Act of Jul. 30, 1963, P.L. 362, No. 193
AN ACT

Cl. 71

Authorizing an incoming Governor to arrange for temporary staffing to expedite the transition of government, providing authority for appropriations to an outgoing Governor for certain expenses and providing for appropriations in certain years. (Title amended Dec. 19, 1986, P.L.1741, No.211)

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows:

Section 1. In order that there may be an orderly, efficient and economical transition of government following the election of a new Governor, the Auditor General, in the fiscal year during which a new Governor is elected, shall employ such consultants, accountants and experts as shall have been selected in writing by the new Governor who is hereby authorized to fix the compensation to be paid such personnel. Such notice to the Auditor General shall be given at any time after the Secretary of the Commonwealth and the Auditor General have determined the person receiving the highest number of votes for the office of Governor and have informed the new Governor-elect of such determination. Since this personnel is to be engaged for a limited period of time, they shall not be eligible for membership in any of the retirement systems of the Commonwealth, nor shall they be bound by or subject to the provisions of "The Administrative Code of 1929," pertaining to State employees. Such personnel shall be paid from an appropriation made to the Auditor General during the fiscal year when the new Governor is elected. Within thirty days after his inauguration the new Governor shall dispense with the services of the temporary personnel or place such members thereof as he sees fit on the payroll of the Commonwealth in the manner provided by "The Administrative Code of 1929."

(1 amended Dec. 19, 1986, P.L.1741, No.211)

Section 1.1. In order to facilitate the transition of government following the inauguration of a new Governor, the General Assembly is authorized to make appropriations for the security and other expenses of the outgoing Governor for a period of time following the inauguration of the new Governor not to exceed six months. This appropriation shall be made to the Auditor General.

(1.1 added Dec. 19, 1986, P.L.1741, No.211)

Section 2. This act shall take effect November 1, 1963.
