JOHN R. GORDNER PRESENTED TO THE SENATE

The PRESIDENT. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Columbia, Senator Gordner.

Senator GORDNER. Mr. President, hopefully today you took advantage of the opportunity to meet with many of the students in the East Wing Rotunda who are here as part of Undergraduate Research Day at the Capitol. There are dozens of students who did research on a lot of incredible issues. They had posters and they were positioned, ready, willing, and able to answer questions and explain their research projects to those who came by.

I am going to read the universities that participated, and as I read each university, if the students could stand, at the very end the Lieutenant Governor will recognize those students. Albright College, Arcadia University, Cabrini College, Chatham University, Delaware Valley College, Drexel University, Duquesne University, Eastern University, Gettysburg College, Harrisburg University, Immaculata University, Indiana University of Pennsylvania, Keystone College, Kutztown University, Lebanon Valley College, Lycoming College, Marywood University, Millersville University, Misericordia University, Penn State

Abington, Penn State Lehigh Valley, Penn State University Park, Saint Joseph's University, Saint Vincent College, Seton Hill University, Susquehanna University, University of Pittsburgh, University of the Sciences, Ursinus College, West Chester University, and Wilson College.

Mr. President, I ask that we recognize all of these students and the research that they did and welcome them to the Senate here this afternoon.

The PRESIDENT. Would the guests of Senator Gordner, our future in Pennsylvania, all from great schools, please rise so that we may welcome you to the Pennsylvania Senate.

(Applause.)

GUESTS OF SENATOR JAY COSTA PRESENTED TO THE SENATE

The PRESIDENT. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Allegheny, Senator Costa.

Senator COSTA. Mr. President, I echo the comments of Senator Gordner with respect to the students who are here today. As part of the group that he referenced, the Duquesne University students are here today for research day. They include Peter Mysels, senior, secondary social studies education; Anastasia Lpatova, a sixth-year pharmacy student; and Lindsey Sosnowski, a sixth-year pharmacy student from Freehold, New Jersey, but making her home in the city of Pittsburgh. I welcome them.

In addition, Mr. President, we have a number of students here from the Community College of Allegheny County. As my colleagues know, I am a proud graduate of the Community College of Allegheny County, as well as four of my other brothers who all attended the college and have gone on to higher education. Today we have students in the gallery who are part of the Pennsylvania All-Academic Phi Theta Kappa Team. We had a chance to meet with these individuals earlier today on the floor: Tamra Seto, Jeremy Hinnebusch, Brittany Wosiak, Tyler Walsh, Rosemary Aquilina, and Erika Good. I welcome these students and thank them for their outstanding academic performance. They are wonderful representatives of the Community College of Allegheny County.

Thank you, Mr. President.

The PRESIDENT. Would the guests of Senator Costa please rise so that we may welcome you to the Pennsylvania Senate.

(Applause.)

Senator COSTA. Mr. President, at the conclusion of the meeting of the Committee on Appropriations, Senate Democrats will meet in the rear of the Chamber for a caucus as well.

The PRESIDENT. For purposes of an off-the-floor meeting of the Committee on Appropriations, to be followed by Republi-

BILLS OVER IN ORDER

SB 579, SB 606 and HB 665 -- Without objection, the bills were passed over in their order at the request of Senator CORMAN.

BILL AMENDED

HB 805 (Pr. No. 1843) -- The Senate proceeded to consideration of the bill, entitled:

An Act amending the act of March 10, 1949 (P.L.30, No.14), known as the Public School Code of 1949, in professional employees, further providing for temporary professional employees, for contracts, execution and form, for causes for suspension and for persons to be suspended and to receive tenure, for collective bargaining agreements and for timing of appeal of suspension; and making editorial changes.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill on third consideration?

Senator SCAVELLO offered the following amendment No. A5490:

Amend Bill, page 23, line 11, by striking out "2016" and inserting: 2018

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the amendment?

The PRESIDENT. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Monroe, Senator Scavello.

Senator SCAVELLO. Mr. President, this amendment would update the year for which this bill would take effect. The General Assembly just unanimously approved a delay in the graduation requirement on Keystone Exams, thus recognizing that attaching high-stakes decision tests may not be sound policy, if we want to de-emphasize the focus on testing in our schools. Now, House Bill No. 805 proposes to flip that precedent on its head, again attaching high-stakes decisions to these tests. The amount of the tests is directly related to what policymakers attach to them, and I truly believe that by delaying this it will give us more of an opportunity to make some changes.

I do not want to see teachers teaching students to take tests and not give that child and that student a full, well-rounded education. This, I believe, would delay it a little bit and give us more time to make the necessary changes.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Lancaster, Senator Smucker.

Senator SMUCKER. Mr. President, I rise in opposition to the amendment being offered. This bill would provide school districts with a critical tool that I know in my area they have been asking for for some time, a tool that would insure that the best teachers continue to serve in the classroom. The bill the prior speaker was referring to that delayed the Keystone Exams was a bill that I had introduced and supported, and I think that was the right move in that case. This is a different issue altogether.

This is, as I mentioned earlier, about keeping the best and brightest teachers in our classrooms. Our kids deserve it and they deserve it now. This is a tool that we should not delay any longer, providing school districts with this tool, particularly at a time when in some areas across the State schools are considering layoffs. Of course, this bill will only affect a district when there is a layoff occurring.

So, I rise to ask my colleagues to vote against the amendment.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Lancaster, Senator Aument.

Senator AUMENT. Mr. President, I also rise to oppose this amendment. As the previous speaker mentioned, the amendment addresses the work that this General Assembly has done with regard to delaying the Keystone Exams, an effort that I fully supported. This bill is about insuring that students across this Commonwealth, in the unfortunate circumstances of a layoff, whether that be for economic reasons or school district realignment or decline in student populations, that we insure that we are protecting the best and the brightest and that every child across this Commonwealth has access to a high-quality teacher. This decision will be informed by the new teacher evaluation system.

My colleague talked about the Keystone Exams. I think it is important for folks in this Chamber to understand that the teacher evaluation system consists of the multiple measures of student performance, it is not based exclusively on a standardized test score or growth on a standardized assessment, but the evaluation is made up of principal observations--in fact, 50 percent of the evaluation is based on observations--elective school performance data, and other multiple measures of performance. I believe this amendment is absolutely unnecessary. In fact, I point out that in 2012, in a letter that we received from the Pittsburgh public schools, a reduction in staff in 2012 resulted in 16 teachers performing at the distinguished level in some of the most vulnerable school buildings in that school district being furloughed. Unfortunately, this legislation being considered today is too late for those students to have access to a quality teacher and too late for those educators who were dismissed.

I believe that a delay is not only misguided, but it would be reckless. I encourage my colleagues to reject this amendment.

Thank you, Mr. President.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Monroe, Senator Scavello, for the second time.

Senator SCAVELLO. Mr. President, I would like to offer an example. School districts in growing areas where there is a tremendous amount of transitional students, and I will give you an example, at one time one of my schools picked up 1,000 students, but the net gain was 500. So there was a tremendous amount of new students going into classrooms, and it is still happening. Even in a down population in my school districts, I still get that transient population.

So we are going to have a student, and I am talking maybe five, six, seven, eight students in that classroom who never spent a day in the prior year within that school district. We are going to test those students, we are going to hold the teacher accountable to an evaluation, and it is wrong. Sometimes you have to look at what a bill will do, and in this particular case, those situations need to be addressed. There is nothing in this evaluation system that takes that into consideration. I want to know, especially when we test the school, for example, a growing school district, and the average school student in that building might be there 3 years in some cases in our area. So, when we test, we are holding the school accountable for all of these new students who have come in. Even No Child Left Behind, the Federal guideline said June 30 of the prior year. If the student is in the school on June 30 of the prior year when you test, that score is accountable to the school. However, we adopted if the student is in the school and we are testing, we are going to count that score. Are we going to do this for evaluations as well? I urge the Members to support my amendment.

Thank you, Mr. President.

And the question recurring,
Will the Senate agree to the amendment?

The yeas and nays were required by Senator SCAVELLO and were as follows, viz:

YEA-29

SENATE RESOLUTIONS ADOPTED

Senators TEPLITZ, WILLIAMS, SABATINA, GREENLEAF, DINNIMAN, HAYWOOD, RAFFERTY, FONTANA, SCHWANK, HUGHES, FARNESE, COSTA, RESCHENTHALER, BREWSTER and BROWNE, by unanimous consent, offered Senate Resolution No. 322, entitled:

A Resolution recognizing April 12, 2016, as "Equal Pay Day" in Pennsylvania in recognition of the need to eliminate the gender gap in earnings by women and to promote policies to ensure equal pay for all.

On the question,
Will the Senate adopt the resolution?

The PRESIDENT. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Dauphin, Senator Teplitz.

Senator TEPLITZ. Mr. President, my colleague, Senator Williams, and I offer this resolution designating April 12, 2016, as "Equal Pay Day" in Pennsylvania. Equal Pay Day is the symbolic day when women's earnings catch up to men's earnings from the previous year. More than 50 years after the passage of the Equal Pay Act, women continue to suffer the consequences of unequal pay. According to a report by the National Partnership for Women & Families, women in Pennsylvania earned a median of $.79 for each dollar earned by men as of September 2015. Nearly 4 in 10 mothers are primary breadwinners in their households, and nearly two-thirds are primary or significant earners. So equal pay is not just a women's issue, but a family issue.

So, Mr. President, I ask that my colleagues join Senator Williams and me in recognizing April 12, 2016, as Equal Pay Day.
Thank you, Mr. President.

And the question recurring,
Will the Senate adopt the resolution?

A voice vote having been taken, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Senators TEPLITZ, SABATINA, FONTANA, DINNIMAN, GREENLEAF, COSTA, FARNESE, SCHWANK, AUMENT and HUGHES, by unanimous consent, offered Senate Resolution No. 323, entitled:

A Resolution designating April 23, 2016, as "Phi Mu Fraternity Day" in Pennsylvania.

On the question,
Will the Senate adopt the resolution?

The PRESIDENT. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Dauphin, Senator Teplitz.

Senator TEPLITZ. Mr. President, this resolution designates April 23, 2016, as "Phi Mu Fraternity Day" in Pennsylvania. Phi Mu was founded in 1852 at Wesleyan College in Macon, Georgia. It was started as the Philomathean Society, a literary society, and is the second-oldest female fraternal organization in the nation. It became Phi Mu Fraternity in 1904. The mission of Phi Mu is to provide women with personal and academic development, service to others, commitment to excellence, and lifelong friendships through a shared tradition.

On April 23, 2016, the South Central Pennsylvania Alumnae, the Beta Tau Collegiate, and the Phi Eta Collegiate chapters of Phi Mu, will be hosting Pennsylvania Phi Mu Day 2016 in Hershey for members located in Pennsylvania and surrounding States. So, Mr. President, I ask that my colleagues join me in recognizing the Phi Mu Fraternity for its years of service to our community by designating April 23, 2016, as Phi Mu Day in Pennsylvania.

Thank you, Mr. President.

And the question recurring,
Will the Senate adopt the resolution?

A voice vote having been taken, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Senators SCAVELLO, RAFFERTY, SABATINA, DINNIMAN, FONTANA, GREENLEAF, EICHELBERGER, BARTOLOTTA, COSTA, RESCHENTHALER, ARGALL, TARTAGLIONE, BREWSTER, VULAKOVICH, HUTCHINSON, BROWNE, MENSCH, FARNESE, TOMLINSON, HAYWOOD and HUGHES, by unanimous consent, offered Senate Resolution No. 324, entitled:

A Resolution designating April 8, 2016, as "Cushing's Syndrome Awareness Day" in Pennsylvania.

On the question,
Will the Senate adopt the resolution?

The PRESIDENT. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Monroe, Senator Scavello.

Senator SCAVELLO. Mr. President, I offer this resolution designating April 8, 2016, as "Cushing's Syndrome Awareness Day" in Pennsylvania. This disease affects between 10 million and 15 million people, most commonly between the ages of 20 and 50. Cushing's syndrome is an endocrine disorder that is caused by over-exposure of the body's tissues to the hormone cortisol. Some of the symptoms include upper body obesity, rounded face, increased fat around the neck, thinning arms and legs, fatigue, weakness, high blood pressure, and mood disorders. Cushing's syndrome, sometimes called hypocortisolism, is relatively rare, and delayed treatment of this disease significantly reduces treatment options. Therefore, it is important to educate the public about the symptoms of this disease in an effort to increase the rate of successful treatment. Thank you for joining me in recognizing April 8, 2016, as Cushing's Syndrome Awareness Day.

Thank you, Mr. President.

And the question recurring,
Will the Senate adopt the resolution?

A voice vote having been taken, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Senator CORMAN asked and obtained a leave of absence for Senator RAFFERTY, for the rest of today's Session, for personal reasons.

PETITIONS AND REMONSTRANCES

The PRESIDENT. The Chair recognizes my feisty friend from the Lehigh Valley, yet again wearing a Villanova shirt, and I think I might have an idea of what this is about.

The Chair recognizes the gentlewoman from Northampton, Senator Boscola.

Senator BOSCOLA. Mr. President, the Villanova Wildcats are national champions. They wore bracelets that said, "Believe," "Attitude." What a humbling moment for all of us when Villanova won the national championship. That game was incredible to watch. I was there in 1985 getting my graduate degree when they beat Georgetown in a nail-biter. I remember that and I thought I would never witness another game like that ever in my life, and here we are today. Last night I witnessed the game of a lifetime. I do give credit to North Carolina. They played their hearts out. When I saw Marcus Paige do that three-point shot that was so athletic, my heart dropped. I appreciated the shot. My heart dropped because they were tying up a game with my Villanova Wildcats. With 4.7 seconds left in the game, Ryan Arcidiacono takes the ball and hands it off unselfishly to Kris Jenkins and there it is, a three-point shot and Villanova wins 77 to 74.

I am so proud of the team. I commend Jay Wright, he is a class act. He always talked to his team like they were family. This team was told that they could not win, they were never going to beat Miami, and then Oklahoma, but they believed in themselves, and that is why they wore those bracelets, "Believe," because they believed in themselves, they believed in the team, and believed that they could. Congratulations, Villanova Wildcats.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair thanks the gentlewoman for her delightful remarks.

The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Centre, Senator Corman.

Senator CORMAN. Mr. President, as a former Temple student, I certainly understand the Big 5 and how exciting basketball is in Philadelphia. That was certainly tremendous to watch. I wore my Jay Wright pinstripe suit today in honor of the Wildcats. That was very exciting for Pennsylvania. Obviously, Pennsylvania has a long history of great sports teams, and Villanova's victory yesterday was at the top of the list of great moments in the history of the Commonwealth. So, from us from central Pennsylvania, we congratulate our friends in Philadelphia for an outstanding tournament and a victory well deserved.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair thanks the gentleman for his tremendous remarks and appreciates the sentiment.

The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Lackawanna, who may also have a blue-and-white connection, Senator Blake.

Senator BLAKE. Mr. President, I can barely add to the exciting and enthusiastic remarks of my colleague, Senator Boscola, but, again, I commend the whole Villanova family, Nova Nation, Jay Wright, the extraordinary, unselfish, hardworking, and outstanding Villanova Wildcat basketball team who gave us a game for the ages last night. First time in the history of the national championship that a national championship was won on a jump shot at the buzzer. A buzzer-beater national championship, Mr. President. It was special. Congratulations, Villanova.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair uses his prerogative also to chime in as a Villanova Law graduate, that it was a tremendous win for the Wildcats, but a great win for Philadelphia and for Pennsylvania. Tonight we will have blue and white lights in the front of the Capitol facade to celebrate the tremendous Villanova victory. So look for the lights in front of the Capitol and salute the Wildcats. Congratulations on their tremendous national championship.
