

RELATING TO LEGISLATURE: KEEPING AND PUBLICATION OF JOURNALS

Act of Mar. 24, 1943, P.L. 22, No. 11

Cl. 46

AN ACT

Relating to the journals of the proceedings of the Senate and of the House of Representatives; requiring the keeping thereof and their publication in the Legislative Journal, and abolishing the separate publication of such journals.

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows:

Section 1. The Senate and the House of Representatives shall each keep a journal of its proceedings as now required by the Constitution and laws of this Commonwealth. The Journal of the Senate and the Journal of the House of Representatives shall both be published in the Legislative Journal now provided for by law, which shall serve as the Journals of the Senate and of the House of Representatives respectively, in compliance with the requirements of section twelve of article two of the Constitution.

Section 2. No separate publications shall be made of the proceedings of either the Senate or of the House of Representatives of the legislative session of one thousand nine hundred forty-three, or of any legislative session thereafter.

Section 3. Section eight of the act, approved the ninth day of June, one thousand nine hundred eleven (Pamphlet Laws, eight hundred forty-nine), entitled "An act providing for the preparation, contents, style, printing, and binding of the Legislative Journal, and the preparation, printing, and binding of the Journals of the Senate and House of Representatives; authorizing the appointment of official reporters; typewriters, clerks, and other employes; providing for the making of an appendix and index, the printing of wrappers or envelopes for mailing the Legislative Journal, and repealing all acts or parts of acts inconsistent herewith," and section eight of the act, approved the twelfth day of July, one thousand nine hundred nineteen (Pamphlet Laws, nine hundred forty-one), entitled "An act providing for the preparation, contents, style, printing and binding of the Legislative Journal and its delivery and distribution; providing for the preparation, printing and binding of the Journals of the Senate and House of Representatives; authorizing the appointment of official reporters, expert typewriters, clerks and other employes, and providing for their compensation and mileage; providing for the making of an appendix and index; the printing of wrappers or envelopes for mailing the Legislative Journal; and repealing all acts or parts of acts inconsistent herewith," are hereby repealed.

All other acts and parts of acts inconsistent herewith are hereby repealed in so far as they provide for the separate printing, binding, and distribution of the Journal of the Senate and the Journal of the House of Representatives.

Section 4. This act shall become effective immediately upon final enactment.
