SESSION OF 2019 203RD OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY

No. 34

SENATE

MONDAY, June 24, 2019

The Senate met at 1 p.m., Eastern Daylight Saving Time.

The PRESIDENT pro tempore (Senator Joseph B. Scarnati III) in the Chair.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Reverend BRETT IAN JENKINS, Pastor of Holy Cross Evangelical Lutheran Church, Nazareth, offered the following prayer:

Let us pray.

Gracious, good, and Holy God, in whom we live and move and have our being, treasury of good things and giver of all life, we thank You for the gift and responsibility of liberty, for time and opportunity to serve our fellow human beings, and for the diversity of perspectives and abilities that permit us even in our human limitations to labor toward truth and justice for respectful cooperation. Since apart from You we fall into chaos and violence, draw us, who so easily stray, ever closer to Yourself. Keep us mindful of the accounting we must someday give for all that we have done and left undone. Let us act in accord with Your will and wisdom. With respect for the faith of all those here present, I offer this prayer in the name of Jesus Christ. Amen.

The PRESIDENT pro tempore. The Chair thanks Pastor Jenkins, who is the guest today of Senator Scavello.

PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE

(The Pledge of Allegiance was recited by those assembled.)

BILLS OVER IN ORDER

SB 91, SB 174, HB 195, SB 200, HB 262 and HB 318 --

Without objection, the bills were passed over in their order at the request of Senator CORMAN.

BILL ON THIRD CONSIDERATION AND FINAL PASSAGE

SB 325 (Pr. No. 307) -- The Senate proceeded to consideration of the bill, entitled:

An Act amending the act of May 22, 1951 (P.L.317, No.69), known as The Professional Nursing Law, providing for the definition of "certified registered nurse anesthetist"; further providing for registered nurse, clinical nurse specialist, use of title and abbreviation "R.N." or "C.N.S." and credentials and fraud; and providing for certified registered nurse anesthetist and qualifications.

Considered the third time and agreed to,

On the question, Shall the bill pass finally?

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Columbia, Senator Gordner.

Senator GORDNER. Madam President, I rise in support of Senate Bill No. 325. Just again, for the benefit of the Members of the Senate, this is strictly a title protection bill. If you are not familiar with this particular bill, 48 States have the CRNA recognition. We are now one of only two States that remain that have not done this. Over 15 years ago, we adopted legislation for the other advanced practice nurses, that would be for the CRNPs, where we gave them their title protection, and also for the nurse midwives, we gave them their title protection. That was over 15 years ago. The one that we have not yet done is for nurse anesthetists. This does not expand their practice one bit, one iota, one paragraph, one sentence, or one letter. This is strictly a title protection bill, and it says if you have this education, then you are able to call yourself a certified registered nurse anesthetist, like nurse anesthetists in 48 other States.

There are several drawbacks for us remaining one of the two States that has not done that. One is for military folks. If you are in the military and you get your designation in Pennsylvania and you get stationed, my daughter lives in San Antonio, Texas, for instance, and you get stationed at Lackland Air Force Base, you are not immediately able to call yourself a CRNA and start to do the work because there are several hoops that you have to go through because Pennsylvania is one of the two States that does not have that recognition. This, for our military and our veterans, is important to not have them go through the hoops that they have to go through when they get the training here and then are stationed somewhere else.

The other thing that is really embarrassing is, if there is a national emergency and we need medical personnel to go to Florida, Texas, or somewhere where a hurricane or flood has hit, our nurse anesthetists are not able to go. Why? Because those folks in the emergency situation need folks to get involved immediately, and because we do not have that CRNA designation, they are not able to get that, and they are not able to help in those national emergencies.

This bill passed 49 to 1 last Session. I am looking, again, for a large passage today, and I hope that we can finally get the bill to the Governor so that we do not become the 50th State, at least we are the 49th State, in order to get this done.

Thank you, Madam President.

And the question recurring, Shall the bill pass finally?

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution and were as follows, viz:

On the question,
Will the Senate agree to the amendment?

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Chair recognizes the gentlewoman from Montgomery, Senator Muth.

Senator MUTH. Madam President, House Bill No. 1172 is a very important piece of legislation. It makes it easier for people to continue their profession when they move into Pennsylvania. We do not want to dissuade good, hardworking people from creating a life here and contributing to the success of our Commonwealth. However, this bill fails to dissuade those who are truly dangerous from moving to Pennsylvania, leaving a dangerous loophole for past offenders who move into our State and continue to harm others. In its current form, the bill gives discretion to the licensure boards and commissions to give provisional licenses to those who have committed offenses in their workplace or harmed patients or consumers. This includes cases, if they were to move into our Commonwealth, similar to Larry Nassar or physician Jack Barto, those types of people would be able to possibly continue their abuse or harm in Pennsylvania with board-approved and government-stamped licenses.

Dr. Barto, a pediatric physician in the Johnstown area, was first accused of endangering patients in 1994, and those allegations were swept under the rug with settlement payments. Again accused in 2000 by several patients with credible allegations, his license was taken away. A mere 2 1/2 months later, the board chose to ignore the evidence and rely on his community reputation and restored his license because, quote, the allegations are incongruous to his reputation. It is remarkable that part of the decision to reinstate his license was due to there being, quote, no apparent justification for the delayed complaint. It took 4 years for one of these families to come forward. In December of 2017, after 43 years of practice, Barto was arrested. He assaulted three children 2 days before that arrest. Simple math shows 12 patients per week since his license being restored in 2000, he would have easily been able to harm and commit over 10,972 exact preventable assault or instances of patient harm.

The main reason for a license is so that Pennsylvania consumers can feel secure in utilizing a person's service. This amendment would insure that provisional licenses are not issued to those who have a history of harming others by the mere opinion of the licensing board, those with a history of sexual misconduct or abuse, drug or alcohol abuse that resulted in harm to an individual during the applicant's services, drug or alcohol abuse that resulted in unsafe practice in the area in which the applicant was licensed, and, finally, a criminal conviction involving the harm or safety of an individual in which the applicant had previously been licensed to serve. We, as elected officials, as public servants, as moral humans, have an obligation and a duty to protect Pennsylvanians, our constituents, and citizens. This is a critical amendment to insure that past or current offenders from other States cannot move into our Commonwealth and possibly harm or endanger our people.

I ask all of my colleagues to support this amendment. Thank you.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Centre, Senator Corman.

Senator CORMAN. Madam President, I think, certainly, the amendment is very well intended and certainly trying to capture a very important issue. But I am going to ask for a negative vote, because as we have been moving through the process of criminal justice reform, we have been trying to go through the process of allowing more discretion at the local level, at the court level, and less mandates from Harrisburg, so that they can make decisions on a case-by-case basis instead of sort of a strict one-size-fits-all.

Yes, this does give the boards or commissions more discretion, and, yes, I am sure boards or commissions will make mistakes from time to time, just as courts will, juries will, judges will, from time to time. The question is, where is this decision better made? Is it here in this building or is it better on a case-by-case basis in front of these boards or commissions? So, as well intended as the amendment is, and certainly understandable what the maker of the amendment is trying to achieve, I think we are better allowing that discretion at each of the boards or commissions. So, I ask for a negative vote.

And the question recurring,
Will the Senate agree to the amendment?

The yeas and nays were required by Senator MUTH and were as follows, viz:

YEA-23

Blake	Farnese	Langerholc	Street
Boscola	Fontana	Leach	Tartaglione
Brewster	Haywood	Muth	Williams, Anthony H

SPECIAL ORDER OF BUSINESS
SUPPLEMENTAL CALENDAR No. 1

BILL ON THIRD CONSIDERATION AND FINAL PASSAGE

SB 751 (Pr. No. 1055) -- The Senate proceeded to consideration of the bill, entitled:

An Act amending the act of March 10, 1949 (P.L.30, No.14), known as the Public School Code of 1949, in professional employees, further providing for rating system and for persons to be suspended and providing for a revised rating system.

Considered the third time and agreed to,

And the amendments made thereto having been printed as required by the Constitution,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Lancaster, Senator Aument.

Senator AUMENT. Madam President, I open by first thanking all of those who have engaged and worked with me on Senate Bill No. 751, my colleagues on both sides of the aisle, the Pennsylvania Department of Education, and all of the various stakeholder groups who have provided such valuable input. Thank you for your time, your engagement, and your feedback. I especially thank those students, families, school administrators, and classroom teachers who have reached out to me over the last 7 years to share concerns, often pulling me aside and speaking with me during classroom visits. As I did during the meeting of the Committee on Education last week, I specifically mention Bryan Hower and Steve Heffner, educators who have engaged with me on numerous instances with respect to the implementation of the statewide teacher evaluation system. I thank superintendents Dr. Mike Leichter and Dr. Bob Hollister. Thank you for your civil manner in which you have engaged, and thank you for your patience with me.

As I said last week during the meeting of the Committee on Education, as the prime sponsor of the original teacher evaluation system that was established in law in 2012, I must confess some pride of authorship. However, I have found that humility in authorship is a far better approach. We have a responsibility as legislators to constantly have our basic assumptions challenged. It is appropriate to look back on the work we have done to gather feedback and make adjustments as needed. It has been a privilege for me to work with our educators over the last number of years to develop this proposal. The bill I offer for consideration today is the direct result of their feedback and input.

I would like to highlight, very briefly, a number of the major changes that have been made with this proposal. First, the observation, which currently consists of 50 percent of an educator's evaluation, we are proposing increases to 70 percent. The building level weight lessens, 10 percent, down from 15 percent, and the teacher-specific weight increases to 20 percent, up from 15 percent. Second, and I think this is groundbreaking territory for Pennsylvania, something we can all be proud of, this new system seeks to acknowledge the impact of poverty on a student's academic achievement and the overall school environment. Third, the current system ties all employees to standardized test scores. This new system provides a different formula for different employees based on their content area and responsibilities. Additionally, this proposal sees a reduction in the reliance on standardized assessment, and I believe follows up the important work that this General Assembly initiated last Session when we opened up multiple pathways to graduation, and not basing a child's sole path to graduation on a standardized test score. The language also speaks to a mid-year review, reduces the look-back period, and very significantly enhances the professional development for our educators, insuring our educators are adequately trained on the new system. Finally, it requires the Department of Education to conduct a report on the teacher evaluation system in 5 years of implementation, which shall be sent to the House and Senate Committees on Education.

Madam President, I believe the data is clear that the quality of a teacher in the classroom is the number one in-school factor driving student academic achievement. This bill represents a significant step forward for our Commonwealth, recognizing our educators as the professionals they are, and providing them with useful and meaningful feedback that they deserve. Furthermore, I believe these changes will unleash the creativity of our teachers and innovation in a classroom, leading to improved academic outcomes for our students. Madam President, I urge my colleagues to vote in support of Senate Bill No. 751. Thank you.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Chair recognizes the gentlewoman from Allegheny, Senator L. Williams.

Senator L. WILLIAMS. Madam President, first, I acknowledge Senator Aument for his work on this bill. It is rare for an elected official to admit on the record that he was wrong and then work to fix it. There are some good things in the bill. For example, shortening the look-back period from 10 years to 4 years. There are some things that are a step in the right direction. For example, for non-teaching professional employees, i.e. counselors, social workers, and nurses, the bill moves from 20 percent of the score being student outcomes on testing to 10 percent. This is a step in the right direction, but if we cannot isolate a nurse's effect on a student's PSSA or Keystone score, they should not be evaluated on it. Another step in the right direction is moving from 50 percent observation and 50 percent student outcomes to 70-30 percent. I would prefer 80-20, however, I understand that there are compromises necessary in any bill.

However, the creation of a poverty index that has not been fully tested is troubling. I believe that it is well-intentioned for the first time to acknowledge the effect that poverty has on a building score and how that can artificially depress an educator's score. The issue is that the score has not been fully and publicly vetted. Additionally, because the formula is included in a statute, as opposed to regulation, if we get it wrong, it will require an act of this body to fix it, and in the meantime, it will negatively affect educators across the Commonwealth.

The speed with which this bill is moving is concerning. We have the opportunity to fix a broken evaluation system, and as they say, the devil is in the details, and there are a lot of details in this bill, both that educators and administrators have yet to sort out. I will be a "no" vote until we more fully examine the details of this bill. Thank you.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Allegheny, Senator Costa.

Senator COSTA. Madam President, I rise to support and echo the comments of the gentlewoman from Allegheny County, specifically as it relates to some of the benefits that are part of this legislation and the work that has been done along those lines. The disappointing part to me, Madam President, has been the fact that the school district I represent, the city of Pittsburgh, felt as though they were not given an ample opportunity to be part of this conversation and dialogue as part of the PFT, and for that reason, was one of the major concerns they had. While, at the same time, I recognize that uniformity is important and things will take place across this Commonwealth, it is important for folks to know that in the city of Pittsburgh, we have dealt with the teacher evaluation issue for a number of years. In fact, we worked very closely with the Gates Foundation in the city of Pittsburgh and have been able to develop and implement a teacher evaluation program that was really a role model for other parts of the country. At the end of the day, the Department of Education signed off on it and it became something unique to Pennsylvania along those lines. All of that would be disrupted, all of the good work and tens of millions of dollars that have been spent along those lines in this particular case, to go back and develop a new process would upend all of the work that was done already.

At the end of the day, Madam President, I heard from both the Pittsburgh public school administrators, who were opposed to the legislation for some of the reasons the gentlewoman spoke about, and also from PFT themselves as it relates to the concerns that they have on some of the things that were raised. For those reasons, I am going to stand and support the school district that I am honored to represent, given the concerns that they raised with me, and I intend to vote "no." Thank you.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Chester, Senator Dinniman.

Senator DINNIMAN. Madam President, would Senator Aument stand for interrogation?

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Senator Aument, it has been requested that you stand for interrogation on the bill. Do you agree to stand for interrogation?

Senator AUMENT. Madam President, I do. Thank you.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Senator Dinniman, the questions will be sent through the Chair, and he has agreed to accept the questions.

Senator DINNIMAN. Madam President, I understand.

Might you ask the gentleman, since the major dispute is on the poverty factor, which has not been fully vetted and yet will be put in statute, whether he is open, this coming fall, for further review of that factor? It is my understanding that this evaluation does not go into effect, I believe, until 2021, and throughout the fall, and, if necessary, into the spring, so those who feel they have not had a say, Madam President, who are coming from high-poverty districts such as Philadelphia and Pittsburgh, would the gentleman be open to such discussion and change if the facts would mean that we have to create change?

Thank you, Madam President.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Senator Aument, our colleague from Chester County has indicated there are concerns about the dispute about the poverty factor and whether you would be open to further conversation and discussion as this initiative moves forward.

Senator AUMENT. Madam President, I thank the gentleman for his question. The fact that I am standing here 7 years after the legislation that I sponsored became law in 2012 and that I have continued to have this conversation with our educators and our administrators testifies to the fact that I am most certainly willing to have an ongoing conversation and make changes and adjustments as necessary.

With respect to the poverty factor, we seek to use data that is already being reported from our school districts to the Department of Education. We have worked very closely with the Department of Education on developing the poverty factor, and we have been very intentional about delaying the implementation of this legislation until the 2021-22 school year. We are taking adequate time to develop and implement this system, and we also have reporting requirements, specifically so that we can see what impact the poverty factor is having on educators' evaluations so we can make the adjustments as necessary.

Senator DINNIMAN. Madam President, I do have another question. In these further deliberations, which I am delighted that the gentleman from Lancaster County is fully supportive of, will he make sure that those who feel that they were not included, as AFT and PFT chapters, Philadelphia and Pittsburgh, be fully included in those discussions? Madam President, would he make that effort?

Senator AUMENT. Madam President, I appreciate that question as well. Absolutely. I will continue to be open and transparent, as I have throughout this process. For the last 2 years, I have, on numerous instances, at public hearings, Committee on Appropriations hearings, Committee on Education hearings, op-eds, and media interviews, I have discussed my intention to introduce this legislation. I have discussed the various components of that legislation, and nearly every stakeholder took advantage of that opportunity to meet with me and express their concerns, and their feedback and their input was taken very seriously. Unfortunately, not every stakeholder group did so. The invitation remains. The arm is outstretched. I am more than happy to meet with them, and I look forward to the feedback that any of those who might be interested in this legislation would offer.

Senator DINNIMAN. Madam President, a final question before comments. The Pittsburgh School District, their evaluation was developed, in part, through the Gates Foundation, and I remember distinctly requesting that the Department of Education would make an exception to the way a teacher was evaluated based on the grant that they had received, which was a very substantial grant at that time. Would the maker of this bill be open to any discussions that might take place in relationship to the Gates Foundation grant and support as it relates to teacher evaluations so that the work over many years of the Gates Foundation at Pittsburgh schools might continue on?

Senator AUMENT. Madam President, absolutely. As I mentioned in my earlier comments, I would be delighted to meet with any administrator, any educator, and any stakeholder who has an interest in this issue.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Chester, Senator Dinniman.

Senator DINNIMAN. Madam President, in committee I opposed this bill because I wanted to make sure that our Senators from Pittsburgh and Philadelphia, who make up a significant part of our Caucus, would have a chance here, on the floor, to make comments and to vote. We do have assurances that the main concerns of the PFT chapters: that of having a full vetting of the poverty factor; that of the willingness, if appropriate, to change that factor based on the facts; that of making sure that the PFT chapters are fully involved in such vetting; and that if we discover there are any exceptions that have to be made based on the Gates Foundation grants that were given, just as we have done in the past, that would certainly be open fully for discussion. I do feel that I can support this.

Here is the key factor, and I thank Senator Aument for all his work. The gentleman from Lancaster County and I have gone through a learning experience together. I give him credit. He first supported the standardized test, as he admits, he put the first bill in based on testing. But a great tribute to Senator Aument, or to any Senator, is that through discussion and dialogue, we learned. I learned a great deal from Senator Aument as well, and I am happy to say that, in terms of what standards are and the necessity to keep those standards. That is what this process is all about.

So, understand, in supporting this bill, we have really, many of us in the Senate--and we want to make sure that PFT is involved in our continuation of doing this--have been trying to create a three-legged stool. The first leg of the stool was to make it clear that the Keystone test is not the end-all and be-all of whether a student should graduate. It is an objection to the whole standardized testing approach, and I thank the chairmen before Senator Aument - my colleague from Lebanon County and others who are not here anymore - as we, together, united on that principle. Last year we accomplished that, that there are various ways for graduation.

The second leg was that if the Keystones are no longer the only way to graduate, then the testing based on the Keystones, the evaluation based on the Keystones, does not make much sense anymore, does it? For example, what the Senate might not realize is, based on how evaluations are done now, in our high schools, that 50-percent score based on testing is really based on the teaching of teachers only in three subject areas. So I, as a music teacher, an art teacher, a history teacher, am dependent on what the biology, the English, and the algebra teacher do. That does not make any sense at all, and this bill aims to correct that. We are especially happy to note that we are going to try to find new and more creative ways to evaluate music and art. These are subjects where written evaluation is not the most appropriate.

Finally, the third leg of the stool, I am happy to say, the process has begun. That is, if the Keystones are no longer viewed as a valid test, the Department of Education itself has said that the Keystones are not a good way to test college and career readiness, we now have various ways to graduate. If the department itself has said that our teachers, unfortunately, are teaching to the test and other parts of the curriculum are being ignored, that we will now take the final step. The final step is to end the Keystones as part of Federal accountability and replace them with the SAT, which is a valid test which takes 1 day to take instead of 10, and you get results back in a month rather than waiting a whole year. I am happy to report that a bill that Senator Aument put in that I supported, though we tussled a little about the wording of the bill, that report is out. That report makes it quite clear that the Keystone is not the answer, even in terms of Federal accountability, and I hope you will read it. It was given to everyone. Hopefully, we can get to the third part and replace the Keystones with the SAT, because this is one leg of the stool I need to support so we can get to all three legs of the stool.

As long as the PFT is going to be included now fully, then my questions have been answered. I thank Senator Aument for his leadership on this issue, and I am proud to have worked with him, and I thank him for learning, and I want to tell him that I have learned, too. Together, that is what we all should do as Senators, right? Is to learn from each other, listen to each other, and that is how we create great legislation.

Thank you, Madam President.

A Resolution establishing a task force on services for veterans, including the coordination of services in this Commonwealth among Federal, State, local and nonprofit programs aimed at serving veterans, and directing the Joint State Government Commission to establish an advisory committee to the task force and conduct a comprehensive review and analysis of services for veterans.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The resolution will be placed on the Calendar.

SENATE RESOLUTIONS ADOPTED

Senators DINNIMAN, BREWSTER, SANTARSIERO, KILLION, BARTOLOTTA, FONTANA, SABATINA, COSTA, SCHWANK, FARNESE, MARTIN, J. WARD, GORDNER, HUGHES, YUDICHAK, PITTMAN, AUMENT, SCAVELLO and MASTRIANO, by unanimous consent, offered Senate Resolution No. 180, entitled:

A Resolution congratulating the YMCA on its 175th birthday.

On the question,
Will the Senate adopt the resolution?

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Chester, Senator Dinniman.

Senator DINNIMAN. Madam President, one of the most interesting things was reading the resolution as it was written. I did not realize the Y went back 175 years. That is a pretty incredible history. The first Y was actually founded in 1844 in England, and the first one in the United States was in 1851. In 1853, a freed slave named Anthony Bowen created the first Y for people of African American descent. After the Civil War, in 1867, was the first dorm space and what we think of as the traditional Y with a gymnasium, with dorms, et cetera. That, along with the YWCA movement, was to give people a good, clean place to live, a place in which they could meet, express their faith, and assert their community values. In fact, in 1967, the Y became one of the first organizations in the United States to ban racial discrimination. So, Madam President, we have a glorious history here in Pennsylvania of the Y movement. I think almost every community of any size has a Y. I know in my county there are at least five Ys, and they do become part and parcel of our community.

Now, the Ys, themselves, have survived in part because they have been able to transform themselves and their programs to the needs of the communities today. The Y offers many types of family activities. The Y offers child care. The Y movement also has, as you know, made a special effort to work with middle school students, and in many of our communities actually offers free membership to youngsters who are in seventh or eighth grade in an effort to try to help middle school students develop fully - physically, spiritually, and mentally - as human beings. We also, while it is not their 175th birthday, welcome the Jewish Ys, the Hebrew Ys, that exist in Philadelphia and a number of other communities.

So, Madam President, we celebrate the 175th birthday of the Young Men's Christian Association, and we recognize the Young Women's Christian Association as well, which exists in our communities. We here in Pennsylvania truly wish them a happy birthday, truly express our admiration for all they have done for our communities, for the ability to transform themselves so that they are ever ready to become an essential part of the growth of each and every person within each and every one of our communities.

Thank you, Madam President.

And the question recurring,
Will the Senate adopt the resolution?

A voice vote having been taken, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Senators SCHWANK, LANGERHOLC, FARNESE, COLLETT, DINNIMAN, SANTARSIERO, BREWSTER, KILLION, BLAKE, BROWNE, BAKER, MENSCH, MARTIN, BARTOLOTTA, COSTA, HUGHES and J. WARD, by unanimous consent, offered Senate Resolution No. 181, entitled:

A Resolution designating June 30, 2019, as "Arthrogryposis Awareness Day" in Pennsylvania.

On the question,
Will the Senate adopt the resolution?

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Berks, Senator Schwank.

Senator SCHWANK. Madam President, I must add, though, before I start on my resolution, how nice it is to address a Madam President standing at the helm of our Senate today, the day that we celebrate the passage of the 19th Amendment in Pennsylvania 100 years ago. Very nice to have you there.

(Applause.)

Senator SCHWANK. Madam President, back to the reason I stood up. Today, I and Senator Langerholc are cosponsoring a Senate resolution to recognize June 30 as "Arthrogryposis Awareness Day," or AMC. This is a prenatally developing condition where an infant is born with at least three joints in two different areas of the body that are permanently immobile. This condition arises in 1 in 3,000 births, which is not exactly rare, and it differs from baby to baby. But one thing we know is that hands, wrists, elbows, shoulders, feet, and knees are most often affected. AMC is not curable, but treatments such as surgical interventions and physical, speech, and occupational therapy indicates that individuals who are born with AMC can truly live independent and productive lives. What we hope, through this resolution, is to encourage those who are working on this issue, and also to encourage the research that we need and the kinds of interventions that will truly help individuals' babies who are born with this condition to lead those lives we would like them to lead.

Thank you, Madam President.

And the question recurring,
Will the Senate adopt the resolution?

A voice vote having been taken, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Senators SCAVELLO, J. WARD, DINNIMAN, BREWSTER, YUDICHAK, FOLMER, AUMENT, STREET and TARTAGLIONE, by unanimous consent, offered Senate Resolution No. 182, entitled:

A Resolution designating the month of July 2019 as "Free Community Paper Month" in Pennsylvania.

On the question,
Will the Senate adopt the resolution?

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Monroe, Senator Scavello.

Senator SCAVELLO. Madam President, collectively, free community papers and newspapers disseminate valuable information to more than 50 million homes each week. Free community papers proudly serve the informational needs of the communities across this great land while promoting local commerce, free enterprise, and public service. It is important to note that most, if not all, of our offices benefit from that information that these papers convey to our constituencies. It is fitting that recognition be given to those publications, their owners and staff, for their continued commitment to the growth and success of their local communities through these publications. Please join me in recognizing July 2019 as "Free Community Paper Month" in Pennsylvania.

Thank you, Madam President.

And the question recurring,
Will the Senate adopt the resolution?

A voice vote having been taken, the question was determined in the affirmative.

PETITIONS AND REMONSTRANCES

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Philadelphia, Senator Tartaglione.

Senator TARTAGLIONE. Madam President, today marks 4,733 days since Pennsylvania's legislature last raised the minimum wage. That is 13 years, and it is far too long. Members of this body, and our counterparts in the House, are well aware that every single one of our neighboring States have raised their minimum wage in recent years, as have 29 nationwide. Yet, Pennsylvania lawmakers have refused to follow the lead of our neighbors, just as we have failed to honor the wishes of 70 percent of the Commonwealth's registered voters who agree that minimum wage workers should be making more than $7.25 an hour.

In light of our high rate of poverty and near poverty, our rising cost of living and our stagnant wages, despite a strong labor market, inaction on this issue defies logic and it sets a dubious precedent. With every single passing day, we set a record for the length of time that Pennsylvania's low-wage workers have gone without a raise. Madam President, let me repeat, we are now at 13 years and counting. Sadly, despite the great strides that most States have made on this issue, Pennsylvania's low-wage workers are not alone in their frustration and suffering. Just last week, Federal lawmakers set their own record of minimum wage futility. It has now been 12 years since Congress last raised the Federal minimum wage. That is the longest such period in an 81-year history of the Federal minimum wage.

It is really not difficult to fathom, when you consider that more than 80 percent of the nation's registered voters want a higher minimum wage, while 55 percent support raising it to $15 an hour. Clearly, we cannot rely on the Federal government to bail out our workers this time. For Pennsylvanians, millions of low-wage workers and those from 20 other southern and rural States, for the people who are working two or three jobs just to make ends meet, our inaction on the State level, along with Federal inaction, amounts to double jeopardy.

My legislation, Senate Bill No. 12, would rectify this injustice by reestablishing the Commonwealth as a national leader on minimum wage and by granting millions of Pennsylvanians the financial independence that they have worked so long and so hard to earn.

Thank you, Madam President.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Northampton, Senator Boscola.

Senator BOSCOLA. Madam President, I rise to publicly acknowledge an important 100-year anniversary, and, Madam President, I am so glad you are presiding over the Senate while I talk about this anniversary. It was actually 100 years ago today that women of the General Assembly were given the right to vote, and since that time, women have slowly emerged as an electoral force to be reckoned with. I might say we are finally hitting our stride. Today, we now have more women serving in the House and Senate than ever before. We cannot rest here, and we cannot stop. We need more women to register, we need more women to vote, and we need more women to run for office. We need more women from every walk of life and every corner of this Commonwealth to be part of important policy decisions we make in this Chamber; not only this Chamber, but chambers and boards and councils across this entire country.

Being politically active and involved is truly the best way to celebrate the suffragettes who struggled and sacrificed so much to advance the cause of women in America. Women who are considering being politically active and engaged, I say we need you, and go for it. It is important to acknowledge this anniversary, Madam President, but it is more important that we value the hard work and the rights that we have been given from so many women of the past. I thank them for giving us our right to vote, and I hope as we move forward, we have a strong democracy with more and more women who are engaged.

Thank you, Madam President.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Allegheny, Senator Costa.

Senator COSTA. Madam President, over the course of the past couple of years, and more recently the past several months, my colleagues have witnessed me standing here at the podium talking about an issue that is extremely important to the people of southwestern Pennsylvania as it relates to the delivery of healthcare in those regions, specifically, the concern I have regarding the UPMC and Highmark pending consent decree ending on June 30. Madam President, I am very happy and thrilled to stand here this evening to announce to my colleagues, if you have not already seen, the fine work and the good work of Attorney General Josh Shapiro in bringing together the two sides, Highmark and UPMC, and having them hammer out a historic 10-year agreement that now says that those residents of southwestern Pennsylvania who hold a Highmark card will continue to have access to UPMC facilities in our region. That not only encompasses the Hillman Cancer Center or Western Psychiatric Institute, or also the Children's Hospital in Pittsburgh, it includes all facilities. This is truly a very historic day.

As someone who worked on the original consent decree 5 years ago, along with my good friend and our good friend, Senator Don White, and so many others, it really is a good feeling knowing that the people in southwestern Pennsylvania will not have to agonize about where they were going to be able to receive their healthcare, whether or not they have to make upfront payments, whether or not they can continue to see the physician they want to see, and working through wherever they need to go with regard to facilities. So this is a tremendous day.

There are a lot of folks to thank. First and foremost, as I have mentioned, the Attorney General, for his persistence through the legal process, but also recognizing that it was important to bring the parties together. That is all we wanted to be able to do was get these two entities to the table and hammer out an agreement.

So, I applaud him for the fine work that is being done, and has been done, along those lines. But there are a number of other organizations and individuals who are part of this conversation. The Members here in the Legislature who pushed on the legislative front to try to encourage binding arbitration and trying to create an oversight council to look at these integrated delivery healthcare systems. Everybody played a role. The individual patients and individual folks who told their stories in a variety of settings, whether they came here to Harrisburg, whether they met with folks at the public hearings that took place in Allegheny County, they told their stories. They added their names to the petitions and the list that accumulated some 10,000 signatures of people in southwestern Pennsylvania who shared the concern about being able to have access to good, high-quality healthcare.

I would be remiss if I did not say that the healthcare delivery of these two entities, UPMC and Highmark, is the best that you can find in this world. We will soon have a world-renowned vision center. We already have a world-renowned and recognized cancer facility, the Hillman Cancer Center. Both of these institutions have done great work, and even more recently I learned that Children's Hospital was rated as the eighth best pediatric hospital in the country. These are good institutions with fine people who work there, and I am glad that we were able to get past the point in time where these individuals, people who hold Highmark insurance cards, through no fault of their own in many instances, will continue to have access to this high-quality care, and it continues to be accessible for these folks.

This is really a good day for those of us who come from southwestern Pennsylvania. I was honored to be able to stand at this podium to fight for what I thought was right and what I thought should have been done with regard to how we deliver healthcare, and I am very, very appreciative of the work of the Attorney General and so many others, including Governor Tom Wolf.

Thank you, Madam President.
