SESSION OF 2019 203RD OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY

No. 32

SENATE

TUESDAY, June 18, 2019

The Senate met at 1 p.m., Eastern Daylight Saving Time.

The PRESIDENT (Lieutenant Governor John K. Fetterman) in the Chair.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Reverend MATTHEW PAUL GOLDSBERRY, Pastor of Calvary Assembly of God, Connellsville, offered the following prayer:

Let us pray.

Almighty God, Creator God, we give You thanks for the gift of this day and this State of Pennsylvania. Thank You, Almighty God, that You have created all things, that You sustain all things, and that You reign over all things. We are grateful for this wonderful Commonwealth of Pennsylvania that we as citizens live in, and these elected Senators serve in. I pray, God, that by Your grace You would bless these Senators, our Governor, our Lieutenant Governor, and all of those who serve in the positions they are called to lead. I humbly ask, God, that You would give them the wisdom, courage, and foresight necessary amid the pressures of all that they are asked to deal with, especially this time of the year as they deal with the budget, for the good of all the citizens and the benefit of all the citizens of this Commonwealth. Almighty God, I pray Your peace over them as they often have to deal with seemingly impossible tasks, but with You, nothing is impossible.

Finally, I pray for their health, physically and mentally, for their families, and often the sacrifices required of them. For their staff, asking again for Your help, direction, and grace so that they are able to lead with honor and justice for all. Finally, I am reminded of Your word in Micah 6:8, He has shown you, O man, what is good and what does the Lord require of you? Act justly and to love mercy, and to walk humbly with your God. May you, Senators, your decisions, above all, permit unity and harmony among each other, and, above all, bless the citizens of this Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. In the name of Jesus Christ, I pray. Amen.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair thanks Pastor Goldsberry, who is the guest today of Senator Stefano.

GUESTS OF SENATOR ELISABETH J. BAKER PRESENTED TO THE SENATE

The PRESIDENT. The Chair recognizes the gentlewoman from Luzerne, Senator Baker.

Senator BAKER. Mr. President, I am so delighted to rise and introduce my guest shadow, who is also seated here on the Senate floor, Shelby Carr, a recent graduate of Dallas High School, my alma mater. Shelby has been an honor student while participating in varsity and travel sports. She enjoys volunteering, playing volleyball, cooking, and baking. She plans to attend King's College and hopes to graduate with her degree in 3 years through the accelerated law program and get her degree in political science and then complete her Juris Doctor at Villanova University School of Law. She had said she wanted to practice municipal, corporate, or real estate law, but I think after her visit to the Capitol today, public service may be in her future. She is the daughter of Tracey and Steve Carr. Shelby's mother is our borough manager of Dallas, so she has been exposed to government at the most local level, and today was her first experience with State government. Shelby is here with her mom and dad and her brother, Steven, who are all seated in the gallery. I ask that we give our usual warm welcome to our special guests from Luzerne County.

Thank you, Mr. President.

The PRESIDENT. Would the guests of Senator Baker please rise to be welcomed by the Senate.

(Applause.)

GUESTS OF SENATOR JOHN M. DiSANTO PRESENTED TO THE SENATE

The PRESIDENT. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Dauphin, Senator DiSanto.

Senator DiSANTO. Mr. President, it is my honor to recognize in the gallery the Harrisburg University Storm Overwatch Team, who recently won the first Esports ESPN Overwatch National Championship. The team went undefeated this season, 33-0, and beat three of their competitors from across the country during the national championship tournament in Houston, culminating in a 3-1 victory over the University of Utah in the finals.

Here with us today are team members Alex Carrell, Jonathan Song, Josh Street, Titus Bang, Ryan Nget, Louis Lin, Austin Hobbs, Jason Knittle, Hunter Rogers, Vincent DiGiacomo, Travis Letwiniuk, Saben Neale, Isaiah Harris; head coach, Giuseppe "Joe" Gramano; and director of Esports, Chad Smeltz. Also joining us are Harrisburg University's chief of staff, Doug Firestone, and manager of communications, Brian Humphrey.

Please join me in welcoming Harrisburg University's national championship Esports team.

The PRESIDENT. Would the guests of Senator DiSanto please rise to be welcomed by the Senate.

(Applause.)

GUEST OF SENATOR MICHAEL J. FOLMER PRESENTED TO THE SENATE

The PRESIDENT. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Lebanon, Senator Folmer.

Senator FOLMER. Mr. President, I rise today to introduce Grayson Smith, who is shadowing me for the day. Grayson is the son of David and Dawn Smith, and is the youngest of four children. He is a rising senior at York Suburban High School, where he played football until his freshman year. Grayson has a passion for history and politics and has taken advanced placement and college courses to better extend his knowledge. Grayson has volunteered for numerous political causes to experience the world of politics and has been active with the National Student Leadership Conference hosted by American University. After graduation, Grayson hopes to attend either American University or George Washington University in Washington, D.C., in hopes of becoming a political analyst, or obtaining a job at the Capitol, and possibly one day running for office.

Grayson has a great positive attitude and is very driven and summed it up well by saying, and I quote, my dreams are big, but with the help of the people around me, I am sure anything is possible. In his free time, he enjoys watching football and is an avid Cincinnati Bengals fan.

Senators, please join me in giving a warm Senate welcome for your potential future colleague, Grayson Smith.

The PRESIDENT. Would the guest of Senator Folmer please rise to be welcomed by the Senate.

(Applause.)

GUESTS OF SENATOR STEVEN SANTARSIERO PRESENTED TO THE SENATE

The PRESIDENT. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Bucks, Senator Santarsiero.

Senator SANTARSIERO. Mr. President, I rise today to recognize my guests seated in the gallery, the Pennsbury Boys' Ultimate Frisbee Team, who have proven themselves to be excellent representatives of their community and superb athletes in their sport of ultimate frisbee. They are joined here today by coaches, alumni, and family members. Determined students, dedicated coaches, and alumni make this team possible. Guided by the coaching of former Pennsbury players, this past May the team won the 2019 Pennsylvania State championship. This year's team ended the season with a record of 26-4. They played in the Paideia Cup in Atlanta this past April, at the nationals this month, and are ranked 17th nationally and, as noted, number one here in Pennsylvania. It is unfortunate that ultimate frisbee is not currently a sanctioned sport in Pennsylvania. While we hope that will soon change, these young men did not allow that fact to deter them. Instead, through their hard work and determination, they became champions. The team and supporters, who are a close-knit group of family and friends, have worked hard to create a winning tradition. Indeed, the Pennsbury team has won the State championship in 8 of the last 15 years.

Mr. President, I am proud to present the Pennsbury Ultimate Frisbee team to the Senate, and I ask my colleagues to give them our usual warm Senate welcome.

The PRESIDENT. Would the guests of Senator Santarsiero please rise to be welcomed by the Senate.

(Applause.)

GUESTS OF SENATOR SCOTT E. HUTCHINSON PRESENTED TO THE SENATE

The PRESIDENT. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Venango, Senator Hutchinson.

Senator HUTCHINSON. Mr. President, first, I welcome a young lady today with a deep passion for the Pennsylvania dairy industry, Kaylee Knapp. Kaylee decided in late October that she wanted to promote dairy consumption among younger students, so she reached out and worked with local dairies and the USDA research and development team to learn about how to accomplish her goals. Kaylee then held a milk taste testing at her school between three local distribution companies and presented her findings to our local school board. She discovered that the students' favorite distributor uses milk produced by two farms within her school district, which, by consuming more dairy from those farms, would increase revenue in the long run to benefit her school. Now, she has been working closely with our local Congressman, Congressman Glenn Thompson, to help promote his Whole Milk for Healthy Kids Act.

Kaylee is in Harrisburg today to promote the dairy industry. She is going into 9th grade at Rocky Grove High School. She is the daughter of Kyle and Angela Knapp, and she has a twin brother, Max, and another brother, Ethan. Today, Kaylee is also joined by another young lady who is very supportive of the dairy industry, Rachel Champluvier, who is also from my district.

I ask the Senate to give a warm welcome to my local constituents, who are seated in the gallery this afternoon.

The PRESIDENT. Would the guests of Senator Hutchinson please rise to be welcomed by the Senate.

(Applause.)

Senator HUTCHINSON. Mr. President, I have one other constituent I would like to recognize. I introduce Aaron Weltner, who is serving as an intern in my Harrisburg office this summer. Aaron is a resident of Franklin and a student at Duquesne University, where he is majoring in international relations. He also has a keen interest in economics, statistics, and different political theories, and hopes to use this knowledge, along with his strong communication skills, to help resolve conflicts and solve problems. Aaron has a love for the game of golf. He has used that ability to help benefit his community by serving as a mentor to a youth golf league and by organizing golf outings for nonprofit organizations. Upon graduation, Aaron is considering a career in Federal law enforcement and may some day run for elected office.

Please join me in giving my intern, Aaron Weltner, a warm Senate welcome.

The PRESIDENT. Would the guest of Senator Hutchinson please rise to be welcomed by the Senate.

(Applause.)

GUESTS OF SENATOR RYAN AUMENT PRESENTED TO THE SENATE

The PRESIDENT. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Lancaster, Senator Aument.

Senator AUMENT. Mr. President, it is my pleasure to introduce my guests for today, the talented students of Hempfield High School Quiz Bowl Team. Their advisor, John Frick, and their family members are seated in the gallery.

To their great credit, this team of accomplished students won the 2018-19 Lancaster-Lebanon League Championship and advanced to the State competition, where they secured first place with the final score of 385 points. The team then went on to compete in the 2019 High School National Championship Tournament and placed 12th out of more than 300 teams. I am honored to recognize and congratulate these young students on their exceptional accomplishments at both the State and national levels.

Please join me in welcoming the Hempfield High School Quiz Bowl Team, their advisor, and families to the Pennsylvania Senate.

The PRESIDENT. Would the guests of Senator Aument please rise to be welcomed by the Senate.

(Applause.)

GUESTS OF SENATOR LISA M. BOSCOLA PRESENTED TO THE SENATE

The PRESIDENT. The Chair recognizes the gentlewoman from Northampton, Senator Boscola.

Senator BOSCOLA. Mr. President, I am always honored to have great interns working in my Bethlehem district office throughout the year, and this summer is no different. Today, I have three interns working in the Bethlehem office, and they are in the gallery. As in the past, my interns not only work on regular district office activities, they assist constituents with issues before State government, or provide them with updates on the progress of legislation before the Senate, but they also have issue-related research projects that they will present their findings to me at the end of the summer. These projects not only aid them in learning about a specific issue and how to conduct issue research, but it can assist me in development of new legislative proposals that can be introduced in this body.

First, I recognize Alex Comfort, who this fall will be entering his sophomore year at my alma mater, Villanova University, and, just as I did, Alex is majoring in political science. At Villanova, Alex is very active in Villanova Mock Trial, where he serves as vice president and has received the college Mock Trial Association Regional Top Witness Award. He is also the chief of campus events for Villanova Inter-Hall Council and assistant tour director for Villanova Singers. Alex is a 2018 graduate of Emmaus High School, where he served as student representative on the East Penn School Board.

Second, I am very pleased to introduce Rowan Hickey. This is Rowan's third straight summer interning in my office, and he is just terrific. Rowan will be a senior this fall at Mount Allison University, where he is majoring in international relations with a minor in history. International relations is the perfect major, as Mount Allison is located in the province of New Brunswick in Canada. Rowan is an offensive lineman--you will be able to see that when he stands--on the Mount Allison football team and has served as game-day coordinator at the university for home games in hockey, volleyball, and basketball. He was a semifinalist for the university's most prestigious college scholarship award, the Marjorie Young Bell Scholarship, and has received the university's Presidential Scholarship, and, as all good students, he is also an Eagle Scout. He graduated from Bethlehem Catholic High School in 2016 with high honors. I remember being at his graduation ceremony, and his Eagle Scout ceremony, and then after graduation next summer, Rowan is planning to enter law school.

Finally, I would like the Senate to welcome Liam Tocheny. Liam will be entering his junior year at Muhlenberg College with a double major in political science and history. He has also received a Presidential Scholarship and is a multi-semester member of the dean's list. At Muhlenberg, Liam has worked for the college office of information technology, assisting in ensuring technology is functioning and up-to-date for use by faculty and staff. He has also been a research assistant at Muhlenberg College Institute for Public Opinion. Following his graduation in 2021, Liam hopes to pursue a career in research and advocacy in the nonprofit sector.

I am proud of all of my interns in the office. I thank them all for the great work they have done so far, and I wish them the best of luck in their future endeavors, and I am going to help them in whatever future careers they pursue.

Then, Mr. President, I am also pleased to introduce three constituents who are in the Capitol today as part of the Keystone Boys State. As many of you have been visited by students participating in the program, it is a week-long summertime educational program that focuses on participation and personal experience in a model State, complete with governing bodies and elected public officials. The program is run by the American Legion. They were actually in a committee meeting today where they listened intently on several bills that were voted out of the Committee on State Government. I also give a warm Senate welcome to Anthony Micci of Wilson Area High School, Thomas Stern of Saucon Valley High School, and Chan Ho Kim of Saucon Valley High School.

I ask my colleagues to please give them our usual warm welcome.

The PRESIDENT. Would the guests of Senator Boscola please rise to be welcomed by the Senate.

(Applause.)

GUESTS OF SENATOR ROBERT B. MENSCH PRESENTED TO THE SENATE

The PRESIDENT. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Montgomery, Senator Mensch.

Senator MENSCH. Mr. President, today it is my honor to introduce Patricia and Joseph McQuillin. Joe and Pat have two daughters: Patti, a physician, and Amy, a math teacher in the North Penn School District. Upon graduating high school, Joe worked in engineering while attending college in the evening. Pat worked in the medical insurance business, also while attending college in the evening. Joe enlisted in the Army, serving in the United States Army Security Agency for a period of 6 years. Joe and Pat were married on September 14, 1968. This past August, they celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary. A little early, perhaps, but they celebrated with their family, and they all took a special cruise to Alaska.

For the past 46 years, the McQuillins have operated a very successful photography studio in Lansdale, Pennsylvania. Additionally, both Joe and Pat currently work on school buses, Joe as a driver, and Pat as a bus assistant to special-needs children. In Joe's free time, he likes to wood carve. He especially enjoys carving life-size carousel animals. In Pat's free time, she enjoys reading, gardening, and caring for her animals. Both Joe and Pat love to travel and spend time in Cape May. Even though they have busy lives, they also have time and much love for their grandchildren, Gabby and Adrian, who are with them today in the gallery. Mr. President, join me in giving them our usual warm Senate welcome.

The PRESIDENT. Would the guests of Senator Mensch please rise to be welcomed by the Senate.

(Applause.)

GUESTS OF SENATOR SCOTT F. MARTIN PRESENTED TO THE SENATE

The PRESIDENT. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Lancaster, Senator Martin.

Senator MARTIN. Mr. President, I am pleased to introduce to the Senate Evan Dorenkamp for the purpose of congratulating him on capturing the gold in the Class AAA boys' 1600-meter run during the 2019 PIAA State Track and Field Championships. Evan is accompanied by his uncle, Tim Reese, as well as by several of his coaches and friends. A recent graduate of Manheim Township High School, Evan overcame many obstacles along his path, but with each loss and each injury, he trained harder and ultimately pushed himself to achieving the gold in the 1600 with an astonishing time of 4 minutes and 8.15 seconds.

I am also pleased to announce that as of just this past weekend, Evan also added a few more accomplishments to his resume. He competed in the New Balance National Championship Meet and took home the silver, and was just named a high school All-American. Truly amazing. Evan intends to attend Penn State in the fall, where he plans on studying finance and continuing his running career. I wish him the best of luck. He has truly made his family, friends, school, and community proud. I have no doubt he will continue to do so in the future. Therefore, I ask my colleagues to join me in congratulating this fine young man for his outstanding efforts.

The PRESIDENT. Would the guests of Senator Martin please rise to be welcomed by the Senate.

(Applause.)

Senator MARTIN. Mr. President, I also introduce a young man who has been interning with me this summer, also from Manheim Township High School. As everybody in this body can attest, our district offices help to provide critical services to our constituents, allow us to keep a finger on the pulse of our communities, and they are essential to our relationship with our respective districts. That is why hiring staff for these offices is so vitally important and why I wanted to take a moment to recognize my district office's newest summer intern, Nick Tufano.

Nick is the son of Daniel and Alix Tufano, and brother of Olivia Tufano. He is a recent graduate of Manheim Township High School, where he helped with his school's mini-THON, was captain of the ice hockey team, participated in mock trial, and was heavily involved in student government, serving as class president and Student Council president. He plans on attending Lafayette College in the fall, where he will be majoring in policy studies and economics.

Nick has told me that he hopes to pursue a career surrounding the State or federal government. From what I have seen so far, I have no doubt he will be successful in either pursuit. Therefore, I ask my colleagues to join me in welcoming my newest district office intern, Nick Tufano.

The PRESIDENT. Would the guest of Senator Martin please rise to be welcomed by the Senate.

(Applause.)

GUEST OF SENATOR MICHAEL R. REGAN
PRESENTED TO THE SENATE

The PRESIDENT. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from York, Senator Regan.

Senator REGAN. Mr. President, I am pleased to introduce Olivia Keyser, who is interning in my office this summer. Olivia just completed her freshman year at Liberty University located in Lynchburg, Virginia, where she is majoring in criminal justice with a specialization in strategic intelligence. Olivia hopes to work as an intelligence analyst. She has been an exceptional intern for us, and I have known her for a long time. She played soccer with my daughter, Brooke, for many years. She is just an outstanding person and comes from a really great family. Her parents are Jeffrey and Michelle Keyser. Mr. President, I ask that you and the rest of the Senate give Olivia a warm welcome.

Thank you, Mr. President.

The PRESIDENT. Would the guest of Senator Regan please rise to be welcomed by the Senate.

(Applause.)

GUESTS OF SENATOR PATRICK J. STEFANO
PRESENTED TO THE SENATE

The PRESIDENT. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Fayette, Senator Stefano.

Senator STEFANO. Mr. President, I extend my thanks to our guest Pastor today, who is also my constituent, Reverend Matthew Goldsberry of the Calvary Assembly of God in Connellsville. Reverend Matt has been an Assembly of God minister since 1985. Pastor Matt, as he is best known, has been married to his wife, Yvonne, for almost 39 years. Together they have served in four churches in Wisconsin, Ohio, Indiana, and now, of course, in Pennsylvania, starting their 15th year of ministry at the Calvary Assembly of God. Pastor Matt and his wife have three adult children and four grandchildren. Pastor Matt and the Calvary Assembly are very active in their community, serving as a beacon of hope and help to all. Reverend Goldsberry, or Pastor Matt as we call him, serves on a number of community organizations throughout the community. One of them I belong to as well. We are both members of our Rotary Club of Connellsville, so we are Rotarians. Reverend Matt is joined today by his good friend, Paul Beck.

Pastor Matt would like to thank Senator Kim Ward and myself for the honor to pray blessings and wisdom over the Senate today. So, please join me in giving him a warm Senate welcome.

The PRESIDENT. Would the guests of Senator Stefano please rise to be welcomed by the Senate.

(Applause.)

The PRESIDENT. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Fayette, Senator Stefano.

Senator STEFANO. Mr. President, continuing on with introductions and another member of the Rotary Club of Connellsville, I introduce Rita Smith and her husband, Edwin Robbins. They are constituents of mine in Connellsville. As you can see, Rotarians stick together, so they all came together to come to the Capitol on one of these crazy days. They were both born and raised in the Connellsville area and, after leaving the area for many years, they moved back in the summer of 2014. Rita has worked at the Connellsville Area Community Ministries for the last 4 years and is now serving as executive director for the past year. Edwin is a general manager for the Bob Evans Restaurants since 2015. They have two daughters, Audra and Lana. Please give them a warm Senate welcome.

The PRESIDENT. Would the guests of Senator Stefano please rise to be welcomed by the Senate.

BILL OVER IN ORDER

SB 91 -- Without objection, the bill was passed over in its order at the request of Senator CORMAN.

BILL AMENDED

SB 112 (Pr. No. 508) -- The Senate proceeded to consideration of the bill, entitled:

An Act amending Title 35 (Health and Safety) of the Pennsylvania Consolidated Statutes, in prescribing opioids to minors, providing for prescribing opioids to individuals and further providing for definitions, for prohibition and for procedure; and making editorial changes.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill on third consideration?

Senator MARTIN, on behalf of Senator YAW, offered the following amendment No. A2155:

Amend Bill, page 3, line 20, by inserting a bracket before "or" where it occurs the second time

Amend Bill, page 3, line 20, by inserting a bracket after "or" where it occurs the second time

Amend Bill, page 3, line 22, by inserting a bracket before the period after "cancer"

Amend Bill, page 3, line 22, by inserting after "cancer.":

}; or
(iv) management of pain associated with a major surgical procedure.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the amendment?

The PRESIDENT. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Allegheny, Senator Costa.

Senator COSTA. Mr. President, I intend to not support the amendment. If I understand correctly, this is an amendment that creates an exception, if I am not mistaken, for the management of pain associated with major surgical procedures. In addition to that, it creates an opportunity for prescribing unlimited amounts of opioids along those lines. My concern is that we are creating an exception that could, at some point, create problems for unscrupulous physicians who would want to use that particular provision to be able to dispense an inappropriate amount.

The gentleman from Lycoming County, Senator Yaw, has been at the forefront of this conversation for a number of years, and I certainly respect the work that he has been doing, and I can appreciate what he is trying to accomplish with respect to creating an exception in this space for those individuals who are experiencing major surgery. The concern that I have is that there is no real definition of what a pain associated with a major type of surgery means, and, secondly, what it means as it relates to the length of time that this could continue to be able to prescribe these narcotic drugs to individuals.

For those two reasons, Mr. President, it is my intention to not support this amendment because I believe that it opens up an exception that is far greater than I believe is the intent of what is trying to be accomplished here. If, in fact, it had a limitation on the number of days, and maybe some reference to a specific type of surgery, then I think I would be more comfortable. To that end, I am not supporting the amendment for those reasons.

Thank you, Mr. President.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Centre, Senator Corman.

Senator CORMAN. Mr. President, I ask for an affirmative vote on the amendment. Even if a physician would do an extended period of time on the prescription, they would still have to enter that information and post it with the Pennsylvania Prescription Drug Monitoring Program. I know the concern of unscrupulous physicians, as it was mentioned by the previous speaker, but it still would have to go through the process and register so it would be peer reviewed and looked at publicly if this was a real consideration and real problem. Obviously, major surgery could have significant chronic ailments, and that is why it is an exception just for this one area. I certainly understand the underlying concern that we all have and why we are moving the issues both in a bipartisan way on opioid abuse and trying to curtail prescriptions, but also for those people who are suffering from significant ailments, there is reason to allow some flexibility for the physicians as long as it is still reviewed and still registered with the Prescription Drug Monitoring Program. The concerns are understandable by the Leader on the other side of the aisle, but I think the safeguards are still in place. So I ask for an affirmative vote.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the amendment?

The yeas and nays were required by Senator MARTIN and were as follows, viz:

YEA-28

BILL ON THIRD CONSIDERATION AND FINAL PASSAGE

SB 118 (Pr. No. 998) -- The Senate proceeded to consideration of the bill, entitled:

An Act establishing Recovery-to-work as a pilot program within the Department of Labor and Industry; and providing for local recovery-to-work pilot programs, for incentives to encourage business participation and for powers and duties of the Department of Labor and Industry.

Considered the third time and agreed to,
And the amendments made thereto having been printed as required by the Constitution,

On the question,
Shall the bill pass finally?

The PRESIDENT. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Cambria, Senator Langerholc.

Senator LANGERHOLC. Mr. President, I ask for an affirmative vote for Senate Bill No. 118. Senate Bill No. 118 is the Recovery-to-work act. Meaningful employment is essential to an individual's long-term recovery. This bill would provide a pilot program spearheaded by the Department of Labor and Industry with assistance from the Department of Corrections, DDAP, DHS, DOH, DCED, Probation and Parole, and PCCD. A plan would be developed for workforce investment boards to work with treatment in the recovery community and local employers and training providers for training and employment. Since this involves workforce investment boards, strategies are uniquely tailored to meet the needs of local employers. Reports on the progress will be issued within 1 year.

Mr. President, as a former assistant district attorney and the former lead prosecutor for the Cambria County Drug Task Force, I know firsthand how the opioid epidemic has ravaged our communities across this Commonwealth. I look forward to the impact that this legislation will have to provide meaningful employment for individuals who have battled for so long to recover. I ask for an affirmative vote. Thank you.

On the question,
Will the Senate agree to the amendment?

Senator PHILLIPS-HILL. Mr. President, this amendment clarifies the section of the bill that permits EMS providers to bill insurance companies when they distribute dose packages of Naloxone. This amendment was drafted in consultation and with the assistance of the Department of Insurance, and I respectfully ask my colleagues for an affirmative vote.

Thank you, Mr. President.

SB 432 (Pr. No. 401) -- The Senate proceeded to consideration of the bill, entitled:

An Act amending the act of October 27, 2014 (P.L.2911, No.191), known as the Achieving Better Care by Monitoring All Prescriptions Program (ABC-MAP) Act, further providing for access to prescription information.

Considered the third time and agreed to,

On the question,
Shall the bill pass finally?

The PRESIDENT. The Chair recognizes the gentlewoman from York, Senator Phillips-Hill.

Senator PHILLIPS-HILL. Mr. President, as we all know, in 2014, the General Assembly took the first steps in addressing the heroin and opioid epidemic by passing Act 191 of 2014. Under that act, the Commonwealth established the Pennsylvania Prescription Drug Monitoring Program, designed to prevent and limit prescription drugs by giving prescribers and dispensers more information on those seeking prescription drugs. This legislation would build on that reform and would save significant taxpayer resources while helping the State to better address the opioid and heroin epidemic.

My bill would allow Medicaid-managed care organizations to have access to the information of the Prescription Drug Monitoring Program. By providing these organizations access to the program, the Commonwealth would be able to better identify potential prescription drug abuse among individuals enrolled in the State's Medicaid program. Additionally, this proposal will save taxpayer money in the short term by identifying waste in prescription drug abuse within Medicaid, and it would save taxpayers money in the future by reducing the need for drug treatment and rehabilitation. Mr. President, the Department of Human Services has indicated that they are supportive of this measure and agree that MCOs should have access to the PDMP.

Thank you very much, Mr. President, and I respectfully ask my colleagues for an affirmative vote.

On the question,
Will the Senate advise and consent to the nominations?

POINT OF ORDER

The PRESIDENT. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Philadelphia, Senator Farnese.

Senator FARNESE. Mr. President, I rise to request a ruling pursuant to Rule 20(c)(2).

The PRESIDENT. Senator, will you please state your facts.

Senator FARNESE. Mr. President, Paige M. Willan is a nominee for a position on the State Transportation Commission who is a partner at the law firm where I am employed as of-counsel. Am I permitted to vote on Ms. Willan's nomination?

The PRESIDENT. The Chair thanks Senator Farnese for his inquiry about a conflict of interest. The Chair would rule that in the factual situation just described, there is no conflict of interest and that, in accordance with Senate Rule 20(a)(c), you must vote on this nomination. The Chair does not find that the vote you are about to cast will be particularly personal to you or privately affect you alone, or that you would derive direct pecuniary interest from such a vote. Therefore, it would be the ruling of the Chair that the gentleman be required to vote on this nomination.

And the question recurring,
Will the Senate advise and consent to the nominations?

The yeas and nays were required by Senator AUMENT and were as follows, viz:

SENATE RESOLUTIONS ADOPTED

Senators J. WARD, DINNIMAN, FARNESE, FONTANA, BARTOLOTTA, LANGERHOLC, BREWSTER, MARTIN, BROWNE, PHILLIPS-HILL, KILLION, SCAVELLO, BLAKE, MENSCH, TARTAGLIONE, HUGHES and COSTA, by unanimous consent, offered Senate Resolution No. 173, entitled:

A Resolution recognizing June 24, 2019, as "Cystinuria Awareness Day" in Pennsylvania.

On the question,
Will the Senate adopt the resolution?

The PRESIDENT. The Chair recognizes the gentlewoman from Blair, Senator J. Ward.

Senator J. WARD. Mr. President, I offer this resolution recognizing June 24, 2019, as "Cystinuria Awareness Day" in Pennsylvania. I am offering this resolution on behalf of a young woman I met who is battling this disease. Cystinuria occurs in individuals in which a rare genetic defect prevents the body from regulating amino acid concentration, subsequently leading to elevated levels of cystine and the formation of cystine stones in the kidney, ureter, and bladder. Cystinuria patients often endure episodes of debilitating pain, nausea, vomiting, and recurrent urinary tract infections. Patients may also suffer from life-threatening complications such as hypertension, renal insufficiency, end-stage renal disease, and the need for a kidney transplant. The majority of patients will require numerous stone removal procedures and surgeries. One in every 10,000 Americans are believed to be genetically at risk for cystinuria. In Pennsylvania, there are 30 known cases of this disorder. That being said, I ask for your support for this resolution to raise awareness about cystinuria and to show support for research at the Pennsylvania medical research centers that take an active role in the fight against cystinuria.

Thank you, Mr. President.

And the question recurring,
Will the Senate adopt the resolution?

A voice vote having been taken, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Senators LAUGHLIN, BROOKS, BREWSTER, STREET, FARNESE, LANGERHOLC, ARGALL, DINNIMAN, FOLMER, PHILLIPS-HILL, FONTANA, MARTIN, SCAVELLO, HUGHES, GORDNER, SCHWANK, K. WARD, BROWNE, COSTA, BAKER, HUTCHINSON, KILLION, YUDICHAK, AUMENT, MENSCH, BLAKE, TARTAGLIONE, BARTOLOTTA, HAYWOOD, J. WARD and KEARNEY, by unanimous consent, offered Senate Resolution No. 174, entitled:

A Resolution recognizing the 100th anniversary of ratification of the 19th Amendment, the constitutional amendment extending equal voting rights to women.

On the question,
Will the Senate adopt the resolution?

The PRESIDENT. The Chair recognizes the gentlewoman from Mercer, Senator Brooks.

Senator BROOKS. Mr. President, when I bring young students onto the Senate floor, I often tell them the story about Violet Oakley, the famous painter who was not even permitted to view the murals she had painted in this magnificent Chamber. She was prohibited from entering because of one reason, and one reason only: that was, she was a woman. This tidbit of history was one that Lieutenant Governor Catherine Baker Knoll told me when I was first elected to the House in 2006. Fast-forward to today, when we have 12 women in the Senate and more than 50 women in the House. One-fourth of the Legislature is comprised of women today. When I tell the story to young children who are visiting the building, the students are shocked that only 100 years ago women were taken directly to a ladies-in-waiting room while their husbands did their business here in the Capitol. As you know, Mr. President, one of those ladies-in-waiting rooms is in your office. They are also shocked to learn that women were not given the right to vote until 1919, a full century ago, and were ultimately permitted to vote for the first time in 1920.

In celebration of this milestone in history, I rise today with Senator Laughlin to commemorate the 100th anniversary of women's right to vote brought about by the ratification of the 19th Amendment to the U.S. Constitution. Many community organizations, including the League of Women Voters, will celebrate this milestone with events that begin this month and continue through August 18, 2020, the date the 19th Amendment was ultimately ratified. The campaign for women's rights to vote represented one of the longest and largest grassroots movements in American political history. Commencing in the late 1800s, strong women of principle gathered in meetings and marches to assert their rights to assemble and dissent on behalf of women's suffrage. For more than 50 years, they forged a nonviolent, mass movement that embraced decades of strategic outreach and persistence. In 1915, Pennsylvania voters actually defeated a statewide referendum giving women the right to vote. Three years later, President Woodrow Wilson endorsed women's suffrage as a wartime measure. In a major victory, the U.S. Congress approved the measure on June 4, 1919, and Pennsylvania went on to become the fourth State to ratify it on June 24, 1919. By August 18, 1920, the required 36 State legislatures had ratified and approved the Susan B. Anthony amendment. Ultimately, all 50 States went on to ratify the change.

After decades of advocacy, millions of women voted in national elections for the first time ever in 1920. The story of how women won the vote embodies the highest ideals of democracy and civic engagement and highlights the remarkable women who led the charge, leaving behind a proud and inspiring legacy of bravery and sense of purpose.

Please join us in honoring this successful transformative landmark in our Commonwealth's and our nation's history.

Thank you, Mr. President.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Erie, Senator Laughlin.

Senator LAUGHLIN. Mr. President, I rise to support my fellow Senator, Senator Brooks, in this resolution. I rise to speak on this resolution commemorating the 100th anniversary of the 19th Amendment to the U.S. Constitution, which granted women the right to vote. Today, the impact of that landmark amendment has faded somewhat, as society has seemingly forgotten the uphill battle against the millenia of chauvinistic history waged by dedicated women such as Susan B. Anthony, Alice Paul, Carrie Chapman Catt, and Elizabeth Cady Stanton.

The women's suffrage movement in America can be traced back to an 1848 convention in Seneca Falls, New York. That meeting was well before the 1870 enactment of the 15th Amendment, which stated the right of citizens of the United States to vote shall not be denied or abridged on account of race, color, or previous condition of servitude. Of course, that amendment did not include women, and the battle continued on. Over the ensuing years, the suffrage movement grew in strength and scope and, as such, led to one not very glorious day for the U.S. House of Representatives. On January 12, 1915, Congress took up the issue of women's suffrage during a 10-hour debate. Those officials certainly spoke their minds in a manner that was very much reflective of the sentiments of the male-dominated society of the early twentieth century, and, of course, this was a time before political correctness, C-SPAN, and social media. Speaking on the issue, North Carolina Congressman Edwin Webb is recorded as saying, (reading:)

Mr. Speaker, I am opposed to woman suffrage, but I am not opposed to woman. I am unwilling, as a southern man, to force upon her any burden which will distract this loving potentate from her sacred, God-imposed duties. I am unwilling to force her into the vortex of politics, where her sensitiveness and her modesty will often be offended.

Congressman Charles Carter from Oklahoma added:

Were it not for shattering an ideal, were it not for dethroning her from that high pedestal upon which we are accustomed to place her, and dragging her down to the level of us beastly men, I believe I might even today be willing to vote for universal woman suffrage.

In fact, during the 1915 floor debate, Democratic Congressman Edward Taylor of Colorado offered that:

In future years, we will look back and marvel at the supreme effrontery of the male population arrogating to themselves all the wisdom, honesty, and patriotism for so many generations after generations. Posterity will be amazed when it reads the history of the many centuries that women were disenfranchised.

These brief comments clearly show that suffrage and women's roles in our nation were very much societal issues, and any changes to the status quo would have to confront and overcome deeply entrenched beliefs and biases.

As such, on January 12, 1915, the suffrage amendment failed in Congress by a vote of 204 to 174. It would take 4 more years and the courageous efforts of women across our nation before Congress approved the 19th Amendment on June 4, 1919. On June 24, 1919, Pennsylvania became the fourth State to ratify the amendment. This marked a major turnaround in public opinion from 1915, when a women's suffrage referendum was defeated by the State electorate. A little more than a year later, enough States had ratified the amendment, and the rest, they say, is history. However, Mr. President, this is a history and a struggle that must be memorialized and never forgotten.

I ask for an affirmative vote. Thank you.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate adopt the resolution?

A voice vote having been taken, the question was determined in the affirmative.

PETITIONS AND REMONSTRANCES

The PRESIDENT. The Chair recognizes the gentlewoman from Philadelphia, Senator Tartaglione.

Senator TARTAGLIONE. Mr. President, today marks 4,727 days since the Pennsylvania legislature last raised our minimum wage. Mr. President, this is far too long. By any reasonable measure, $7.25 an hour is a poverty wage. Yet, as I stand here today, I remain hopeful that our General Assembly will soon, at long last, agree on a minimum wage plan that offers Pennsylvania's low-wage workers the relief they deserve. I am hopeful because the citizens of the Commonwealth want it to happen. Seventy percent, let me say that again, 70 percent of registered voters say they want a higher minimum wage. I am also hopeful because raising the minimum wage right now makes sense for workers, business, and for our economy. But, most of all, I am hopeful because of the people who are uniting behind this cause, people like home healthcare workers who gathered for a rally outside this Chamber yesterday afternoon. Those of us who attended the rally heard from a woman named Grace Johnson, a home healthcare worker from Pittsburgh. Grace has dedicated her life to taking care of others, including her sister who now has epilepsy and diabetes. Grace cooks for her sister, cleans, does her shopping, takes her to the doctor, and helps her with many other essential life tasks. Grace works with other clients, too, yet she does not make enough money to support her own two children or even herself. As she tells it, she gets up every day wanting to make other people's lives better. But when she comes home every day, she can barely keep a roof over her head. Grace makes less than $12 an hour and hates that she depends on house subsidies, welfare, and food banks to make ends meet.

Mr. President, she is not alone. Pennsylvania has 220,000 direct care workers. Their median hourly wage is just $11 an hour. More than half of those workers rely on public assistance to fill the gap created by stagnant wages. As Pennsylvania's population ages rapidly, we need 37,000 more direct care workers by 2026. Frankly, we will never satisfy the dire need if we do not act now to improve the wages they earn. My legislation, Senate Bill No. 12, will give immediate raises to those 220,000 direct care workers, as well as workers across an array of employment sectors like food service, hospitality, retail, manufacturing, administrative services, and educational support. It would establish the Commonwealth as a national leader on minimum wage, and it would grant millions of Pennsylvanians the financial independence that they have worked so long and so hard to earn.

Thank you, Mr. President.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Allegheny, Senator Costa.

Senator COSTA. Mr. President, I rise, certainly, to begin my remarks by supporting the good work of our colleague, the gentlewoman from Philadelphia County, in her consistent pursuit of trying to address the issue of minimum wage. Mr. President, I, too, am very disappointed that we are not at a place in time where we are beginning to have serious conversations about this legislation. The gentlewoman has introduced Senate Bill No. 12, which is a modest increase in the minimum wage, which we think we should be talking about. If it may not be where folks want to be, let us at least have a dialogue. Mr. President, I know in my heart that the Members in this Chamber are supportive of doing something along the lines of increasing the minimum wage and addressing, similarly, the tip wages as well, which is part of the gentlewoman's legislation. It seems to me that the problem is on the other side of this building, and while we recognize that, I think despite that fact and despite knowing that--when I say the other side of the building, I mean over in the House--I believe it is important that we work together to be able to fashion a piece of legislation, minimum wage legislation, that we could then move over to the House to begin to apply the appropriate pressure to get those Members over there to understand how important, how critically important, it is to impact the quality of lives of the men and women who are impacted by this, the numbers that Senator Tartaglione talked about.

Mr. President, we have the opportunity in the limited number of days here. We have vehicles that are already in place to be considered. We have an opportunity, in the next couple of days of this week but, more importantly, the 4 or 5 days, maybe 6 days we will be here next week, to bring this conversation to closure. It is time for Pennsylvania to raise its minimum wage.

As you look across every other State that surrounds us, and I wish I had the map that I had before, Mr. President, to show the viewers, Pennsylvania is the only State that has not raised its minimum wage in a number of years. When we look at New York and New Jersey, I believe on January 1 it is going to go to $11 an hour. All the other States around us, at a minimum, are around $8.75 or $8.55, with projected increases in the upcoming January 1 timeline. It is imperative for us, in this Chamber, to lead this effort by looking to increase the minimum wage, particularly Senate Bill No. 12. If that is not going to work, let us talk about what will work, because we know that the Governor is on board for this measure, and we will continue to fight, as we did a number of years ago, when the gentlewoman spoke about it. Senate Democrats will continue to make this the highest priority as it relates to these last 9 or 10 days we are here in Harrisburg.

There are other measures that are important, but this is one that seems to be getting left behind in our negotiations and in our conversations. To me, that is unconscionable because the lives that we are impacting along those lines are the people who want to be able to have a standard of living, a good family working wage that allows them to raise themselves out of poverty and raise themselves out of the benefits they are receiving so they can become productive members of society. Mr. President, as the Governor has pointed out, it generates about $120 million in tax revenue for the Commonwealth. That is what we should be talking about on this Senate floor, and we should move forward on that.

Similarly, Mr. President, there are two other bills that I will speak about again today. I rise again today to talk about the lack of effort, the lack of consideration of two measures, Senate Bill No. 310 and Senate Bill No. 311. This legislation would look to and require our integrated healthcare delivery systems to contract with one another, and if they did not do it, they would do a binding arbitration. We know that the Commonwealth Court has ruled against the continuation of the consent decree between Highmark and UPMC. I am disappointed, certainly, in the outcome, but at the end of the day, we know it will be before the Supreme Court in the next day or so. I ask my colleagues to join us in an amicus brief to support the efforts of the Attorney General to try to do that.

This all can be fixed very simply. If we, in this General Assembly, or, more specifically, in this Senate, have the will to consider Senate Bill No. 310 and Senate Bill No. 311, we would be able to provide an appropriate remedy to allow the people, in this case in western Pennsylvania, the opportunity to be able to visit the doctors they want to visit, go to the facilities they want to go to to have procedures done, not have to pay in advance for procedures, but also looking forward to being able to have the opportunity to receive the care that they are entitled to from a nonprofit agency that has benefitted from the work the people in this Commonwealth have done, specifically, as it relates to the resources we have provided, and will continue to provide, in this upcoming budget. Looking to make certain that we do things along the lines of insuring that the people in this Commonwealth have access to the appropriate level of care.

Now, listen, Mr. President, this is about quality of care and the people who provide it in these two facilities. These two entities, these two integrated healthcare delivery systems, UPMC and Highmark, provide exceptional healthcare. They deliver it very, very well. More importantly, their docs and their facilities are some of the best in the country, state of the art, and are making investments in our community. But, to me, it is unconscionable that somebody who lives two blocks away from what would be a world-renowned vision center in uptown Pittsburgh, that somebody two blocks away who has a Highmark card will be denied access to one of the most world-renowned vision centers that we are going to have with some of the leading researchers. That is unconscionable. We should not allow that to happen. People in this Chamber are preventing that from happening and that has to change.

I asked the question yesterday, what did you do when you had the opportunity to do something good for people? What did you do when you were in charge and you had the opportunity to make a difference? In this particular case, Mr. President, there is silence. There is silence out of the Committee on Banking and Insurance. I am very disappointed. After two letters asking for at least a consideration of either one of those pieces of legislation, I have not heard a word back. That is disappointing. That is how we are operating here. These are measures that impact the quality of lives of people across our Commonwealth with respect to the minimum wage and also in southwestern Pennsylvania today. It is coming to your neighborhoods, Mr. President, sooner than you realize. Until we get our arms around how we define public charities in this Commonwealth, this is going to be a problem for Pennsylvanians. We need to address it in this Chamber. We still have time to be able to do it before June 30. I am asking my colleagues to consider moving Senate Bill No. 310 and Senate Bill

No. 311 out of the Committee on Banking and Insurance, or, at minimum, asking them for an opportunity for a hearing or discussion along those lines to find out what we can do to be able to advance this measure.

Thank you, Mr. President.
