(e) Counties of the second class A.--In counties of the second class A, the prothonotary, the register of wills and the clerk of the court shall set apart from the fees fixed in this subsection or under any other statute and collected by them on the following actions and proceedings and remit monthly the total collected to the county treasurer for the exclusive use and benefit of the public law library in the county if the county commissioners so request and in the amount they so request:

(1) The sum of not less than $5 nor more than $40 for the commencement of any civil action or proceeding.

(2) The sum of not less than $5 nor more than $40 for the probate of a will, the issuance of letters of administration or any petition for disposition of decedents estates independent of the issuance of letters testamentary or of administration.

(3) The sum of not less than $5 nor more than $40 for each misdemeanor or felony case processed by the clerk of courts.

Section 3. Title 42 is amended by adding a section to read:
§ 1725.3. Criminal laboratory user fee.

(a) Imposition.--A person who is placed on probation without verdict pursuant to section 17 of the act of April 14, 1972 (P.L.233, No.64), known as The Controlled Substance, Drug, Device and Cosmetic Act, or who receives Accelerated Rehabilitative Disposition or who pleads guilty to or nolo contendere to or who is convicted of a crime as defined in 18 Pa.C.S. § 106 (relating to classes of offenses) or 75 Pa.C.S. § 3731 (relating to driving under influence of alcohol or controlled substance) or 3735 (relating to homicide by vehicle while driving under influence) or a violation of The Controlled Substance, Drug, Device and Cosmetic Act shall, in addition to any fines, penalties or costs, in every case where laboratory services were required to prosecute the crime or violation, be sentenced to pay a criminal laboratory user fee which shall include, but not be limited to, the cost of sending a laboratory technician to court proceedings.

(b) Amount of user fee.--

(1) Where the prosecution is conducted in a county of the first class or a county of the second class and the county operates a county laboratory that has provided services in the prosecution, the director or similar officer of the county laboratory shall determine the actual cost of the laboratory services provided in the prosecution and transmit a statement for services rendered to the court. If a county of the first class or a county of the second class does not operate a county laboratory and laboratory services in the prosecution were provided by the Pennsylvania State Police, the fee shall be determined under paragraph (2).

(2) Where the prosecution is conducted in a county other than a county of the first class or a county of the second class and a Pennsylvania State Police laboratory has provided services in the prosecution, the director or similar officer of the Pennsylvania State Police laboratory shall determine the actual cost of the laboratory services provided in the prosecution and transmit a statement for services rendered to the court.

(c) Disposition of fees.--

(1) In a county of the first class or a county of the second class that operates a county laboratory, the criminal laboratory user fee shall be paid to the county and shall be used solely for operation and maintenance of the county laboratory. If a county of the first class or a county of the second class does not operate a county laboratory, the criminal laboratory user fee shall be paid into the Criminal Laboratory User Fee Fund created under paragraph (2).

(2) In a county other than a county of the first class or a county of the second class or where a county of the first class or a county of the second class does not operate a county laboratory, the criminal laboratory user fee shall be paid into a special nonlapsing fund of the State Treasury, which is hereby established and shall be known as the Criminal Laboratory User Fee Fund. Money in the Criminal Laboratory User Fee Fund is hereby appropriated to the Pennsylvania State Police and shall be used solely for operation and maintenance of Pennsylvania State Police criminal laboratories.

(d) Other laws.--The criminal laboratory user fee shall be imposed notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary.

Section 4. Chapter 83 of Title 42 is amended by adding a subchapter to read:

CHAPTER 83
PARTICULAR RIGHTS AND IMMUNITIES

SUBCHAPTER H
DRUG NUISANCES

Sec.

- 8381. Short title of subchapter.
- 8382. Definitions.
- 8383. Action to abate.
- 8384. Complaint.
- 8385. Service of original process.
- 8386. Preliminary injunction.
- 8387. Protection of witnesses.
- 8388. Security.
- 8389. Judgment and remedies.
- 8390. Violation of injunctions or abatement order.
- 8391. Release and cancellation.
- 8392. Severability.

§ 8381. Short title of subchapter.

This subchapter shall be known and may be cited as the Drug Nuisance Law.

§ 8382. Definitions.

The following words and phrases when used in this subchapter shall have the meanings given to them in this section unless the context clearly indicates otherwise:

"Community-based organization." Any group affiliated with or organized for the benefit of one or more communities or neighborhoods, or any group organized to benefit the quality of life in a residential area.

"Controlled substance act." The act of April 14, 1972 (P.L.233, No.64), known as The Controlled Substance, Drug, Device and Cosmetic Act.

"Drug-related nuisance." The use of any property, in whole or in part, which facilitates or is intended to facilitate any violation of the act of April 14, 1972 (P.L.233, No.64), known as The Controlled Substance, Drug, Device and Cosmetic Act, or similar act of the United States or any other state.

"Manufacture" or "manufacturing." The production, preparation, propagation, compounding, conversion or processing of a controlled substance, other drug or device or the packaging or repackaging of such substance or article, or the labeling or relabeling of the commercial container of such substance or article, but does not include the activities of a practitioner who, as an incident to his administration or dispensing such substance or article in the course of his professional practice, prepares, compounds, packages or labels such substance or article. The term "manufacturer" means a person who manufactures a controlled substance, other drug or device.

"Owner." An individual, corporation, partnership, trust association, joint venture or any other business entity in whom is vested all or any part of the title to the property alleged to be a drug-related nuisance.

"Property." Any tangible or intangible property, including an interest in any leasehold, license or real estate, such as any house, apartment building, condominium, cooperative, office building, store, restaurant, tavern, nightclub or warehouse, and the land extending to the boundaries of the lot upon which the structure is situated and anything growing on, affixed or found on the land.

"Tenant." A person who resides in or occupies real property belonging to another person pursuant to a lease agreement or common law tenancy.

§ 8383. Action to abate.

Wherever there is reason to believe that a drug-related nuisance exists, the district attorney, the Attorney General, if requested by a district attorney, the solicitor for the county or municipality, a resident within 1,000 feet of the property, including a tenant of the property, the owner of property or any community-based organization may file an action in the court of common pleas to abate, enjoin and prevent the drug-related nuisance. Such actions shall be commenced by the filing of a complaint alleging the facts constituting the drug-related nuisance.

§ 8384. Complaint.

(a) Adverse impact.--The complaint or an affidavit attached thereto shall describe the adverse impact associated with the drug nuisance upon the surrounding neighborhood. Adverse impact includes, without limitation, the presence of any one or more of the following conditions:

- (1) Diminished property value.
- (2) Increased fear of residents to walk through and in public areas, including sidewalks and streets, increased volume of vehicular and pedestrian traffic to and from the property.
- (3) An increase in the number of ambulance or police calls to the property which are related to the use of drugs or to violence stemming from illegal activity.

(4) Increased noise, bothersome solicitors or approaches by persons wishing to sell drugs or solicit the donation of money on or near the property.

(5) The display of dangerous weapons on or near the property.

(6) The discharge of firearms on or near the property.

(7) Search warrants served on tenants or occupants of the property which resulted in the seizure of drugs.

(8) Investigative purchases of drugs on or near the property by law enforcement officers.

(9) Arrests of person on or near the property for violation of criminal laws.

(10) Housing code violations relating to the property.

(11) Health code violations relating to the property.

(12) Accumulated trash and refuse in common areas on or adjacent to the property.

(13) An unsecured entryway on the property.

(b) Attempts to notify owner.--The complaint shall contain a description of what attempts, if any, have been made by the plaintiff or any other person or entity to notify the owner of the property of the drug-related nuisance or resulting adverse impact.

§ 8385. Service of original process.

(a) General rule.--A copy of the summons and complaint shall be served upon the defendant at least five business days prior to the first hearing in the action. Service of original process shall be made in accordance with the Pennsylvania Rules of Civil Procedure.

(b) Posting at property.--If personal service cannot be made, service may be made by posting the papers at the property. If service is made by posting at the property, a copy of the summons and complaint shall be mailed registered mail to the last known mail address, if any, of the defendant. Actual receipt of the registered mail shall not be required for service.

§ 8386. Preliminary injunction.

Upon the filing of a motion for preliminary injunction to abate the drug-related nuisance, the plaintiff shall be entitled to a hearing on the motion for preliminary injunction within 10 business days of the filing. If it shall be made to appear, by affidavit or otherwise, that there is a substantial likelihood that the plaintiff will show at trial, by a preponderance of the evidence, that drug-related nuisance exists, the court shall enter an order preliminarily enjoining the drug-related nuisance and granting such other relief as the court may deem to be appropriate, including those remedies provided for in section 8389 (relating to judgment and remedies). Whenever possible, the court shall order the trial of the action on the merits advanced and consolidated with the hearing of the motion. This section shall not be construed to prohibit the application for or the granting of a temporary restraining order.

§ 8387. Protection of witnesses.

At the time of an application for the issuance of a restraining order or an injunction if proof of the existence of the drug-related nuisance depends, in whole or part, upon the affidavits of witnesses who are not law enforcement officers, upon a showing of prior threats of violence or acts of violence by any defendant or other person alleged to be involved in the drug-related nuisance, the court may issue orders to protect those witnesses, providing for nondisclosure of the name, address or any other identifying information pertaining to the witnesses, and such other and further relief as the court may deem appropriate.

§ 8388. Security.

No bond shall be required to issue a preliminary injunction or special injunction sought by the district attorney or the solicitor for the county or municipality. A bond in an amount fixed and with security approved by the court may be required to issue a preliminary injunction or special injunction when the plaintiff is not the district attorney, the Attorney General or a solicitor for the county or municipality. Where such relief is issued after an evidentiary hearing at which witnesses are subject to cross examination, the court shall not require a bond in excess of $500.

§ 8389. Judgment and remedies.

(a) Burden of proof.--The plaintiff must establish that a drug-related nuisance exists by a preponderance of the evidence.

(b) Relief.--If the existence of a drug-related nuisance is found, the judgment may include actual damages and a temporary or permanent injunction to restrain, abate and prevent the continuance or recurrence of the drug-related nuisance. The court may grant declaratory relief, mandatory orders or any other relief deemed necessary to accomplish the purposes of the injunction or order and enforce the same, and the court may retain jurisdiction of the case for the purpose of enforcing its orders.

(c) Additional remedies.--If the existence of a drug-related nuisance is found, the court shall have the power additionally to fashion any one or more of the following remedies:

(1) Assess costs of the action against the defendant.

(2) When a governmental agency is a plaintiff in the action, assess a civil penalty against the defendant of not less than $500 nor more than $10,000.

(3) Order the owner to clean up the property and make repairs upon the property.

(4) Suspend or revoke any business, professional, operational or liquor license.

(5) Order the owner to make additional reasonable expenditures upon the property, including, but not limited to, installing secure locks on doors, increasing lighting in common areas and using videotaped surveillance of the property and adjacent alleyways, sidewalks and parking lots.

(6) Order all rental income from the property to be placed in an escrow account with the court for up to 90 days or until the drug-related nuisance is abated.

(7) Order all rental income for the property transferred to a trustee, to be appointed by the court, who shall be empowered to use the rental income to make reasonable expenditures upon the property in order to abate the drug-related nuisance.

(8) Order the suspension of any State, city or local governmental subsidies payable to the owners of the property, such as tenant assistance payments to landlords, until the nuisance is abated.

(9) Allow the plaintiff to seal the property with the cost of sealing payable by the defendant.

(10) Order the defendant to pay the plaintiff the cost of the suit, including reasonable attorney fees.

(d) Factors to consider.--In making an order under subsection (c), the court shall consider, among others, the following factors:

(1) The number of people residing at the property.

(2) The proximity of the property to other residential structures.

(3) The number of times the property has been cited for housing code or health code violations.

(4) The number of times the owner has been notified of drug-related problems at the property.

(5) The extent and duration of the drug-related nuisance at the time of the order.

(6) Prior efforts or lack of effort by the defendant to abate the drug-related nuisance.

(7) The availability of alternative housing for tenants of the building.

(8) The extent of concern about the drug-related nuisance that has been expressed by nearby residents or visitors to the area.

(9) The owner's involvement in the drug-related nuisance.

(10) The owner's involvement in other drug-related nuisances.

§ 8390. Violation of injunctions or abatement order.

(a) Contempt.--A violation of any court order issued under this subchapter is punishable as a contempt of court by a fine of not less than $500 nor more than $75,000. The court may order the sheriff or other proper officer of any county to take into custody and commit to jail any person fined for a contempt until the fine shall be paid or discharged. If unable to pay the fine, the person may be committed to jail by the court for not more than three months. Evidence concerning the duration and repetitive nature of the violations shall be considered by the court in determining the contempt penalties.

(b) Additional orders.--In addition, upon finding that a defendant has willfully violated a court order issued under this subchapter, the court shall be also empowered to issue any additional orders necessary to abate this drug-related nuisance.

§ 8391. Release and cancellation.

(a) No knowledge and abatement.--The court may suspend the effectiveness of an order of abatement for no more than 90 days if the owner of the property establishes that he had no knowledge of the drug-related nuisance and could not reasonably be expected to have such knowledge and the owner avers that he will immediately undertake specified measures to abate the nuisance and prevent it from being a drug-related nuisance for the following two-year period.

(b) Fines and bond.--The courts shall cancel the order of abatement if the owner of the property pays all fines and liens against the property, satisfies the court that the drug-related nuisance has been abated for the past 90 days, corrects all housing code and health code violations and posts a bond in an amount to be determined by the court, which will be immediately forfeitable if the drug-related nuisance recurs during the following one-year period.

§ 8392. Severability.

If any provision of this subchapter or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid or unenforceable, the remainder of this subchapter or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances shall not be affected.

Section 5. (a) The following acts and parts of acts are repealed:

Section 24 (e) and (e.1) of the act of July 9, 1976 (P.L.586, No.142), known as the Judiciary Act of 1976.

42 Pa.C.S. § 1725.

Act of July 11, 1980 (P.L.643, No.133), entitled "An act fixing the fees to be received by the prothonotary of Philadelphia County."

(b) All other acts and parts of acts are repealed insofar as they are inconsistent with this act.

Section 6. The addition of 42 Pa.C.S. § 1725.3 shall apply to offenses committed on or after the effective date of this act.

Section 7. This act shall take effect as follows:

(1) The addition of 42 Pa.C.S. section 1725.3 shall take effect immediately, except that section 1725.3(b)(2) and (c)(2) shall take effect January 1, 1994.

(2) This section shall take effect immediately.

(3) The remainder of this act shall take effect in 60 days.

APPROVED--The 14th day of December, A. D. 1992.
