SESSION OF 2021 205th OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY

No. 36

SENATE

MONDAY, June 21, 2021

The Senate met at 1 p.m., Eastern Daylight Saving Time.

The PRESIDENT (Lieutenant Governor John K. Fetterman) in the Chair.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Reverend GRANT AMBROSE, of St. Andrew's Episcopal Church, York, offered the following prayer:

Let us pray.

Almighty God, You have given us this good land for our heritage. May we always prove ourselves a people mindful of Your favor and glad to do Your will. Bless our land with honorable industry, sound learning, and pure manners. Save us from violence, discord, and confusion, from pride and arrogance, and from every evil way. Defend our liberties and fashion into one united people the multitudes brought here of many kindreds and tongues. Endue with the spirit of wisdom those to whom in Your name we entrust the authority of government, that there may be justice and peace at home, and that through obedience to Your law, we may show forth Your praise among the nations of the Earth. In the time of prosperity, fill our hearts with thankfulness; and in the day of trouble, suffer not our trust in You to fail. All this we ask in the name of Your son, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair thanks Pastor Ambrose, who is the guest today of Senator Phillips-Hill.

PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE

(The Pledge of Allegiance was recited by those assembled.)

PETITIONS AND REMONSTRANCES

The PRESIDENT. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Lancaster, Senator Martin.

Senator MARTIN. Mr. President, I rise today to speak on Senate Resolution No. 118--sponsored by Senator Corman, Senator Pittman, and myself--to honor and congratulate the Penn State University 2021 Wrestling Team on its second place finish at the NCAA Division I National Wrestling Championship. We celebrate the respective individual wins of several members of that team and also recognize all of the wrestlers who competed in this championship tournament who hail from Pennsylvania.

As mentioned in our resolution, four of the Penn State wrestlers, Roman Bravo-Young, Nick Lee, Carter Starocci, and Aaron Brooks, won individual NCAA titles in their respective weight classes while also earning All-American distinctions. In addition to these personal achievements, the Nittany Lion Wrestling Team sent the most wrestlers of any team to the finals and ultimately saw the most individual champions going 4 for 4.

Mr. President, it is no secret that Pennsylvania has a rich history of wrestling, and that is exemplified by looking at the fact that we saw so many Pennsylvania natives participating in the tournament. Of the 330 wrestlers who competed in this tournament, 50 hailed from Pennsylvania. I would like to acknowledge and congratulate those outstanding wrestlers on their achievements during the NCAA Division I Wrestling Championship. In particular, I want to congratulate Spencer Lee and Michael Kemerer, both from Murrysville; Sammy Sasso from Nazareth; Jake Wentzel from South Park; Trent Hidlay from Lewistown; and Nino Bonaccorsi from Bethel Park for their respective first and second place wins in the tournament.

Mr. President, I ask my colleagues to join me in celebrating and congratulating these young men on their outstanding efforts both on and off the mat, as well as head coach Cael Sanderson and the rest of his coaching staff and to wish them the best of luck as they enter the 2022 season.

Thank you, Mr. President.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Indiana, Senator Pittman.

Senator PITTMAN. Mr. President, I rise to echo the comments of my friend and colleague, Senator Martin, and would like to specifically express congratulations to Mr. Spencer Lee, a graduate of Franklin Regional High School and a former resident of Murrysville. Spencer was actually here in the Capitol a few years ago to be recognized along with the entire Franklin Regional team. His success is quite extraordinary. Spencer is a three-time individual NCAA champion, first securing a championship as a true freshman. He is a winner of the Hodge Trophy award and has served as a very distinguished young man in his career. While he played for the University of Iowa, we will not hold that against him, instead we will embrace and thank him for his success in what he has brought to Pennsylvania. I, too, would like to thank Senator Martin for this proposed resolution and express my congratulations to Mr. Spencer Lee as well.

Thank you, Mr. President.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair recognizes the gentlewoman from Philadelphia, Senator Tartaglione.

Senator TARTAGLIONE. Mr. President, today marks 5,461 days since the Pennsylvania legislature last raised the minimum wage. That is almost 15 years, and it is far too long.

Mr. President, we are now less than 3 weeks away from reaching a terribly dubious and bleak milestone in the history of the Commonwealth and in pursuit of a fair, family-sustaining minimum wage. July 9 will mark the 15th anniversary of the last time we raised the Pennsylvania minimum wage. This is the longest we have ever gone without raising the rate. On July 9, 2006, Governor Rendell formally signed Act 112 into law, which raised the minimum wage from $5.15 an hour to $7.15 an hour. It took an act of Congress 3 years later to raise our minimum wage another 10 cents to the current level of $7.25. But the Leadership of the General Assembly has denied our attempts to ensure that all Pennsylvania workers, especially those on the low end of the pay scale, are paid fairly, relative to economic growth, and the value they provide to their employers.

With the conclusion of yet another fiscal year at hand in the coming days, I want to explain why my current minimum wage legislation, Senate Bill No. 12, is vital to the Commonwealth as we strive to recover from our devastating pandemic and fix our dysfunctional labor market. Senate Bill No. 12 is more than just a $15 minimum wage bill. It includes many components that address our most needed labor market reforms. One of those elements is the elimination of the antiquated sub-minimum wage for tipped earners. Simply put, the tipped minimum wage is a moral and functional failure. Now, in the wake of the pandemic, with so many hospitality and leisure businesses scrambling to find help, we are seeing why the tipped minimum wage should be discarded.

The tipped minimum wage is a relic from the post-Civil War era in America, when industries that commonly employed formerly enslaved people—largely restaurants and railroads—encouraged tipping so they did not have to pay Black employees directly. Instead, workers made their money, or the lion's share of it, from tips. They still do, even today, 159 years after the Emancipation Proclamation and 156 years after the last slaves were freed in Galveston, Texas, an event we now commemorate in our newest national holiday, Juneteenth. Federally, the tipped minimum wage is just $2.13 an hour and has been since 1991. That is 30 years ago. Pennsylvania's rate is not much better at $2.83. This is bad for workers and for customers. Customers are forced to pay the difference between the tipped minimum wage and the regular minimum wage. In Pennsylvania, that means customers pay $4.42 of every worker hour while employers pay only $2.83. If business is slow and the worker is not generating enough tips, then the employer is responsible for paying the difference. But we all know what happens in those situations. The employer simply tells the worker to go home for the day, in which case nobody wins.

Mr. President, therein lies one of the fundamental economic failures of the tipped minimum wage. A weakness that has been vividly exposed by the pandemic. Tip income can be woefully unreliable. Workers are at the mercy of ebbs and flows in the marketplace and the whims of individual customers. If an employer decides to rearrange the work schedule and an employee ends up with an unfavorable shift, their monthly personal expenses do not change. They still must find a way to pay for food, housing, transportation, healthcare, education, child care, and many other necessities. With each passing year, more and more American workers are ending up in this situation. For example, prior to the pandemic, employment in the full service restaurant industry was growing incredibly fast. Between 1990 and 2014, it grew by 85 percent, compared to the 24 percent growth for all private sector employment. It is yet to be determined whether this trend will resume in the post-pandemic year, but as we in Pennsylvania navigate a new course for the future, one that will finally enable many of our lowest paid workers to shed the shackles of our ignominious national past while we recalibrate our wage structure to fulfil the economic needs of the present. Mr. President, I urge my colleagues to advance and adopt Senate Bill No. 12 and thereby end the tipped minimum wage in Pennsylvania.

Thank you, Mr. President.
