

“Albright College supports the LGBTQIA community. In alignment with our core values, mission, and statements of inclusivity and equity, and freedom of expression, we intentionally work toward creating and maintaining a safe and inclusive environment for all members of the Albright community. Albright is committed to equality and respect for all. Discrimination of transgender student athletes and prohibiting participation in intercollegiate athletic competition is intolerable. Albright College stands with transgender student athletes.”

— Janice Luck
Director of Athletics
Head Women’s Basketball Coach
Albright College
Reading, PA (Berks County)