- "Emergency service." Any health care service provided to an enrollee after the sudden onset of a medical condition that manifests itself by acute symptoms of sufficient severity or severe pain such that a prudent layperson who possesses an average knowledge of health and medicine could reasonably expect the absence of immediate medical attention to result in:
- placing the health of the enrollee or, with respect to a pregnant woman, the health of the woman or her unborn child in serious jeopardy;
 - (2) serious impairment to bodily functions; or
- serious dysfunction of any bodily organ or part. 24
- 25 [Emergency transportation and related emergency service provided
- by a licensed ambulance service shall constitute an emergency 26
- service.] A health care service provided by a licensed ambulance 27
- service, with or without emergency transportation, shall 28
- 29 constitute an emergency service.
