SENATE

WEDNESDAY, June 8, 2016

The Senate met at 11 a.m., Eastern Daylight Saving Time.

The PRESIDENT (Lieutenant Governor Mike Stack) in the Chair.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Reverend ALBERTA JONES, of Bethel A.M.E. Church, Reading, offered the following prayer:

Let us pray.

Our Father and our God, we give You thanks for giving us another day. As the Senate begins their work today, we pause now in Your presence and acknowledge our dependency on You. We ask Your blessing upon the men and women of this Senate. Let them not get weary in well-doing, but give them strength, courage, and determination for the tasks they face today. Give them wisdom as they make decisions and laws that govern our State and impact our nation. Be with them always, O God. Every morning wake them up with new hope. May they continue to strive to be faithful to You and have the desire to make a difference in helping others. May all that is done this day be for our good and Your glory. Amen.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair thanks Reverend Jones, who is the guest today of Senator Schwank.

GUESTS OF SENATOR JUDY SCHWANK PRESENTED TO THE SENATE

The PRESIDENT. The Chair recognizes the gentlewoman from Berks, Senator Schwank.

Senator SCHWANK. Mr. President, today I have the pleasure of introducing Reverend Alberta Jones from Bethel A.M.E. Church on West Windsor Street in the city of Reading. Reverend Jones is retired from the United States Department of Defense, where she served as a supervisor in the Office of Acquisitions and Logistics. She is also a former schoolteacher for the Philadelphia School District, and holds a bachelor's degree in history and education from Delaware State University. She has a master's degree in administration from Central Michigan University, and received a Master of Divinity degree from the Lutheran Theological Seminary in Philadelphia, in addition to serving on the Philadelphia Board of Trustees for the A.M.E. Church and the Board of Examiners for A.M.E. In 2008, Reverend Alberta Jones was selected by the NAACP for outstanding devotion to community service and was presented with a congressional citation from former Congressman Joe Sestak for her tireless dedication to her church.

I am honored to have Reverend Alberta Jones join us today as she is truly an exceptional woman. I have heard her speak many, many times and have been so impressed by her. She is a woman who has contributed to the religious and civic life in our community in greater Reading. So I ask my colleagues and you, Mr. President, to join me in welcoming Reverend Jones.

The PRESIDENT. Will the guest of Senator Schwank, Reverend Jones, please rise so that we may welcome you to the Pennsylvania Senate. Thank you for a wonderful prayer.

(Applause.)

GUESTS OF SENATOR ANDREW E. DINNIMAN
AND SENATOR THOMAS H. KILLION
PRESENTED TO THE SENATE

The PRESIDENT. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Chester, Senator Dinniman.

Senator DINNIMAN. Mr. President, it is my pleasure to introduce two guests today. As you well know, I give tours of Violet Oakley's paintings as an auction item for many of our nonprofits. In this case, an auction item was at the Land Conservancy for Southern Chester County, a newer land trust in our county, but it has already saved hundreds of acres of land. Mr. President, we have now preserved 28 percent of Chester County in perpetuity, and our goal is to go to 33 percent. There is no other area in this Commonwealth which can say that 28 percent of their county is permanently preserved. So, I am always glad to assist land trusts, and in this case, a southern Chester County land trust. My guests are John and Susan Pappa, and Caroline and Steve Mange. Both couples, by the way, live adjacent to my district and I know their new Senator, who represents Kennett Township and Kennett Square, Senator Killion, has expressed his greeting as well today. So, I ask my guests to rise so that we can give them a warm welcome on behalf of myself and Senator Killion.

The PRESIDENT. Would the guests of Senator Dinniman and Senator Killion, John and Sue Pappa, Caroline and Steve Mange, please rise so that we may welcome you to the Pennsylvania Senate.

(Applause.)

GUESTS OF SENATOR DAYLIN LEACH
PRESENTED TO THE SENATE

The PRESIDENT. For the purpose of recognizing some very special guests, almost better than the Beatles, the Chair recognizes the gentleman from Montgomery, Senator Leach.

Senator LEACH. Mr. President, as the Senator representing the school at issue today, I am so proud to recognize and introduce to the Senate the National NCAA Division 1 Basketball Champions, Villanova University.

(Applause.)

It is hard to overstate what an achievement this is. I am led to understand there are 351 Division 1 schools, is that right? That is an awful lot of schools. Many of them are much larger and have a much larger student population than Villanova University, but Villanova beat them all and became the national champions. I am proud to have some history with Villanova. I am not an alum but I have alums with me today, and a couple of them will say some words. I actually went to Temple University, but I spent a lot of time at Villanova as an undergraduate because by the time I was a sophomore, all of the girls knew me at Temple, and I had to go other places in order to socialize. Then, when I went to the University of Houston Law School, I remember cheering on Villanova as if I were an alum when they won their first national championship under Rollie Massimino. That was another amazing upset and come-from-behind victory.

I must say even now, Villanova is a godsend to me. I have a 13-year-old son. Now, when I was 13, every Philadelphia sports team lost every year. Every year we were in last place. Sometimes--some of the older people will remember this--the Phillies and the Expos would battle it out for fifth place in the division, but we were always in last place, and when you are 13, that is sort of the sweet spot for sports in your life. It is all you really care about, and it was devastating to me. We went through some good years, but then my son hit that spot, and we are right back where we were when I was a kid. It is heartbreaking to watch him watch Philadelphia professional sports sometimes. To show you how bad it got, he started rooting for arena football in order to find a team that won sometimes. So when Villanova came along and they started moving through the tournament, this was the greatest thing that ever happened in his life, and when they shot the winning basket in the last second, I have never seen him happier. So, I cannot tell you how personally grateful I am for the amount of money you saved me in future therapy for my son, as someone is finally giving him something to root for.

I must admit that Villanova was not in my bracket. I do not know enough about all of the teams to intelligently make a bracket, so I just make my bracket alphabetically, which I am told is not necessarily the best way to do that, but I am happy that the Arizona vs. Yale final did not occur, and that Villanova finally got their victory.

We have a citation from the Senate recognizing your amazing accomplishments. We are hopeful that we will be back here next year doing this again. Thank you for all you have done for your community, for your city, for your State, and for really all the inspiration you gave to people all across the country. This is something you can be proud of the rest of your life. We are so thrilled that you are with us today. So, thank you very much. I would like to introduce the three Villanova alums in the Senate behind me to say a few words. I introduce Senator Boscola.

Senator BOSCOLA. Mr. President, I had Villanova in my bracket to win all the way. People thought I was crazy at first, but I won a lot of money, and by the way, you cannot do those brackets because they are illegal. I am trying to change that.

Anyway, let us give them a standing "Novation."

(Applause.)

They are led by a cool cat, Jay Wright. I will tell you what, when I saw you, when I was watching that game and Jenkins made that shot, you were like, "Bang, we win." I am like, holy crap is he cool. So, Daniel Ochefu, for mopping up the floor, the attitude award; Ryan Arcidiacono--I love him, God, I love him, I wish he was here. Jenkins, oh my gosh - Arch, Arch, Arch, give me the ball, and you just sink the shot, and it is just awesome. After the shot that happened with North Carolina, when Marcus Paige shot, and I said, what kind of shot is that? And then we got the best shot ever. Awesome. One more year, Phil Booth. Jalen Brunson, rookie of the year, well, Big 5 Rookie of the Year. Mikal Bridges, another freshman, dancing on the stage. Oh, my God, you guys are just the best. I love you. And of course, Josh Hart, awesome guy.

I am a proud alumnus, Father Pete is one of the best people we have. I know he thinks I am really crazy when it comes to Villanova basketball. I yell at refs, I do all that stuff and he goes, will you calm down? But I cannot. Anyway, congratulations, you made me proud, always, continuously, I will be at all of those games, I always am. I wore my T-shirt for 2 days in a row when you guys were playing, and I got the smackdown by a lot of the Members saying, how can she wear that T-shirt, it is not what you can do here, and I said, ah, but I am an alumnus, I can do whatever I want. So anyway, congratulations, love you guys, and thank you for being here.

(Applause.)

Senator BLAKE. Mr. President, briefly, I could not be more proud, Nova Nation. Coach, I told you privately what a special thing it is for you to get across that line with your national championship and your leadership telling this team to work as a team, unselfish, unbelievable gentlemen, comporting themselves as you would give example to them on and off the court. I could not be more proud of Villanova University, I could not be more proud of your program, and could not be more proud of these gentlemen. Those six games were, boy, I will tell you, something else, Coach, something else. Nova Nation is really proud of you, and we are glad to have you here in the Senate. Congratulations.

(Applause.)

Senator LEACH. Coach Wright, I will present this to you now. Along with the citation comes a brand new Buick LeSabre for each of your players, while supplies last, and that is out front. Anyway, thank you so much.

(Applause.)

The PRESIDENT. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Centre, Senator Corman.

Senator CORMAN. Mr. President, I am from central Pennsylvania and I am not an alumnus of Villanova, but I am very proud. Pennsylvania is a Commonwealth and we are very excited about all of our teams' successes. Villanova, certainly with a lot of class and a lot of heart, showed a lot of Pennsylvanians a great run. So, we were very excited to see it and we want to offer our congratulations as well. You brought a lot of excitement and a lot of joy to a lot of people.

I do want to make a comment to my colleague from Montgomery County. I understand his grief. When I was 13 in the 1970s, I remember the one year the Steelers did not win the Superbowl, it was very upsetting. If he wants his son to really have some good times, tell him to look west and you will see another championship tomorrow night.

The PRESIDENT. Point well-taken.

The Chair will exercise my prerogative as a Villanova Law alumnus. We are so delighted to have Coach Wright and the team here. I said this before, that final game was so suspenseful, it was almost as suspenseful as the issue of whether I would graduate from Villanova Law School. We are delighted to have you all here. You guys have been a tremendous example of the right way to do it. We are so proud of you and continued success in all things you do, and I think you can be assured all of us here in the Pennsylvania Senate and in our State government are your friends and want to help you in all of your endeavors.

Coach, thank you so much for being here.

The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Allegheny, Senator Costa.

Senator COSTA. Mr. President, I want to echo Senator Corman's comments about a wonderful opportunity tomorrow night for the Pittsburgh Penguins, and as we have supported Villanova, in Pittsburgh, we have to bring it home tomorrow night. Thank you.

The PRESIDENT. Kris Jenkins is going to talk to the Senate. We are delighted to have the heroic member of the Villanova basketball team who made that tremendous shot at the end, Villanova star Kris Jenkins, address the Senate. Kris, please come up.

(Applause.)

Mr. JENKINS. On behalf of my teammates and myself, we would like to thank Senator Leach and the Members of the Pennsylvania State Senate for hosting us today. We are honored to be here in the Capitol complex for recognition by the Senate, House of Representatives, Lieutenant Governor Stack, and Governor Tom Wolf. We are humbled by the outpouring of support for our team throughout this season and in our run to the championship. Your continued support is vital to our success, and we are proud to represent the State of Pennsylvania. Thanks to everyone for your continued support.

We would like to present Senator Leach with a championship game ball with all of our signatures.

(Applause.)

We also want to present one to the Lieutenant Governor as well.

(Applause.)

The PRESIDENT. Thank you so much, Kris. Great job.

Just for that, Coach Wright is going to say a few words. The championship coach, Coach Wright.

Coach WRIGHT. Thank you, everyone, for having our Villanova family. We have coaches and administrators. This has been a remarkable day for the Villanova family, and as proud as we are of winning the championship game, we are most proud that all of these guys graduate. We have a 100-percent graduation rate.

(Applause.)

The goal at Villanova is for these guys to be the best men, the best players, and the best students they can be. It is a process, and the championship is just a result of the process of trying to be the best men, students, and players they can be. We talk to them mostly about how it is important what you do after basketball life, and that is what we prepare them for at Villanova. It has been a great experience for them to see men and women who work for their constituents and for our great State and to see what you all do today. So we thank you for letting us share in that and learn from you. It has been a great experience and we really have treasured this day.

Thank you very much.

(Applause.)
