

REPEALS - OBSOLETE LAWS RELATING TO ANNEXING ADJACENT TERRITORY
Act of Nov. 24, 1998, P.L. 809, No. 101
AN ACT

CL. 88

Repealing certain acts as being obsolete.

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows:

Section 1. The following acts are repealed:

Act of April 22, 1903 (P.L.247, No.183), entitled "An act enabling the burgess and council of any borough or incorporated town, by ordinance, to annex to the borough or incorporated town adjacent territory, upon petition of a majority of the freehold owners thereof."

Act of May 6, 1915 (P.L.272, No.167), entitled "A supplement to an act, approved the twenty-eight day of April, one thousand nine hundred and three, entitled 'An act for the annexation of any city, borough, township, or part of a township, to a contiguous city, and providing for the indebtedness of the same,' by providing that any city, heretofore or hereafter enlarged by any annexation under the terms of said act, shall be liable for and shall pay the indebtedness of such city and the territory so annexed; and providing for the levying of a uniform tax upon all the territory included within such city as enlarged by such annexation, for the payment of all such indebtedness."

Section 2. This act shall take effect immediately.
